PROPOSED LEASE OF THE CANAL.

A delegation representing the recent canal convention at Hagerstown and the interests of the Western Maryland counties affected by the suspension of traffic on the C. and O. canal presented to the board of public works on Tuesday last a proposition for the lease of the canal by private parties, with the view to its management on strict business principles, apart from politics. Gov. Jackson and Treasurer Archer, who represented the board, expressed themselves favorably towards the scheme and promised to lend their efforts for its successful consummation.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

Special Correspondence.

E. S. Mitchell, the Commissioner of Patents, has filed with the Secretary of the Interior the preliminary report for the operations of his bureau for the year ending June 30, 1889. There were received during the year 36,740 applications for patents, 808 applications for design patents, 401 applications for registration of trademarks, 772 applications for registration of labels and 2,325 caveats, making a total of 42,147.

The number of patents granted during the year, including reissues and designs, was 22,518; number of trade marks registered, 1,111; number of labels registered, 312; making a total of 22,941. The number of patents withdrawn for the nonpayment of final fees was 2,858; number of patents expired, 11,920. The receipts from all sources during the year aggregated $1,186,557; expenses, including printing and binding, stationery and contingent expenses, $999,697; leaving a surplus for the year of $186,860, which makes the total amount in the United States Treasury, to the credit of the patent fund $3,514,526.

A comparative statement shows that the receipts of the office were $63,663 in excess of those of last year, while the expenditures were $45,967 in excess of those of 1888. At the close of the fiscal year 1888-'89, the business of the Patent Office, says the report, was in a satisfactory condition as compared with the former years. The examinations and applications for patents carried on in twenty-four of the twenty examining divisions has been brought up to within two months of that date, and of the remaining six divisions one-half were less than three months in arrears.

This is a satisfactory showing as compared with former years. The commissioner believes, however, that the arrears in all the divisions can be practically done away with at an early date through the cordial co-operation of the force with the commissioner. An earnest plea for better facilities is made, and, as an illustration of the crowded condition of the office, the commissioner cites a room occupied by the twenty-eighth division, which has 19x23 feet of floor space, and in it are nine desks, occupied by nine men and women, besides book and file cases, which extend around the entire room.

The commissioner says that an opinion has found expression that the policy of the Patent Office in adjudicating upon questions arising in the granting of patents should conform more clearly to the decisions of the Federal courts. In conclusion, the commissioner says that he can not close his report without directing attention to the fact that some of the employees of this bureau are grossly underpaid.

The most conspicuous instance of this character is the compensation of principal examiners, who are experts of the highest order. Their duties call for superior legal ability. They now receive $2,400 per annum, which is regarded as grossly incommensurate with the value of the services rendered. He asks that the principal examiners of the Patent Office be fairly and fully paid.

LETTER FROM BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 26.—The new City Hospital which has been in course of erection for nearly two years past, is almost completed, and will be ready for occupancy in a few days. It is a beautiful structure and admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended. It occupies a splendid site in the heart of the city, convenient to the City Hall, new United States Court House and Post Office and other Government and City buildings. It has a frontage of 114 feet on North Calvert st. and runs back to a small street in the rear. It is five stories high. The architectural design is imposing. The accommodations are of the most recent and best approved character. The public wards are 76 by 27 feet, and are well lighted and ventilated. There are also accommodations for 30 private patients. The cost of the structure was about $150,000. It is in charge of Sister Mary Benedicta of the Sisters of Mercy and the physicians of the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

About the newest thing under the sun in Baltimore is the organization of a society for furnishing a physician and medicine to its members. Its officers are well known citizens. The prospectus states that it is the pioneer of all medical aid societies and this is probably correct. It relieves, it claims, the suffering and pays the claim without litigation or delay. Persons between the ages of 15 and 60 years are insurable. No one who does not possess a good moral character will be admitted to membership and members can have one of the Society's physicians or their own as they may prefer.

Three "Druses" have arrived in Baltimore. They are members of an isolated and peculiar sect who have lived for many generations near Mount Lebanon, Syria. The number of the race is set down at 40,000. These people are divided into two classes, the elect and the ignorant. The elect are the high priests and the ignorant are those who are too young and inexperienced to be initiated into the mysteries of their religion. The high priests guard the mysteries of their faith zealously and tolerate neither Hebrew nor Christians. The ignorant are far less conservative and frequently mingle socially with believers in their creeds. The elect Druses are confident too, that the number of orthodox Druses can never decrease or increase.

No death has occurred here for a long time has occasioned more regret than that of Col. Allan, the popular superintendent of the McDonogh Institute near Baltimore. Major Richard Venable who was an intimate friend and served with him in the Confederate Army said to me a day or two since. Had Col. Allan been in the enjoyment of good health some years ago and accepted an offer made to him by the late Mr. John W. Garrett he would have risen to be one of the greatest railway managers in the country. I carried the offer to him myself said Major Venable, Mr. Garrett asked him to become a vice-president of the B. & O. and he would probably have accepted but his physicians advised him that much railway traveling would result in an early death. His misfortune said Major Venable was McDonogh's fortune, for he made it one of the best institutions of learning for boys in the United States.

The British tank steamship Russian Prince which recently cleared from this port with a load of petroleum in bulk has been chartered for three years to the Rothschilds as a freight steamer. She is a monster steel vessel of 2102 tons register 310 feet long, 40 feet beam and 28 feet depth of hold. She has a capacity of 26,000 barrels or 1,300,000 gallons of oil. The Russian Prince was built at Newcastle, England, in 1868 by Sir William G. Armstrong.

Catarrh Can't be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucus surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucus surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has been suggested as the successor in Congress of the late Hon. S. S. Cox.

THE annual report of the building inspector shows that there are over 42,000 buildings in the District of Columbia.

DISTRESS after eating, heartburn, sick headache and indigestion are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It also creates a good appetite.

The commission to select a site for another navy-yard on the Pacific coast has chosen Point Turner, on Port Orchard, Puget sound. The South Atlantic yard, it is thought, will be located at Algiers, La., near New Orleans.

THE police commissioners have ordered the chief of police to suppress the Salvation Army in Kansas city. The order was issued on account of the numerous cases of peace disturbance at the army's headquarters.

A FRIGHTFUL accident happened at Carnegie's Edgar Thomson Steel Works at Braddock last night. Capt. W. R. Jones, general manager of the immense steel works, and a number of workmen were horribly and perhaps fatally burned.

A WOMAN was found in the basement of Mount Vernon Church, New York, on Saturday night in a dying condition and as she did not recover consciousness before she ceased to breathe it was impossible to learn anything from her of the mystery surrounding her presence in the place or who she was, though examination after death revealed the fact that she had died from starvation and there was evidence of her having occupied the place for at least two months. Her clothing was fine and she had some money in her purse, proving that she could have procured the means of living if she had so desired and the inference is that she was insane on the subject of religion and voluntarily refrained from food as a religious duty. There is no clue to her identity.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the face, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. See our testimonials, which are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them grew to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Naughton, N. J.

ATTENTION is called to the adv. of the Hagerstown Fair which appears in this issue. The prospects for a big exhibition were never brighter than they are for this year, and there are prospects of a large increase of exhibits on all previous occasions. This fair is composed of the County Associations of Washington and Carroll, Md., Franklin and Adams, Pa., Berkeley and Jefferson, W. Va., and Washington City, D. C.

Wine Magazine for October has an unusual number of attractive engravings illustrative of the different articles contributed. Joseph Thomson tells of his wonderful journey across the continent of Africa in a very interesting article entitled "How I Crossed Masai-Land." Donald Mitchell in "A Scattering Shot at Some Ruralities," describes the decay of New England farm life; Professor N. S. Shaler furnishes some practical suggestions as to the improvements of of electricity in naval warfare; Charles Sprague Smith in "A Summer in Ireof the social customs of the people in that faraway land; Edward J. Lowell

Master of Ballantyne" is concluded.
William McKendree Bangs has a short story called "The Miniature," there is a short story by Francis Doweridge entertaining reading. Published by Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in action on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

The Frederick Times says Mr. Wm.
M. Martin, formerly of Loy's Station, but now of Chesapeake City, will be public school in this place some years ago.

The C. & O. Canal Company boat, above this place was offered at public sale on Monday last, by Constable Eckis, to satisfy a claim of Benj. F. Grosh, Sr., against the canal company for labor. It was bid up to forty-dollars and knocked off to a Mr. Gardner, who has been occupying it as a residence since the flood.
The advantage Mr. Gardner will have if he secures this for a dwelling, is that as long as there is water in the canal he can change his residence to different localities as his fancy dictates.—Washington Leader.

Grapes for Health.

The use of ripe grapes for dinner is of incalculable benefit to the human system, and the Pure Grape Juice, properly preserved, is invaluable for weakly persons and invalids. The Port Grape Wine and the Grape Juice preserved from his own vineyard, by Alfred Speer of New Jersey, is pronounced by the leading medical experts to be the most reliable to be obtained. To use the Unfermented Grape Juice is just like eating the ripe sweet grape.

REV. N. T. RICHARDSON, an aged and much esteemed clergyman of the Lutheran Church, died at his home, in mainly brain trouble. Dr. G. A. Richardson, his son, and Dr. E. T. Bishop were his physicians. Mr. Richardson was his 69th year. He was pastor of the Lutheran Church in Lovettsville, W. Va., for many years, and removed from that place to Smithsburg, where he preached for ten or twelve years.

He was obliged to give up his work a few years ago on account of bad health.

Peculiar.

In the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

a general revival of trade at all Drug tomers of so many free trial bottles of Dr.

Another Monument.

The recent unveiling of the monument to the memory of Gen. Reno on South Mountain, has revived interest in the proposed shaft on the Monocacy battle field to preserve the memory of the conflict waged there between the Union and rebel forces in July, 1864.
At the recent national encampment of the G. A. R. at Milwaukee, the question of the erection of this monument was considered at one of the secret meetings of the organization and it was positively decided to aid in the project. The Vermont veterans are especially interested in the scheme, as they had many comrades in the fight at Monocacy. The site upon which it is proposed to erect the shaft will enable it to be readily seen from the passing trains between Baltimore and Washington via the Metropolitan branch.—Frederick Times.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully praised. Hence it is that so much is heard in case of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health, to the use of the Great Alternative and Tonic.
If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at all Druggists.

Swept by the Tide of Popularity
To the utmost pinnacle of success, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stand as shining proof of what genuine merit, backed by the living force of proven facts, can attain. The North and South American continents, Europe, Australia, the West Indies, Guatemala and Mexico have all contributed wide patronage and testimony of the most favorable kind—but unsolicited—to the fame of this sterling remedy. Among the maladies for which the most convincing proofs of its efficacy are furnished, are bilious remittent, dumb ague, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, debility, kidney and bladder complaints. It mitigates the infernal fires of age, hastens convalescence, has a tendency to prevent ill consequences from exhaustion. Persons of sedentary habits and laborious occupations will find it an ever useful tonic.

effect is more serious than you expected, and while one saves the young lady the other remains with the policeman to use such means of restoring him to life as your practical experience suggests. Well, upon my honor, such evidence as that is bound to convict you, and I can scarcely hope to save you. However, you had better let me see this young woman at once. If we can prove her guilt your acquittal is assured."

"Then you shall not see that young lady," cried Hinton, in a fierce fury. "Good God, sir, if you think I'm going to get out of the difficulty by shifting my responsibility on to the shoulders of a woman you are most damnably in error."

"Then you may prepare for twenty years of penal servitude," said Kennet, brutally.

IV.

In all probability he should have got the punishment Kennet prophesied but for an event that never entered into our calculations.

The young lady with the iron bracelet had assured Hinton that in three days or four at the outside she could clear her character if only she was secured from reappearance in the interval. The infuriated young man sent her to his mother at St. Albans with a touching letter that appealed to the old lady's sympathy—of course she regarded her son as faultless in all things. The young lady was treated as an honest guest. The first thing she did was to send telegrams to two friends in London.

When the servants came down in the morning they found the street door, which had been carefully bolted over night, open and the plate gone. Later on they found that the lady with the iron bracelet was missing also.

In the evening a man was arrested on suspicion of having committed the burglary. At the examination I identified him as the navy I had seen in the carriage on the morning of the murder. A phial of chloroform was found in his pocket, and he was recognized by the police as one of a gang who, in conjunction with a young female of fashionable exterior and prepossessing appearance, had been concerned in a series of burglaries for which the "young female" had been apprehended at Stevenham.

The lady with the iron bracelet is still at large, and I trust my friend Hinton may never see her again, for nothing has cured him of his folly in regarding her as the hapless victim of a diabolical conspiracy.

A Simple Remedy for Lung Troubles.

It has long been known that pine needle pillows would alleviate persons afflicted with lung troubles, and a Florida editor relates an incident in support of the fact as follows: During a visit to the home of a most estimable lady living on Indian River this editor was told of a discovery that had been made which may prove a boon to sufferers from lung or bronchial trouble. This lady having heard that there was peculiar virtue in a pillow made from pine straw and having none of that material at hand made one from fine, soft, pine shavings, and had the pleasure of noting immediate benefit. Soon all the members of the household had pine shavings pillows, and it was noticed that all coughs, asthmatic or bronchial troubles abated at once after sleeping a few nights on these pillows. An invalid suffering with lung trouble derived much benefit from sleeping upon a mattress made from pine shavings. The material is cheap and makes a very pleasant and comfortable mattress, the odor of the pine permeating the entire room and absorbing or dispelling all unpleasant odors.

Strawberry Planting.

Almost all plantings of small fruits, fruit trees, shrubs, hardy plants, etc., we think are better in the Fall, if properly done, than at any other time.

But above all things strawberries planted now from pot-grown runners, will pay better than waiting until spring. Don't wait. If you have none at present, make your ground as rich as you can afford and set out 100 or 200 plants. Set them a foot apart and next spring cover the ground with a mulch of straw.—Maryland Farmer.

The original national flower was the Mayflower.—Chicago Herald.

"Is this the Adams House?" asked a stranger of a Bostonian. "Yes," was the reply, "it's Adam's house until you get to the roof—then it's eaves."

"FATHER," said Willie, who had just been corrected, "that strap is hereditary, isn't it?" "I don't know that it is." "But it descends from father to son, doesn't it?"—Washington Capital.

The phonograph is to be used in the teaching of elocution in St. Joseph's Academy, at Greensburg. It magnifies defects of enunciation, and at a recent test a pupil honestly tried to repudiate as not his own a speech it had recorded. He could not believe he was so faulty.

The way the tide of man's constitution runs, that way the wind of temptation blows. Satan tempts the ambitious man with a crown, the sanguine man with beauty, the covetous man with a wedge of gold. He provides savory meat such as sinners love.—T. Watson.

SOMETIMES a moderate amount of attention will accomplish important results. The owner of a farm was asked for a school lot, for a house to be erected. In selling it he made the provision that a dozen deciduous and a dozen evergreen trees should be planted and kept in good growing condition, and till this was the case, seven dollars a year should be paid to him by the school trustees. They paid the penalty but once; and now handsome trees and comfortable shade distinguish the premises, while other school houses in that region of country are marked for their baldness and neglect.

Light in the Sickroom.

Still a custom prevails, despite all our sanitary teachings, that the occupant of the sickroom in the private house should be kept at all hours in a darkened room. Not one time in ten do we enter a sickroom in the daytime to find it blessed with the light of the sun. Almost invariably before we can get a look at the face of the patient, we are obliged to request that the blinds may be drawn up, in order that the rays of a much greater healer than the most able physician can ever hope to be may be admitted. Too often the compliance with this request reveals a condition of room which, in a state of darkness, is almost inevitably one of disorder everywhere; foods, medicines, furniture, bedding misplaced; dust and stray leavings in all directions.

In brief, there is nothing so bad as a dark sickroom; it is as if the attendants were anticipating the death of the patient; and, if the reason for it be asked, the answer is as inconsistent as the act. The reason usually offered is that the patient cannot bear the light; as though the light could not be cut off from the patient by a curtain or screen, and as though to darken one part of the room it were necessary to darken the whole of it. The real reason is an old superstitious practice, which once prevailed so intensely that the sick, suffering from the most terrible diseases, smallpox, for instance, were shut up in darkness, their beds surrounded with red curtains, during the whole of their illness. The red curtains are now pretty nearly given up, but the darkness is still accredited with some mysterious curative virtue.

A more injurious practice really could not be maintained than that of darkness in the sickroom. It is not only that dirt and disorder are results of darkness, a great remedy is lost. Sunlight is the remedy lost, and the loss is momentous. Sunlight diffused through a room warms and clarifies the air. It has a direct influence on the minute organic poisons, a distinctive influence which is most precious, and it has a cheerful effect upon the mind. The sick should never be gloomy, and in the presence of the light the shadows of gloom fly away. Happily the hospital ward, notwithstanding its many defects, and it has many, is so far favored that it is blessed with the light of the sun, whenever the sun shines. In private practice the same remedy ought to be extended to the patients of the household, and the first words of the physician or surgeon on entering the sickroom should be the dying words of Goethe, "More light, more light!"—B. W. Richardson, M. D., in Scientific American.
