ing of injury to their corn crops by the incessant rains.

AMONG the jurors drawn for the December term of court is Absalom Smith

THOSE who want steady work can get a good paying job by reading the "ad." headed "work for the winter." nov223

THE directors of the Gettysburg National Bank, on Tuesday elected Mr.
J. W. Kenefick, teller, in place of Mr.
Charles M. McCurdy, resigned.

THE vacancy in the pastorate of the Lutheran church at Chambersburg, caused by the resignation of Rev. A. S.
Hartman, has been filled by the acceptance of Rev. E. H. Leisenring, of Lewisburg, Pa., who will assume charge on the 1st of January.

WITH its issue of this week the Westminster Advocate will begin the publication of the names and dates copied from all the tombstones in the various cemetaries in Carroll county. Thus names and dates that are fast being obliterated will be preserved for history.

A CORRESPONDENT from Littlestown requests the publication of the following: "Two dashing young dudes from Mechanistown, just fresh from the Jatest fashionable tailor's, a Sunday or two ago, called on two young ladies in the vicinity of Littlestown, and tampered so boldly with the small hours of the night that the paternal parent had to rap them to rest. Too bad boys, after such a long drive through the mud."

Fine Instruments on Fine Ships.

As to music, the owners of the City of Paris, City of New York and Teutonic have shown the same consideration for the comfort of their passengers that they have in everything else. The two former ships are each provided with an upright piano by Mason & Hamlin, furnished in a superb case of cherry inlaid in birdseye maple, the design harmoniz-ing beautifully with the room itself.
These pianos contain the improved mode of stringing, invented and patented by Mason & Hamlin, which is said to peculiarly fit them for withstanding the ravages of the sea. The Paris and New York are each provided with a two manual pedal base organ, also by Mason & Hamlin, furnished in an exquisitely chaste case of white enamel. The salon of the Teutonic contains a piano and also one of those marvellously beautiful and artistic instruments, viz. the Liszt organ, by Mason & Hamlin. The case of this instrument is truly a work of art. It is of old oak, highly polished, with trimmings in gold and dark brown, the total effect harmonizing beautifully with the architecture of the room. It is to be regretted that American can boast no such ships as these, but it is some comfort to the patriotic that the magnificient instruments on these ships are all of American make.—N. Y. Sun.

The article on the first page of this issue by Mr. Chas. M. McCurdy, on the Gettysburg National Bank will be found very interesting, especially to our older readers.

Fine Porkers.

Mr. Peter Hoke killed four hogs on Tuesday which weighed respectively 356, 354, 323 and 316 lbs., total 1349.
They were weighed just before killing and tipped the beam at 1550 lbs., losing less than 13 lbs. on the hundred in killing and cleaning.

If the gentleman whose lips pressed the lady's snowy brow and thus caught a severe cold had but used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, no doctor's bill would have been necessary.

Some genius proposes to introduce paper shirts. Wearing paper shirts means bearing rheumatism. With Salvation Oil, however, paper shirts might still be a success. Price 25 cents.

Manufacturing at Frederick.

The Frederick Daily News of Monday describes the plans of a new manufacturing enterprise for that place. It seems that Mr. H. G. Welty of New York City, a bridge contractor, who has been temporarily located at Frederick for some time has decided to make that place his permanent home, and has secured several acres of ground on which he will erect buildings and engage extensively in the manufacture of materials for building iron bridges. Mr.
Welty will be sole owner and operate the works himself.

Kinging Noises.

In the ears, sometimes a roaring buzzing sound are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh.
Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood. If you suffer from catarrh, try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the peculiar medicine.

Why Not Have a Foot Log.

It is well known that the bridge over Flat Run on the Gettysburg road is of little or no account when the water is low, the approaches thereto being too rough to drive over, and when the old run gets high, the bridge is of no account, because people can't get to it.
During or after small freshets it is a common thing to see several people standing on the north side of this bridge waiting for some one to come along with a horse and assist them over.
There are a good many residents in the section north of this stream who don't keep horses and are in the habit of walking to town. A foot log at this point would be of great service to them and could be put up at a small cost.
Flat Run, as its name implies, has no banks, and a rain that is hardly noticeable on other streams causes it to flow around the bridge, which at best is only about half as long as it should be.

Dr. Gale on Vice-ces of the Kidneys.

Dr. Gale observes in his treatise on disease that the great use of wine in France is supposed to have abated the prevalence of the gravel.

In some parts of this country where Speer's Port Grape Wine is principally used, not only the gout, but the gravel is scarcely known. Dr. La Porta relates as an extraordinary instance of the effects of Speer's Port Wine on gout the cure of Dr. Davenport, who was attacked with it at the age of twenty-five, and had it severely till he was upwards of fifty, with chalk stones in the joints of his hands and feet, but for four years preceding the time when his case had been given to Dr. La Porta to lay before the public had by advice used Speer's Port Grape Wine, and had no return of the gout after wards.—London Post.

Democratic Jollification.

The democrats of this district held a jollification meeting and torchlight procession on Saturday evening. The procession was an unusually large one for an "off year," as this is called. The line was formed at the railroad depot with Chief Marshal W. B. Ogle and two of his aids in the lead. Then followed the Emmitt Cornet Band, next fifteen ladies mounted on gray horses with gentlemen escorts, delegations from different sections and neighboring towns appearing in order. The Harney Band and a drum corps, also furnishing music.
There was a large number of transparency bearing different mottoes relating to the campaign. The parade moved from the depot across the square and up Gettysburg street, down Green street to Federal, Federal to East Main street, then proceeding the entire length of the town, countermarching at the west end, returned to the Opera House where it disbanded. At the Opera House the meeting was organized by calling Hon.
Joseph Byers to the chair, and addresses were made by Vincent Sebald, Esq., of this place, and E. L. Boblitz, Esq., of Mechanistown, the latter being one of the democrats elected to the House of Delegates. The music at the meeting was furnished by the Emmitt Cornet Band and the Harney Band.

A Successful Book For Agents.

The rush of agents for Mary A. Livermore's famous new book, "My Story of the War," is unprecedented, and its sale is increasing every day. This magnificiently illustrated work is not, as might be supposed from its title, a history of the war, but is Mrs. Livermore's own accounts of her four years' personal work and experiences as a nurse in hospitals, camps and on the battle-field.
Of course the book is full of the most profound pathos, and the Christian Woman truthfully says of it, "We are not how deep the well may be, tears will be drawn from it and fall upon these pages." Its sale offers to men and women a rare opportunity to make money.
It is published by A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., who advertise for men and women agents in another column of this paper.

We are informed by one who has kept a record there have only been 40 days during the past ten months when rain did not fall in this vicinity.—Hanover Citizen.

We are in receipt of a communication addressed to "The Road Commissioners," as follows: "Query—What is the matter with fixing up the road leading from the toll gate to Maxell's Mill? It is a disgrace to the county."

Despise the very best attention bestowed upon the baby, it will grow sick and troublesome by reason of colic, diarrhoea, teething etc. Do not fail, then, to use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup.
Price 25 cts.

It is within the reach of all for 25 cents; we mean Laxador, the golden specific for dyspepsia, indigestion and jaundice. At all druggists.

The final order of the court in the case of Miss Harriet Morrison has been filed. The order confirms the injunction and appoints Messrs. John C. Motter and Robert Biggs a committee of her personal estate, and they gave bond in the sum of $20,000.

The Weather.

It has rained here almost without intermission since Sunday morning last.
The roads are in a terrible condition and the creeks full to overflowing. On Monday evening Tom's Creek was so full that Mr. E. T. McBride, whilst returning from his school, had to be carried across the stream at Hartman's mill on a horse.

Syrup of Figs.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

At a meeting of the Ministerial Association arrangements were made to hold the above service in the Lutheran church of this place, on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, at 10 a. m. The sermon is to be spoken by the Rev. U. H. Heil-man. The usual collection will be lifted. The Christian public is cordially and earnestly invited to attend this service.

Fine Celery.

Mr. S. R. Grider has uncommonly fine celery this year and is prepared to fill orders for the same on shortest notice. He has our thanks for several bunches of this celery, which were over three feet in length and several inches in circumference. It is bleached for over two feet of its length. Just to think friends, a piece of celery two feet long, crisp, delicious and as white as snow.

Improvement.

Mr. James A. Helman is having the eastern end of the McDevitt property converted into a store room. The back part has been torn out and an addition built to it.

Smith, Son & Co., are converting the eastern portion of the old Rowe property, opposite this office, into a coach shop.
Rowe Bros. have completed the improvements to their store, with the exception of putting in the glass, and have had the whole front repainted.

Western Maryland R. R. Thanksgiving Holiday Excursions.

On November 27th and 28th, the Western Maryland Railroad will sell Round Trip Excursion Tickets, between all stations, at the low rate of two cents per mile. These excursion tickets will be good to return until Monday December 2, 1889. An economical opportunity is thus offered to visit friends and exchange the greetings of the season and will no doubt be appreciated by residents all along the line of the Western Maryland Railroad.

From the Gettysburg Compiler.

Last Thursday the death of two of the most estimable ladies of this place occurred. Mrs. Ann M., wife of Mr. Samuel Faber, at 120 a. m., and Mrs. Sarah J., wife of Mr. J. Lawrence Schick, at 3 p. m. Both had been invalids for some time. Mrs. Faber's death being caused by rheumatism and Mrs. Schick's from a gradual giving way of the nervous system, producing paralysis. Mrs. Faber's age was 60 years 6 months and 24 days, Mrs. Schick's 60 years, 3 months and 13 days.

Mrs. Ann M., widow of George Arnold, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. Charles Horner, on Sunday morning, of pneumonia, aged 82 years, 4 months and 10 days. She was one of the oldest citizens, and though on account of increasing age not very active in recent years, many can attest to the kindly offices performed in the more active period of her long life.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of real estate have taken place in this county, as recorded in the Clerk's office for the week ending November 19:

zer, lot in Emmitsburg, $1,100. Geo.
H. Shank and wife to Mary S. Donsife, half of lot and house in Woodsboro', $300. Joseph D. Baker to Loudoun County and Frederick Bridge Company, abutments, piers, &c., of the bridge at Point of Rocks and several small parcels of land, &c., $15,000. George W. Hilton and wife to Louis Frizell, one acre of land, $100. Sophia K. Schultz, executrix, et al., to Joseph Groff, lot of ground in Frederick City, $71. Wm.
R. Steiner and wife to Calvin A. Rhodes, the west side of the Woodsboro' pike, $275. Wilson N. Martz and wife to John A. Dean, 11 acres, 1 rod and 28 square perches land, $110. John C.

Motter, trustee, to John B. Brawer, 6 acres, 1 rod and 20 perches land, premises,

As interesting letter from Blue Ridge Summit arrived too late for publication in this issue. It will appear next week.

We hope all our readers will have abundant cause for thankfulness on Thursday next in the enjoyment of the good cheer and pleasant neighbourly intercourse which belong to the proper celebration of the day.

More Stealing.

On Monday night thieves made a raid on Mrs. Linn's premises about half a mile north of this place, broke into the cellar and carried off about half of a beef that had recently been salted away, and also took ten fine turkeys.
We have not heard of any clue to the thieves.

Thanksgiving Day.

Governor Jackson has issued his proclamation appointing Thursday November 28, to be a day of thanksgiving, thus following the custom of reaffirming the date of Thanksgiving Day as set by the President of the United States.
All people are asked to close their places of business and repair to their places of worship to give thanks for the bounties enjoyed.

Get Your Gun Ready.

Nearly every week lately we have a case or two of stealing to report. It seems as though these robberies are being carried on systematically, and in every case it is shown that the thieves are well acquainted, not only with the premises, but also the movements of their victims. In the case of Mrs.
Linn's robbery recorded in this issue, it is quite evident that one person didn't carry off half a beef and ten turkeys, and that the movements of the family were understood is evident from the fact that her residence is not near any public road. A load of bird shot well directed would do a good deal towards breaking up this thing.

Pretty Wedding.

Rev. E. Luther DeYoe of this place was married to Miss Jennie M. Mc-Knight, daughter of Rev. Dr. Harvey D. McKnight, President of Pennsylvanian College at 1 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father assisted by Rev. Dr. C. A. Hay, pastor of Christ Church, Gettysburg, in which the ceremony was performed. The bride party entered the church to the music of the "wedding march" from Lohengrin, performed by Miss Alice K. Baugher, who presided at the organ. Miss Mary Mc-Knight sister of the bride served as bridesmaid and Dr. J. W. Eichelberger, Jr., of this place, as groomsmen. The ushers were Dr. C. D. R. Miller, State Line, Pa., Prof. Huber G. Buehler, Gettysburg, Mr. Herbert C. Allen, of the Theological Seminary, Mr. C. B.
Fager, of Harrisburg, and Mr. Joseph E. Hoke of this place. The bride was attired in a beautiful white satin dress on train, the groom in conventional black. The wedding party retired from the church to the strain of Mendels-son's "Wedding March." After the ceremony a brilliant reception was held at the President's residence on the campus. Mr. and Mrs. DeYoe left on the four o'clock train for an extended trip to Baltimore, Philadelphia, Cape May, New York, Boston and other points.

THE CHORAL UNION.

The writer of this is very much interested in the prosperity and permanency of this Union. It is doing a most excellent work in this community. The fact is well known that the study and practice of music are of a refining and educating character. It is to be feared that many of our citizens do not fully recognize and appreciate the praiseworthy work which is being done in this direction. It should be encouraged in every possible way by all who are interested in the welfare of our young ladies and gentlemen. This may be done by visiting its sessions, which are open to all well-behaved persons, and by encouraging the young to take an active part.

It is certainly to be regretted that not more of our young people belong to this Union. The statement is most confidently made that they do not understand what they are missing. There are at least one hundred young ladies and gentlemen in our village who should take advantage of the golden opportunity which is here offered for their use.
The expense is the very trifling, and the benefits which would accrue to them cannot be estimated. We shall therefore be very glad to learn that the attendance and the interest in this institution have greatly increased. The town needs something of this kind, and the young need the musical and social stimulus which the Union furnishes.

This communication cannot be concluded without a word of commendation of the able and worthy conductor, Dr. J. K. Wrigley. No one will question his ability to fill the place which he occupies. If we are not misinformed his time and services are freely given without any compensation. This is indicative of a generous disposition and a ready hand to carry forward what is for the benefit and pleasure of those who enjoy his instructions. The young ladies and gentlemen of our town and community can do nothing better than rally around the Choral Union.

EMMIT S. BURG.

The Chamber of Torture

Is the apartment to which the unhappy sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism is confined. If the crisis of pain is reached, that fine preventive, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is used by persons of a rheumatic tendency, much unnecessary suffering is avoided. Nerves, anodynes and sedatives, whilst having none but a specific effect, are yet very desirable at times. Yet can they produce no lasting effect upon rheumatism, because they have no power to eliminate from the blood the rheumatic virus. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does this, and checks at the outset a disease which if allowed to gain headway, it is next to impossible to dislodge or to more than relieve. Rheumatism, it should be remembered, is a disease with a fatal tendency on occasion. It is the result of a morbid action to the Bitters should, therefore, be prompt.
Dyspepsia, kidney complaint, malaria and nervousness are relieved by it.

The last meeting of the present Board of County Commissioners will be held next week, beginning on Monday. The notice with full particulars appears in another column.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

The Ladies Benevolent Society of the Reformed Church will hold their annual dinner on Thanksgiving Day, in the east end of the McDevitt property, recently purchased by Mr. Jas. A. Helman. A turkey dinner with the usual accompaniments will be served for 30 cents. The public is cordially invited.

Does Advertising Pay?

Messrs. G. W. Weaver & Son, the leading dry-goods firm of Adams county told us last Tuesday that their business has increased so much during the past year, through the extensive use of printer's ink, (and a fine stock) that, notwithstanding the large increase in advertising space, etc., their advertising really cost them but 1 per cent of their sales. How's that, old fashioned merchants of Adams county? Yes, you hate to be called that, but nevertheless that's the name. You can't find a live, pushing merchant of to-day that don't advertise, and pay as much attention, almost, to his advertising as he does to his business. It cost Messrs. G.
W. Weaver & Son $500 the first year to advertise in the different newspapers of the county, but they are now reaping their reward. This year it will cost these gentlemen at least $1,000 for advertising, yet they told us they didn't rue a single cent spent in that way.— good will of the community towards the paper. May the same be extended to the Chronicle is the wish of its Delta correspondent.

The mercantile establishment of Wm.
E. Williams, one of the oldest and largest in this section, came very near being destroyed by fire on the night of the 8th of November, by the accidental fall of a lamp. Only the greatest promptitude and activity prevented a conflagration.
