

YOUNG AMERICA IN MARYLAND.

The convening of the Maryland Legislature and the inauguration of the new Governor are likely to absorb public interest for awhile, all the more so, from the fact, that executive honors have fallen on so young a man, and that the legislative body, on whose wisdom and foresight so much depends, is also largely composed of young men, eager to win their spurs in the contest for fame and honor, to say nothing of their determination to right the political wrongs of My Maryland in the interests of the party by which they were elected.

The tide of public sentiment seems, everywhere, to be turning in favour of young blood and young brains in the management of affairs whether of business, church or state, and the wisdom which is supposed to come with experience and gray hairs counts but little in competition with energy, push, advanced thought and the general "Young America" development which brooks neither obstacle nor delay.

Times must change with changing years and with them, thoughts, customs and demands must change and it may be that younger men are better fitted to meet the new requirements than those who having learned their lessons long ago cannot be expected to take up the new and revised edition of life's work which must be studied from a different standpoint from that which they once occupied.

Success then, to young Farmer Brown whose strong hand now grasps the reins of State and success to the young Legislators who are entering the arena glowing with patriotic fire and determined to make the present administration a bright and shining light in the political firmament.

An ex-member of the General Assembly from Carroll county is preparing a bill for submission to the Legislature, to make several changes in the law relating to jurors in that county. Among the suggestions made to him is one, the wisdom of which we question, that of reducing the per diem of jurors to two dollars. The growing tendency to shirk jury duty will only be increased by reducing the pay. Juries should be composed of the best men available and these can never be secured until they are fully compensated for the loss of time from business sustained while engaged thereon.

Mr. EDWIN BELL, one of the oldest newspaper men in Maryland, has retired from the Hagerstown Mail, with which he has been connected since 1867. Mr. Bell has been engaged in newspaper work, with short interruptions for about fifty-six years. Mr. Richard J. Hamilton, eldest son of Gov. Wm. T. Hamilton, and Mr. James T. Briscoe, Jr., have purchased a controlling interest in the stock of the Mail Publishing Company. The former will be editor of the paper in the future, and the latter will be business manager.

MARYLAND, among other things, needs a better road law, and the county members of the legislature should not let this escape their memories.—American.

BRAZILIAN REVOLT.

Citizens Shot Down by Prosl. Peikoff's Soldiers—Many Yellow Fever Victims.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The United States and Brazil mail steamship Seguranga arrived at Quarantine yesterday from Brazil, with a number of lives lost of wholesale deaths from yellow fever and bullets at Santos, Brazil. The Seguranga brings the first information of a bloody engagement between the government soldiers and the people of Santos in which a number of lives were lost. On Dec. 17 the government sent a military governor to Santos to replace the former governor. The people opposed this action as a species of tyranny and oppression. Public meetings were held, the military governor was denounced and the citizens began to organize themselves into armed bands. When the military governor, surrounded by troops, appeared in the streets, the revolutionary feeling of the people broke loose and the storm was soon raging.

The soldiers endeavored to disperse the gathering of citizens and were pelted with stones and sticks. The soldiers then, endeavoring to fire on the people. They did so, and a dozen of the citizens fell dead and a number wounded. The revolutionists gave way, but quickly gathered again and made an obstinate resistance. The troops then charged upon the people and drove them from street to street. Many of the revolutionists fell pierced with bayonets and bullets. A pitched battle took place between the troops and the citizens and one of the plazas, and the din of musketry and the cries of the wounded filled the air. The citizens fought stubbornly, but had to give way before the soldiery. When the tumult finally subsided it was found that there were thirty revolutionists dead and from seventy-five to one hundred wounded.

While the soldiers were killing by violence the terrible scourge of yellow fever was no less busy in thinning out the population. The Seguranga reports that the mortality was increasing daily. Among shipping men the dread epidemic was especially felt. Whole crews were stricken and seamen were dying every day. On one of the vessels, the ship's crew of three died in one day. Death and desolation were prevalent throughout the stricken town, and shipping business was almost completely paralyzed. In many cases vessels could not be unloaded, as labor could not be obtained on account of the yellow fever.

SENATOR SHERMAN.

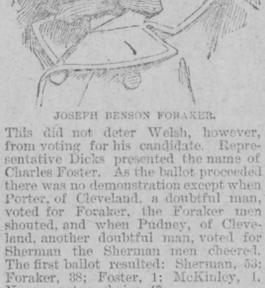

COLUMBIA, O., Jan. 7.—As expected the Foraker and Sherman men first locked horns in the senatorial caucus last night on the question of how the ballot should be taken—secret or viva voce. The Foraker men pressed a secret ballot, on the ground that it had been charged that a number of members were being coerced. They wished, they said, to relieve all members of constraint. The Sherman men contended that each member represented a constituency, that he was supposed to voice their wishes, and they should have the privilege of knowing whether he represented them or misrepresented them.

JOHN SHERMAN.

Fully an hour was spent in debate on this question. The vote stood 47 in favor of the viva voce vote to 44 for a secret ballot. It was thus evident that some Sherman men wanted a secret ballot, and some excitement followed the vote.

Senator Nichols presented the name of Senator Sherman in an eloquent speech, dwelling upon his record as a financier. Representative Griffin presented the name of ex-Governor Foraker, expatiating upon his soldier record. Numerous seconding speeches to both these nominations were made. Representative Welsh presented Major McKinley's name, but it was soon after withdrawn by a telegram from Major McKinley.

JOSEPH BENSON FORAKER.

This did not deter Welsh, however, from voting for his candidate. Representative Dicks presented the name of Charles Foster. As the ballot proceeded there was no demonstration except when Porter, of Cleveland, a doubtful man, voted for Foraker, the Foraker men shouted, and when Pudney, of Cleveland, another doubtful man, voted for Sherman the Sherman men cheered. The first ballot resulted: Sherman, 53; Foraker, 38; Foster, 1; McKinley, 1. Necessary to a choice, 47.

After the vote was announced both Sherman and Foraker were brought to the hall. Senator Sherman spoke first, and after thanking the members of the caucus complimented Mr. Foraker upon his fight, saying it was the hardest fight he had ever entered and he hoped he would never have him for an opponent again. Ex-Governor Foraker spoke in a good natured way, saying he did not foresee when he entered the fight that it would be the hardest fight John Sherman has to fight the whole United States.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

Condensed Report of Proceedings in Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The resumption of the session in the Senate was a pretty full attendance. Among the bills presented were: By Mr. Dolph, banking appropriations for the purchase of sites for fortifications; by Mr. Higgins, making appropriations for the payment of the French spoliation claims; by Mr. Peffer, to establish a bureau of irrigation and to prescribe the duties thereof; to increase the circulating notes by issuing treasury notes, based on gold and silver coin and bullion, and to amend the coinage laws accordingly; to amend the revenue laws, to prohibit options, trusts and combinations; by Mr. Daves, for the adjustment of accounts of mechanics and workmen under the eight-hour act; the bill proposed the following amendment to the constitution of the United States: "No person of foreign birth not a citizen of the United States shall be eligible for any office, State or national." B. W. Perkins, Senator Plumb's successor, took the oath of office, as did Senator Vance. In the house the day was consumed in discussing the necessity of publishing the printing of private bills, and it was decided that 100 copies of each should be printed. A message from the President was received. Mr. Mills was granted indefinite leave of absence. Mr. McMillin is speaker pro tem, owing to the illness of Speaker C. L.

These proceedings were followed by the extension debate followed the presentation of the Senate joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the navy to transport contributions for the relief of the sufferers in Russia, and amendment by Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, appropriating $100,000 as a relief fund was defeated, and the resolution providing for transportation was finally indefinitely postponed by a vote of 56 to 37. In the Senate, among the bills presented was one by Mr. Passo granting pensions to the soldiers of the Seminole and other Indian wars, and one by Mr. McPherson for the purchase of the original telegraphic recording receiver. The Senate bill introduced by Stewart, providing for the free coinage of gold and silver bullion was taken up, and Mr. Morrill addressed the Senate in opposition.

Imitations, and counterfeits of Dr. Pierce's medicines, though sold at lower prices than the genuine medicines, are clear at any price. Beware of them. Old bottles are refilled, new ones tampered with, all sorts of substitutes offered at "cut prices," by unscrupulous dealers, who are not authorized to sell Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines. Don't be deceived by them.

These genuine, well-famed remedies are now sold only through druggists, regularly authorized as agents, and under a positive guarantee of benefit or cure, or money refunded. The makers take all the risk. Practically, they sell them to you for free. On these liberal terms, the genuine guaranteed medicines can be sold only at these long-established prices: Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (the remedy for all diseases arising from a torpid liver or impaired blood), $1.00 per bottle. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (the remedy for woman's weaknesses and ailments), $1.00 per bottle. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets (the original and best Liver Pills), 25c. per vial. But sold in this way, and at these prices, they're the cheapest medicines that you can buy, for you pay only for the good you get.

SECRETARY BLAINE ILL.

A Slight Attack of Indigestion Causes Alarm at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Great excitement was caused in the Department of State yesterday by the report that Secretary Blaine had been taken suddenly ill while at work in his office. The report proved to be true, but every precaution was taken to prevent the fact becoming public.

Surgeon General Browne, of the navy, whose office is in the same building, was summoned and was promptly in attendance. Another physician from the war department was also on hand in a few minutes, and the secretary's condition, Mr. Blaine was made to feel comparatively comfortable. His daughter, Miss Hattie, was informed of his condition and was soon at his side, and he was taken home in a carriage.

The alarm was given first, but subsided when the secretary was reported as resting easily, and as being entirely out of danger. The sudden illness was caused wholly by an attack of indigestion, the result of some imprudence at breakfast.

Anarchy in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 7.—There is a movement of anarchy throughout Coal Creek valley, and another outbreak of looting and bloodshed is expected every moment. The following has been circulated among the miners to rouse them to action:

"The convicts shall never gain a foothold here again. Our prayer must be, blessings on our own people and destruction to the convicts, the leesees and the state militia. We must act with prudence and give the law its due. We must cause a death sentence of anarchy—we must stand together. One hundred and sixty-seven men think they will intimidate us. Shall we endure it? Never. The time to strike comes more for our families and homes is almost at hand." The state troops are preparing for the outbreak which they feel confident sure to come.

Dr. Graves Convicted.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 4.—Dr. Thatcher Graves, who is charged with the murder of Josephine B. Barnaby, at 10 o'clock Saturday night, was declared guilty of murder in the first degree. It is now stated that Mrs. Graves is insane, and it is believed by some that there is no chance of her recovery. The doctor and every effort was made to cheer the heartbroken woman. Mrs. Graves' physician says that with quiet and rest there is a chance of her recovery. Judge Furman has prepared his motion for a new trial for the doctor, and will present it this afternoon.

Swept by a Cyclone.

PAYETTEVILLE, Ga., Jan. 7.—This town was visited by a terrible cyclone Tuesday night. Three people were killed, a number of others injured and the little town was almost swept out of existence. A path three hundred yards wide was swept through the town, and for three miles east of it the devastation continued. The cyclone cloud is described as a mile wide, funnel-shaped and constantly illuminated with lightning flashes. The dead so far reported are: William Travis, a farmer, 30 years old; Sallie Grayson, 10 years old, and a negro child not yet identified.

Fatal Head End Collision.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 7.—A head end collision occurred between a freight and accommodation train and a light engine on the New York, Ontario and Western railroad, about a mile north of Saugerties, Chenango county. The accident resulted in the killing of three men, Engineer Frederick A. Young, of Utica; Engineer Martin Shedy, of Oswego; Fireman Albert Cady, of Norwich. Both engines struck and were badly wrecked, and were blown into twisted scrap heaps of iron.

Corbin Gets Another Road.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—A meeting of the directors of the New York and New England railroad was held at the office of the company in the Farmers' Loan and Trust building. Mr. Austin Corbin was elected president of the road in place of Mr. J. A. Postwick. Messrs. French, Nicholson and Blair, of the board of directors, resigned. Messrs. Corbin, Prince and Parsons were elected to fill the vacancies.

Ten Dead in the Hold.

HALF CENTURY, N. S., Jan. 7.—The fishing vessel belonging to La Croix, of St. Pierre, Miquelon, sailed for the banks last summer. While at anchor on the banks a heavy gale capsized her. Tuesday she was found by a tug and taken to St. Pierre. She had on board ten men and the water pumped out of her. Ten dead men were found in her hold. She had sailed with a crew of seventeen.

A Peaceful Outlook.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The Chilean situation continues apparently peaceful. Secretary Blaine himself has stated within the past few hours to a close friend that he believes the matter will now be peacefully settled.

MARYLAND MATTERS.

ELKTON, Md., Jan. 6.—George H. and Julia Pitt and Charles Johnson, all colored, were given a hearing at Delaware City and held for Noah Benson's murder, state yesterday for the late trial. J. E. Slaughter, one of the Southern express robbers, was convicted at Savannah, Ga. It is generally thought he will get the full extent of the law—twenty years in the mines.

Irving Jenking, colored, is under arrest at New Smyrna, Fla., charged with killing four persons at the Packwood residence, near that place. Evidence is strong against him.

An explosion in Dublin Castle, the official residence of the Viceroy of Ireland, was blamed on the physical force party in that country, but the chief of police of Dublin says it was possibly caused by gas.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 7.—United States commissioner Randall dismissed a charge of mutiny, preferred by Captain J. W. Richardson, against the schooner Maggie C. Lawrence, against his crew, James Billinger, Benjamin Zuller, David Kihol and John Gallagher, who had refused to work. The arrest was made by United States Deputy Marshals A. P. Bowers.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 4.—Naval Cadet A. J. Cruise, of Pennsylvania, of the fourth class, who was dismissed last year for refusing to inform on a cadet charged with hanging, and who was reported to have committed suicide, was held for Christmas leave, and, being refused, he took it, leaving the academy on Christmas evening and not returning until Sunday.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 4.—Andrew J. Nicholson, a prominent citizen and member of the banking firm of A. J. Nicholson & Co., while conversing with some customers in the office of the firm, suddenly dropped dead. He was apparently in excellent health, and his death was a great shock to his family and friends. The deceased was 50 years of age, and leaves a widow and five sons.

FREDERICK, Md., Jan. 5.—William S. Bantz died here suddenly yesterday of heart failure, in the 73d year of his age. He belonged to a well known Frederick family. He was three times married. He leaves eleven children, among them Henry Bantz, of Baltimore; J. Brunner Bantz, Deer Park, Md.; Daniel Z. Bantz, Cumberland; Mrs. G. W. Caslow, of Annapolis; Mrs. V. Frank Bantz, Bloomington, Md.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 7.—That Senator Gorman is the favorite of a majority of the Democratic members of the Maryland legislature was shown in a poll taken by members of the Baltimore American. The result, with a few members uncertain, is about as follows: House of delegates, 45 for Gorman, 25 for Cleveland; senate, 7 for Gorman, 13 for Cleveland. The Republican members of the legislature were about evenly divided between Harrison and Blaine.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 7.—President C. F. Meyer, of the Baltimore and Ohio, has appointed Major J. D. Badley comptroller of the company. He will have general supervision of the accounting of the several departments, and the general supervision of the accounting of the subsidiary companies. He will also perform other such duties as may be assigned him from time to time by the president, to whom he will report.

THOMAS MILBERY, a young colored man employed by Maj. O. A. Horner, was shot in the finger by the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was handling last Saturday afternoon. His injury is very slight.

Persons intending to make sale this spring will do well to select their dates and send the same in once. We have opened our register, and all persons having sale bills printed at this office will receive a free notice in the same.

The name of N. H. Downs still lives, although he has been dead many years. His Elixir for the cure of coughs and colds has already outlived him a quarter of a century, and is still growing in favor with the public. For sale by James A. Elder.

THE January Eclectic is full of excellent reading. Dr. Tuckey's article on "The Applications of Hypnotism" discusses one of the most interesting subjects of the period. Sir Charles Robinson, in his paper "On Spurious Works of Art," writes on the deceptions and shams of the art world. Those interested in the great Biblical controversy will find the discussion of the "Fourth Gospel" a most interesting contribution. We have a subject by an English clergyman. Dr. Arabella Kenaly writes on the woman question from a statistical standpoint. There are three literary studies in the papers on George Meredith, Rudyard Kipling, and the late Mrs. W. D. Howells. Two articles germane to the season in a "Mistletoe Bough," and "Sparks from a Yule Log." "The Elegie," a short story, choice poems, short essays, and a popular science paper, "Mud," round out a very readable issue. As the January issue begins a new volume, it is a favorable time to subscribe to this valuable periodical.

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE for January gives us a portrait of Washington Allston for a Frontispiece, "Paris Theatres and Concerts" are made the subject of a lengthy article by Wm. F. Apthorp, the first part of which in this number treats of "The Comedie Francaise and the Odeon." Frederick Smyth writes of "Crime and the Law," "A Day with the Donkey-Boys" is entertainingly described and illustrated by E. H. and E. W. Blasfield. "Kharma Revisited," by Henry Lansell, D. D., describes the changes in manners, customs, etc., during the six years intervening between his first and second visit; there is some unpublished Correspondence of Washington Allston. "The Wrecker," by Robert L. Stevenson and Lloyd Osbourne, is continued. "Parthen Revisited" is by H. E. Krehbiel. Wm. A. Coffin furnishes his first paper on "American Illustration" of today. "The Doctor's Relative" is a short story by Karl Erickson; there are several fine poems and "The Point of View" embraces "Men's Work—Poetry Under Old and New Regime and Retribution for Russia."

is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is manifested every day in the remarkable cures this medicine accomplishes. Druggists say: When we sell a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to a new customer we are sure to see him back in a few weeks after more—proving that the good results from a trial bottle warrant continuing its use. This positive merit Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses by virtue of the peculiar combination, proportion and process used in its preparation, and by which all the remedial value of the ingredients used is retained. Hood's Sarsaparilla is thus peculiar to itself and absolutely unequalled in its power as a blood purifier, and as a tonic for building up the weak and weary, and giving nerve strength.

Journalists.

That excellent newspaper, the Westminster Standard, begins its sixtieth volume last week. We wish it continued success.

The Gettysburg Standard and Sentinel entered its nineteenth year this week. It may well be said to be enjoying a vigorous old age.

The Banner of Liberty entered its forty-second volume last week, and its editor remarks that it is in as prosperous condition as at any time since its establishment. We trust that it may pass many more successful years.

The Littleton Independent has been enlarged and the name changed to the Adams County Independent. The change was made says editor, Allemen, because the Independent has the largest circulation of any paper in the county.

The Philadelphia Times Almanac for 1892, reached us this week, and a hasty perusal of its contents shows it to be a valuable addition to our collection of works for reference. It contains information of value to persons in every line of business.

The Frederick Weekly News appeared last week as a twelve page paper and announces its intention to continue that size. On Saturday the Daily appeared in an eight page edition. Such enterprise as the News continually exhibits is deserving of our commendation.

The Valley Register says: "From numerous letters received from old patrons of the American Farmer there seems to be great aversion on their part to the proposed change from a semi-monthly to a monthly, and in deference to the sentiments of the majority, the management has determined to continue The Farmer as a semi-monthly, and it will be issued on the 1st and 15th of every month."

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

Mrs. George Spaulding of Baltimore is visiting in this place.

Mrs. Joseph Banty whose illness with typhoid pneumonia was reported last week, died on Saturday. Her funeral took place on Monday. Mr. Banty has recovered from the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel K. Hostetter of Lancaster, are visiting this place. The guests of Mr. Hostetter, are Mr. and Mrs. Shulley made a visit to Mrs. John Butt, at Glen Wood Mills.

The holidays having passed and the new year begun, the most noticeable change hereabouts is the scarcity of poultry, nearly all that was available having been shipped away during the season. However, there are some turkeys on hand yet, and Mrs. Samuel Dubs has the finest lot that can be found in a day's ride. They are of the large kind.

N. G. Wilson, A. D. C., of Gettysburg, has declined from his quarters to install the officers of James Dixon Post, No. 83, G. A. R., of Fairfield, failed to put in an appearance on the night of the meeting. In his absence, Commander F. Shulley appointed J. E. Low, S. V. C., as installing officer, and he proceeded with the duty, acquitting himself in a satisfactory manner.

Norman, a son of Mr. Henry Muselman, took a load of apples to McClintonstown one day last week, and on the way home met with an accident which resulted in breaking his right leg above the knee. He had been riding on the lazy board and jumped off to get hold of the line, and in doing so, missed his footing and fell under the wagon, both wheels passing over him, with the above result. Drs. A. P. Beaver and J. E. Glenn went for and they reduced the fracture. The young man is getting along as well as could be expected.

The large barn and corn house on the "Valley Farm," belonging to the McCarty estate, near Frederick, were destroyed by fire last Wednesday evening. A large amount of hay, and a lot of valuable agricultural implements were consumed and 20 head of cattle and 8 head of mules perished in the flames.

A special meeting of the Maryland Class of the Reformed Church was held at Hagerstown Wednesday afternoon to determine whether the pastoral relations between Rev. Mr. Carman, of Keechville, and the congregation, should be dissolved. The class decided that Mr. Carman should remain in his present charge. Mr. Carman resigned as pastor some time ago and his consistency refusing to accept his resignation, the matter was referred to the class.

Master Stephen Pagenhardt, a youthful mechanic of Westernport, Allegany county, has nearly finished the miniature locomotive, "Little Maryland, No. 1," which he wishes to exhibit at the World's Fair at Chicago. The length of the track to be used will be 125 feet, with a regular 7 1/2 lb. miniature. It has one "Mark II" injector and one "Columbia" boiler. The size of the fire box is 6 1/2 by 4 inches. The height from track to top of smoke-stack is 17 inches, and it will have a five-eighth American steam boiler. The steam-gauge, the size of a silver quarter of a dollar, is made for pressure of sixty pounds. Although it will be run with thirty pounds of steam, it is only one-half horse power, and the weight is 148 pounds, length of the engine and tender being 54 inches. The cylinder is 2 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches, and the height of driving wheel is 5 1/2 inches. There are twenty-three one-half inch flues under the boiler, the diameter of which at the smallest rim being 5 1/2 inches. The wheels are of brass, and the boiler and other parts of steel and brass. It is a complete engine and tender, and it has undergone critical tests by the chief of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, who passed many encomiums on the skill of the youthful builder and designer, Young Pagenhardt will shortly exhibit it in Baltimore and Philadelphia. The Pullman Car Company have offered to construct a train of vestibuled sleepers, and the Westinghouse Company want to have their car brake attached, but the details for the latter deal have not been arranged yet.—American.

Beaver of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive therefrom. Use Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

WORLD'S FAIR LETTER.

The Congress of the United States, or at least a great majority of its members, will spend Feb. 22, 1892, Washington's birthday, in Chicago.

That, at least is the announcement made by Secretary Dickinson on his return from Washington; where he went with Director Lawrence to extend the invitation of the World's Fair City.

"I saw and had personal interviews with more than one hundred congressmen," said Col. Dickinson, "and in nine cases out of ten they favored making the trip.

And what is more, most of them promised to work for an adjournment to Chicago on Washington's birthday. When we left Washington we had practical assurances that a good big majority of the senators and members would be out to Chicago.

I have just now sent them their formal invitations. Two or three special trains will be employed to bring the Congressional party out here.

They will leave Washington Friday morning and reach here next day. They will be driven in carriages about the city until evening when a grand banquet will be given at one of the big hotels.

On Sunday the visitors will probably go in a body to listen to a sermon by some distinguished Chicago divine. On Monday, Washington's birthday, they will be taken to the Exposition grounds where in thirty minutes' inspection they can learn more of the great show than can be told them in thirty days' talk at Washington.

There is the utmost satisfaction and good feeling among the officers of the exposition over the World's Fair Committee which Speaker Crisp has appointed in the House of Representatives. It is a committee that is practically sure to do everything possible for the Fair.

Its Chairman Allen C. Durbrow, is a Chicago congressman, who has always been actively interested in the work of the fair. Ex-Gov. McCree of Kentucky, who is second on the committee, is a warm supporter of the fair, as indeed most of the others on the committee have announced themselves willing to be.

It is hardly possible that the request for a $5,000,000, appropriation will receive much of a set-back from that committee, for several of them have already declared in favor of it. All the exposition officials save one, who went to the great Delmonico World's Fair spread in New York city have returned to Chicago greatly pleased with the whole affair.

tor of the Exposition, has decided, with the concurrence of the committee on ceremonies, that nothing but original music shall be used at the dedicatory exercises in Oct., 1892. Two American composers have already been selected. John E. Paine, of Harvard University, will write the instrumental music, and E. A. McDowell, of Boston, will write the commemorative ode.

Mr. Thomas has been working for some time on a grand musical programme, in which he will call for the aid of all the eminent American composers and musicians.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., has also become greatly interested in the dedicatory ceremonies, in which he is to command the civic and military parades. His plan for a civic parade he calls the "March of Progress." The procession of centuries in which there are to be twenty-seven giant floats on which will be reproduced the great events of the world's history.

Nate Salsbury is in Chicago just recently over from London, to make arrangements with the authorities for installing Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show on the Exposition grounds.

He will have to do some very clever negotiating to gain his point. It has been decided by the Construction Department to make at least fifty different specific contracts for electric lighting. This will give the electrical firms of the country, both large and small, a chance to bid for the work.

In all, approximately 19,000 electric lamps will be required to light the grounds and buildings, and in Jackson Park there will be employed twice the number of lamps used by the city of Chicago, publicly and privately.

Of the 19,000 lights required 7,000 will be arc and 12,000 incandescent. Plans for the necessary plant are now being made and will soon be completed. Director General Davis has decided not to appoint any additional members on the present commission to Europe.

He originally intended to have four men go, but four have refused and only two of six appointed have accepted. Places on the commission have been refused by ex-Secretary of State Bayard, National Commissioners Forbes and Saunders and Col. J. G. Rathbone, of California.

Col. Davis will allow Vice-President Bryan and Director Higginbotham, who are now waiting, to do all the work. More than five miles of railroad tracks must be laid in Jackson Park that people may be hauled from one big building to another during the World's Fair.

Vagaries of Ouija. A large toy dealer writes as follows: We are having some very queer experiences with Ouija. One of the funniest occurred to-day, when a lady brought one back and insisted on having it exchanged for another for the reason that the one she had sworn, swore frightfully, she said, although used by two young girls.—Baltimore News.

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.
