The Lansing-Hoppe Combination scored a great hit at Mechanistown Monday night. The Chorion says the sale of seats exceeded those of any other concert yet given in the Hall at that place.

Cocoa Syrup—Yes I tried it of hearing and seeing the word; yet if you want a good, reliable, pleasant-to-take, Cough Syrup, and a large bottle for the money, ask your druggist for Dr. Fahrney's and take no other.

The Young Folks of the Lutheran Church once a comic entertainment for their own amusement at the parsonage on Monday evening. From all accounts they had lots of fun. Outsiders were not admitted.

The editor of the Lewis, Iowa, Independent, relates his experience for the benefit of the public, as follows: "We have advertised a great many different patent medicines, but have never taken the pains to editorially 'pull' one. We are going to do so now for the first time.
Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa, manufacture a cough remedy which is absolutely the best thing we have ever seen. We have used it on our family for the past year, and consider it indispensable. Its effects are almost instan-taneous, and there is no use talking, it is a dead shot on a cough or cold. We don't say this for pay, but because we consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best made, and we want the people to know it and use it." For sale by C. D. Eich-berger.

"A FREIGHT is no good in his own country," but there is an exception to this proverb. Dr. Ball has been of infinite good to his country, and his Cough Syrup has become a national balm.

We have received the Frederick News calendar for 1892, a plain and useful addition to any home or business office.

School Examinations.

The pupils of all the Public Schools throughout the county, will be subjected to a rigid examination in all the different branches pursued this fall, about the first of March. Mr. Roblitz, the new examiner, reports the schools in first class order and satisfactory results are expected.—News.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. It acts on the true cause of the constipation, for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY passed off without any special celebration here on Monday. With the exception of the bank and postoffice being closed, there was no interruption in the business routine. The Emmitt Cornet Band paraded the streets in the afternoon and discouraged sweet music of a patriotic order, according to their usual custom.

Appointments by the Governor.

Gov. Brown completed his appointments on Wednesday, the list sent to the Senate for confirmation including the judges of peace, officers of registration, notaries, etc., for Frederick county.
Those for Emmitsburg District are:
Justices of the Peace—James Knouff, Henry Stokes, James F. Hickey, Isaac M. Fisher and George Seybold. Registrars—Edward S. Taney. Notary Public —Paul Motter.

A Sad Affair.

Word was received here on Wednesday evening that Lewis K., a son of Mr. James P. Martin, in this vicinity, had committed suicide by hanging himself at Frederick, where he was employed by Mr. Cornelius Zimmerman.
He was about 20 years old, and is said to have been a very estimable young man. He recently suffered from a attack of grip which left him in a melancholy condition, and this undoubtedly accounts for his rash act. The funeral will take place from his parents' residence tomorrow.

Stolen Buggy.

Mr. Wm. D. Biesecker of McKnighttown replenished a buggy from Ker-igan's repair shop, this place, last Friday, that had been stolen from him about three months ago. Mr. Biesecker has been looking for his stolen property ever since it was taken, and finally traced it to this place, it having been brought here and traded to Mr. A.
Eyster, of the Western Maryland Hotel.
When the buggy came into Mr. Eyster's possession, it was with a top, but the top has since been found on the Mountain near Cashdown, and a man by the name of Stover, also of McKnighttown, and who answers the description of the one who traded the buggy here has been arrested and is now in jail at Gettysburg charged with the theft.

A boy stood on the burning deck, Unwisely, too, 'tis said,
For, with the fast approaching flame, His elders quickly fled.

So, little boy, be warned, Unmindful of thy fate, Till, step by step, Grim Death comes on And then, alas! too late!

Far wiser, surely would it seem,
When his approach we see,
With "Pleasant Pills" well in hand To vanquish old "G. D."

Pleasant Pills have remarkable power to correct all physical derangements, thus warding off disease that would surely follow. Purely vegetable, pleasant to take, perfectly harmless. With a little forethought, they'll be a present help in time of need—cheating the doctor and robbing the grave! As a Liver Pill, they are unequalled. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. Use a dose as a laxative, three times a day as a cathartic. Tiny, sugar-coated granules, in vials, 25 cents.

Dedication.

The Dedication of the monument erected by Corporal Skelly Post, No. 9, C. A. B. Cavalry, of Pennsylvania, to the memory of their fallen Comrades of Adams County, Pa., from 1861 to 1865, took place at the Post Hall in Gettysburg on last Monday, the 22nd inst. It was largely attended by the command, their families and the citizens of the town and county. The following programme was carried out:
"Prayer, Comrade Rev. J. R. Hutchison; Hymn—My country 'tis of thee"; Music—Junior Band; Oration, Hon.
Edward McChesney; Music—Junior Band; Song, Comrade H. H. Kay; Music—Junior Band; Transferring Monument to Post, Comrade P. L. Horck; Song; Reception of Monument, Comrade C. Hamilton; Music—Junior Band; Benediction, Comrade Rev. J. R. Hutchison." The oration by Comrade Mc-Chesney, was one of that gentleman's most eloquent efforts, teeming with patriotism, and the music and exercises throughout were greatly enjoyed and highly appreciated by those present.
The monument is a handsome substantial structure, an honor to this heroic dead, as well as a great credit to the noble survivors of that Post, who contributed every dollar of the funds for its construction. It contains the names of 154 comrades from the county, who fell while in the service of their country in the late war of the Rebellion, among whom are the following members of Co. "C" Cole's Cavalry, an organization well known to the residents of this town and county: Max J. Cable, Geo.
W. Shriver, Wm. A. Cronse, George C. Case, Joseph H. C. Wills, George Spangler, Jno. N. Moritz and Wm. B.
Wenk, all of whom were among the original members of the Company, and enlisted on the 27th of August, 1861.
Among the Maryland survivors of the organization who participated in the exercises were Major Horner of this place, and Charles C. Curran of Taneytown.

A Bad Break.

Prof. Koechlin met with an accident on Monday evening by which his favorite violin was completely broken to pieces. Having an engagement to take part in a concert by the Lansing-Hoppe Combination at Mechanistown that evening, the Professor prepared to start with the rest of the party, and just as he took his seat in the carriage the driver started off, having the door was closed, the lurch throwing the violin out on the street, and one of the carriage wheels passing over it, crushed the instrument into an almost unrecognizable mass of fragments.

County Commissioners.

County Commissioners Gaither, Delanter and Morrison inspected the public school house in this place on Tuesday, which they found in a condition to justify the application for a new building. In their examination of the same as unit for use as a school house.
They also condemned the bridge over Middle Creek at Locust Grove Mills, as well as a bridge over Hunting creek in Lewis district. While here the visiting Commissioners were entertained by Mr. Morrison and were shown around town, visiting among other places, St.
Euphemia's School building.

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE NEWS.

The first of the series of illustrated lectures was given Monday night, of last week. Father Tierney occupied the lecturer's platform and Father O'Hara managed the stereopticon. The lecture's subject was "Swedenborgia."
"The Land of the Midnight Sun," a full account of which will appear in next week's issue of the Chronicle, as will also the report of the second lecture of the series, given by Rev. Dr. McSweeney on Monday night. Full and interesting reports of both lectures will be published, and owing to the length of the same and the lateness of the hour at which they were received, were compelled to hold them over.

BASE BALL.

Base ball prospects are very bright at present and the lovers of the game anticipate more successful season than any previous year can boast of in the history of base ball at the Mount. The association is putting forth its best efforts to make the coming season the most enjoyable one for all those interested in the sport and also to maintain the prestige of the game which has been so successfully defended in many a well contested game. Base ball never legged at the Mount, and this year the enthusiasm is such that if the season does not come up to the expectations of the most ardent lover of the game, it will be very surprising. The material from which the association has chosen in the formation of the College team, is very good and there is plenty of it; therefore there is no reason why the team, when formed, should not be first class in every respect, after having undergone a thorough training under the supervision of the principal "coach."

The association proposes soon to take steps to arrange a series of class games, and also have two games with the nine from Pennsylvania and Gettysburg.
The first game will probably take place about the last of April. Besides Pennsylvania, Dickinson, Johns Hopkins, Franklin and Marshall will probably be played; but the dates have not been plotted. Preparations are now on foot for an early opening of the season.
The ball has already made its appearance on the campus, and now and then you may see one or two of last year's famous team practicing to the great delight of a crowd of admirers who frequently applaud their phenomenal strength and throws. But this only happens when the day is particularly warm; as it is too early for regular outdoor practise yet. There are quite a number of candidates and every one who trains faithfully will have an equal show for the first nine.

His best cure for rheumatism or neuralgia is Salvation Oil, used according to directions. 25 cts.

The news from the seat of war is constantly contradictory; but not so from Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; every report concerning it proves it to be the best Cough Syrup known. Only 25 cents a bottle.

REGULATIONS FOR THE LENTEN SEASON.

Cardinal Gibbons has issued the following regulations for Lent in this archdiocese:

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, falls on the 23d of March. All the faithful who have completed their twenty-first year, unless exempt by dispensation or some other legiti-mate cause, are bound to observe the fast of Lent.

There are to make one meal only a day, except on Sundays.

The meal permitted on fast days is not to be taken till about noon.

A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is permitted in the evening.

The following persons are exempt from the obligation of fasting: Persons under twenty-one years of age, the sick, nursing women, those who are obliged to do hard labor, and those who, through weakness, cannot fast without great prejudice to their health.

The faithful are reminded that, besides the obligation of fasting imposed by the church, this holy season of Lent should be, in an especial manner, a time of earnest prayer, of sorrow for the commission of sin, and of the citizens
ing programme was carried out:

By virtue of an indulgent to the United States, dated August 3, 1887, the following dispensations are granted:

The use of flesh meat is permitted at all times on Sundays and on the following days: Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the second and last Saturdays of Lent. But flesh meat and fish are not to be used at the same meal during Lent, even on Sundays.

The use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs is also permitted every day in Lent.

It is allowed to take in the morning some warm liquid, as tea, coffee or thin chocolate, made with water, and with thin liquid a mouthful of bread.

Those for whom the hour of noon is an inconvenient time for dinner may invert the order and take their collation in the morning and their dinner in the evening.

The use of hogs' lard, or dripping, instead of butter, is authorized in preparing permitted food.

Persons exempt from the obligation of fasting are free to take meat more than once on those days when its use is granted by dispensation.

The fasts of Lent are observed from the first Sunday of Lent till Trinity Sunday, during which time all Catholics who have attained the proper age are bound to receive worthily the holy communion. The holy season of Lent is a very propitious time also for children to make their first confession, which they ought to do generally at about the age of seven years. Parents should see to this.

REV. EDMUND J. YOUNG, S. J., DEAD.

From the Catholic Review.
Early Thursday morning, Feb. 24th, at Santa Clara College, Santa Clara, Cal., Father Edmund J. Young, of the Society of Jesus, died. Born at Saco, Me., July 24, 1822, of parents who had belonged to the old Mayflower stock, he was brought up a strict Methodist. His brother, Josiah, who was a printer by trade, was converted to the true faith by the conversation of a young Irishman who worked in the same office, and he in turn converted his brother Edmund and most of the family. The two brothers resolved to become priests and work for the salvation of souls.
With this purpose in view they entered the seminary of Mount St. Mary's, Emmitsburg, Md. Josiah pursued his studies till ordination, and afterward became Bishop of Erie, Pa. Edmund quitted the seminary to become a religious of the Society of Jesus, in September, 1848.

After nine years of collegiate work, during which time he managed to complete his studies of philosophy and theology, he was ordained priest in 1857.
He then spent four years in the various degrees of professor of rhetoric at Georgetown College. In 1867 he was sent together with Rev. Fathers James M.
Bouchard, S. J., and Florentin Bondreaux, S. J., to California. On their arrival the two last named Fathers were proceeded to Santa Clara to occupy the chair of English rhetoric and literature in the college located there. He was recalled twice to the East; first in '65 to fill the office of Treasurer of Georgetown College; next in '70 to be Professor of Rhetoric in the same institution. In 1871 he was recalled to California, however, and the earnest entreaties of his superiors out here prevailed each time and brought him back finally to stay until his death.

Father Young was identified all along with the college and it is to him in no small measure that it owes the reputation it enjoys among the foremost educational establishments in the anglo-pacific slope have been pupils of Father Young, and the news of his death will cause them to remember with grateful gratitude the years they spent in his First Rhetoric Class at Santa Clara College. Father Young was the idol of his boys—indeed of all who knew him for none knew him but to love him. He was a kind, hearty, and generous man who attracted young and old alike, and together with many religious virtues and profound learning made him a central figure among the professors of the college. He was president of the Philadelphia Society and speaker of the Philadelphia House during more than a score of years. It was there and in the Senior Dramatic Society, of which he was a director, that a good many of our most famous orators and lawyers were trained and formed. He was also largely responsible for most of the literary and dramatic entertainments which have reflected so much glory on Santa Clara College during the past thirty years.

In 1884 Father Bouchard gave a missionary to Santa Clara, one of the fruits of which was the establishment of a society for the men of the parish. Father Young was appointed its director, and caused it to flourish beyond the most sanguine expectations.

He had charge of it until 1890, when he was elected superior of the order to which his failing health rendered him unequal. In 1886 he had a stroke of apoplexy which induced partial paralysis, but seemed to leave his mental faculties almost unimpaired. After a brief recovery he was again confined to his bed and resumed his clerical duties which he continued to teach till a year and a half ago, when the easier class of the same grade in the commercial course was committed to his charge. He may be said to have died in harness, for up to a week before his death he was as usual.
Toward the end of January he caught cold which soon grew so serious that no hope of his recovery was entertained. Fortified with all the consolations of religion, he calmly gave up his breath on the 24th of the month of his Creator at 3 o'clock, February 24th.

The funeral obsequies took place Friday. The Office of the Dead was required in choir at 5:30 a. m., by the Fathers and Scholastics of the College and by the Sisters of the Holy Family.
Precedents, Raggs, and Festa acting as Precentors. The Office of the Dead, the John Piasco, S. J., President of the College, offered up the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the repose of his soul.

At 10:40 all the students of the College filed into the church to take a last look at the face of the departed Father.
Owing to the inclemency of the weather only a few of the boys were allowed to go to the funeral. The favored few consisted of the members of Father Young's class of this year, those of the class of '92 and the post graduates of '91.

Many of his old pupils attended the funeral, noticeable among whom were Charles and Harry Wilcox, Hon James H. Campbell and Walter Walsh.

The last benediction having been pronounced by Rev. O. Father Piasco, the funeral cortege moved toward the Catholic Cemetery. There in the plot set apart for the members of the Order all that was mortal of Father Young was laid to rest.—R. I. P.

Father Young graduated from Mt.
St. Mary's College in 1848. His classmates were William C. Sumerville of Baltimore, Hon. Franklin H. Clark of Washington, D. C., Alfred C. Goven of Philadelphia, Pa., Hon. Frederick A.
Beelen of Pittsburgh, Pa., Hon. Per-sin, of the University of Baltimore, Md., Professor Andrew H. Baker, D. D., of Liberty, Md., whose death was announced a few months ago. Father Young's last visit to the Mountain was in June, 1878, when he came in company with Very Rev. Edw. W. Bourasand, S. J., to confer the Doctor's Cap and ac-retta on the Rev. John A. Watterson, President of the College.
