

Reformed Seminary.

The most notable event in the history of the Reformed Theological Seminary of Lancaster since its establishment in 1825 occurred on Thursday of the present week, when the exercises attendant upon commencement week concluded with the dedication of the seminary buildings. The seminary is the oldest as well as the most important theological institution in America of the Reformed Church, the mother of all other literary and theological institutions of that church, and the group of buildings dedicated are the most magnificent of any Reformed institutions in America.

The splendid group of buildings which will be the future home of the seminary are advantageously situated in the midst of several acres of rising ground in the western part of the city, opposite the campus of Franklin and Marshall College. The group of buildings, with their frontage of 212 feet, present a most imposing appearance, their style being an adaptation of the modern Romanesque, well in keeping with the purpose for which the structure is intended, and having in its make-up sturdy strength and massiveness, as well as a peculiar style of beauty all its own. The main structure is two stories high above the basement, the latter being twelve feet in the clear, while the first and second stories are each 14 feet. The base course from grade up to the first floor line is built in rock-faced ashlar, regular range work, in brownstone, the walls of the stories above being built of fine red brick, laid in brown colored mortar. All of the cut-stone dressings are brownstone. The roof is covered with black slate, having red terra cotta hip tiles, and ridge rolls and the roofs of the bays at each side of the main entrance are covered with red tiles, while over the entrance arch a balcony is arranged with open balustrade of stone. The main feature of the front is the huge tower, rising to a great height and harmonizing well with the rest of the building. The tower is utilized on the first floor as an entrance to the main corridor and to the prayer hall, and from and from the second floor by a stairway to the clock chamber above. A grand stairway leads from the main corridor to that on the second floor.

The library, with its brownstone base and single story of red brick, is situated to the east of the main building, with which it communicates by a handsome stone and brick gallery. This is closed at both ends by iron doors, as the library is fire-proof. From the outside the building is approached through a beautiful porch entrance near a low, circular tower at the southeast corner. The handsome room, with open timbered ceiling and elaborate wood carvings, is circled by a gallery, approached from the first floor by a circular stairway in the tower, and the adoption of the clove system gives the hall a capacity of fifty thousand volumes.

The great bell that swings in the tower, a weight of 2,100 pounds, is a historic one, the same that hung in the Pennsylvania State Building at the Columbian Exposition. It was the gift to the seminary, of Jacob Y. Dietz, of Philadelphia, a generous contributor to the building fund of the seminary.—San.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Nearly Killed by Strikers.

A battle occurred at the Hill Farm Works, north of Uniontown, Pa., at daylight on Wednesday, in which about twenty-five shots were fired by deputies. No one was injured by bullets, but four workmen were badly beaten by the strikers, one of them, Richard Harbarger, it is thought being fatally wounded. About five o'clock as Harbarger and three companions were going to work they were met by a delegation of forty strikers who notified them that an attempt to go farther would be fatal. Harbarger argued with the men, but they would not give in. The deputies were not yet on guard to protect the workmen so the strikers fell on them with clubs and beat them in a most brutal manner. Harbarger was beaten to insensibility, and would have been killed had not the deputies arrived on the scene. They got their Winchester, and started to take a hand in the affair. The strikers would not move, and the deputies opened fire on them from the yards. When the bullets began whistling by their heads they left their victims and fled towards Dunbar. At least twenty-five shots were fired, none of which took effect, owing to the distance. Several shots were returned by the strikers, but they were not well enough armed to stand their ground. Harbarger is in a critical condition, and there is little hope of his recovery. The others were badly cut and bruised but their injuries are not of a serious nature.

More Colonists Coming.

The colony founded in Dorchester county by the Revs. John J. and Nicholas Burkhardt, of Baltimore, will be reinforced before long by four or five farmers and their families from North Dakota. At present the colony contains forty-seven families but the promoters are sanguine of reaching a grand total of one hundred before the end of the year. A number of Iowa farmers have also signified their intentions of removing to Dorchester. They assert that the West will produce nothing, whereas they are desirous of embarking in the profitable traffic of garden trucking and raising small fruits. On the 1st of August three families will remove from Irvington, Ill., and one farmer arrives at the same time all the way from Bosnia, Austria. These farmers are all men of some means, and amply able to purchase land. Rev. John J. Burkhardt is at present residing in the colony to look after the spiritual interest of the agriculturists.

Know Thyself.

How important this injunction to every young man! How many ruin their health and future happiness through pernicious practices contracted in ignorance and repentance of when too late. Parents, guardians and humanitarians can do no better service to the rising generation, than to place in their hands the information and warnings contained in a little book carefully prepared by an association of medical gentlemen, who have had vast experience in dealing with the grave maladies here hinted at, and who feel that they owe it to humanity to warn the young of the land against certain destructive habits which are far more prevalent than any layman can possibly imagine, and which, if persisted in gradually undermine the constitution and health, and destroy the future happiness of the victim. Cut out this notice and enclose it with ten cents in stamps (to pay postage) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y., and the book will be sent, secure from observation in plain sealed envelope.

Unearthed a Buried Treasure.

Five thousand dollars worth of diamonds, part of the jewelry aggregating $14,000, which was stolen a few weeks ago from the Home Security Company, Cleveland, Ohio, have been found buried in the roots of a birch tree near Painesville. Two strange men appeared in Painesville, and acted so peculiarly that they were asked by the authorities what they were doing there. They responded that they knew where the Home Security Company jewelry was, and had come to find it and get the reward. They were promptly arrested, and Detectives Granger and Doran went to Painesville and talked with the men, who agreed to find the treasure. After a short search the diamonds were unearthed. The men gave their names as John Butler, of Washington, D. C., and Wm. Matthews of Cincinnati.

The Commonwealth Leader Convicted.

The trial of Jacob S. Coxey, Carl Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones, of the Commonwealth Army, for the violation of the act of Congress which prohibits trespassing on the grounds of the Capitol, ended in the Police Court at Washington, on Tuesday, in all being found guilty on the first charge of carrying a banner. On the second charge Coxey and Browne were found guilty of walking on the Capitol grass; Jones not guilty. They were released on bail and motion for a new trial. Representative Spence, of Colorado, and three other attorneys appeared for the defendants.

Two weeks may elapse, during which the trio will be free on bail, before the motion for a new trial is argued and decided. The penalty provided by law is the same for each offense, viz. a fine not to exceed $100 and imprisonment in jail for not more than sixty days, or both within the discretion of the court. Accordingly the maximum punishment which may be meted out to Coxey and Browne is $200 and 120 days, while Christopher Columbus Jones is subject to $100 and 60 days.

Children Missing.

The police are working upon the theory that an organized band of kidnapers are at work in St. Joseph, Mo. In addition to the mysterious disappearance of W. H. Harrison, a well-known traveling man, and two little girls of Patrick Day, the disappearance of three other small children are now reported. Friday afternoon Mrs. Gays's two little daughters left home to gather greens. At night they failed to reappear, and although a search for them has been kept up ever since, nothing in the nature of a clue to their whereabouts has been discovered. Besides these, one other child is also missing. All are under the age of twelve years. These mysterious disappearances—the strangest part of which is that all occurred in broad daylight—have so alarmed parents that little one are guarded with the utmost jealousy.—American.

The Latest Swindle.

A man well dressed, with a business-like air, calls upon persons in the rural districts and represents himself as a government detective, with a statement that there is much counterfeit coin in circulation and requests them to show what coin they have in their possession. He then uses a chemical which turns the coin black, declares them spurious and takes them away, informing the unsuspecting farmer that another secret service officer would follow him in a day or two and redeem the coin taken away. The victims say nothing about it for some time, out of fear of being arrested for having counterfeit coin in their possession, and by this time the swindler is far away.

A Fortune for a Coxeyite.

According to information received by Otto A. Drier, Danish consul in Chicago, Peter Anderson, of Denver Col., who has marched with Coxey's Army from Ohio to Washington, is heir to a large fortune. Anderson came to this country from Denmark fifteen years ago, but failed in all his efforts to acquire a living, and fell in with the Coxeyites, destitute and discouraged. His father, a wealthy land-owner in Denmark, died last September, leaving him the estate, but Anderson had not heard of it when he began his weary tramp. Consul Drier will notify him of the facts.

People Starving in Texas.

Another appeal to the world for assistance has been made by the suffering people of Zapata county, Texas. The appeal states the starving people have become so desperate that a band of twenty of them made a raid upon a general store the other day for food supplies. The raid was stopped by the temporary wants being supplied. The drought in that county has lasted for four years, and there is not a wagonload of grass in the entire county. It is the only section in Southeast Texas that has not been visited by the recent heavy rains.

Soft Coal Trade.

The Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad employed three engines a month ago in hauling coal from the George's Creek region to Cumberland. Now, ten engines are working full time in hauling coal. The machine shops of the same company, located at Mt. Business is lively in Frostburg as a consequence of increased activity in the coal trade.

FOR THE relief and cure of cold in the head there is more potency in My's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other treatments have proved of no avail.

An Esteemed Pastor Found Cure in Hood's After Other Medicines Failed

After the Grip—Muscular Rheumatism.

Rev. C. W. Clapham

The following comes voluntarily from a highly esteemed clergyman of the M. E. church, pastor of the Church Creek circuit in Dorchester County, Maryland:

"I feel it a duty to the public to send this certificate. I saw in a Philadelphia paper a letter from a man who had suffered from Muscular Rheumatism and had been restored by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had the grip in the winter of '93 and '92 so severely that it deprived me of the use of my arms so that my wife had to dress and undress me, and when away from home I had to sleep in my clothes. I tried five doctors and not one accomplished anything. Then I saw the letter alluded to and determined to try Hood's. Before I had taken one bottle I had the use of my arms, thank God. These are facts and can be verified by many persons here. J. M. Colston, Church Creek, supplied me with Hood's. I am pastor of the M. E. church here."

C. W. CLAPHAM, Church Creek, Maryland.

A little tale I would rehearse Of one, once sick, who soon grew worse. With boils and blotches covered o'er, He took of remedies (O) a score. Alas, they all did fail to heal, While he each day still worse did feel. Up spoke a friend "Your blood's impure" "But Dr. Pierce can heal you sure" "His 'G. M. D.' will quickly cure." Like Balaam on wounds these words were poured.

The sick man's health was soon restored. Impure blood is caused by want of healthy action on the part of the liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best remedy in the world for livers, and for purifying the blood and system from all poisons and impurities of whatever name or nature.

Pipe-Line Breaks.

Two serious breaks occurred in the oil pipe line almost simultaneously near Hancock last week. Three hundred barrels of crude oil escaped from the first, just off the Warfordsburg road, two miles north of there. The oil spurted to the height of about fifty feet for nearly two hours until a courier telegraphed the stations to stop the pumps. The land for quite a distance is thoroughly saturated and will be waste for years. After the break had been repaired the oil was set on fire. A dense volume of smoke has arisen over the country for miles about. The second break occurred on Timber Ridge, four miles from there. Some person fired the oil, which ran in a great volume, causing a blaze of great magnitude.—Baltimore Times.

Physicians and Surgeons.

Physicians and surgeons in Baltimore, it is said, are generally in favor of the law passed by the last Legislature requiring them to be registered by the first of next July.

About fifty have obtained their certificates of registration from Mr. Alvin Robertson, clerk of the Circuit Court, and a speedy compliance with the law by all those concerned is expected.

The law in question says that any person who shall practice medicine or surgery in Maryland after the date named without being registered in the manner prescribed shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $200 for each offense. It amends the law passed in 1892, which provided for the licensing of applicants to practice medicine and surgery after they had passed an examination before a board of medical examiners. This feature is retained in the new law, which provides, in addition, for the registration of physicians and surgeons practicing before June 1, 1892.

Commissioned surgeons of the United States army, navy or marine hospital service, physicians and surgeons in actual consultation from other States, and persons temporarily practicing under the supervision of a medical preceptor or rendering gratuitous services in an emergency and midwives are exempted from the provisions of the law.

Physicians and surgeons in Baltimore are required to be registered in the Circuit Court, and those in other parts of the State in the Circuit Court of their respective counties. Those who were admitted to practice since June 1, 1892, are required to file with the clerk of the court a license from one of the medical boards of the State. Those who were practicing prior to that date may be registered upon making affidavit to that effect in their application for registration. The names are recorded in a book kept for the purpose.—Sun.

Man's Inhumanity to Himself.

The most inhuman outrages, outrages which would disgrace the savage, man perpetrates upon his own system by swallowing drastic purgatives which convulse his stomach, agonize his intestines and weaken his system. Many people constantly do this under the impression that medicines only which are violent in their action, and particularly cathartics, are of any avail. Irreparable injury to health is wrought under this mistaken idea. The laxative which most nearly approaches the beneficial action of nature is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is palatable, thorough, and invigorates the intestinal canal instead of weakening and irritating it. The liver and the stomach share in the benign discipline instituted by this comprehensive medicine, whose helpful influence is felt throughout the system. Malaria, rheumatism, kidney and nervous complaints succumb to it.
