

THE NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

The thirtieth annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was held in St. Paul last week. Thirty thousand men were in the great parade on Wednesday.

On Jan. 1, 1894, there were 387,040 members on the books of the organization, and in the next year there was a drop of over 17,000, the roll on Jan. 1, 1895, standing at 369,660. In the next year, ending on Jan. 1, 1896, there was a decrease of 12,000, the total membership on that date being 357,639. There are no official figures at hand showing the decrease since then but from careful estimates prepared it seems that the loss of membership by death has been greater than in any similar period in the history of the association. The estimated total membership is now placed at 348,000, and by the end of the year it will probably have sunk down to 340,000 or lower.

When nominations were declared in order for Commander-in-chief at the Grand Army encampment, D. R. Ballou, of Providence, R. I., was nominated by his comrades, Spooner, of the same State. J. A. Haywood presented the name of Major Thaddeus S. Clarkson, of Omaha. The name of E. H. Hobson, of Kentucky, was offered by General Case, of Tennessee; John C. Linehan, of New Hampshire, was brought forward by Daniel Coggeswell, of that State, and Rear Admiral Meade was presented by a Dakota delegate.

Seconds for the nomination of Clarkson came quickly from all over the hall; but one of the first men up was Admiral Meade, who withdrew his own name. It at once became evident that Major Clarkson would win, and all the other names were withdrawn and he was nominated by acclamation.

Thaddeus Stevens Clarkson was born at Gettysburg, Pa., in 1840, says a dispatch to the Phila. Times. He was educated three miles from the great battlefield of Antietam. He enlisted April 16, 1861. He went to Nebraska, settling in Omaha with his brother, the late Bishop Clarkson, in March of 1866, and has lived in that State for thirty years. Major Clarkson was on the executive committee of the National Council of Administration, G. A. R., for three consecutive years, was elected department commander of Nebraska by acclamation at the encampment in February, 1890. He has also been commander of the Loyal Legion of Nebraska.

A SCHOOLMASTER HELD UP.

A bold attempt at highway robbery was made by two negro tramps at Salisbury Station, on the Western Maryland Railroad, two miles from Williamsport. While Mr. Richard Eckstine, a schoolteacher, was driving late at night, a man jumped out from the side of the road and grasped the horse's bridle. The robber ordered Eckstine to get out of the buggy. Just then another tramp, both of them being negroes, came out of the station-house, and going up to the team, attempted to pull Mr. Eckstine from the seat and strike him. He, however, picked up the whip and applied it to the horse. The animal dashed off, knocking one of the highway-men over, and galloped out of harm's way. The farmers in the neighborhood of the station have been annoyed all summer by tramps.

THE ARKANSAS ELECTION.

The returns from the election in Arkansas on Monday, show that the entire democratic ticket was elected by a majority of about 60,000. The democratic ticket was elected by a majority double that ever before polled in that State.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients results in curing Catarrh. ## UNINTENTIONAL BIGAMY.

Aaron D. Stouffer, of near Smithsburg, a few days ago went into State's Attorney Charles D. Wagaman's office Hagerstown and accused himself of bigamy and saying he was ready to go to jail. He was weeping while he told the story of his second marriage, his first wife being still living and not legally divorced from him.

On October 9, 1877, he married Miss Mary A. McPherson in Waynesboro'. Rev. Jacob Ohler performed the ceremony. They lived near Smithsburg one year and then separated. In 1880 his wife was married to Aaron Speake, of near Smithsburg, and in 1882 she executed before Justice Philip Oswald an instrument in writing purporting to be a contract of divorce from her husband. Believing the document was a legal divorce Stouffer was married in 1883 to Miss Phoebe Hovis in Waynesboro' by Rev. F. F. Bahner. Several children have been borne since the last marriage.

For thirteen years Stouffer believed he was divorced from his wife. Some one told him he was not and that he was guilty of bigamy, a penitentiary offense. This so preyed upon his mind that he could find no rest or peace, he said until he gave himself up to the authorities.

Under the circumstances the officers thought clemency should be extended, so the State's attorney, as Stouffer's solicitor, filed a bill in the Court of Equity for a divorce. The bill relates all the facts of the remarkable marriages. If the court grants the divorce, which is thought probable, it is the intention of all parties concerned to get married over again.—Sun.

Young Men Take Warning.

Alas, how prevalent are those distressing diseases and weaknesses which make young men prematurely old, pale, listless, low spirited, languid, easily tired, forgetful and incapable; fill mad-houses and swell the lists of suicides; separate husbands and wives; bring untold suffering to millions, even unto the third and fourth generations. The afflicted will recognize only too plainly to what class of maladies we refer. A complete and scientific treatise (sent only in plain sealed envelope) on receipt of ten cents, (the cost of postage,) if inclosed with this notice to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

PARDON CASES.

A number of pardon cases have been submitted to Governor Lowndes, which will come up for consideration shortly. Among them is the case of Charles Foster, colored, who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel County and sentenced to the penitentiary for fourteen years for housebreaking and assaulting police man Ezekiel Mitchell, of the Annapolis force. Mr. James Wells, whose house was broken into, protested against the pardon. If the negro is pardoned, it is said the condition will be that he shall leave the State.

The Tribly Village in Ten Spasms.

(Published by Request.) Come to the circus! It's now in town, With the lion, the bear and the clown; The lady snake-charmer is also there, With the bald-headed man, of the auburn hair. The bearded woman is the pride of the town, As well as the bankruptman, who handles the "dough"; The toothless chicken has teeth—'tis false, While the one-legged horse dances the waltz.

The animals all have luggage—even the "monk." Evering down to the elephant's trunk. These were carried in a special car. From many places, near and far. The mudless pig is there to be seen, But near dirt he could not have been; That it disliked it, could be seen at a glance, While other pigs in it loved to prance. The two-hundred pound skeleton is on exhibition, With the ten pound "Jumbo" in the same position; The rubber-skinned man is pulling his leg, While the rooster freak is laying an egg. Of the "human snake" more must be said, For she did every trick, even stood on her head; Into a true lover's knot she had tied herself, And was quietly put away on the shelf. Then the crowd began to howl and cry, And said that the men did not half try To untie her from that awful knot, Which they then did—after not.

At last she untied herself with a twist, And retired—the clown being next on the list; He got off all sorts of puns and jokes, That brought a shower of eggs from the "Tea-table Blokes." The two "tame" lions performed their little trick, And did it, too—very slick; They showed their docility by eating a man, Only as one of these wild beasts can. As this is the saddest verse in this rhyme, I think it is a very good time To put an end to all this fuss, About that lately arrived circus. H. W. LETCHER, Sept. 8, '96.

WEARY OF LIFE.

August Haevernick, of Philadelphia, a music teacher, committed suicide Saturday at the Niagara Hotel Baltimore taking laudanum. Mr. Haevernick left his home in Philadelphia Tuesday last to go to Abington, Virginia, where he expected to get a position as teacher in a seminary. Failing in his attempt, he returned to Baltimore Friday.

Haevernick was seen Friday night by the proprietor of the hotel. When he did not appear Saturday his room was entered, and he was found nearly dead. Dr. Claggett was summoned, but could do nothing to relieve Haevernick, and he died several hours later.

A note was found in the room which stated that he intended to kill himself, and asked the proprietor to notify his daughter, Miss Emma Haevernick, 645 West Fortieth street, Philadelphia. She was telegraphed for and arrived at the hotel before her father died. This daughter, with two others who arrived later, left for Philadelphia with the body Sunday.

A SUDDEN STOP.

It is possible for a locomotive to be damaged by stopping too suddenly, and it occurred last Thursday on the B. and O. Railroad. Engine No. 590, with Engineer H. O. Hesson, of Martinsburg at the throttle, was going east with a freight train. At the signal station beyond Weverton, the distance target was displayed, signifying that the track was clear. Mr. Hesson started at full speed and when he blew for a signal at Weverton, the red or danger target was given him. He reversed his engine and stopped so suddenly that all the bolts under the locomotive were loosened and other parts of the machinery damaged. The blame is attributed to the operator at the first signal station, who had no right to show the distance target.

CANDIDATE BRYAN made speeches at Omaha and other points on his way to his home at Lincoln, Nebraska, where he was given a large reception. All the Democratic clubs in Lincoln turned out. He made a speech from a stand in front of the state capitol building. In the evening he was formally notified of his nomination by the National Silver Convention.

THE Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, Mass., will visit Baltimore on October 6th, has been invited to visit the Frederick Fair after its entertainment in Baltimore.

To Offer a Reward of 100 Dollars

for a case of catarrh that cannot be cured, amounts to nothing except to sell article. Do you know of any such reward being paid? Ely Bros. do not promise rewards in order to sell their well-known "Cream Balm." They offer the most effective medicaments, prepared in convenient form to use, which is absolutely free from mercurials or other harmful drugs.

Fits Cured

From U.S. Journal of Medicine. Prof. W. H. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise any one wishing a cure to address Prof. W. H. PECK, P. O. 4 Cedar St., New York.

THE NEW YORK WORLD, THIRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

18 PAGES A WEEK. 136 PAPERS A YEAR.

Is larger than any weekly or semi-weekly paper published in the United States. It is a Democratic "weekly" published in New York City. Three times as large as the leading Republican weekly of New York City. It will be of especial advantage to you during the Presidential Campaign, as it is published every other day, except Sunday, and has all the freshness and timeliness of a daily. It combines all the news with a long list of interesting departments, unique features, cartoons and graphic illustrations, the latter being a specialty.

All these improvements have been made without any increase in the cost, which remains at one dollar per year.

We offer this unequalled newspaper, and The Emmitsburg Chronicle, together one year for $1.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

Another Smart Woman.

My husband is poor but proud and he does not want me to work, as I have nothing to do I get restless, and after reading in your paper Mrs. Russell's experience selling self-heating flatirons I concluded I would try it. I wrote to J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo., and they treated me so nicely that I felt very much encouraged. As soon as I got my sample from I started out, and sold 8 from the first day clearing $12. I have not sold less than 8 any day since, and one day sold 17. I now have $226 clear money, and my husband does not know I have been working at all. Have I done right or should I quit work and leave him to struggle alone.

AN ANXIOUS WIFE.
You are doing just right, your husband should be proud of you, go ahead and show the world what an energetic woman can do. That self-heating iron must be a wonderful seller, as we hear of so many that are succeeding selling it.

A Close Call.
Mr. Harry Kelle, a young railroad man of Brunswick, met with a painful accident at Point of Rocks, which might have resulted in his death. He attempted to board a moving freight train and fell off the rail, falling by the side of the train. In his attempt to throw himself off the rails his hand was caught under the wheels and painfully crushed.

Possibly a "Goldbug." Mr. Harry Waddle brought to the Chronicle office one day this week, a coconut found in a state of decay by his son Blaine. The coconut contained a partly formed bug or butterfly, or possibly some other kind of an insect.
The cocoon was of a light green color and contained a number of small yellow spots, which looked like gold. It may be that the cocoon contained a "gold bug."

A Narrow Escape.
George Trump, a young man living at Manchester, Carroll county, met with a very serious accident. He was riding in his father's barn helping to thrash, when the leg of his pantaloons was caught in a bolt of the driving rod, which pulled him to the floor and tore all the clothing from his body. His father ran to his rescue, and by great exertion he was released. He was in an unconscious condition, suffering from concussion of the brain, and very little hope of his recovery is given by the doctors.

Benner, of Gettysburg, was nominated for Congress by acclamation. The Chicago platform was indorsed in its entirety.—Sun.

Canal Boatman Drowned.
Capt. John W. Patton, of Williamsport, master of the canal boat John H.
Wilson, fell overboard from his boat and was drowned in the canal aqueduct at Williamsport on Saturday morning.
He was taken suddenly with vertigo, to which he was at times subject, and fell while preparing the tow lines, etc., for a trip to Cumberland. He was thirty-two years of age and leaves a widow and four small children.

Your Worst Enemy Withering.
With the rheumatism is an individual whom, if he has a Christian spirit, you would forgive.
He is, no matter what his delinquencies, punished enough. Nothing short of Popper could enhance his misery. Moreover, he is in serious peril. The disease is always prone to attack his heart and kill him instantly. As a means of curing this disease, Rosetter's Stomach Bitters has the highest reputation and the most authoritative professional sanction. Its use in the preliminary stage of the complaint is the wisest precautionary measure. Rheumatism invalids can readily adopt. The Bitters is also a remedy of the greatest utility in malarial and kidney trouble, dyspepsia and liver complaint, constipation and nervousness. It counteracts the effects of hardship and exposure in damp or imperfect weather, and is a capital promoter of appetite and sleep. Give this fine remedy the persistent trial to which all medicines of standard reputation are entitled.

Cragertown, Sept. 6, held by Rev. J.
W. Asper, and a number of persons from here attended.

Corn planting is rapidly progressing in his locality and the crop is very good.
The cool weather since the recent rain has hastened to the city the borders in our village.

Miss Agnew, of Emmitsburg, was the guest of Miss Ethel Close, over Sunday.

Within the past week Mr. Joseph Miller and E. Gregg Eichelberger have been quite successful in catching several fine carp from the Monocacy near here, varying in weight and length as follows: One 3 lbs. and 25 inches long, and other 5 lbs. and 22 inches, and third fish 5 lbs and 19 inches. They are beautiful fish.

Verdict for $5,500.

In Frederick county the jury in the case of Samuel A. Rowe against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad brought in a verdict Monday afternoon for $5,500 damages after an hour and forty-five minutes deliberation. The case had been occupying the attention of the court since Tuesday last. Rowe lives at Sandy Hook and was injured by a fall from the entrance to the new tunnel at Harper's Ferry, which had become loosened from blasting, while he was driving along on the county road, and from which he sustained injuries which he claimed have disabled him for life. He sued for $10,000 damages. The case was removed to Frederick from Washington county.
In the first trial Rowe was awarded $5,200, but the court granted the railroad company a new trial on the ground of excessive damages. At the second trial the court took the case from the jury and rendered its verdict in favor of the company. Rowe's counsel appealed from its decision, and the Court of Appeals remanded it back and granted him a new trial, which resulted in the present verdict for $5,500.

The spooks and goblins that delight to fill with terror all the night; That stalk abroad in hideous dreams With which dyspepsia's fancy teems, Will never trouble with their ill.
The man who trusts to Pierce's Pills, Pierce's Pleasant Pellets; vegetable, harmless, painless, sure! Constipation, indigestion, sick headache, indigestion; all vanish with their use.

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 8.—Mr. Willis Scott, who went West sixteen years ago, has returned to his home here. He says things are rather dull in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Artzberger, who were spending some time at Atlantic City, have returned home to Fairfield.

The farmers in this section are cutting off their corn.

George Reed, an aged colored man who lives in Fairfield and who was once a slave in the South, is lying very ill at this time. He is over 80 years old.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. Convention which will be held in Gettysburg, Sept.
15, promises to be one of the largest gatherings of the kind ever held at Gettysburg. An excursion train will pass Fairfield Station on the 15th date, immediately after the regular morning train. Excursion tickets half fare. The train will be composed of two sections and the cars will be decorated and lettered, and two bands will be on the train. The train will at Fairfield will have a band on their excursion train. The train will leave Gettysburg at 11 o'clock at night, giving ample time to see everything.

Mrs. F. Shulley, of near Fairfield, was agreed to be married last Friday evening to a host of her friends and neighbors gathered at her home to congratulate her on her 52nd birthday.
The evening was pleasantly spent in conversation. The young folks enjoyed themselves by singing wild oats and other plays. About ten o'clock the guests were invited to surround a table filled with all the season could afford, large cakes, ice cream, lemonade, etc., were in abundance. Mrs. F.
Shulley was the center of attraction, and the evening was one of the most valuable presents. After doing justice to the inner man and the guests wishing Mr. and Mrs. F. Shulley a long life, they left for their homes saying they certainly had a good time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Landis, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel M.
Muselman, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Storer, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dubs and son

Feed the Nerves.

Upon pure, rich blood and you need not fear nervous prostration. Nerves are weak when they are improperly and unsufficiently nourished. Pure blood is their proper food, and pure blood comes by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is the most potent and best nerve tonic. It also builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate.

Jump the Track.

One thousand Baltimoreans attended the State reunion of the Odd Fellows at Pen-Mar Monday. On the return trip over the Western Maryland Railroad locomotive No. 37, attached to the first section of the excursion train of nine cars, and in charge of Engineer Charles F. Metcalf and Fireman Harry Uhler, jumped the track near the Greenwood siding, between Mount Wilson Station and Pikesville, causing the locomotive to derange and overturning the two cars behind it. Five hundred passengers were on the section.

The train was running at a speed estimated at between fifteen and twenty miles an hour. The locomotive had just crossed the switch of the siding—a double-tongue running switch—when the engine received a warning shock.
Then he suddenly realized that the locomotive was no longer on the track.

He applied the air-brakes, and finding that the locomotive was careening in a dangerous manner, at once shut off the steam.

His presence of mind and ready efforts were not timely enough to prevent the locomotive from leaving the ties and churn that would churn in a minute. I concluded to try it. Every day for a week I used it, and not only could I churn in a minute, but I got more and better butter than with the common churn. This is very important information to those who churn butter. It will churn in less than 60 seconds. I have sold two dozen of these churns in the past month. Every churn has been sold.
I have seen no churn in less than a minute has bought one. You can obtain all desired information regarding this churn by writing to J. Casey & Co., St. Louis, and they will give you prompt and courteous attention.

A Churn that Churns in One Minute.
I have been in the dairy business for my life and have many times churned for an hour before butter would appear, so when I heard of a churn that would churn in a minute, I concluded
to try it. Every day for a week I used it, and
more and better butter than with the com-

EMMITTSBURG EIGHTY-EIGHT YEARS AGO.

The Town Was Then Governed by Three Trustees.—Names of Property Holders at That Time.—Other Historical Information.

Mr. Editor.—No doubt that residents of Emmitsburg will read with interest something about our town eighty-eight years ago, when according to a plat of the town made by Andrew Smith in the year 1808, the resident lot holders, were as follows. It shows how the names of residents are changed and die out of a community. Many of these persons are buried in our cemeteries here, and while others names are lost from the memory of our oldest citizens.

The town proper extended only to the line of "Shield's Addition," which was added later. Persons living above that line are not recorded. The town was governed by three trustees—Frederick Gelwick, Lewis Mott and Samuel Noble, were the officials in 1808.

The lots south of the alley, as well as north of Green Street, are all numbered the same as on the Main street, no doubt with the expectation of a progressive town, for the map of the town is dedicated to the three named officials as "a plat of the prosperous village of Emmitsburg." A few of the original names remain here, but under different names are here, but the vast majority have departed to other realms of shade or emigrated to other parts.
Few of the original houses remain, as the fire on the night of June 15, 1863, swept all the town square, and the most above have been torn down and others built on the lots or remodeled.
To enable each lot holder to know who was the owner of the property in 1808, I will give the number of the lot as
