I insisted on his trying it and informed him if it did not relieve him should cost him nothing This was about 4 P. M. He took a bottle and started home, be was hardly able to walk. I saw nothing more of him until bright and carly the next morning, when he came into our store walking as lively as could be with no signs of suffering about him. I inquired about the Liniment, he said it was the best stuff he ever used. it was the best stuff he ever used, would not take $5 for the bottle. Said he got home almost done up and as soon thereafter as he could he applied the Liniment, and it gave him almost instant relief, before retiring he applied it once more, went to bed and slept soundly all night, and in the morning bathed the parts affected again and at present felt no pain whatever. This was about four or five weeks ago. I see the party every few days and he says he is not troubled with Rheumatism any more."
