GRAY AND SILVER.

I had a love, dark-haired was she;

Death, sickness, tempest and defeat

Again for me the sun looked down

With years came fortune fair and rest

I found my love; her locks had grown

"Alas!" she sighed, "forget me, now

'I loved thy heart," I whispered low,

Tomb.

-San Francisco Chronicle.

For sake of her, across the sea

Her eyes were gray;

All passed me by;

And rich was I.

Familiar skies;

Gray as her eyes.

No longer fair."-

And not thy hair."

I sailed away.

Farmers, Stockmen AND DAIRYMEN.

You are especially interested in the care of your live stock; and know that by keeping them in prime condition they can be made more valuable to you, and give better returns. During the winter months when off grass, it is absolutely necessary that they should have a true tonic, something to take the place of the nourishment obtained from roots and herbs they get when browsing on the hill sides. For such, we direct your especial attention to the Cleason's Horse and Cattle Powder, a compound that is purely vegetab e and the fruits of careful study by the originator, who has had years of experience in handling stock of all kinds.

Properly fed in small doses it purifies the Blood, regulates the Bowels, aids Digestion, expels Worms, Grubs and Botts, creates Bone and Muscle, cures Colds, Epizooty and Distemper, restores the Appetite, tones up the entire System, and makes the Horse more Handsome and valuable to the owner. As a Milk, Flesh and Butter producer it is unsurpassed.

W ONLY THE DREAM ABIDE.

If the things of earth must pass Like the dows upon the grass, Like the mists that break and run At the forward sweep of the sun, I shall be satisfied If only the dreams abide.

Nay-I would not be shorn
Of gold from the mines of morn.
I would not be bereft
Of the last blue flower in the cleft, Of the haze that haunts the hills,
Of the moon that the midnight fills.
Still would I know the grace
On love's uplifted face
And the slow, sweet joy dawn there
Under the clusk of her hair.

I pray thee spare me, fate, The woeful, wearying weight Of a heart that feels no pain At the sob of the autumn rain, And takes no breath of glee From the organ surge of the sea-Of a mind where memory broods Over songless solitudes. I shall be studied If only the dreams abide. —Clinton Scollard in Century.
