NIL NISI PECCATUM TIMEO.

My good blade carves the casques of men, My tough lance thrusteth sure, My strength is as the strength of ten Because my heart is pure.

No diadem doth beauty need To deck her free born brow, 'Tis not the name, 'tis but the deed That makes her courtiers bow.

We laugh to scorn the pride of birth, We banish heraldry; 'Tis well we rest upon our worth In this land 'o' the tree.

'Tis well, I say, and yet, Melissa, Uncrowned queen 'o' the West, 'Tis not a pictured frailty this I see beneath thy crest.

From some obscurity rescued, A curio on thy shelf; A musician with strength imbued To move thy better self.

To move thy blood to deeds of worth As once it helped thy sires To rise from dingy things of earth To the celestial fires.

'Tis not the palm, the cross, the crest, Nor all that once hath been; It is the motto I count best "Nothing I fear save sin."

So keep or lose the symbol bright, It flows within thy blood, And only he can match thy might Who equals all thy good.

The old United Presbyterian kirk at Saxe in Scotland, had a minister some sixty years ago named David Caw, a very diminutive man, standing only about five feet two inches.

A patent has been granted in Germany for a new method of writing on glass, using an aluminum point. The glass which is to be written on is first moistened with vinegar and the writing or drawing made with the point.

Never think that the feet will grow large from wearing proper shoes. Pinching and distorting make them grow not only large, but unsightly.

It is calculated that in moving about from one place to another the people of England spend about $750,000 a day.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy your liver is torpid and congested.

Don't think you can cure that slight attack of Dyspepsia by dieting, or that it will cure itself. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure it; it digests what you eat and restores the digestive organs to health.

"Am I to understand," said the unsuccessful candidate, "that you accuse me of having used money in the Legislature?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum, with a playful smile. "You didn't use money. You just wasted it."—Washington Star.

When we sit down to the great feast with mankind we are enjoying many things that have delighted fair women and brave men in the past.

"I wish to say to the ladies of the county that we are now open for business. We have a large stock of goods and are at a discount.

It is perfectly amazing to notice how much an ordinary shrub will grow in a single summer. A silver fir 2 1/2 feet high was lately carefully measured. It had put forth 555 new shoots, varying from 1/8 an inch to 5 inches each.

Mr. Dukane—Why did your wife change physicians? I thought that she was satisfied with Dr. Tablet's professional skill.

Mr. Gaswell—She was satisfied, so far as his professional skill was concerned, but he rode a different make wheel from hers, and his calls were mostly occupied by a defense of his grammar.—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

POPULAR NAMES OF WARS.

The Conquered Nation Almost Invariably Comes First—Many Cases.

The conflict between the United States and Spain has passed into history as the "Spanish-American" war.

The Trojan war, so-called, the Trojans were defeated by the Greeks and Troy was besieged and captured by the Medonians.

The "Crimean" war was significant of the defeat of Russia by the allied armies of France, Austria, Prussia and Great Britain in 1854-55.

Some of the answers handed in on examination are extremely funny, especially for library and clerical positions.

A man who wanted the position of examiner himself, gave it as his unbiased judgment that "prohibit" may be spelled either "prohibit" or "prophipt," according to "whether you prefer Webster or other authorities."

When the little Andorra Republic contents himself with a salary of $15 a year, and the President of the Swiss Republic must be satisfied with $3,000.

A simple method of curing a magnetized watch consists in banging it from a string, which latter is twisted as tightly as possible, and then holding the string at one end near a dynamo or strong magnet.

The high-water mark of European railway progress will probably be touched in Europe by the continental services between the channel ports and Switzerland.

A window made entirely of stone has been presented to a French cathedral. The stone is nephite, a fine translucent and so beautifully transparent that when placed as it is catches the sun's rays and reflects them into the interior of the cathedral.

The truth is, that about constant dripping wearing away a stone is strikingly illustrated in the fact that the Niagara River has in 36,000 years cut a channel 200 feet deep, 2,000 feet wide and seven miles long, through solid rock.

Seven out of every 10,000 inhabitants of the United States are deaf and dumb. The affliction is much less common among the negroes than among the whites.

Among birds the swan lives to be the oldest, in extreme cases reaching 300 years; the falcon has been known to live over 162 years.

Africa has very nearly 700 languages, and this fact presents great difficulties to missionary effort.

SAVAGE AND FEROCIOUS.

The Devil Dancers of Ceylon and Their Mysterious Ways.

The real Singhaiese devil dancers in Ceylon are ferocious and savage fellows. Their dances are revolting and horrible. But their profession is popular and affords a royal living for the men who go into it.

The dancers begin by slowly moving about, stretching the right foot and bringing the left up to it, and appear as if they were searching for some lurking devil, during which the singing sounds like crying.

At this stage the dancers appear to be looking for some object to give the devil in sacrifice, and into which he will turn.

The course which an earthquake runs is usually very rapid. From the instant when the first shock was felt at Lisbon to the period when all was over, and many thousands of people killed, not more than two minutes had elapsed.

Some of these earthquakes occurred in the last few years. In 1861 a terrific earthquake occurred in the island of Java.

COURAGE OF A COWBOY.

He Swung Himself and His Horse over a Yawning Chasm With a Hoop.

"Speaking of the dare-devil characteristics of western cowboys," said an old plainsman, "I recall an adventure that might have proved fatal to myself and a man named Henry but for the great presence of mind displayed in an emergency by my cool-headed companion.

While I was wondering what he was going to do with the rope he took in the slack and wound it around the horn of his saddle, which was very strong and supplied with double cinchas. Then he urged his horse to the edge of the precipice.

"When I did open my eyes he had swung across the gap and disappeared. He lacked up the trail and triggered at the reins to aid the horse in gaining his feet. He pulled hard and the animal lunged up into the trail, with the chasm far behind.

ODDITIES OF POISONING.

Some People May Safely Eat Certain Food Which Would Be Poison to Others.

The constitutional differences and peculiarities which exist among individuals should always be carefully watched and considered. One person can handle poison with impunity while another is poisoned if only in the vicinity of the vine and without contact.

Food that is actually poisonous to some persons, will not so act on others. One person may eat all kinds of green fruit and vegetables with impunity, while another person can do so only at the risk of life.
