JACKSON AT RICHMOND

HOW MEDOWELL WAS PREVENTED FROM JOINING MCCLELLAN. "Stonewall" Jackson's wonderful campaign in the Valley of Virginia, in the spring of 1862, excited the admiration of the civilized world, and it was without doubt the most brilliant and successful, from a Confederate standpoint, of any during the civil war. With a small army, never exceeding 12,000 men of all arms, he defeated Milroy, at McDowell, drove Banks from Strasburg and Winchester with great loss, both in material and men; foiled Fremont, who, with 25,000 men, sought to destroy him at Strasburg, and then fought routed Tyler at Port Republic.

In these series of engagements Jackson's losses were comparatively small, the greatest being at Port Republic, while the damage he inflicted was heavy, the number of prisoners alone which he brought off numbering over 4,000 along with a vast amount of commissary and quartermaster's stores.

In that army there were, perhaps, but two men who knew the object of this valley campaign, and what its successful accomplishment was expected indirectly to bring about, and these two men were Jackson and Ewell. And it is not altogether certain that even Ewell had been informed, for Jackson rarely made confidants of his subordinates. As an illustration, when Jackson left Ewell at Swift Run

Opportunity is now presented to the people of Gettysburg and the surrounding country, to visit our elegant new store, (Centre Square,) and examine the wonderful bargains being offered in Clothing, Hats, Shoes, and

Gents Furnishing Goods. We are after the trade of all who need anything in our line, and are offering "Sledge Hammer" arguments | 2 in the way of low prices, in order that you maded with us. We will not misrepresent any of our goods, all we ask of any person is a right to a share of their custom. Expenses are sure in a large establishment like ours, but profits can only be counted on goods sold. A quick profit is the best, be it ever so small. We know this and always make the "Almighty dollar" act as our agent when Ex purchasing stock from the manufacturer, and spot cash is the watchword that guided us through ten years of almost unparalled business success. Our customers wants are always in view when we buy stock, and we always mark goods with Rock Bottom Figures, thus making a bargain of every article in our stock. If you come from a distance by rail to examine our stock the money you save in purchases will be more than equivalent to a

We do not wish to brag, but certainly our great success is the very best evidence that Square dealing, and business-like methods, have been shown in all our transactions with the public.

Now, when we are asking for an increased share of patronage, it would be suicidal for us to misrepresent our stock. We have a large and most complete line of Glothing, Gents Furnishing Goods, Hats, Shoes, and we have also added a large and most complete line of Ladies Wraps, etc., and in spite of the advance in the prices in various grades of goods, we have decided to increase our popularity by offering everything at figures that will compel all to acknowledge us as the "Leaders in Low Prices" If you need anything in our line come We are always glad to show goods them will do the rest. If you trade with us, there will be no use to go for bargains, as we guarantee every article in our establishment to be a genuine "Money Saver," and hope by uniform, contreous treatment to merit an ever increasing patronage. Very Respectfully, child complained to a physician that her baby was pale and delicate. He esked to see the child, and the nurse brought in the two-year-old from the old veranda, where he had been seated on a rug looking at a picture book. His dainty nainsook frock was spotless, as were also the pink kid boots and silk socks.

"What that child needs is whole-

At the expiration of the prescribed time the baby was transformed. The eyes that had been heavy were bright, the skin had acquired a healthful glow. the arms and legs were llump and the languid, tired little patient had become a rollicking boy. The freedom, fresh air and clean dirt had, in a month's time wrought a greater change in the child's system than all the skill of the rollich fragrents. medical fraternity could have effected.

A child is much happier if untrammeled by too many "don'ts." And the mother is happier too if she need not say "don't" every hour in the day .-Harper's Bazar.

DISCIPLING OF CHILDREN Don't expect the child to instinctively understand morals without instruction any more than you would expect him to read without teaching, and don't be afraid by becoming his intimate and confidential friend you will lose any influence over him. Just as soon as he knows that you understand his world, that you appreciate his feetings, that you sympathize with his desire, that you are anxious to afford him all the hapiness possible, he will become all the more amenable to your influence and control. It is not necessary nor advisable always to explain to a child the reason for every order given. bacon or otherwise salted pork was mainly eaten by the lower classes. Now, even these don't want to eat salted pork any more. The most common breakfast dish on the table of the wellto-do is that of fried bacon, while a small, long and lean ham of 12 to 15 pounds is almost invariably found on sideboard and receives frequent attention. This unique change in the taste and fashion has been brought about chiefly by two causes—by the mild cure and by the evolution of that particular type of bacon hog of which the red Tamworth is the best representative.

It is not remarkable then that the ideal bacon hogs fetch a much higher price than the thick, fat, chunky hog, which has been described by some one as "animated lard bladders."
