when he started from Washington for Mexico for a vacation and rest ing from influenza and serious catarrhal conditions. Since his return to Washington, some time ago he has been quite ill. Until Thursday, however, fears for his death were not entertained.

Dr. Taimage was born at Bound Brook, N. J., January 7, 1832. His entrance into the Church was undoubtedly because of the fact that two of his uncles, one brotherin-law and two brothers, had become ministers. When 18 years old he joined the Church, and the following year entered the University of the City of New York, but did not exhibit any marked preference for his studies, becoming notable rather because of his oratorical 1863 he was made major general also received a protest from a Neability and his brilliant dramatic after Stuart's death and lieutenant braska maiden of 32 summers, capacity.

That this medicine radically and effectively purifies the blood is known to every druggist, known to hundreds of thousands of people who themselves or by their friends have experienced its curative powers.

The worst cases of scrofula, the most agonizing sufferings from salt rheum and other virulent blood diseases, are conquered by it, while those cured of boils, pimples, dyspeptic and bilious symptoms and that tired feeling are numbered by millions.

Force your child to chew slowly and thoroughly every mouthful. If nothing else will do, compel him at frequent intervals to lay down his knife and fork that the importance of prolonged chewing may be impressed upon him. Don't allow your child to gulp down water or any other liquid with his solid food. If you allow him to drink while he eats, the salivary glands will not act. They will not need to act, for he will be able to swallow his food easily when it is made moist by water.

You can't do anything to help along the unconscious process which goes on in the stomach, but you can do everything to help that process by attending to the fourth necessity, which demands blood and the heat of the blood in the stomach. Allow no child after eating to take violent exercise, to study or even to read an exciting book. The brain has first call upon the service of the heart, and as soon as the brain is excited the blood leaves the stomach and goes to the head. The muscles also when too violently exerted draw the blood away from the stomach.

It is absolutely impossible for a child or a grown person to digest properly or to get strength and vitality from what he eats unless for at least a half hour after eating the stomach be al-
