

PEACE WITH HONOR

Peace with honor has come to the Boers. The laying down of their arms to the vastly superior force which they have fought so long and so stubbornly is no disgrace, but the wisdom of heroism. Their fame as a brave and high-minded nation is secure in history. Henceforth they unite their destiny indissolubly with that of another brave and high-minded nation, which had the good fortune to overcome them in the field. Prosperity will give to each adversary its large meed of admiration. The struggle of the Boers at the last had something of the pathetic character of that of Leonidas at the pass of Thermopylae. They had staked and given their all for their country, for their loved kinsmen and their independence. That they were accounted wrong at the beginning by a great part of the world does not detract from their glory. The British race has again given proof of the great qualities which have made it master of half the world. An iron purpose, fearlessness and bulldog pertinacity, coupled with a prodigal use of material resources, have wrought the result. The cost measured by money is some $1,200,000,000; in blood and anguish it can never be fully measured. But, with the two races in South Africa constituted as they were, the war was inevitable. It was foreordained even at Majuba Hill. The peace of 1881, indeed, instead of settling the feud, made the final contest more certain. England could never rest content with a half-sovereignty, nor the Boers with a half-independence. And the manifest destiny of South Africa, besides, did not lie in political sub-division. This is what Cecil Rhodes so clearly saw, and his vision is now about to come true. In place of the narrow and selfish ideas of representation that caused the intolerable situation of the Uitlanders in the Transvaal, the broad principles of self-government are now to be applied, making all men equal before the law. A state richer than Canada and stronger than Australia may develop in this new era.—Philadelphia Record.

INTERESTING TO ASTHMA SUFFERERS

Daniel Bente of Otterville, Iowa, writes: "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all."—Sold by T. E. Zimmerman & Co.

TO WIFE OUT COUNTY DEBT

By agreement with the Fuller syndicate which has purchased the Western Maryland Railroad, Washington county will receive $434,000 for its interest in the road. This represents just what the county had invested in the road, and payment is to be made by the syndicate on or before June 15. The county has a bonded debt of $279,500, and the County Commissioners have decided to wipe out this debt as soon as possible with the money received from the Fuller syndicate. An arrangement was made by the Commissioners with Mr. G. Clem Goodrich, of the banking house of Mackubin, Goodrich & Co., of Baltimore, to buy in all of the Washington county bonds offered on an income basis of from 3 to 3 1/2 per cent. This is considered fair to the bondholders. For the bonds not secured at once the county will create a sinking fund and buy them in as they become due. "Then the county will not owe a dollar, and have about $150,000 left from the sale of its interest in the Western Maryland," said Mr. Goodrich. "The assessed valuation of the county is $20,000,000, and real value about $35,000,000."

ROANOKE, Va., June 4.—The postoffice at Wytheville was robbed last night of $225 in cash and a pouch of registered letters and several registered packages. The thieves were evidently frightened away, as they left several thousand dollars' worth of stamps and $300 in cash behind in one of the two safes which they had opened. The robbery was discovered about 5 o'clock this morning, when one of the office employes entered the building for the purpose of starting a rural delivery man on his route. The robbers gained an entrance to the office through a rear window. So far there is no clue to the identity of the thieves, but they were evidently experts or local parties familiar with the workings of the safes, as they were opened by working the combination locks.

SPRING FEVER. Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Mountsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried."—T. E. Zimmerman & Co.

STRIKE OF MINERS. Trouble in the Italian colony of miners at the New York Mine of the Black, Sheridan & Wilson Co., Allegany county, has caused a serious strike there, and Deputy Sheriff Aaron has deputized about 25 men to go to the mines to aid in clearing the way for the men to go to work. There are about 150 Italians working at the New York Mine, and they have taken a strong dislike to Mike Arnone, the company's agent and interpreter, whom they want discharged. Wednesday morning they completely surprised the company by refusing to go to work, and threatened to shoot the first person who attempted to work thus preventing the 450 men employed from working Wednesday. Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of the 10 ringleaders, and it is expected that the mine will be working as usual in a day or two.

HOW TO AVOID TROUBLE. Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over, and if procured now may save you a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by T. E. Zimmerman & Co., Druggists.

Girls In Laundry Terror-Stricken. Residents in the neighborhood of Poca and Fayette streets, Baltimore about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning were for a time panic stricken by a loud report, resulting from the blowing off of a cap on an exhaust steam pipe connected with a gasoline tank in the establishment of the Sanitary Laundry Company, 118 and 120 North Poca Street. The force of the explosion shook the entire building, and the girls who are in the employ of the company were terror-stricken, but fortunately all escaped injury. Engine Company No. 1, and the Salvage Corps responded, and soon restored order. The loss was about $25.

NEW POLITICAL PARTY. DENVER, Col., June 4.—The organization of a new political labor party has finally been agreed upon by the Western Labor Union Convention, which adopted a declaration for socialism and independent political action. The convention today adopted the name "The American Labor Union" for the organization, and voted to send organizers throughout the East. President Daniel McDonald says the party will not enter the political field with nominations for at least another year.

SOLDIERS COMING HOME. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., June 3.—A week from tomorrow the transport Warren will be due from Manila, and on the 16th the Kilpatrick is expected to arrive. Word has been received here that the Hancock left Manila on May 27th, bringing the headquarters and 10 companies of the Ninth Infantry, 443 enlisted men, 50 prisoners and 314 casuals. The transport Sherman left Manila May 28 with Major General Lloyd Wheaton and Brigadier General Simon Snyder, in addition to 580 enlisted men of the Sixth Infantry, 56 enlisted men of the Nineteenth Infantry, 51 sick men, 11 insane and 49 discharged soldiers.

AND now a branch of one of the trusts threatens to remove its plant from a Massachusetts town if the Legislature passes a bill requiring employes to be paid in currency instead of checks. The removal threat is being carried rather far when it is used to overawe a State Legislature.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

A DESPERATE STRUGGLE. At least 100 persons were injured in Chicago Wednesday during the riots caused by the strike of teamsters employed by the packing houses. Some of the injured are believed to be fatally hurt. A caravan of wagons laden with meat to be delivered to provision dealers left the stockyards at 9 A. M. under heavy police protection. It returned at night after an all-day fight between the police and mobs of strike sympathizers. The police fired many shots, mostly in the air.

A conference was held at night to take steps for settling the strike by arbitration. The strike of drivers for the Chicago Department stores has been settled. The soldiers of the First Illinois Regiment are held in readiness to be ordered out.

A DEPOT of the local branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to cost $4,000, will be erected at Chesterton. At five other places along the line substantial waiting rooms and offices will be built.

FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1902.

DURING the month of May there were 894 deaths in Baltimore.

The store of Edward Lord at East Newmarket, Dorchester county, was burned May 30.

THERE is very little change in the condition of Mr. John M. Bell, who is very ill at his residence near this place.

The paving of streets in Cumberland with brick is to become general. The improvement will probably cost $50,000.

The Talbot County Commissioners have fixed the county tax rate at 88 cents on the $100. The assessed value of the property is $9,000,000.

FOUND.—A leather pocketbook containing a sum of money. Owner can get same by calling upon David Hill, near town, and paying charges.

MR. JOHN A. HAMILTON, the well-known financier, formerly head of the banking firm of Hamilton & Co., died at his home in Baltimore, of paralysis.

Quite a number of fish, it is said, have been caught in the Potomac by the use of 17-year locusts as bait. The bass season opening in Montgomery county June 1 will see the use of the locust to a large extent.

VICTOR GRIFFEN, 35 years old, an inmate of the insane department of Bayview since August, 1900, escaped and was afterward captured by Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore train and killed.

At the town election held Monday H. Spencer Matthews was re-elected Commissioner for Oxford for three years. He had no opposition. James N. Perego was elected Bailiff, defeating Chas. E. Dobson by a majority of 100.

The merchants and business men of Frederick have decorated their places of business elaborately with purple and white bunting in honor of the Elks' carnival, which opened there Monday evening and will continue for one week.

Mrs. Nancy Gordon, 60 years, while returning from the Dunkard love feast at Brownsville, Washington county, Saturday night, was knocked down on the public road by a team driven by young men and seriously injured. Three buggies passed over her in rapid succession and at racing speed.

FOUR alleged murderers—Hyman Seltzer, charged with the murder of Wolf Lichtenstein; John W. Devine, colored, charged with the murder of Patrolman Charles J. Donahue; Chas. P. Zinck, charged with the murder of his wife, Emma May Zinck; and George Mack, charged with the murder of Griffin Hall—were arraigned in the Baltimore Criminal Court. They all pleaded not guilty. Devine's case was removed to Towson.

BOY KILLED BY A HORSE. The 15-year-old son of Henry Kreiger, of near Seitzland, Pa., was instantly killed while engaged with an older brother plowing in the field. The boys had a new horse hooked up, which became balky and started to kick. The younger of the two was struck in the pit of the stomach by the vicious animal's hoof. The blow was so severe as to cause internal hemorrhages.

FIRE IN CARROLL COUNTY. A large barrack belonging to William Wilhelm, Manchester, together with its contents, was destroyed by fire Monday. It is supposed that the fire was caused by a passing traction engine, which was being fired with wood and did not have a spark arrester attached. The loss is estimated at $600, with an insurance of $250 on building, $200 on produce and $100 on farming implements in the Royal Insurance Company.

DIDN'T LIKE HIS SENTENCE. The motion for a new trial in the case of Raffaele De Stefano, convicted of assault with intent to kill Antonia Bonivento, was overruled by the Carroll County Court Tuesday and he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. De Stefano became violent when sentence was pronounced and caused a scene in the courtroom. He gave vent to his rage by crying and tearing his hair with both hands, and then tried to commit suicide by choking himself.

He choked himself until he got black in the face, and it was with difficulty that Deputy Sheriff Motter succeeded in breaking his hold on his neck. He was taken to Baltimore Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Crawford.

Committed to Montevue John H. Harbaugh, of Eyer's Valley was adjudged to be of unsound mind by a jury summoned to inquire into his sanity. Judge McSherry committed him to Montevue.

PURSUED BY FIRE. The family of Alvey Davis, of Pinesburg, Washington county, were twice burned out of a home within a week. Last Friday their home on the Gruber farm was destroyed and they moved temporarily into a smokehouse. Nearly all the goods saved from the first fire was stacked in the smokehouse. Another small building near by was also used by the family. The temporary home caught fire on Monday and was burned with all the household effects.

REV WILLIAM A. McATEE DEAD. Rev. Dr. William A. McAtee, a native of Washington county, died May 30 in New York city. He was the son of William B. McAtee and was educated at Princeton. He formerly resided at Smithsburg and Hagerstown. For many years he was pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Danville, Pa., and at Madison, Wis. He was a brother of Miss Agnes J. McAtee, of Clifton Springs, N. Y., and United States district judge John L. McAtee, of Oklahoma. He was also a brother of the late Walter B. McAtee, of Baltimore.

POOR CROPS. The drouth still continues in this section of the county. No heavy rain has fallen here for about seven weeks. During this time there was two or three slight showers and everything is suffering from the want of a good soaking rain. The hay crop in this section of the country will hardly make one fourth of a crop, while the prospects for wheat are very poor. There are a few fields of fairly good wheat in this district, but the majority of the wheat fields are in a very bad condition with no hope of improving, as harvest time is near at hand. The wheat is short in straw and the heads are small. The growing corn is also suffering from rain.

BOILER EXPLOSION IN EASTON. The eastern section of Easton was badly shaken up about 2 o'clock last Thursday afternoon by the explosion of a 50 horsepower boiler at the Farmer's Packing House. Mr. L. S. Fleckstein, the manager and his son, W. N. Fleckstein, were testing the boiler preparatory to beginning packing. Both were close to the boiler when the explosion occurred and were severely bruised by flying pieces of the debris. The boiler was in a building which adjoined the main packing house, and was destroyed, and a considerable portion of the north end of the main building was hurled into the air and carried into a field one-third of a mile distant. The damage done is estimated to be about $800.

HOLY ORDERS CONFERRED. In the chapel at Mount St. Mary's College, near this place, Bishop A. A. Curtis conferred orders on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings of last week, as follows: Tonsure and minor orders upon Messrs. John L. O'Donnell, Diocese of Altoona, Pa., and Patrick H. Boyle, Diocese of Little Rock, Ark.; subdeaconships upon Revs. John W. Dunn, Diocese of Mobile, Ala., and Patrick H. Boyle, Diocese of Little Rock; deaconships upon Revs. John W. Dunn and Patrick H. Boyle.

On Tuesday morning, June 17, Revs. M. E. Fogarty, Diocese of Ogdensburg, N. Y.; John W. Dunn and Patrick H. Boyle will be raised to the priesthood.

BISHOP'S POCKETS PICKED. A pocket book containing a check for $700 was taken from the pocket of Bishop Talbot, presumably at the W. M. depot, Gettysburg, on Memorial Day. The check was to have been presented as the last payment of the debt of the Church of the Prince of Peace, Gettysburg. Beside the $700 check the pocket book contained several other checks and money. The book was made of alligator skin and was highly prized by the Reverend gentleman, having been presented to him by a near friend many years ago. The $700 check was indorsed and was drawn on a Bethlehem bank which was notified not to pay it. Bishop Dudley also lost $75, presumably by pickpockets.—Gettysburg Star and Sentinel.

FIRE ON FOLLY QUARTER FARM. The barns, stables and a number of other outbuildings on the Folly Quarter farm, in the Third district of Howard county, owned by Mr. Royal Phelps Carroll and tenanted by Mr. Christian Brosenne, were destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The buildings were in a cluster, and most of them, valued at more than $10,000, were burned. A large quantity of farming implements is said to have been lost. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

The Folly Quarter estate is part of the historic Carroll Manor estate, the home of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, and is considered one of the most valuable in Western Maryland.

Offered To Cure Cancer For $25. Leroy S. Anderson, who had been on his good behavior since his partner, "Doc" Charles Cramer, was shot and killed by Officer Six two years ago, was arrested Monday evening on a warrant sworn out by Mr. Chas. E. O'Hara, of Rhieles Mills, charging Anderson with obtaining money under false pretenses. He alleges that Anderson called at his home, representing himself to be a physician from Johns Hopkins Hospital and that he could cure Mr. O'Hara's daughter of cancer. He said he would do it for $25 and required $5 in advance. She paid the $5 and he gave her some medicine. Anderson said there is a misunderstanding somewhere. He said the money was paid to him with the understanding that it was to be refunded if he did not effect a cure.—Sun.

WRECK ON THE P. R. R.

Two Passenger Trains Collide at New Midway. While backing into a siding at New Midway, this county, the Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train which left Frederick at 9:45 o'clock Monday morning in charge of conductor W. T. Haller was run into by the southbound passenger train in charge of Conductor C. J. McCarty, due in Frederick at 10:20 o'clock.

The engines and baggage cars of both trains were badly wrecked by the collision. Fireman Abel, of the southbound train had one of his legs broken, and Mail Clerk C. B. Perkins, of the same train, was slightly injured.

The wreck occurred at 10:15 o'clock. Conductor McCarty's train was late and Conductor Haller, whose train usually passes the southbound train at Walkersville, was ordered to proceed to New Midway. The latter point had been reached and Conductor Haller's train was backing into the siding when Conductor McCarty's train swung around the curve and crashed into the engine of the other train.

Engine man Wm. Strawsburg and Fireman Abel, of the southbound train; Engine man John Swope and Fireman McCall, of the northbound train, all stuck to their posts, and were badly shaken up by the collision, but Abel was the only one injured.

An engine was immediately sent out from Frederick and shortly after two o'clock Monday afternoon returned with Conductor Haller's train.

COMMEMORATION EXERCISES. The ninety-fourth annual commencement exercises of Mount St. Mary's College will be held at that institution on Wednesday, June 18, at 9 a. m.

The annual commencement exercises of St. Joseph's Academy will be held at that institution on Thursday morning, June 19, at 9 o'clock.

The commencement exercises of St. Ephemia's School will be held on Friday evening, June 13, at 5 o'clock.

The annual commencement exercises of the Emmitsburg High School will be held in Spangler's Opera House Tuesday evening, June 17, at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

RUN OVER AND KILLED. Charles Frederick Burger, aged 35 years, was run over and killed by cars in the Western Maryland railroad yards in Hagerstown at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, but his body was not found until 5 o'clock. No one knows how the accident happened, but it is generally supposed that he went to sleep along the track and during the shifting of cars was run over. He was found face downward, wedged between the trucks of an empty box car across the rail. His shoulder was crushed and a black bruise was on his head. Two boys, Clarence and Harry Feigley, while playing found the corpse. The shifting engine had to pull away the car before the body could be released. Justice Hoffman decided a jury of inquest was unnecessary. Hundreds of persons gathered at the scene. Burger was formerly brakeman on the Western Maryland and Cumberland Valley roads. Recently he was truck farming for his brother, William Burger. He enlisted in the United States Marine Service several months ago, but was discharged for a physical disability.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Mary A. Allen and her husband, Theodore Allen, have been separated for ten years or more. They have a boy, Frederick, who was living with William T. Lynch, near Cordova, Md., his mother's brother, where he has been several years. Recently the boy's father took him away to Paces Island, but he was restored to the care of Mr. Lynch on habeas corpus at the instance of the mother. Last Sunday the boy's father again carried him off, and habeas corpus was again invoked. Theodore Allen was arrested and brought into court for contempt. The boy told the story of his abduction. Allen had no defence. Judge Pearce made some timely and scathing comments and sentenced Allen to 60 days imprisonment in jail. Frederick Allen is a bright-looking boy, with a modest and intelligent expression, and was neatly dressed. When the case was over James Gannon took him back to Mr. Lynch's at the request of the court.

DURING the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by T. E. Zimmerman & Co.

DEATH OF MRS. CHARLES WADDLES.

After a prolonged illness Mrs. Charles Waddles, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mowery, of Ottumwa, Iowa, died May 20 at Tucson, Ariz., where she had gone with her husband with the hope of regaining her health. Notwithstanding her frailty, the news of her death was received in Ottumwa with a great shock. A year ago last December Mrs. Waddles became ill and in the early spring of 1901 she went to Denver with the hope of regaining her health. Last September she returned to her home in Ottumwa, thinking she had regained her full strength. It was soon found, however, that the climate of Iowa was too rigorous, and last December she returned to Denver, accompanied by her husband. After spending a short time in that city the physicians recommended the Arizona climate and accordingly they went to Tucson. For a time it seemed as though Mrs. Waddles was improving, but for the past few weeks it was seen that life was only a question of a short time, and she came May 20. The deceased was born in 1879.

In August, 1898, Miss Mowery was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Waddles. Shortly after their marriage they came to Emmitsburg and spent a few months with Mr. Waddles' mother in this place. From here they returned to Ottumwa. Mrs. Waddles was most highly esteemed by all who knew her and the deepest sympathy goes out from the many friends to the bereaved husband and family.

Her remains were taken to Ottumwa for interment. The funeral services were held at the home of her parents on May 25. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. E. Craig, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Taneytown and Littlestown.

Dr. J. A. Flynn and Dr. J. T. Murphy, of Washington, D. C., were the guests of Mr. Annan Horner. Mrs. Amanda Smith and daughter, Miss Annetta Smith, of Waynesboro, are the guests of Mrs. Mary A. Winter. Mr. and Mrs. Hack and daughter, Miss Eleanor, have gone to Atlantic City for the month of June. Miss Teresa Harner is visiting friends in Taneytown and Littlestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Merhing, Miss Jennie Martz, Mr. Crum, Miss May Schaefer and Mr. Oscar Kefauver, all of Frederick, who were visiting at "Claverdale," the home of Mr. Clark Schaefer, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams and son, and Mr. Lewis Mentzer made a visit to Frederick, Kempton and New Market.

Mr. Hinkle, editor of the Littlestown Jeffersonian, was in town Wednesday, and during his stay in town paid his respects to this office.

Mr. Joseph Rider and two children, of near Iowa, spent Wednesday at Mr. Rider's mother, Mrs. Martha Rider, Mrs. William Zurgable and little son, Willie, are visiting Mrs. Zurgable's parents, near town.

PROTECTION FOR RURAL DELIVERY MAIL BOXES.

The following paragraph is taken from the Postoffice Appropriation bill: "Whoever shall hereafter willfully or maliciously injure, tear down, or destroy any letter box or other receptacle established by order of the Postmaster-in-chief for the receipt or delivery of mail matter from or out of such letter box or other receptacle, or shall willfully aid or assist in any of the aforementioned offenses, shall for every such offense be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than three years."

This paragraph became effective when the President signed the bill, and it is now in full force.

Depredations covered by this law should be promptly reported to the United States Attorney for the District in which they occur, and the report should be accompanied by such positive evidence as it may be possible to submit, indicating who are the guilty parties.

WASHINGTON COUNTY TAX.

The Washington County Commissioners Monday afternoon fixed the tax rate at 75 cents on the $100, which is an increase of 10 cents over last year. The basis is $20,968,677, an increase over last year of $533,585. The school board asks for $61,639.39, of which $13,960 is for new schoolhouses and repairs. The appropriation allowed schools was $54,518, same as last year. Recently the county teachers in a body went before the Commissioners and asked that $18,000 extra be levied for increased salaries for teachers, janitors' fees and a longer school term, but the Commissioners made no provision for the $18,000 in the levy.

The increase in the levy was necessary partly because of deficient levies in former years of roads, bridges, outdoor pensioners, court expenses, etc.

MR. MARRELL COMMISSIONED.

Ascertain as Yet as to What His Duties Will Be. Mr. John U. Markell, of Frederick city, the present chief deputy in the office of Internal Revenue Collector B. F. Parlett, who was appointed National Bank Examiner, has received his commission. The commission is signed by Mr. William Barret Ridgely, Comptroller of the Currency, and approved by Mr. O. L. Spaulding, Acting Secretary of the Treasury. It does not state that the appointment is made vice Col. William E. Griffith, resigned, nor does it say that it is made for Maryland. It simply authorizes Mr. Markell to act as an examiner of National banking association under the direction of the Comptroller. This is the form which all the commissioners of National Bank Examiners take, and under it Mr. Markell can be sent anywhere in the United States.

It is stated that Colonel Griffith has not resigned the National Bank Examinership, nor has he any information that he has been removed or is expected to resign. He left for Snow Hill, Md., on Friday last under orders from the Department, to examine a bank there.

Mr. Markell will go over to Washington to see the Comptroller as to the time he will be expected to enter upon his new duties. In view of the coming change in the head of the Internal Revenue Department in this district, it may be desirable to permit Mr. Markell to remain at his present post until the new Internal Revenue Collector qualifies, whose appointment is now expected, at anytime.

Mr. Markell was endorsed for Bank Examiner by the president and the executive committee of the Baltimore Clearing-House Association, officials of the Frederick city banks and other banks in the State.—Frederick News.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVED.

Memorial Day was fittingly observed in this place last Friday by Arthur Post No. 41, G. A. R. The exercises were held in the public school house, beginning at 9 a. m., and were opened by the Emmitsburg Choral Union rendering the chorus, "Decoration Hymn," after which Rev. W. C. Shulenberger offered a prayer. The male quartette, "The Sleep in their Country's Blue," was then sung by Messrs. T. E. Zimmerman, A. Annan Horner, G. Lloyd Palmer, E. L. Horner and Rev. David H. Riddle. The memorial address was delivered by Major E. Y. Goldsborough, of Frederick; Quartette—"Dropping From The Ranks," by Choral Union. The rendering of this selection closed the exercises at the schoolhouse.

A line of march was then formed in this order: Emmitsburg Cornet Band, Arthur Post No. 41, G. A. R. and comrades, school children carrying flowers and flags. Major Goldsborough was in command. The line of march was down Main street to Kerrigan's alley, up Kerrigan's alley to Green street, halting in front of the Catholic cemetery, where a detail from Arthur Post directed the strewing of the graves with flowers by the school children. The line then moved to the Public Square and up Main street to Zacharias' alley, thence to the Lutheran cemetery, where the programme was concluded as follows:

Reading of the Grand Army Ritual; Reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address by Rev. D. H. Riddle; Remarks by Major E. Y. Goldsborough; Chorus—"Let Them Rest," by Choral Union; Benediction by Rev. D. H. Riddle. Strewing of the graves by the school children. At the close of the services the organizations disbanded at the cemetery.

A YOUNG MAN'S MISHAP.

Mr. Samuel W. Holter, of Mount Philip, on the Eastern slope of Catoctin Mountain, met with a severe accident at Broad Run, in the Middletown valley of Frederick county, where he drove to call on a young lady. While out of the buggy in a lane opening a gate, a dog ran up and bit his horse on the leg. The animal started to run and Mr. Holter tried to check him. Seeing he would be jammed between the buggy and the fence, he released his hold, and was thrown violently against the gate, the top of which was strong white barbed wire. He was gashed under the chin and across the lips; a barb caught in the corner of his mouth and ripped his cheek open over an inch in length. He was otherwise cut and scratched and presented a frightful appearance. He was taken to Middletown, where his wounds were dressed. The horse continued his flight and demolished the buggy, which was a new vehicle.

AN AGED LADY'S HOUSE ROBBED.

Terrorized in Their Bed Chamber By Two Robbers, Who Demanded Money. Mrs. Sophia Mentzer, an aged lady, and Miss Laura Lum, who lives with her in Smithsburg, Washington county, had a thrilling experience Wednesday night of last week with robbers. With a pistol pointed at her head and threats made against her life by the robbers, Miss Lum was forced to remain quiet while the house was being searched and robbed.

Mrs. Mentzer is the widow of Jacob Mentzer. She lives in a brick house in rather a secluded spot, with no buildings very close, and, with only the two occupants, the robbers met with no resistance. About 2 o'clock in the morning Miss Lum was awakened by a noise, and a little later was startled by two men walking into the bedroom from the kitchen. One of the men carried a candle, and Miss Lum says she recognized both of them. A noise she made attracted the attention of the robbers, and one of them covered her with a revolver and threatened to blow her brains out if she made an outcry. The robbers demanded where Mrs. Mentzer kept her money. Miss Lum replied that she did not have any money in the house, so which one of the robbers is reported to have replied: "We know better; that's what old Eliza Waltz said. We know there is money here, and we want it."

Miss Lum insisted that she had no money, and while one of the robbers kept the weapon pointed at her the other one went into the adjoining room and searched about. Mrs. Mentzer's pocketbook, containing about $3 in change, was found in the drawer of the safe. It was taken, but another pocketbook, in which there was $3, was overlooked. After searching in the other rooms downstairs and not finding any more money the robbers, repeating their threats, departed the way they entered.

Mrs. Mentzer and Miss Lum occupied different beds in the same room, but the former, who is nearly 80 years of age and afflicted with infirmities of her advanced years, did not realize what was going on. The robbers did not pay any attention to Mrs. Mentzer, apparently not fearing any trouble from her. As soon as possible Miss Lum gave the alarm.

Entrance was gained in the side of the house through the kitchen. The bedroom where Mrs. Mentzer and Miss Lum were asleep adjoins. The doors were not locked and the robbers had easy access to all parts of the house, but did not go upstairs. They worked quietly and swiftly, and evidently expected to make a big haul, as it was generally supposed that Mrs. Mentzer kept considerable money in the house. She is a woman of means, but at this time she had only the small change which the robbers secured.

On the information of Miss Lum Elmer Byrum and Charles Byrum, two young men of Smithsburg, were arrested and locked in Hagerstown Jail for a hearing.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few years my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by T. E. Zimmerman & Co., Druggists.

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

Children Services will be held in the Lutheran Church at Fairfield next Sunday. Proceeds for the Orphans' Home at Loyville.

The Sisters of Charity of the Episcopal Church have rented two cottages near Blue Ridge Summit, and will spend the summer season there. Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, of Chambersburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sanders, of Fairfield.

The families of Fairfield who were suffering with whooping cough are nearly all well. Decoration services at Fairfield were largely attended. Mr. Zac Sanders, of this place, is reported on the sick list.

The corn in this section of the country did not come up very regular. The result is replanting. The hay crop is short. Clover is very short and the late sowing of grain has not gathered up very much owing to the dryness of the weather.

Mr. Isaac Hahn, of Blue Ridge Summit, sold a pair of horses to a Harrisburg man for $350. Pretty good price. The Sunday School Convention of Adams County will be held in Fairfield June 3.

Mrs. Cora Myers, of near New Oxford, is dead. Her remains were buried last Saturday at that place. She leaves a husband and a small child. She was a daughter of Mr. T. Trimmer Riley, of Franklin county.

It has been a long time since we have heard from our friend Mr. S. K. Hostetter, of Colorado. An item from that place would be gladly read and appreciated. Let us hear from Colorado.

The locusts have made their appearance and their music is heard everywhere.

STATE SENATOR INDICTED.

State Senator Applegarth, of Worcester county, has been indicted by the grand jury on the charge of violating the local option law of Dorchester county by selling whiskey, and also on the charge of attempting to influence two members of the grand jury to persuade the others not to return a true bill against him for the sale of liquor in Lukes district, where his store is located. Thomas Ruark and James Riggins are named in the bills as the persons to whom the liquor was sold, and D'Arcy Brinsfield and Wilbur F. Jones are named as the members of the grand jury who had been approached. Senator Applegarth, who has given bail for his appearance at the November term of court, has retained Phillips Lee Goldsborough, John E. Pattison and Sewell T. Milbourne as his counsel.—American.

AFTER "GEN." MASON'S DELEG.

The Baltimore News says: "The body of General H. H. Mason, who died suddenly last Tuesday after being released from jail, is still at the Morgue, and Coroner F. F. Martin, of the Central district, who holds what few papers the deceased possessed when he died has received a number of communications from individuals who were interested in the 'General'." "One of them is from a manufacturer of artificial limbs, who resides at Newport News, Va. He says that the wooden leg which the deceased wore prior to and during his imprisonment was purchased from him, and has not yet been paid for, and requests that the leg be returned to him after its former owner is buried. Dr. Martin does not appear to be inclined to act favorably regarding the request, and when the 'General' is interred the substitute limb will be buried with him.

"Mrs. Serena Mason of Brooklyn, N. Y., has written to Dr. Martin asserting that she is the legal widow of the deceased and holds a small insurance on his life. Mrs. E. V. Mason, Richmond, Va., makes a similar assertion, and another Mrs. Mason, who resides in Germantown, Pa., also claims that she is a widow of the deceased. It was reported Wednesday morning that a number of veterans of the Civil War would endeavor to raise funds to have the former soldier decently buried."

A FREDERICK GIRL MARRIES A SHOWMAN.

FREDERICK, Md., June 3.—N. Oscar Obenhausen, better known as Oscar Carry, who has been travelling with the Robinson Carnival Company, and Miss Kitty Moore, daughter of Dr. George Moore, were married in the parsonage of the Reformed Church this evening by Rev. Dr. E. E. Eschbach.

Carry came with the company, and it is said he had not met the young lady until last evening, when their friendship ripened into love, which, it is said by one of his friends, was accelerated by a gift of $50 from the bride with which to rig himself up for the ceremony. Carry is said to have been with the Bostock aggregation in Baltimore, and only joined this company a few days ago. When it became known this evening that Miss Kitty was to be married great interest was manifested, and as the hack drove through the crowded streets it was followed by a great throng. Miss Moore is about 21 years old, and is about six feet tall. Carry claims to be a member of a prominent family in Holland. Attired in a foreign costume, and wearing wooden boot-shaped shoes, he went around the streets announcing the attractions for one of the shows.—Baltimore Herald.

FRIGHTENED OFF THE THIEF.

Mrs. Blinton Baker, of Leithersburg, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Miner, of Hagerstown, had a very exciting experience between 11 and 12 o'clock Monday night with a burglar. Mrs. Baker awoke to find the man standing at the foot of her bed. The thief told her he would kill her if she made a noise. She remained still for a few moments, but then gave a shriek, which frightened the burglar, who jumped out of a window to the front porch and escaped.

HE PLAYED BURGLAR

HE DID IT INNOCENTLY AND DID IT ARTISTICALLY AS WELL.

The plausible scheme by which a safe expert was fooled and used by a trio of notorious cracksmen to get at their plunder.

To the man whose shingle bears the inscription "Safe Expert" and whose little shop, not far from the great dry goods district, contains a full assortment of implements for the forcible opening of safes, the writer said, "Would you be well qualified to play the burglar?"

"Yes," said the little keen-eyed man, running his fingers through his scant hair reflectively. "I once did play burglar. In fact, I played the star role in a safe cracking enterprise. I was the innocent means by which a wholesale house was robbed of several thousand dollars which had been taken in too late in the day to be banked.

"I was in business then in another city. I was sitting smoking at my shop door about 8 o'clock one evening when a messenger boy came with a note on the letter paper of a well known house asking me to come at once with my tools to the office of the firm.

"The office was lighted up, and a portly, prosperous looking man sat at a roll top desk, while two clerks, perched on stools, were working at some books.

"I am Mr. —," said the portly one, giving the name of the head of the firm. "Something has gone wrong with the safe, and I want you to open it. The combination is 627-45, but something must have broken inside, for it won't open, and we have got to get some books out of the safe tonight."

"As I tried the combination which the man had given me he explained that he had locked the safe when he went out to dinner and was unable to open it when he came back.

"It was one of those 'blam' filled safes, and I suspected that had done its work inside.

"Nothing to do but drill it open," said I.

"Go ahead," said the portly one, "and don't keep me here any longer than you can help."

"With that he turned to his desk, and I worked away unsuspectingly. There was dead silence except when the man at the desk spoke to one or the other of the clerks about some account, and the tread of the policeman on that beat could be heard as he passed the office.

"I did not realize until afterward that I was working out of view of the passing policeman, for the safe was behind the bookkeeper's desk, but the shades were up and the man at the roll top desk and the bookkeepers could be plainly seen from the street.

"I got on my bits, adjusted the brace, and soon steel was biting steel, but the sound of the ratchet was drowned by the click of the typewriter, for the portly party began dictating to one of the clerks as soon as I began drilling the safe. When I thought it all over afterward, it occurred to me that this was to cover the sound of my operations.

"In half an hour I had a hole in the front of the safe, and a little manipulation got the tumblers into place, and the door swung open.

"Here you are, sir," said I, and the portly man came around to the safe.

"Very neatly done," he said. "You'd make a good burglar."

"But the sound of the ratchet would bring the cops," said I.

"True," remarked the man, and, drawing out a roll of bills, he handed me $20.

"Is that right?" he asked.

"Quite right," I replied. "Shall I come in the morning to fix the safe?"

"No," said he. "I will have the makers of the safe attend to it."

"As I gathered up my tools the portly man directed one of the clerks to get out the books that were needed, and he went back to the desk.

"I trundled back to my shop, meeting the policeman at the corner, and while I was standing chatting with him the trio came out of the office.

"You can come down an hour later than usual in the morning," said the portly man as he climbed into a hansom that had rolled up to the office, and shouting the name of a well known club to the driver, he pulled the doors to and was driven away.

"Before noon the next day the policeman whom I had talked with and a detective came into my shop.

"That was a neat job you did last night," said the policeman.

"What?" I asked, the nature of the work I had done not yet dawning on me.

"The locking of 'one's' safe," said the policeman. "Come along."

"The portly person who employed me to open the safe was a well known burglar who had made up to impersonate the head of the firm, and the two clerks were confederates, one of whom had got a place with the firm to get the key of the safe.

"They had taken possession of the office after it was closed for the day, and, not daring to blow open the safe, because that would have made the police swoop down on them, they had boldly swiped for me to do the job, neatly possessed themselves of nearly $4,000 that was in the safe, and went across the Canadian border before the robbery was discovered when the office was opened the next day.

"I told my story to the magistrate and was released on bonds to appear as a witness when the trio were caught.

"The papers called me 'the innocent burglar.' The name stuck to me and hurt my business, and the police were rather attentive to me, so I came here some years ago."—New York Times.

FASHIONABLE WOODS.

How Birdseye Maple, Curly Walnut and Quartered Oak Are Cut.

It is not commonly known that certain terms applied by furniture men and workers in the wood refer almost entirely to the grain shown by methods of cutting oak, maple, walnut, etc., and the question frequently arises, What is curly walnut or birdseye maple? For clearer explanation the following is presented by Meehan's Monthly.

continuing until the log is used up. A large knife, and not a saw, is used for the purpose, the wood being peeled off like a great shaving; hence birdseye veneers yards in length are made. Few species produce this figure. That obtained from the sugar maple is the finest in our country.

Curly walnut is the root and that portion of the trunk just above the ground. The log is saved in the ordinary way. Curly walnut is obtained from all the species.

Quartered oak is produced by sawing the log into quarters; hence the name. These quarters are then sawed into boards from the circumference toward the center, and thus the "flake" that beautiful figure in quartered oak, is brought out.

HOW TO GROW BEANS.

The wax and stringless green pod varieties for best results should be drilled or dropped four to six inches in the row. They are very tender and should not be planted until all reasonable danger from frost is passed, but after that they may be planted at intervals of two weeks or a little more for succession, advises a Rural New Yorker writer. As soon as the plants are well out of the ground apply the nitrate of soda, same as for early cabbages. It should be applied every few days, especially if there are any traces of rust.

The same treatment as to nitrate of soda (or sulphate, if more convenient) should be followed with the lima beans. These, both bush and pole varieties, especially in the north, should be started in pans or boxes of soil either in the hotbed or sunny windows. They may be started two or three weeks earlier than they could with safety be planted in the open ground. Plant one inch deep, making sure that the eye is down, one in a place, and far enough apart that they may readily be taken up without disturbing the roots.

In taking up be sure that the soil is sufficiently moist to adhere well to them. It is best to take plenty of soil with the plants and set in holes previously dug. With care in handling the plants may be reset with entire safety and the season of maturity very much hastened. The bush limas should be set two feet apart in the rows, as with good soil and culture they will spread a good deal.

If the pole varieties are to be trained to a single pole, they should be set previous to transplanting the beans. Set three or four plants around each pole on a slightly raised mound of earth. Poles seven feet above the ground are sufficiently high, and when the vines reach the top they should be tied there and pinched back.

The trellis is very desirable, but I have very little faith in corn or sunflowers planted in to take the place of poles or trellis. When poles are used, the vines must be trained and tied occasionally to the poles, and the most convenient way is to wind the string of cord used for tying around the left wrist. This allows free use of both hands for the work and saves much trouble by avoiding tangling the cord.

According to the government report, the corn crop of the world in 1900, the latest year for which final quantitative estimates are available, amounted to 2,822,000,000 bushels against 2,718,200,000 bushels in the year preceding and 2,682,287,000 bushels in 1898. These figures, of course, will not bear a too literal construction, but cover the world's crop for which statistics at all trustworthy are extant.

Some years ago an Englishman visited Washington and met a statesman belonging to the minority party who gave a most startling account of the corruption existing in the government and the terrible struggle he had had against it.

"Do you mean to say, sir," asked the stranger seriously, "that you are the only honest man in the American government?"

"Well," replied the statesman, stroking his beard meditatively, "I wouldn't go so far as that. There may be four or five more somewhere."

WINTER IN JAPAN, HARDENED TO COLD.

The Natives Make Little Effort to Combat the Trying Conditions.

The Japanese winter is most trying on account of its continual dampness, but the Japanese are content to remain cold. They make almost no effort to overcome it. The old "bushido" (chivalrous) idea of the "samurai" (knights) was that it was effeminate to feel cold, and such is their severe training that they do not really feel it as we do. The wearing of some extra "kimonos" and the use of a "hibachi" or brazier in which are a few tiny sticks of lighted charcoal are the only concessions to winter weather. With the "hibachi" they never pretend to heat more than their finger tips, which they hold over the coals. It is used when the house is entirely open.

The houses, as every one knows, are built of thin, light wood, and the sliding panels which serve for doors and windows have paper panes. They are apt to be open as closed during the day. The coolies wear thin blue cotton clothes and are always padding through the mud. The storekeepers sit out in their open booths and the workmen go bareheaded about the streets. In the houses of the rich the still cold behind the closed panels is often more intense than that outside in the sunshine, where the air is stirring.

Domesticated Ferns. The lover of ferns will find it an easy matter to domesticate many of the most attractive varieties if he or she will be content to take young plants. They should be removed from their native haunts with a good amount of soil adhering to their roots. Give them, if possible, a shady place to grow in, and make the soil as light as that in which they originally grew. It is well worth while to get a wagon load or two of soil from the woods for the special use of these plants. In lifting them wrap each in a deep basket, applying enough water to saturate the soil clinging to the roots. Do not plant them in the border until after sundown. If the next day is sunny, shade them well and shower them frequently. In some instances most of the old fronds will die off, but if care is taken in lifting and planting and the necessary amount of shade and water is given few of the leaves will be lost.—Eben E. Rexford, in Lippincott's Magazine.

Man Eating Wild Men. In the celebrated "Howlers" of Edward Webb (1890) are dozens of stories that would make Munchausen turn green with envy. One of the most celebrated of these is his story of the wild men of Prester John, which is as follows:

"In the court of Prester John there is a wild man and another in the high street of Constantinople whose allowance is every day a quarter of raw mutton, and when any man dyeth for some notorious offence then they are allowed every day a quarter of man's flesh. These wild men are chained fast to a post every day, the one in Prester John's court, the other in the high street of Constantinople, each of them having a mantel about the shoulders, and all over their bodies they have wonderful long hairs. They are chained by the neck lest they speedily devour all that cometh with their reach."

The Human Voice. Of all the marvelous and mysterious things about the human body the voice is perhaps the most wonderful. No one has ever seen it, and no one can tell what it is.

The soprano sings from her throat notes of the sweetest melody, reaching chords so high it seems something must surely snap. The basso drops his voice till it goes so low as to make you wonder how he does it. The baby cries. The orator and the actor move people to mirth or sorrow.

By contracting or expanding the muscles of the throat and by inhaling and exhaling at the throat produces the thousands of sounds that we call "voice."

Desperate Partings. It is no uncommon thing in Suffolk to see on some country platform a girl starting for her first place in service, with the whole family assembled to see her off. There is bitter weeping and much expenditure of kisses, of maternal injunctions and presentation of flowers. If you watch the inexperienced traveler, you will probably find that her destination is no farther than the next station, a distance of perhaps five or ten miles. To go beyond London is considered the world's end.—Eastern Counties Magazine.

Absentminded. A woman who has an absentminded husband who will bear watching was startled a few weeks ago on her way down the church aisle to see that the good man, who had preceded her, was still wearing his hat. She transmitted a signal to him to remove the objectionable article, when she was still further horrified by seeing him remove his teeth instead.

Inseparable. "Now, then, Willie," said Uncle John, "aren't you tired looking at the monkeys?"

"All right," reluctantly replied the boy, who was on his first visit to the zoo. "Now let's go to the place where the organ grinder's cage is."—Philadelphia Press.

The man who covets his neighbor's house might change his mind if he could look into the cupboard.

Doublet Fracas. Miss Uppersoe—the audience went wild over my singing. I had to repeat my song no less than four times.
