

"FITZ" LEE ON CUBA'S FUTURE

The Washington Times on Tuesday published the following interview with Gen. Fitzhugh Lee on the prospects of the Cuban Republic.

Unless confidence can soon be established in the stability of the Cuban Government and relief afforded by the United States in the matter of the sale of Cuban products, there will be nothing ahead but anarchy and annexation.

There is no direct taxation in the island. All the revenues are derived from customs receipts. During the occupancy of the island by the American forces the revenue receipts were very large, but since the withdrawal of American authority the customs receipts have dwindled perceptibly.

There is a murmur of discontent among the negroes in the island. The negroes, perhaps, have some justification for this complaint against the new Republic. They claim not to have been treated fairly those in authority in the distribution of spoils.

Just how soon trouble would break out General Lee was not prepared to say, but it might occur at any moment.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

For several days a large force of workmen has been engaged on the foundation for the new wireless telegraphy station at the Naval Academy, Annapolis. The enormous mast for this purpose arrived some days ago from Norfolk on the Standish.

The wireless telegraph station is being constructed on the northeast corner of the parade ground and right across the driveway from the Physics and Chemistry Building, whose chief is Prof. N. M. Terry.

$2,000,000 EQUIPMENT.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has practically completed plans for new equipment for 1903. Bids are now being received for the engines and cars. It is proposed to purchase 75 heavy consolidation freight, 15 highclass passenger and 10 switching locomotives, 25 modern passenger coaches and 11 mail, express and baggage cars.

An order has also been placed with the Pullman Company for three dining cars and two combination parlor and cafe cars. These cars will be handsomely furnished, lighted by electricity and modern in every respect.

Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufacturer and which is always kept on hand at the home of every family.

WANT FLUE-CURED TOBACCO.

The tobacco sellers of Petersburg, have just had 5,000 circulars letters printed which are to be sent out to the tobacco growers in the counties of Southside Virginia. The circular says that the demand for tobacco without smoke has increased and that all grades of tobacco cured with flues or without smoke will bring $2 to $3 per hundred pounds more than the same grade cured with smoke.

A postal station has just been established near the head of Old street. This makes two postal stations in Petersburg.

VACATION DAYS.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences.

Among the proposed changes in the judicial system of the Supreme Court of New York, one which meets with serious consideration is the proposition to create a court to deal exclusively with divorce and other matrimonial matters and with the legal troubles that arise between husband and wife.

If you feel too tired for work or pleasure, take Hood's Sarsaparilla—it cures that tired feeling.

IRRIGATED CABBAGE.

Colorado, of "Spud" Fame, Now Adds Cabbage to the List.

Greeley, Colo., famous for its potatoes, or "spuds," has during the last few years developed into an important cabbage growing center, according to a Country Gentleman correspondent, in whose account of the industry occurs the following:

Transplanting is done from the 4th to the 30th of June, according to variety. The plants are then from six to eight inches high. The rows are furrowed out thirty inches apart and the plants set in the side of the furrow fifteen to eighteen inches apart.

One grower increases his yield greatly by irrigating at times with liquid manure. On the line of the lateral above the cabbage field he throws up a dike or small earth embankment around a space into which manure is drawn. The water in the lateral is run into this inclosure and thence through the field. The manure should be stirred up with a fork occasionally while the water is running over it.

The irrigation of cabbage and the application of liquid manure by irrigation might be introduced at the east with great advantage. There the crop is grown to a great extent on lowland near which there is often some stream from which a ditch could be taken out at little cost.

Onion Smut.

According to the Ohio station, onion smut infests the soils into which it has become introduced and attacks onions growing from seed in such soil.

The onion smut is not introduced in onion seed if properly handled, but much more probably in onion sets or infected onions. It may be spread in a variety of ways.

The treatment measures indicated by experiments consist in the application of stone lime and in the use of 40 per cent formaldehyde, commercially known as formalin.

To apply formalin use at a rate of one pound formalin to thirty-seven and one-half to fifty gallons of water (one ounce to two or three gallons) and apply with sprinkler upon the scattered seeds until well moistened; then cover with earth promptly.

Apply stone lime after the usual methods, spreading before permitting it to sink, either in the usual form or finely ground soon before seeding upon the prepared land. Harrowing, m, follow and immediately precede the seeding of this land. Ground lime admits of easier application without increase of cost.

STORM IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.

A severe wind and rain storm passed over Washington county, July 3 doing considerable damage. Part of the roof of Frederick Baker's barn, near Williamsport, was blown off. The pump house of the Cumberland Valley Railroad was unroofed. A ladder was blown down upon which Vinton Eakle was painting a house in Keedysville and he had his leg broken.

The Cheyenne Indians, near Calumet, in Canadian county, Oklahoma, are holding a council of war, angry over an order issued by Major Stouch, Indian Agent, prohibiting them from practicing the tortures, so called, incident to their sun dance. The Indians are excited and the whites near Calumet are frightened.

CORN POKER. The price of corn advanced to 90 cents a bushel on the Chicago Exchange Tuesday—the highest price, it is said, since 1892, when the market touched $1. Mr. John W. Gates, who seems to have a genius for forecasting the price at which grain will sell, had bet $70,000 that he would force corn up to 90 cents a bushel.

Mr. Gates, who seems to have a genius for forecasting the price at which grain will sell, had bet $70,000 that he would force corn up to 90 cents a bushel. He won his wager. The gentlemen who have been manipulating the market have earned thus far, it is estimated, about $4,000,000. Their profits have been made at the expense of operators who did not possess the gift of prevision.

Altogether, compared with which the game of poker is a rather tame diversion. It is a great pity that the farmer who produces the corn cannot also look a few months ahead and see the price of grain advancing by leaps and bounds. The agriculturist, however, cannot always lift the veil and peep into futurity like Mr. Gates and the seers of his class. Consequently he does not get rich as often and as quick as the men who bet on futures.—Baltimore Sun.

ON TO GETTYSBURG.

A detachment of the Hospital Corps, United States Army, arrived in this place about 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning on their way to Gettysburg, where they will go into camp with the National Guard of Pennsylvania for one week, July 12-19. While at this place they encamped in Mr. H. P. Beam's field along the Gettysburg road. They started for Gettysburg Wednesday morning. While in camp at Gettysburg they will give instructions in hospital work to the Pennsylvania troops. It is reported that they will return to Washington over the same route, and upon their arrival at the Capitol will prepare to go to the Philippines, to which place they are ordered.

PROSPECTS OF A LARGE CROWD. That there will be a large crowd of people in Gettysburg during next week and especially on Sunday is evident. Aside from the ten thousand soldiers that will be encamped, many visitors will be present. We are reliably informed that at least a dozen of excursion trains will be run to Gettysburg on Sunday. These, beside the regular train, will certainly bring thousands. There will also be excursions here during the week, and reduced rates from all sections on regular trains will assist in swelling the crowd. No matter how large the crowd, Gettysburg will take care of all who may journey this way; she is used to it.—Gettysburg Star and Sentinel.

In falling his head struck the floor with such force as to cause instant death.

The accident was a most sad and distressing one and was a shock to the community in which he lived and in which he was highly esteemed for the honorable disposition with which he was possessed. Mr. Mickle leaves a wife, who was Miss Susie Snyder, daughter of the late Daniel B. Snyder, and two children, Daniel and Mary; also two brothers and one sister, Daniel D., William W. and Miss Lizzie, all of Fairfield.—Star and Sentinel.

MRS. ATKINS KILLED BY TRAIN. Mrs. Georgianna Atkins, of Lansdowne, Baltimore county, was run over and instantly killed by an eastbound passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Mount Winans Monday. Mrs. Atkins had gone to Mount Winans to purchase some medicine, and had started down the railroad tracks for home, when she was caught in a heavy shower. She took refuge on the Curtis Bay branch bridge, and it was there that she met her death. Her body was badly mangled.

A jury of inquest rendered a verdict of accidental death. Mrs. Atkins was 49 years of age, and is survived by a husband and eight children.

HOW MR. BITNER MET HIS BRIDE.

Miss Ida Katherine Benner, youngest daughter of Chief of Police John Benner, of Hagerstown, and Mr. Edgar Franklin Bitner, of New York, book-keeper for a music publishing house, were married at the bride's home, in Hagerstown, at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday morning by Rev. Dr. J. Spangler Kiefer. The wedding was a sequel to a Pen-Mar romance. Miss Benner was camping at that place and gave a stranger a pin to close a rent in his clothing. The stranger was Mr. Bitner and this was the beginning of their acquaintance.

The Chesapeake and Ohio canal wharves at Williamsport are now very busy scenes. Much coal is transferred to the Western Maryland road and large shipments are also making to Powell's Bend, a mile below Williamsport, where the coal is transferred to the Cumberland Valley railroad. The new machine for unloading boats at the Williamsport wharves greatly facilitates business.

WALTER CLARK, who was convicted in 1893 for attempting to burn the railroad station at Ellicott City, has been pardoned. His petition was signed by Comptroller J. W. Herring, Rev. W. F. Roberts, Robert J. McCuen and others.

WESTERN MARYLAND R. R.'S. NEW PRESIDENT.

On Tuesday Mr. Winslow S. Pierce, was elected President of the Western Maryland Railroad, and Mr. F. S. Landstreet was elected vice-President, and acting general manager, will act in that capacity until the operating force is reorganized. The new President was born at Shelbyville, Ind., on October 23, 1857. He attended Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, and later took a law course at the University of Chicago. He is counsel for the Union Pacific Railroad, attorney for the Missouri Pacific, the Texas and Pacific, the Denver and Rio Grande and for the Gould interests generally. He is, therefore, one of their closest and most trusted lieutenants.

As now constituted, the Board is composed of the following gentlemen: Mr. W. S. Pierce. Mr. George Jay Gould. Mr. John W. Gates. Mr. Henry B. Henson. Mr. Lawrence Greer. Mr. Edwin Gould. Mr. W. H. McIntire. Mr. F. S. Landstreet. Mr. S. Davies Warfield. Gen. John M. Hood. Mr. George R. Gaither. Gen. Thomas J. Shryock. Mr. Charles W. Slagle.

TWICE IN THE SAME PLACE.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brimer, of Boxiron, will testify to the fallacy of the saying that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. Saturday night about seven o'clock, during the severe storm that swept the bay shore, lightning struck their house and completely demolished the floor of one of the rooms. The bolt came down the chimney and played about the room, and finally tore the boards of the floor from the sills and left the room almost a total wreck. Fortunately all the members of the family had gone into an adjoining room and were not injured.

Sunday afternoon, however, about 3 o'clock, lightning struck the room they were in, again coming down the chimney. Mrs. Brimer was stunned, and has not recovered from the shock. Mr. Brimer felt something run around his head like the scalping knife of an Indian warrior. His daughter says it was a circle of fire. Balls of fire ran up and down the walls and across the floor and ceiling. The whole room was a blinding blaze of flame, while sharp, deafening reports followed each other in rapid succession. There are large punctures through the walls and ceiling where the electricity passed out.

GREENCASTLE-PEN-MAR LINE.

The Waynesboro Town Council has granted a franchise to the Chambersburg, Greencastle and Waynesboro Electric Railway Company to use certain streets for the use of a trolley line, to be built from Greencastle to Pen-Mar, through Waynesboro. Work is to begin not later than August 1 and the promoters say the line will be completed from Greencastle to Waynesboro in six months. The required bonds for the construction of the road and for indemnifying Waynesboro have been provided for.

It is stated that the promoters have purchased for $45 a share the controlling interest in the turnpike road from McConnellsburg, Pa., to within two miles of Emmitsburg, Md. The road is about 40 miles long, and crosses South Mountain. The trolley, it is understood, will be built along this turnpike.—Sun.

BOY DIES OF RABIES.

Five patients, including Rixley Davis, 40 years old, and his four children—Agnie, 10; Ethel, 7; James Walter, 3; and Thelma Davis, 15 months old; of Rivesville, Marion county, W. Va., are at the Pasteur Institute, Baltimore City Hospital, for treatment.

Hugh Davis, 11 years old, was also bitten at the same time as his brother and sisters. Hugh developed rabies last Tuesday and died on the following day. The saliva from Hugh's mouth fell upon the hand of Mr. Davis, and his physician, Dr. Leech, deemed it advisable that he, too, should take the Pasteur treatment.

Dr. N. G. Kierle, of the Pasteur Institute, said that all of his patients were progressing nicely, and had taken kindly to the treatment and that their temperatures were normal.

TEACHERS AND THEIR PENSIONS.

The last Legislature of Maryland appropriated $10,000 for the purpose of pensioning old and infirm teachers, and the State Board of Education has made provision for carrying the law into effect. The law authorizes the State Comptroller to pay each teacher who is over 60 years old and has served 25 years continuously as a teacher in the public schools a pension of $200 per year when he becomes disabled and unfit for active work. The rules adopted by the Board of Education require that the pensioner shall make application to the Board for the pension, accompanying it with a physician's certificate as to the disability and with proofs of his services as a teacher. The Board then certifies the names of those entitled to the pensions to the Comptroller. Only 30 teachers can be pensioned under the present appropriation.

RED RATTLER'S TRIP.

William M. Vance, of Wheeling, W. Va., who left New York a week ago on his French racing automobile, "Red Rattler," reached Cumberland Sunday afternoon and Monday morning continued his journey to Wheeling. This is the first racer to cross the Alleghenies following the old National pike, and a record-breaking run was made on rough mountain roads. Mr. Vance crossed Tonoloway and Sideling Hill Mountains—12 miles—in an hour. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee Carl, of Cumberland, were his guests on part of the journey.

RAIN AND WIND STORM.

On Thursday afternoon of last week a severe wind and rain storm passed over this section of the country, doing considerable damage. The storm came up suddenly, and while of short duration, was somewhat terrific. In this place part of the tall chimney on the Reformed Church was blown down and the bricks and mortar struck the roof of Mrs. L. A. Hoke's building, used as a millinery store, and broke the roof and ceiling, landing on the floor in the millinery store. There was no one in the store at the time the chimney fell. An old show case was broken by the falling bricks. A shed on West, Ches. Rotoring's premises, at the West End of town, was blown down, and several trees in this place were broken by the storm.

A corn crib on Mrs. Byers' farm, tenanted by Mr. J. K. Byers, was blown down.

The wagon shed and corn crib, combined, on Mrs. Lydia A. Hoke's farm, in Liberty township, Pa., tenanted by Mr. Wivell, was wrecked. A chicken house on the farm of Mr. Ed. Shriver, in Liberty Township, Pa., was picked up by the wind carried a short distance and then dropped to the ground. A number of chickens were in the building at the time. The roof on Mr. Shriver's barn was damaged by the storm. Fourteen of Mr. Shriver's largest trees were blown down.

The end of the barn on Mr. Albert Maxell's farm, tenanted by his son, Mr. Wm. Maxell, was blown out by the storm, and one of the large barn doors was broken. The damage is covered by storm insurance.

A corn crib on Mr. Martin's farm, tenanted by Mr. R. E. Hockensmith, was torn to pieces by the storm.

In some places young corn stalks were broken off and blown away. Many trees were broken or blown down and fences wrecked.

POLECATS.

A colony of polecats, or rather numerous colonies of these, recently invaded to the neighborhood desirably added Ellicott City. Their overpowering odor prevades the place, at least in many quarters of the town, where the creatures have taken up their abode.

Monday night at the home of Senator William B. Peter a den of polecats was discovered and nine killed. They were found in the boxes beneath the floor. To get at them it was necessary to take up the floor. Senator Peter consented that the hired man should tear away the floor, for he said, the odorous miasma might take off the roof if he let them stay there.

In the same locality the men about the home place of Mr. Thomas H. Gaither found it necessary to go gunning after polecats Monday night. They did not abate the nuisance. In the quarter of the town known as Mount Misery living has been made most miserable by the presence of the same foul odors. Residents of the neighborhood talk of invoking the aid of the county health board to drive out the polecats, which have their dens, it is believed, in the caves along a small stream nearby. Their presence has also been discovered in many other localities. Until last year a polecat was never seen in Ellicott City. Then one day one invaded the Howard House ice-cream saloon, to the dismay of the proprietor. The cat was promptly grabbed up and soaped into a tub of water. Drowning is said to be the best way to get rid of polecats, but you must first catch your cat.

The little animals seen are smaller than the ordinary house cats and are black, with white spots. Their fur is valuable.

Poisoning The System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps the poisons in the system, causing headache, dullness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Biscuits prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and promote easy, healthy action of the bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress. T. E. Zimmerman & Co.

FOUND DYING IN A SHED.

Thomas Stewart, 35 years old, of Lonaconing, who went to Cumberland to attend the Elk's carnival, was found in a dying condition in a shed Wednesday evening. He expired after being taken to the station house. He recently inherited several thousand dollars from his father's estate. A bottle, which contained wood alcohol, was found on him. A companion of Stewart, who was taken in, was too inebriated to tell his name.

A SUSTAINING DIET.

These are the enervating days, when, as somebody has said, men drop by the sunstroke as if the Day of Fire had dawned. They are fraught with danger to people whose systems are poorly sustained; and this leads us, say, in the interest of the less robust of our readers, that the full effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla is such as to suggest the propriety of calling this medicine something besides a blood purifier and tonic—say, a sustaining diet. It makes it much easier to bear the heat, assures refreshing sleep, and will without any doubt avert much sickness at this time of the year.

Monday afternoon the body of an unknown man who had been dead for 48 hours was found in a clump of trees near Union Bridge and alongside the Western Maryland Railroad. His throat was cut, supposedly by a razor, which was found by his side. One eye was forced out, but no other marks of violence, if there was any, could be discovered. Dr. Brown, of Union Bridge, who examined the body, thought that the injured eye might have been knocked out by a projection on the rough ground where the man had fallen. A coroner's jury decided that it was a case of suicide. The man was an utter stranger in the neighborhood, but is thought to have been a tramp who was recently seen in the town. He was between 50 and 60 years old.

Burglars Surrounded.

Three burglars were found in the store of William Smith, Barton, Allegany county, early last Thursday morning. Their striking a match attracted the attention of a passerby. The alarm was given and citizens soon surrounded the building. The burglars attempted to break the line, but they were captured. It is said shots were exchanged. While two of the men were being guarded one feigned sleep and got away. The other man—James Arhagast—was taken to Cumberland and placed in jail.

The Best Lincture For Strains. Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by T. E. Zimmerman & Co., druggists.

DAMAGE BY STORM.

Two hail storms, which did considerable damage, passed through widely separate neighborhoods in Carroll county Sunday. At Uniontown and in that vicinity hailstones fell as large as built walnuts, cutting the growing corn to pieces and damaging other vegetation and fruit. Many panes of glass were broken in the windows. At Winfield and vicinity, 12 miles from Uniontown, a storm of similar character wrought the same kind of destruction. The corn in many fields was shredded and ruined, and the panes of glass in windows of dwelling houses were broken. Fortunately, the storm in neither instance was wide in extent.

The interruption to telephonic connections with the distant sections of the county by the storm on Thursday of last week has prevented details of the damage wrought by it to become generally known. It has been learned that several barns and other buildings at Greenmount were wrecked. Wm. H. Menchey's barn was blown down and completely demolished, entailing a loss of $1,000. Mr. Menchey had a storm insurance policy for that amount. The wagon shed on the farm of Mr. Menchey's father, nearby, was also demolished, but was not insured, and the barn of Thomas Bosley was moved from its foundation. William Wyke's barn was completely blown to pieces, William Haine's barn unroofed, Edward Reid's wagonshed destroyed, John H. Stansbury's storeroom unroofed, and the freighthouse at the railroad station destroyed. At Manchester part of the steel roof on Trinity Reformed church was blown off, and William Wilhelm's large new barn blown down. The losses amount to thousands of dollars.

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

FAIRFIELD, July 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kittinger and Mrs. I. T. Barton, who removed to Baltimore several years ago, have returned to Fairfield to live. Seems there is no place like Fairfield to those who were born at that place. By the way, Fairfield is a nice little town, but there is no business and no shops to employ hands. Grain has been cut and is pretty well filled, but short in the straw. The cottages at Blue Ridge Summit and vicinity are nearly all occupied. The city people are coming on every train, notwithstanding the cold weather of last week. There are four butchers who run over the mountain daily to supply the city people with meat. Dressed chickens sold for 25 and 30 cents per pound last week. There is a demand for young chickens.

Mrs. J. E. Glenn and son, and Miss Mattie Moore, all of Fairfield, are visiting in Chambersburg.

Mrs. Muma, of Maryland, and Mrs. DeGraft, of Detroit, Mich., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Firor, of Fairfield.

The Lutheran Mite Society, of Fairfield, will have their annual festival on Friday and Saturday nights, July 18 and 19.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Shulley and son, Freddy, and Miss Manie Miller, of Reading, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hoke, of near Emmitsburg, were the guests of Mr. F. Shulley, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King, of Harrisburg, are the guests of Mr. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. King, of near this place.

Mr. Emmert Hartzel, of Gettysburg, is a visitor at this place.

Mrs. Ely Hoff, of Hanover, is visiting at this place.

SUICIDE IN CARROLL.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to, but simply because they must. They know they are irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise. They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, flatulency, heartburn and what not.

A SUB-TREASURER APPOINTED.

President Roosevelt on last Thursday, settled the Sub-Treasurership dispute by appointing A. Lincoln Dryden, of Somerset county, to the position, to succeed James M. Sloan, of Allegany county. Mr. Dryden's application was presented and endorsed by Representative Jackson, of the First Congressional district, and Representative Sydney E. Madd, of the Fifth district. The rest of the Maryland delegation were also favorable to Mr. Dryden's selection, and he was appointed immediately after his application was laid before President Roosevelt by Representatives Jackson and Madd. Representative Madd had desired that the Sub-Treasurer should come from his district, and had presented the names of Aloysius Bowling, James B. Belt and Adriaan Posey, but objection was raised to each, and all of them, and when he found it impossible to name the man joined with Representative Jackson in having an Eastern Shoreman appointed.

WESTERN MARYLAND RAILROAD.

Lutheran Reunion at Pen-Mar. The annual Reunion of the Lutheran Churches of Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia will be held at Pen-Mar Park, on the Western Maryland Railroad, on Thursday, July 24th.
