Special Notice Regarding The Piano Contest.

The manner in which the judges, Rev. Father Hayden, Rev. Mr. Gluck and Burgess Shuff, will pass upon and count the certificates and votes is as follows:

The conditions printed on each coupon appearing in The Chronicle will be strictly adhered to. In the opinion of the judges, all bona fide votes and certificates are the property of those holding them, and at any time prior to the moment of depositing them these votes or certificates may, by endorsement, in the same manner as with a bank check, be placed to the credit of another person or institution. - For instance, A holds 500 votes or certificates which have been given to him by various persons. A has placed his own name or the name of B or C opposite to the line reading "To be counted for." At the last moment A changes his mind and decides to give his votes to D. All A has to do is to endorse the top vote (the one on the outside of the packet of votes) in the manner following: The within votes, though separately containing the name of A, B or C are to be counted for D. Then the signature of the holder of vote or certificate. No vote or certificate may be changed after it is once deposited. It is requested that all votes and certificates be tied, sewed in packs, or placed in envelopes in such a manner that the subscriber's name may be compared with the subscription files.

CARE OF SHOES.

Concerning Footgear. Wet or damp shoes should be given special care, for if placed on a radiator or near a fire the chances are the leather will be ruined, for a chemical change takes place when the leather is subjected to heat, which dries and parches it so that it will soon crack like pasteboard.

When shoes, however, have finally served their period of usefulness, either give them away or "plant" this season attributable to football. them, for nothing is so distressing that old leather is one of the best fertilizers for trees or vines, and as realized their value said: "With a single tree at hand it is sinful to keep shoes out of the ground.' They should be "planted" fully two feet down and nature does the rest. A grape vine, for instance, will take on new life and vigor after being fertilized by old shoes. Another use for old shoes is as a feeder for a fire, for under a layer of coal old shoes will keep the very hottest kind of an ironing fire.

> If but one pair of shoes is to do for all occasions, it is unwise to purchase an extreme style. There are always many new models on the market which are introduced to give variety and to sell to women who are always on the lookout for some-

SIXTEEN REASONS

FOR NEW TRIAL.

Attorney For William Eyler Files His Reasons .- Argument Refore The Court In Two Weeks .- Allegations Concerning Peter Gouker.

Agreeably to the ruling of the Court that reasons for a new trial of William Eyler, found guilty of murder in the first degree, should be filed within four days, Wm. Hersh, Esq., presented to the Court, last Saturday, sixteen causes apon which he based his petition.

These reasons will be argued before the Court on Dec. 12, and the allegations against Peter Gouker, one of the jurors f properly substantiated by depositions will be considered.

If the motion for a new trial is set aside by the Court, and a new trial refused then sentence will be pronounced. The last resort of the defendant will be an application to the Board of Pardons. Mr. Hersh bases his motion on the ollowing reasons:

That the learned Court erred in admitting in evidence the testimony of certain witnesses on the part of the Commonwealth, under exceptions, who testified that the defendant "was not drunk" or who were allowed to express an opinion as to whether the defendant was "drunk or sober" without first laying a proper foundation upon which such an opinion could be based.

The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth reasons were based on the answers of the Court to legal points submitted by Mr. Hersh at the time of the trial. The objection to the answers given was that the Court while it did not refuse to affirm the points referred to, yet in its answers gave explanations beyond what had been given in the

The tenth reason was that the learned court erred in its general charge to the jury by using the term "drunken" ness" without explaining the same and its significance in mitigation of the offense charged and the jury were misled thereby. There was nothing in the charge explaining to the jury that if the prisoner's mind was impaired by intoxicants or from indulgence therein and he was unable thereby to reason correctly, the degree of the crime would be reduced to murder in the second degree. The defendant was entitled to a clear presentation of this phase of the case, and was greatly prejudiced by the Court's failure to clearly explain the abstract ed by President Cleveland postmaster of "Praise, Praise Jehovah," after which the tion of a week must be paid on each proposition that "drunkenness is no excuse for crime.'

> 11th. That the learned Court erred in its general charge to the jury by failing to clearly explain to the jury the meaning of the terms "with malice aforethought" and "deliberation and premeditation," and the jury were misled thereby to believe that all that was necessary to justify a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was proof that the defendant intended to kill Howard Miller.

LOOKING TOWARD CHRISTMAS.

The fullness of time for winter providing is here. Social demands are growing, domestic demands are iminent. Splendid completeness is the reward of our long planning, and to-day, all over the store, are the visible results of our labor.

Modern ideas have expanded, modern tastes have become more exacting. With our improved equipment, with the vast space at our disposal, we can cater to your wants as never before. We have ampleroom to handle an unlimited assortment of the higher grades of goods—exclusive productions, one-of-a-kind creations, etc. Whether it be a bit of lace or a gown for an important social function, a simple household help or a rare and costly bit of statuary, if it be purchasable we have it. Our instructions to the buyers upon their departire for the foreign and domestic markets were to secure absolutely the best-best beyond the shadow of a doubt. How well they succeeded may be realized by even a casual inspection of the various departments. Counter and shelf teem with specimens of the choicest merchandise in the world.

But while innumerable elegancies add their grace and splendor to our new array of bright and fashionable merchandise, there are also less expensive though highly desirable articles.

It has been our purpose always to give you the very best obtainable for the money. This policy, fundamently unchangeable, is more comprehensive to-day if possible, than any previous time in our history.

The store's best stocks and service await your orders.

Christmas Suggestions.

We would suggest that you let us begin now on your Christmas work—the things that have to be done to order in advance : Embroidering Initials on Handkerchiefs, Marking Linens, Making Up Sofa Pillows, Working Centerpieces, Frames, Doylies, etc., Engraving Silverware and Jewelry, Stamping Pocketbooks and Card Cases, Painting

Miniatures, etc. We would also earnestly counsel the advisability of early shopping for Xmas, the advantages of which will appeal to patrons who have numberless gifts to select, and who will appreciate purchasing with leisure and comfort by avoiding the stress of crowds, hurried inspection and unsatisfactory results. The enlargement of many of our departments greatly facilitate the holiday shopping, but the unusual demand which has already been made upon our supplies of Xmas goods illustrates the wisdom of anticipating the crowd of shoppers by buying all presents in this pre-holiday season.

Purchases will be carefully stored, if desired, and delivered promptly at specified time, and every opportunity will be afforded for relieving the strain of Christmas shopping, as well as the giving of advice and assistance in making troublesome selections.

All orders filled; All letters answered same day as received.
