BIG POWER PLANT TO BE BUILT

Electric Line From Frederick to This Town, Via Thurmont, to Be a Reality.—No Merger of Companies.

As a result of the development of well defined plans made months ago, the Washington, Frederick and Gettysburg Railroad, operating under steam from the county seat to Thurmont, is in the near future to be operated under electric power and to be extended on to Emmitsburg.

For the furtherance of this plan the Hagerstown Railway Company, owning and operating trolleys in Hagerstown and throughout that neighborhood, will unite with the Frederick Railroad Company, which represents all the trolley interests in the county, and the Washington, Frederick and Gettysburg steam line, for the purpose of supplying electric current to both roads.

A central plant is to be built and it is said that the stock and security holders of the two separate companies will shortly take over the entire stock of the new corporation, issuing bonds to build the proposed plant. The combined mileage of the roads mentioned is now about ninety miles, but when the new plant is completed there will be a considerable extension.

Plans for this new plant, it is reported, will be prepared by Mr. P. O. Keilholtz, of Baltimore, consulting engineer. Mr. Keilholtz announced that it was not yet definitely determined which of the two cities will get it. It is probable, however, that it will be located at a point between Frederick and Hagerstown. It is to be a central power station with a voltage transmission of about thirty-three thousand volts and equipped with machinery of the latest approved pattern.

In addition to operating cars, the new plant is intended to supply light and current to the respective municipalities, and some of the steam roads in the vicinity of each will be converted into electric lines.

Rails for the connecting link between Frederick and Thurmont (the Washington, Frederick and Gettysburg, are being laid on Fifth street, in Frederick, and all along the Washington, Frederick and Gettysburg Railroad new ties and steel rails have been distributed awaiting the reballasting and electrifying of this branch.

With new and ample capital and expert railway engineers and solid and capable men at the back of the reorganization the success of the enterprise and the continuance of the line to Emmitsburg and eventually to Gettysburg is assured.

One of the original promoters and stockholders of the Washington, Frederick and Gettysburg road, it will be remembered, was the late Mr. Isaac Annan, of Emmitsburg. Mr. Annan had great faith in the enterprise and predicted that it would not be very long before this line would be operated by electricity and be continued to this town and finally on to Gettysburg.

Mr. Emory L. Coblenz, president of the Frederick Railroad Company denies any merger of companies.

ANNIVERSARY OF ANTIETAM TO BE CELEBRATED

Sharpsburg to Have Big Dedication.—Indiana Monument Will Be Dedicated.—President Taft Expected.

Sharpsburg, Washington county, promises to do things up in great style on September 17, the anniversary of the battle of Antietam. The dedication of the handsome monument to the Indiana troops, now in course of construction, will take place and the Society of the Army of the Potomac will hold a reunion at Antietam on that day. Many veterans from New York and other states will be present. The Governor of Indiana will be one of the speakers and it is hoped that President Taft will grace the occasion by his presence.

New Plan to Raise the Maine.

To build a floating wharf around the sunken battleship Maine and then enclose the wreck in caissons is the plan proposed by John F. O'Rourke of the O'Rourke Construction Company. This plan is already under consideration by the War Department together with many others, submitted heretofore. The sum of $300,000 was appropriated by the last congress for the purpose of raising the famous derelict.

GERMANY IN THE LEAD

People All in Accord With the Kaiser

COUNTRY GROWING BY LEAPS

Views of Prominent German Merchant While Here.—His Country Setting the Pace.

"The German people are of one accord with their Emperor in his policies, whatever they may be," said a prominent German importer of American merchandise, who is visiting this country on business, in discussing Germany's commerce and politics with a reporter, the other day.

"My country is growing by leaps and bounds, and in political influence as well as wealth. Her trade and commerce has made greater progress and has experienced a bigger growth than that of any other country, the United States not excepted, within the last twenty years.

"Her merchant steamers in some parts of the world have swept the English flag from the seas. Germany's political power in Europe is predominant, and the German Emperor is an astute statesman and diplomat himself. Germany is not going to stop where she is. Her population is growing and there is not enough room within her boundaries to give them homes. The German Emperor has decided that his subjects who wish to emigrate shall not in the future lose their German citizenship. It is the policy of Germany to create new territories somewhere, probably in Mesopotamia, in Asia Minor, which rich province, sooner or later, will be brought under the German flag, to be settled by German colonists.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS AS POLITICAL TIMBER

Two of Them Named as Candidates for Governor—Wilson, of Princeton, and Schurman, of Cornell.

College presidents seem to be thought especially good political timber just now. Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton, has been spoken of as a candidate for governor of New Jersey and this suggestion comes from the Springfield Republican anent the campaign for the governorship of New York.

The suggestion of President Schurman of Cornell university for governor of New York, by a prominent New York politician, by no means exhausts the possibilities. If Mr. Roosevelt is to have much to say about the republican nomination, he could hardly fail to prefer his friend, President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university. In years gone by it was common to mention Andrew D. White, also a college president, for the republican nomination, whenever the republican outlook seemed particularly stormy and uncertain. If worst comes to worst this year, there is still Chancellor Day of Syracuse university to fall back upon; but Chancellor Day's nomination would mean that Mr. Roosevelt had abandoned the party to the seven devils of perdition.

NATIONAL BANKS LOANS LARGER THAN A YEAR AGO

Report Shows Not As Much Contraction of Credit as Expected.—Crops will Shrink Western Loans.

Returns from the national banks for year ending June 30, which have just appeared, fail to reveal as much contraction of credit as has been hoped for. In fact, the aggregate loans of the 7145 banks were only $1,924,000 less than in March, and they are still $394,000,000 larger than a year ago. The percentage of cash reserves to deposits has increased from 21.19 in March to 21.22. The item of "due from banks" has fallen $83,100,000 since March, which evidently means that the interior banks have been calling in balances from reserve centers to strengthen their own position. In other words, New York has been compelled to liquidate to protect the rest of the country which is more stubborn and show in liquidating. There is no reason to suppose, however, the process must needs continue. It being the expectation among central reserve bankers that western bank loans will begin to contract materially with the marketing of the crops.

Few Early Census Returns.

The following are some of the figures given out this early for the census of this year: Rhode Island, 542,674; Providence, R. I., 224,326; Chicago approximately 2,200,000. Tulsa, Oklahoma, had a population of 7,298 in 1907, this year the figures are 18,182; Muskogee, Oklahoma, 1907, 14,418, this year 25,278.

COMING TO FRONT IN THE RACE

CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD FAVOR GIST BLAIR

Warner or Pearre, If Named, Cannot Get the Whole Party Vote.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS ALARMED OVER OUTLOOK FOR THEIR TICKET

Platform Gist Blair, of Montgomery County, is Running On.—What He Proposes to do if Elected to Congress.—Blair Prominent in Maryland Politics.—One of Them in Lincoln's Cabinet.—Elimination of Those Who Cannot Win, Leaves Gist Blair the Candidate.

Republican leaders in the Sixth District who are now alarmed over the outlook for their congressional ticket, in view of the practical certainty that either Pearre or Warner will be defeated if nominated, are sizing up Gist Blair of Montgomery County as a possible substitute.

There seems to be no longer any doubt that Pearre will knife Warner in the November election, if Warner is the nominee and that the anti-Pearre forces will knife him, if he is the nominee. These facts are giving strength to the candidacy of Blair who is not now and never has been a factional Republican.

For more than a month Blair has been prosecuting his campaign. He has lately gone from end to end of the district and the reports indicate that he has made a fine impression wherever he has drawn rein. He has been conducting a clean fight for a seat in Congress and declares that he will continue to keep it clean.

Blair comes from good Republican stock. His father before him was in Lincoln's cabinet and the name of Montgomery Blair was known throughout the country. For half a century the Blairs have been prominent in Maryland politics and the present candidate has fallen heir to the prestige of a high name.

For twelve years, Gist Blair has been identified with Montgomery politics. He is now chairman of the Republican State Central Committee for the county and was alternate delegate-at-large from the state to the convention which nominated Theodore Roosevelt for the presidency. He took his seat in the convention when the late Senator McComas left it to become

KNOCKOUT FOR BRYAN

PEERLESS ONE LOSES

His County Option Plank is Defeated

GOV. SHALLENBERGER WINS OUT

Bryan No More State Leader of Democracy.—Vote Stands 647 to 198 Against Him.—Oratory Fails to Save Him.

William Jennings Bryan, thrice the national standard bearer of the Democratic party, tasted bitter defeat on Wednesday, when the Democratic State Convention, assembled in Grand Island, Neb., rejected his county option plank by the vote of 647 to 198. The principle figures in the fight were Bryan, Governor Shallenberger, and ex-Mayor James C. Dahlgren of Omaha.

Bryan asked for the adoption of a county option plan, the initiative and referendum and the elimination of brewers from politics. He got only the initiative and referendum. Shallenberger opposed county option, asked an endorsement of his administration, and the 8 o'clock closing law. He got everything he wanted. Dahlgren, who took a specific stand against the option law, failed to score a point.

C. J. Smith, temporary chairman, forecasted Bryan's defeat in his speech: "It may be necessary for some one of us to refuse to follow a leadership which for 20 years has given luster to our party. If that should be, let no man say that it argues any abatement in the esteem of him who embodies that leadership."

Although terribly defeated and having lost the Democratic leadership of Nebraska after holding unequalled sway for twenty years, the Peerless One is by no means quenched. He will still hang on to the Democracy and advocate it as only he sees it. "Who, less than I," says he, "could desire to disrupt the Democratic party? Am I not aware what a repudiation at your hands will mean to me? It has been said that I am making this fight because I am not a candidate. Nothing could be more untrue."

"I am not willing to admit that this is a final settlement of this question," continued Mr. Bryan, "and on a moral question I am not afraid to express my opinion and stand on it, if I have to stand alone."

HARDING GETS NOMINATION

GARFIELD WITHDRAWS

Taft and Tariff Platform is Adopted

THE INSURGENTS ARE CRUSHED

Third Ballot Does the Trick.—Roosevelt Telegraphed Longworth Not to Allow His Name to be Mentioned in Convention.

The Republicans of Ohio in State convention in Columbus on Wednesday nominated Warren G. Harding, of Marion, for Governor. The victory came on the third ballot, the Taft-Burton-Dick candidate having led "Boss" Cox's candidate, Judge Owen B. Brown on each ballot.

James R. Garfield refused to allow his name to be presented to the convention—the tariff plank of the platform, as adopted, being too much soaked in stand-pattism, but he received 73 votes on the first ballot.

The outcome of the convention was a complete victory for the old steady regulars, and the insurgents were completely sat upon. Having gained control of the resolutions committee, with Senator Dick for a leader, the stand-patters proceeded to adopt a platform endorsing in extravagant terms President Taft's administration and the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, which was forced on the convention, notwithstanding the protests of the Garfield faction.

After the platform had been adopted candidates for governor were named. While Robert Nevin was presenting the name of Judge Brown, an outburst of Garfield enthusiasm took place. Garfield, however, was not willing to allow the use of his name. Warren G. Harding's name was presented by Ex-Congressman Mauser.

Among the salient features of the platform was the recommendation of "legislation that will revive our merchant marine, equal enforcement of all laws, and an adequate national defense, with a navy ample to protect all our interests at home and abroad, while favoring arbitration in the settlement of international disputes; the systematic, comprehensive and businesslike improvement of our rivers, harbors and waterways, and such amendment of the anti-trust law as final judicial interpretation proves to be necessary for the proper regulation of monopolies."

W. M. BUYS MORE LAND

To Increase Freight Handling Capacity.

$5,000,000 FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Will Join Up With the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie and become Part of N. Y. C. Trunk System.

The Western Maryland Railway has purchased a track of 10 acres in South Baltimore, this to be used as a trackage yard and approach to the Port Covington piers, as well as to the additional terminals the Company is to build in that city. This will greatly facilitate the handling of freight at that point. It is stated that the improvements include a grain elevator with a capacity of 500,000 bushels. The company will expend $5,000,000 in bettering its terminal facilities at Baltimore, and it is considered that this amount will hardly be adequate to the increased demands made upon them when the Connellsville link, now under construction, is completed, as the Western Maryland line will then be the shortest and quickest outlet to seaboard, making port at Baltimore. The Company's gross earnings for the month of May are given as $647,823, showing an increase of $151,464, the net gain for the month being $99,190.

The improvements that have been made on the Western Maryland in the past few years are of the most substantial character. With these new extensions, increased facilities for handling freight, large additions at terminal points, augmented rolling stock and improved roadbeds, this system is fast becoming one of the best in the United States.

FOURTEEN HUNDRED TONS OF RUBBER FOR AUTO TIRES

Largest Cargo of Crude Material Ever Received at New York.—Valued at $6,000,000.

Millions of dollars' worth of rubber is worn away in automobile tires, but no one thinks of the value of the rubber used in this industry. The British steamer Clement a few days ago arrived at New York with 1432 tons of crude rubber. The cargo is the largest single shipment of this material that has ever come to New York. With the exception of about 200 tons, inferior quality, gathered in Peru, the rubber is of the superior Brazilian grades from Para or Manaoas, and which command the highest prices, owing to their great tensile strength. These descriptions are used almost exclusively in the manufacture of automobile tires. The entire shipment is estimated to be worth in the neighborhood of $6,000,000, and exceeds the value of the 1200 tons brought by the steamer Amazonense several weeks ago by $2,000,000. This difference is due to the fact that a few days ago rubber was worth about $2.16 per pound, as against $1.90 when the Amazonense brought what was previously the largest and most valuable single shipment.

FOREIGN PURCHASES POINT TO PROSPERITY

Large Increase in Imports of Luxuries.—Americans, However, Are Buying Home Automobiles.

Prosperity in the United States is on the increase, if the purchases abroad by Americans during the past year of works of art, diamonds, fine furs and champagne can be taken as a criterion.

In 1909 the art works brought into this country were valued at $3,800,000, while for the fiscal year just closed imports of this class amounted to $21,100,000. While no more automobiles were imported last year than during the previous twelve months, their value in each case having been $2,900,000, this is accounted for by the fact that most Americans are buying machines of home make; and whereas only $5,400,000 worth of automobiles were exported in 1909 this country sent abroad this past year $9,500,000 worth.

Col. John S. Mosby, famous during the Civil War as leader of the Partisan Rangers and who was recently dismissed from the Department of Justice, will write his memoirs which will be published in the near future.

To Keep Out Cattle Disease.

Because of the prevalence of foot and mouth disease in South American countries, the Treasury Department has called on customs officers to co-operate with the Department of Agriculture representatives by supplying them information of the arrival of merchandise imported from those sections. Wool, hair, straw, hay and other foodstuff imported from countries where the disease exists will be disinfected by this Government.

WEEK'S LIST OF CASUALTIES

LOSSES BY FIRE HEAVY

Disastrous Hurricane in Northern Italy

MANY DROWNINGS AND SUICIDES

Heat Prostrations Frequent.—Two Love Letters Cause Death of Four Persons.—Two Hundred Perish When Japanese Ship Sinks.

The past week is noted for the number of casualties, disasters, fires accidents, crimes and heat prostrations, which have been prevalent.

Explosions caused a $250,000 fire in Cincinnati this week. Chicago had three fires aggregating a loss of $300,000 and Pittsburgh two, with damages amounting to $100,000. Another conflagration, caused by an explosion of grain dust, resulted in a loss of $2,000,000 and made scores of families homeless. Forty-five thousand dollars went up in smoke when the Meyer's Opera House at Sheffield, Alabama, was consumed.

A love letter, found by a suspicious wife in Denver, is responsible for the death of the finder and her husband. A similar case resulting in the same loss of life occurred in Louisville, Ky.

Trouble on railroads also claims its victims. Many persons were injured in a railroad accident on the Williamsburg Bridge East River, N. Y., caused by a collision. On the Delaware and Hudson Railroad, between Wilkes-Barre and Carbondale, 1200 strikers played havoc with the tracks by using dynamite on bridges, removing fish plates from the rails, and otherwise derailing trains. Several serious accidents were narrowly averted. In a fight between police and strikers one man was fatally shot. At Cumberland, Md., Charles McKinstry, running a yard engine, was instantly killed in a head-on collision with a freight while three employees riding with him were injured.

Four men help up a coach load of immigrants in New York and got away with $500.

Hundreds of heat prostrations were reported in New York City, 12 dying in one day and nineteen in another. In many cities people have been overcome with the heat. In Chicago, 800 out of 12,000 babies under the care of the Infant Welfare Committee were affected, while four adults succumbed on Sunday, the hottest day in the Windy City for 10 years.

Since the season of swimming and bathing and yachting is here the water, as in years gone by, has been adding to the list of deaths during the vacation time. Atlantic City, Ocean City and many other popular seacoast places have already opened their roll of drowning accidents. An alumnus of John Hopkins University, Herman F. Rolker, class of 1907, drowned when a launch was overturned by a wave on the Delaware river. An exploding gasoline engine in a motor boat on the Walkkill Creek in New York burned three occupants and caused the death of Helen Mack, of Brooklyn, aged twenty, who had just arrived there on an outing. Two young women lost their lives while bathing in Lehigh river, near Weissport, and a third narrowly escaped a similar fate. Explosion of an oil stove on board the big motorboat Don Quixote set the craft ablaze and within a half

ITALY'S STATE LOTTERIES NET MILLIONS

A Feature of the Italian Treasury's Source of Revenue.—Socialists Want Practice Abolished.

Net profits of $18,585,000 derived from the weekly state lotteries are a feature of the Italian treasury receipts for the fiscal year ended last June. This is a considerable advance on the gains of the preceding year. The Italian Socialists are anti-gamblers and want the lotteries abolished, but they are not likely to succeed in their abolition campaign, as all the southerners, and especially the Neapolitans, are confirmed gamblers.

Excessive heat has greatly injured the corn crop in Washington county.

Cost of Running Big Cities.

According to the report of the Director of the Census giving financial statistics of the 158 largest cities in the United States, the per capita payment for municipal expenses in Baltimore in 1908 was $13.34. This was the lowest with the exception of New Orleans, whose per capita expense the same year was $12.76. Expressed in per capita averages the cities of more than 300,000 population 1908 with the highest expenses were Boston, $27.58; New York, $24.71, and Washington, $24.63.

Miss Ruby Walker and Miss Edna Slagle, both of near Harney, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Meadow Brook farm, the guests of Miss Pauline Baker.

A delightful birthday social was given on the lawn at "Meadow Brook" farm on Friday evening, July 22, in honor of Miss Pauline Baker's guest, Miss Ethel Shanabrook, of Carlisle, Pa. Miss Baker's cousin Miss Edith Ohler was also remembered, it being her birthday.

Miss Shanabrook was kept in the dark regarding the event, until all the guests were present. She was completely surprised. It being her eighteenth birthday the lawn was enclosed by eighteen Japanese lanterns. The evening was spent in outdoor games and vocal and instrumental music. The singing of several Chinese pieces, by Miss Flora Glanville, of Baltimore, delighted all.

About 10.30 all were invited to the dining room to partake of the refreshments, which consisted of ice cream, cake, candy, fruit, saratoga chips and lemonade. The table decorations were most attractive. Thirty-seven guests were present.

FROM FREDERICK.

Last Saturday Frederick was the mecca for candidates who were seeking the nomination for Congress on the Republican ticket. Messrs. Warner, Blair and Hagner were very much in evidence, but Col. Pearre was conspicuous for his absence. Each candidate, by the way, thinks he has the nomination cinched and as Col. Pearre says he is the only one, there is bound to be some fun before the campaign is over. The Lichtenstein Distilling Company, of Cumberland, the purchasers of the Price distilling plant, Frederick county, have withdrawn their application for a license to sell liquors in this county, owing to the opposition of the Anti-saloon League which filed eleven objections which were upheld. The chief objection was that by an act of the Legislature the court clerk is prohibited from issuing a license to sell liquors of any kind within three miles of the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church, and that the distillery is within that distance.

Mr. H. Dorsey Etchison, who has formally announced himself for nomination on the Democratic ticket for Congress from the Sixth District, seems confident of landing the nomination on August 30th. Mr. Etchison has been making a strong fight and reports from the various counties through which he has been campaigning appear to be very favorable to him.

A contract has been awarded for the erection of a band shell or sounding board in the auditorium at Braddock Heights. Work will be started at once and within a week the job will be completed.

The Chippewa Tribe of Red Men will hold a celebration here on July 3 and 4, 1911. Three years ago the Red Men held a most successful celebration. Next year an invitation will be extended to all the tribes in Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania, and in addition to them the presence of all the firemen of the state will be requested.

The deadlock between the Mayor and Alderman of Frederick over the former's appointment of Lloyd T. MacGill, city attorney, and Thomas Eckstein, market master, continues and the two appointees under the last administration are still performing their offices.

Henry O. Zimmerman, a retired farmer and prominent resident of Walkersville, this county, died at his home there Wednesday of paralysis, aged 73 years. He was the father of William G. Zimmerman, cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Frederick.

GETTYSBURG

A large force of hands are at work preparing the camp site of the Pennsylvania National Guard for occupancy from August 11th to 20th.

On Thursday evening the St. James' ball team defeated the Methodists by the score of 4-0.

On Friday evening the College Lutherans were victorious over the Reformed team. Score 10-2.

The National Guardsmen of the District of Columbia and West Virginia have had a strenuous time. Wednesday they put in a full day at maneuvering, retiring to camp greatly fatigued. The Regulars also put in a full day at attack and defense problems.

On Wednesday evening Brigadier General Wotherspoon tendered a reception to the officers of the District of Columbia militia.

Thursday was spent in military maneuvers and tactics, a hard days work being done.

Word has been received that First Sergeant Singig, of Troop B. 15th, U. S. Cavalry, who had a leg broken by being thrown from a horse, had contracted traumatic gangrene, which necessitated the amputation of the member.

Friday the troops were divided into two armies and there work consisted of work along the lines of reconnaissance and outpost duty.

Saturday the Regulars were given a day off, but the Militiamen were worked hard at attack and defense problems.

The review by General Wotherspoon of a full war strength regiment composed of troops from every Regular and militia regiment in camp occurred Sunday morning.

In imposing martial array, the long lines of khaki-clad soldiers marched on to the parade grounds, followed by the machine gun division and a long wagon train. In every command there were 108 men, command being made up of troops from several other companies.

Colonel Mansfield, of the Second United States Infantry, headed the column, which became stationary before headquarters, and occupied practically the entire parade grounds. A photograph was taken after which the unique regiment passed in review and then separated, the various companies returning to their camps. Prior to the appearance of infantry, a full troop of cavalry, a full battery of artillery and the engineers had paraded separately to headquarters, where they also became stationary and were photographed from the signal corps tower.

The event was most extraordinary, scarcely an officer in camp ever having witnessed such a display of military strength before.

General Wotherspoon and all of his staff were delighted with the success of the review and were especially pleased with the fact that the unique regiment presented the appearance of a unit, every company looking as though it belonged to the same general command, though six regiments were represented.

Friday morning about 10 o'clock five intoxicated soldiers made themselves obnoxious to residents of Baltimore street by carrying chairs, flowers and anything movable, into the street and depositing them on the trolley tracks. E. E. Hirsin's clothing sign occupied a position in front of the meat store of Louis Weigandt, while J. J. Mumper's photography sign adorned the private residence of H. J. Brinkerhoff.

A large plant was carried away from the porch of S. M. Bushman, H. B. Bender, a neighbor, heard the commotion, and called to the men to drop their burden, which they did, breaking the plant and pot.

On Saturday afternoon a game of baseball was played on Nixon Field between teams from the 29th Infantry and 15th Cavalry, resulting in the score of 6 to 2 in favor of the cavalry. Neither team had lost a game this season and a large crowd turned out to witness the game. The mounted band of the Fifteenth was present and rendered fine music.

Several arrests have been made by local authorities, soldiers being turned over to the military authorities.

About 11 P. M. Saturday a disturbance was created in Centre Square between a hackman and several soldiers. The former had conveyed the latter, with two cases of beer, to Round Top. On their return the father of the driver took the team to the stable, and with the team some empty bottles, which the soldiers demanded, or their equivalent—eighty cents. Being unable to produce the bottles the driver was surrounded and kept until the arrival of the provost guard, who, upon hearing the circumstances, escorted the young man to the stable and secured the bottles.

The Citizens Band gave a delightful concert in Centre Square on Monday evening.

By reason of the epidemic that has broken out among the horses in camp, the Fifteenth Cavalry was ordered to go by train to Fort Myer, the horses not being considered equal to the trip by road. They left on Tuesday afternoon.

MIDDLEBURG.

Notwithstanding the extreme heat last Sunday a large audience greeted Rev. Otis Draper, of Baltimore, who preached a most excellent sermon in the M. E. Church. The solos by Harris P. Stephenson, of Wilmington, Del., were greatly enjoyed.

On Monday evening Mrs. Jacob Snare entertained the members of the Aid Society of St. Paul's Reformed Church of Union Bridge. About thirty-six persons were present and spent a most enjoyable evening in games and social intercourse. Refreshments were served after which Rev. Martin Sweitzer held a short service for the benefit of Mrs. Snare's aged mother.

Mrs. Arthur Benchoff, of Baltimore, is spending some time with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keefer, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Addison McKinney.

Misses Rose and Madeline Snare are visiting their brother, Jacob Snare.

Harry Welty met with what might have been a very serious accident on Tuesday. While threshing at Mr. Harner's, near town, a small belt flew off and struck Mr. Welty, mashing his right hand and cutting and bruising his face considerably. Part of the machine was wrecked.

During a heavy wind and rain storm that passed over here Wednesday afternoon, lightning struck the barn on the Sterling Stull farm, about 2 miles south of town, destroying the building, all of this season's crops, one large new wagon and other machinery. A hog pen was also burned.

DEATH TO ENGLISH SPARROWS.

John Davy, of Kent, Ohio, who, we are informed, "has taken the initiative" in a movement to exterminate the English sparrow, deserves the thanks and goodwill of every farmer and every suburbanite or city dweller, all who love native song birds and all who seek and fail to find sweet slumber in the early morn when these intolerable birds begin their incessant, ear-splitting chatter. We are told that the reason for introducing English sparrows into the United States was "on account of their insectivorous propensities." The intention of the railroad contractor who brought them here was no doubt good, but it has been demonstrated during a long series of years that this "propensity" either never existed or it has become so weakened by change of climate that in the end we find ourselves overrun and annoyed by simply an ugly plumaged, damage-doing pest without a single redeeming quality.

Song bird admirers have long viewed the situation with awe and it is to be hoped that, as John Davy, of Kent, Ohio, (our hat comes off to him) has begun the crusade, anti-English Sparrow societies will immediately be organized throughout the entire country and that no effort will be spared to exterminate this pugnacious feathered nuisance.

The Baltimore News suggests that "as soon as a commercial value is placed on him, the extermination of Mr. Sparrow will follow swiftly as a matter of course." If this be so, by all means let the commercial value be adopted at once. Let the restaurants serve sparrows as "rice birds," let the "eating house" serve sparrow pot pie; let an Armour or a Colgate manufacture sparrow soap and sparrow glue and let Baltimore at once erect an enormous plant at Sparrows point for the production of sparrow oil.

Lastly, let all the world appeal to the Audubon Society to urge the use of dyed sparrow feathers for muffs, neck pieces and milinery finery, and let Congress pass a bill requiring the Army and Navy to adopt shoulder straps made of sparrow wings for all officers above the rank of Corporal. Then will the sparrow be no more.

MEMORIES AS GUIDING INFLUENCES.

How much better and truer and nobler the manhood and womanhood of the times would be if each of the inhabitants of this big, work-impelling, sport-inviting, pleasure-luring, money-craving world would pause for just a brief spell each day—(towards evening, say, when the shadows lengthen and a little quiet creeps in as the busy hours slacken their pace)—and if each would dwell in quiet thought on the love, the unselfishness, the sweetness, the tenderness, the affection, the pure influence of those devoted lives that once tenanted and made happy the old home in by-gone days.

How many rash acts would be thwarted, how many temptations avoided, how much of evil averted, how much sorrow turned into joy, how many good influences set to work. In a word how much higher would each one's ideals ascend by reason of this constant thought-association, and how much more earnest and real and kindly would one's whole life become.

There was never a home, we would think, however lowly, in which, at some time, there did not hover an influence for good; hardly a fireside from within whose circle some godly precepts did not emanate; hardly a dwelling in which at eventide or night, a fervent prayer was not taught or in which some fragment of a prayerful wish did not rise to heaven in behalf of all those who called this dwelling "home."

These influences, these examples are readily forgotten, easily tossed aside when so-called successes come or when the old home is broken up forever, and its traditions are given but a passing thought; yet after all these are what become some of the real things of life—some of the dearest treasures one can possess if they are dwelt upon and cherished till they develop into forces in one's career.

Instead of obeying the flimsy, ephemeral impulse that lures but never satisfies and seldom brings one to a harbor where success or actual content is, would not the sainted memory, the high, noble influence or kindly injunction of some dear one, living or departed—a mother, father, wife, brother, sister, friend—would this not tend to guide one's footsteps in the better path?

Cherish these memories, bring them closer and closer to you until they become a part of your personality and your whole life will be the happier for it, and in the end there will come true peace and satisfaction.

SHAKE THEM UP AGAIN.

THE recent "shake-up" in the Marine Corps—all occasioned by a determination to put that branch of the service on a better footing—has started the report that, rather than be "exiled," the officers affected by the order will resign. This, in our humble judgment, would be the best thing possible "for the good of the service." There have been and are too many "carpet knights" hanging around Washington and other easy posts and the sooner they are ordered away to stations where they can work with their heads and not so much with their elbows and their lips, the better.

WHY NOT GIST BLAIR?

ONE plaint of the Republicans in Frederick county seems to be that Gist Blair has not "broken" with Pearre. They want him to cut loose and divide the thing up worse than it is now. Warner, if he lands the nomination, will get Pearre's opposition to the very last, and he will get plenty of other opposition likewise; whereas if Blair succeeds in being nominated both Hagner and Pearre will see him through. Why Warner, then, or Pearre—either one of whom will lose the election—when a truly representative man like Blair is in the field?

AND above all we must destroy politics as a profession. He who perpetually seeks office is of all men most unfit to hold it, for he will use it to promote his further selfish ends.—Cumberland Daily News.

This means, of course, do not vote for Pearre.

COLONEL TOM WATSON will take the stump. He more than likely will set the woods afire, moreover.—Washington Herald.

And even if he don't succeed in burning it up he'll char it so that you can notice it.

JACK JOHNSON is said to be fond of playing the fiddle.—Washington Herald.

White folks are not over fond of paying such fiddlers as Johnson, however.

THE THURMONT BASEBALL CLUB MAKES PROPOSITION TO THE EMMITSBURG TEAM.

Editor of the Chronicle:

Dear Sir:—

Through your valuable paper I wish to submit the following proposition to the Emmitsburg Baseball Club for a series of three games between Emmitsburg and Thurmont.

Tuesday Aug., 16th. Thurmont at Emmitsburg, Thurmont paying its own expenses.

Thursday Aug. 18th. Emmitsburg at Thurmont, Emmitsburg paying its own expenses.

Saturday, Aug. 20th., game to be played on grounds of the team making the greatest number of runs in the first two games. For this game the visiting team is to pay $5.00 for expenses by the team on whose grounds the game is played.

In these games two umpires would be used, one from each town or perhaps a neutral umpire could be selected. The Thurmont team will not play the third game on neutral grounds and thinks that this proposition for the series is fair in every respect.

I trust that the manager of the Emmitsburg Club will communicate with me on this matter so we may get together on same.

Respectfully,
PARK W. LOY,
Manager, Thurmont Baseball Club.

A MEMORY.

I think the gentle soul of him
Goes softly in some garden place,
With the old smile time may not dim
Upon his face.

He was a lover of the spring,
With love that never quite forgets,
Surely sees roses blossoming
And violets.

Now that his day of toil is through,
I love to think he sits at ease,
With some old volume that he knows
Upon his knees.

Watching perhaps, with quiet eyes
The white clouds drifting argosy:
Or twilight opening flower-wise
On land and sea.

He who so loved companionship
I may not think walks quite alone,
Failing some friendly hand to slip
Within its own.

Those whom he loved aforetime, still,
I doubt not, bear him company;
I think that laughter yet may thrill
Where he may be.

A thought, a fancy—who may tell?
Yet I who ever pray it so
Feel through my tears that all is well
And this I know.

That God is gentle to His guest,
And, therefore, may I gladly say,
"Surely, the things He loved the best
Are His to-day."

The Maryland and Virginia Bar Association met in joint session this week at Hot Springs, Virginia.

The oats crop of Robert Rawlings, of Rising Sun, Caroline county, will average 100 bushels to the acre.

Patrolman Chas. T. Dorsey of the Baltimore police force was caught in full uniform, robbing a saloon.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 people attended the 24th annual assembly of the Lutheran Church at Pen-Mar last Thursday.

A fire that at one time threatened to wipe out the town occurred in Leitersburg on Tuesday at the home of John W. Miner.

Cecil county oats crops are reported to be very large this year. Returns from their crops give 65, 63 and 70 bushels to the acre.

Cambridge, through her Board of Trade, has proposed a State Federation of similar bodies with the idea of booming Maryland business.

Twenty-two mail boxes for the streets of Frostburg, Washington county, have been received and are being placed in readiness for August 1, when the free delivery begins in that city.

B. H. Warner Jr., candidate for nomination for congressman in the sixth district on the Republican ticket filed his official notice and paid the required fee in Washington County on Tuesday.

B. F. Crouse, State Insurance Commissioner, who has been a patient at Johns Hopkins Hospital for weeks past is gradually recovering from the effects of his long illness which is said to be due to impoverished blood.

Mrs. Stephen Gambrill, wife of one of the most prominent citizens of Prince George's county, and sister of the late United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman, died last Friday at the Gambrill residence at Laurel.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Cummings, widow of James W. Cummings and mother of "Cy" Cummings, Democratic member of the lower House at Annapolis, died at her home in Chevy Chase, Montgomery county on Tuesday.

The first freight train over the new line of the Baltimore and Ohio to Linden, Md., left the temporary terminal station in K street, Washington, D. C., Tuesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, loaded with Georgetown products.

Prominent among the delegates to the third annual convention of the National Good Roads Association, which convened this week at Niagara Falls, is Hon. Blair Lee, State Senator from Montgomery County.

Tollgates on the York and Hanover turnpikes coming into Baltimore are closed now since these roads have been turned over to the State. The York road will be the first to receive attention from the Good Road Commission.

Thomas B. Breen, Secretary, and Mrs. Breen, vice president of the Hagerstown Civic Club, have resigned from that organization, charging that certain corporation lawyers and politicians were endeavoring to disrupt the club.

Dr. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, the distinguished surgeon, has been chosen as one of the five men who will represent the United States at the International Congress of Physicians and Surgeons which will hold its convocation at St. Petersburg, September 22 to 28.

The Bel Air Times says the individual deposits in the National Banks of Maryland on June 30, amounted to the sum of $31,751,919.24, and that the internal revenue receipts for the district which includes Baltimore City, show a net gain of $987,921.21 for the fiscal year.

What is said to be the largest gathering of Odd Fellows ever held in Maryland will be the reunion at Pen Mar on August 4. An elaborate programme has been arranged and in addition to the Maryland contingent, Odd Fellows from Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia will be present.

A 20-acre field of Mr. Charles E. Bryan, of Havre de Grace, produced a crop of timothy hay that averaged four tons to the acre. This yield is an excellent proof of the improvement of soil by intelligent work and rotation of crops. Three years ago the crop averaged less than one-half ton to an acre.

The Lonaconing Star of Cumberland, through John J. Robinson, the editor and proprietor, and Rebecca Robinson, his wife, made an assignment to Tasker G. Lowndes. The deed of trust includes the Star Building at Lonaconing and the Star publishing plant. The Star is a Republican weekly.

The raspberry crop in Washington county is estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000, says the Montgomery Press, and those who have grown berries say that from $150 to $200 an acre can be realized on this small fruit. Montgomery county is just now rejoicing in a great wheat yield, and the promise for corn is good but the farmer who happens to have a few acres in berries can realize a roll of ready money before his grain is ready for market.

HOW GRAIN SHRINKS WITH AGE WONDROUS THRESHING MACHINE

It is Economy Often to Sell From The Thresher at Low Price.—A Few Figures.

Except under abnormal conditions of the market farmers rarely gain holding on to their grain after it is fit for market, when the shrinkage is taken into account. Wheat from the time it is threshed, will shrink two quarts to the bushel, or 6 per cent. in six months, in the most favorable circumstances. From this it follows that 94 cents a bushel for wheat, when threshed in August, is as good, taking into account the shrinkage alone, as $1 in the following February.

Corn shrinks much more from the time it is first husked. One hundred bushels of ears, as they come from the field in November, will be reduced to not far from eighty. So that 60 cents a bushel for corn in the ear, as it comes from the field, is as good as 75 in March, shrinkage only being taken into the account.

Cummins on Monopolies.

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, in a Kansas Chautauqua address said: "What man cannot see the ills monopolies are bringing upon us? Take the case of the railroads. They charged excessive rates and accumulated a surplus. This they put back into the road's improvements, and they now ask you to pay additional interest upon this surplus obtained through extortionate rates. In 10 years the railroads added 3½ billions of dollars to their capitalization on betterments and extensions without the investment of a single penny of independent capital. We must pay interest on this surplus investment."

Is Sunday Telephoning a Sin?

Residents of the southern part of Lancaster county, Pa., are debating the question, "Is it a sin to use the telephone on Sunday?" For years a minister was president of an independent line in that section, but an open exchange there on Sunday is something new. Rev. E. E. Curtis, pastor of the Chestnut Level Presbyterian Church, is hotly scoring Sunday telephone service, and a lively war for and against is on.

One Man With Its Help Does Work of Twenty-five.—Operates in Field.

A dispatch from Wichita, Kan., makes the unqualified assertion that Curtis Baldwin, a farmer of Nickerson, has invented a machine for threshing grain in the fields and that it works. If this invention shall accomplish all that is claimed for it, it is in a high degree revolutionary and important. There have been two trials of the machine in Wichita, in a field of wheat and a field of oats, and we are told that the grain was satisfactorily threshed in both instances. It is further declared that on this machine one man can do the work of 25 men, and one machine and four horses supplant several expensive machines and many horses now used in threshing and harvesting grains. Here is the story of the work done:—

By threshing the standing grain in this manner, the use of binders, headers, wheat stackers, pitchers, stackers and threshing machine crews are eliminated. The machine, according to Mr. Baldwin, will solve the problem of the shortage of harvest hands and the spoiling of grain in the stack. The mechanism of the thresher is simple. It resembles a header and the horses are driven behind the machine. In place of the header sickle there is a cylinder 10 inches in diameter. The heads of the grain are driven against this cylinder by the driving blast of an exhaust fan. The grain is then carried back into a cleaner, where it is separated from the chaff, which is carried by an elevator to the sackers. The fan and elevator are run by a gasoline engine. The machine is made of steel and weighs about 2500 pounds. It takes the same size swath as a header, but travels faster because it does not depend on a barge.

In view of the past development of farm machinery no thoughtful person will be disposed to say that this invention of Mr. Baldwin cannot do what is claimed for it, and indeed has not already done it. It is further stated in the Wichita account that W. F. Reschke of the Reschke Machine Works of that city is assisting Mr. Baldwin in perfecting the thresher and will manufacture it. The patent for the thresher is now pending. The great combine of the manufacturers of agricultural machinery will have to take notice, if there be no serious flaw in these claims.

A Lesson on Forgiveness. Matt.
xviii:21-35.

Golden Text—If you forgive men their trespasses, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you. Matt. vi:14.

Verses 21, 22—What would be the result if an individual, or the community were to forgive injuries to those who have no regret for having done them?

Why is it the duty of every man to forgive injuries when they are truly repented of?

What is the limit, as to the number of times, we should, on repentance, forgive a person who has injured us?

What should be our attitude to one who constantly does us injury and takes delight in doing so?

What can you say, for or against the statement that the state should forgive crime on the principles here laid down by Jesus?

What are the theoretical reasons for punishing criminals?

What are the practical results of the present method of punishing crime—(1) does it prevent crime? (2) does it reform the criminal?

Verses 23-27—In what sense does Jesus use the phrase, "the kingdom of heaven," here?

Who does this king here stand for,
and does his method of forgiveness represent God's method?

What reason is there for us to suppose, that the sentence of this king, against his unfaithful servant, would have been carried out if the servant had not cried out for mercy?

If a sinner is truly sorry for his sins,
and is desirous of not repeating them,
and prays to be forgiven, how much urgency does God require before his prayer is granted?

If this parable teaches the method, and the conditions of God in forgiving
a sinner, how can the parable be reconciled with the commercial theory of the atonement?

When a sinner is full forgiven, is he as innocent before God, as if he had never sinned? Give your reasons.

Verses 28-30—What was the amount which the first servant had been forgiven, and what was the amount the second servant owed to the first, in our currency?

What can you say, for or against, the opinion that a truly converted man could not act in this harsh manner?

BLAIR A MARYLANDER—REFUTES FALSE CHARGE.

Silver Spring, Md., July 28.—A new issue has been raised in the Republican campaign for Congress from the Sixth. It is now being urged that Gist Blair, of this county, is not a resident of Maryland but is a resident of Washington and has therefore no right to appear before the voters of Maryland and seek office at their hands.

When Mr. Blair's attention was called to this he at first insisted that it was too absurd to notice. Later however, he decided that a false impression might have been made and issued a statement in which he declared that he had been a resident of Maryland for more than ten years and had been actively in Maryland politics during that period. Mr. Blair said:

"My attention has been called to the repeated suggestion that I am a resident of Washington and not of Montgomery County Md. A false impression is conveyed even by this suggestion.

"It is very true that my law office is in Washington and that I own a house in that city. My home however, is at Silver Spring Md. When I returned from St. Louis thirteen years ago I took up my legal and permanent abode in Maryland the state with which my family has been identified for three generations.

"Since that time I served as alternate delegate-at-large from Maryland to the convention which nominated Roosevelt for the presidency; I have served as postmaster at Silver Spring and as a member of the Republican State Central Committee for Montgomery county. I was also a candidate for the office of State's Attorney for this county and during this long period of residence and party service, the question as to my domicile has never before been raised.

"I shall deprecate any effort to make so trivial a matter an issue in this campaign but if it becomes an issue I shall cheerfully meet it. My Republican associates in Montgomery county are prepared to disprove any statement to the effect that I am anything but a Maryland Republican."

Mr. Gelwicks' garden with its long stretch of cement walks and its well kept beds is one of the prettiest spots in Emmitsburg. Mr. Gelwicks is also having a concrete pavement laid in front of his store. The work is being done by Messrs. Hoke & Rider.

WINDSTORM STRIKES CAMP

Tents at Gettysburg Demolished.—Adjutant's Office Wrecked.—Soldiers Drenched.

Newspapers Against Pearre.

A "looker-on," quoted in the Sun, says, "At this time it seems altogether likely that Col. George A. Pearre will be nominated by the Republicans for re-election to Congress. But there is a strong opposition to him. He is especially lacking in the support of the Republican newspapers of his district. In his own county the Republican paper is controlled by members of the party which is opposed to him."

BULLETIN NO. 2. CAUSES HIGH COST OF LIVING.

The Payne-Aldrich Tariff raised the rates, August 9th, 1909, on the following necessities, causing their wholesale prices to advance as follows:

Wholesale Price July, 1909.	(Increase to) March, 1910.
Blankets, Cotton, per 100 lbs.	$5.00
Calico, per 100 yards.	4.51
Cotton yarns, per 100 lbs.	2.00
Hosiery, per 100 pairs.	8.00
Shingles, per 1000.	3.10
Tariff Rates Reduced on:
Silk filatures per 100 lbs.	$3.66
Petroleum, per barrel.	1.63
Pet. refined, per 100 gallons.	8.40
(Decrease to)
Petroleum, per barrel.	$3.32
Pet. refined, per 100 gallons.	1.40
Pet. refined, per 100 gallons.	7.90

These few illustrations prove that raising the tariff rates raises the prices, and reducing such rates lowers the prices. But the Government does not get more revenue because the raised articles are produced here. Raising the rates, however, gave the manufacturing monopolies power to increase their prices, that is their private tax on the consumers, which they did as above shown.

MARYLAND AUTO LAW ATTACKED

Washingtonians Want Exemption Removed.—Class Legislation Against Capital Unjust Claim Motorists.

The Washington organization of the National Automobile Association is going to fight to a finish that part of the Maryland automobile law which excludes from Maryland Washingtonians without a Maryland license. The word "State" in the law is defined to include the Territories and Federal Districts of the United States, except in a single instance, and in this paragraph Washington, being in the district of Columbia, is directly discriminated against. Owners of automobiles in Virginia and Maryland have the privilege of visiting the District, while residents of the District are hedged in by unjust legislation on both sides. The outcome of the campaign will be eagerly looked for.

MARYLAND'S OFFICIAL CENSUS. First Returns Are From Cumberland Which Show Gain of 4,711 in Past Decade. Exact Figures For State Not Announced.

The population of Cumberland has increased in the last ten years from 17,128 to 21,839. These figures were given on Wednesday by the director of the Census, and are the first official returns from Maryland. If Cumberland's increase, which is 27 per cent., can be taken as a criterion, there is not the slightest danger of having this State's representation in Congress reduced on account of failure to progress in population. It is not thought however, that the increase will be sufficient to justify a claim for an additional congressman.

THE PRESS READY FOR DEBUT. New Frederick Daily Will Appear on August 2.—Will Pursue Independent Course. No Sunday Edition.

Next Tuesday will witness the appearance of the first issue of the Evening Press, published at Frederick, daily except Sunday. The Press will be independent so far as partisan affairs are concerned, but it does not propose to be neutral when the interests of the people are at stake, at which times, it will take what it considers the right side and push it with all its might. It will devote itself to the development and upbuilding of Frederick and will cover in its news columns all sections of the county.

PRISONS BREED TUBERCULOSIS

Twelve Thousand Consumptives in Penal Institutions of Country.

Only twenty-one prisons in fifteen states and territories have provided special places for the treatment of their tuberculosis prisoners. These institutions can accommodate, however, only 800 patients. In three-fourths of the major prisons and in practically all the jails of the country the tuberculosis prisoner is allowed freely to infect his fellow prisoners, very few restrictions being placed upon his habits. When the congested mode of prison life is considered, the danger of infection becomes greater than in the general population. New York and Massachusetts are the only states where any systematic attempt has been made to transfer all tuberculosis prisoners to one central institution. The largest tuberculosis hospital is in Manila, where accommodations for 200 prisoners are provided. The next largest is Clinton Prison Hospital in New York, which provides for 150.

The fact that 100,000 prisoners are discharged from the jails and prisons of the country annually, and that from ten to fifteen per cent of them have tuberculosis, makes the problem of providing special places for their treatment while they are confined a serious one. So important is the problem that the Prison Association of New York in co-operation with the State Charities Aid Association, is preparing to inaugurate a special campaign for the prevention of tuberculosis in the penal institutions of the state, and will seek to enlist the co-operation of all prison physicians and anti-tuberculosis societies in this work.

"UNCLE JUDSON" TAKES IT EASY. Governor Harmon Feels Assured of Another Term in Ohio.—Republican Chances Slim.

A correspondent of the New York Globe, writes for his paper in part as follows: While the Republicans of Ohio are in convention this week, Uncle Judson Harmon, Governor of the State, sits about and looks on and smiles and smiles.

Not in the least worried, apparently at any rate, is Uncle Judson. He seems to feel assured that he has another term as Governor of the Buckeye State in his grip, and there is no use disguising the fact that he probably has.

For campaign purposes the Republican politicians will tell you they hope to beat Harmon this fall, but when they are talking as to an old friend and not for publication they admit the chances are slim.

It would be a long story to tell all that is the matter with the Republican party in this State, so long the fortress of the G. O. P. But it is clear that, regardless of the troubles of the Republicans, things have been coming the way of Governor Harmon. Every time he has drawn to a hand he has filled it. Some say it is just good luck. Others say that under the guise of being just a plain, old-fashioned American citizen Governor Harmon is one of the ablest politicians that ever walked around on two feet in this country, where politics flourishes.

HEAT OF SUN IGNITES SHELL. 1,800 Rounds of Eight-Inch Gun Ammunition Catch Fire and Lighter is Burned to the Water.

Tuesday while loading a big Navy Department lighter from a supply ship, in the East River, New York, some powder in shells was so affected by the heat of the sun that it exploded and set fire to other ammunition. None of the shells contained projectiles, but the flames immediately set fire to all other powder and the vessel. Fifteen men on board had to jump for their lives, and one was so badly burned by the flaring powder that he may die. The lighter was burned to the water's edge in mid-stream.

Sermon on the Hog. My son, consider the hog. He toils not, neither does he spin. But he's worth close on to 10 cents a pound on the hoof, and he is getting so exclusive that only the very best circles are able to entertain him. He waxes fat at this leisure, knows no labor and travels to market in a special car. Just at first thought the hog seems to be considerable of a personage, but still he is only a hog and he really isn't worthy of emulation. There are a good many persons who adopt his ways, however, and fatten on what other people have gathered together. Their ambition runs more to gross weight than to quality, and like the hog they are despised. A hog isn't worth a thing until he is placed on the market. He serves no useful purpose while he lives, and it is only as he gathers fat that he adds value. He is the symbol of greed and bad manners, has a bad disposition and is a social outcast—but he is selling at nearly 10 cents a pound, and that is why he is sometimes emulated.—Ottawa (Kan.) PEN MAR CROWDED ON SUNDAY

City People Flock To The Mountain To Escape The Heat.—Western Maryland Busy Hauling Them.

Sunday was one of the biggest days in the history of the Western Maryland Railway Company's excursion business. Two long trains of 12 cars each carried nearly 1,500 people to Pen-Mar, while long special and regular trains from Hagerstown, York, Shippensburg, Chambersburg and other points landed probably 2,000 more at the pretty mountain resort. In addition to this many hundreds journeyed there on the trolley lines from mountain points. The regular morning express trains also carried many to Pen-Mar, Blue Mountain, Buena Vista and Sanatorium.

In giving his views on the subject of divorce to a newspaper man the other day, he condemned unsparingly those states which permit decrees of divorce for such trivial reasons as prevail in a large portion of this country. His Eminence spoke as follows:

"Divorce is a moral cancer which is eating out the social and family life of the country. The evil is growing and the question is how it can be overcome. The laws should be made more rigid against divorce and then faithfully enforced. There are no divorces among the 16,000,000 of Catholics in this country, and they should be deducted from the probably 95,000,000 of our population. This makes the percentage of such decrees all the more startling, and is a sad commentary on our boasted civilization."

Leaving the subject of divorce, he alluded to the duties of citizens generally. He encouraged young men to take an active part in politics, not to be office seekers, and to see that the affairs of government are faithfully administered, but not to decline office when called upon by the people.

BANKS WANT POSTAL DEPOSITS

Almost Six Hundred Institutions File Applications.—Twelve Maryland Banks Among Them.

Applications from 590 national banks to be designated as depositaries for postal savings funds have been received by the Postmaster General. These come from every state and territory in the United States.

Pennsylvania, because of its large foreign population, heads the list, with 84 banks. Ohio comes second, with 44; Wisconsin has 39, Iowa 38 and Illinois 35 banks eager to be selected. Twelve Maryland banks have applied.

In addition to banks, applications from bookkeepers are pouring in at a lively rate. It has not been decided whether these positions will be filled by the Civil Service Commission.

All this is occasioned by Taylor's refusal to stump the state for the present governor.
