County and municipal authorities which have charge of the roads will receive the money from the Postoffice Department It is estimated that the Shackleford bill will carry $18,000,000 for highways during its first year.

A compromise on the parcel post and express provisions occupied most of the time of debate and was agreed to after numerous amendments were voted down. As the bill was perfected in the committee of the whole, the parcel post and express questions are given to a committee of three Senators and three Representatives for study and report to the next session of Congress.

In the meantime a rural route service is provided. Its rates are 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound up to 11 pounds. All of this mail matter is confined to rural route service. A general parcel post service of 12 cents a pound for 11 made it impossible to pick up all the Neill, United States Commissioner of Mont., a hustling young town on the pounds is contained in the bill.

FREDERICK COUNTY.

Frederick is next to the largest of the counties of Maryland. In population and wealth it ranks next to Baltimore county. In the fertility and productiveness of its lands it ranks among the first in the Union, and especially in the production of wheat. The area of this great county is 633 square miles. The great body of the people are of German, English and Scoth-Irish descent, the progeny mostly of the early settlers. The land is mostly of fine limestone quality, and the greater part of the county is a valley of rolling lands lying between the Linganore Hills and the Catoctin Mountain. This splendid valley is drained by the Monocacy river, and is one of the best farmed and most highly improved and productive areas of the Union. The great crops are wheat and corn .- Maryland Manual issued by Board of Public Works.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

CRAZY EUROPEAN RULERS.

By A. W. MACY. During the time Napoleon was turning Europe topsy-turvy with his splendid military genius more than half the European thrones were occupied by either lunatics or half-witted persons. Emperor Paul of Russia had a feeble intellect, a scanty education, and an absurd and well-nigh insane self-conceit. Christian VII. of Denmark was so feeble and morbid that he was incapable of ruling. Queen Marie of Portugal was hopelessly insane, and had to be kept under restraint. Charles IV. of Spain was a weak ruler, hardly a shade more than half-witted. His brother, Ferdinand of Naples, was a little better, but not much. And George III. of England, intellectually sluggish and obstinate by nature, was destined to pass the last ten years of his life in hopeless insanity. Napoleon's career probably would have been shorter and less brilliant had the European thrones been occupied by vigorous monarchs.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

LIVED SEVEN YEARS ON MILK ONLY.

British medical men have been much interested in the case of Arthur Keene of Penarth, Glamorgan. The boy has lived on milk exclusively, nearly seven years, and was a remarkabe example of physical development and normal health. His diet has been a little more than two quarts of milk daily. It is not to be assumed that a child after the first year would live very much better on milk than on any other food, but remarkable results would probably follow in every case the substitution of a simple diet for the ordinary mixture of fresh bread, mushes, flesh meat, tea and coffee and fruit indiscriminately mixed. It is important that experiments in feeding be instituted that would demonstrate systematically the benefits from scientific feeding.

CONTROLS TAFT. SAYS BRISTON

Wanted."

Kansas Senator Forcibly Arraigns the Reactionary Candidate - Makes a Powerful "Case Against the Taft Administration"-Why Rockefeller Was Complacent as to Election of 1908.

Washington, April 18.—That the Taft administration has entered into an understanding with the great business combinations of the country and that the relations between those combina tions and the administration now are harmonious and directed toward a common end is the profound belief of Sen ator Joseph L. Bristow of Kansas, one of the foremost leaders of the progres sive movement in the United States.

"If you take for a text the speech de livered in Philadelphia not long ago by President Taft, in which he declared himself a progressive along with the rejoinder thereto delivered by Colonel Roosevelt at Louisville and attach to these speeches the reasonable knowl edge of known facts and events, you cannot escape the conclusion at which I have arrived," said Senator Bristow in a talk on what might be called "the case against the Taft administration.' "Said Colonel Roosevelt:

Taft's "Progressivism."

"Four years ago the progressives supported Mr. Taft for president, and he was ported Mr. Taft for president, and he was opposed by such representatives of special privileges as Mr. Penrose of Pennsylvania, Mr. Aldrich of Rhode Island and Mr. Gallinger of New Hampshire, as Messrs. Lorimer, Cannon and McKinley of Illinois, and he was opposed by practically all of the men of the stamp of Messrs. Guggenheimer and Evans of Colorado and Mr. Patrick Calbour of San orado and Mr. Patrick Calhoun of San Francisco. These men were not progressives then, and they are not progressives now; but, unlike the president, they know who is a progressive and who is not. Their judgment in the matter is good After three and a half years of association with and knowledge of the president these and their fellows are now the president these and their fellows are now the president's chief supporters, and they and the men who feel and act as they do in business and in politics give him the great bulk of his strength. The president says well and have studied his actions for three years, and they regard him as being precisely the kind of progressive they approve

"Study that extract from Colonel Roosevelt's speech, if you please. Get at its meaning. Why does the criminal on trial for his liberty or his ill gotten property seek to select a judge by asking a change of venue? Why does he discriminate so closely in the selection of the jury which is to try him? The law provides these expedients for him that he may get justice; but, being guilty, he does not resort to these expedients to secure justice, but to avoid it. When the great combinations which have piled up enormous aggregations of money by illegal and criminal means select and stand for a candidate for president they have a motive, a motive that it seems to me ought to be plain to all men.

John D. Was Informed. "Let me next call your attention to the interview which John D. Rockefeller gave out at the Standard Oil of fices in New York, Oct. 30, 1908, a few days before the election in which Mr Taft first ran for the presidency. Mr Rockefeller had not been near his of fices for several years, and when he appeared there for the express purpose of making public in the most effective and farreaching way this interview Colonel Roosevelt and all the other progressives were of the opinion that it was done for the purpose of hurtin Mr. Taft. But I have changed my mind about that since that time. have become convinced that Mr. Rockefeller then had information about the complacence of Mr. Taft regarding 'Big Business' that the progressives did not have.

"As one indication of this, I have been advised that not so very long be fore the Rockefeller interview the sug ar trust approached Mr. Taft through Mr. Charles B. Warren of Michigan. the personal representative of the sugar trust in the beet sugar industry in Michigan, on matters vital to that ini quitous combination. That the confer ence was eminently satisfactory to the sugar trust was immediately shown by the fact that Mr. Warren and his as sociates were for Taft and have been for him ever since. Indeed, on this point I have only to recall to you that Mr. Warren was accredited in th press reports of a few days ago with being the person who at midnigh placed fifty huskies from the Michigan beet sugar factories in the hall wher the Michigan Republican state conven tion was to be held in order that the hall might be controlled in the interes of Mr. Taft and against Colonel Roose velt the next day.

Oil Octopus In Touch.

"Now, if such a conference could make the sugar interests the devoted supporter of Mr. Taft the question nat urally arises why something of th same kind might not have influence: Mr. Rockefeller. There are not the acces rate data in regard to the Standard Oil company that there are relative to the meeting with the sugar trust, but there is some interesting collateral evidence tending to show that somewhere and ministered by this administration over with the influences that controlled the before."

then candidate for president. You will remember that after his election, but before his inauguration, Mr. Taft spent some little time at the Virginia Hot Springs. From that resort we received the first intimation ever emanating from any president of a purpose to establish the commerce court.

"I remember I was greatly surprised. When President Rousevelt forced the rate bill through congress, restoring the interstate commerce commission to power in the enforcement of its rulings, tremendous efforts were made by Messrs. Aldrich, Gallinger and the rest of the reactionaries to include in the law a provision for a court review of the commission's decisions. The pro gressive tendency of the time was distinctly against any court review, for it was the courts which had emasculated the commission of its power under the old law. The people generally feared a repetition of this. They wanted to control the railroads. They want ed to obviate forever the possibility of a continuance of the processes by which such concerns as the Standard Oil company had used the common carriers to collect rebates on their own business and on that of their competitors at the same time. The reactionaries succeeded in getting a form of court review into the law, but not as free a one as they desired.

Trust and Commerce Court.

"Now, you will remember that W R. Hearst during the campaign of 1908 read from the platform in different portions of the country letters that had been procured by some means from the files of the Standard Oil company. It was charged that the letters were stolen, but their authenticity was acknowledged. They were genuine letters, however procured. In reading them as they appeared in the papers I was one day not much surprised to learn that the idea of a separate court of review for interstate commerce commission decisions had emanated from the Standard Oil company. They were the first people to invent the idea of a commerce court. The proof of it was found in a letter written by Joseph Sibley of Pennsylvania, member of the house and confessed congressional lobbyist for the Standard Oil company. He was not the only lobbyist employ ed by that company we may believe. but he was one.

"In this letter, written by Mr. Sibley, at Washington, on Feb. 26, 1905, to Mr. John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company and read from the platform by Mr. Hearst at Memphis, Tenn., on Sept. 19, 1908, is found the following paragraph relative to a certain 'Senator B.,' who is described as 'wholly and unalterably opposed' to President Roosevelt's policy regarding corpora-

"In re power to fix railroad rates Mr. B is for giving power to make rates, but will fight the idea of a separate court. I WAS SORRY NOT TO BE ABLE TO CHANGE HIS VIEWS ON THAT TOPIC

Lobbying In the Senate.

"Here is documentary proof that the Standard Oil company had conceived the idea of a commerce court as long ago as before February, 1905, and that its lobbyists were engaged at that time in trying to gain support in the United States senate for the establishment of such a court. On Oct. 30, 1908, only a week before the election that was to decide the fate of Mr. Taft, John D Rockefeller takes most unusual pains to serve public notice upon all friends of his kind of business throughout the country that Mr. Taft was the man to support for president. Now, what information did Mr. Rockefeller have that caused him to take this very unusual means to place his attitude on the presidential election before the business world? What could it have been? I myself do not know, but I do know that very shortly after his election Mr. Taft gave notice that he had the commerce court idea in his mind; I do know that before Mr. Taft had been long in the White House he caused a bill to be drawn providing for such a court, and he used the power of his administration to enact that bill into law. Mr. Rockefeller evidently wanted a commerce court. Mr. Taft hastened to give him one as soon as he was safely elected. The plain inference must be that the sugar trust was not the only one of the great combinations that found a way to get at Mr. Taft. I can only believe that the Standard Oil com pany had its friend who could slip into Mr. Taft's presence and get what it wanted.

A "Working Arrangement."

"But, more than that, the selection of Mr. Taft's cabinet and the general attitude of the Taft administration in the tariff session and later convinced me that the administration had some sort of a working arrangement with 'Big Business.' I am certain 'Big Business' thought it had such a rela-The president's complete change of front in regard to the tariff. the commerce court legislation, the speech giving a clean bill of health to Senator Aldrich, the administration's conduct of the Ballinger case, the W nona speech extolling the Payne-Al drich law and many other things con vinced me that such an understanding existed. The country had honored Colonel Roosevelt for the enemies he made, yet those enemies became Mr Taft's most ardent supporters from the very first. Figure it out for yourself.

"Just to make it plain in a few words, I may say that I am informed that the dissolution of the Standard Oil company and its reorganization bthe circuit court under terms to which the administration raises no objection have enriched the stockholders of that corporation just about $220,000.000 also that the stockholders of the tobacco trust have come out of their encounter with the Sherman law as adsomehow the cil octopus got in touch $100,000,000 better off than they were

ROOSEVELT COUNTRY WIDE

England Revolts From Taft Machine.

LINING

States Regarded as Conservative Strongholds Have Plainly Demonstrated That They Are Against the Candidate of Big Business-Staggering Blows to Standpatism.

Washington, April 18.-New England, so confidently claimed as Taft territory, has shown conclusively that it wants Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as its candidate for the presidency. Up to date twenty delegates have these fourteen are instructed for Colonel Roosevelt and six are uninstructed. There remain sixty-eight delegates to be elected from New England. Of these New Hampshire will contribute eight, Rhode Island ten, Connecticut fourteen and Massachusetts thirty-six. Governor Bass of New Hampshire signed the call to Colonel Roosevelt to accept the presidential nomination if offered and is confident that his state will instruct solidly for Colonel Roosevelt. Massachusetts realized that if it failed to have a presidential preference primary its delegates would be named by the Taft machine politicians and the Republican voters would have absolutely nothing to say about it. Public sentiment was aroused, with the result that the primary law has passed, in spite of the opposition of the Taft leaders, backed by the president himself. Mr. Taft was urged to support the movement for a popular test, but refused to do so. After the law was on the statute books he gave it liployal approval.

Lining Up For T. R.

In view of the fact that the law was passed as the result of the insistence of the Roosevelt forces it is easy to realize that the movement for the colonel has tremendous strength. There is every reason to believe that Massachusetts will give him the same rousing majority that Illinois gave him a few days ago. In spite of the machines in operation in Rhode Island and Connecticut and the fact that no fight whatever kas been made in either of these states for the colonel's candidacy there is a great deal of Roosevelt sentiment.

The New England situation is highly satisfactory from the Roosevelt point of view and equally unsatisfactory from the Taft standpoint. The six great states of the northeast with the exception of New Hampshire were believed to be the stronghold of conservatism, and Senator Gallinger, the ally and supporter of Senators Penrose. Crane and Lorimer, was confident that New Hampshire could be brought into line for Mr. Taft. Senator Dillingham, who also belongs to the senate ring and who for the second time has vindicated Lorimer, assured the president that Vermont would cast its vote solidly for him. Yet Mr. Taft has obtained not a single instructed delegate from Vermont. If it had been suggested several weeks ago that Colonel Roosevelt would carry Maine and that the president would not get a single instructed vote from that state nor the state of Vermont the man responsible for the suggestion, if living in Washington, would have been conveyed at once to an insane asylum. Yet Maine and Vermont have refused to place a single delegate in the Taft column.

Strength With Voters. The strength of the Roosevelt wave will be realized when attention is called to the evidence furnished by action taken in different parts of the country. Oklahoma would have gone solidly for the colonel had not the Taft forces called a convention before it was definitely known that Mr. Roosevelt would accept the nomination if it were tendered to him. As it was, he has got all but two of the delegates from that state. Illinois, in which a presidential preference primary occurred, gave the colonel fifty-six out of its fifty-eight delegates, with a tremendous majority in the state at large of 130,000 over Taft. To prevent Colonel Roosevelt from getting delegates frauds have been perpetrated in Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky and other states, especially in the south.

The Illinois vote may properly be taken as an indication of Colonel Roosevelt's strength with the voters. It is local in so far as the number of delegates elected is concerned, but it is country wide in its proof of what the people, will do if they can express themselves. It is, of course, impossible to wall up sentiment within the boundary lines of a state. The American people are a unit, swayed by the same impulses and moved by the same judgment. It is axiomatic in politics that when there is a pronounced movement in one part of the country it is bound to show in other sections. The extremes of Maine and Illinois are in

It may be safely predicted therefore that New Hampshire and Massachuetts will instruct their delegates for Telepel Roosevelt and that some results will be obtained in Rhode Island and Connecticut. In this event the territory which was believed to be abplutely stand pat and upon which the president and his supporters depended will be represented in the Republican convention by Roosevelt delegates

PAPER BAG COOKERY.

One must to keep up with the times, have some experience in cooking in paper bags. It is quick, satisfactory and economical and the ideal way of cooking meats, as the flavor is all in the meat, not passed off in the oven or air. It prevents waste, as the meat weighs as much when it is taken from the oven as it did when put in.

One of the beauties of this system is that the food cannot be looked at, and the only care is to keep the oven baking. Care should be taken in his grandmother, finding him with opening the oven if a gas flame is tear-wet face standing at the window, used, for a sudden draught from a win- said in surprise: dow or door may ignite the bag. When such accident occurs, turn off the gas, remove the bag and place it inside of another. If left a few minutes to make up the loss of time, everything will be right.

There are any number of points in | Monthly. favor of paper bag cookery; no dishes to wash after roasting a fowl or cooking a stew, a perfectly clean, sanitary bag, free from microbes, to use, no odor from the cooking and no oven

Paper bags made for the purpose are on the market; the ordinary bag is not satisfactory as it is not strong enough and it leaves an undesirable flavor in the substance cooked in it.

These bags may be purchased of any merchant, or he will be glad to keep them as they are becoming more and more popular as they are known. Directions for using come in each package. Care should be taken in placing meat with sharp skewers or bones that will pierce the bag. The bag should not be moved when put into the oven, as the heat makes it very tender. When ready to take out, place a pan under it and draw out gently on to it or the platter on which it is to be served. Open the bag and remove the contents. One mistake which is made by many is that of putting the filled bag into a pan. It should be placed directly on the iron rack, so that the heat has free access to every part of it. If the bag bursts, slide it into another, keeping a pan on the bottom of the oven to catch all the gravy that escapes.

PAPER BAG COOKERY.

First get your bag; suit the size of the bag to the dish to be cooked. Never try to crowd a large roast into a small bag, for it will surely burst. If the bag has a seam in the center, as some makes have, it should be used with the seam side up, then if it bursts the contents can be saved.

Broiled Steak .- Place the steak in a well-greased bag. Olive oil or suet for greasing is good. Place on the oven rack in a hot oven, and bake for fifteen or twenty minutes. The steak will be done to a turn, with all the delicious gravy retained.

For a breakfast that appeals to the taste for novelty, this is worth trying: Put a cup of thick, strained tomato, well seasoned, into a buttered bag, put into a hot oven, and after ten minutes draw out and cut a square from the center of the bag; into this drop four eggs, broken carefully. Cook for three to four minutes and serve from the bag with only the top cut away.

A Delicious Breakfast Dish.-Take cold mashed potatoes left from dinner, make into flat cakes and on each place a cake of sausage; place in a greased bag, put into a hot oven and cook fifteen to twenty minutes. Liver and Bacon.—Liver and bacon is always a highly appreciated dish. Slice a pound of tender calf's liver, dip each piece into seasoned flour, and place each piece of liver on a rasher of bacon. Grease the bag, put in the liver and bacon and cook for twentyfive minutes. Open the bag and slip out the meat gently on a very hot dish.

Jam buns are a saving of trouble and an easy dessert. Split several buns, dip in hot milk, spread with butter and add a little preserves or jam to each; place in a buttered bag until thoroughly hot.

Serve with fruit juice, cream and an' a dose of castor oil.-Judge. sugar or without any sauce.

For a dinner, in which all the vegetables and meat are cooked together in one bag, nothing could be simpler.

LITERARY CONTEST

Local Student at Powhattan College, at West Virginia State Institution, Takes Large Part in Programme.

The friends of Miss Louise Beam will be gratified to know that her efforts in the annual contest between the two literary societies of Powhatan College, Charlestown, W. Va., were largely responsible for the success of the Philomathean Society which she represented. Her essay, "Idols and Ideals" was splendidly prepared and excellently delivered.

Miss Beam is about completing her first year at that institution. She is a student in the Normal Department. Powhatan College for Young Ladies is under state control, is non-sectarian and finely equipped. Located in the mountains of West Virginia it is becoming one of the popular educational institutions of the South.

The contest spoken of above was held on Monday evening. Mrs. Sue Guthrie Mrs. H. G. Beam, Miss Beam's mother and Rev. Mr. Hensley and Mrs. Hensley were in the audience on that occasion. Miss Beam expects to return and Style, and a large assortment in the position of Associate Judge of this Individual Communication of Associated Individual Communication to Powhatan next year.

Mr. Percy's statements are not drawn merely from a scratching of the political surface in the cities and states through which he passed. He talked with laboring men and, by the way, it was from them that he heard the first favorable mention of Underwood; he talked with business men who control thousands of dollars, and it might be added that he took lunch with an active candidate for the presidency, not Mr. Underwood, which, however, did not blind him to the fitness of the

Mr. Underwood, as is well known, was for a long time averse to the idea of being taken up for discussion as a presidential possibility, and even after his indorsement by the Alabama Democracy he deprecated the efforts of his friends to give wider prominence to his eligibility. That he now consents to stand for the honor implies that developments have dispelled the doubts that first assailed him. The call upon Mr. Underwood issues from influential quarters in all sections, a signal fact that permits it to be recorded that for the first time in fifty years the availability of a southern man prompts no mental reservation on the core of section. As Democrats.

Underwood has always taken the southern view of politics. The southern idea is to settle disputes in the party and then present an unbroken front to the enemy. It is this habit of thought that has enabled him to keep the party in the house solid under his leadership. Woodrow Wilson has never supported a Democratic nominee who did not represent his views. When his faction was not successful he has gone out of the party to fight it. He has never been a southerner in political thought. First he belonged to what he now calls the Wall street; wing of the party, and when the buzzing of the presidential bee induced him to put away ideas that would render his nomination impossible he went to the extreme of western populism.

No Reason Why.

Of course the men who have been promised postoffices and other federal positions if Woodrow Wilson is electcan't see why any man who has nothing to gain by it would prefer a man who pretends to be a southerner to, Underwood's father took him north one who is one, a man who takes back everything he said up to four year ago to one who is right and has alway been, who makes no apology because all, we can't see why any Democrashould prefer a bolter to a steadfas-Democrat.—Jacksonville Times-Union spite of the demonstration made by the recently organized Wilson club here, there is a very strong following for Underwood in Brooks county. This is illustrated by the statement of the Rev. W. R. Talley of Dixie, who was in town yesterday and said that out of a voting population of forty in Dixie he knew of only three Wilson men. The others were all supporting Underwood. Mr. Talley, who is a Confederate veteran and a man of prominence in county affairs, said: "As to Mr. Underwood not being a southern man, the fact that he is now living in the south seems to be sufficient. Representing a southern district in congress, he has become the leader of his party, and I think his record shows him to be a man of sufficient ability to deal with the real issues of the campaign adequately and squarely. They say we can't win with a southern man. We have been defeated with a western man and with a northern man, and I am willing to take chances with a southern man. son of New Jersey.

Say what you may, let politicians talk themselves purple in the face, it is Oscar Underwood of Alabama, and wood tariff. Why say more?-Atlanta it is Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. You cannot rub that out. Underwood represents Alabama in the halls of What is the matter with Underwood? | congress. Woodrow Wilson represents the sovereign state of New Jersey as so far as anybody knows, unless it be its executive head. It is not Underwood of Kentucky; it is not Underwood of Minnesota any more than it is Wilson of Virginia, Wilson of South Carolina or Wilson of Georgia. To call Wilson a Georgian is absurd. By the same token Mr. Taft is a Georgian and Roosevelt is more one.

But the people cannot be fooled by such political chicanery. They know that Oscar Underwood is an Alabamian and Woodrow Wilson a New Jerseyite. When any editor does not give his readers credit for at least as much sense as he has, he is making a grievous blunder. The people who do a little thinking on their own account resent the unwarranted, designing, specious, unpatriotic, unsouthernlike attack on Mr. Underwood by those who should be proudest to hold up his hands. Such peanut politics is a reflection on the sound sense of the state. -Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.
