CARDINAL GIBBONS ACCEPTS CHAIRMANSHIP.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Will Open Short-Term Campaign To Secure $75,000 For the Poor.

To secure the $75,000 needed to carry on its work among the poor of Baltimore during the coming year, the St. Vincent de Paul Society has decided to conduct a short term campaign.

It will last eight days, beginning October 17 and closing October 24.

Cardinal Gibbons will serve as honorary chairman of the campaign committee and will take as active a part as possible.

Frank A. Furst, has accepted the active chairmanship. Robert Biggs is president of the society. J. J. Nelligan, president of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company, will be the campaign treasurer.

Other men of prominence are being enlisted. Women will also play a big part in the work.

The campaign will be along broad lines. The activities of the society are so widespread and mean so much to the poor of the city that everyone—Protestants and Catholics alike—will be given an opportunity to help.

Though the St. Vincent de Paul Society is a Catholic organization, it does not confine its work to Catholics, but relieves distress and want wherever found.

According to its annual report the society ministered to 2,125 families, embracing 7,196 persons, during the last 12 months.

Mystery surrounds the death of Miss Clemmie A. Brunner, aged about 16 years, who dropped dead from the porch of her home at Pleasant Walk, Frederick county, Friday night after eating supper, and who was buried Sunday afternoon with one of the largest funerals ever held in that section.

PRESIDENT HAS PROVED HIS FITNESS TO LEAD.

Noted Author Calls Him "Our Greatest Progressive."—Is the One to Lead the Cause of Progressive Civilization.

Miss Ida Tarbell, the noted author and editor, pays this tribute to President Wilson:

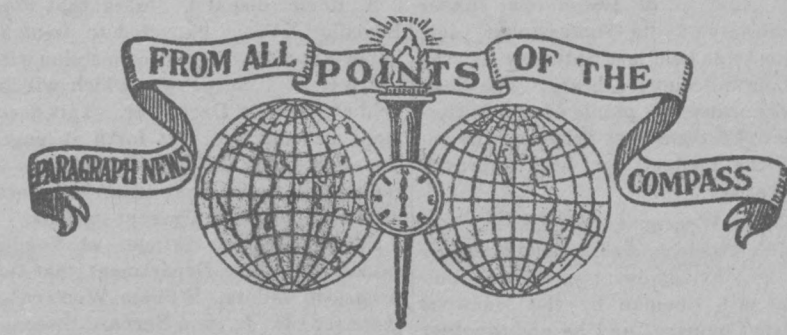

"President Wilson has proved his fitness to lead the cause of progressive civilization. True, he has not yet had time to convert the man who cries for his pound of flesh, nor altered the vision of him who fails to see that bloody war is but the primitive expression of savage weakness promoted by the ignoble desire of conquest or revenge.

"But he has forced respect for neutrality and he has handled his delicate Mexican inheritance with tact and wisdom. And for the Machiavellian authority in diplomacy and the resort to cannon in internationalism he has substituted the Sermon on the Mount, he has proved that though trampled under foot by the sovereigns of all lands for 2,000 years, the Golden Rule was good enough to win the greatest victory of the greatest war.

"Mr. Hughes? I have great respect for him. He certainly gave us one of the most refreshing and stimulating intellectual exhibits in the insurance investigation which the country has had in years. And he was a courageous and intelligent Governor. His years on the Supreme Court Bench seem to have taken him out of the world—and he has not yet found himself. Certainly, he has not as yet given any sign of understanding or sympathizing with the thing we call Progressivism. And as far as I can see, President Wilson is the only leader we have that does.

A Progressive of President Wilson's type is big enough to see that issue of 1916, because of the world-wide shake-up in the last three years must be different than those of 1912. There is something bigger to talk about today than the "referendum." New issues are bound to come to the front, perhaps with startling rapidity and frequency.

President Wilson can bring to these issues his tremendous experience. The evolution in thought and action of the last four years may be as nothing to that which is to take place in the next four. Does any American today see bigger, better, or more dispassionately or clearer than President Wilson? I believe that the Progressives will see this; if they don't, it is a reflection on their intelligence."

THOUGH NOT DEMOCRATS THEY WILL SUPPORT WILSON

Philadelphia Record Calls Attention to Prominent Progressives Who Prefer a Constructive Statesman to One Who is Evasive and Critical.

From the news of the day we call a few items of political information that may be of interest as showing the drift in the Presidential campaign, says the Philadelphia Record.

Among the vice-presidents of the Woodrow Wilson League of Massachusetts is Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College and son of James A. Garfield, once Republican President of the United States. Another vice-president is former President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard, perhaps the sanest thinker in America today, while the secretary of the league is Ellery Sedgwick, editor of the Atlantic Monthly.

Among the members is Charles Henry Davis, formerly of Philadelphia and financial backer of the Progressives of Massachusetts in some notable struggles. Matthew Hale, chairman of the Progressive State Committee, is another member, along with an imposing list of notable citizens.

John M. Parker, Progressive candidate for Vice-President, has announced that he will take the stump against Hughes in doubtful states.

David Lubin, founder of the International Institute of Agriculture and father of the rural credits movement in America will support Woodrow Wilson for re-election because he is "tireless, patient, farseeing. He has a historic sense of the past, a sympathetic sense of the present and a prophetically spiritual sense of the future."

He is fearless; in all my relations with him, direct and indirect, I fail to find anything or anybody he is afraid of."

The Ohio State Journal, of Columbus, the most influential Republican newspaper in the State outside of Cincinnati and Cleveland, has declared for Wilson, and says he will carry Ohio.

Thomas A. Edison and Henry Ford are only two of America's great captains of industry who have come out strongly for the President. The woods are full of them.

These are only straws, but they seem to indicate there are a good many clear-headed, straight-thinking and eminently successful voters who prefer Woodrow Wilson, a constructive statesman, to the evasive and critical Mr. Hughes.

The Lyres' Club, that renowned organization unique in local history, was called to assembly during the week. The exoteric features were musical numbers, expressive in rendition and exquisite in arrangement. Officer Charles E. Brinkerhoff, of the Pennsylvania State Health Department, is having greater trouble on his hands than when he first took his stand at the Mason and Dixon line, about one mile and a quarter from town. The number of autos passing each way is decidedly on the increase. This was especially observable on Sunday when the number of cars totaled 300. MR. VOTER

Bishop Gailor, of Tennessee, says:

"Many people thought State-wide prohibition to be the ideal remedy. Instead of calling to their aid some experts on the subject and having laws framed that could be enforced, they forced through the legislature a measure that has led to civic degeneracy.

"It is impracticable and its violation is productive of hidden and shameful evils. You cannot pass laws that way. The reformers should leave law-making to wise experts and be content with educating public sentiment."

"THE OTHER SIDE" OF LOCAL OPTION FOR FREDERICK COUNTY VOTERS TO THINK ABOUT.

My Frederick County Citizen and Voting Friend, I want to begin to get real close to you, in discussing this Local Option question, and I will in the next week or two, as sure as ice is cold. I am going to get so close to your headgear, that when you vote next November, you are going to stop and think, before your pencil finds the block for your crossmark. You are having a great deal of "dry" agitation and talk just now. The preachers are busy—the paid representatives of the Anti-Saloon League are busy in their efforts to change your community life into something it has never been before since you have been a County. Not satisfied with having you considered as one of the wealthiest and most prosperous Counties in the whole United States, these people who are doing the agitating and who, except a very few, DO NOT PAY ANY TAXES at your Court House, want you TO PAY MORE FOR LIVING. This carefully prepared scheme may work, but in the end, it is going to beautifully WORK you. Remember, in this practical day, there is many a fellow "wears the livery of Heaven to serve the devil in." And that devil they in reality serve, is their own pocket-book at the expense of your pocket-book. They do not care whether your purse is full or empty, but they do care about their own. My voting friend, have you heard that the Anti-Saloon League is endeavoring to raise $5,000 in Frederick County for the coming "dry" campaign? What do they want with so much money, I would like to know. This noble work of the Master certainly does come high, when they want to spend as much for a single County as either one of the political parties spend to elect a whole County ticket. I can not imagine why they want so much, unless it is because it takes a lot of cash to get people to make fools of themselves. And I say, you are downright foolish, if you attempt to exchange steeds in the mid stream of your present prosperity. Last week, we talked about the morals of the people of Frederick County, which our Anti-Saloon League friends say are in such serious jeopardy. For the first time in over a hundred years, you are told that your general makeup is eaten up with all kinds of sin disease. But who believes that of your people? No one, except those who would slander you. But this is not all the claim of damage made. They say—these would be custodians of our morals and health, that physically, the manhood of Frederick County is deteriorating and slowly but surely being weakened. And as a second reason why Local Option should be voted for in November, the men of your fair domain must be rescued from the awful clutch of the saloon. More dust thrown in the eyes of the unwary. There are nearly fifteen thousand men in Frederick County, and I dare say, take them as a whole, no finer, healthier or more robust set of men live anywhere. Of course there are some who often drink too much, just as there are a lot of people who eat too much. But really, how many of this kind are there among you? How many physical wrecks are there in Frederick City, made so by the saloon? You can count them on one hand. How many are there in Frederick County? You can count them on the other hand. But suppose you have Local Option after May 1, 1918, what do you think you will get in exchange? Listen while I tell you, based on experience of other Local Option localities. You will have the entire County, not Frederick City alone, run over by bootleggers. You will have the young men of the City and County approached and solicited to have a drink out of a flask. The criminals from without the County will flock here as a rich field to carry on their nefarious traffic, and not one lick will have been struck in the interest of true temperance, which is the goal of all of us. You will have more home-toppers and pantry booze frequenters in the first six months than you ever had in your whole history as a County. These poor fellows will be like the boy with the jam. Put it on the table every meal, and the boy rarely touches it. Hide it in a kitchen cabinet, and he will dig his way to the bottom of the jar. Not satisfied with one drink or two the man who has to go to so much trouble to obtain a drink, will treat his opportunity as a wholesale affair, and will capitalize his appetite to the drunkard's notch. Will this abnormal consumption of liquor by the restrained drinker, hard to secure and often craftily obtained affect the general health and morals of the men who want it and who are going to have it? WAIT AND SEE. WAIT AND SEE. If you vote for Local Option in November next for Frederick County, the physical results on the manhood and moral life of your County are going to be unfortunate and disastrous. We have said before, that you will be better off physically and morally as a County, if you vote Local Option down. We still say so. And all that has been written for this column both this week and last, has the endorsement of eight of the most eminent men in Maryland, whose names have heretofore appeared in this paper. If our say so is not enough that you should halt and think, theirs should be. Do not be deceived my dear voting friend. From the angles of morals and health, your only safe course is to vote Local Option down. Local Option is not only a long way, but in the wrong direction from True Temperance. I am one of your people—I am solicitous of your welfare—I rejoice with you over your present flattering community, good will and happiness—AND THEREFORE I DO NOT WANT TO SEE YOU MAKE A FEARFUL MISTAKE. I hope you will vote with emphasis on November 7, 1916, against Local Option—this issue is fostered by non-residents under the cloak of religion. Talk wet—vote wet; stay wet, and this County will never be worse off than it is now. And bad as you are, you are the envy of every County in the Union but two.

ONE INTERESTED IN FREDERICK.

FROM THE COUNTY.

Frederick. Traveling at about 25 miles an hour without warning a rear wheel of the car snapped off causing the car to lurch to the side of the road. It was brought to a stop only when the car had jammed into a stone fence. The occupants of the machine were bruised. Those in the machine were: Mrs. William Swearer, Mr. and Mrs. Conward Swearer and son, Miss Grace Swearer and Albert Smith, all of Baltimore.

United States Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, who was one of the prominent candidates last spring for the nomination for President, was a visitor in Frederick on Saturday. Senator Borah arrived in Frederick in the forenoon from Baltimore, where he made an address Friday night at the meeting at which Dr. Joseph I. France was notified of his nomination for the United States Senate.

Among the indictments returned by the grand jury, Frederick, is one indicting Mrs. Nettie Hickman for manslaughter, growing out of the shooting of her husband this past summer. The case has been set for trial on Thursday, September 28.

Frederick county may return to the days of the whipping post when violators of the law were given lashes in public if the recommendations of the Frederick County Grand Jury are followed out to the letter. "We recommend," said the grand jury in its report Friday afternoon to the Judges of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, "a whipping post for all petty cases. We firmly believe a great many worthless men violate the law for the sake of being in jail."

A very serious wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad was averted on Friday morning when a trackwalker discovered a cave-in on the section between Walkersville and Woodsboro, a few minutes after the morning train bound for Frederick had passed. It was found that about 16 feet of road-bed had sunk, carrying with its cross-ties and rails. Considerable delay was caused in train service between Frederick and southern points.

The infantile paralysis scare which at one time gripped Brunswick, is gradually disappearing, according to reports received from that town. Although it had been falsely reported that the Brunswick schools would not open large enrollments were reported Monday by the institutions. All children who have been visiting in infected zones were put through rigid examinations before being permitted to return to their desks in the various schools of Brunswick. Similar examinations are being required by the school officials throughout the county.

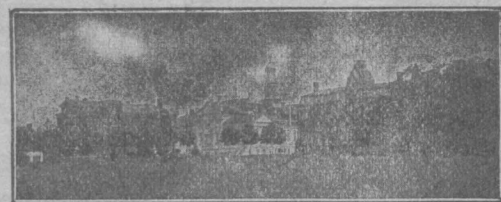

As the result of an overdose of alcohol administered by the mother in an effort to relieve the suffering of her child, the five-month-old child of Mrs. Nora Delauter died on Sunday at Montevue Hospital, Frederick. A corner's jury, Justice Henry Hanson Maulsby presiding, Monday morning, exonerated the mother from all blame in connection with the child. The institution was also exonerated from all blame by the jury.

The canning factories of Frederick have finished up the season's work. Several of the factories have stopped work for the year while others will keep running to put up pumpkins. The season has been a very good one in spite of the fact that the late crop was rather a short one.

Trapped between two cars, Bernard Reynolds, 25 years of age, of Sandy Hook, a Baltimore and Ohio Railroad freight conductor was crushed to death in the Brunswick yards Tuesday morning early. Trainmen removed Reynolds from between the two cars and rushed him to the Emergency Hospital. The man died on the way to the hospital. Conductor Reynolds was aiding in making up a train in the Brunswick yards and stepped between two cars to make a coupling. He was caught between the bumpers.

At the first meeting of the winter session of the Civic Club, held Monday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A., it was decided to invite the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs to hold their semi-annual meeting and luncheon in Frederick. This meeting occurs in the middle of November, either on the 15 or 16 the date not having been definitely set. This will be only the second time the semi-annual meeting has been held outside of Baltimore. The other being at Kensington, Md. No definite plans have been made for the entertainment of the delegates, who will be in Frederick for one day only. However, some excellent speakers will attend, with probably several hundred delegates, and the convention will be an event for the local women's clubs.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE--ACADEMY

Valley Echoes

The Misses Lillie and Lottie Hoke '10 both of whom enjoy considerable reputation as teachers spent a few hours with the seniors on Sunday.

Miss Henrietta King of St. Mary's County, Md., granddaughter of the late Mrs. Cecilia Plowden Forrest, an old St. Joseph's girl, is registered this year among the children of the Valley.

What has become of the Staff of '16 who pledged themselves to send reporters' notes to the Press Correspondent? Vacation is over now so we shall look for the aforesaid items.

Miss Margaret J. Rohrbach, A. B. of Frederick Md., left recently for an extended visit to her sisters, Mrs. Ellen Rohrbach Golibart and Mrs. Frances Rohrbach Golibart of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goesser, of Hazleton, Penna., the latter formerly Miss Ruby Strickland, of Shamokin, Pa., motored to St. Joseph's last Thursday en route to Baltimore.

To the interested readers of this section a suggestion is sufficient: Now is the time to renew your subscription to the CHRONICLE as "Valley Echoes" promises to become more and more delightful as the scholastic year advances.

Thursday last, Mr. Edward Mahoney, of Portsmouth, Va., paid a short visit to his daughters, both members of the senior class. Mr. Mahoney has placed his son Edward Jr. at Mt. St. Mary's College for the scholastic term.

Mrs. Dorothy Dow Parker and Miss Margaret Dow, of Detroit, Mich., paid a flying visit to St. Joseph's last week. Mrs. Parker has returned to her home while Miss Dow expects to visit friends nearby.

Mrs. Elizabeth McConomy Rathfon, of Lancaster, Pa., Treasurer of Saint Joseph's Alumnae Association, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Alice McConomy, spent Sunday and Monday of this week at her alma mater.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Molloyhan, of Washington, D. C., motored to St. Joseph's Sunday morning, remaining for a few hours to make arrangements for the entrance of their daughter, Ruth, into the preparatory department.

The academic classes are already distinguishing themselves in the athletic field. A spirited game of baseball between the upper classmen last Thursday did much to revive the ardor for outdoor sports. Tennis, rowing and roller skating are also favorite pastimes.

Miss Clare I. Cogan, A. M. of Brooklyn, N. Y. who has been spending some days at her alma mater returned to her home last week accompanied by Miss Margaret Bresnahan, A. B. who will be the guest of Miss Cogan until October first.

A delightful diversion afforded the higher collegiates last Saturday was a social gathering at which the Misses Catharine and Margaret Mahoney were hostesses. The guests recounted the important features of the summer vacation after which dainty refreshments were served.

Rev. James McNelis, C. M. of St. Vincent's Seminary, Germantown, Pa., who for many years was chaplain of St. Joseph's, celebrated Mass and conducted the closing exercises of the Forty Hours Devotions, Tuesday morning in the college chapel.

Mrs. Fannie Seay Castleman, of Greensboro, Ala., daughter of the late Mrs. Ellen Smaw Seay, an old graduate of the Valley, is spending a few weeks within the shadow of the Blue Ridge. Mrs. Castleman's daughter, Miss Evelyn, is a member of the sophomore class this year.

Miss Margaret M. Bresnahan, of Woonsocket, R. I. who was visiting her alma mater last week took advantage of the privilege to be present at Freshman Latin and Philosophy recitations in Room 16, Saturday morning. Miss Bresnahan evinced great pleasure in the earnest discussions and latinity and offered a ready word of encouragement to the young dialecticians and linguists.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Pattison, of New Orleans, La., who were recent visitors at Saint Joseph's have left for their home in the South. Mr. and Mrs. Pattison and family have been summering in Hempstead, Long Island. The Misses Pattison are pupils at Saint Joseph's, while Master Pandely Pattison is entered as a student at Mount Saint Mary's this session.

During the vacation a six weeks Summer School for the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul was conducted at St. Joseph's. The classes were attended by a hundred teachers including the faculty of St. Joseph's College and the teaching corps of the various parochial and high school directed by the community. Besides the regular parochial and high school work, eminent Professors lectured on Psychology, Ethics, Latin, Current Fiction and Magazines. Papers on the leading educational topics of the day which were read and discussed throughout the entire session are now being printed and the report will be distributed among the teachers of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

HUGHES ATTACKS THE ADAMSON LABOR BILL

Opening Speech of His Second Campaign.—Favors Increase in Rates When Roads Cannot Meet Expenses.—A One-Sided Measure.

Charles E. Hughes, addressing an audience in the arsenal at Springfield, Ill., Tuesday night, renewed his attack on the administration for the passage of the Adamson Law in the face of the threatened railroad strike. Mr. Hughes discussed and called "futile" reasons advocated for its passage, quoted from President Wilson's address to Congress on the subject, challenged the statement of Representative Adamson that it was passed to meet an emergency, and cited a declaration attributed to Grover Cleveland in support of the contention that the law was "a surrender to force."

Mr. Hughes after declaring that "the just interests of labor are the concern of all," and asserting that he desired to see safe and wholesome conditions of work, adequate opportunities for education and recreation, reasonable hours of labor and fair wages, said in part: "The Adamson bill is a force bill. It was legislation without inquiry, without knowledge. The demand by the administration for such legislation as the price of peace was a humiliating spectacle. It was not only a serious misuse of official power, but a deplorable abdication of moral authority."

"The excuses presented are futile. The Adamson bill is not a bill provided for an eight-hour work day. It does not fix hours at all. It regulates wages. Its provisions do not require any employer to employ any set of men for only eight hours a day. Eight-hour day laws are to avoid fatigue and overstrain by prohibiting employing in excess of the requirements. There is nothing of that sort in this bill."

DEFEND PRESIDENT WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY.

Herbert J. Brown and J. W. Slaughter Vigorously Back The President In Speeches Before City Club.

Vigorous indorsement of President Wilson's Mexican policy was given Wednesday evening by two speakers before a conference at the City Club, under the auspices of the Committee on Real Preparedness.

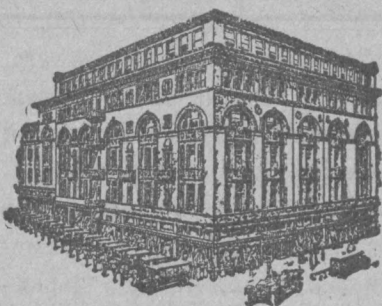

The two backers of the President were Herbert J. Browne, of Washington, magazine writer and political economist and Prof. J. W. Slaughter, of Philadelphia, lecturer, traveler and writer and at one time a member of the faculty of the University of London.

Mr. Browne was the first speaker of the evening. His topic was Non-intervention and Real Preparedness. He went on to say that the President, in allowing Carranza a free hand, had fostered the inauguration of a system of reforms that would be to the lasting benefit of Mexico. He added that Mexico was not, as commonly reported, in a chaotic condition, but was getting upon her feet and starting on the road to national prosperity.

Professor Slaughter launched his address by arraigning military preparedness advocates and declared that they were really seeking to foster militarism in America. He said:

"I'm not a politician and know nothing about the domestic political affairs of the United States. But I do know something about the foreign affairs, and before I conclude I want to say that Wilson's work in the Mexican situation has been wise and statesmanlike and he ought to receive the support most certainly of independents like myself."

MOUNT SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE

Terrace Talk

Very Rev. Doctor Dyer, rector of St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md., was a recent visitor at the college.

Mr. John F. Goodell, Jr., of Peabody, Mass., is teaching in the commercial department this year, succeeding Prof. M. S. Roche. Dr. C. P. Sousley, professor of mathematics at the Mountain last year is holding a similar position at William and Mary's college this year.

Nearly two hundred and seventy-five students had registered at the college prior to Wednesday. It is expected that the three hundred mark will be reached before the end of the week. This number is unusually large at such an early date.

On Sunday the first Solemn Mass of the present college year was celebrated. The celebrant of the mass was Rt. Rev. Mgr. John J. Tierney, D. D., who delivered a very impressive sermon to the student body.

A meeting of the athletic association was held on Sunday last. Speeches were made by President McGranaghan, and Treas. Mahoney of the association, Capt. Sheridan and Mgr. Quinn of the football team and Rev. James G. Burke and Coach Day. Mgr. Quinn announced the football schedule for the coming season which includes the following games:

- Oct. 7. John Hopkins at Baltimore.
- " 14. St. John's College at Emmitsburg.
- " 28. Gallaudet at Emmitsburg.
- Nov. 4. Western Maryland at Westminster.
- " 18. Washington College at Chestertown.
- " 25. Gettysburg College at Emmitsburg.
- " 30. Delaware College at Newark.

Thirty football aspirants have been reporting regularly on Echo field since Monday last. Captain Sheridan, Grimes, Mulhearn, and Mullaney are the only veterans from last year's team on hand. The squad this year does not possess the avoirdupois of former years and the Mountain team of 1917 will undoubtedly be one of the lightest that ever represented the college. The men who have reported daily are: Capt. Sheridan, Mulhearn, Grimes, Mullaney, J. Royer, W. Royer, Healey, Kasaczun, Henshaw, Dever, Poist, Rhoades, Miller, Daniels, Toole, Crilly, Drury, Cassidy, McDonald, Harkins, Lynch, Lenahan, Limonetti, O'Donoghue, Henderson, Carroll, Grady, Foley, Monahan and Burns.

FREDERICK COUNTY.

Frederick is next to the largest of the counties of Maryland. In population and wealth it ranks next to Baltimore county. In the fertility and productiveness of its lands it ranks among the first in the Union, and especially in the production of wheat. The area of this great county is 633 square miles. The great body of the people are of German, English and Scotch-Irish descent, the progeny mostly of the early settlers. The land is mostly of fine limestone quality, and the greater part of the county is a valley of rolling lands lying between the Lingoore Hills and the Catocline Mountain. This splendid valley is drained by the Monocacy river, and is one of the best farmed and most highly improved and productive areas of the Union. The great crops are wheat and corn.—Maryland Manual issued by Board of Public Works.

EMMITSBURG.

In all Western Maryland—the beauty spot and the garden spot of the State—there is no town more attractive than Emmitsburg.

No people are more wide-awake, more knowable, more courteous to strangers than Emmitsburgians.

The location of Emmitsburg is ideal; the surrounding scenery is unmatched; the climate is notably healthful; its water—pure mountain spring water—cannot be surpassed. It is within easy access of Baltimore, Hagerstown, Frederick; eight miles from the National Battlefield at Gettysburg, near to the Mountain Resorts, and is surrounded by fertile farms and productive orchards.

Mount Saint Mary's College and Ecclesiastical Seminary—with an enviable reputation extending over 108 years—is located here; St. Joseph's College and Academy for young ladies—equally as noted during its 107 years of splendid achievement—is also here.

There are excellent Schools—Public and Parochial—in Emmitsburg; two sound Banks, five Churches, a live Newspaper, modern Hotel accommodations, adequate Fire Department, progressive merchants, splendid physicians, good liverys, auto garages, many fraternal organizations, good railroad accommodations. There are four or five mails a day, telegraph, express and telephone service connecting all points; electric light and power, oiled streets.

There is business to be had in Emmitsburg; there are Factory Sites available. If you contemplate changing your place of residence—come to Emmitsburg, Frederick County, Md.

THE APPEAL TO SECTIONAL PASSION.

An evidence of the poverty of campaign material in the Republican party as well as a demonstration of the arts and methods that its managers will employ in the present crisis is supplied by the recent campaign in Maine. It is nothing less than a conscious attempt to resurrect and flourish the "bloody shirt," to revive and intensify the bitterness, hate and animosity engendered by the Civil War.

If party success alone were the goal, if all moral, national and patriotic considerations were taboo, it would not be objectionable to the Democratic party that such unworthy and denationalizing attempts should be continued, as they are bound to create an emphatic protest and a crushing reaction that will go hard with the shortsighted politicians who inaugurated such methods and in the sequel will serve to teach a much needed though oft repeated lesson of the unbreakable solidarity of our citizenry.

The chief spokesmen of this propaganda of hate and discord were Senator Lodge, whose speeches in the recent Maine campaign were honeycombed with sectional virus, and Congressman Fess, of Ohio, who is responsible for the following attack on the Southern States:

The irony of fate was never so apparent as in the workings of the Democratic party. Had anyone been found so bold as to have ventured a prophecy that the time would come when the Union soldier would see the entire Government which he saved under full control of the states which attempted to destroy it, he would have been regarded a candidate for the asylum. That time is now reached. The south rides at the head of the procession. The President and his family are Southern in birth and sympathies.

In other words the Northern veterans of the Civil War are besought to begin to hate the Southern veterans, and northern States to view with suspicion, to reject with patriotic alarm, southern ascendancy in the National Capitol—and this at a time when the best thought in our body politic is laboring to eliminate from our civilization certain un-American symptoms of disunion and separatism brought about by the great war in Europe.

As regards the Veterans we fancy that the martial nature is much the same the world over. When Pegoud, a distinguished French aviator, was shot from the clouds and fell to the earth, dead, the victor flew over the fatal spot and dropped a wreath containing the inscription: "To Pegoud, our enemy, who died fighting for his country."

The Veterans of either side had and have nothing but profound respect and admiration for the enemy who risked his life in discharge of his patriotic duty. The sectional hatred and rancor that scurvy politicians aroused and sought to perpetuate—and unfortunately they succeeded in some measure—was neither the inspiration nor gratification of the genuine soldier. We have clasped hands across the bloody chasm; the Veterans of Doubleday and those of Pickett two years ago stood in warm embrace above the stone-wall of Gettysburg's "Bloody Angle," and whosoever would attempt to undo the unifying work of half a century, to separate and divide into mutually hostile camps our united citizenship will meet with the general execration he deserves.

We do not look for a repetition of the Maine artifices elsewhere. The spontaneous and uniform condemnation already evoked will make their managers quickly disown such a policy. The episode, therefore, is only of importance as affording a deplorable sign of the times.

We shall not be surprised, however, if in the course of the present campaign the same agencies that appealed to the slumbering passion of sectional hatred and animosity will, in their embarrassment, resort to other un-American impulses and motives, such as racial or religious prejudices, in a vain effort to discredit the administration of President Wilson.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

To maintain the good health of a community intelligent individual and collective interest and assistance are necessary. Infectious diseases cannot be warded off by assuming that because one's particular locality has never been visited by an epidemic it never will be.

At present infantile paralysis is decimating the population of cities and towns. The medical profession is combating it as best it can, but up to the present time the cause of the disease is not known. Government, State and municipal authorities are doing all in their power to prevent its spread; yet even with this precaution, affected persons are escaping quarantine and slipping into places where the disease has not yet penetrated.

The caution advised by health boards everywhere is to this effect: Assume that any and every case of illness—especially in respect of children—may be infantile paralysis and call in your physician at once; keep your premises free from filth and rubbish and do not harbor cats and dogs. Keep all foodstuffs and prepared food free from the contact of flies and mosquitoes, and cleanse the hands as frequently as possible.

This caution is sensible and should be deemed necessary at all times, but especially so at present, while paralysis is prevalent.

It has not thus far reached this locality, but there is no knowing when it may. Extreme care, therefore, is of paramount importance—caution on the part of each and every person in the community.

THE NEW ORDINANCE.

There seems to be some misapprehension in regard to the new ordinance (ordinance 150, passed Sept. 14th) pertaining to paving. The impression with some is that this ordinance gives the Burgess and Commissioners the power to issue bonds to an unlimited amount. This is not so. Section 1 of Chapter 444 of the Acts of the General Assembly, passed 1908,—under which Ordinance 150 was passed—expressly limits the bond issue to $2,500.

The State Roads Commission has undertaken to build the new State Road (the old pike) into the Corporation and up to the fountain; but unfortunately the contract calls for a width of 14 feet only.

The Burgess and Commissioners, for the permanent improvement of Emmitsburg, desire to have this road (a street after it enters the town) made from curb to curb. For this purpose and this purpose only, a sum much greater than the town has on hand or can raise by ordinary taxation is needed; hence the issuance of bonds—a perfectly legitimate act and one provided for by law.

The bonds, paying not over 5 per cent. interest are to be sold. They, like all ordinary municipal bonds, should and no doubt would be eagerly bought. They offer an excellent investment and the holders of them should be gratified that they were instrumental in legitimately financing a plan to beautify and benefit their town by means of such a permanent, substantial and much needed improvement.

Beauty of Pennsylvania.

In one respect only Pennsylvania is unchanged and unchangeable. Men have dealt harshly and shamefully by her, but nature has crowned her with beauty. Her founder, knowing nothing of his broad tracts, save that they were forest lands, gave to the new province the pretty name of Sylvania, and Charles II., always a pastmaster of words, prefixed the Penn, for which pleasant conceit every son and daughter of the state owes him a grateful thought. Thus the word Pennsylvania perpetuates history, honors a noble name and symbolizes the loveliness of the land, a land of woods and waters, hills and valleys, fat farms and rocky solitudes. The shrieking engine that drags its trainload of passengers through the valley of the Juniata, across ridge after ridge of the Alleghenies, past the Tuscarora gap and the succession of narrows—Long Narrows, Jack's Narrows, Packsaddle Narrows—has traversed a country so widely and nobly beautiful that, in Europe, it would attract the tourists of the world.—Agnes Repplier in American Magazine.

Sitting on a Tack.

A thing is tragic or humorous according to the point of view. The man who sits on a tack does not share the onlookers' amusement. In fact, he is not only pained at his own misfortune, but he is pained because he occasioned some one else to find a degree of pleasure in his unseemly plight. Now, it is perfectly safe to make this positive statement in this connection—the person who witnessed the other's unfortunate encounter with the tack never deliberately sits on the same tack himself. Indeed, he is particularly cautious about sitting down anywhere soon thereafter without looking for a tack.

Nor is this an indictment of tacks. Tacks serve a very real and useful purpose in this world, but they have their place, which is not in localities where they may be sat upon.—William C. Lengel in Hoggson Magazine.

Caught Him Both Ways.

"I ask you to pay me this bill," said a tailor to a waggish debtor. "Do you owe anybody anything?" asked the wag. "No, sir," replied the tailor. "Then you can afford to wait." And off he walked. A day or two afterward the tailor called again. Our wag was not at his wits' end, so, turning to his creditor, he said: "Are you in debt to anybody?" "Yes, sir, I am sorry to say I am." "Well, why don't you pay?" "I haven't got the money," replied the tailor, with a woebegone countenance. "That's just my case, my dear sir. I am glad to perceive that you can appreciate my position. I always respected your judgment, sir. Give me your hand, sir."—London Mail.

Some Geographical Doubles.

Accidental doubles of geography are very curious. There are the two totally unconnected Galicia, the one in Austria-Hungary and the one in Spain. As to the Carpathians, the doubling occurs between the ancient and the modern atlases. On the map of the ancients we find a people named Carpi in the north of what is now Hungary and north of them the Carpathus mountains. But "Carpathian" in Vergil, Horace and Ovid means something quite different. The Carpathian sea was the sea between Rhodes and Crete, from the island of Carpathus, now Scarpanto, and the "Carpathian old man" was Proteus, who lived and no doubt practiced his quick change tricks there.—London Spectator.

Fooled His Subjects.

King Ericus of Sweden publicly confessed that he was a sorcerer and magician. He was the owner of an enchanted cap, which he pretended enabled him to control the spirits and change the direction of the winds at pleasure. So firmly did his subjects believe in the supernatural powers of their ruler that when a storm arose they would exclaim: "Ah, the king is again wearing the magic cap!"

Sarcastic.

"I can recommend this horse, sir," said a dealer, "as a strong, sound animal." "It must be," agreed the customer, "to have attained its present age!"—Exchange.

Safety First.

Knicker—Folks are queer. Bocker—Yes; the ones who stop, look and listen at a keyhole won't do it at a railroad crossing.—New York Sun.

Invasions of Russia.

The first great invasion of Russia was that of the Huns, a race of fierce and warlike Asiatics, who swept over eastern Europe in the fourth century. In the thirteenth century the golden horde of Tartars captured Russia, and from 1238 to 1462 the country was under the yoke of the Mongols. In 1395 Tamerlane invaded Russia, but retired. In 1462 the Slavs again gained the ascendancy, and Ivan III. (the Great) founded the present monarchy and introduced firearms and cannon into Russia.

In 1479 there was another great invasion of Tartars, but they were driven out. In 1613 the present royal family, the Romanoffs, gained the throne. In 1700 the Swedes invaded Russia, but after several victories they were routed.

The last great invasion of Russia was that of Napoleon. His disastrous retreat from Russia, in which most of his army was destroyed, marked the beginning of the end of his power.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

An Invisible Clock.

A public clock which can be heard, but not seen, is one of London's curious possessions. It is in the tower of St. Mary Abbot's church, Kensington, and is the only public clock in the immediate neighborhood. It chimes the quarters and the hours, but commits itself no further. It has no dial, no hands, no outward and visible sign of any kind to show that it is a clock. This eccentricity, it is explained, is the result of two causes—one aesthetic, the other financial. When the tower was built in 1879 a clock was suggested as an afterthought, but the architect protested that it would mean the addition of fifteen feet to the tower and the ruin of its cherished proportions. A second point was that the church, having but slender funds, could not afford a clock with a dial. A compromise was arrived at by installing the works of a chiming clock in the belfry without dial or hands.—Pearson's.

Profitable Pebbles.

The flint pebble industry gives occupation to many women and children along the French coast lying between Havre and Dieppe. The pebbles collected in and near Havre are selected for their spherical shape and are used exclusively for pulverizing in certain industries, particularly in the manufacture of cement and in copper mines, being employed in the interior of large cylinders. In the cement industry the slow turning of the pebbles produces a powder which becomes an ingredient of the cement, while in the copper industry the metal is freed of all impurities by the grinding operation. The same kind of pebbles is used for crushing purposes in the manufacture of paint. Another important use of flint pebbles is in the manufacture of porcelain, the pebbles for this purpose being found between Fecamp and Calais.—Philadelphia Press.

A "Friday" Ship.

A true story is told of a skeptical Massachusetts captain who way back in the early years of the republic determined to exhibit the fallacy of the Friday superstition. He contracted on a certain Friday for the building of a ship, and it was arranged that the keel of this vessel was laid on Friday, that she was launched on a Friday, named Friday, commenced loading on a Friday and hauled into the stream on the same day of the week. To add to the possibilities of disaster, a negro cook named Friday was engaged, and, thus fully freighted with the sinister name, the Friday sailed on a Friday, bound to a port in the West Indies. From that day to this no tidings of the ill fated craft have been received.

Salt in the Spectrum.

The extreme delicacy of the spectrum test is illustrated by the fact stated by Lommel that the three-millionth part of a milligram of a salt of sodium, an imperceptible particle of dust to the naked eye, is yet capable of coloring the flame of a candle yellow and of giving the yellow lines of sodium in the spectroscopic. Indeed, sodium in the form of a common salt (sodium chloride) is so universally present as an impalpable dust floating in the air that it is next to impossible to get a spectrum which does not show the sodium lines.

Knew the Brand.

"Is that a Landseer, Mr. Croesus?" asked the visitor, pausing before the painting. "No," replied the host; "reckon it is a Durham. See how broad it is between the horns, and see the color and curl on its forehead. That's a genuine Durham sure."—Exchange.

Balky Machine.

"Do you want me to watch your automobile?" asked the boy. "Yes," replied Mr. Chuggins. "And if it tries to start up and run away don't stop it. Holler for me, and I'll take a chance on overtaking it and getting the first ride I've had for three or four hours."—Washington Star.

Wisdom.

Wisdom may be compared to water. As water leaves the heights and gathers in the depths, so is wisdom received from on high and preserved by a lowly soul.—Talmud.

Kindness of Nature.

"Ain't nature wonderful?" "Why?" "She gives us all faces, but we can pick our own teeth."—Harvard Lampoon.

Stupidity has no friends and wants none.—Horace Greeley.

The World's Greatest Judge.

If greatness consists of great ability linked with great opportunity, then we must pass unchallenged the declaration that Marshall is the greatest judge in the language, states Hugh H. Brown in Case and Comment. No English judge ever had the opportunity of a new field except Hardwicke in equity, Mansfield in commercial law and possibly Stowell in admiralty. The world never had known a science of a written constitution of government until it came in Marshall's time.

Standing before his portrait in company with a distinguished foreigner, an American lawyer said, "We consider him the greatest judge of our country." A British justice replied, "You might well say the greatest judge of any country."

Another Englishman, James Bryce, said in substance that the higher qualities of Marshall's decisions never had been surpassed and but rarely equaled by the most famous jurists of modern Europe or of ancient Rome.

Perilous to Handle.

The production of chrysarobin, a medicinal principle much used in parasitic skin diseases, is attended with great peril. It forms about 50 per cent of goa powder, obtained from cavities in the Brazilian araroba tree (Andira anaroba), and in securing this powder the trees are felled, though eighty to one hundred feet high, and often three feet in diameter. The material is found as damp pulp or lumps in the center of the trunks, the yield sometimes reaching sixty or sixty-five pounds per tree, with none at all in some trees. The accompanying caustic liquid makes the substance difficult to handle and, despite gloves and masks, workers for any length of time invariably lose their hair, eyebrows and eyelashes and sometimes even become blind, while sores from the burns may cause long disability. A cat has been known to lose its fur from sleeping on a bag of the powder.

Strength of a Flower.

One of the most remarkable exhibitions of plant force I ever saw, says John Burroughs in "The Breath of Life," was in a western city, where I observed a wild sunflower forcing its way up through the asphalt pavement. The folded and compressed leaves of the plant, like a man's fist, had pushed against the hard but flexible concrete until it bulged up and split and let the irrepressible plant through. The force exerted must have been many pounds. I think it doubtful if the strongest man could have pushed his fist through such a resisting medium.

Life activities are a kind of explosion, and the slow continued explosions of this growing plant rent the pavement as surely as powder would have done. It is doubtful if any cultivated plant could have overcome such odds. It required the force of the untamed hairy plant of the plains to accomplish the feat.

The Longest Fast.

The record for fasting, so far as our best information goes, is held by Graine, a French murderer, who determined to starve himself to death and from day to day after his arrest refused to eat.

In spite of every effort on the part of his keepers, who first tried to tempt him to eat by placing the most dainty meals in his cell and when that failed attempted feeding him by force, he held out for sixty-three days, at the end of which period he died.

With the exception of Graine's case the longest well authenticated instance of fasting on record is that accomplished by Giovanni Succi, who lived at the Royal Aquarium, London, for forty-five days without food.

An Emperor's Compliment.

Napoleon III. had his full share of the Bonaparte wit, tinged with a kindness all his own. At a ball at the Tuilleries a middle aged officer and his fair partner came to grief. As the mortified veteran scrambled to his feet the emperor extended a hand to him and, turning to the lady, remarked: "Madame, this is the second time I have seen the colonel fall. The first time was on the battlefield of Magenta."

Mark Twain's Definition.

It is told of Mark Twain that during a conversation with a young lady of his acquaintance he had occasion to mention the word drydock.

"What is a drydock, Mr. Clemens?" she asked. "A thirsty physician," replied the humorist.

Scorch Marks.

Sometimes scorch marks may be removed by merely laying the dry garment in the sunshine until the rays fade it white again. If the stain remains it may be dipped in soapsuds of some strength and placed in the sun again until the spot is gone.

Its Class.

Never at a Loss.

"This is the flat." "The rooms are rather dark." "Great for photography," enthused the agent.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

For Safety.

PROCLAMATION

PUBLICATION OF CHAPTER 30, ACTS OF 1916.

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of Maryland, at its January Session, 1916, passed an Act, known as Chapter 30 of the Acts of Maryland of said Session and being in the words and figures following:

"CHAPTER 30.

AN ACT to enable the registered and qualified voters of the City of Baltimore, Baltimore County, the First and Third Precincts of the Fifth District of Anne Arundel County, Annapolis City, Allegany County, Washington County, Frederick County, Prince George's County, Ellicott City and intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes shall be forever prohibited in the said political units above designated, respectively, from and after May first, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen; providing for the submission of such question to the voters of each of the political units herein designated and declaring the effect of such election.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the question whether or not the sale, manufacture for sale and transportation for sale of alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, malt and intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes shall be forever prohibited in the City of Baltimore, Baltimore County, the 1st and 3rd precincts of the Fifth District of Anne Arundel County, Annapolis
City, Allegany County, Washington
County, Frederick County, Prince
George's County, Ellicott City and Havre de Grace, respectively, from and after May first, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, shall be submitted to the registered and qualified voters of said political units herein designated, at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and sixteen; and Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City and the Supervisors of Elections of or exercising jurisdiction over each of the political units herein designated shall have printed upon the ballots to be used at the general election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, in a separate column to follow immediately after the names of candidates the following proposition, in clear, plain, bold Roman capitals, twelve-point type: "Shall the sale, manufacture for sale and transportation for sale of alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, malt and intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes in the ..... (county, city, town or village, as the case may be) be prohibited from and after May first, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen"; after which shall be printed on separate lines with a square or box to the right and opposite the words "for prohibition" and a corresponding square or box to the right and opposite the words "against prohibition," on the ballots printed in each of said political units, the blank above indicated shall be filled in with the name of the respective political unit so voting, as aforesaid.

The Governor of this State shall give notice by publication in two newspapers published in each of the political units herein designated, or if only one newspaper is published in any such unit, then such notice shall be published in one newspaper, or if no newspaper is published in any of such units, then in a newspaper published in the county of which such unit is a part, and three newspapers published in Baltimore City, one of which shall be printed in the German language, giving at least three months' notice that such question shall be submitted to the voters of each of the political units herein designated for their adoption or rejection; and the Secretary of State shall, not less than thirty days before the date of said election, certify the same to the Board of Supervisors of Elections of or exercising jurisdiction over each of the political units herein designated and to the Board of Supervisors of Elections of the City of Baltimore, whose duty it shall be to forthwith give notice by advertisement and otherwise of the submission of such question; provided, however, that if for any reason said notice shall not be given or not given in the manner prescribed by law, such failure of publication of said notice shall not affect the validity of this Act nor operate to prevent its taking effect.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the proposition above mentioned shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) in a square opposite the words "for prohibition" and in a square opposite the words "against prohibition" his answer to such question; that one challenger and one watcher may be designated for each precinct of each of the political units herein designated by the chairman of the committee managing in each of such political units the interest of those conducting the campaign favoring and those opposing said proposition, the said challengers and watchers to have the same powers and duties which are conferred upon challengers and watchers at general elections held in this State by Section 64 of Article 33 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, and a certificate signed by the aforesaid chairman shall be sufficient authority for such challenger and watcher to perform their duties. The name of each chairman shall be filed with the Board of Supervisors of Elections at least thirty days before said election.

The laws now in force for the conduct of general elections in each of the political units herein designated and the provisions and requirements of the Corrupt Practices Act shall apply in all particulars to the elections provided for by this Act.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the Supervisors of Elections of each of the political units herein designated and of Baltimore City shall canvass these returns in like manner as other election returns, and they shall certify the number of votes cast "for prohibition" and "against prohibition" respectively, and the said Board of Election Supervisors shall file their certificates with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the several political units herein designated or having jurisdiction over the same and with the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be, and shall forward at once by registered mail to the Secretary of State a duplicate copy of said certificates, and the Secretary of State shall within thirty days from the date of said election, provide no contest has been filed, make a certificate to the Governor showing the total number of votes cast "for prohibition" and the total number of votes cast "against prohibition" in each of the political units herein designated, and upon receipt of this statement the Governor shall forthwith issue a proclamation declaring the result of the election in each of the political units herein designated and calling attention to its effects under this Act, and said proclamation shall be recorded in a well-bound book in the offices of the Clerks of the Circuit Court for the several counties or having jurisdiction over said political units herein designated and in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City and in the office of the Secretary of State, and the vote upon said proposition and such result may be proved in all courts and in all proceedings by such record or by a certified copy of the proclamation under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if upon receipt by the Governor of a certificate from the Secretary of State showing the result of such election in each of the political units herein designated it shall appear that a majority of the voters in any such political unit qualified under the laws of the State to participate in such election voting on this question in such election, have voted "against prohibition," then the laws relating to the sale, manufacture for sale, the transportation for sale of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes in such political units so voting against prohibition in effect at the date of this election shall continue in force and effect unless or until otherwise changed by the General Assembly of Maryland or by a majority vote of the qualified electors of this State.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if
upon receipt by the Governor of a certificate from the Secretary of State showing the result of such elections in each of the political units herein designated it shall appear that a majority of
the voters in any such political unit qualified under the laws of this State to participate in such election voting on
this question in such election, have voted "for prohibition," then he shall forthwith issue his proclamation to this effect, and on and after the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, it shall be unlawful for any person, persons, social club, firm or corporation to manufacture for sale, sell or purchase for sale, transport for sale, dispose or otherwise dispose of any alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters or liquid mixtures, or preparations, whether patented or not, which will produce intoxication in such political unit or units so voting for probihibition, except for medicinal, pharmaceutical, scientific, sacramental or mechanical purposes, as may be allowed under the provisions of such acts as the General Assembly of Maryland shall pass at its regular session held next after the date of such election or any subsequent session allowing such sale for such purposes only. And any person, persons, social club, firm or corporation manufacturing, selling, transporting, dispensing or disposing of any alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled or malt liquors within such political unit or units so voting for probihibition shall be liable for all the penalties now or hereafter prescribed for manufacturing, selling, dispensing or disposing of alcoholic, spirituous, vinous, fermented, distilled, malt and intoxicating liquors without a license; and any place used for purposes in violation of this section, such use is hereby declared a nuisance and shall be abated as such.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That any qualified voter of any political unit herein designated may contest the election on this question hereby submitted to the voters of such political unit or demand a recount of the ballots cast on such questions in any election precinct or district of any such political unit, by filing a petition setting forth the grounds of such contest or recount, verified by affidavit with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the county or the Clerk of the Superior Court for Baltimore City, as the case may be, within not more than five days from the date of the canvass of the returns by the Election Supervisors, and upon the filing of bond for the costs in the penalty to be fixed by the residing Judge or the Judge at that time presiding over the Court in which the contest is instituted, with surety or surties to be approved by him, a summons shall forthwith issue from such court addressed to the Supervisors of Election for or having jurisdiction over such political unit or for the City of Baltimore in which such contest is instituted, notifying them of the filing of such petition and directing them to appear in such court with the ballots and ballot boxes of the precinct or precincts in which irregularities are charged, at the time named in such summons, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days from the filing of such petition. The procedure in such cases shall be the same as that provided by law for contesting any election for public office so far as the same is applicable.

In case of a contest of election in any precinct of any political unit herein designated or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, the Board of Supervisors of Elections shall withhold the certificate of such election returns for such political unit or the City of Baltimore in which such precinct is located until the court decides such contest.
Immediately following such decision of the court the Board of Supervisors of Elections shall make the returns as herein provided; such decision shall be made by the court not later than six months from the date of election.

The said court shall have final jurisdiction to hear and determine the merits of such cases, and if the said court shall discover that fraud has been committed in any precinct and the legal votes cannot be separated from the illegal votes or ballots so that the correct result can be ascertained, then the whole number of ballots cast in such precinct on such question so submitted to the voters of the political units herein designated shall be rejected by the said court and not counted and the Supervisors of Elections shall not make any returns of the votes cast in such precinct, and the rejection of such ballots shall in no wise render invalid the result of such election.

Sec. 6A. This Act shall not apply to nor prohibit the manufacture for sale of alcoholic, spirituous and vinous, malt and intoxicating liquors by persons and corporations now engaged in the manufacture thereof or the transportation thereof by said persons and corporations where such liquors are manufactured for sale and sold only for delivery for shipment to places beyond the State or to places within the State where such sale is not now or hereafter prohibited by law.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 17, 1916.

AND WHEREAS, Section 1 of the above recited Act requires that the Governor of the State shall give notice by publication in two newspapers published in each of the political units designated in said Act, and if only one newspaper be published in such political unit then in that newspaper, and if no newspaper be published in any such political unit then in a newspaper published in the county in which such political unit is located; and in three newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, one of which shall be printed in the German language.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EMERSON C. HARRINGTON, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, in compliance with the authority and direction contained in said Section 1 of said Chapter 30 of the Acts of Maryland of 1916, do hereby order and direct that a copy of this proclamation, which sets forth the complete and correct text of said Act, be so published as directed in said Section 1 of said Act, once a week for three months next preceding the day of the election at which the said Act is to be submitted to the registered voters of said political units, for their adoption or rejection.

CONSTITUTION OF MARYLAND
CREATING A BUDGET SYSTEM.

WHEREAS, at the January Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, sed, to-wit: Chapter 159 of said Acts, being an Act to propose an amendment to Section 52 of Article III, title, "Legislative Department," of the Constitution of this State; and which said Act is in words and figures following:

"CHAPTER 159.

lative Department, of the Constitution of this State, regulating the making of appropriations by the General Assembly of Maryland in regular tion or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two houses concurring), That the following be and the same is hereby proposed as an title Legislative Department, of the Constitution of this State, the same, if of the State, as herein provided, to be-

Sec. 52. The General Assembly shall not appropriate any money out of the Treasury except in accordance with the following provisions:

Sub-Section A:

Every appropriation bill shall be either a Budget Bill, or a Supplementary Appropriation Bill, as hereinafter mentioned.

Sub-Section B:

First. Within twenty days after the convening of the General Assembly (except in the case of a newly elected Governor, and then within thirty days after his inauguration), unless such time shall be extended by the General Assembly for the session at which the Budget is to be submitted, the Governor shall submit to the General Assembly two budgets, one for each of the ensuing fiscal years. Each budget shall contain a complete plan of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for the particular fiscal year to which it relates; and shall show the estimated surplus or deficit of revenues at the end of such year. Accompanying each budget shall be a statement showing: (1) the revenues and expenditures for each of the two fiscal years next preceding; (2) the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the State; (3) the debts and funds of the State; (4) an estimate of the State's financial condition as of the beginning and end of each of the fiscal years covered by the two budgets above provided; (5) any explanation the Governor may desire to make as to the important features of any budget and any suggestion as to methods for the reduction or increase of the State's revenue.

Second. Each budget shall be divided into two parts, and the first part shall be designated "Governmental Appropriations" and shall embrace an itemized estimate of the appropriations: (1) for the General Assembly as certified to the Governor in the manner hereinafter provided; (2) for the Executive Department; (3) for the Judiciary Department, as provided by law, certified to the Governor by the Comptroller; (4) to pay and discharge the principal and interest of the debt of the State of Maryland in conformity with Section 34 of Article III of the Constitution, and all laws enacted in pursuance thereof; (5) for the salaries payable by the State under the Constitution and laws of the State; (6) for the establishment and maintenance throughout the State of a thorough and efficient system of public schools in conformity with Article VIII of the Constitution and with the laws of the State; (7) for such other purposes as are set forth in the Constitution of the State.

Third. The second part shall be designated "General Appropriations," and shall include all other estimates of appropriations.

The Governor shall deliver to the presiding officer of each house the budgets and a bill for all the proposed appropriations of the budgets clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each house shall promptly cause said bill to be introduced therein, and such bill shall be known as the "Budget Bill." The Governor may, before final action thereon by the General Assembly, amend or supplement either of said budgets to correct an oversight or in case of an emergency, with the consent of the General Assembly by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officers of both houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said budget bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as a modification of or a substitute for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

The General Assembly shall not amend the budget bill so as to affect either the obligations of the State under Section 34 of Article III of the Constitution, or the provisions made by the laws of the State for the establishment and maintenance of a system of public schools, or the payment of any salaries required to be paid by the State of Maryland by the Constitution thereof; and the General Assembly may amend the bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the General Assembly, and by increasing the items therein relating to the judiciary, but except as hereinbefore specified, may not alter the said bill except to strike out or reduce items therein, provided, however, that the salary or compensation of any public officer shall not be decreased during his term of office; and such bill when and as passed by both houses shall be a law immediately without further action by the Governor.

Fourth. The Governor and such representatives of the executive departments, boards, offices and commissions of the State expending or supplying for State's money, as have been designated by the Governor for this purpose, shall have the right, and when requested by either house of the Legislature, it shall be their duty to appear and be heard with respect to any budget bill during the consideration thereof, and to answer inquiries relative thereto.

Sub-Section C: Supplementary Appropriation Bills: Neither house shall consider other appropriations until the Budget Bill has been finally acted upon by both houses, and no such other appropriation shall be valid except in accordance with the provisions following: (1) Every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill limited to some single work, object or purpose therein stated and called herein a Supplementary Appropriation Bill; (a) Each Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall provide the revenue necessary to pay the appropriation thereby made by a tax, direct or indirect, to be laid and collected as shall be directed in said Bill; (3) No Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall become a law unless it be passed in each house by a vote of a majority of the whole number of the members elected; and the yeas and nays recorded on its final passage; (4) Each Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall be presented to the Governor of the State as provided in Section 17 of Article II of the Constitution and thereafter all the provisions of said Section shall apply.

Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as preventing the Legislature from passing at any time in accordance with the provisions of Section 28 of Article III of the Constitution and subject to the Governor's power of approval as provided in Section 17 of Article II of the Constitution an appropriation bill to provide for the payment of any obligation of the State of Maryland within the protection of Section 10 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States.

Sub-Section D: General Provisions:

First. If the Budget Bill shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature three days before the expiration of its regular session, the Governor may, and it shall be his duty to issue a proclamation extending the session for such further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such Bill; but no other matter than such Bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

Second. The Governor for the purpose of making up his budgets shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to require from the proper State Officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative offices, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for State monies and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as he shall direct. The estimates for the Legislative Department, certified by the presiding officer of each house, of the Judiciary, as provided by law, certified by the Comptroller, and for the public schools, as provided by law, shall be transmitted to the Governor, in such form and at such times as he shall direct, and shall be included in the budget without revision.

The Governor may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of representatives of all agencies and of all institutions applying for State monies. After such public hearings he may, in his discretion, revise all estimates except those for the legislative and judiciary departments, and for the public schools as provided by law.

Third. The Legislature may, from time to time, enact such laws, not inconsistent with this Section, as may be necessary and proper to carry out its provisions.

Fourth. In the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this Section and any of the other provisions of the Constitution, the provisions of this Section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall in any matter affect the provisions of Section 34 of Article III of the Constitution or of any laws heretofore or hereafter passed in pursuance thereof, or be construed as preventing the Governor from calling extraordinary sessions of the Legislature, as provided by Section 16 of Article II, or as preventing the Legislature at such extraordinary sessions from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations.

If any item of any appropriation bill passed under the provisions of this Section shall be held invalid upon any ground, such invalidity shall not affect the legality of the Bill or of any other item of such Bill or Bills.

Section 2. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing Section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution shall at the next ensuing general election, being the Presidential and Congressional election, to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, nineteen hundred and sixteen, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of the State for their adoption or rejection in conformity with the directions contained in Article XIV of the Constitution of this State, and at said election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be placed the following synopsis of said amendment under the caption of

'CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT PROVIDING FOR A BUDGET.'

'This amendment provides that the Governor shall present to the Legislature soon after it is convened a Budget giving a complete plan of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for the two succeeding fiscal years showing clearly any surplus or deficit in State funds. In these estimates he shall make provision for the interest and sinking funds of all State debts, for all salaries as fixed by law, and for the public schools as fixed by law. With regard to most other matters he may revise the estimates presented to him either by State Officers or State-aided institutions. The Legislature may not increase the estimates presented by the Governor or pass any additional appropriation act except by a majority vote and must make provision by tax for such increase or additional appropriation. The Legislature may not alter in an appropriation act the provision made by law for the State debt, or for the judiciary, but may reduce all other items in the Governor's estimates; and the words 'for the Constitutional Amendment' as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against the proposed amendment, and further proceedings had in accordance with Article XIV of the Constitution.'

Approved March 28, 1916.

rington, Governor of the State of Maryland, in pursuance of the direction contained in section 1 of Article 14 of the Constitution of Maryland, do hereby order and direct a copy of this Proclamation, containing a full, true and correct copy of the text of said Chapter 159 of the Acts of Maryland of 1916, be the General Election to be held in this State on November 7th, 1916, and at which election the said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted, in form and manner prescribed by the General Assembly, to the legal and qualified voters of the State for their adoption or rejection.

Four Pet Dogs Poisoned.

Several days ago "Sen," a pointer dog belonging to J. Henry Stokes died very suddenly, under suspicious circumstances, and yesterday the pet rat terrier owned by Miss Loretta Gillelan, and a fine collie, the property of Patterson Bros., died just as suddenly and within a few moments of each other.

The owners of these dogs attribute their loss to poison administered by some unknown person. Rewards have been offered in the hope that those responsible for the deplorable deed may be apprehended.

This morning a dog belonging to Irvin Miller was found dead in town.

It is thought that chicken thieves who have been making inroads on the poultry pens in Emmitsburg have been distributing poison in the hope that in the absence of dogs they would have a better chance to bag more chickens.

Mortality Rate is Lowest in 1915.

On 13.5 persons out of every 1,000 in the United States died during 1915, according to figures by the Census Bureau. This constitutes the lowest mortality rate ever recorded in this country.

"The widespread awakening of the people throughout the United States," said the Bureau, "together with the great progress in medicine and sanitation has resulted in the saving of 170,000 lives during the year, over 1905—a decade ago."

The death rate per 1,000 by states included in the registration in 1915, was: California, 13.7; Colorado, 11.3; Connecticut, 14.9; Indiana, 12.7; Kansas, 10.1; Kentucky, 12.3; Maine, 15.6; Maryland, 15.8; Massachusetts, 14.5; Michigan, 13.4; Minnesota, 10.1; Missouri, 12; Montana, 11.4; New Hampshire, 16.1; New Jersey, 13.8; New York, 14.6; Ohio, 13; Pennsylvania, 13.9; Utah, 9.9; Virginia, 14.2; Washington, 8.1; Wisconsin, 10.8.

THE CHORAL SOCIETY BEGINS ITS SECOND YEAR

Membership Shows Interest in Coming Concerts.—Excellent Programme Arranged.—Cordial Invitation Extended to All.

Monday Evening the Choral Society held its first meeting of the season in the High School auditorium. There was an excellent representation and much earnestness concerning the plans for the season was evident.

Nearly the entire governing body was re-elected, the only change being in the executive committee, Miss Estelle Codori taking the place on that board of Mr. Thomas Lansinger. The officers of the club are: President, the Rev. E. Lewis Higbee; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. A. A. Horner; executive committee Miss Elizabeth Horner, Mrs. D. E. Stone, Miss Helen K. Hoke, Miss Estelle Codori and the President, Secretary-Treasurer and the conductor, ex-officio. Miss Estelle Codori was unanimously chosen as accompanist and Mr. Galt was re-elected conductor.

A programme was chosen for the coming season. It includes two concerts, one during the holidays and one at the beginning of Spring. Regular rehearsals will be held weekly on Tuesday nights at 7.45.

A Cordial Invitation.

As it is the aim of the society to have at least forty active, singing members, a very cordial invitation is extended to all persons in Emmitsburg who are musically inclined. There is no test required, and as the meetings are so informal and have proved to be a source of pleasure to all who have attended, it is confidently hoped that at the next meeting a large number who have not already identified themselves with the choral society will become members.

The next meeting and rehearsal will be held in the High School Auditorium on Tuesday, the 26th at 7.45 P. M.

COST OF THOUGHTLESSNESS.

It is mere thoughtlessness on your part, of course, that you do not renew your subscription to THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE without being reminded to do so by a bill or letter from this office.

But that mere thoughtlessness means a very considerable expense to THE CHRONICLE. The postage on bills and return envelopes—sometimes it requires several reminders to one person—and on receipts, amounts to a not inconsiderable sum.

It is easy to see, if THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE could eliminate that big expense, it would never be necessary to increase the cost of the paper to the subscribers, even though the unheard-of high prices, and the unsettled situation as to the future of white paper is causing newspaper men everywhere to order big decreases in operating expenses, and big increases in the subscription price of their papers.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE cannot eliminate this cost without your co-operation, because it is your cost. It would be wholly unnecessary to spend one cent for reminding you to renew your paper if you would send in your renewal before the date of the expiration of your paper.

Will you not try to co-operate with us in keeping down the subscription price for everybody, by sending in your personal renewal now, regardless of when your time expires, so that THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE may know how many of its readers are willing to help in this movement. Many of them already have renewed, for which response to its suggestion for co-operation, THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE feels deeply gratified. ks.

BRANCH OF U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE OPENED IN BALTIMORE

Purpose of Which is to Supply Employment to the Women and Girls of the State.—Headquarters Lombard and Gay Streets.

A Maryland branch of the Federal end of the "Woman movement"—known as the Women and Girls Division of the United States Employment Service has been opened in Baltimore, with headquarters in the Stewart Building, corner of Lombard and Gay Streets, in Charge of Mrs. Grace Porter Hopkins, and Miss Nannie Irvine, Assistant.

The purpose of this new branch of Governmental service is to supply employment to the women and girls of the State. If no position of the kind desired is available in Maryland, an effort will be made to secure one through an interchange and interstate system between zones and offices of the United States Employment Service, co-operating with other States and municipal employment offices; also with co-operating employment committees in Churches and women's federations.

Special attention will be given to requests of women wage earners for work and every effort will be made to meet the demand for female help in farming and rural communities as well as in the cities. Girls and young women will also be helped to select suitable vocations and directed to elementary and vocational training with a view to developing more efficient wage earners, the avoidance of occupations and places where evil conditions exist, as well as protection from exploitation and misdirection will be no small part of this branch of the work.

Applicants will be classified as to age so that only those over the age of 16 years shall be considered for or directed to employment; all those approaching as well as those above the latter age, will be given the information on hand in aid of vocational selection and training. Opportunities will be classified in accordance with the practice followed in public employment offices in the vicinity if any exist; if not, then according to the trades and vocations there established, and divided in three classes as follows: temporary, seasonal and permanent.

Applicants will be furnished information about opportunities listed and advised for placement according to their abilities and training with a view to their advancement to better opportunities and their progress in efficiency as wage earners.

COMPULSORY SCHOOL LAW NOW IN FORCE

Provisions of This Law Affect Children Between Seven and Sixteen Years.—Attendance Officer Will Enforce Provisions.

The following are the main sections of the Compulsory School Attendance law now in force in this state.

"Every child residing in any county of the State being seven (7) years of age and under thirteen (13) years of age, shall attend some public school during the entire period of each year that the public schools of the county are in session; unless it can be shown to the county superintendent of schools that such a child is elsewhere receiving regular and thorough instruction during such period in the studies usually taught in the public schools of the county to children of the same age; provided, that the superintendent or principal of any school, or persons duly authorized by such superintendent, may excuse cases of necessary and legal absence among such enrolled pupils, and provided further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to children whose mental or physical condition is such as to render the instruction above described inexpedient or impracticable. Every person having under his control a child seven years of age and under thirteen years of age, shall cause such child to attend school or receive instruction as required by this section.

In respect to children being thirteen (13) fourteen (14) and fifteen (15) years, of age the law is the same as the above, with the exception that they are required to attend some public school, not less than one-hundred (100) days, as nearly consecutive as possible, beginning not later than November first.

Any person who has a child under his control and who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not exceeding five dollars (5) for each offense.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Emmitsburg women know how the aches and pains that often come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, are frequent indications of weak kidneys and should be checked in time. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. They attack kidney diseases by striking at the cause.

Can Emmitsburg sufferers desire stronger proof than this Hagerstown woman's word?

Mrs. Raymond Kline, 322 N. Locust St., Hagerstown, Md., says: "My back began to ache and that was the first I knew that my kidneys were disordered. The kidney secretions became unnatural and mornings I felt all tired out. Doan's Kidney Pills made me feel like a different woman."

Price 50c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kline had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

One in Fifty-Four Owns Car.

One Marylander in fifty-four owns an automobile. This estimate, based on reliable figures applies only to pleasure cars. In the computation all registered trucks, and motorcycles are excluded. Maryland has 25,000-odd pleasure cars as compared with more than 3,000,000 gasoline-propelled machines in the entire United States. The population of the State is estimated for 1916 at 1,400,000 and the number of pleasure-car licenses issued since January 1, 1916 by the Automobile Commissioner is 25,723.

FREDERICK'S GREAT FAIR

Many Improvements Made For The Comfort of Those Who Shall Attend.

The progressive management of the Great Frederick Fair, which will be held October 17, 18, 19 and 20 next, has this year constructed a subway under the race track the better to enable them to properly care for pedestrians and automobilists. Additional land has also been enclosed, new cattle stalls and sheep pens have been constructed; the race track has been elevated more than three feet on the western turn; a new wire fence now encloses the track, together with other improvements.

Besides the permanent improvements a most attractive program of free vaudeville acts, balloon ascensions and parachute drops, harness and running races, has been arranged. The poultry show, stock exhibits, and displays in the household and horticulture departments, promise to be better than ever, if early entries mean anything, while the midway will have on it much that will interest and amuse.

All railroads entering Frederick will sell excursion tickets at reduced rates, and special trains will be run during the week of the Frederick Fair.

APPLE GROWERS GIVEN PROTECTION

Increased Acreage and Production Demand More Attention on the Part of Orchardists

Grading and Packing Law Recently Enacted

Uniform Grading and Packing Essential To Securing Top Prices—Cooperation in Enforcement Of Law Urged.

College Park, Sept. 7.—Fruit growers are having brought to their attention the fact that the apple production in Maryland has increased rapidly during recent years. On account of the adaptability of our soil and climate to the growing of apples and our nearness to markets, many large orchards have been planted in all parts of the State. When all of these orchards have come into bearing, our production in this section will be doubled. As a result of increased production, the quality of fruit has improved, since orchardists are giving more careful attention to the culture, fertilization and spraying of their trees.

One of the most important points in handling the apple crop is to properly grade and pack the fruit for market. In this connection, a bulletin has just been issued on apple grading and packing by the Maryland Agricultural Extension Service, in which the new apple packing grading law is explained.

In this bulletin, the following statement is made by Director T. B. Symons, of the Extension Service: "Those growers in the East who have attained success are those who have established reputation for their grades and pack. Owing to our nearness to markets, our growers have not been compelled to organize interlocking organizations to establish standard grades and packs for any particular section. As a result, each grower has sold his fruit in a 'hit and miss' fashion, regardless of the packages of the other growers in his neighborhood. We have provided no uniform standard for packing fruit. In fact, little attention has been paid to his end of the business. With increased production and the keen competition which will result, it is now necessary that our growers pack uniformly. By this means, Maryland apples will be standardized upon the market, with the result that, buyers, dealers and consumers will learn to place an especial value upon our fruit."

Attention is further called in this bulletin to the practical working of the apple grading and packing law passed by the last Legislature. The aim of this law is to help apple growers who desire to grade their fruit and thus compete more effectively with growers in States having similar laws. The law, as enacted, applies to all apples sold in closed packages.

If the grower does not desire to grade fruit in accordance with the three standard grades, the law provides that such fruit can be sold if marked "orchard run." In all cases, the minimum size and class of fruit in the package must be branded upon the package as explained in the regulations.

The enforcement of law is vested in the State Board of Agriculture, whose officers or agents are given authority to enter upon the land and premises of any person within the State for the purpose of inspecting packages of apples and securing evidence of violation of this Act. The law provides a maximum penalty of $50 for the first offence and a maximum penalty of $100 for subsequent violations of any of the provisions.

By securing the hearty co-operation of growers, dealers and other interested parties in the enforcement of this law, it is hoped that Maryland packed apples will become more thoroughly recognized on the markets and that there will be an increased demand for Maryland grown fruit.

Urges Comfortable Surrounding

College Park, Md., Sept. 7.—Comfortable shelter and surroundings for the dairy cow during the winter months are urged by G. E. Wolcott, in the Correspondence Course in Dairy Farming, issued by the Maryland Agricultural Extension Service. He says, in part, "Nature teaches that the largest and most profitable production occurs at that time of the year when the surroundings are comfortable and the temperature mild, or during the early summer months. During cold weather, these conditions are found in a warm, well-ventilated, well-lighted stable, with as much freedom as is possible, and plenty of bedding. Undoubtedly, the cow would be most comfortable in a box stall, but this is too expensive in that it requires more room and more bedding than the single stall and tie. Swinging stanchions allow more freedom than the rigid type of a few years ago. The stalls should be wide enough and long enough for the cow to lie down in comfort, and should be separated by partitions to prevent the cow in the next stall from stepping on her neighbor's udder or teats. The high producing cows have large udders and are consequently more exposed to accident."
