Governor Acts On By - Pass

Most Anything At A Glance

BY ABIGAIL

It was rather amusing watching the "window dressing" the State Riads Commission was giving the Rt. 15 by-pass last Friday preparatory to the Governor's arrival. Several trucks and working crews appeared in the area and the workers were really scurrying around in an effort to get the place cleaned up. Cinders were swept off the highway, trash collected, signs straightened and additional ones installed. Yes, there was plenty of action Friday but I wonder how long it will be before it gets another face-lifting? Probably not until the Governor visits here again in the next few years.

It is apparent that Governor Tawes meant real business when he ordered the State Roads Commission to take remedial safety measures on the new by-pass. Immediately following the Chief Executive's visit here Saturday, work crews were busy all week making some of the minor changes that were ordered. Installed already are additional signs and reflector lights to the pull-offs. Elsewhere in this paper is a replica of the letter the Governor sent the Commission ordering it to give the Emmitsburg project top priority. Naturally it will take some time before all the changes can be made effective but the Governor has convinced me of his sincerity and I believe that within the next few weeks or months all the work will have been completed, as promised.

Plaudits go to Pat McGucken whose petition was instrumental in making the Governor listen with an attentive ear. It is highly probable that if the petition hadn't been obtained and presented to the Chief Exec there might not have been an inspection and it could have been a longer and harder battle. Emmitsburgians are also appreciative of the efforts of Attorney Edwin F. Nikirk, Frederick, who set the stage for the Governor's appearance here. Ed, who has many friends here and a fondness for Emmitsburg, offered to guide the petition through the courts, if necessary, free of charge. After some deliberation though, it was decided that perhaps the inspection and personal visit and consultation with the Governor with local individuals would be the best procedure. I feel that this action was well founded and accomplished the desired results. No one wants to go to court with all the resultant unpleasantness unless absolutely necessary. We accomplished our goal without this type of action, thanks to all concerned. I feel certain that the planned safety measures will bear fruit and reduce the number of accidents and fatalities on the by-pass. There is no fool-proof method or system and we are using the tools at hand but somehow I feel that a lot of people, total strangers, who will be spared injury and possible death, will be appreciative of our efforts.

THEODORE W. WOLFE

Theodore W. Wolfe, Sr., formerly of Frederick, died Monday afternoon at the Frederick County Home where he had resided for the past several years.

He was born October 14, 1881, in Frederick County, a son of the late Henry W. and Sarah Elizabeth Wolfe, and was the last of his immediate family.

Mr. Wolfe was a member of the United Church of Christ.

Funeral services were held yesterday (Thursday) from the Etchison Funeral Home, Frederick at 10 a.m., with the Rev. Martin A. Case, pastor of Tom's Creek Church, officiating. Interment was in the Keysville Union Cemetery.

Public School PTA Announces Gifts For School's Use

The regular monthly meeting of the Emmitsburg Public School PTA was held Monday evening in the school auditorium, Mrs. William Carr, president, presiding.

A black and white, 23-inch television, a public address system and $200 for the school library were announced as gifts to the school as a result of the successful Country Fair project held earlier this year.

Mrs. Nancy Gillespie gave a report on the fair and was recognized by the association for her outstanding accomplishments as chairman of the fair.

Six representatives of the local PTA attended the Founders Day dinner at the Calvary Methodist Church in Frederick on Feb. 17.

A nominating committee was appointed as follows: Robert Holmes, chairman; Mrs. Anna Burrier, Mrs. Anna M. Martin and David Glass. They will report at the March meeting.

The attendance banner was won by Grade 8, Mrs. A. Deatherage's homeroom.

Dr. John L. Carnochan, superintendent of Frederick County schools, was introduced, and along with Mr. Lowell Nelson, architect, explained the curriculum and the building plans for the new Catoclin High School. Slides were then shown of the various areas. An interesting question and answer period followed.

Officials Agree To 9-Point Safety Program For Road

A nine-point safety program for the Emmitsburg by-pass was approved by Governor J. Millard Tawes, State Roads Commission Chairman John B. Funk, Carey Jarman, superintendent of State Police and other top state officials at an on-the-scene inspection of the by-pass held here last Saturday.

The Governor, in an unprecedented inspection of this type, spent three hours here conferring with representatives of the community and his official staff. Following inspection of the by-pass, the Governor and his official party, and local spokesmen, retired to Mt. St. Mary's College where they were the guests of the president of the college, Msgr. Robert R. Kline, at a luncheon. Prior to the luncheon the group discussed the existing problems of the new by-pass for two hours.

Spokesmen for the community were Mrs. Jane Bollinger, vice chairman of the Emmitsburg Democratic Central Committee, Rev. Robert S. Grace, dean of men at Mt. St. Mary's, Rev. W. Ronald Fearer, pastor, Elias Lutheran Church, and C. Arthur Elder, editor of the Emmitsburg Chronicle. An estimated 100 persons attended the on-the-scene inspection of the by-pass. Governor Tawes, when he was apprised of the total fatalities listed at 20, since the by-pass was opened 14 months ago, said he was appalled and after hearing the different safety proposals offered by the local representatives, ordered the State Roads Commission to proceed immediately with the work.

The Governor lost no time after his decision to act and on Monday a letter was dispatched to the Roads Commission giving the Emmitsburg project "top priority". Almost immediately Roads Commission men began work on the four intersections of the two-mile by-pass. Other work ordered may take several more weeks.

The Governor's inspection was prompted by the action of a local citizen, Patrick McGucken, who circulated a petition to close the stretch of road and obtained 700 signatures. The petition was turned over to Frederick attorney Edwin F. Nikirk who set up the meeting with the Governor.

The civic delegation was led by C. Arthur Elder, who subsequently outlined the plan adopted by the officials.

He told Gov. Tawes that in the two-mile length of U. S. 15 at the Emmitsburg By-pass containing four intersections, auto accidents have taken 21 lives in the 14 months since the span was opened.

With Tawes were Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan, John B. Funk, roads board chairman, and Col. Carey Jarman, head of the Maryland State Police.

They were met at the scene by a local delegation.

Stating that the state would act immediately to carry out all of the recommendations, Tawes said: "I am very much in favor of this and am in complete accord with carrying the recommendations out immediately. Let's do it without delay!"

Funk suggested giving major consideration to making U. S. 15 a limited access highway at the Emmitsburg by-pass. He said the fact that U. S. 15 is a limited access highway in adjoining Pennsylvania may cause the high speed accidents on the Emmitsburg by-pass since it "leads motorists into a trap."

But Tawes emphasized that this step is in the making in the state's six-year roads program and added that it was too expensive to undertake now as it would provide no immediate solution.

Finan was most interested in the "lack of illumination at the intersections" and said perhaps blinker lights and better street lighting would help. State Police said a third of the fatal accidents occurred at night.

Captain W. E. O'Hara, Western Maryland area commander of the State Police pointed out that four of the fatalities were in the southbound lane and that they are continuing despite the fact that 26 per cent of State Police in complement area are now assigned to U. S. 15.

When Mrs. Bollinger asked that something be done now without too much expenditure and favored better illumination of the intersections, State Roads officials said that the lighting could be installed quickly.

The highway rumble effect in the pavement installed to slow traffic at the main intersection has worked well elsewhere but the State Roads officials said motorists are driving around it, the Rev. Mr. Fearer said in suggesting caution lights.

Col. Jarman said that the State Police will do all they can to correct the situation and added that he was "very much impressed" with the Emmitsburg recommendations.

Thomas Mohler, district engineer of the State Roads Commission in Frederick, felt that signs might help.

Father Grace said that Mount Saint Mary's alumni from all over the nation with sons attending the Catholic college have been writing the college about the dangerous road conditions.

In concluding the conference, Tawes said, "This is our duty and our responsibility. I feel confident that you will get results. This problem needs a solution immediately."

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND 21404

21 February 1966

Dear John:

I was very pleased with the results of our meeting last Saturday morning with Mr. Elder and the representative group from the Emmitsburg area in regard to the traffic situation on the Route 15 by-pass of the town of Emmitsburg.

The recommendations made by the committee, plus those suggested by the State Roads Commission representatives will, in my opinion, do much to solve this traffic problem which is of great concern to all of us. It is appalling to realize that twenty-one fatalities have occurred on a two and one-half mile stretch of highway within a period of fourteen months, and every effort must be exerted to make additions and modifications to the highway in an all-out effort to correct the situation.

It is my request that this project be given top priority and that the work be completed at the earliest possible date.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Governor

Mr. John B. Funk, Chairman-Director

YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX

The Emmitsburg Chronicle, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, Baltimore District, will publish each week in this column, tax information that will enable taxpayers to become more familiar with the Federal income tax laws. Clip and save for future reference.

Questions And Answers

Q. A fellow at the office said his refund was held up because he forgot to sign his return. Do you really do this?

A. Yes, a tax return is a legal document and has to be signed by the taxpayer. On joint returns both husband and wife must sign.

If a signature is missing on a return it has to be obtained before processing can proceed. Naturally this will delay any refund that might be due.

Q. How much can I deduct for cigarette tax?

A. Cigarette taxes are not deductible as taxes on individual income tax returns.

Q. I didn't cash my last December paycheck until after the first of the year. Does this mean I can include it with my 1966 income?

A. No. This paycheck is 1965 income and has been included on your W-2. The general rule for checks is that they are taxable in the year received regardless of when they are cashed or deposited.

Q. Do you have to list income and expenses down to the last penny on a tax return?

A. You may round off your figures to the nearest dollar. However, this does not mean that estimates are acceptable. Items listed on a return must be properly substantiated.

Q. What about funeral expenses? Are any of them deductible?

A. Funeral and burial expenses are not deductible medical expenses.

Q. We gave a lot of furniture away when we moved from a house into an apartment. Can we take any deduction on this?

A. If you gave the furniture to a qualified religious, charitable etc. organization, you may deduct the fair market value, provided, of course, that you itemize your deductions. Check pages 8 and 9 of the 1040 instructions for details.

Q. I got an interest report on Form 1099 from my savings bank. Does this have to be filed with my 1040 like a W-2?

A. No, the report was for your information to show you the amount of interest earned for the year. This and other interest and dividend income must be shown on your 1040. A duplicate copy of this interest report is sent to IRS by the bank. You should retain your copies with your tax records.

Q. I'm a student. Do I have to add in my scholarship when I figure my total income?

A. Generally, amounts received as scholarships may be excluded from income subject to certain limitations. Check with your local Internal Revenue office if you have any question about whether your scholarship is tax exempt.

Q. I still haven't got a W-2 from my former employer. What should I do?

A. Contact him and ask for your W-2. If you have moved since you last worked for him the W-2 might have gone to your old address. In any event, don't let April 15 pass by without filing your return, even though you don't have your W-2. If you can't get it, use estimated figures if necessary and include a statement with your return explaining why the W-2 is not attached.

Q. I am entitled to claim my father as a dependent. Since he just turned 65 can we claim an additional exemption for him?

A. No. There is just one $600 exemption for a dependent regardless of age.

For further information contact your local Internal Revenue Service office.

DON'T FORGET—If you are due a refund, mail your return directly to Internal Revenue Service, Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

OUR LIBRARY

What could be more appropriate reading than Edwin Way Teale's latest book called "Wandering through Winter." This book is an adventurous 20,000 mile journey through the north American Winter. Illustrated with 49 photographs taken by the author, this imaginative undertaking is something no other naturalist has ever attempted. A four-volume, continent-wide survey of the American seasons. You may share in this outstanding nature adventure of our time.

"The Strode Venturer," by Hammond Innes, is largely set in the Maldives, those little-known coral atolls that stretch south from Ceylon five hundred miles into the Indian Ocean. Here on the Equator a seafaring people, desperate for independence and ready to make the great leap into the twentieth century, prepare for an exodus to a new island which has spread out of the sea and is rich in mineral deposits.

"The Complete book of small antiques collecting," by Katherine Morrison McClinton. From advertising fans to watch papers, from pudding molds to rose bowls, here is the up-to-date guide or how to identify, purchase and build a collection of small antiques.

"The Deadly Silence," by Rene Buse. From the current files of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics a dramatic case history of the undercover work that put the narcotics traffickers of the U. S. and Canada behind bars.

"The Mandelbaum Gate," by Muriel Spark. When a young English woman, a half Jewish Catholic convert, insists upon crossing over from Israel into Jordan, she sets off a series of bizarre situations. A British foreign service officer, stepping quite out of character, becomes so concerned for her safety amid the Arabs that he rescues her from a nunnery in the middle of the night and a variety of characters are brought into surprising play: among them a blue eyed Arab girl, her father an old-world patriarch, and an English spinster headmistress.

Wheat Program Announced

Price support loans based on $1.25 per bushel national average are available for farmers who sign up and participate in the 1966 Voluntary Wheat Program, announces Harold M. Free, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. The sign-up period extends from January 31 to April 1. During this period the county office will be open Saturdays from 8:00 a. m. to 12 noon.

Mr. Free said the program makes the loans available for all wheat produced on participating farms except excess wheat produced on a farm on which the overplanting provision is used. The loans have the effect of stabilizing the market and assuring farm income.

Details of the 1966 wheat program are available from the ASCS County Office and farmers should investigate the possibilities before the end of the sign-up period, Chairman Free said.

Culhane Scholarship Awarded Senior

Daniel R. Mannion, senior mathematics major at Mount St. Mary's College, has been awarded the annual Msgr. William F. Culhane Memorial Scholarship which is presented by the Connecticut Chapter of the college's National Alumni Association.

This, the fifth award, is valued at $250 and makes a total of $900 which has been awarded to deserving students. The award is based on the financial need of the student, his academic achievement, extracurricular activities, and his resourcefulness in seeking to defray his college expenses. Heretofore restricted to senior students from Connecticut, the award next year will be open to any Connecticut student attending the college, according to the chairman of the scholarship committee, Professor Bernard S. Kaliss.

Who Wants Inflation?

Certain pertinent reflections are now possible upon the December "rub" between the White House and the Federal Reserve Board, when the Board took action in raising interest rates it asks of banks. Despite the dim view Mr. Johnson took of this anti-inflation move by the Reserve Board, it begins to appear that the President actually may have been ready to accept such a hard, but useful, discipline as long as he himself did not have to initiate it.

The obvious slap at federal spending for the Great Society, the shock of enforcing public attention upon inflation's dangers, the prospect of reducing the federal government's share of boom taxes—all these obviously annoyed the President. Moreover, since the federal treasury is perhaps the nation's biggest borrower, higher interest rates cause the treasury's debt service to zoom. Further, if war needs are to escalate shortly, new debt will surely have to be arranged in 1966, perhaps even $10 billion of it. The government itself was taking its own bitter pill.

Action Was Needed

Eventually, Mr. Johnson will be making a replacement appointment to the Federal Reserve Board. Considering that U. S. presidents are accustomed to placing in major positions men who see things their way, observers are expecting Mr. Johnson to put in an "easy money" man who would tip the vote his way. Yet, in view of the F.R.B.'s somewhat political-insulated position as the "independent" body that Congress established, the President may have some motivation for appointing a more conservative banker, who will do what needs doing.

Comment from financial circles around the country and in world capitals seems clearly to applaud the Federal Reserve Board's action. Many economists see the move not as endangering the nation's prosperity but as balancing the boom so as to keep more steady the economic growth of the coming year. If the Administration has to avoid taking politically risky measures to halt inflationary trends, it is well that the Board can make these adjustments.

Not Hero Always

However, while the F.R.B. may have taken the role of hero this time, it has for many years allowed itself to be co-villain in the continual overexpansion of our money supply. It is this process that sets the whole stage for creeping, if not galloping, inflation. The Board actually will doubtless continue to provide lavish amounts of new dollars for the pumping up of the money supply, as long as neither the Congress nor the President will make any serious effort to balance the budget. Various segments of the economy may well bask in the hot-house of a swelling currency, but it is dangerous to invite an explosion.

Distress and calamity are surely reserved for any nation that disdains caution and pursues the course of inflation. The Board undoubtedly has been right in its majority interpretation of the dangers the nation currently endures. The time to act against inflation, as Chairman Martin noted, is before it is too late. "The effective time to act against inflationary pressures is when they are in the development state—before they have become full-blown and the damage has been done," he said. These are words that make sense.

The Real Requirement

Is the recent action enough? No one yet knows how much control over the economy government bodies may exercise without courting disaster. The free market has shown remarkable strength under duress, but neither it nor the fiscal system that supports it can indefinitely withstand assaults that keep economic laws from functioning. Confidence in market relationships and integrity in fiscal matters will be had, or else the lack of these requirements will bring the chaos which is itself the adjustment.

It will be foolish to suppose that a single governmental decision of one agency can stop inflation. Higher interest rates cannot get at the causes of inflation, for trouble may show up elsewhere before ink on the edict is dry. The export of our inflation to Europe and Asia apparently cannot be continued, for soon they will have more dollars and gold than we. The push of wages and prices at home will be fierce. Nevertheless, the most required action is not yet in sight; a federal policy that allows the government to spend no more than it takes in and avoids monetizing the federal debt.

OUTDOOR SPORTING TIPS

Dry Boots

Know the quickest way to dry out a pair of waterlogged boots? Get your wife's hair dryer, stick it down the boot and let her blow! Half hour and even the soggiest pair are wearable again.

Waxed Match

Before you head for the bush, let the wax from a regular table candle drip on the stem of paper matches. You'll find it helps water-proof the matches and they will burn longer and with hotter flame. Don't drip on the heads of safety matches or the wax will clog the striker.

No Spill

If you've got to carry a bucket of water a long way, float a fair size piece of wood on the surface. It will reduce surface surge which is what spills water out.

No Slip

Aluminum boats last longer and offer secure footing if coated with regular automobile undercoating. Adds about 10 pounds of weight, though.

Rough Road

If heading for bad roads take along a few spare pieces of roofing shingle. Tucked under the rear wheels they can provide surface and friction enough to pull you out of a rut.

Duck Rules

Know the three rules of duck shooting? Lead them. Lead them still farther. Lead 'em farther still. Another such rule goes: Make decoy lines big. Make them even bigger. Third. Double last size. (Big lines don't tangle and are easy to handle when frozen.)

Wader Longevity

If you use your waders where the going gets rough, in snags, briar or around rough wood, try this tip. Wear an old pair of pants over the waders. Pants get wet but take the tears and save the waders.

The Commission is emphasizing the need for prompt and accurate information to Senior Citizens. Anyone seeking information concerning the Aging may call 663-6748 or visit the office in Winchester Hall.

Col. Ready stated, "The generous cooperation and interest of the Board of County Commissioners in meeting the needs of our senior citizens is indeed helpful. The County Commissioners are supplying the office space and telephone facilities for the Center which is a great aid to the Commission on Aging in carrying out its mission."

The Frederick County Commission on Aging was created by the Board of County Commissioners December 20, 1965, and serves as a coordinating group between the County Commissioners and the State Commission on Aging. ## Upright Americans Should Carry from anthropologist Dr. Margaret Mead and carried walking sticks.

Dr. Mead says they prevent falling and improve posture. She comments, "I would like to see Americans with weak ankles and weak knees use a stick. It is constructive, protective and anything but decrepit, but Americans are shy of carrying canes because American canes are so short. They turn you into an old, tottering, bent-back crone." She uses a stick four feet long. Man is making life easier for insect pests by routinely using "broad-spectrum" pesticides like DDT, says Dr. LaMont C. Cole, a Cornell University biologist. These pesticides kill many species of insects and may even threaten animals or man. Use of them can kill not only a pest but other forms of life that help control pests naturally.

Dental clinics are getting an assist with their space problems, thanks to a wall-mounted anesthesia machine available from National Cylinder Gas, Chicago. The unit, with a double swivel wall mount, is easily accessible and eliminates bulky apparatus that previously occupied valuable floor space. The machine can also be mounted on a stand and moved from room to room.

A water-born pest that creates havoc along the nation's coasts may be a useful source of food. Dr. Stuart Patton, a dairy scientist at the Pennsylvania State University, wants to convert red tide, a floating mass of tiny, one-celled organisms, into a palatable product for cows. Since beef and dairy products make up a large percentage of food in the Western world, he says that new feed sources for cattle are important.

Physicians should choose their stethoscopes with all the care a "hi-fi" enthusiast chooses his equipment. Investigators at the University of Michigan found that no two of 17 different stethoscopes performed alike. They note that the performance of an instrument becomes critical when sounds of a patient's heart and lungs are close to the threshold of hearing. At this point differences in stethoscope acoustics become significant.

The Hagfish can literally tie itself in knots. Flexibility of the 10-to-16-inch fish is a result of its vertebrate "backbone" being formed entirely of cartilage. The "hag" is a curiosity of the deep. It has four hearts, only one nostril, no jaws or stomach, and its teeth are located on its tongue. It can live for months without feeding.

Your Personal Health

It Leaves You Breathless

Most people who suffer from this ailment have been heavy smokers for years. Yet many heavy smokers—the majority in fact—don't suffer from it at all.

It's a pretty puzzle, and a lot of high level medical and health specialists got together to talk about it and problems related to it. The event, organized by the National Tuberculosis Association, was called a Seminar on Emphysema—the latter word signifying the serious lung disease that provides the puzzle.

Emphysema is a sneaky disorder. It comes on gradually, attacks and breaks down the numerous little air sacs and tiny blood vessels of the lungs. Eventually the lungs lose their elasticity, and the victim has trouble moving air in and out. In advanced cases, breathing can become a constant laborious effort.

There are lots of mysteries about emphysema. Why does it attack many times more men than women? Why does it rank second among diseases for which total disability benefits are granted under Social Security? And another mystery: emphysema is known to be "associated" with cigarette smoking and aggravated by air pollution, but so far it hasn't been shown that either factor is an actual cause of the disease.

However, a good deal about the disease is already known. There are helpful drugs, reliable tests, exercises and mechanical aids through which many victims acquire new techniques of breathing even though handicapped by damaged lungs.

Emphysema is one of the many serious forms of Respiratory Disease (RD) that can "take your breath away." Common symptoms of RD are chronic cough and shortness of breath; if you have either of these symptoms you should see a physician without delay. An informative leaflet on this subject, called, "Is This Your Problem?" is available free from the local Christmas Seal association.

Committee For Aging Active Mrs. Arthur Throne, Chairman of the Frederick County Commission on Aging met with the Emmitsburg Committee on Tuesday evening, Feb. 22.

Mrs. Andrew Eyster, Chairman, Mrs. Virginia Sanders, Mrs. Frances Keller and Sister Madeleine attended this planning session held in the home economics building at Saint Joseph College.

Last November a group of interested town leaders distributed a questionnaire to as many Senior Citizens as they could contact. As a result of this cooperative effort here, and in other areas of Frederick County, a definite need was proven to exist.

On December 8, 1965, the Citizens Committee presented a formal request to Mr. A. Irvin Renn and his fellow Frederick County Commissioners, at a meeting in the county Court House. Mrs. Eyster and Sister Madeleine represented the Emmitsburg people at that time. The Commissioners granted the Citizens Committee's request on December 20, 1965 by the establishment of the Frederick County Commission on the Aging.

A steering committee of ten will meet on March 3, 1966 at 7:30 p.m. in the home economics department of Saint Joseph College. This will include many of the leaders in the survey effort and some who responded to it. Tentative plans for program development will be discussed at this time, which should grow in the directions most suited to the wishes of the Emmitsburg Senior Citizens.

One point of urgent concern to the commission members is the March 31, 1966 deadline for the registration for Medicare. Each individual citizen can be a good friendly neighbor right now. Ask yourself 'do I know any Senior Citizen above 65 years of age who might not have heard about this deadline?'

Your part would be as simple as helping to procure the necessary forms for this friend. Mrs. Virginia Sanders will have some of these after Friday. She has offered to give assistance to those who would like some guidance in making out the forms. The failure to file by the deadline, March 31 means that no assistance can be procured until the last quarter of 1967. This 18 month's interval is a long time for a sick neighbor to wait. Be a friend, look around to help another. Emmitsburgers were the most responsive group in the survey, let's keep up the high rate of cooperation with each other.

K of C Committees Report Activities

A communication from the Sacred Heart Program was received and a donation approved for the County Heart Assn.

Carl A. Topper reported on the recent oyster feast declaring it both a financial and social success; Paul A. Keepers explained the "CC" license plate program and asked that applications be mailed to him immediately; George L. Danner gave a progress report on the coming invitational high school basketball tournament and said that the affair would start on March 4 at Mt. St. Mary's College and continuing through Sunday. Eight teams have been entered.

The bazaar will be held at the school on Saturday, Feb. 26, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of new books and supplies. The winners of the bazaar were as follows: Dorothy Jo Ann Eyster, electrical appliances, $50; Julie Eckenrode, Mrs. E. Podgers, G. M. Parks, $50; H. S. Sick; $50; J. J. Sp... camera, Harry Black; electric carving knife, John Varn.

The various committees and their helpers thank all for their aid and support. The chairman, Carrol Frock, Jr., thanks everyone for supporting the bazaar. Special thanks goes to each of the various Pastors for their generous support and encouragement for this affair. The proceeds of the bazaar will be used to improve and enlarge the educational qualities of the school.

Chronicle Will Publish Local

Baby Pictures Free

Monday, Feb. 28, is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters!

The Emmitsburg Chronicle is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian, to the VFW Annex between 2:30 p. m. and 7 p. m., absolutely free of charge!

The Chronicle wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. Children who have been photographed for this feature in previous years are especially invited to return, so that we may see how they have changed. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of the mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years, and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your home town newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up. There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Chronicle, nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures even, though you may obtain additional prints by arranging direct with the studio representative, if you want them. This is entirely up to you! No appointment is necessary and there is no age limit. Parents may come at any time during studio hours. All children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Photography will be handled by the Dansville, New York Office of Watz Studios of Des Moines.

Herbert Opera To Be Presented

Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta" will be presented by the National Opera Company at Saint Joseph College on Monday, Feb. 28, at 7:45 p.m. in DePaul Auditorium. This delightful two-act operetta is set in New Orleans in the mid-eighteenth century, and some of Victor Herbert's most charming and witty songs underscore a plot filled with romance, disguise, and piracy.

The National Opera Company was formed over fifteen years ago as the "Grass Roots" Opera Company. The troupe, which began by bringing opera in English to the rural and metropolitan areas of North Carolina, now tours nationally. They are dedicated to performing in the language of the audience in the belief that in this way opera will achieve its rightful popularity in American culture.

Sponsored by Saint Joseph's and Mount Saint Mary's College, the performance is the 10th event on the college's Cultural Arts program. The date of the performance was originally listed in the Cultural Arts brochure as March 28. Advance reservations may be made through the office of the Dean of Students. Tickets are Throwing back trout big as your arm and catching them big as your leg may sound like the proverbial fish yarn, but comes now to town a man with pictorial proof.

Sports Film To Be Shown At Gettysburg

The latest Wally Taber Safari Show is slated for the Gettysburg Junior High School Auditorium, Wednesday, March 2, at 8 p.m., under auspices of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club. Appearing in person to narrate the program as well as lend credence to the big-fish stories will be Cecil Rhode, veteran Alaskan homesteader, guide and renowned wild-life photographer.

"If any doubting-Thomases remain after seeing the program," Frank Noble, program chairman for the sponsoring club said, "it will be only because they need glasses and hearing aids. Rhode shows trout that scarcely fit into the boats."

In addition to unbelievable fishing, the new Wally Taber Safari Show turns the spotlight on Alaskan hunting as well as Alaskan-style family camp - outs where trapping crabs, digging clams, netting whimples and skin diving for gold is all the vogue. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Dillon Honored By Alumni Group

Dr. John J. Dillon Jr., professor of English and athletic director at Mt. St. Mary's College, was the guest of honor at a dinner-dance Saturday evening at the Colonial Country Club in Linglestown, Pa. The Harrisburg chapter of the Alumni Association of Mt. St. Mary's College sponsored the affair.

Dr. Dillon was extolled for his 25 years of service to the college in academic and extracurricular activities. He was presented with a gift and a plaque inscribed to commemorate the occasion.

Replying to the remarks of the various speakers, Dr. Dillon reminisced about his experiences during the last 25 years on the faculty of the college, and mentioned changes he has seen in the physical plant of the school. "They were 25 years I would not exchange for anything," he commented.

Lenten Services Announced

The Protestant Churches of Emmitsburg are cooperating again this year in scheduling a series of special mid-week Services at 7:30 p.m. on the Wednesday evenings of Lent. The first of this series will be on March 2 at Incarnation United Church of Christ in the form of a Union Communion Service. This service will demonstrate our unity in Christ as we gather together around Our Lord's Table. It is the first venture of such a cooperative endeavor in our community. The host pastor, Rev. John C. Chatlos, will preside at the service, but each of the three pastors will participate in conducting the Communion Service.

The second mid-week Service will be at the United Presbyterian Church on March 9 with Past-Chatlos of Incarnation Church preaching the sermon. The Rev. W. Ronald Fearer, Pastor of Elias Lutheran Church, will preach the sermon on March 16 at Trinity Methodist Church.

The fourth service is scheduled for Tom's Creek Methodist Church on March 23 with the Rev. Martin A. Case delivering the Lenten Sermon.

On March 30 the service will be at Elias Lutheran Church when a first-rate sound motion film entitled "The Day of Triumph," will be shown. This film in full color depicts the Passion and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Since it is a full-length film, this service will begin at 7 o'clock.

The Community Good Friday Service on April 8 will be from 1 to 3 p.m. at Trinity Methodist Church with "The Seven Words of Christ from the Cross" as its theme.

The general theme of all these Community Lenten Services will be "Crucified and Crucify." All five Protestant Churches of Emmitsburg are cooperating in the services: Elias Lutheran Church, Incarnation United Church of Christ, Trinity and Tom's Creek Methodist Churches, and the United Presbyterian Church. The members of each of these churches are cordially invited and urged to attend every service that is scheduled.
