Just a few words about our big parade last week. Emmitsburg once again proved it has the knowledge and know-how to promote such affairs and one wonders why such an event has been missing from the local scene so long. We are fully cognizant of the amount of details and work involved but the final reward is an inside feeling as you watch the units strutting down the street, that we have neighboring friends who have come to assist us and participate in our affairs, some coming fairly long distances while others just a stone's throw from our town limits. Perhaps the individuals behind the scenes should receive a full share of the credit. These are the men and women who belong to local civic and fraternal organizations who raised the prize money. Without their assistance there would have been no parade. A quick glance showed the excellent training most of the units had undergone as they walked off with the prize money. We were extremely proud of our local Band as it strutted in an efficient and military manner and the quality of the music stirred our soul as it proudly ambled its way along in the line of march. The local Fire Co., the Sportsmen's Club, the Band and above all, George L. Danner, who organized the parade, are in line for our highest compliments and our deep appreciation. It would be nice if the affair could be an annual event.

As was predicted, the spring was a mighty short one and ended suddenly after a spell of abnormal temperatures and rain. Smack, all of a sudden, we have reached summer, although not officially so. Temperatures suddenly soared, furnaces were shut off, fans brought out, air-conditioners placed into service and we were on our merry way. Just a few short days, that's all it took and now we're sweating it out daily in 90-degree temperature.

We must apologize for the brevity of our column this week, but a last-minute deluge of class pictures and advertisements rolled in and the Editor yelled hold the phone! Parade pictures had to be withheld, news stories curtailed and other features dropped, but we'll be back next week with our usual high class newspaper, so please bear with us this week.

NEW THURMONT SCHOOL BIDS ABOUT DUE

Frederick County's school board has given contractors an additional week to bid on revised plans for Catocin High School.

Bids on the project were originally scheduled to be opened last week, but the opening was delayed until June 15 to give prospective bidders more time, according to Tolbert F. Lawyer, supervisor of school facilities.

"Some of the interested contractors wanted more time to prepare a bid," Lawyer said. "We have seven or eight interested in the project, but since several major projects in the Washington area are coming up at the same time, which they are also bidding on, we granted an extension."

"We like to have at least four or more bidders on a school, and we can get them with the extension. When Catocin was bid the first time—in December of 1966—we had four bidders."

This is the second round of bidding for Catocin school. The low bid accepted by the school board on the first round was rejected by the county commissioners, and parts of the school were redesigned by the architect, Lowell Nelson, to fit the requirements of the commissioners.

The original low bid, by Frederick Construction Company, was $3,470,000. After negotiations between the school board and the contractor, the bid was reduced to $3,013,890 by elimination of the closed-circuit television system and other items.

The price was turned down by the commissioners as being too high, and more negotiations between the school board and the contractor dropped the price to $2,744,000. This price, too, was rejected by the commissioners, and the plans were ordered redesigned.

Homemakers Plan Diet Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Emmitsburg Homemakers Club was held recently at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Glass. Nineteen members answered the roll with the names of items relating to the months theme of diet and exercise. Mrs. Doris Stouter gave a very interesting talk on diet and exercise, stressing the lack of useful exercise in our everyday lives. She also announced the formation of a diet and exercise club in Emmitsburg. These meetings will be held weekly from June to December and will be conducted by an instructor from the Dairy Council of Baltimore. Anyone interested in joining is asked to contact Mrs. Stouter at 447-2584.

During the business portion of the meeting, Mrs. William Slemmer, Jr., club president, gave a report on a trip through the Japanese and Indian Embassies in Washington. The members were asked their preference as to the type of Christmas Program they would prefer to see in Frederick this year. Mrs. Sheila Chatlos read a letter in regard to Frederick Fair Week to be held Sept. 25 through 30. Two homemakers were asked to demonstrate casserole making at the fair. Mrs. Verne Ray and Mrs. Margaret Wilhide volunteered.

Mrs. Sheila Chatlos, Mrs. Hazel Caldwell, and Mrs. Charles Harner were appointed to the nominating committee and will report to the club at the next meeting. Mrs. Luther Cregger gave a report on the Annual Meeting which was held in Frederick on March 25. Volunteers were also asked to help when the TB X-ray unit is in Emmitsburg.

The next meeting will be a picnic at 6:30 p.m., to be held at Kump's Dam.

Girl Scouts

Honor Parents

Members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 405 entertained their parents at a supper, which they cooked themselves, on Saturday, June 10, at Elias Lutheran Church. Sixty-five persons attended the supper. The menu consisted of orange juice, meat loaf, baked potato, corn, tossed salad, biscuits with butter and jelly, iced tea and coffee, and for dessert, cakes which had been baked for a cake contest.

Seventeen cakes were entered in the contest. Sharon Wivell won first prize, Cindy Newcomer won second place, Florence Polk won the third prize and Dianne Deegan, Martha Slemmer and Melinda Meredith were given honorable mention. Others in the contest were Wanda Warthen, Lynne Phelan, Martha Richardson, Anna Antolin, Joanne Flaherty, Francis Fields, Yvonne Staub, Vida Antolin, Cathy Wivell, Connie Wivell and Julie Baker. Other members of the troop who helped with the cooking were Valerie McClellan, Beth Ann Little, Kate Marshall, Susan Morningstar, Debbie Goulden, Debbie Rohrbach, Debbie Wivell and Diane Andrew.

Several of the sixth grade girls sang "The Ash Grove". Seventeen members of the troop received World pins, representing their membership in the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. The other members had already received their pins. All the troop sang "The World Song," accompanied by Mr. William Slemmer at the piano. It was announced that the troop, together with Cadette Troop 1316, would go to Camp Rockwood for a camping trip from August 8 to August 11. Registration will be held next week. The program was closed with the singing of "Make Them Friends," and "Fare Thee Well."

Mrs. John Chatlos and Mrs. William Slemmer, Jr., are the leaders of the troop.

ON RETREAT

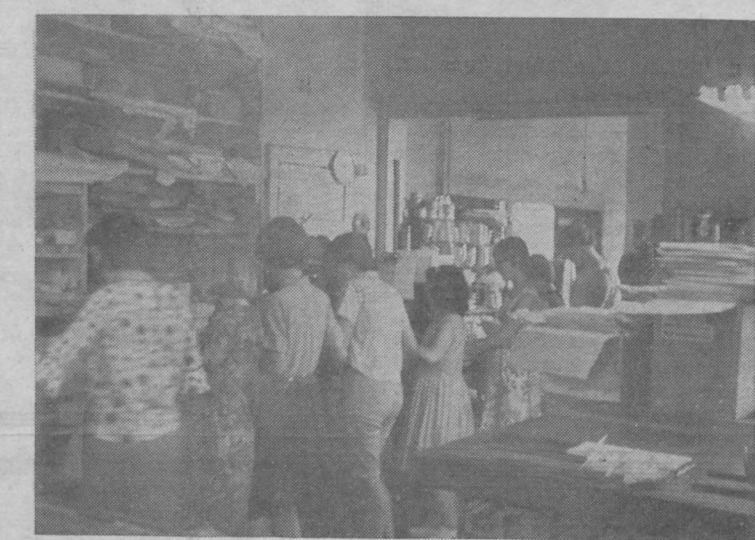

One hundred priests from the Diocese of Harrisburg, Pa., headed by Most Reverend Joseph T. Daley, D.D., Auxiliary Bishop, are spending the week at Mount Saint Mary's College in an annual spiritual retreat. A similar group will come to the college on Sunday, June 18, completing the two-week program of spiritual renewal by the diocesan priests.

Rt. Rev. Walter J. Tappe from Santa Rosa, Calif., is serving as the retreatmaster for the two sessions.

Hygienic Meats

Shelf life of meats in modern supermarkets is expected to double with the introduction of new anti-bacteria cleaning techniques in meat-cutting rooms and use of nickel stainless steel meat-handling equipment.

Firemen's Convention Booklet Goes To Press

BOOK GOES TO PRESS—Ten local young girls are shown busily engaged in collating pages at the Chronicle Press this week as the souvenir booklet for the Maryland State Firemen's Assn. Convention rolls off the presses. The Convention opens Wednesday in Frederick. Three thousand copies of the 72-page booklet will be distributed. The girls are: Diane Dutrow, Patricia Hubbard, Janis Neighbours, Mildred Orndorff, Denise Smith, Barbara Myers, Connie Miller, Susan Ott, Pam Topper and Susan Keepers.

Cong. Mathias Fully Backing Sixes Bridge Dam

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., (R-Md., 6th) this week announced that the outlook for prompt action to start the Six Bridge dam and reservoir project in Frederick County, Maryland, "is very promising."

Mr. Mathias released correspondence with Col. Frank W. Rhea, Baltimore District Engineer of the Army Corps of Engineers, in which Col. Rhea declared that "the project remains the best solution to the major water problems of the Monocacy River Basin." Col. Rhea last week assured the Congressman that the Corps of Engineers "will have an up-to-date description of the Six Bridge project, together with a cost estimate and project justification, ready for the fiscal 1969 budget and for the appropriation hearings, should the project be authorized."

In reply, Congressman Mathias told Col. Rhea that "the interest and efforts of the Corps will be good news for the entire Monocacy Basin. Obviously Frederick and Carroll Counties cannot continue to grow without a fully adequate water supply." He observed that "the Six Bridge project will also offer important recreational benefits, both at the reservoir itself and on the Monocacy downstream."

Noting that "the State Department of Water Resources estimates that the Monocacy Basin water situation may be critical by 1975," Mr. Mathias said "it is imperative to start work on this project at once, since completion may take some 7 years."

The Six Bridge dam, recommended by the Corps of Engineers in its Potomac Basin Report in 1963, has been endorsed this spring in a pending report by the Water Supply and Flood Control Sub-Task Force of the Interdepartmental Task Force on the Potomac Basin directed by the Secretary of the Interior. The Sub-Task Force report has been sent to Secretary Udall's group, which is now preparing its final overall recommendations.

Noting that the Six Bridge project has "overwhelming support in Frederick County," Congressman Mathias promised to do "everything I can to speed this important construction on its way."

The Rev. Nevin E. Smith, D.D., former pastor of Emmanuel U. C. C., Hanover, Pa., will be supply pastor for the Thurmont Charge of the United Church of Christ beginning Sunday.

He graduated from Theological Seminary in 1931, and after serving in Butler County, Pa.; Westminster; and Hanover, Pa.; he returned to Franklin and Marshall for his doctorate (D.D.) which he received in 1949.

Rev. Smith served Emmanuel Church in Hanover from 1940 to January 1966 and has received many high honors in his church. Rev. Smith has been doing interim pastoral work since his retirement.

Light Voting Registered For Convention Seats

Three prominent Frederick lawyers were elected Tuesday to represent Frederick County at the Maryland Constitutional Convention this fall.

Chosen as delegates to the convention were Benjamin B. Rosenstock, president of the Maryland Bar Association, Edward D. Storm, chairman of the Washington Area Transit Commission; and Samuel W. Barrick, Frederick County attorney.

Rosenstock was top vote-getter, polling 2,708 votes. Following were Storm, with 2,531, and Barrick, with 2,437.

Election officials estimated that 4,900 county residents voted in the special election, between 16 and 17 per cent of the county's 30,800 registered voters. There were 31 absentee ballots.

The turnout was slightly higher than pre-election predictions of 10 to 15 per cent.

Final returns Tuesday were in before 10 p.m. that night. The results of the election will remain unofficial, however, until the formal canvass of the voting machines by the Board of Election Supervisors later this week.

Order of finish in the election was as follows:

- 1—Benjamin B. Rosenstock, 2708
- 2—Edward D. Storm 2531
- 3—Samuel W. Barrick 2437
- 4—Mrs. Lorene Bowles 1,698
- 5—Robert E. Hess 1502
- 6—J. Herbert Snyder 795
- 7—David E. Aldridge 732
- 8—Arthur Potts 619
- 9—Perry Darner 634
- 10—Irvin Brant 394
- 11—E. S. Conway 389
- 12—Mrs. Helen Alexander 345
- 13—Mark Matovich 118

Rosenstock, 65, is serving this year as president of the Maryland Bar Association. He is a former member of the Maryland House of Delegates, and served for many years as president of the Independence Hose Company.

Barrick, 43, has served as state's attorney and state senator from Frederick County, and has been county attorney since 1963.

Storm, 55, is now serving as chairman of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Commission. He is a former People's Court judge and state senator, and a former member of the Md. Public Service Commission.

Delegates to the convention were apportioned among the state's political subdivisions on the same basis as representation in the House of Delegates.

Statewide, 739 candidates sought the 142 seats, and in most areas the candidates far outnumbered the available seats.

Only one candidate was unopposed—former Governor J. Milford Taves, in his native Somerset County. He was elected.

The convention itself is scheduled to begin sessions September 12, although a special session for organization and election of convention officers will be held in the State House in Annapolis August 13.

The convention is to last three months, but the delegates can, by a majority vote, extend the session another month.

Convention delegates will be paid a flat salary of $2,000, from which $15 will be deducted for each day a delegate is not in attendance.

In addition to the salary, delegates will receive $25 dollars per day of attendance for expenses.

The constitution which is finally written by the convention delegates will be submitted to the state's voters May 14, 1968, for final ratification.

Firemen To Assist At Convention

The regular monthly meeting of the Vigilant Hose Co. was held Tuesday evening with President James Fitzgerald presiding.

The minutes of the last meeting and the last Directors' meeting were read by Asst. Secretary Donald Byard, Jr. Chief Charles F. Stouter reported that the company had responded to three fires alarms and one accident since the last meeting. Treasurer Ronald Stouter gave his monthly financial report.

Mike Boyle reported on the annual Fund Drive and said returns were coming in fairly good. He announced that the firemen will canvas the Town on Tuesday evening, June 20 at 6:30 p.m. The start will be signalled by one blast of the siren. All those who have not sent their contribution by that time will be contacted by the firemen. All firemen are asked to help and to come to the Fire Hall in parade dress before 6:30.

Chief Stouter announced that the monthly practice session will be held on Tuesday, June 27 at 7 p.m. President Fitzgerald reminded the firemen that the annual State Firemen's Association Convention will be held in Frederick on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 21 to 23. Fire Police Captain, Paul A. Keepers, asked that all available fire police are needed to help handle the crowds and traffic at the convention.

Firemen Gene Myers and Paul Humerick recently attended a two-day pump school at the University of Maryland. The training which they have received will benefit the company as well as the entire community.

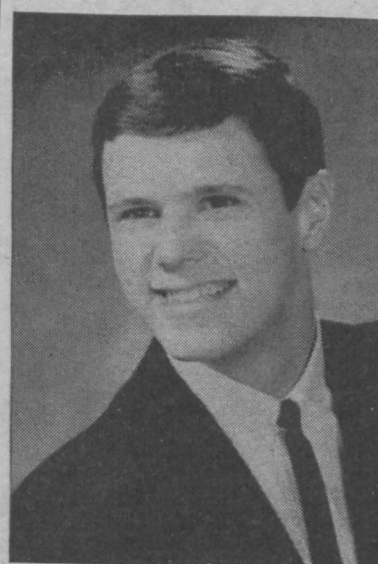

The members present voted in favor of replacing the radio in the Unit 61 pumper. Bids will be asked from several radio companies. The estimated cost to replace the present radio is approximately $1000.

The membership present also voted to make a sizable payment on the principal remaining on the new building addition loan.

John G. (Jack) Humerick was appointed by the president to fulfill the remaining term of Treasurer Ronald Stouter who will move to Centerville, Md. to teach school next season. Jack will assume his new position on July 1.

Assistant Chief Guy McGlaughlin announced that an attempt is being made to have a University of Maryland Basic Firemen Course started in the early fall. All members who are interested in attending the 20-week course are asked to sign up at the Fire Hall.

Michael Eugene Bobanic, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bobanic, Aliquippa, Pa., and grandson of Eugene Warthen, Emmitsburg, was graduated from De Paul Institute for the Deaf, in Pittsburgh, on June 11.

BABSONWrites . . .*Babson's Point Of View On:
A Guaranteed Annual Wage
For All Workers

BABSON PARK, Mass., June 15—No matter which side of the fence you're on—the employer's or the employee's—you can't help but be fascinated with the idea of a guaranteed annual wage for everybody. And it is especially "hot" right now because Walter Reuther, President of the United Auto Workers, is out to get a guaranteed yearly income for employees in the auto factories, from top to bottom. How It Appears To The Employees

Men and women in seasonal enterprises know how tough it is to be laid off when the work load drops. They may have to put up with it, but they never get used to it. It means getting temporary jobs or signing up for unemployment insurance, and it almost always adds up to "going without" for a while. Mr. Reuther won't have much trouble selling the idea of a guaranteed annual wage to his members, especially the beltline and blue-collar men who get laid off when the new-model changeovers are being made or when the car market suddenly dries up.

A dozen years ago he took a giant step in this direction when he won from the big auto concerns what is known as supplemental unemployment benefits. They work like this. After a year's job tenure an employee can get company payments when he is laid off. A high-seniority worker can get this type of help for as much as a year, which isn't too bad when it is added to state unemployment outlays. With this combination a man may get up to 62% of his regular straight-time wage, and an extra $1.50 a week for each dependent up to a total of four.

But Now: Full Yearly Pay For Everybody

This is fine for the worker, up to a point. But now Mr. Reuther thinks the time is ripe to plump for a yearly pay guarantee for everybody. In short, all the production employees would be on an annual salary just like the executives and the department heads. The managements are being told that it means only a slight extension of the supplemental unemployment program, that changeovers can be smoothed out so that the men are busy about all the time.

Reuther is going to have plenty of support for his proposal, not only among the hourly workers but even among some of the salaried men. He is planning to ask for big wage and fringe benefits, far bigger than he expects to get, so he can cut back on these expensive demands if the company negotiators look as though they could be "brought around" on his guaranteed annual pay proposal.

How Employers Look At It

The companies are not going to be a pushover for this concept. They don't like it. Even the labor economists are willing to admit that it may cost the firms as much as 10% more in labor costs if a full yearly income is assured for all. If they admit that much, it very likely would cost far more than 10%, at least during the early trial stages. And it seems like a pretty big order at a time when output is down, sales have been discouraging, and the government's safety regulations are needling the industry.

Employers in other fields will keep a sharp eye on this issue as it is "bargained out" in Detroit this year. Many times before, innovations that have started in the auto industry have gradually spread out through other lines. It is our opinion that the guaranteed annual wage in one form or another is on the way and that it will be turning up more and more at bargaining tables everywhere. Employers know it will be expensive and they will fight it as long as possible.

Retail Sales Would Be Helped

Those people operating services and retail outlets in heavily industrialized localities will have a special interest in the expansion of the guaranteed yearly income. It could mean far greater stability for their business, particularly where highly cyclical enterprises now prevail. It could lower buyer resistance stemming from uncertainties about seasonal layoffs, and at the same time increase consumer desire to purchase a wider variety of goods and services. This is longer-term stuff, but merchants will be watching.

An honest man, after reviewing his own life, will be inclined to let youth chart its own course.

ALCOHOL PLAYS LARGE PART IN FATALITIES ON HIGHWAY

The indiscriminate use of alcohol stood out as the major cause of fatalities on Maryland highways last week.

In commenting on the situation, Lt. Col. George Davidson, Acting Superintendent of the State Police, said: "Alcohol played a part in three-quarters of the deaths on Maryland highways last week and certainly stood out as the major contributing factor. Operators, passengers, and pedestrians all shared the tragic consequences of the indiscriminate use of alcohol in highway safety.

"Driving or walking is becoming increasingly complex and the situation will undoubtedly continue. Obviously this demands a great deal of self-discipline on the part of both operators and pedestrians, and in no aspect of safe driving or safe walking is self-discipline more important than when alcohol is involved."

Lt. Col. Davidson concluded: "Alcohol very definitely diminishes one's ability to cope with traffic problems, and any attempts to disprove this fact often have fatal results. Last week's record points this up all too well."

A total of twelve persons were killed last week. Six were drivers, two were passengers, and four were pedestrians.

Alcohol was a contributing factor in eight cases, speed in six, and "driver error" in nine.

"Popular Patron Saints," by Don Sharkey and Sister Loretta Clare, S.C. To have a patron saint is to have a model. Whether chosen by a parent or by personal preference, our patron saints are personal advocates with a special Christian affinity for us as individuals. Who are these patrons to whom we have been given? or whom we have chosen? The authors have grouped the saints into three sections: The first five centuries, saints of the Middle Ages, saints of modern times. Each section is prefaced by an informative historical essay describing the constellation of circumstances which characterized these epochs.

Chest X-Ray

Editor, Emmitsburg Chronicle:

May we express our appreciation for the fine publicity you gave us for the Mass X-ray Survey through the columns of your paper, and to the many volunteers who assisted in so many ways in making the survey a success in your area.

A total of 301 persons was X-rayed.

The Emmitsburg Homemakers' Club, under the chairmanship of the president of the Club, Mrs. William R. Slemmer Jr., sponsored this community health project, and recruited the volunteers who registered those who came to the mobile unit for X-rays. Assisting Mrs. Slemmer were: Mrs. Charles Brewer, Miss Hazel Caldwell, Mrs. William Carr, Mrs. John Chatlos.

"JEST A MOMENT"

BY RALPH

Ideal basis for a true friendship: disliking the same people...

To fix things around the house, nothing beats the man who's handy with a check book.

Friend of ours is sure there's no life on Mars; it has never been listed on his wife's phone bills...

When away on business, he asks the waitress for charred toast and cold coffee—he gets homesick!

One good turn gets most of the blanket.

Do yourself a good turn. Come to Emmitsburg Feed & Farm Supply, phone 447-3612, for Southern States Baler Twine and other supplies.

Miss Ryan Wed To Mr. Lancelotta

Miss Patricia Lois Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Edward J. Ryan of Emmitsburg and Charnita, and the late Mr. Ryan, became the bride of Mr. Charles J. Lancelotta, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lancelotta, Baltimore, on June 3 at St. Joseph Monastery Church, Old Frederick Road, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Neal O'Donnell, C.P., chaplain at St. Agnes Hospital. A Papal Nuptial

Blessing from Pope Paul was imparted following the ceremony. A reception was held at the Turf Valley Country Club. Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Edward J. Ryan, Jr., the bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace fashioned in a full-length A-line skirt, kabuki sleeves, and chapel-length train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a demi-crown of lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy. Miss Dolores Lancelotta, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Mrs. Lee Selectcky, Miss

Carmalyn Smiraglia, and Miss Verna Trinter were bridesmaids. Miss Eugenia Ryan, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The bridal attendants wore floor-length empire gowns of aqua saki, and carried nosegays of white carnations and aqua-tinted baby's breath. Mr. Joseph Incapera served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Robert Ryan, brother of the bride, Mr. Joseph Metz, and Messrs. Patrick Welsh and James Welsh, Jr., cousins of the bridegroom.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Louis M. P. Scotto of Baltimore, and the late Mr. Scotto of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Ryan of New York City. A senior at the University of Maryland School of Medicine, the bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welsh, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lancelotta of Baltimore.

Following a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Lancelotta will be at home at 321 Small Court, Academy Heights, Baltimore.

Basic coverages in 1966 to help pay for surgical and non-surgical care by physicians were responsible for $898 million in benefits.
