BY ABIGAIL

Clothes for a destitute Emmitsburg man are being sought. William "Beans" Ashbaugh, who is ill and has been unable to work for years, is in need of men's clothing. Friends say "Beans" wears size shirt 14-14½; coat 36-38; pants, 28-32 length and shoes, 8½ or 9. Anyone having clothing of this size and willing to assist in this humanitarian project, is asked to phone Mrs. Lewis Krietz, phone 447-2249, after 4 p.m., or all day Saturday. Someone will pick up any clothing donated.

Excitement was rampant Wednesday morning when it was learned that the Post Office had been robbed. Police cars buzzed quite busily around town and the main topic of discussion, naturally, was the big robbery. Most people agree that it was perhaps the biggest robbery, money-wise, that ever occurred here and I am sort of inclined to go along with that trend of thought. It was estimated that the haul was $8,000 consisting of cash and stamps. One wonders what crooks like these could do with several thousands of dollars worth of stamps. They couldn't possibly use that many in a lifetime so they must have some means of converting them into cash, somewhere along the line. Anyway, the police and postal inspectors are on a manhunt and it will give us something to talk about for some time to come. We hope they catch their men, and promptly.

On the national scene things appear to be in pretty much of a turmoil. While the "doves" are yelling peace at any cost, the "hawks" seem more anxious than ever to expand the war and fight harder than ever to clear up the situation. President Johnson appears to have Cabinet problems, with the war effort and his tax hike proposal and to add to the confusion, Secretary of Defense McNamara either quit or was fired this week. There is quite a bit of mystery about his leaving the Government service and no one seems anxious to clear the air. Former President Eisenhower said this week that we ought to really turn on the heat in Vietnam, and so it goes. Poor little me and you are drowning in a sea of confusion, but when you really look over the situation, it is apparent that the "wheels" appear befuddled also.

The Constitutional Convention seems to be taking the road to strip the general public of voting power. For instance, it is advocated that the Governor appoint the major judgeships, appoint the State Comptroller and also the Attorney General. The public would have no voice in the selection of these presently elected offices. Judges would be appointed for life and never have to stand election, and the Governor would have full power over the Attorney General and the Comptroller. The Convention's action would practically give dictatorial powers to the Governor in future years. It would behoove us if we studied these proposed new laws intensely and next year when the public votes on them for ratification, vote many of them out the window.

Harold Hoke was one of the lucky hunters who got his deer this week. As the story goes, Harold was sitting in his wheelchair on the porch of a cabin belonging to a friend. Suddenly a big buck popped out of the woods in plain view of Harold, startling him considerably. Quickly composing himself he rifled out a quick shot and brought the animal down. Just about then a truck with two men in it came by. They loaded the deer, took it to a check-out station and brought the bucktail right to Harold's home. It was a lucky day all around for Harold.

Enters Hospital
Mr. J. Norman Flax was admitted to the Carlisle Hospital this week. While there he plans to undergo knee surgery for an old injury. He plans to be there several weeks.

Gettysburg Youth Killed In Wreck On Harney Road

Ralph Berry Chaplin, Jr., 19, Gettysburg, was fatally injured Sunday evening at 8:50 and three other Gettysburg area men were injured when their car crashed into a tree at a sharp curve on the Harney Road, about two miles east of Emmitsburg.

Chaplin was pronounced dead on arrival at the Warner Hospital at 9:16 o'clock. Adams County coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said the death was caused by a fractured skull and internal injuries. Chaplin was a passenger in the left rear seat of a late model car driven, according to police, by Franklin M. Bowers, 32, Gettysburg R1.

Bowers also was injured in the crash. He was admitted as a patient at the Warner Hospital, as was another passenger, Robert J. Stull, 17, Gettysburg. Stephen A. Burns, 17, Gettysburg, who also was a passenger in the vehicle, was treated at the hospital for contusions and abrasions of the chest after the four men, one of them dead, were taken to the hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance.

Chaplin was the second member of his family to die in a traffic accident. His brother, Eddie Lee Chaplin, then 18, was fatally injured June 20, 1966, in an accident three miles north of the Maryland line on the Route 15 bypass.

The father of the two deceased youths, Ralph Berry Chaplin, Sr., was badly hurt in December, 1963 in a car accident.

Maryland State Police said the accident occurred when Bowers, traveling south on the Harney Road, failed to negotiate a sharp curve and his car ran into a tree. Damage to Bowers' 1967 sedan was estimated at $2,500. It was described as a "total loss."

Both Bowers and Stull were reported as in a satisfactory condition at the Warner Hospital this week.

Completes Basic

Marine Private Michael A. Orndorff, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Louis Orndorff, 216 E. Main St., has been graduated from 8 weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C.

Orndorff will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

Lions Kiddies' Party December 16

The annual Kiddies' Christmas Party was discussed at the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club held Monday evening in Mt. Manor Restaurant, President Ralph L. Tabler presiding.

Lion Milton Sewell, chairman of the Christmas Party, gave a progress report of his committee. The party will be held on Saturday, Dec. 16. President Tabler and Lion Ralph McDonnell announced they would represent the club at a zone meeting in Frederick Tuesday evening. County and state taxes on the Civic Grounds were discussed and it was decided to investigate the situation to ascertain if the ground was actually taxable as it was being operated by a non-profit organization. Christmas presents for residents of Springfield State Hospital were discussed and anyone wishing to give presents to the residents of that hospital is asked to leave them with Secretary Eugene Sappington.

President Tabler announced that Frederick City Police Chief Charles Main, would be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the club.

Local Band Receives Donations

The Emmitsburg Municipal Band held a business meeting recently at the Lutheran Parish House. The meeting was highlighted by a lecture by Ron Dorson, a drum major from Gettysburg. He gave the members a very stirring talk on how to work together and how to strive for a better band. Following the talk, the business part of the meeting was held. The director reported winnings totaling $35 at two recent parades.

The chairman of the food sale reported a profit of $51.44. A committee for a December Bake Sale was appointed with Becky Hoke as chairman. The advisory board reported it had written to Attorney Bower concerning incorporation of the band, but no answer had been received at the time of the meeting.

A number of donations for the uniform funds have been received recently. They were from: Emmitsburg Town Council, Herbert Newcomb, Rita Remavege, Bill Smith, Kathy and Bobby John Carson, Irene Messner, Irvin Miller, Joe May, Charles Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manahan, Grace Saylor, VFW Ladies Auxiliary.

On an average day, stolen property losses in the U. S. amount to almost $7 million.

The theme of the concert will feature Christmas music from all nations and will conclude with the blending of voices in the joint singing of the traditional "Cantique de Noel" by Adam.

Artist Appearing At St. Joseph's

Rufus Jacoby, artist in metalcraft, is currently exhibiting at St. Joseph College's duBois lounge.

The show is open to the public Saturday, Dec. 2, 7-9 p. m.; and Sunday, Dec. 3, 2-6 p. m.

Mr. Jacoby, an instructor in Art at The Catholic University of America, places special emphasis on the creation of liturgical silver, such as hand-wrought chalices and ciboria.

The Washington Post, in a recent review of his work, noted that "... Rufus Jacoby is a paradox. He fashions silver by hand with the same primitive techniques used by the earliest silversmith, but his work is the essence of modern simplicity and functional design."

A reception for the artist is scheduled at 3:00 p. m. on Sunday, the last day of the exhibit.

Glee Club Concert To Be Televised

The Gleemen from Mt. Saint Mary's College have been selected to participate in NBC's nationwide radio presentation, "Voices of Christmas," on Dec. 18, at 10:05 p. m.

The Mount Glee Club also will present a colored television concert on WBAL Channel 11, Baltimore, on Christmas Eve at 9:30 p. m., according to Rev. Dr. David W. Shaum, club moderator and director.

VFW AMBULANCE

Eugene Gelwicks, R2, Fairfield; Mrs. Mary Ohler, Emmitsburg; Mrs. Edward Keepers, Reisterstown, and Robert Stull, Steven Burns, Ralph Chaplin and Frank Bowers, all of Gettysburg, accident victims here, all were transported this week to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, via the VFW ambulance. Drivers were Michael Boyle and Donald Byard.

Lacerates Knee

Keller Misner 44, Emmitsburg, R2, an employe of the Mason-Dixon Farms, received treatment at the Warner Hospital Tuesday for a laceration of the left knee sustained when the blade of a manure spreader fell on his knee.

Insurance companies in the U. S. paid nearly $812 million in premium taxes to 50 states in 1966, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Fractures Legs

Eugene Gelwicks, 49, Fairfield, R2, was treated last week at the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, for fractures of both legs in a fall of about 15 feet.

To protect themselves against financial loss brought on by automobile accidents American car owners paid about $9.25 billion in auto insurance premiums in 1966, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Local Post Office Burglarized; Loss Estimated $8,000

Burglars broke locks on two double steel doors to gain entrance to the Emmitsburg Postoffice sometime Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning.

The robbers apparently used bolt cutters to remove the locks to the Postoffice and appeared to be fully familiar with the building. They methodically moved the safe from the lighted section of the building which was visible from the street, to an inconspicuous part of the large room where they went to work on the safe.

The break-in was not discovered until six a.m. Wednesday morning when Substitute Clerks J. Everett Chrimer and Arthur S. Elder attempted to enter the building. The robbers had changed the lock and the clerks were unable to gain entrance. They immediately notified Postmaster G. Eugene Rosensteel who notified police and the postal inspectors from Washington and Baltimore.

Postmaster Rosensteel made a hurried calculation as to the amount of the loss and said that approximately $8,000 in cash and stamps had been taken. The burglars moved the safe on a dolly they had brought along, a distance of about 25 feet where they "operated" on it, apparently with hammers and chisels. The front plate of the door was chiseled off, the cement protecting wall removed, and the main door pried open.

The new Postoffice was opened about two years ago and Rosensteel has been Postmaster for about a year. Postal Inspector Morris D. Purcell, Baltimore and other postal inspectors from Washington, came immediately to the scene. Maryland State Police Sgt. Henry Stafford and Trooper John Reburn, joined in the investigation. Police Chief W. E. Law assisted the officials and helped with the fingerprinting detail.

Rosensteel said the robbery occurred sometime between eight o'clock Tuesday night, when the janitor quit work, and six o'clock Wednesday morning when the clerks returned to work. Service at the Postoffice was disrupted several hours Wednesday morning until a new supply of stamps was received from Washington. Police are continuing their investigation and ask the cooperation of the general public. Anyone who sees anything suspicious or comes across any possible evidence, is asked to contact the authorities immediately.

Giant Hornet's Nest Found In Smokehouse

It's a big year all around says Paul Wivell, R2, who discovered the above giant size yellow striped hornet nest in the smokehouse of his farm. Bumper crops and hornet's nests denotes a big year, says Paul. Shown above holding the mammoth nest are two of Paul's children, Paul Jr., 3, and Linda, 4. The nest weighed five pounds, measured 27" in diameter, 58" in circumference and 22" in depth.

She was a member of St. Anthony's Shrine Catholic Church and the Sodality. Surviving are two sons and two daughters: John V. Shorb, Thurmont R2; Charles E. Shorb, Point of Rocks; Miss Margaret E. Shorb and Miss Ann Grace Shorb, both of Thurmont R2; five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Ann Lively, Harrisburg.

Experts estimate that more than 5,000 lives would be saved each year in the U.S. and that injuries would be reduced by one-third if everyone used auto seat belts.

Saturday Racing At Shenandoah

A field of eight to ten appeared likely at midweek for Saturday's fourth running of the Virginia Oaks, final stakes race of the Shenandoah at Charles Town fall meeting.

One owner and her trainer will be shooting for Shenandoah Downs doubles when the $10,000 added Oaks goes to the post Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank O'Keefe of Warrenton, whose Musical Night won the 1965 Oaks, will have the likely favorite in her Persian Intrigue, winner of more than $20,000 this year.

J. Bowes Bond, who trains Persian Intrigue, can win two 1967 Shenandoah stakes with the daughter of Persian Road II going for him. Bond saddled Rutland to win a division of the $40,000 Tri-State Futurity at this track on November 18.

With the field unsettled, it appears that the Oaks will gross approximately $15,000, making it the second richest race in the Mountain State.

A fire breaks out in an American home every 49 seconds, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Postoffice Safe "Dusted" For Fingerprints

Destroyed Postoffice safe is literally covered with graphite as police look for fingerprints and clues to ascertain the identity of the burglars who robbed the Emmitsburg Postoffice sometime Wednesday. A portion of the broken lock can be seen at the bottom of the picture.

Lutheran Women Hold Meeting

The Lutheran Church Women of Elias Church met recently in the Parish House for their meeting with Mrs. Charles Linn and Mrs. Esther Gillelan leading the discussion topic, "The Caretakers". The group was reminded of the gifts that God has provided for us and the responsibility of each individual to be a steward of the gifts that have been given.

Plans were made for several Social Ministry projects including the collecting of Christmas gifts for the Lutheran Home for the Aged in Washington. The members are also preparing a Christmas card list for the congregation so that the shut-ins and the men in service will receive mail from their friends.

Mrs. James Small, President, announced that the Christmas meeting would be held Tuesday, December 12 in the Parish House, with members presenting their Christmas gifts for the guests at the National Lutheran Home. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ronald Fearer to the LCW members and their guests. A cornucopia, overflowing with fruits and vegetables, provided the central theme for the refreshment table.

Schools Receive Recognition

Two of Frederick County's schools have received national recognition through their inclusion in a publication of the National Education Association. This publication, produced by the NEA in association with the 3-M Education Press is an annotated listing of demonstration centers available to participants in "The Year of the Non-Conference", sponsored by NEA's National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards.

Governor Thomas Johnson High School and Brunswick Elementary School were the local schools chosen by the Commission. In the listing, Governor Thomas Johnson is described as: "... designed and staffed for individualizing instruction through team teaching, the use of aides and specialists and a school-within-a-school organization." The brochure goes on to state that, at Brunswick Elementary School: "Team teaching, teacher aides, and specialists allow for better use of staff time and for more individual staff assistance to pupils. Children learn at their own rate in a fourteen-step non-graded program."

According to this publication, which will receive wide circulation among educators throughout the United States, more than fifteen thousand people visited the 205 demonstration centers involved during the first months of the year.

Libraries Distribute Cancer Literature

Is cancer a "disease of civilization" or hereditary? Are there such things as "cancer houses"? Is cancer contagious or caused by injuries? What can be done about quackery? These are some of the questions answered in "The Truth About Cancer," distributed without charge to local libraries this week by the local chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Hailed as an important weapon in saving lives, the newly revised book has been described as the best possible guide an individual can have in protecting himself from dying of cancer. The book has received the endorsement of the American Cancer Society and has now been termed the "definitive work" in the diagnosis and treatment of this disease from the layman's point of view.

In the foreword, Dr. Luther L. Terry, former U. S. Surgeon General, states, 1, Cancer is the most curable of all the leading causes of death; 2, Cancer is the only major illness in which you alone influence the outcome to so great a degree, and 3, Twice as many lives can be saved from cancer as are now being saved.

Mrs. Louise D. Creager, director of the local chapter, feels that greater dissemination of the life-saving facts contained in the book will alert people to the need for prompt detection of cancer.

The book, published as a paperback by Collier Books of New York, was first written 12 years ago, when its author was Medical and Scientific Director of the American Cancer Society. He is now President of Hahnemann Medical College of Philadelphia. The new paperback publication has been completely revised to incorporate new information about research, diagnosis and treatment of cancer.

"The Truth About Cancer" has been placed in the libraries of Hood, Community College, St. Joseph College, C. Burr Artz, Frederick High School, Thomas Johnson H. S., St. John's Literary Institute and Fort Detrick.

The Woman's Heart

The heart of a woman is like a leaf:
It quivers at the touch of a passing breeze,
It palpitates at the weather's flip
And change, then turns at ease.

Her heart is like a mango fruit:
It is sour when it is green
And sweet when golden yellow brought
To ripen in lovelight's golden sheen.

Her heart is like a candle flame
Ever to serve in a moment dark,
And brighter yet when the hour
is stark
When heart and soul are both afame.

The heart of a woman is man's mainstay:
His power she wields in gentleness,
His mind she bends to heartfulness
When reason fails in man's decay.
—A Figer Vilorina

This award is one of several which the publication has recently received. Others include all-Catholic by the Catholic School Press Assn. and the scholastic press award given by the Delmarva Press Assn. which comprises papers in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia.

Prof. Bernard S. Kaliss, who served as moderator during the past 14 years is currently on sabbatical leave doing doctoral research.

Heroes For Red Hanoi
When David Dellinger, Chairman of "The National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam," stepped to the battery of microphones in front of the Lincoln Memorial on Washington's famed Mall at 2:10 p.m. October 21, he stood before the eyes of the nation and the world in false colors. A balding, 52-year-old New Yorker, educated at Yale, he had, according to influential newspapers, compiled a "distinguished" record as a pacifist. The New York Times, omitting much pertinent information on Dellinger, had respectfully called him "a 'cool' critic of war". The Washington Post had assured its influential readership that "U. S. officials (unnamed) said there was no evidence that Communists were in charge" of the "national peace rally" and march on the Pentagon. Such reports caused many people to accept Dellinger as just a sincere pacifist. Suggestions by others that the "march" was a Communist operation were felt by many citizens to be false.

The Facts
Several members of Congress, however, tried on Friday preceding the march to get across to the public the true facts about its leadership. Senator John Stennis said: "I have a reliable information and reports that establish beyond a doubt that key organizers and leaders of the march on the Pentagon tomorrow are members of the Communist Party, U.S.A. These reports and information further establish that the march is heavily supported by the Hanoi government as an extension within the continental United States of the war in South Vietnam. . . The leaders of North Vietnam consider the march on the Pentagon tomorrow as much of their war effort as the guerrilla warfare in South Vietnam." Yet, in much of the U. S. press and probably in virtually all of the foreign press (which gave massive coverage to the march and the violence), Dellinger was cloaked in the respectability of "a critic of war". He and his cadres of march "marshals" as well as the hundreds of "hippies" and "peaceniks" who were incited by Dellinger and other radical speakers to attack the soldiers protecting the Pentagon, were assessed only "token" penalties when arrested for their massive defiance of the U. S. Government and the laws of our nation. This is a part of the important victory won by the Communists who planned and directed the basic strategy of the "march".

Rejects U. S. Pledge
A member of the National Education Program staff who covered the "march" went to congressional investigating committees and got some facts on Dellinger. In 1936, according to records in the House of Representatives, he sought a passport to Moscow but refused to take the oath of allegiance to the U.S.A. In 1940, he was drafted, but pleaded conscientious objection. He was assigned a non-combatant role, but refused it. He served three years in a Federal penitentiary.

Late last year, Dellinger, who had evidenced sympathy with the North Vietnamese cause, requested a U. S. passport to Moscow, Peking, and Hanoi. He was refused permission to visit Peking and Hanoi. He nevertheless went to the Red Chinese capital illegally after visiting Moscow; then on to Hanoi where he visited at length with Ho Chi Minh. Early this year, breaking U. S. security laws, he again visited Hanoi. Upon his return he showed up as Vice Chairman of the "Spring Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam," which staged the huge "Peace March" in New York last April.

Aiding The Enemy
Following the New York operation, which drew great praise from Communists all over the world, Dellinger, with scant if any notice in the U. S. press, was selected by Communist Hanoi to take a "representative" group of 40 Americans to Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, to meet with a group from Hanoi's Red government including representatives of the Red "National Liberation Front" in South Vietnam. The purpose of this quietly conducted meeting was to discuss ways of bringing about "negotiations" to end the war. A "negotiation" climate would be enhanced, of course, if a mammoth "Peace March" could be mobilized in Washington and its "marchers" beat up by Pentagon soldiers.

After this trip, Dellinger's international role was expanded. He became Chairman of the "National Mobilization Committee". The primary purpose of the "Committee" and its march on the Pentagon obviously was to create a more widespread demand for "negotiations" with Ho Chi Minh on the only terms possible—his terms: U. S. capitulation. There is much more concerning Dellinger and others in the "March" leadership. But the Washington Star, which felt a responsibility to expose the leadership, supplied the most important fact. It quoted Dellinger as having declared (earlier and apparently in an unguarded moment): "I am a non-Soviet type Communist." Next week: The Disgraceful Spectacle.

Constitutional Convention Report

By Gene P. Ward
The Constitutional Convention tentatively approved sweeping changes to the State's Judiciary system last week. A vote on the entire report of the Committee on the Judicial Branch came after five days of deliberations which began Wednesday, Nov. 15, and ended Wednesday, Nov. 22. The final tally was 96 to 23.

Only 15 of 61 amendments to change the committee's recommendations were adopted. None of the major objections in the committee's minority report was adopted by the full gathering of the delegates. Details of the provisions tentatively adopted are explained below.
Four Court Levels
The court system will be divided into four levels of which the upper two are appeals courts and the lower two trial courts. The appeals courts will remain essentially the same as now constituted. The State's highest court retains its name of Court of Appeals. The other appeals court, now called the Court of Special Appeals is renamed the Intermediate Appellate Court.

What are now known as Circuit Courts will be called Superior Courts. There will be at least one Superior Court judge in each county.

The lowest court level, which is now comprised of People's Courts and magistrates' courts in the counties and the Municipal Court of Baltimore City, will be replaced by District Courts. Each county will have at least one District Court Judge who will be a full-time judge selected from among lawyers as are the other judges.

Committing magistrates are replaced by Commissioners appointed by the District Court Judges. Commissioners would be permitted to exercise powers only with respect to arrest warrants and detention or release pending hearing.

Offices Eliminated
Orphans Courts, trial magistrates, Registers of Wills, and possibly Clerks of the Courts and Sheriffs would be eliminated.

Clerks of the Superior Courts would be selected as decided by the legislature. Whether they would be appointed or elected depends upon the decision of the General Assembly.

Sheriffs could be continued by act of the legislature or by the county governments under home rule powers. However, if created by a county government, the sheriff could not be assigned judicial duties (serving of papers, etc.) as counties would be prohibited from exercising any judicial powers, under another section of the new Constitution.

Probate functions now performed by the Orphans' Courts would be reassigned to the trial courts. The duties of the Register of Wills would probably be performed by personnel serving under the Clerk of the Court.
Selection Of Judges
The selection of all judges would be by the system variously known as the Niles plan, Missouri plan, or the Merit plan.

In essence, the plan requires that judges be appointed from a list submitted to the Governor by nominating commissions, composed of lawyers and laymen. Under the present procedure, the Governor can appoint any lawyer to a judgeship but traditionally selects one from a list submitted by Bar Associations.

The sponsors of a minority report made a strong plea to have the convention reject the proposed system of selection for the trial courts (Superior and District Courts) in favor of the present system. The move failed by a vote of 42 to 95.

Under the method adopted, the nominating commission for the appeals courts would consist of six lawyers to be elected by the lawyers throughout the State and six non-lawyers to be appointed by the Governor.

The nominating commissions for judges at the two trial court levels would consist of an equal number of lawyers and non-lawyers, but the total number of members would not be less than six. Lawyer members would be elected by the lawyers in the area concerned and non-lawyer members appointed by the Governor. The convention's Committee on the Judicial Branch had also recommended that a judge be a member of each nominating commission.

To Present Musical In Frederick

"I've never seen such magnificent facilities in any high school on the East coast," commented Tony Miletto, director of the live production of Oklahoma to be staged at Thomas Johnson High School this Saturday at 8 p.m.

An architect by profession, Mr. Miletto thought the acoustics of the vast auditorium were "phenomenal."

Together with stage manager Bob Marzetti, baritone Frank Albert, who plays the lead of Curly, and Bob Grauer, who plays villain Jud Fry, he arrived in Frederick this week to work out production details for the Frederick performance by the Baltimore company.

The cast of 50 "professionals who work for God" has performed Oklahoma for sold-out houses in and around Baltimore. Organized in the 1950's at St. Mathew's parish by Father La Porta who then served there the society once specialized in drama, but now concentrates on musical comedies. In the past three years, they have staged South Pacific, Brigadoon, and Plain & Fancy. The Frederick performance is being sponsored by St. John's. Tickets are available at many stores in Frederick.

The nominating commission would submit a list of three to five names to the Governor from which he must select one for the judgeship within 60 days. If the Governor failed to make a selection within the time limit the duty of selecting someone from the list would fall to the chief judge of the Court of Appeals.

Eligibility For Judgeship
A lawyer to be eligible for a judgeship must have been a member of the Bar for at least five years and reside in the area in which the vacancy exists. The requirement in the present Constitution that a person must be at least 30-years-old would be omitted from the new Constitution.

Term Of Office
Judges would never be required to run for election against an actual opponent as is now the case. Whenever a judge's name appeared on the ballot, the voters would vote either "yes" or "no" on his record. Under the present system, a lawyer can become a judge by successfully defeating an appointed judge at the polls, but this could never occur under the provisions tentatively adopted by the convention. In the past 25 years, four judges have been unseated by being defeated in an election.

Within two years after his appointment, a judge's name would appear on the ballot and every eight years thereafter.

The term of judges is now fifteen years. The committee report recommended that it be ten years, but this was amended on the floor of the convention to eight years.

If the voters reject the judge's record, a vacancy would occur, and another judge would be appointed by the Governor from a list sent to him by the nominating commission.

Prior to the election at which a judge's name appeared on the ballot, a secret poll of the lawyers in the area would be taken on the subject of whether the judge should continue in office. The result of the poll would be published prior to the election.

A number of lawyers in the convention vigorously opposed this secret poll-taking. A motion to delete it was voted down twice. The first time the amendment failed by fifteen votes and the second time by only one vote.

Costs Of System
Included in the recommendation of the Committee on the Judicial Branch is a stipulation that the State bear all cost of operating the courts. Although this would increase the financial burden of the State, it would relieve the counties of the share of the costs that they now have.

The practice of counties supplementing the salary paid a judge by the State would be prohibited.

Retirement
Judges would be required to retire at age 70 but could be recalled by the Court of Appeals for temporary service.

Removal
The Court of Appeals would have the power to remove any judge from office or to censure him upon recommendation by a Commission on Judicial Disabilities.

The commission would investigate complaints against any judge.

Convention Schedule
H. Vernon Eney, convention president, announced that the conclave would meet on Saturday, December 2 and 9 and would commence night meetings starting this week.

The delegates met only three days during Thanksgiving week.

There are approximately 16 committee reports awaiting action by the convention. None of these is expected to take an entire week as did the Judicial Branch report, but many are equally controversial.

Next on the schedule is a debate on the Executive Branch provisions, which will decide the future of the offices of the Comptroller and the Attorney General.

Upper Room Award To Bishop Mueller

Harrisburg, Pa., — The Upper Room Citation for 1967 has been awarded to Bishop Ruben H. Mueller, president of the Board of Bishops of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Shown is the Rev. Dr. Wilson O. Weldon (right), editor of The Upper Room, making the presentation.

The occasion was a dinner in the Bishop's honor held in the Grand Ballroom of the Scottish Rite Cathedral in Harrisburg attended by 500 special guests.

The Upper Room is an interdenominational devotional guide published in 38 languages and distributed in some 120 countries. Its headquarters are in Nashville, Tennessee.

"Throughout his forty-six years as clergyman, teacher, and administrator," said Dr. Weldon, "Bishop Mueller has been a leader in furthering worldwide Christian fellowship, the basis on which The Upper Room award is made each year."

The Rev. Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr., presided at the event. Chaplain (Rear Adm.) James W. Kelly, Chief of Chaplains, U.S. Navy, brought greetings from the Armed Forces. Dr. Edward D. Grant of Baton Rouge, La., addressed the gathering. Others officiating in addition to the editor of The Upper Room were the Rev. Clarence Russell Funk, Nazareth, Pa., and the Rev. Raymond E. Fisher of Harrisburg.

"JEST A MOMENT"

BY RALPH

My toughest subject in school was geography. I always had trouble remembering what came after Walla.

Inflation shouldn't worry you. Every time you put away a dollar, you have thirty-six cents for your old age.

Secret of a successful marriage is to have one partner who makes the living and one who makes the living worthwhile.

An adolescent is a youngster who is old enough to dress himself if he could just remember where he dropped his clothes.

This is the age of tension. Everyone lives in constant fear of bending an IBM card.

There'll be no tension when you come to Emmitsburg Feed and Farm Supply for feed, farm supplies, work shoes and appliances.

Babson's Point Of View On:
Licensing Auto Mechanics

BABSON PARK, Mass., Nov. 30 — Better Business Bureaus and local law enforcement agencies all over the nation are receiving complaints about the poor performance or non-performance of mechanics at repair garages and service stations.

Fraudulent Practices

These complaints range from beefs about carelessness in auto repairs to howls from those victimized by the fraudulent practices of some repairmen who con motorists into okaying repairs or replacements not actually necessary and sometimes not even desirable. One of the most frequent gripes concerns charges for work which subsequent investigation reveals had not been done at all.

Another grievance, becoming more and more widespread nationally, is the overinflated property damage estimate. This particular type of "swindle sheet" is a very important factor in the final price of accident insurance. Every padded damage estimate helps jack up the cost of all auto property-damage insurance.

Impact On Public Safety

For every motorist who has been gouged deliberately by crooked garages, there are perhaps a score or more who have been victimized by incompetent repairmen who either have done sloppy work or have failed to diagnose car troubles correctly. Often as not, the poor-quality work or wrong diagnosis has complicated things for the unsuspecting motorist.

But, apart from the inconvenience and unnecessary expense, there is the impact on public safety. No one knows how many accidents each week are directly traceable to the misdiagnosis or nonrecognition of mechanical problems which the non-mechanically-inclined motoring public have trusted, but it is obvious that the number is large enough to be call for a crusader of the persistence of a Ralph Nader.

State Supervision

Law enforcement officers in several areas have lately been citing the need for legislation that would provide supervision of repair garages and legal redress for those victimized by the sharp practices of repairmen. Their argument is that the petroleum corporations which largely control the service outlets are not policing these operations.

In New York State this failure has led to serious consideration of possible methods of licensing auto mechanics. Reportedly there is significant police support for such a move and public interest in it has been growing. In New York City, a full-blown campaign for reform of the repair garage industry is being sponsored by the Citizens Committee for Metropolitan Affairs. Probability is that New York will enact enabling laws before too long.

Federal Controls

Meanwhile, federal officials are becoming more aware of this overall problem and of the acute need for protecting the public and the honest mechanics in the business from the incompetents and the gougers. At present, Congress is studying the auto insurance problem to determine whether Uncle Sam should exercise control over underwriters in this field. Senators and Representatives will be reminded that one of the significant factors contributing to high auto insurance rates is the significant factors contributing to high auto insurance rates is the outright dishonesty of a sizable segment of the repair industry.

Make no mistake about it, federal controls over such garages and service outlets are coming... possibly even federal licensing of mechanics UN-

LESS the industry does something about the problem... and does it fast. Little more than a year ago, few of us expected that federal controls over the automobile manufacturing industry would come so soon... or be so extensive. If the large gasoline companies which operate—either directly or through franchise—the bulk of the nation's auto service stations cannot voluntarily bring about honesty and responsibility, as well as competence, on the part of mechanics, they are going to be forced to do so by Uncle Sam. And they will find that federal regulation will hurt profits.

Blue Cross Denied Rate Increase

Insurance Commissioner Newton I. Steers, Jr., has written (under date of November 21, 1967) to Maryland Hospital Service, Inc. (Blue Cross) advising that he disapproves the rate increase requested in their letter of October 19, 1967. Blue Cross had requested an increase in rates for standard non-group subscribers averaging 26.2%.

Commissioner Steers, in his letter, urged again that Blue Cross institute a maximum per diem reimbursement rate. For example, if hospital costs were running $53 per day, Blue Cross might select a figure such as $45 per day for its maximum reimbursement rate, with the patient paying the difference. The Commissioner stated that "under the present system the patient-subscriber has absolutely no incentive even to attempt to lower his hospital bill... (and) at present, it is a natural temptation for the average patient to linger a little longer than truly necessary. (Patients) at present... lose not a nickel by prolonging their stay." His suggestion would give them some incentive to help hold down hospital charges, and at the same time reduce their own charges.

WFMD To Present
Special Broadcast

Radio Station WFMD, the CBS Radio affiliate in Frederick, will present a special broadcast called "Classroom USA: at issue—Vietnam", from 2:10 to 3:00 p.m., Thursday, December 7, 1967.

Of special interest to college and senior high school students, this program will feature Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, U. S. Senator Thurston Morton of Kentucky, and a high school student from Charlotte, N. C., New York City, and Winnetka, Illinois, as panelists.

The CBS Radio Network will conduct a poll immediately following the broadcast to determine student reaction to the panelists' discussions and results, on a national scale, will be evaluated and publicized.

Many schools in the Mid-Maryland area will participate in this poll and WFMD will present the opinions of the students in this area subsequent to the broadcast.

The total cost of the nation's traffic accidents was more than $12 billion in 1966 according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Cong. Mathias Is Hospitalized

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias Jr. was listed in satisfactory condition Monday night following surgery for a ruptured disc at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

An aide for the Maryland congressman said he was alert and in a very good humor.

There were no complications from the operation which his doctor described as very routine, the aide said.

The 45-year-old Republican congressman from the Sixth District had been treated for the same problem Nov. 2 to 13 at the Naval Medical Center in Bethesda.

The operation which will keep Mathias in the hospital for about 10 days, will have no effect on his plans for the coming election, his spokesman reported.

Spanish, French Plays Scheduled At St. Joseph's

Spanish and French students at St. Joseph College will present two plays on Dec. 11 at 7 p.m. in dePaul Auditorium. The free performance will be open to the public.

Le Mariage Force, a comedy by Moliere, will be performed by the French class. Mary Anne Kelly, Arlington, Va., and Anne Louise Maher, Shamokin, Pa., have the lead roles in this satire on 17th century manners. French instructor Mrs. Anne Miller, will direct the play.

The Spanish classes will present Auto de los Reyes Mayos, the traditional Christmas pageant of the Three Wise Men going to Bethlehem. Dr. Irma R. Gonzalez, associate professor, will direct the classical Spanish play, first staged in the 13th century.

The breaking of the pinata, a paper-mache balloon filled with candies, fruits and gifts, will be the high point of the fiesta following the plays. The pinata is a traditional part of the Spanish-speaking peoples' Christmas festivities.

Many people think it is unlucky to postpone a wedding. This superstition has no foundation—so long as you keep postponing it.—The Gosport, Pensacola, Fla.

The stormy civil upheavals in Detroit during July, 1967, resulted in about $85 million in insured losses.

worked hard to buy the place and our taxes are over $300 a year. We have worked to keep it from eroding. We have just gotten a new assessment which undoubtedly will double our taxes.

I am sure we would not be allowed to go hunting on the streets of Baltimore or Emmitsburg, or any other town. You would be after us with a warrant for our arrest if we even fired a gun.

We go to town to purchase groceries or to see a friend and if we don't put money in the parking meter, we are fined for using the precious street of approximately 10 feet of curbing without paying for it.

Yesterday, we found our "No Trespassing" signs had been torn down by the 'sportsman' or 'hunter'. The first fifteen minutes of hunting season the place sounded like Hill 875 in Vietnam.

If we ask them to get off, they remark that they were just walking through, and they really weren't hunting on our land.

In America, a man's home is supposed to be his castle. But sometimes I wonder. If we could be sure of our identity of the person, could get a hold of a policeman, or game warden, and take time to go to court we probably could make an example of some of these people.

It is time, I think that we farmers band together and charge about $5.00 per day for each person who hunts on each farmer's land—if they have a dog $10.

set up numerous game preserves which are stocked with game, and which is not owned by individuals, and keep from making the farmer mad by taking over his property to hunt and kill his game.

Discuss Charity Fair Plans

Medical Folklore Usually Wrong

While much of medical folklore is now obsolete and largely forgotten, there are still many completely erroneous beliefs about their health held by sizeable numbers of people in our so-called age of enlightenment. TODAY'S HEALTH GUIDE, the American Medical Association's manual of health information for the American family, points out that grandma is not always wrong in her concepts of health. But she often is wrong. The book lists some of the common misconceptions about health— Eating between meals is always harmful (untrue). Bad breath means disease (not so). Milk should not be taken at the same time as sour fruits (not so). Proteins and carbohydrates should not be eaten at the same meal (incorrect). Daily bowel movements are necessary for health (untrue). Pain in the back must indicate kidney disease (incorrect). Pain in the abdomen means an overloaded stomach (wrong). A laxative is good for abdominal pain (it is sometimes dangerous). Food kept in an open tin can is necessarily poisonous (not if properly refrigerated). Scales from scarlet fever and measles spread the disease (nose and throat secretions actually do). Sewer gas makes people sick (no—it's just unpleasant). Pimples and boils indicate bad blood (they are due to infections). Boric acid strengthens the eyes (it does not). Fried and highly seasoned foods are harmful (not in moderation). A cold can be broken up or cured (it cannot). You feed a cold and starve a fever (no). Eye muscle exercises will eliminate the need for glasses (a dangerous fallacy). Vegetarianism is good for health (it simply makes good nutrition more difficult). 10/30/67
