Most Anything At A Glance

- By Abigail -

I am in receipt of a letter from an out-of-town subscriber who is a former Emmitsburg and who has relatives buried here. On a recent visit to one of the cemeteries on the outskirts of town, she visited the graveyard and lamented over the condition of the grounds. I understand that renovating work has been going on there lately and will write no more on the subject until I have made an appraisal of the situation.

The joint Community Show sponsored by the Emmitsburg and Thurmont Granges is now history and the affair was judged an outstanding success. Many prior years' records were exceeded by the efforts of the two towns and it was an extreme pleasure to learn that an Emmitsburg girl was crowned Queen of the show. The exhibits grew greatly in number this year, the competition was stiffer and more competitive and the crowds attending the two nights broke all records. It really is gratifying to see the two towns being able to join hands and to get things done that are beneficial to Northern Frederick County.

The action at the recent conventions of the two major parties has done much to awaken the American people that they have had little or no say as to who their choice for President would be. The voting has been done by some selected delegates named by county committees, many of whom were totally unknown to the voters, even when they saw them via television. A recent poll indicates that the public wants this system changed and is calling for a national primary election where everyone's vote counts. The most recent survey shows that 76% favor the national primary and 66% favor the abolishment of the Electoral College which makes the final decision. I concur with this school of thought and hope it can be effected at the earliest opportunity.

Looking over the list of donors to the Swimming Pool Fund Drive published each week in the Chronicle I was happy to see several familiar names from out-of-town. Seems as though wherever you go you take a little bit of Emmitsburg with you. It would be most gratifying to see more out-of-town names on the list. How about it folks? Every dollar counts. With the first report made public, over $3000 has been raised but there's a long road to travel and we have just gotten started. If you haven't been solicited, by some chance, why not mail in your donation. We cannot and must not fail in this magnitudinous local venture.

Lions To Hear Charter Home Rule

The regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club was held Monday evening at Mt. Manor Restaurant, President Milton A. Sewell presiding.

One guest, Frank Warren, Taneytown, was present. Lion Floyd L. Lewis, of the Sight Conservation Committee, reported a request for eyeglasses by a local indigent mother and child. The president announced that a zone meeting would be held at Betty's Restaurant, Frederick, Wednesday night and that he and Secretary Eugene Sappington would represent the club at the meeting.

Lion J. Norman Flax reported the findings of two appraisals obtained in the Civic Field. A donation of $15 was authorized for the Municipal Band uniform drive. The group has extended an invitation to the League of Women Voters to send a representative here at the October 14 meeting to explain Charter Home Rule.

Cub Scouts To Meet

The Emmitsburg Cub Scout Pack 1060 will meet tonight in the Clubhouse, West Main Street, at 7:30 o'clock.

Father Flynn Vice Rector At MSM Seminary

Rev. Harry J. Flynn, instructor in homiletics and speech, has been appointed vice rector of Mount Saint Mary's Seminary.

The announcement was made by Rt. Rev. George D. Mulcahy, seminary rector. Msgr. Mulcahy said the appointment was made with the approval of his Eminence, Lawrence Cardinal Shehan, Archbishop of Baltimore and ecclesiastical superior of the seminary.

"Father Flynn is a very dedicated priest and a guiding spirit on the seminary faculty," Msgr. Mulcahy said. "I am happy to be associated with him and have his assistance as vice rector."

An alumnus of the Mount seminary with the class of 1960, Fr. Flynn was born in Schenectady, N. Y., earned a masters degree majoring in English literature at Siena College in Albany, and is a priest of the Diocese of Albany. He joined the Mount's faculty in 1965 after teaching at Catholic Central High School and serving as assistant pastor of St. Peter's Church at Troy, N. Y. for five years.

In addition to his new responsibilities as vice rector, Father Flynn will continue as instructor in homiletics and speech at the seminary, and executive secretary of the Mount Saint Mary's College National Alumni Association.

Navy Tests Now Available To Students

Applications for the Navy's twenty-third annual Regular NROTC qualification test are now available according to Mrs. Margaret Polley, vice principal at the Emmitsburg High School. This nationwide examination will be given on December 14, 1968, and all eligible male high school seniors and graduates may apply.

A successful candidate receives financial aid for four years of college. This includes tuition and educational fees, books, uniforms, and $50.00 per month subsistence allowance. After successfully completing baccalaureate degree requirements and naval training, graduates are commissioned as officers in the U. S. Navy or Marine Corps.

Regular NROTC midshipmen participate in three summer at-sea training periods with various naval units. These periods assist them in learning about the variety of interesting and challenging opportunities available to them as naval or marine corps officers.

Registrations for the test will close November 15, 1968. 1969 NROTC Bulletins containing eligibility requirements and qualifying test applications are available from Mrs. Polley or the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station at 4 W. Church St., Frederick, Md.

Junior Soccer Here Saturday

Emmitsburg's newly organized Midget and Junior booters opened their season last Saturday at Fairfield. Approximately forty boys made their first start in soccer in two exciting and hard-fought games.

The Junior booters, 12-14 years, aided by Mike Olinger's goal, played two overtime matches to end in a 1-1 tie. The Midget booters, 10-12 years, played a good game, but needed a goal by Frank Saylor to preserve them a 1-1 double overtime tie.

Action continues again for these youngsters Saturday on the local field at 5:00 o'clock when they take on the Fairfield kickers. All parents and friends are invited to come out and watch these talented youngsters.

Teen-Agers Clip Pole On Main Street Friday Night

Two Emmitsburg youths were injured after their car crashed while apparently attempting to elude a pursuing Frederick County Sheriff's patrol car.

Shortly after 11:30 Friday night Deputies William Shepley and Crumel P. Jacobs, Jr., observed a 1960 sedan spinning wheels on Fraley Road about a half mile west of Emmitsburg.

When the Deputies attempted to stop the vehicle it headed for West Main Street in Emmitsburg at a high rate of speed. On West Main the vehicle apparently went out of control shearing off a utility pole, sideswiping a tree and hitting the rear of a late model car parked on West Main St. The car belonged to Mrs. Amy Brandenburg of Revena, Ky., who was visiting friends in Emmitsburg.

When the speeding vehicle hit the parked car the driver and passenger were thrown from the vehicle into the roadway.

Michael William Smith, 16, of 407 Lincoln Ave. in Emmitsburg, was the driver of the car. Apparently Smith left the scene without identifying himself.

The passenger, Mark Anthony Gelwicks, 17, of 11 DePaul St., Emmitsburg, was taken to the Annie Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, in the VFW ambulance, where he was admitted with multiple lacerations.

Gelwicks told the officers who were driving the car. Smith was later treated and released from the Hospital.

Smith was charged with four traffic violations by the Sheriff's Deputies. Charges were: spinning wheels, operating a motor vehicle without a license, reckless driving, and hit and run. The trial date was set for Oct. 2 at 2 p.m. before the Emmitsburg Trial Magistrate. Officers said there are charges pending on the owner of the car, Gelwicks.

The vehicle was a total loss.

Police Seeking Hit-Runner

Pennsylvania State Police reported that they are searching for a 1956 Oldsmobile sedan with damage to the left front including a broken headlight, that caused $1,500 damage to an Emmitsburg motorist's vehicle on the Hanover Road, two miles east of Bonneville at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The operator of the car, identified as Stephen P. Orndorff, Emmitsburg R2, and his passenger escaped injury. Orndorff told state police that the accident occurred when the unidentified northbound driver crossed over into the eastbound lane of the highway sideswiping his vehicle, causing $1,500 damage. An investigation is being continued.

Treated At Hospital

Beverly Kemp, 22, Emmitsburg, was treated at the Warner Hospital, Saturday, for injuries she sustained in a motorcycle accident near Emmitsburg, Friday. A hospital spokesman said the Emmitsburg woman was released after being treated for minor injuries to her left knee, right wrist and left ankle.

Observes Birthday

Francis S. K. Matthews, dean of Emmitsburg businessmen, was honored at a dinner last Sunday afternoon in honor of his 80th birthday.

He was entertained by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rice, at their home. The octogenarian has two sisters, 84 and 88, and continues to operate his two business places six days a week, plus several nights.

Baby Beef Sale Tonight At Fair

Some Emmitsburg baby beef, raised by local members of the Frederick County 4-H Beef Club, will go on sale at the Frederick Fairgrounds tonight at 5 p.m. It is understood that at least 14 beves from this area will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Take part and encourage these young boys and girls by supporting this sale. Remember, "Youth is our most important product!" Be proud to be named as a supporter of the sale. You will be rewarded with top beef throughout the year and the pleasant feeling of having helped youth reach higher goals in life. Their success depends on your support. They like their steers—you will too!

Thurmont and Emmitsburg Granges and the Catactin Future Farmers of America Chapter are well pleased with the huge success of their community show. The 12th annual show was held Friday and Saturday, Sept. 20 and 21 at the Thurmont High School.

There was a total of 1757 exhibits entered by 406 persons of the communities. Chester Fox, Junior Show Chairman, was master of ceremonies for the Friday night program. The program opened with invocation given by Paul Baumgardner, FFA Chaplain, James Spahr sang, "God Bless America," accompanied by Miss Gail Kennedy.

Special feature this year was the Maryland Turkey Producers Association show. Mr. Ross T. Smith and Mr. E. George DeLauter, members of the board, were present. Also present were Mr. Jim Keilholtz, co-chairman of the Junior Show; Mr. and Mrs. John Crum, Maryland State Fair Board; Miss Marian Metcalfe, Maryland Dairy Princess; Miss Bonnie Peiper, Frederick County Farm Queen; and Miss Drusilla Tresselt, 1967-68 Chapter Sweetheart. Remarks were given by Grange Masters Harold Late and Bernard Welty. Co-Chairmen, William Baker and Rodman Myers, made brief remarks.

Mr. Ross Smith announced the Catactin Future Farmers of America Chapter had chosen Miss Clara Tyler of Emmitsburg, a senior of Emmitsburg High School, to be their Chapter Sweetheart and Community Farm Queen for the 1968-1969 school year. Miss Tyler was presented a Chapter Sweetheart jacket by the FFA and a corsage and necklace by the Thurmont and Emmitsburg Granges. Miss Tyler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler.

CYO Activities Are Planned

Last Friday, Sept. 20, the members of Saint Joseph's CYO enjoyed a slightly cool evening of playing games, roasting marshmallows, and singing songs, taken care of by the Social Committee. The chairman of the committee is E. J. Flaherty.

The evening began with a short business meeting being presided over by the president, Leo Orndorff. Plans were made for the following Friday and Leo announced that the CYO would have a publicity chairman. Elected to this job was Debbie Vaughn. After the meeting the adult advisors from Saint Joseph's College led the group with a few fun-filled games. Following the games everyone nibbled on roasted marshmallows. For the remainder of the evening songs were sung and more games were played.

John Hollinger, chairman of the Cultural Committee, has announced that this Friday, Sept. 27, plans have been made to have a Coffee House at Saint Euphemia's Hall from 8 to 11. There will be an entrance fee of 25c. Entertainment will be provided and all sorts of delicious refreshments will be sold at a very low price. All members are urged to attend since this is something new and a lot of work has been put into it to make it a big success.

Jim Phelan Named Mount Athletic Director

James J. Phelan, for 14 years coach of the Mount Saint Mary's College basketball team, has been appointed director of athletics at the college.

Phelan succeeds Dr. John J. Dillon, Jr.

Dr. Dillon submitted his resignation as head of the athletic program last March, asking Rt. Rev. Hugh J. Phillips, president, to make it effective as of the fall term. He said he was resigning the post after 17 years because of health considerations and to devote more of his attention to academic affairs.

"The college's athletic program made very significant strides under the leadership of Dr. Dillon," Msgr. Phillips said. "The school and students join in publicly expressing our appreciation of his dedicated work."

Praise for the new director of athletics was also voiced by the president.

"With Mr. Phelan as coach, Mount Saint Mary's literally made a name for itself in the scholastic basketball world. We look forward to new progress in all phases of our athletic program under his direction."

Phelan, now beginning his fifteenth year at the Mount, guided his cage teams to a 281-97 record, one of the tops in the nation. During his years as coach, Phelan's Mountaineers won seven Mason-Dixon titles and three NCAA eastern championships.

In 1962, Phelan was named College Coach of the Year after the Mount captured the NCAA college division championship.

Phelan, a Philadelphia native, sparked as a player for Ken Loeffler's LaSalle Explorers. He was named to the All-Philadelphia team between 1948 and 1951 and was given a place in LaSalle's Hall of Fame. Upon graduating, he entered the Marine Corps where he led a service cage team to the All-Marine finals and was named his team's most valuable player. Later he played with the Philadelphia Warriors and became Loeffler's assistant at LaSalle.

Tydings Accuses Agnew Of Delaying Sixes Bridge Dam

Sen. Joseph D. Tydings this week criticized Governor Spiro T. Agnew and Congressman Charles Mathias on the Sixes Bridge Dam issue.

Tydings, in a letter to Agnew, called on the Governor to submit the report on the dam requested by the Army Corps of Engineers. "Authorization of the dam cannot be granted until the State of Maryland has responded," Tydings said.

"I know," said the Senator, there are unexpected demands on the Governor's time. But the Sixes Bridge Dam is important to the people of Maryland. And since I fully expect Mr. Agnew still to be Governor of Maryland on November 6th, I believe he will want to be attentive to the needs of the state between now and then."

Tydings pointed out in a statement today that, "The recent statement by Representative Mathias concerning the delay in the Sixes Bridge Dam conveniently neglects to mention the failure of the Republican governor to submit the State's report."

"The Republican candidate's delight in pointing out the delay in the Federal government is somewhat incongruous with his strange silence about Maryland's report."

"If one is going to point fingers, let's point them at those responsible." Tydings suggested. The Sixes Bridge Dam would be built on the Monocacy River, north of Frederick, would cost $20.5 million, and would supply water to Frederick, as well as help maintain the water flow of the Potomac.

Serving In South China Sea
Seamon Lewis S. Maser, USN, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Maser, E. Main St., Emmitsburg, Md., is serving on board the guided missile destroyer USS Joseph Strauss in the South China Sea near the Demilitarized Zone.

While operating off the coast of Dong Hoi, more than 50 miles north of the Demilitarized Zone, the Strauss came under fire from enemy coastal emplacements. The USS Rupertus, steaming with the Strauss on gunfire support missions, immediately returned the fire, causing several secondary explosions and halting the enemy fire.

The following day, Strauss fired at an enemy supply bridge near Dong Hoi. Spotter planes reported the bridge, was only 25 feet wide, was hit dead center.

Freeway Driving Requires Skill

Driving today is increasingly done on freeways—and freeway driving requires new know-how and responses on the part of each motorist, according to the AAA Automobile Club of Maryland.

Executive Vice President Harry E. Uhler said this week that uncertainty about exiting from freeways had forced some drivers into unsafe practices. Examples of these are drastically reducing speed in a fastmoving lane when an exit appears unexpectedly, or changing lanes with too little or improper warning to other motorists.

Probably the most dangerous maneuver, Mr. Uhler said, is made by those who try to correct an exit miscalculation by stopping and attempting to back up to the exit. More jurisdictions ban this practice. Trying to spot an exit without the idea of where it will appear often results in the choice of a wrong one, a mistake which adds both time and mileage to the trip, not to mention the confusion of locating the way back to the desired point.

A few tips for safe freeway driving from the Automobile Club of Maryland are:

Know in advance which exit is the correct one, plus the one before it for advance warning. Move into the designated lane well ahead of the exit, after clearly signaling the change maneuver. Use the deceleration lane for slowing down and obey exit ramp traffic signs.

Where the exit leads to an older highway, an immediate adjustment in driving practices is necessary, including reduced speed and compensation for two-way traffic, narrower lanes, congestion, grade crossings and traffic lights.

To Those I Promise To Remember

Cool and quiet as the moon
Sickled the silence of parting

One-day mail service to any place in the world could well become commonplace and inexpensive in the future. Messages would be relayed from local "post offices" to the nearest satellite. The satellites (powered by nickel-cadmium batteries constantly under charge from solar cells) would then redirect the message to earth.

Distortion From Chicago!

Communists and their dupes among the "Yippi" and other revolutionary youth groups in America were acting on well-planned and well-rehearsed strategy when they agitated, rushed and attacked police and troops attempting to protect the citizenry and the city of Chicago during the Democratic National Convention. In their actions they were willfully breaking the law, as planned, while police and troops were upholding the law and protecting Chicago and Convention delegates from the kind of rioting which the Communists have fomented in 150 American cities.

Mayor Daley said later that intelligence information from reliable sources had reported subversive cadres in the Chicago "demonstrations" planned not only to massively break laws and assault law enforcement forces but also to assassinate Vice President Hubert Humphrey, and Senators McCarthy and McGovern and assault the Convention.

Facts Plain To Read

The Communist press within the United States served as the recruitment, planning and informational clearing-house for the assault on Chicago. The assault's purpose was to aid the "Dove" movement in America by creating public sympathy for it; and to further aid World Communism by depicting themselves with the Vietcong. Although I have yet to see the fact reported, Vietcong battle flags were carried by "Dove" leaders in the park demonstrations, and the United States flag was burned.

A complete blueprint for the violent activities was published in the Guardian, the newspaper which Congress has branded as a "virtual propaganda arm of Soviet Russia." The Guardian said editorially that the Chicago assaults would constitute a step forward in the revolution to destroy the American system, yet "until we are able to develop a Movement (revolution) with the potential for taking power in the United States—or seriously disrupting power—we are losers . . . It is our responsibility as radicals and as revolutionaries to organize for the overthrow of the capitalist system and to replace capitalism with a socialist (as in Russia) system." The key word here is "organize." The revolutionists, white and black, are under the organizational leadership of Communists. (Above Emphasis and Parentheses added)

Logists Well Organized

Along with the editorial emphasizing the importance of the Chicago assault, the Guardian published a SCHEDULE of revolutionary activities; a list of MOVEMENT (revolution CENTERS), and gave such special instructions as: "Use your head and don't tie up all the phone lines into Movement centers and offices. Look first at the Daily Ramparts or check with the information booth in Lincoln Park. If you still have a problem the following numbers will come in handy: NATIONAL MOBILIZATION OFFICE, 939-2666; YIPPIE HEADQUARTERS, 943-5282; LEGAL DEFENSE, 641-1470 and 71, 72, 73."

They planned and trained for massive law-breaking, and the Guardian instructions said: "The Mobilization staff has also undertaken and largely accomplished an ambitious program of organization support services. First of these is a legal committee put together by Gene

Cerruti of the National Lawyers Guild (listed by Congress as subversive, a Communist-front). This group consists of some 35 Chicago lawyers who are organized to go beyond the 'August Troubles' to become the permanent legal defense arm of the Movement (revolution) in Chicago. (Above parentheses added)

60 Doctors, Four Hospitals

Senator McCarthy, it will be recalled, "donated" with press fanfare, his physician to render first aid among the battered youth. But the Movement had made elaborate plans to attend its own wounded warriors—weeks ahead of the planned violence. The Guardian reassured the mobsters-in-training: "The medical group, spearheaded by Barbara Brits and the Student Health Organization (SHO), has assembled 60 doctors and is setting up four Movement 'hospitals.' It is also conducting first aid classes for the Marshals (cuts and mace), and has several mobile units."

"The housing group," said the Guardian, "has conducted a search of the city for beds, couches and floor space and—dig this—has them all on IBM punch cards. This seeming irony of Mobilization staffers checking out those big computer print-out sheets may have repercussions in Movement political tactics of the future!"

The Movement's Communist leaders were well prepared, as usual, to get the fighting and violence on film for distribution throughout the world. "The Newsreel (the Movement's own cinema news service) and the Chicago Film Co-op will be shooting the whole affair from beginning to end for both agit-prop (world-wide Communist Agitation-Propaganda) distribution and legal defense."

If the TV networks were not aware of these detailed plans for assaulting Chicago police, why not? If they were aware, why did they fail to report these vital facts? Why was the American public given a distorted and/or biased report? Ask the networks.

Insurance Claim Deadline Nears

Insurance Commissioner Newton I. Steers, Jr. this week announced that Maryland citizens who have been insured by Workmen's and Suffolk Mutual Insurance Company should know that a deadline of January 14, 1969, has been established by court order as the last day for the filing of claims in the liquidation proceeding, which has been undertaken by the New York State Insurance Department.

Commissioner Steers said, "I have been informed by the New York authorities that all creditors of this company and all persons having any unsatisfied claims or demands against it must present them in writing to the New York Department by January 14."

"The Supreme Court of New York County last month directed that Workmen's and Suffolk be liquidated and I am further advised that the rights and liabilities of the corporation and of all persons under insurance and other contracts and obligations of the corporation were to cease and be fixed as of midnight on the 23rd day of July, 1968.

"Communications relating to the corporation and its liquidation should be addressed to Issac Goldstein, Special Deputy Superintendent, Workmen's and Suffolk Mutual Insurance Company, In Liquidation, 116 John Street, New York, N. Y. 10038.

"Any Maryland policyholders of this company against whom actions have been pending, and concerning which the corporation may be liable and which have been defended up to the date of the order of liquidation on their behalf by an attorney employed or retained by the corporation, should be advised that the employment or retaining of the attorney has been terminated by the court order. I would urge any such person to either retain that attorney as his attorney to continue to represent him in the action, or to substitute an attorney of his own choice.

"The Advisory Service of the Maryland Insurance Department will try to assist any of our citizens who need help. We are not, however, able to take the place of an attorney where such services are indicated."

Burial expenses for an eligible veteran—up to $250—are payable by the Veterans Administration within two years of burial.

Of the 26,198,000 living war veterans at the end of March 1968, 9,000 were Spanish-American war veterans. Average age: 88.7.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Fourth-Quarter Business And Financial Forecast

On the even of the vital fourth quarter, business expansion (with a strong assist from inflation) is continuing. In most instances, comparisons with a year ago are favorable. The duration and extent of this expansion will depend on fiscal and monetary policy, and trend of capital outlays, the income and attitudes of consumers, and the course of our involvement in Vietnam.

For the October - December period, our Babson Forecast for the economy is moderately bullish. Careful analysis of pertinent factors points to more pluses than minuses, even though much of the gain over a year ago will reflect inflationary pressures.

Industrial Production

While digestion of heavy strike-hedge steel inventories, a less exuberant advance in total outlays for plant and equipment, and other selected economic dislocations or setbacks will likely curb the upturn in the Federal Reserve Index of Production over the next three months, we feel the trend will still be up. Fourth-quarter comparisons with the 1967 period should approximate — and could even somewhat exceed — the current 5% increase over a year ago.

Gross National Product

This economic measuring gauge will edge higher in coming months. We are sticking to our earlier prediction that the GNP will round out the year by showing an average increase over 1967 of better than 8%. The fourth-quarter gains will provide additional stimulus for retail trade in the pre-holiday buying season.

Money Supply and Interest Rates

Failure of the tax surcharge to cool the inflationary fires—plus the unwillingness of LBJ and the Congress to slash federal spending — practically assures a powerful demand for loans of all kinds this autumn. Once again the money managers, the Federal Reserve, are left standing alone to blunt the onslaughts of rising costs and prices. But we look for no determined action by the Fed until after elections. And any move toward curtailment could hardly have an impact on the economy until 1969. Hence, we expect interest rates to hold around historically high levels. Any decline will be moderate. However, availability of accommodations—at a price—should present no problem for sound borrowers.

Capital Outlays

Despite probable cutbacks from earlier expectations, business spending for new plant and equipment promises to continue expanding through the closing months of this year. Best bet is that for 1968 as a whole the increase in capital outlays versus a year earlier will be about 4%, the federal tax surcharge notwithstanding. A plus, but no strong support for the economy.

Farm Prospects

A moderate but very welcome boost in farm prices has occurred in recent months. This, together with a larger volume of farm marketings and a 10% increase in government payments to farmers, augurs well for fourth-quarter results. Production expenses are still moving to higher ground. Although they are slated to top those of last year by nearly $1.5 billion, they will be outpaced by cash receipts and government payments. Look for net realized farm income to be at least 5% above the $14.2 billion attained last year, with income per farm possibly topping the $5,000 figure.

Foreign Affairs Outlook

Despite heavy casualties inflicted this summer on the North Viets and the Viet Cong, their resolve to fight on appears strong. The odds favor no immediate easing, but President Johnson will certainly push for a dramatic pre-election breakthrough. An agreement with Hanoi calling for mutual de-escalation or perhaps even a cease-fire should certainly not be ruled out. But even if peace — or the early promise of peace — should come, cutbacks in military spending would be slow to follow. The Czechoslovak occupation by Russia, the increasingly hostile attitudes of Israel and Arabs, and our commitments in other areas dictate a continued firm U. S. military posture and continued high defense expenditures.

Impact Of Tax Surcharge

So far, the braking effect upon the economy of the 10% federal tax surcharge has been but faintly discernible. Inflation predominates, unleashed by the upsurging of wages and prices, a still rising money supply, and expanding total government expenditures. During the coming three months the impact of the tax surcharge on business will be minimal. Ultimately the effect on individuals will be more noticeable, though it will vary depending upon size of income and other considerations, including the ratio of debt to assets. At any rate, the tax surcharge will do no more than slow the advance in business during the October-December period.

Employment, Wages And Prices

Currently, the number of employed in the nation tops the year-ago figure by 1.3 million, and only about 3½% of the labor force is unemployed. For the final three months of the year, we are forecasting at least a normal seasonal rise in employment, and we predict that unemployment will be somewhat further down-shaded. Salary and wage income will trend moderately higher, but the outlook for prices is less encouraging. Wholesale quotes, on balance, are edging upward, propelled by higher costs. However, upcoming price increases will be at a slower rate than earlier in the year. Their effect on consumer buying intentions should be offset as boosts in total personal income outpace price advances.

Consumer Income And Purchasing Power

Among the more favorable aspects of general business (especially as it affects retailers) is the continued smart uptrend in total personal income — an uptrend which makes consumer buying the most important single factor in the still sizeable forward momentum of the economy. Personal income rose $5.5 billion in July to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $689.2

The United States paper industry's investments in facilities to protect the nation's air and water from pollution have exceeded to date $415 million, and annual expenditures to operate these facilities exceed $25 million, according to the American Paper Institute.

fully supportable, though not all retailers can hope to reach this goal. Of course, a good deal of the increase — perhaps as much as one-half — will be due to higher prices. Profit margins will be thinner than a year ago, necessitating stricter cost control all along the line if profits themselves are to be maintained at satisfactory levels.

Installment Debt.

We view with misgiving the nation's installment debt, which has been moving up at what may prove to be too fast a clip. However, we do not feel that the danger point will be reached this year. Large though the increase has been—and likely as further advances are—we are still some distance from a total that would be out of line with rising employment and disposable personal income. However, soaring installment debt could well be a serious problem sometime in 1969.

Christmas Business

The additional strength in industrial production and Gross National Product which we are forecasting for the final quarter of this year, together with increased liquidity of consumers as a whole, should assure good gains in yuletide trade over and above the records set in 1967. A 6% boost in dollar volume compared with last year's fourth quarter appears billions will be thinner than a year ago, necessitating stricter cost control all along the line if profits themselves are to be maintained at satisfactory levels.

The Volga Boatrace

If pulp fiction writers want to pen a story about "fixed" horse races today they have to spin their yarn in another country and, according to a recent Associated Press story from Moscow, the U. S. S. R. affords a good locale.

It would appear from the AP dispatch that the Muscovites had been studying their Damon Runyon. The race-fixing gang exposed by a Russian literary magazine included a character nicknamed Intelligent, a former burglar, and another known as The Souze.

Soviet Russia has not yet "invented" the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, but it seems that they have some alert officials at the Moscow Hippodrome. An investigation revealed that some of the jockeys were in the employ of the underworld gang and others were threatened with physical harm if they didn't ride to orders.

Horse racing in Russia is condemned by Communist China as a sign of "creeping capitalism," but the magazine that exposed the ring did not call for a shut-down of racing. It seems that the legitimate theater in Moscow would operate at a loss were it not for a subsidy from the race tracks. Another reason cited by the magazine for cleaning up and keeping the race track going was the need for horse racing "as a center of propaganda of scientific achievements in horse breeding and as a place of cultural recreation."

D.M.V. REPORT

By D. Murray Franklin
Public Information Officer
Md. Dept. of Motor Vehicles

DMV Cautious, Concerned
When Restoring Driving Privileges

Some persons whose driving privileges have been revoked for "driving under the influence," erroneously construe the 90-day waiting period required by law before applying for reinstatement, as an automatic termination of their revocation. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Section 106 of the Maryland Motor Laws states that drivers who are revoked for the first time must wait ninety days before applying for reinstatement. Second and subsequent revocations require a minimum waiting period of one year before applying for reinstatement.

Purpose of the most universal misconception lies in the belief that merely applying for reinstatement means the actual restoration of one's driving privileges. To the contrary, an application for reinstatement only marks the beginning of at least five Departmental hearings, numerous reviews, personal investigations and attendance at the Driver Rehabilitation Clinics, all of which require from four months to more than a year, depending on the status of the individual's case. This, in addition to the legal waiting period prior to commencement of the reinstatement process, adds up to a total of from seven or eight months to nearly several years in some instances.

When the courts notify DMV of a conviction for operating under the influence of intoxicants or narcotic drugs, a mandatory revocation is imposed immediately.

DMV notifies the driver and requests the return of any and all licenses in his possession. The driver may retain his vehicle registration and tags in order that other members of his family may operate his vehicle, providing he files an SR-22 Certificate of Insurance, denoting that the vehicle is insured.

The reinstatement process must be instituted by the revoked driver, but only after the legal waiting period has elapsed (ninety days for first revocation; one year for second and subsequent revocations).

Upon receipt of the driver's request for reinstatement, an initial review is made of his driver's record and case history file to determine his eligibility for reinstatement.

If eligible, the driver is advised to file a formal application for reinstatement, accompanied by a $10.00 filing fee. The fee is the result of legislation effective July 1, 1968.

This application form is of the personal history type requiring several competent endorsers. Upon receipt of this application a second review is scheduled to evaluate its contents. Each request for reinstatement is handled on an individual basis, permitting special attention to the applicant's driving record. Instances of previous violations, accidents, suspensions, and point accumulations are carefully noted by the Review Board. Out of this record of past performances the Board attempts to evaluate the driver's personal capabilities and attitudes to determine if some special problem or set of circumstances can be pinpointed as a contributing influence to unlawful operation.

If the current violation is the only one on record, the Review Board usually assigns the application to DMV's Investigative Division for a thorough investigation of the applicant's habits and personal characteristics. In particular, the Investigator will attempt to determine whether or not the applicant has continued to drive during this period of revocation.

If the applicant has violated the Department's revocation, the Review Board will deny the driver's application for reinstatement. Here again, the regular waiting period must elapse before the driver can re-apply and again, the same procedures of hearings and investigations will be duplicated.

If the applicant chooses to appeal the Board's decision, he will be advised by a Hearing Officer of the reasons why his application has been denied and what steps he must now take for reinstatement.

If, however, the third review was favorable, the Review Board will schedule the applicant for a Departmental hearing before a License Reviewer. At this meeting, the Hearing Officer has an opportunity to meet the applicant face to face and to evaluate him personally. If, in the opinion of the Hearing Officer, the applicant should be reinstated, he will be scheduled to attend the Driver Rehabilitation Clinics (one session a week for four consecutive weeks).

Under old business it was announced that the Rocky Ridge Progressive 4-H Club was held Sept. 16 at the home of Bill Carr. After the pledge to the 4-H and American flags were recited, roll call was answered by 57 of the club members. Linda Turbitt, a new member, was then welcomed into the club. Among these was Phyllis Wivell, who won a trip to Atlanta, Ga., for being third in the State in Horticulture judging. Committee reports were then given as follows: Dairy, Joe Wivell; beef, Ralph Keilholz; both committee, Margerite Bollinger; and the sewing project was discussed by M. R. Keilholz. Under new business it was announced that Phyllis Wivell would be the representative from the club in the 1968 4-H Queen contest.

A demonstration was then given by Bill Carr on "How to Put a Study Lamp Together." Afterwards a count of the people present was taken. To end the meeting Miss Turbitt was initiated into membership. Having no further business the meeting was adjourned.

WOMEN'S HEALTH

By Elizabeth Stewart Women's Medical News Service Colic Unrelated To Mom's Personality WASHINGTON, D.C.—Mothers, you've been found not guilty of inducing infant colic.

four months the colic usually disappears. Courage, parents. Accident Epidemic Hits Students LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Motorcycle accidents involving college students constitute a veritable epidemic.

you answer his questions accurately? Do you know how you might prevent glaucoma and that other thief of sight, cataracts? Do you know what good eye hygiene entails? A useful, simply written book that answers these and literally hundreds of other questions a layman might have about these precious orbs is Your Sight, written by Bernard Seeman and published by Little, Brown and Company. It costs $5.95.

It is recognized, however, that many persons, some federal employees, for example, do not have social security numbers. In cases where a social security number is not available, the hunting license will be issued without it.

Lutheran Women To Convene In Baltimore The sixth annual convention of the Maryland Lutheran Church Women will be held at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel, Baltimore, on September 29 and 30.

Among the delegates attending the convention from the Frederick District are Mrs. James Small of Emmitsburg, and Mrs. William E. Ervin of Thurmont.

Deer-Auto Collisions Costly Motorists using Maryland roads stand to lose more than a quarter of a million dollars through collisions with deer during 1968.

loss due to vehicles has risen annually. The figure was 71,073 in the first year of the study, and the national totals for the succeeding years were: 82,927, 109,678, 119,198 and 126,471.

In addition to this staggering cost to the motorist, the State will suffer loss of assets that are hard to figure. If one counted the value of deer as just meat, the figure might reasonably be set at $50 per animal.

Thompson speculates that the decline in percentage increases for the last two years is because reporting of deer losses has become more stable. But he says we may expect a 5 to 10 per cent increase every year from now on, until some method is found to decrease the collision rate.

Maryland motorists accounted for 952 of the deer killed in the entire state during 1967. This is a little more than 10 per cent of all the deer harvested by hunters in bow and arrow season, the regular firearms season, and the antlerless deer season.

When an applicant is ready to buy his 1968-69 license, he should bring his social security number with him. If someone is buying a license for another applicant, the purchaser should be furnished with the applicant's social security number. Attention to these details will save time in issuing the license.

And while accurate figures are kept on deer casualties there is no breakdown on the number of human casualties in these collisions. These estimates of the cost of deer-vehicle collisions are derived from a continuing study conducted by Fred A. Thompson of the New Mexico Department of Game and Fish.

That the problem is growing is shown by the rise in deer-auto collisions every year. The increase was estimated at 6 per cent in 1967 from 1966. A total of 126,471 deer were killed, or 7,273 more than in 1966.

Smoking and Your Health A Growing Breed: The Ex-Smoker

The Public Health Service estimates that there are now 19 million ex-smokers. Since 1964, the number of adults who smoke cigarettes has been decreasing at a rate of one million people per year.

Doctors are not alone. Many of our legislators who passed Senate Bill 559 have become ex-smokers. The individual ex-smoker faces some problems. Some find their spouses a bit more difficult to live with.

He can also save on life insurance. The State Mutual Life Assurance Company of America, Worcester, Mass., for example, has a 'non-cigarette smokers' plan offering a lower premium on new issues for persons who have not smoked any cigarettes in a year or longer.

South Asian Institute Starts
Saturday At College

St. Joseph College's Southeast Asian Institute will convene for the first of five sessions to be held this semester on Saturday morning, Sept. 28, at 9:30 o'clock in the lecture hall of Dodd Science Center.
Prof. Thomas M. Leonard, chairman of the department of history and government at the college and campus director of the Institute, has announced the first day's program will include a two-hour morning seminar ending at 11:30, a leisurely lunch period and an afternoon seminar from 1:30 to 3:30.
At the morning session Dr. Kenneth P. Landon, coordinating director of the Institute, and professor of Southeast Asian studies at American U, will discuss: "Southeast Asia: Crossroad of World Politics." The afternoon program will feature a slide lecture on "The Geography and Peoples" by James T. Halpin, a visiting lecturer at the Foreign Service Institute and a geographer for the CIA.
Dr. Landon, who along with his duties as professor, has been director of the Center for South and Southeast Asian Studies at the university since 1965, holds an A.B. from Wheaton College, a Th.B. from Princeton Theological Seminary, an M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. In 1963 he was decorated by the Thai Government Order of Exalted White Elephant, and in 1965 received the Superior Honor Award from the Dept. of State. He served for 10 years as a Presbyterian missionary in Siam, and has held professorships in philosophy and international relations. He has served with the Board of Economic Welfare, the Dept. of State, the National Security Council and the Philco-Tech Rep Division of Northeast Thailand. He speaks Thai and Chinese Swatow fluently and has published a number of works on Southeast Asia.

Mount Student Government
Given Recognition

The president of the student government at Mount St. Mary's College will attend and vote in the president's administrative staff meetings starting next week.
Rt. Rev. Hugh J. Phillips, president of the college, said the decision to have the students represented at the administration level is in keeping with his policy, inaugurated last year, to give students "new freedoms and new responsibilities in all phases of campus life, especially in matters pertinent to their immediate concerns."
"The young men here at Mount Saint Mary's are concerned about making this a still better college," said Msgr. Phillips. "By participating with us in the decision-making process, their concerns and interests will be more fully reflected in the decisions that are made."
James M. Dean, of Silver Spring, Md., this year's president of student government, will attend his first meeting of the college administration on Monday. At times when he cannot be present, he will be represented by the vice president, Thomas E. Mosmiller, of Baltimore.

In a related announcement, Msgr. Phillips said student representatives will also participate and have a vote in operation of the College Athletic Council. Student representatives so appointed are James Dean, as student body president, and John Baer, president of the Athletic Association. Representing the college administration on the council will be James J. Phelan, director of athletics; Frank X. Ligorano, dean of students; and Michael H. Scheerer, director of guidance and placement.

Msgr. Phillips announced new student representation in college affairs at the student assembly on September 15, and reports enthusiastic response to his action.

Prof. Leonard announced that the Institute is open to all college students, faculties of high schools and colleges, and other interested adults. Registration will take place between 9 and 9:30 o'clock, prior to the first session, and at the same time on Saturday, Oct. 5, in the lecture hall lobby, Dodd Science Center, or may be completed by mailing applications to Mr. Leonard.
The $15 registration fee is the only charge for the Institute which will provide for lecture-demonstrations by 13 experts on various aspects of Southeast Asian culture as well as an evening with the Indonesian Embassy Theater group.

Made possible through grants by the Breezewood Foundation and other contributing agencies, the purpose of the Institute, as described by Mr. Leonard, is "to introduce students of Saint Joseph College and other neighboring institutions, to one of the world's most important non-western cultures, to increase their awareness of its vital problems, and to encourage a continuing involvement in Southeast Asia after the participants have graduated from college."

The course may be taken for two credits or may be audited. The second day's meeting of the Institute will occur Oct. 5.

Enters Nursing

Included in the freshman class is John F. Richardson of Emmittsburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson.

The 6-cent Daniel Boone stamp, the third in the "American Folklore" series, was issued on September 26, at Frankfort, Kentucky, where the frontiersman of legendary exploits is buried.

Louis Macouillard, of San Francisco, designed the stamp, which is printed in two yellow inks. Attached to a wall of roughly-hewn boards are the tools of Boone's trade — A Pennsylvania rifle, a powder horn and a knife. The pipe tomahawk is a historical reminder that Boone had been adopted by the Shawnees. His birthdate is carved on the wall.

This commemorative stamp will be placed on sale today.

The 6-cent Arkansas River Navigation commemorative stamp will be issued October 1, 1968, at Little Rock, Arkansas.

This stamp is in recognition of the economic potential of the $1.2 billion project, which is nearing completion. It will eventually provide Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma with a barge route to the Mississippi River and will become one of the nation's major inland waterways.

This stamp will be placed on sale here, October 2, 1968. Collectors are requested to obtain their stamps, as soon as possible on or after the sale dates mentioned, due to limited quantities.

Post Office Boxholders are hereby reminded that rent is due, for those who pay by the quarter. This rent must be paid on or before September 30, 1968. Rents are not accepted on Saturdays. Rent payment will be accepted for the remaining three quarters of the Postal Fiscal Year, for those who desire the convenience of paying by the year.

Writer Critical Of Wallace

Editor, Emmitsburg Chronicle:

Today's Harris Poll shows Nixon with a current 39% of the popular vote; Wallace with 21%; Humphrey somewhere in between; and 9% undecided. When we consider that Goldwater in 1964 obtained only 38 1/2% of all votes cast—a scant 1/2% more than is now indicated for Nixon—and that Goldwater's percentage of popular vote translated into only 52 electoral votes, it would appear that the country is indeed in for a constitutional crisis of major proportions. 270 electoral votes are needed in order for the people to elect the President. In 1960, when Nixon received 49.3% of this popular vote, this translated into only 219 electoral votes—51 votes short of election.

In 1824, John Quincy Adams, with fewer than 32% of the popular vote, and less than one-third of the electoral vote, became President through an election conducted in the House of Representatives. By this same process Jefferson became President in 1800. The country would accept such unfair results again . . . simply because there is precedent and the Constitution so provides. However, the $64.00 question is whether the country will peacefully accept a third method of electing a President, for which no precedent, and no provision is in the Constitution. I refer to the claims made by George Wallace, that he will elect the next President by the simple expedient of direct-electors—pledged to him—to vote instead, for whichever of the remaining two candidates that he may select. Mr. Wallace says that he is against Tyranny. Apparently, he means that he is against tyrannyn UNLESS he can be the Tyrant.

Heart Monitor Installed, Operative At Hospital

Warner Hospital directors at their September meeting, were told that the recent gift by the Gettysburg Soroptimists of a pace-maker and heart-beat monitor gives the hospital high capability in treatment of cardiac diseases.

The new equipment, added to that originally presented the hospital by the Adams County Heart Association, enables the hospital to take care of multiple cases. The directors were told that only metropolitan hospitals with large cardiac care departments and heart surgical staffs, exceed the Warner Hospital's capability.

The directors adopted a resolution of thanks to the Soroptimists for their gift. They also expressed by resolution appreciation to Drs. J. Lott Boyer and Joseph DeLozier of the x-ray department for their gift of an inter-communication telephone system in the new x-ray department.

August was a comparatively low-occupancy month for the hospital with 69.01 percent as compared with 74.68 percent last August. For the first two months of the fiscal year occupancy dropped from 73.80 percent to 70.45 percent.

Newborn occupancy reversed itself, however, exceeding last August's 40 percent by 4.03 percent. The trend upward was even greater for the first two months when newborn occupancy jumped to 43.06 percent from last year's 35.32 percent.

Earned income for the first two months was $307,461 compared with $193,797 for the same period in 1967. Both are net of contract allowances for Blue Cross and Medicare.

Expenses, however, increased this year from $185,194 to $203,907, reflecting an operating balance of $5,100 less. This was further aggravated by the absence of the $2,500 appropriation from the Adams County commissioners that has prevailed for many years, the board noted.

The high rate at which hospital costs are advancing was reflected in the increase per patient day. During July and August in 1967 the cost of 4,968 patient days was $37.28, which figure for the same period this year climbed to $41.97 for 4,858 patient days.

For the same period last year the operating cost was $2,987.01 per day for 62 days. This year this has climbed to $3,288.83 per day for the first 62 days of the fiscal year.

County Population Now Estimated At 87,000

Frederick County's population as of July 1 was estimated at 87,500, according to the State Department of Health.

The total state population was estimated on the same date as 3,766,500.

According to the health department figures, by 1972 the county will have a total estimated population of 93,600.

From April 1, 1960, the date of the most recent census, to July 1, 1967, the total population of the State has grown by 592,000, a gain of 19 percent. This figure represents the sum of the 336,000 natural increase (excess of births over deaths) and the 256,000 increase due to net in-migration (the excess of new residents over those leaving the State).

Maryland's average annual natural increase since the 1960 census has been 46,000 and the average annual net in-migration 35,000. These figures indicate little absolute change compared with the 1950-1960 decade, when the average annual increase was 44,000 for natural growth and 32,000 for migration growth.

According to Dr. Bettie Rogerson, Chief of the Division of Biostatistics, the Health Department's estimate for July 1, 1967 showed a total population of 1,992,210 living in the Baltimore Metropolitan Area—composed of Baltimore City and the nearby counties of Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Harford and Howard. The counties of Montgomery and Prince Georges in the Washington Metropolitan Area showed a population of 1,033,800.

The three non-metropolitan regions of the State—Northwestern Maryland, Southern Maryland, and the Eastern Shore—also have continued to show growth. The Health Department's July 1, 1967 estimate for North-western Maryland—the four counties of Garrett, Allegany, Washington, and Frederick—was 304,550. Southern Maryland—the counties of Calvert, Charles, and St. Mary's—had an estimated 103,620 residents. The estimate for the Eastern Shore, which comprises the nine counties lying east of the Chesapeake Bay and the Susquehanna River, was 258,240.

Cross-Country Team Should Have Good Year

Three years ago the Mt. St. Mary's College cross-country team won its last Mason-Dixon Conference title by edging Towson State by two points at Bridgewater, Va. This year the champions return to Bridgewater and the Mounts are highly hopeful of returning again with the first place trophy.

Coach Frank Zarnowski, beginning his second year as mentor of the Mountaineers, has good reason to be optimistic with the return of the entire squad from last year which finished second at Lynchburg in the conference meet last year.

Among the returnees is Dick Rasmussen who was the most valuable performer as a freshman a year ago because he ran consistently well. He should improve his seventh place finish in the championships.

Jim Clarke, a junior, is the conference two-mile king and record holder at 9:35 and needs only confidence and consistency. Pete Geraghty, another junior, enjoyed a fine 1967 campaign and should better his 10th place finish in the championships.
