It appears that bona-fide newspapers are about the only moral literature remaining for people to read or see these days. With the maze of obscene and pornographic literature floating around these days, and with "dirty" underground newspapers being published by the Hips, the general public is almost smothered with smut. It is downright revolting to read the theater advertisements. The theaters must be hard up for business because of the excessive use of sex in the films. Just take any newspaper advertisement in the theater section of a newspaper and watch the illustrations and the artwork. Almost invariably, the show is advertised as suited for adult viewing, or no one under 18 will be admitted. All this tends to do is to really attract the youngsters who are permitted to enter, regardless of the advertising. It's really an advertising gimmick to draw the younger element into the theater. It used to be relegated to the drive-ins, but now the smut has penetrated to a great many of the in-town cinemas.

Gettysburg is strictly enforcing its curfew laws and this week four more under 18 juveniles were apprehended and prosecuted. Most towns around us have established ordinances dealing with unruly youths and enforcement of these laws have quieted the towns down quite a bit. Emmitsburg needs a stiff curfew law so that officers can deal with situations which occur here. There hardly seems any excuse not to have such a law here in Emmitsburg where the out-of-towners and a few local youngsters delight in keeping the whole neighborhood awake these hot evenings. Our officers must have the tools to implement law enforcement and it would behoove the Town of Emmitsburg to come up with an iron-clad, no-loop-hole curfew law, at once.

Ugh, the first full week of official summer weather is with us, and personally, I don't like it at all. I have never seen so many cloudy days. Many, many times during what should be a bright sunny day, the skies cloud and you would swear it was going to rain cats and dogs. However, in a few minutes the murkiness dissipates and once again we have a hot and burning sun. The rainfall has been almost sufficient recently, but we are still short for the first six months of 1969. The ground being damp from recent rains, adds to the humidity and heat of the day and it is really getting difficult to get a 24-hour deodorant that can stand the gaff . . . despite whatever the television commercials proclaim!

Lions Club Donates Lumber

It was voted on to furnish enough lumber to construct several benches for Community Field at the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club held Monday evening at Mt. Manor Restaurant, President Milton A. Sewell presiding.

Father Milkowski, Curtis Bay, Md., was a guest of the club. Since the judges' stand at the Civic Grounds is now in disuse, the club voted to donate the building to the VFW for use at the Playground. President Sewell named Norman Flax and Arthur Elder to perform an audit on the club's books in the near future. The treasurer's report, given by Floyd L. Lewis, was approved as presented. The group has decided to rent a Postoffice Box for the club's use, in an effort to co-ordinate the mail. The president urged all members to be present and to assist at the Community Sale this Friday evening at the old Gem Theater.

Lions Club Community Sale Tonight

The Emmitsburg Lions Club will offer a variety of household articles, tools, old license plates and some antiques, at its annual Community Auction.

The club is staging this sale at the request of many citizens who were so well pleased with the one held two years ago. The sale will take place at the old Gem Theater, Friday evening, June 27, starting at 5:30 p.m. Gus Shank will be the auctioneer.

For several weeks now the Lions have been gathering up items for the sale and the storage space at the theater is literally bulging with a host of items the public will be interested in. President Milton A. Sewell says someone will be at the scene of the sale from one o'clock in the afternoon up to sale time to accept articles being brought in.

To list a few, there will be stoves of all kinds, refrigerators, furniture, household items galore, lawnmowers, antiques, etc. It is hoped to have a number of television sets on hand for the sale. Wives of the members will man a refreshment stand during the sale.

Miss Lindsey will represent the Fairfield department in the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Queen contest to be held in Abbotstown in August. Other savings awards were $50 to Miss Myers and $25 to Miss Rosenwald, with the remaining two contestants receiving cash awards.

Reminds Fireworks Are Illegal

Every Fourth of July celebration must inevitably be followed by a Fifth of July. For several years, hospital reports on injuries caused by the illegal use of fireworks on the "4th" have borne tragic testimony to the painful "5th".

Howard A. Naquin, M.D., President of the Maryland Society for the Prevention of Blindness, urges parents to take the necessary steps to make sure that their children do not have access to fireworks by reporting violations of the Maryland law prohibiting their sale and use except under permit.

Doctor Naquin pointed out that the eyes are particularly vulnerable to injury in fireworks accidents, often resulting in permanently impaired vision or loss of sight.

Truck-Car Hit In Hanover

A truck driven by George G. Bushman, 22, Emmitsburg R3, changing lanes in the one-way section of Frederick St. west of Centennial Ave., Hanover, struck a car operated by Janice C. Robinson, 20, Wilkesboro, N. C., at 3 p.m. Friday, according to Hanover police. Both vehicles were moving east on Frederick when the truck moved from the left to the right lane of traffic, striking the car in the right lane, police said. Damage was estimated at $100 to the Robinson car and $25 to the Bushman vehicle, police said.

Almost 70,000 motor vehicles were involved in fatal highway crashes in 1968. Of these, more than 55,200 were private passenger cars, according to The Travelers Insurance Companies annual statistics.

Chamber Studies Electoral Reform

Electoral College Reform was a topic for discussion by the National Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of Frederick County at a recent meeting.

Robert Haynes, chairman of the committee said that the committee explored Electoral College reform proposals now pending in Congress and discussed what can be done on the local level to help bring about reform.

Chairman Haynes pointed to the close elections of 1960 and 1968. "With a shift in a few thousand votes in both instances," he said, "the election might have been thrown into the House of Representatives where a Constitutional crisis might have evolved in the event no candidate received the required number of votes."

"The Congress must act favorably on a proposed amendment to the Constitution in this session if the amendment is to be effective in the presidential election of '72. A two-thirds vote is required in the House and Senate and three-fourths of the states must ratify in order to adopt an amendment to the Constitution. This takes time."

"The Congress will act promptly only if the American people become aroused and demand a change in the method by which we elect the President and Vice President."

The grant to Sister Madeleine represents a renewal of the grant awarded her last year. Sister will continue study toward a Ph.D. degree in human relations in home management at Pennsylvania State University.

Garden Club Meeting Held

The Silver Fancy Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, June 19, at the home of the president, Mrs. Robert Clingan, Taneytown, with ten guests and nine members present. Punch and coffee were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Hewitt MacPherson.

The speaker, Mrs. E. Lewis Peters of Frederick, gave a most informative presentation, "Garden Hopping 'round the World", accompanied by slides collected during her many travels throughout the world. Mrs. Peters, well-known in District V, has served as a director and on the board in various positions. In 1969, her home in Frederick was one of those visited on the Historical Tour.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Butler, Taneytown, assisted by co-hostesses Mrs. S. S. Cornell and Mrs. Thomas Frailey. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Andrew Eyster who will give a demonstration on flower arranging.

Over 300 X-rayed Here Last Week

The Mass Survey conducted in the Emmitsburg area on June 17 reported 356 persons availed themselves of chest X-rays. This is one of the many services made possible through the use of Christmas Seals, said Mrs. Freda S. Doll, Executive Director of the Frederick County Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association. The survey is a joint project of the TB Association and the Frederick County Health Department—the TB Association conducts the survey and the Health Department follows up with a 14x17" X-ray of all films which show abnormalities; or should the person having an abnormal survey film wish to have the follow-up thru his family physician he may do so. Whichever choice the individual may make in carrying through further diagnosis on the large film, the important step is that a complete follow-up is made.

Mrs. William Carr was chairman for recruitment of volunteers for registering those who came to the Mobile Unit for chest X-rays. Assisting Mrs. Carr with the registrations were: Mrs. A. L. Leary, Mrs. Merle Keilholz, Mrs. John Chatlos, Mrs. Paul M. Carter, Mrs. J. W. Strickhouser, Mrs. Paul Beale, Mrs. Leonard Zimmerman, Mrs. Samuel Hays, Mrs. Richard Gore, Mrs. Robert Marshall, Mrs. Anna Bushman, Mrs. James Small and Mrs. Esther Gillelan.

A total of 45 hours of volunteer service was given by the local registrars in order for the survey to be available to the residents of the area.

Bernard Kaliss New Mount Dean Of Affairs

Mount Saint Mary's College this week announced appointment of Bernard S. Kaliss as dean of academic affairs and Rev. James M. Forker as dean of student affairs.

Dr. John J. Dillon, Jr., acting executive vice president, said "they are men of great ability and represent a balance of experience and youth which we seek to achieve in all of our administrative appointments."

Mr. Kaliss, succeeding Rev. David W. Shaum, Ph.D., who has completed a two-year term, becomes the first layman to hold the post of dean of academic affairs at Mount Saint Mary's. Father Shaum continues as professor of music and director of the college glee club.

Father Forker, as dean of student affairs, fills a newly established position.

"We will work together very closely, and he will have complete authority and responsibility for the student disciplinary-social area, aided by the dean and associate dean of students," Dr. Dillon said.

Mr. Kaliss, a member of the college faculty since 1953, received his B.S. from Mount Saint Mary's and his M.A. from Fordham University. He studied as a Fulbright scholar at Sorbonne (University of Paris) and University of Bordeaux. He has completed all requirements for a Ph.D. except the dissertation at New York University.

During 16 years on the college faculty, Mr. Kaliss has been assigned numerous important academic and professional duties. Most recently he has been chairman of the English department, Fulbright adviser, Danforth adviser, Woodrow Wilson campus representative, foreign student adviser, moderator of the Nutmeg Club, and moderator of Zeta Chapter, Delta Epsilon Sigma. In 1955-56 he served as registrar and assistant dean.

He has served on most of the college committees, including the academic council. He is a member of many learned societies and several scholastic honor societies. He was an organizer of the Mount Saint Mary's Chapter, American Association of University Professors, and served three terms as its president. He has been a contributor to scholarly journals, writing book reviews for "CCCC Journal" and "Choice." He is active in community organizations and is currently treasurer of the Emmitsburg Public Library.

Father Forker, a native of Bayonne, New Jersey, received his B.A. from Mount Saint Mary's in 1956 and his M.S. from Iona College this month. He was ordained as a priest in June 1960 by the Bishop of Trenton after graduating from Mount Saint Mary's Seminary.

From 1960 to 1967, Father Forker served as assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church at South Amboy, New Jersey where he combined pastoral work with religious instruction in the parish high school. He was also active in community affairs, serving as a member of the Community Planning Board in New Jersey's anti-poverty program. He is a member of the Academy of Pastoral Counseling.

Father Forker joined the faculty of Mount Saint Mary's College in September 1967 as an instructor in the department of theology. He has been serving as faculty adviser to the student government.

Red Cross Seeking Donations

The Vietnam war grinds relentlessly on. This year will again find thousands of American servicemen and women destined to spend a lonely, difficult Christmas in Vietnam. Most of them are young and many have never before spent Christmas away from home. They desperately need some expression of love and concern from the folks back home—family, friends and strangers. The American Red Cross is providing a tangible way we can express our concern through the "OPERATION SHOP EARLY, 1969" Program. Through this Program holiday gift-filled bags are provided for every American serviceman and woman serving in Vietnam at Christmastime. In 1968 there were 600,000 such bags mailed by Red Cross. The Frederick County Chapter will join some 1,600 other Red Cross Chapters throughout the nation in this annual project, now in its fourth successive year. The quota for the local Chapter has been set at 225 gift-filled bags. We need the help of our community to achieve this goal. The 230 bags filled by the local Chapter last year were enthusiastically received by the Third Marine Amphibious Force in Vietnam. A splendid letter of appreciation was received from them.

Already local Red Cross volunteers are busily sewing the bright red and green drawstring bags. Later these will be filled with carefully selected gift items plus a holiday greeting card. Often these colorful bags remain serviceable for the owner's personal effects long after the original contents are used.

The cost per bag, including mailing charges, will average $5 each. We are appealing to service organizations, religious groups, business firms, local industries, and individuals to lend a helping hand through donations. For each contribution of $5 the contributor is asked to include a Christmas card or message with return address. No contribution is too large or too small. It is an opportunity to buy some Christmas happiness for a lonesome soldier in Vietnam.

Contributions may be brought or mailed to Red Cross Headquarters, 22 S. Market St., Frederick, Maryland 21701. Checks are to be made payable to the American Red Cross. If further information is desired please call the Red Cross Office, 662-5131. Help Us To Help.

It is too bad that today sincerity is such a rare virtue.

For with thee is the fountain of life.—(Psalms 36:9).

All of us have had the experience of feeling tired and listless until something happened to awaken our interest and enthusiasm. Where minutes before we felt drained of energy, now we become alive, vital and awake. The source of our energy is God, the power within us. We are continually renewed, refreshed, and restored by His life. Let us give thanks for this.

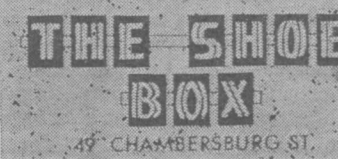

How can I check the fit of my children's shoes?

There are two simple ways of detecting outgrown shoes. They are not as reliable as having the feet remeasured, but are infinitely surer than the old toe-hunt method which only ruins the toe-box of the shoe.

One is to hold the shoe under a lamp so you can see the foot print on the insole. If the shoes are long enough, there will be a light area ahead of the mark made by the great toe.

At the risk of being considered a wise guy, the writer suggests counting the toe marks. Five is par for the foot, but many shoes show only four. Lacking proper shoe width the little toe is forced up over the fourth toe and into the upper part of the shoe. Five-toed feet that make four-toed footprints should be shod in "straight-last" shoes.

The second check is simply to put your hand in the shoe, palm upward, to see if the great toe is digging a hole in the top of the toe box. The above mentioned footprint may show a light area ahead of the great toe only because the toe of the shoe is too shallow to allow the foot to advance any further. The force required to dig such a hole is sufficient to buniate the great toe.

Labor Costs Aiding Inflation

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., June 26, 1969—One of the most powerful contributing factors to our apparently unending inflationary spiral is labor costs, but almost no effort has been made to hold them in check. Kennedy's productivity guideline limiting raises to 3.2% annually was ignored by both labor and management. And Johnson's jawbone tactics made just about as little impression, somewhat later on.

No Headway In Sight

To bring this up to date, Nixon has approved fiscal and tax restraints on inflation, but not one positive move has been suggested to hold back labor costs. In fact, most Nixon Administration aides and even the White House itself have indicated their distaste for compulsory pay curbs, despite the fact that they are gaining favor with businessmen and bankers. Thus, as far as we can see, labor will continue to be left to its own devices to get as much as the market will bear in negotiated wage boosts and fringes.

Judging by the pay increases won in bargaining sessions during the first quarter of the current year, the inflationary trend in terms of labor costs appears to be stronger than ever. The rate of raises has been quickening over the past four years, but all records were broken during first-quarter 1969. The median hike for all lines of industry touched 19.8c an hour—4.5c higher than for the same period in 1968 and close to 7c above two years ago.

Building Hit Hard

By far the highest median pay advance was reported in the construction industry up 45.2c an hour compared with 28c for the same three-month span in 1968. Most building negotiations come up later in the year, but even the small samplings for the first quarter reveal how swift the upswing in construction costs has become. This is, of course, unhappy news for those waiting for a real new building boom detrimental to the industry than the already tight money situation.

Next down the line from top-pace construction in terms of sizable median pay raises for the first quarter were shipping and longshore operations, 38c an hour; printing and publishing, 24.8c; and wholesale and retail trade, services, and transportation equipment, 24.6c each. Nonmanufacturing lines as a whole chalked up a median pay advance of 24.7c—up 5.2c from a year ago—and manufacturing settlements rose 18.4c—up 3.5c.

Hope, But Not Much

April figures from the Department of Commerce indicate a possible small slowdown in the long upsurge in labor costs, but the Department simultaneously issued a warning that no real trend can be read into statistics for one month alone. What was reported, however, was an April boost in the seasonally adjusted annual rate of personal income amounting to only $2.8 billion, a far cry from the $6.5 billion hike registered in March and just a trifle above the $2.6 billion for the same time twelve months ago. And it must be noted that this slowdown was for the most part attributed to less radical expansion of wage and salary totals.

But any way you look at it, the direction of labor costs is still toward higher ground. Forthcoming union negotiations are bound to bring about still further gains in wage settlements, while built-in raises contained in multi-year agreements will exert considerable upward pressure over the two or three years immediately ahead. Nor should it be forgotten that fringe concessions are constantly adding billions to management's costs, especially since more and more such benefits are being paid for solely by employers.

Thus, it may be assumed that the flank of the war against inflation involving labor expenditures can make no genuine headway over the period ahead. Fiscal aid tax strategies apparently must still be used if runaway inflation is to be prevented.

 NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Guilty Or Not Guilty
Twentieth Century America has reached its most historic crossroads. Turmoil dominates the national scene. Logic and reason seem to have been abandoned in the uncertain grapplings of our leaders with our gravest national and international problems. Basic morality is becoming "out moded"—supplanted by a rank "code of obscenity" publicly approved by our courts and by articulate segments of our press and population. The decay of national character is unmistakably visible.

America is deteriorating militarily as the Communist juggernaut grows mightily. We no longer are the champion of world-wide freedom, the "bright hope" of 900,000,000 enslaved people. Some of our most "distinguished" and listened - to "statesmen," viewing the rise of the Soviet Union to dominant world power, proclaim a "Welcome Communists!" international policy. The whole structure of American society is being shattered. The lives of the American people are threatened, as never before in this century.

Facing The Blame

Who is to blame? We, the people of the United States, are to blame. Oh, the vast majority of us have been (in mind and heart) on the side of logic and reason, courage and honor, decency and morality, law and order; and for the lofty principles inherent in the goal of world wide brotherhood. And militarily most Americans want our nation to be superior in power over any possible potential enemy.

The majority of Americans almost instinctively choose to travel this high road. But a belief in mind and heart, if unspoken and inactive, is of limited influence; and, in today's world, tragic. Today most Americans are sitting by the lower roadside, inactive and fairly well satisfied with life. It is a sunny day, the breeze is nice, the children (well, where are they, what could they be doing in the forest over yonder? Ho, hum). Those wildflowers stimulate the soul; and there is a good meal left in the picnic basket; an atmosphere of security and well-being prevails. Surely, somehow, we'll reach the good destination. Sitting in the sun, thinking good thoughts, will (many Americans seem to believe) bring about a solution to our problems. But will it? The hard fact is—it won't! It hasn't.

Survival Number One

Our most urgent problem is survival. There is no question (finally the truth is out) about the growing superiority of the Soviet Union's nuclear power; and there shouldn't be any doubt about its objective; the takeover of the U.S.A. Every Communist boss since Marx has proclaimed this objective, repeatedly. The White and Black Communists in the U. S. today are repeating it openly, and showing they mean it.

What has the American people, who unquestionably want to safeguard their lives and liberty, done about this urgent survival problem? Most of them continue to "think" survival and "favor" adequate national defense, but they continue to sit inactive, relatively undisturbed in the good sun out where everything is pretty and one need not get oneself "worked up."

Vocal Minority Powerful

The President suggested a fragment (a vital fragment) of ballistic missile defense (ABM). The "Appease Russia" partisans mobilized and organized a nation-wide "Kill-ABM" movement with prominent leadership and the backing of the U. S. Communist Party. Vast sums of money were poured into skillfully-designed, effective propaganda against the U. S. military establishment—a calculated oblique assault on ABM. Much TV network time was occupied with the propaganda. The "military" was made to look like a gigantic evil, its top leaders ogres, unintelligent, arrogant and grossly wasteful, spending billions on unworkable weapons systems and defense projects.

Although nation-wide polls showed that the American people by a margin of two to one favored the deployment of an ABM missile system, the mail to Senators and Congressmen (on which voting decisions usually are based) ran 10 to 1 against ABM. Probably ninety-nine out of every hundred persons favoring ABM did NOT write their Senators, their Congressman and the President (to strengthen his determination). As a result, a majority of the Senate in late May had decided the country didn't want ABM.

If in 1970, or 1971, or 1972

the Soviets wish to attempt nuclear blackmail—with an air-tight ABM system of their own in place and a "first strike" power capable of destroying our retaliatory capability — where would the blame lie if America was obliged to surrender? This question is directed to you: Guilty or not guilty?

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

If you ignore it, maybe it'll go away. And other famous cancer legends.

"What I don't know can't hurt me." "Never sick a day in my life." The list of excuses is endless. We don't need any more slogans like this. Annual checkups can help save thousands more people every year. Help yourself with a checkup. And others with a check.

Twelve of those killed were drivers, six were passengers, and five were pedestrians.

Alcohol was a contributing factor in eight of the deaths, speed in thirteen, and "driver error" in nineteen.

"Alcohol was a contributing factor in eight of the deaths on Maryland roads last week," noted Lt. Col. W. H. Conroy, Deputy Superintendent of the State Police. "In four of these cases the operator attempted to pass when it was unsafe to do so. Alcohol does impair a person's judgment; and when this situation is present in connection with the operation of a motor vehicle, there is good probability of a serious accident. Last week's record certainly substantiates this."

Frederick County Backgrounds

By Samuel Carrick
The Annan Family

The notes on the Morrow family of the Marsh Creek Settlement are concluded at this time.

List of Morrows buried in the Lower Marsh Creek churchyard, as continued from last week's column:

5. "Sacred, to the memory of: John Knox Morrow. Died May 1, 1819, Aged 3 years."

Note: A grandson of John (2) and Mary (Lockhart) Morrow. It will be remembered that Rebecca Hodge, a half-sister of Mary (Lockhart) Morrow, married Dr. Samuel Knox and this intermarriage brought the name of 'Knox' into the "family circle."

6. "In memory of, Margaret Morrow, wife of, James Morrow, who departed this life, May 9th, 1937, Aged 46 years."

Note: James (3) the seventh child and third son of John (2) and Mary (Lockhart) Morrow, was married, in 1815, to Margaret Knox. He (James) was one of the last of his family to leave what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, for the Ohio country. But in going he left his dead behind—his wife and three of their children.

7. "Sacred, to the memory of: James Morrow, Died March 3, 1826, Aged 1 year."

"Also, John Morrow: Died June 14, 1829, Aged 2 years. Children of, James and Margaret Morrow."

Note: The inscription on this stone is self-explanatory—the two little sons of James (3) and Margaret (Knox) Morrow.

The third family in the "genealogical hookup" of Cochran-Morrow-Annan alone remains to be discussed. Through the courtesy of descendants an Annan family chart was made available to the writer of this column. The clan is a somewhat complicated one with many intermarriages and the same family names used generation after generation. However, like a jigsaw puzzle, it can, with patience, be fitted together, and it is hoped that the complete picture will reflect "light on the past."

The first Robert (1) Annan was born and died in Scotland. He married into the Landales family. He is chiefly noted, in this late day, for being the father of the Rev. Robert Annan, the first of the family to emigrate to America.

Robert (2) Annan was born in the town of Capar, Fife, Scotland, in 1742. Of his early life little can be definitely ascertained but it can be assumed that he enjoys a happy and carefree boyhood.

After pursuing the usual course of study at the University of Saint Andrew's, Robert (2) Annan studied theology under the venerable Alexander Moncrieff, one of the original Seceders. He (Robert) (2) was licensed by the Presbytery of Perth when only about nineteen years of age—a rather young man to wear the stern and pious mantle of the Covenant. Shortly after his ordination he was appointed by the Synod to visit the American Colonies in the capacity of missionary. It is a family tradition that he was reluctant and unwilling to accept the appointment but he seems to have had little choice in the matter. The decision of the Synod was final and they were determined to "bring the Word of God to the waste places of the world." To make doubly certain that their decrees would be obeyed an act had been passed stating that the name of any probationer appointed to America would not be proposed to any vacant congregation in Scotland. Robert (2) Annan, therefore much against his will, came to America.

The young minister arrived in New York in the summer of 1761. He labored as an itinerant missionary for about four years—working among all sorts of conditions of people striving to implant the faith of the Covenant. In 1765 the Rev. Robert (2) Annan was ordained and established to be the minister over the Associate congregation at Neelytown, New York and remained there for some fourteen years.

During the War of the American Revolution the Rev. Annan was an earnest and hard-working patriot. He preached the American cause to one and all and made many converts.

In 1783 Mr. Annan removed from Neelytown to Boston, there to take charge of the "congregation worshipping in Federal Street." Three years later the minister moved his family to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he had accepted a call to the old Scots' Church, located on Spruce Street. Here he continued to labor until 1801 or 1802 at which time he removed to Baltimore, Maryland, to take under his pastoral care a newly formed congregation.

Some eleven years or so later, feeling the weight of his years, he decided to retire to the farm he had purchased in York County, Pennsylvania. He had worked long and hard to advance the faith of his fathers and had earned his rest. However, although he never held another pastorate, his work was far from finished for he supplied several churches located in the region in which he made his home. Moreover he kept up "his habits of study and retained the use of his excellent mind until the end."

The death of the Rev. Robert (2) Annan occurred as the result of an accident. According to a fairly reliable tradition he was "thrown with great violence from his carriage." He was taken up and carried home, insensible, and never rallied sufficiently to recognize any member of his family. He survived the accident only two or three days, dying on December 5, 1810. He was interred in the burial ground of Octorara Church, now connected with the Associate congregation. His grave is well marked and can easily be found at the present time.

The Rev. Robert (2) Annan was twice married. In 1764 he was united in the "holy bands" to Margaret Cochran, the daughter of William Cochran, of Carrollburg (Carroll's Tract), York (now Adams) County, Pennsylvania. Margaret (Cochran) Annan died October 13, 1793 leaving "a disconsolate husband" and three "orphan children."

In those days a man needed a helpmate and grief was no barrier to remarriage. In this respect the Rev. Annan was no exception for in 1794, barely a year after the death of his first wife, he was married to Elizabeth Hawthorne, the daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Hawthorne. The Hawthornes lived in the village of Strasburg, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. The second wife died in Lancaster County on July 23, 1813.

The notes pertaining to the Annan family will be continued in this series next week.

Surprise Party

A surprise birthday party was held for Ronald E. Sheeley on Sunday, June 22. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Glass, Michael, Debbie and Ricky, Gettysburg; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Champlain and Christie, Emmitsburg; Joseph Topper, Shirley Sheeley, Betty Jean Sheeley; Mrs. William Sheeley, and Milburn Glass, all of Emmitsburg. Ronald returned to the USS Fulse, Norfolk, Virginia. The ship is scheduled for an overseas cruise next week for seven months.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Sister Mary Joan Hyland, St. Joseph College, attained a perfect scholastic average of 4.00, it was announced this week by Dr. William H. Coffield, vice president for academic affairs at Youngstown State University.

The enrollment is 14,000 at the university and the dean's list comprises all full-time undergraduates who earned a quality point average of 3.4 or more out of a possible 4.00.

SOLDIER PARTICIPATES IN RIFLE-PISTOL MATCH

Army Reserve Platoon Sgt. Luther J. Hahn, son of Luther A. Hahn, Route 1, participated in the 1969 First U. S. Army Commander's Rifle and Pistol Championship matches at Ft. George

G. Meade, Md., recently.

Sgt. Hahn is regularly assigned with an Army Reserve unit in Havre de Grace, Md.

CORRECTION

In last week's Chronicle appeared a report on a car wreck near Thurmont. It stated that Jessie D. Best was charged with failing to grant one-half of the highway by State Police. We have been informed that the story was erroneous and that Carroll Kinsey, driver of the other vehicle involved, was charged, not Mr. Best. We regret the error.

VFW AMBULANCE

Transported this week to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, via the VFW ambulance were: Worth Draper, Emmitsburg; Donna Varish, R2, Gettysburg; Mrs. Mary Shuff, Zora, Pa., and Mrs. Walter Wilhide, R2, Thurmont. Drivers were Michael Boyle, James Kittinger and Thomas White.
