Most Anything At A Glance

- By Abigail -

So intense has the argument over sex education in our elementary schools become, that Governor Mandel has stepped into the picture. This week Maryland's chief executive appointed a "blue ribbon" committee to "review and clarify" a bylaw adopted two years ago by the State Board of Education requiring that sex education classes be taught in the public elementary schools. The Governor put it mildly when he said there were some who felt the controversial subject matter should be taught "from kindergarten through the 12th grade". Frederick County has become a hotbed of criticism of the program and many towns have formed citizens' committees in an effort to change the State Board's mind on the subject. There are many who are of the opinion that if prayers can't be taught, or said, then sex should also be barred from the curriculum. I personally believe they have a point there.

Emmitsburgians are staggered by the deluge of bills this week. First off came the annual state and county tax bill, and it was a whopper, an all-time high. The very next day, the Town mailed its own little package out. This neat little piece of mail contained the annual Town tax bill, the quarterly water rent bill and the annual sewer tax bill. It's a staggering blow to many property owners and one wonders just how people living on fixed incomes can keep their collective heads above the water. Add this deluge of bills to that bugaboo, the high cost of living, and you begin to suspect that it is hardly possible to survive, or if it is at all feasible to own property anymore. Governmental economy simply must be practiced at all levels and when the congressional elections roll around in '70, every candidate's record will come up for personal scrutiny. Taxpayers... unite!

There are quite a few riding lawnmowers in service these days and to watch them operate you'd think that they were perfectly harmless. Well, the fact is, that they can be just as deadly or lethal as a tractor. This week a 70-year-old County man was operating one of these cutting vehicles. Attempting to mow a terrace at his home, the mower overturned, landed on him, and unfortunately killed him. So they can be deadly folks, so please be careful.

That mock "disaster" put into effect last Sunday, had ambulance and hospital crews in a dither. Caught completely by surprise, ambulance crews in both Frederick and Adams Counties were kept on the run answering "emergency" calls. Reports of people jumping off bridges, airplane crashes, tractor mishaps, fights, stabbings, etc. kept ambulances roaring to the scene. Two fight "victims" were hauled from a local filling station, in "bad" condition. The make-up artists did perfect jobs and completely surprised many ambulance drivers. Naturally the stories became highly twisted and at times magnified. Take the "fight" victim situation at a local service station. Actually it was a fake but some people are still talking about the "stabbing" at an Emmitsburg gas station. Some fun!

—Happy July Fourth—

'Cycle - Truck Crash Hurts One

A Fairfield motorcyclist was treated at the Warner Hospital after his cycle collided with a truck on Route 16, about three miles west of Emmitsburg about 6:45 p.m. Monday. William T. Shank, 24, Fairfield R2, operator of the motorcycle, was removed to the hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance and was treated for cuts and abrasions. State police identified the driver of the truck as Gerald P. Orndorff, 21, Rocky Ridge, Md. State police said that Shank operating his motorcycle on the state route slowed for a left turn, but inadvertently turned to the right striking the truck which was attempting to pass his cycle. Damage was estimated at $800 to the Shank cycle and $100 to Orndorff's truck.

Local Band Seeks Members; Uses Bus For Parades

The Emmitsburg Municipal Band returned from Woodsboro without prize money, this being the first defeat for the local band in over two years of competition. This parade also initiated bus transportation to and from the parades. The arrangement went over with everyone so well, the band will commute to all parades via bus. The band has accepted eight new members in the past two weeks and is still in need of musicians. We have members from the local school bands and welcome anyone who plays any instrument. If you are just learning, what better way, then with our band? The band will not conduct a financial drive this year, but will have money-raising events later on this year. This money is being used solely for uniforms for the majorettes.

Coming events for the band are as follows: Harney parade, July 9; New Market parade, July 10; Thurmont parade, July 31; St. Anthony's concert, Aug. 2; Littlestown parade, Aug. 7; Rocky Ridge parade, Aug. 14.

Summer School Enrolment Up 50%

Summer school enrollment at Frederick Community College rose by 50 per cent over last summer according to Duval W. Sweadner, director of admissions.

There are 340 enrollees in the summer session. Last summer there were 221 enrollees.

Sweadner explained, "since many students enroll in more than one course, the record shows that 247 individual students are attending summer classes." Last year 159 students were enrolled.

"These figures include 86 students who are currently enrolled at FCC; 94 new students, and 18 students readmitted," Sweadner elaborated.

Dr. Lewis W. Stephens, FCC president, commented: "We are deeply gratified with the 50 per cent increase in enrollment over last year."

He pointed out that he believes this "indicates a greater interest on the part of Frederick County parents and students to obtain a college education."

"We are pleased to have the opportunity to provide this valuable service to residents of the county," Dr. Stephens concluded.

Study-Visit Scheduled

At Local College

The nursing department at St. Joseph College is hosting a study-visit by Mme Wadad Shaya, assistant professor of nursing at the American University of Beirut, Lebanon, now through July 7, at the request of the World Health Organization.

During her visit, Mme Shaya will observe the teaching and coordination of the medical-surgical aspects, as well as the organization and administration of the college's nursing program.

In addition to attending the 14th Congress of the International Council of Nurses held last week in Montreal, Canada, Mme Shaya plans several study-visits to other institutions. Following her visit at St. Joseph College, she will spend July 8 and 9 at Catholic University.

Mme Shaya states the purpose for her visits is to observe "how nursing objectives are implemented both theoretically and practically." She intends to use her findings "to help in my teaching and as a member of the curriculum committee of the school. Also I can advise and assist nursing faculty in the various schools in Lebanon."

Mme Shaya received her elementary and secondary education in the Lebanese Evangelical School for Girls. She has an associate in arts degree from Beirut College for women, and a baccalaureate degree from the American University of Beirut, where she has been a member of the faculty since 1952. In 1955, she received a master's degree in nursing education from Syracuse University in New York.

Mme Shaya is president of the nurses branch of the American University of Beirut Alumnae Association, and a member of the committee on nursing legislation in Lebanon.

23 Die On State Roads In Week

Twenty-three persons were killed on Maryland highways last week according to the weekly survey published by the State Police. Nine of those killed were drivers, seven were passengers, and seven were pedestrians. Alcohol was a contributing factor in six of the deaths, speed in thirteen, and "driver error" in seventeen.

"For the second week in a row twenty-three persons have lost their lives on Maryland highways. During the early part of this year Maryland's fatality record was considerably better than for the same period in 1968," commented Lt. Col. W. H. Conroy, Deputy Superintendent of the State Police. "However, as we approach the midway point this margin has been reduced to only four less."

"The record for the earlier part of the year is a good indication that the serious highway problem of the last several years can get better. This requires, of course, each operator's assuming a responsibility for promoting highway safety. It's the only way we can improve the situation."

A grant of more than $20,000 has been awarded to Frederick County to be used in the preparation of a comprehensive community development plan.

The money is part of a $445,073 Federal grant awarded to Maryland to provide planning services to cities, towns and counties throughout the state.

It will be used here by the Frederick County Planning and Zoning Commission in a $30,060 planning project.

The grant will pay $20,040 of the cost of the project and the county will pay the difference.

The project includes the preparation of a comprehensive development plan and plans for the extension of public services and housing.

Montgomery and Carroll Counties were also allocated shares of the Federal grant, as was the town of Mt. Airy.

Montgomery County has been awarded funds for two projects. It will receive $24,870 for the preparation of a general plan and $53,895 to be used for a water and sewer plan.

Carroll County will receive $17,167 for planning projects in New Windsor, Sykesville, Taneytown and Westminster.

Highway Safety

Workshop Held

Local highway safety programs were discussed last week at a special Workshop Conference for County Coordinators responsible for safety activities in Maryland's 23 counties and Baltimore City.

Among the participants in the workshop, held Wednesday at the Friendship International Airport Motel, was William S. Fout, who was recently appointed County Coordinator for Frederick County. Mr. Fout also serves as Frederick County Engineer.

Highway Safety Coordinator Walter J. Addison said the workshop was held to follow-up the regional meetings earlier this spring when the new Maryland Highway Safety Program was explained to citizens and local officials.

"We're at the point in the program where we can begin to plan specific local safety projects and develop studies of local safety needs," he said.

Mr. Addison spoke on the role of County Coordinators as outlined by the National Highway Safety Act of 1966. The Act makes Governor Mandel responsible for implementing Maryland's program. Other speakers reviewed proposed national safety standards and local safety planning objectives. The workshop participants also met in separate group discussion sessions.

Sponsoring the workshop was the Bureau of Traffic Safety Programs of the Office of the Highway Safety Coordinator.

ORIOLE BALL GAME

The Veterans Administration, established as an independent agency in 1930, now is the third largest Federal agency.

'DOZER KILLS MAN WORKING AT CHARNITA

John J. "Jake" Miller, 29, Gettysburg, was killed instantly Monday afternoon at 4:40 when he was crushed by a bulldozer on the Charnita development three miles southwest of Fairfield.

Pennsylvania State Police said Miller had been employed by a firm clearing trees from the former Donald Smith farm and was the operator of a large Caterpillar bulldozer. Police said the man apparently had gotten off the large tractor, and was at the rear of the vehicle when it drifted backward downhill, passing over his body and dragging him some distance into the woods.

The Adams County deputy coroner, Dr. Robert S. Lefever, said death must have come instantly as the heavy machine passed over Miller crushing his chest and legs and causing multiple compound fractures of both thighs. The Emmitsburg VFW ambulance was called to remove Miller to the Warner Hospital.

Lions Club Sale

Successful

The Emmitsburg Lions Club annual Community Sale was held Friday evening, June 27. Approximately 200 people from Emmitsburg and adjacent areas attended. Gus Shank, Auctioneer, Taneytown, donated his services and that of his staff and as usual did an outstanding job in conducting the sale.

A rare coachman's lantern, donated to the Lions Club by Mrs. Anne Thompson, 214 W. Main Street, was sold for $32.00. This lantern had been given to Mrs. Thompson by her brother-in-law, Dr. Russell Thompson, who resides in Randolph, Mass.

Lion Ralph McDonnell, who had done so much work preparing for this and previous sales, was unable to attend because of illness.

Members of the Lions Club wish to thank all of the people of this community who have again so wholeheartedly and generously supported this Lions Club charitable project as they always have in previous years. It is regretted that some donated items were not picked up because of labor, time and transportation shortages.

Mock Disaster

Surprises Many

Three area ambulance crews and a rescue squad took part in a "Mock Disaster" held Sunday afternoon to test the Warner Hospital and firemen's emergency systems.

Simulated was an "airplane crash off the Low Dutch Road near Hunterstown" and a number of residents of the Hunterstown area served as the "victims."

Biglerville, Emmitsburg and McSherrystown ambulances and the McSherrystown rescue truck were called by the Quick Call Center in Gettysburg, to transport the "injured" to the hospital. At the hospital the "emergency system" went into effect immediately with off-duty personnel summoned.

At the hospital nurses and doctors "treated" the "patients" for various injuries. X-ray facilities were utilized. Technicians went through the procedure to secure additional blood for the "badly injured." One of the "victims" was listed as "deceased" and was wheeled to the "morgue."

Officials praised the participants in the test, and said most procedures "worked very well."

Seeks Damages

Following Crash

A complaint in trespass has been entered in the prothonotary's office in Gettysburg by attorneys for the Capitol Bus Company of Harrisburg. The company is seeking damages of $870.39 plus costs of the suit against Clair D. Schultz, Biglerville R2, who allegedly failed to stop for a stop sign in Emmitsburg last February 15 and was struck by the bus operated by Glenn E. Vogel-sang.

Library Possesses

Sex Books

The Emmitsburg Public Library has registered fifteen boys and girls for the summer reading program. Going by the library you will notice an apple tree made of tissue. On this tree you will find many red apples—this designates the members of the summer program. Carolyn Keilholz is responsible for this bit of art. There is still time to register, especially if you are a fast reader and can catch up on the week you missed.

Miss Linda Knox will replace Mrs. Warthen and Mrs. Keilholz in the library during the summer months. A film program is planned for the summer months. Mrs. Mary Topper will journey one day a week to the library in the morning with the children from the playground one morning per week where the children will view a film. The exact day and the film will be announced later. Johnny Hollinger has offered to volunteer his time to run the project or for the children.

All the books listed and described this week are for the younger set. Parents are advised to read the selection since some of the books your child may borrow may pertain to sex. One of the very new books in the library is called "Before you were a baby" by Paul Showers and Kay Sperry Showers. This is a very descriptive book and tells where babies come from. It tells the dramatic story of the beginnings of human life, presents it clearly, simply and accurately. The illustrations are done by Ingrid Fetz.

Another book on sex is widely recommended is now revised and updated with new material on hormones, sex determination, DNA and RNA by Lester F. Beck. It is called "Human Growth"—the story of how life begins and goes on. This simple and straightforward account of the physiological processes involved in human development, is written to be read and discussed by boys and girls in the pre-teens and early teens, as well as their parents and teachers.

"Peter and Veronica," by Marilyn Sachs. Peter never thought when he became friends with Veronica that his whole world would change. Suddenly, his adoring mother turns fiercely disapproving, his good friend Bill Stover will have nothing to do with him, and Roslyn Gellert, the one girl he admires, gazes off into space when she sees him. Why? And why does Veronica's kid brother, Stanley, throw bananas at him? And why does that drip Reba Fleming giggle whenever she sees him and Veronica together?

"Uncle Remus—His Songs and His Sayings," by Joel Chandler Harris. This is the original Uncle Remus book containing the stories of the Tar Baby, How Mr. Rabbit Lost His Tail, and other original Uncle Remus favorites.

"United Nations Plays and Programs," by Aileen Fisher and Olive Rabe. United Nations plays and programs will answer the need of teachers and youth leaders who are trying to teach young people about the U. N. and who want material that is informative, entertaining, and easy to use.

Let us hold to our faith in the life of God, powerful and active in the midst of us and in the midst of anyone who needs this healing idea. We are meant for life; we are meant for health; we are meant to express perfection in mind and body. As we pray for ourselves, let us give thanks that God's healing life is now doing a perfect work.

Citizens Of Tomorrow

This week's Citizens of Tomorrow are as follows:

If the Shoe Fits

Has shoe fitting improved over the years?

It may seem incredible but the fitting of children's shoes has improved immeasurably in the last twenty years. Parents are no longer flabbergasted when a shoe-fitter measures both feet of their child. Twenty years ago you felt fortunate if he measured either foot.

After careful measurement, the modern shoe-fitter may try three or four shoes in this same size before he is satisfied that he has the correct last for the child's foot. Twenty years ago, if the last of the shoe was wrong the shoe clerk changed the size. Almost all shoe sizes were concealed in code so the customer didn't know the difference.

It is a sad commentary on our nation's interest in foot health that the law requires a manufacturer of clothing to show the percentage of wool, cotton, etc. but the shoe manufacturer is not required to mark shoe sizes so the buyer can read them.

You cats have just one life.

Hiding From Danger

Senator John McClellan is again sticking his neck out, in a thicket of swirling butcher knives, to warn the American people of an urgent threat to the survival of our nation. It shouldn't be necessary for him to again expose himself to the slashing attacks of the anti-Communist and to the very real dangers posed by aggressive, victory-incited bands of Communist revolutionaries who are at the center of the turmoil sweeping college campuses. In doing so, he is demonstrating again outstanding leadership, incisive wisdom, great political courage, an active love for his country.

The facts about the Communist participation and frequent Communist leadership in the Afro-American, Black Panther, SDS (Students for a Democratic Society) attacks upon our American system and its institutions are clearly visible. The communications media generally and the people in overwhelming numbers are aware of the facts. Incredibly, however, the press virtually ignores the Communist presence in the turmoil; and the American people, with few exceptions, simply refuse to face the unpleasant reality of an Enemy in our midst arming for revolution, seizing and destroying our institutions, defying law and challenging all governmental authority at all levels.

"Dissidents" With Guns

Senator McClellan two years ago began his exposure of the Communist presence in the revolutionary Black Power apparatus, and the incredible fact that the United States Government was supplying funds for teaching, training, and, yes, even mobilizing forces dedicated to the destruction of the American system. The press gave the McClellan Committee hearings hardly any attention at all. One leading Washington newspaper, nationally-known for its fierce editorial fights against censorship and its crusades against anti-Communists, simply ignored disturbing news developed by Senator McClellan's questioning of campus "militants."

From the beginning of the campus disorders—carried out according to international plans and implementing Communist guerrilla warfare techniques—the leaders have been identified as "dissidents." Only recently as the gun-carrying guerrillas achieved shattering victories over universities and governmental agencies—have a few among the news media mentioned Communist participation.

Surrendering To Force

The burning down of sections of more than 100 American cities in 1967 and 1968 by marauding mobs which in most cases were led or pushed by Communist conspirators gave a preview of Communist power within the USA—a reality that most communications media in America ignore or deny. The campus riots and takeovers, led by rampaging para-military cadres of Black Panthers and SDS "militants," are a second stage of a revolution to overthrow the United States, a "testing" of the fortress, and a rallying strategy for revolutionary mobilization. This nation's decision to, in effect, surrender (excusing thousands of fire bombers and looters; "negotiating" with the campus brigands) has caused the Enemy to believe certainly in ultimate success.

On the FACE THE NATION TV program, May 11, Michael Klonsky, son of a well-known Communist, National Secretary of SDS, who calls himself "a revolutionary communist," was guest. He was treated with seeming reverence, questioned with delicate care by three news men. He was addressed in a friendly manner: "Mike." "Mike" repeatedly and arrogantly has said that the mission of SDS is the overthrow of the American system.

The Communist Conspiracy

He was arrogant on the network prime time program —

enough so to stimulate the ego of the revolutionary Black Panthers and other militants now forming a "United Front" as the base of a revolutionary army. He said: "There is a bit of truth to that (the statement that SDS is a part of the international Communist conspiracy to takeover in America)—that we are a part of an international movement . . . We all see ourselves fighting a common struggle." He said student radicals should arm themselves: "We are going to have to have revolutionary change in the society."

He visibly shook up the moderator of the CBS program. The moderator had asked the question: "I would like to know whether my home is going to be safe, that's all?"

"That depends," said the arrogant revolutionary communist, "on what side you take . . . If you think you have got something to protect in the society (the American system) then it might not be so safe."

Our nation's defensive might, and an indignant and resolute people should move powerfully to stamp out the Communist revolution now under way within our nation. The press, the Congress, the White House, College Administrations and the people of America must recognize the reality of the danger.

School Supervisor Resigns Position

Mrs. Louise F. Thompson resigned as Supervisor of Elementary Schools in Frederick County effective August 1. Her career in Frederick County began at Mid-dletown Elementary School where she served as both teacher and principal. Later she was appointed principal of North Market Elementary and afterwards Supervisor of Elementary Education.

Mrs. Thompson received her academic degrees from the University of Maryland and has taken special work at many schools including Pennsylvania State University and Columbia.

She has been a visiting lecturer and consultant at a number of colleges including the University of Maryland, Ralhouse in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Mary Baldwin and Hood. Always active professionally, Mrs. Thompson is a member of many organizations including the Maryland Association for Curriculum Development, of which she is a past president. She is also a past president of Delta Kappa Gamma, an educational sorority. In addition to other honors, Mrs. Thompson was selected to appear in "Who's Who of American Women."

She is currently residing in Frederick and plans to spend a part of her retirement time traveling and working as an educational consultant.

Newly-Weds Urged To Check Insurance

Maryland Blue Cross and Blue Shield this week reminded new and prospective brides and grooms to check their health care protection to make sure they are adequately covered.

Coverage for newlyweds under their parents' family certificates stops at the end of the month in which they marry. However, there is a 30-day grace period following when newlyweds may enroll for husband-wife or family protection without a lapse in coverage.

According to the health care protection plans, maternity benefits are available only under family memberships.

Those over 19 years of age with individual memberships also are reminded that marriage means they too must convert their coverage to either a husband-wife or family membership within 90 days after the wedding to receive benefits.

For information on coverage available to newlyweds, it is requested that calls be directed to the nearest Maryland Blue Cross and Blue Shield office. In Frederick the telephone number is 663-3138.

Veterans attending school under the GI Bill are reminded that it normally requires three months before they receive their initial subsistence checks, which will be retroactive to the start of training.

World-Wide Oil

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., July 3, 1969—There is a growing awareness in the petroleum industry that demand for its products is outpacing the discovery of new oil reserves. Ideally, each year new petroleum finds should exceed consumption, assuring a predictable future supply. This is not the case today.

With thousands of additional cars coming on the road each year and increasing numbers of jumbo jetliners in the air, petroleum products are being gobbled up at a tremendous rate. At the same time, anti-pollution restrictions eliminate certain grades of oil as fuel and foster demand for other grades low in pollutants. Babson's Reports does not by any means fear running out of oil, but substantial new reserves must be constantly searched out to meet the growing needs of the future.

Virtually No Limits

To meet these requirements and maintain an orderly economic distribution pattern, the oil industry now explores in almost every corner of the globe. Only limits restraining the industry are the water depths offshore beyond the continental shelf, and these will doubtless be conquered. With today's advanced seismic techniques, the industry has been able to "map" potential oil-bearing acreage in places never before dreamed of. As such locations come into production, the entire economies of nations are altered.

The wealth of the Arab countries is well known. Libya—in arid North Africa—not only recently became a beneficiary of oil royalties, but is also utilizing a tremendous reservoir of underground water discovered by Occidental Petroleum. Nigeria, in West Africa, is another undeveloped country that could eventually prosper from huge oil production. Australia and New Zealand will become more self-sufficient in petroleum if promising onshore and offshore exploration proves productive. Lastly, there are indications of a sizable pool of oil beneath the China Sea between Japan and Taiwan. Development here could involve complex international political moves since Communist China could logically be a claimant to this oil.

At home, the Alaskan North Slope has been much in the news with a 5-to-10-billion-barrel pool of oil awaiting production. Even further to the north, the Canadian Arctic islands could be even more prolific. The problems of extraction and distribution from these regions will be massive and costly, but eventually this wealth of "black gold" will have a marked effect on world petroleum markets.

Political Climates

An important consideration in pursuing continuing world-wide exploration is the degree of economic and political stability a region possesses. This explains the current interest and activity in Indonesia, which—although long a significant oil-producing country—has achieved political stability only in recent years. Prior to that, oil concerns either were not permitted to operate in the area or were reluctant to commit capital because of the unhealthy political climate. The Middle East and South America must also be considered somewhat unstable, with an ever-present risk of expropriation or stringent royalty terms. However, Babson's Reports feels that the abundance of oil reserves in these areas tends to offset such risks.

Recommendations

Most of the major oil companies have diverse world-wide exploration and development programs. Investors looking at these companies should closely examine the potentials and pitfalls of foreign operations, as well as the basics of the firms involved. As in the case of the Alaskan North Slope, many spectacular discoveries will be a long time translating into earnings per share. Among companies the staff of Babson's Reports now favors for purchase are Continental Oil (acreage in Indonesia, Africa, Canada, etc.), Standard Oil of California (Venezuela, Alaska, Canada, Middle East, etc.), and Standard Oil of New Jersey (Canada, Australia, Alaska, Libya, etc.).

He has put eternity into man's mind.—(Eccles. 3:11).

We are in reality slaves of time. Sometimes we waste hours and days, yet fret, and feel hounded and pressured by the loss of even a few minutes. Yet, God has given man eternity. Man has splintered this gift into minutes, hours, days, months, and years. Although we live in the eternal now, participate in today to the full. Then you will remain a vital part of the present.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day

A Rough Ride

There is no truth to the rumor that the Dragon contrada, or ward, of Siena, Italy has sought to engage Jockey Carlos Manuel de Ycaza to ride in the famed Palio.

Probably the oldest continually run horse race, and certainly the strangest religious ceremony, in the world, the Palio, or banner, is run for each year, and is the last remnant of the chivalric games of Tuscany in the Middle Ages. However, the riders are anything but chivalrous to each other.

The "track" over which one of Caesar Borgia's horses won in 1492 is the Piazza del Campo, a public square roughly similar in design to the forums of ancient Rome. The brick and flagstone course is given a "cushion" of sand for the occasion. The distance is three times around and there are no stewards, patrol judges or film patrol. As a matter of fact, the object is to take your best hold, and no holds are barred. The whips fall more frequently on other riders than on the horse. Originally there were 17 wards competing, but some fatal accidents caused the field to be limited to 10, seven wards being represented by rotation and three drawn by lot.

To the winning ward goes the Palio to be placed among the sacred trophies of the church. To the winning jockey goes unfading fame and gifts of all kinds.

A message to those Americans who don't happen to think the land of milk and honey is going all sour.

Our country is in a strange mood these days.

Uncertainty surrounds us.

So what can you do about it?

Well, first of all, maybe you should take a long, hard look at this country of ours. Maybe we should look at our healthy side as well as our ills.

And maybe, just maybe, you'll find we're not all that bad.

Sure we have our problems. And they're not going to go away if you just stand along the sidelines as a spectator.

But they might start to go away if you seriously want to do something for your country.

A U.S. Savings Bond is one way. Let's say you fork over $18.75 of your hard-earned cash. Through a Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or at your bank. That will give you a Bond that's worth $25.00 in just 7 years. If you did that every month you'd stash away quite a nest egg for yourself.

And so would your country. Your country would be economically stronger to find remedies for some of the headaches we have. While it's preserving something called freedom.

Something that's hard to appreciate. Until you lose it.

Savings Bonds now have a new high interest rate of 4 1/2%. And buying them gives you the privilege of also buying the even higher interest 5% Freedom Shares in combination.

However you look at it, it simply makes a lot of sense to invest in your country. After all, it's the only country you've got.

Frederick County Backgrounds

By SAMUEL CARRICK

The Rev. Robert (2) Annan, by his two marriages, launched his family in America. By his first wife, Margaret Cochran, the daughter of William and Sarah Cochran, three children were born to the Presbyterian divine, as follows:

1. Robert (3) Landales Annan, born 1765, died 1827, married to Mary Cochran "a cousin of sorts", who was born in 1765 and died in 1826.

Dr. Robert L. (3) Annan was a physician and surgeon, and practiced his profession "on both sides of the Mason and Dixon Line." According to his record book, which is still preserved by his descendants, his patients were many and varied and boasted "all the ills that flesh is heir to".

According to a fairly reliable tradition, Dr. Robert L. (3) Annan and his wife, Mary (Cochran) Annan, were first interred in the Tract graveyard, but later were moved, along with others, and re-interred in Tom's Creek Presbyterian churchyard.

A rather large, impressive stone, enclosed by an iron fence, marks the graves of the pioneer physician and his helpmate. The inscription follows:

1. "Under this marble rest, the bodies of Robert Annan, M.D., and Mary, his wife. The former died July 12, 1827, aged 62 years. The latter died Feb. 7, 1826, aged 57 years."

Dr. Robert L. (3) Annan and his graduate of Brown University of Providence, Rhode Island, and a pupil of Dr. Rush of Philadelphia, Pa."

Dr. Robert L. (3) Annan and his wife were the parents of nine children, as follows:

1. Sally (4) Annan, born 1792, died 1796. Note: If this little girl is interred in the family plot in Tom's Creek Presbyterian churchyard the grave is unmarked at the present time. Undoubtedly at one time there was a gravestone, but it has long since disappeared.

2. Robert (4) Annan, born 1793, died 1866. Married Mary Moore, who was born in the year 1809 and died in 1885.

In a plot somewhat distant from that of his father and mother, Robert (4) Annan and his family are buried in Tom's Creek. The inscriptions follow:

2. "In memory of Robert Annan of Innandale, born Oct. 27, 1793, died April 7, 1866, aged 72 years."

"Mary J. Annan, wife of Robert Annan, born May 4, 1809, died Aug. 13, 1883, aged 74 years."

3. "In memory of Margaret Annan, daughter of Robert and Mary J. Annan, born June 30, 1836, died June 23, 1854, aged 18 years."

Note: This inscription is self-explanatory. The second daughter and fourth child of Robert (4) and Mary J. (Moore) Annan.

4. "In memory of Mary Jane Annan, daughter of Robert and Mary J. Annan, died July 19, 1834, aged 4 years, 9 months and 18 days."

Note: Mary Jane (5) Annan is recorded on the family chart as "Martha Jane Annan" but this could be an error. Since the gravestone was probably erected soon after the child's death, the name cut thereon is more likely the correct one.

5. "In memory of Robert Landales Annan, son of Robert and Mary J. Annan, born Feb. 26, 1832, died Feb. 4, 1844, aged 11 years, 11 months and 8 days."

Note: The second child of Robert (4) and Mary J. (Moore) Annan and the fourth of their children to die.

6. "In memory of James Moore Annan, son of Robert and M. J. Annan, died Feb. 21, 1835, aged 9 months and 6 days."

Note: Again the inscription tells the whole story—a sad, but "oft-told tale" in the days when infant mortality was tragically high.

7. "In memory of Mary Jane Annan, daughter of Robert and M. J. Annan, died Jan. 19, 1835, aged 4 years, 5 months and 24 days."

Note: This little girl died less than a month before her brother, James Moore (5) Annan. The cause of both deaths must have been some contagious disease — perhaps diphtheria.

Buried in the same plot with this branch of the Annan family are three members of the Moore clan—probably the parents and sister of Mary J. (Moore) Annan. The inscriptions follow:

8. "In memory of Margaret Moore, daughter of James and Jane S. Moore, died June 13, 1842, aged 31 years, 1 month and 8 days."

Note: Undoubtedly a sister of Mary J. Moore Annan, who died unmarried at the comparatively early age of 31 years.

9. "In memory of Jane Scott Moore, wife of James Moore, born

Sept. 6, 1786, died May 9, 1849, aged 62 years, 8 months and 3 days."

Note: The mother of Mary J. (Moore) Annan and a member of the Scott family. It is quite possible that this woman belonged to the "Marsh Creek" Scotts—but at the present time, there is no proof for or against this theory.

10. "In memory of James Moore, born Oct. 6, 1785, died Oct. 19, 1821."

Note: The father of Mary J. (Moore) Annan and Margaret Moore and the husband of Jane (Scott) Moore—this man was only 36 years of age at the time of his death.

In addition to the children buried in the family plot of Robert (4) Annan, two others are listed on the family chart.

Henry Clay (5) Annan, born 1843, died 1914, married Elizabeth McCandless.

Ann Eliza (5) Annan, married Harry Galt.

2. William (3) Annan, the second child of Robert (2) and Margaret (Cochran) Annan, was born in 1767 and died 1797. He was married to Jennett Schuyler.

3. Margaret (3) Annan, the third and last child born to Robert (2) and Margaret (Cochran) Annan, was born in the year 1798 and died 1826. She was twice married—first to John Curtis Clay (born 1792, died 1863) and secondly to Simmons Edey.

The notes on the Annan family, particularly those pertaining to the children born of Robert (2) Annan's second marriage, will be continued in this series next week.

AN OPINION

By W. Terry Smith

The defeat of John Lindsay in the New York Republican primary, and his subsequent decision to run on the Liberal ticket, is the best thing that has happened to the G.O.P. since Hubert Humphrey's candidacy.

Finally, Mr. Lindsay's political ideologies are in complete harmony with his party affiliation. For Republicans such as Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Javits, Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Percy, etc., the knell should not be mistaken for what it portends. The time is fast approaching when the liberal north eastern faction who for so long have dominated the Republican party's direction, will be relegated to its proper perspective of simply another minority faction.

The liberal domination is ending and for the best possible reason; the loyalties of the majority simply lie elsewhere.

Since Senator Goldwater's nomination in 1964, and the ascendancy of such as Governor Reagan, Senator Tower, Senator Murphy, Senator Dominick, and the reelection to the senate of Mr. Goldwater, the ideological direction of the party is unmistakable.

With the absolutely predictable defeat of Nelson Rockefeller next year, it remains only for the death rattle to begin. For John Lindsay the eventual end was inevitable. The physical facade housing that vacuous brain simply had to wear thin. For Gov. Rockefeller with a little more substance to him, the finale will be slightly longer in coming. But come it will.

This should not be construed to mean that there is no room for differences. To the contrary, it is essential that differences do exist if vitality is to be maintained. What it does mean however, is no longer will the maverick antics of a few manifesting itself in the non support of candidate or platform be tolerated.

The spectacle of Lindsay disavowing the party and its leaders; the spectacle of Rockefeller refusing to support the nominee, these no longer will be tolerated.

John Lindsay is a politically dead as the Ku Klux Klan. Rockefeller's political extinction is inevitable. It couldn't happen to two more deserving people.
