What a jolt it would be if, suddenly, half the population of our town was wiped out!

It would make international headlines; the Red Cross would be here, taking care of survivors; administering medical and financial aid. The President would declare this a disaster area; sympathy and help would come from all over.

Why, then, do we accept as normal, the fact that over Five Hundred persons lose their lives over our three day weekends?

Secretary of Transportation, John Volpe, goes on TV and tells us to be careful; take advantage of that free coffee to keep us alert. Millions have been spent on the campaign to "Fasten your seat belt", but the slaughter goes on!

If you drive, don't drink. If you drink, don't drive, is good advice, but who listens. Booze sales traditionally go over the holidays.

If you hit a wall with your car at 60 MPH, it is the same as plunging off a three story building, but they insist on making 'em bigger, faster and more powerful all the time.

Personally, I believe that it will take the shock treatment brand of education to bring us to our senses!

Let's show actual picture of automobile accidents, with mangled bodies and parts of bodies strewn all over the landscape. Let's show it in "Living (pardon) Color."

Let's show actual pictures of all of us! Let's make the penalty for booze and speed related accidents a criminal offense.

With all this verbage about our over population, we can forget about the pill—just give us more three - day holidays and maintain the status-quo!

Doesn't it make you kinda' sick to read about our celebrities and their shennanigans?

The latest stomach pumper is this national news about our golden voiced idol, Mr. Francis Sinatra!

It seems he got riled up because the management of one of the glitter joints in Vegas, would not give him credit to play cards at $16,000 per hand! That's right, $16,000 per!

When you get that little note from the IRS, early next year, just be brave and think about all that money that Frankie Boy blows in the gambling dens!

I have a friend who flies a little single engine airplane. He says that he won't take a stranger for a ride any more, 'cause he is afraid that he will hi-jack him and take the plane to Ocean City! Ha!

Had quite an argument going the other evening on the relative merits of eating corn on the cob.

I contend that you should eat down the rows, like a typewriter, others say you should go 'round and 'round!

How do you eat your corn? I'd be interested in getting a consensus of opinion. Wonder what Emily Post would say?

Student-Cyclist Hurt In Mishap

A Mt. St. Mary's College student was admitted to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, after his motorcycle collided with a car on Kelbaugh Road, five miles south of Emmitsburg, at 5:45 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

The student, Brooke Alfaro, 21, was removed to the hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance. The hospital listed Alfaro in satisfactory condition with injuries to his left ankle.

Maryland State Police said Alfaro was cresting a hill on his northbound motorcycle when he crossed the highway on a curve and collided with the left side of a southbound car driven by Edward Joseph Ridenour, Thurmont, who had run partially off his right berm to avoid a collision with the cycle. Damage was estimated at $75 to the motorcycle and $70 to the side of Ridenour's car.

It has been computed that of every 100,000 persons examined for their intelligence, about 6,750 would be rated very superior, 13,000 better-than-average, 66,500 average, 13,000 below average, and 750 morons.

Firemen Plan Shooting Match

Members of the Vigilant Hose Co. will sponsor a shooting match on Sunday, Oct. 4, at Stouter's meadow, south of Emmitsburg. Participation will be limited to 12-gauge shotguns with shells being furnished. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be on sale. A 50-50 raffle is planned in conjunction with the match.

The name "police dog" is not applicable to any particular breed of dog. There are dogs of all kinds—shepherd, cross-breeds, and even mongrels—that have been trained in police work. The breed of dog most commonly referred to as "police dog" is the German shepherd.

MRS. M. J. KAAS

Mrs. Charity Elizabeth Kaas, 86, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Pastorett, E. Main St., Emmitsburg, Sunday morning after being in ill health for the last six months.

A native of Frederick County, she was the daughter of the late John D. Dubel and Alberta Eigenbrode Dubel. She was the widow of Martin Joseph Kaas who died in 1955. She was a member of St. Anthony's Shrine Catholic Church.

Surviving are two sons and a daughter, John D. Kaas, Rocky Ridge; Daniel J. Kaas and Mrs. Mary Pastorett, both of Emmitsburg; 11 grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren; two brothers, John Dubel, Rocky Ridge, and Ernest Dubel, Frederick.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning with a requiem Mass at 9 a.m. at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with her pastor, the Rev. Fr. Vincent Tomalski, officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Edward Althoff, Robert and David Kaas, Robert Saylor, Dr. John C. Park and Donald Pastorett.

Wilson Funeral Home, Emmitsburg, was in charge of arrangements.

Georgia Legislator To Address Mount Student Body And Guests

September 23, Bond, a member of Georgia's House of Representatives, will speak on the subject: "What Next?" Anticipating a major public turnout for the free lecture, the Mount's cultural events committee, headed by Rev. Paul V. Redmond, has scheduled the event for the college gymnasium. It begins at 8 p.m.

Bond helped found and served for a time as executive secretary of the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights, the Atlanta University Center student organization that coordinated three years of student anti-segregation protests in Atlanta beginning in 1960. In April of 1960 he helped organize the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. That summer he joined the newly formed Atlanta weekly Negro newspaper, the Atlanta Inquirer, as a reporter and feature writer. He later became managing editor.

In January 1961, Bond became communication director of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, taking part in civil rights drives in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas.

He was first elected to a seat created by reapportionment in the Georgia House of Representatives in 1965, but was prevented from taking office in January, 1966, by members of the legislature who objected to his statements about the war in Vietnam. After winning a second election in February, 1966 . . . to fill his vacant seat . . . a special House Committee again voted to bar him from membership in the legislature.

Bond won a third election in November, 1966, and in December, 1966, the United States Supreme Court ruled unanimously that the Georgia House had erred in refusing him his seat. On January 9, 1967, he took the oath of office and became a member of the Georgia House of Representatives. In the Georgia House, Bond serves as a member of the Education, Insurance and State Institutions and Properties Committees.

Bond is a member of the Boards of: the Delta Ministry Project of the National Council of Churches, the Robert Kennedy Memorial Fund, the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center, the Center for Community Change, the Highlander Research and Education Center, The National Sharecropper's Fund, the Southern Regional Council, NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc., the New Democratic Coalition, and the Advisory Board of the Voter Education Project.

He has been a Research Associate of the Voter Education Project, and is a Visiting Fellow of the Metropolitan Applied Research Center of New York City. He is an Honorary Trustee of the Institute of Applied Politics.

Bond was co-chairman of the Georgia Loyal National Democratic Delegation, an insurgent group, to the 1968 Democratic National Convention. The Loyal Democrats were successful in unseating the regular, hand-picked, Georgia Delegation.

Bond was later nominated for Vice President, but withdrew his name from consideration because of his age.

40% Vote Turnout For Primary Election

A surprising 40% of Frederick County voters turned out for Tuesday's Primary Election as perfect weather prevailed. Election Board officials reported the election as "smooth" and the tallying was expedited by the use of the 9200 Univac computer. Without the machine it is estimated that another three hours would have been required to complete the tally.

Frederick Countains voted with the state in all but one of the congressional races. In the Democratic race for U. S. Senator, Joseph D. Tydings edged George P. Mahoney 3,502 to 3,413, a margin of 89 votes, in the county and won in the state. Local voters cast 886 ballots for Walter G. Finch and 339 ballots for Charles D. White.

In the Republican senatorial primary, Frederick County voters nominated favorite J. Glenn Beall with 4,805 votes. Wainwright Dawson received 215 votes locally and Harry Simms got 221 votes.

Frederick County voters went against the state results in the Republican race for 6th district Congressman, endorsing favorite son Elton Wampler by a 1,000-vote margin over his opponent. District results, however, gave an overwhelming majority of the votes to George R. Hughes. Local results were 2,303 for Wampler, 1,072 for Everett R. Johnson and 1,098 for George R. Hughes. The district results gave Hughes 15,692, Wampler 5,603 and Johnson 4,409.

The Democratic congressional race brought victory in the county and the district for another favorite son, Goodloe E. Byron, who received a district total of 25,521 of which 7,144 were local votes. This is his second primary victory for the post. Thomas F. Conlon got 622 votes here and 5,959 district-wide. Charles C. McPeck received 170 local votes and totalled 1,237 in the district.

Gubernatorial favorites in both party primaries won in Frederick County and the state as Republican C. Stanley Blair received 3,784 local votes and incumbent Democrat Marvin Mandel got 7,209 votes here. Republicans Peter James and John C. Webb got 555 and 323 respectively while on the Democratic side William E. Roberts got 297 votes, Milton R. Rothstein received 86, Dan W. Salamone got 148 and George Herman Wright got 630 locally.

In the Republican contest for state comptroller, local voters gave Harold Cross 2,296 votes and Howard F. Wiedey got 1,093 votes. State-wide victor in the race was Wiedey. Democratic incumbent Louis Goldstein was not opposed in the primary.

Democratic incumbent for the State Senate, Charles H. Smelser, topped the tally in this district with 8,287 of which 5, 242 were Frederick votes. Edward D. Storm received the most local votes with 5,431 and a total of 7,738 in the district. Both men will run for the two vacancies in November. Unsuccessful candidate James N. Simmons of Frederick received 1,957 votes locally and 3,742 in the district. The two seats were uncontested in the Republican primary — Edward P. Thomas Jr. of Frederick and Arnold Amoss of Westminster.

In local races, Samuel Barrick won the nomination for judge of the 6th Judicial district in both primaries over challenger Charles U. Price, in effect eliminating the necessity for a general election contest.

In the Democratic primary Barrick polled 5,424 to Price's 2,630 and in the Republican contest Barrick received 3,026 to his opponent's 2,279. Barrick campaigned on the "sitting judge" principle that the incumbent should be returned to office on his record. Barrick was appointed by the governor last year to fill the unexpired portion of the judgeship following the retirement of former Judge Patrick Schnauffer.

The three nominations to House of Delegates in the Democratic primary went to incumbent C. Clifton Virts with 5,498 votes, county commissioner Wallace E. Hutton with 4,653 votes and Galen R. Clagett with 4,629 votes. Unsuccessful candidates were Charles H. Baker with 2,476 votes, Robert P. Muench, 1,716 and George W. Weatherhold 1,841.

In the Republican primary the three nominees for House of Delegates were Julien P. Delphey with 3,759 votes, Ray H. Smith 3,685 and J. Richard Hurson 2,944. Unsuccessful candidate Dr. Gerald Schipper received 2,771 votes.

Other winners in local races based on the unofficial results from all 79 precincts, were led by incumbents.

In the Democratic race for county commissioner, incumbent Charles E. Collins placed second in the voting with 4,091. He was topped by Lawrence A. Dorsey, Burgess of Woodsboro and former commissioner, with 4,959 votes. The third nominee was A. Irvin Renn with 3,712 votes, also a former commissioner.

Unsuccessful Democratic candidates were Paul B. Ganley with 2,674 votes, Robert E. Gary 1,470, William E. Shepley 2,553, and Raymond J. Smith 1,927.

Republican nominees for commissioner were former Frederick mayor John A. Derr with 3,792 votes, followed by Donald L. Lewis, former mayor of Thurmont, with 2,970 votes, and incumbent commissioner Russell Z. Horman running a close third with 2,853. Unsuccessful candidates were G. Eugene Anderson with 2,236 votes and Charles E. Carbaugh with 1,393.

The Republican race for Sheriff was topped by Richard Baumgartner with 1,945 votes. Unsuccessful candidates included James F. Cuppino with 905 votes, Richard E. Howard 1,184 and Howard Eugene Whims with 626.

On the Democratic side, incumbent sheriff Crummell P. Jacobs won handily with 5,084 votes. Charles S. Tregoning got 989 votes, Denver J. Shook received 1,225 votes, Hayes L. Metz, Sr. got 466 and Howard S. Fink got 448.

Incumbent Register of Wills Thomas Eichelberger was nominated in the Democratic race, leading his opponent Carroll H. Kehne with 6,180 to 1,802 votes. There was no Republican contest.

Incumbent county treasurer Mrs. Charlotte Yarrow Kerrigan won the Democratic nomination with 4,678 votes to opponent George J. Stup's 3,265. There was no Republican contest.

In the Democratic contest for State Central Committee the top seven positions were captured by Allen R. Rutzahn with 4,329 votes, Dr. B. O. Thomas with 4,285, John T. Best 3,996, Austin C. Powell (the incumbent chairman) 3,405, Frederick J. Bower 3,320, John M. Crum 3,247 and Alvey V. Renn with 3,180 votes.

Unsuccessful candidates included Franklin S. Gladhill 2,704, Otho James Keller IV, 2,276, J. Tyson Lee, 1,942, J. Sherman Mason, Jr., 1,647, Herman B. Miller 2,321, Charles F. Murphy 2,484, Harry H. Reid 2,317, Roger M. Shaw 2,275 and Millard S. Smith 2,508.

Elected to seven Republican State Central Committee seats were Mrs. Lorene W. Bowls with 3,339 votes, William B. Crum 3,086, Merhle H. Duvall 2,981, Garland P. Feaga 2,878, Ralph L. Gastley, Jr. 2,745, J. Harold Hooper 2,740 and Walter A. Martz with 2,353 votes.

Unsuccessful candidates were John E. Crawford Jr. 1,037, Evelyn C. Leonard 1,419, Harriet E. Schindel, 1,561, Steven T. Swank 1,289, Margaret L. Thompson with 1,653 and Harry F. Rhoderick, 1,979.

Though the above results are unofficial, no major changes are expected following the verification procedures of the Board of Election Supervisors in which absentee ballots will be included in the tallies.

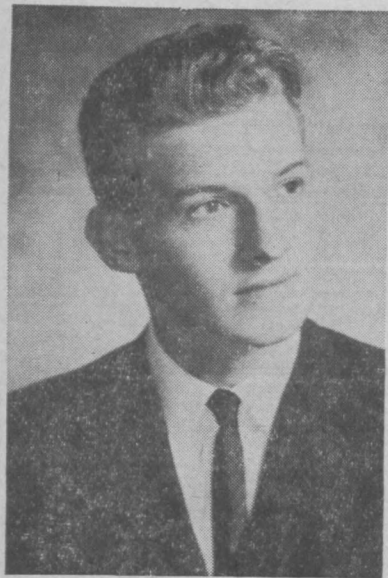

Emmitsburg Tract Sold
Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hewitt sold their unimproved tract of land west of Emmitsburg, to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gaydos. The property contains 4.41 acres and is situated along Hampton Valley Road. The purchasers obtain immediate possession. The sale was negotiated by George T. Keech, Baltimore Real Estate Broker, formerly of Creagerstown.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. White have returned from a two-week visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John D. White, Jr., in Sunnyvale, Calif. They were accompanied by Miss Hester Allen of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Charles Fague of Chambersburg. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Brent Barker of Mt. View, Calif. Mrs. Barker is the daughter of Mrs. Fague and the niece of Mrs. White.

Flower Show Draws Well

The Flower and Art Show, "Yesterday in Posies and Paint", presented by the Silver Fancy Garden Club, Emmitsburg-Taneytown, and The Alley Artists, on Friday, Sept. 11, was well attended by an appreciative public. The home and garden of Mr. and Mrs. James Baumgardner, 10 York St., Taneytown, proved a most appropriate setting for the artistic arrangements of club members, the horticultural exhibits and the work of local artists.

Mrs. Robert Clingan, president of the Silver Fancy Garden Club, announces the following judges for the flower show: Mrs. Robert Clapp, Jr., Frederick; Miss Helen Smith, Braddock; Mrs. Sylvester Gower, Sharpsburg; Mrs. Alvin Bineau, Hagerstown; Mrs. Leeds Billingslea and Mrs. M. K. Talley, Westminster. First, second and third place ribbons and honorable mention were given in all classes at the discretion of the judges. Best of blues, or first, was merited in both the Artistic and horticultural division.

Winners in the Artistic Division were:

Best of show — Mrs. Keith Brown.

Class III—Arrangement of all fresh fall flowers: first, Mrs. Theodore Fair; second, Mrs. John Chenoweth; third, Mrs. George Shower; honorable, Mrs. James Baumgardner.

Class IV—Arrangement featuring roses: first, Mrs. Charles Smith; second, Mrs. Hewitt MacPherson; third, Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner.

Class V—Design of fresh fruit and/or vegetables: first, Mrs. Keith Brown; second, Mrs. John Zent; third, Mrs. Robert Clingan; honorable mention, Mrs. A. D. Alexander.

Winners in the Horticultural Division were:

Best of the Show—Mrs. Norman Sauble.

Chrysanthemums: honorable mention: Mrs. George Shower and Mrs. Keith Brown.

Marigolds: First, Mrs. John White; second, Mrs. John Weaver and Mrs. Simon Klosky; third, Mrs. John Zent and Mrs. Dorothy Arch; honorable mention, Claudia Zent.

Zinnias: First, Mrs. Theodore Fair and Mrs. Robert Clingan; second, Mrs. John White and Mrs. Charles H. Smith; third, Mrs. Robert Clingan and Mrs. Simon Klosky.

Petunias: First, Mrs. Simon Klosky and Mrs. Neil Hawk; second, Mrs. Vernon Keilholtz; third, Mrs. Vernon Keilholtz and Mrs. Harry Mohney; honorable mention, Mrs. John White, Mrs. John Zent and Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner.

Celosia: First, Mrs. Norman Sauble and Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner; second, Mrs. Glenn Weaver and Mrs. Ray Crumpacker; third, Mrs. Vernon Keilholtz.

Roses: First, Mrs. Vernon Keilholtz and Mrs. George Harner and Mrs. Simon Klosky; second, Mrs. George Harner, Mrs. Simon Klosky (3) and Mrs. Roy Kiser; third, Mrs. Roy Kiser (2), Mrs. Thomas Frailey and Mrs. John White.

Gladioli: First, Mrs. Simon Klosky (2); third, Mrs. Simon Klosky.

Best of the Garden: First, Mrs. Vernon Keilholtz; second, Mrs. Simon Klosky; third, Mrs. Robert Clingan; honorable mention, Mrs. George Harner, Mrs. John Chenoweth, Mrs. George Shower, Mrs. John White and Mrs. Keith Brown.

One of the many attractions of the Art Show was the opportunity to observe Mrs. Frank Libman, one of The Alley Artists, at work at her easel. Other members of this group who exhibited paintings were: Mrs. Hewitt MacPherson, Mrs. Robert Clingan, Mrs. James Baumgardner and Mrs. Allen Roadcap.

Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, general chairman, announces the following committee chairmen who assisted in the production of the show: Art, Mrs. Gately Flynn; Schedule, Mrs. Hewitt MacPherson; Staging and Properties, Mrs. Theodore Fair; Entries, Mrs. Charles Smith; Classification, Mrs. George Shower; Placement, Mrs. Vernon Keilholtz; Hospitality, Mrs. A. D. Alexander; Judges, Mrs. Robert Clingan; Publicity, Mrs. John Chenoweth; Program, Mrs. John Zent.

Mrs. Baumgardner attributes the success of the show to the united efforts of all members of the Silver Fancy Garden Club and The Alley Artists and the fine support of an interested public.

Couple Feted On 50th Anniversary

In a typical late summer garden setting, mid a profusion of flowers in all the colors of summer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stoner hosted their many friends and relatives at a 50th wedding anniversary "open house" that was given in their honor by their sons and daughter-in-law. The hosts and hostess were Louis Stoner, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Stoner of Chevy Chase, Md. The beauty of the garden setting was enhanced by the lovely old white stone house and the floral decoration that were so tactfully arranged throughout the house, these were sent to the celebrants by their many friends.

The garden was arranged with many lovely tables topped with gold and white umbrellas, the center table held a three tiered wedding cake which had been designed in gold and white by Junie Stoner; the beauty of the cake was enhanced by the beauty of the yellow sweetheart rose that was a perfect part of the whole design.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoner were married September 2, 1920, by the Reverend John Kerr, assistant pastor of Saint Mary's Catholic Church, Hagerstown. Mrs. Stoner was the former Anna Margaret Bishop, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bishop, who were life-long residents of the Emmitsburg community.

In his early years, Mr. Stoner was employed at St. Joseph's College in the print shop and later worked with Mr. Sterling Galt, who was then owner and editor of the Chronicle. Mr. Stoner is a veteran of World War I. On January 1, 1934, he was appointed Postmaster and remained in that position until his retirement in 1965; he had served the community for 31 years in government service.

Mr. Stoner is a well-known stamp collector. He is also vitally interested in the Senior Citizens Club and has been treasurer for this group since its founding four years ago.

Mrs. Stoner is not without some interest besides her job as homemaker and mother. She is a charter member of the VFW Auxiliary and has been treasurer for this group for 18 years. Her hobby is collecting antiques and her house is the evidence of this hobby. She also has always been active in helping her husband with his community interests.

The open house was catered by the VFW Auxiliary. The wedding cake was cut by a long time friend of the couple and a former resident of Emmitsburg, Mrs. Robert Daugherty of Hagerstown.

Approximately 100 neighbors, relatives and friends were present to share the happy occasion and bring their wishes for happiness, good luck and long life. Guests came from Hagerstown, Frederick, Hanover, Baltimore and California.

The three great generals in world history who were never defeated were Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar, and the Duke of Wellington.

BUSINESS and the STOCK MARKET

by BABSON'S REPORTS
Copyright 1970

Back To First Principles
By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., September 17, 1970—In turbulent stock market periods, many investors tend to lose their perspective. As a result, deflated growth stocks and asset-laden mature or cyclical stocks are likely to be tossed overboard because of pessimism resulting from temporary paper losses, and good buys tend to be ignored. At such times, management of one's portfolio requires careful adherence to a sound investment program.

Choose Your Objective Wisely
The main function of portfolio management is to guide an investor toward a desired objective. A prerequisite, therefore, is selection of a goal best suited to the investor's personal situation. Choice must be predicated upon many factors, such as age, family circumstances, health, income, and personal temperament.

A person who is retired and must have some investment income to supplement social security, annuity and pension payments, should seek the highest current yield commensurate with the continuity of such income and the safety of investment capital. But for the investor whose earning power is still rising, emphasis should be on capital growth since the income is not needed for normal living requirements. With the aid of a sensible family budget, investors in this category can generate some new investment capital each year.

Follow Your Investment Policy
Having selected one of the two aforementioned goals—or one somewhere in between—make your investment commitments in line with your objective. It is always well, however, to remain flexible enough to contend with changes in business and financial conditions, and to weather unexpected domestic or international reverses. One aspect of this flexibility is maintenance of a backlog of investment reserves, including bank deposits and good-quality bonds. These can be used to make new commitments in depressed or undervalued securities, and they serve as a tranquilizer for jangled nerves in times of stress.

The balance of one's investment portfolio may be devoted to convertible securities and common stocks. This segment should be protected by diversification, as to industry and geographical region.

Current Investment Opportunity
With both the bond market and the stock market still not too far from their recent cyclical lows, the investor can advantageously implement his investment policy. The reserve sections of an investment account may still reap generous current investment returns from high-quality bonds and preferred stocks.

And, despite the stock market's advance since late May, there are still many attractively priced convertible securities and common stocks of well-established and financially sound industry leaders. The frightful pummeling suffered by the glamor issues of the past bull market has also uncovered attractive buys for investors who can undertake the risk of possible further temporary slippage.

Buy Candidates

For the income-oriented, the Tennessee Valley Authority 8 3/4s of 1975, the Texaco 5 3/4s of 1997, and the Bell Telephone of Pennsylvania 8 5/8s of 2006 are buys among bonds. Aluminum Company of America $3.75 Cumulative Preferred and General Motors $5 Cumulative Preferred are also suitable for safety and continuity of income, with a measure of capital appreciation potential when money rates ease further. In the realm of convertible securities, the Florida Gas debentures 4 3/4s of 1987, the Ralston Purina debentures 4 7/8s of 1992, and the Tenneco Inc. $5.50 Convertible Preference stock are worth considering. Among common stocks, the Research Staff of Babson's Reports currently favors issues such as Standard Oil of Indiana and R. J. Reynolds Industries for income accounts. For capital appreciation and growth-oriented portfolios, Heublein, American Sterilizer, Morton-Norwich, Dresser Industries, and Rollins Inc. are attractive.

Model Plane Meet
Sunday At Frederick

There is a skill to flying an airplane, especially when the plane is in the air and the pilot is on the ground. This will be the situation on Sunday, September 20, at the Frederick Municipal Airport, when the 1970 Maryland Model Airplane Meet gets under way.

This annual event draws model enthusiasts from throughout the Eastern part of the United States.

From Maine to Florida, from the Atlantic to the Mississippi, they load their planes and their families and drive to Frederick, anxious to match their building and flying skills against the competition.

Well-known names in airplane modeling—such as Walt Good, Maynard Hill, Bob Sifleet, and John Patton—are expected to enter their latest models. Stunt flying, precision aerobatics, rat racing, scale racing, and combat flying will be combined with other areas of competition to thrill the spectators.

The Frederick Civil Air Patrol Squadron will operate a food concession on the field for the convenience of modelers and spectators. Proceeds from the concession will be used by the squadron to purchase search and rescue equipment and aerospace education materials for the cadet program.

The public is invited to attend the meet, which is scheduled to start at 8 a.m. and run until 4:30 p.m.

Anti-Clutter Tool Saves Time, Tempers

Nothing is more annoying than looking for something you need in a hurry and not being able to lay your hands right on it, especially in the kitchen where most of your work is done. How much easier it is on your nerves to have everything clearly identified — saves steps, saves time!

Have you ever turned your house upside down and topsyturvy looking for a particular item in a hurry, or rummaged through a catch-all drawer of accumulated clutter? You fret and fuss, and wear your temper to a frazzle.

Consider what professionals in business and industry do. Office managers and production supervisors, who can't afford to lose their cool, have found an answer to the problem of what to do with unidentified objects, and additionally, a simple way to convey important messages. They use tape label-making systems to organize supplies, identify equipment with correct operating instructions, and to post safety warnings. In many cases, just the simple use of strategically-placed label tapes has paid off, according to Dymo Products Company, which manufactures these systems, in more efficient use of equipment, improved employee relations, fewer wasted steps, and a curb in industrial accidents.

Now, the idea of systematic organization has been adapted for home use. Dymo has developed a tiny tool called the Label-Ette that, like the bigger models used in industrial applications, produces colorful, easy-to-read embossed labels. You simply click out the letters you imprinted on pre-cut strips of vinyl tape. The tape strips can then be applied to anything that requires a quick, permanent identification.

A few of the uses around the house: in the kitchen to identify spice canisters; in the linen closet to save time in locating the correct size sheets and towels; for posting emergency telephone numbers; instructions of how to change a fuse or circuit breaker; organizing the family workshop. Youngsters, especially those just learning to spell, can print their own personalized labels to identify their toys, books, clothing, sporting equipment.

While similar in principle to the more complex versions used in industry, the inexpensive Label-Ette is completely safe even for the youngsters, and a snap to use.

The Birnies Of Piney Creek

Before continuing the biographical outline of the Krise family, of New Jersey, Maryland, and Pennsylvania, there are several additional notes pertaining to the Galt (or Gault) family, of Pennsylvania and Maryland, that should be included.

It is interesting to note that according to Holdcraft (1966) the Galts of Maryland buried in only one place—Piney Creek Presbyterian churchyard. Mr. Holdcraft's two volumes, including over seventy-five thousand gravestone inscriptions, lists only this one graveyard as the burial place of the Galts.

The early records of Piney Creek have been "lost, strayed, or stolen" and in the first church book, still in existence, the first date is May 1, 1806. Included in a subscription list for that year is the name "Matthew Gault" and it will be remembered that Matthew (1), the husband of Elizabeth Simpson, was the pioneer ancestor of the "Galts of Maryland."

In 1821 (the day and month are not given) the Rev. Robrt Smith Grier married "William Jones to Mary Galt." In 1824, included among a list of the membership at Piney Creek, were Matthew Galt, Mary Galt, Elizabeth Galt, Susan Galt, Rebecca Galt, Sterling Galt, Margaret Galt, Samuel Galt, and Mary Galt.

In year 1817, in a list of those subscribing to the "pastor's salary at Piney Creek" are included Matthew Galt, John Galt, and Moses Galt.

Now to return to the Krise family—it will be remembered that Washington (4) Galt married Louisa Krise and this is the connecting link between the two clans. A record of this marriage is to be found in the "Adams Sentinel" as follows:

"Monday, September 13, 1852—

"Married, August 2, 1852, by the Rev. Mr. Aughinbaugh, Mr. Washington Galt, of Frederick County, Maryland, to Miss Louisa A. Krise, daughter of Mr. Abraham Krise, of Freedom Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania."

As stated in last week's column Henry (1) Krise, the pioneer ancestor of the family in America, is probably interred with his wife and other members of his immediate family, in the old burial ground of the Monocacy Settlement, now long since desecrated and destroyed—to such an extent that the actual site thereof is in doubt.

Abraham (2) Krise, son of Henry (1), was born in New Jersey, September 25, 1771, and came with his family to the Monocacy Settlement. He remained on the "home farm" until after his marriage in 1799—after which he moved to a tract of some 750 acres, located in Liberty Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania. Here he and his wife, Ann Christina (Kitzmilller) Krise, lived for the remainder of their lives and here their children were born.

According to an old record Abraham (2) and Ann Christina (Kitzmilller) Krise were the parents of the following:

1. William (3) Krise—married Hannah Ruff—lived in Maryland.
2. George H. (3) Krise—married Eliza Otta and "had issue."
3. John (3) Krise—died comparatively young.

4. David (3) Krise—died comparatively young.

5. Christian (3) Krise — died unmarried.

6. Lydia (3) Krise—died unmarried.

7. Abraham (3) Krise — twin brother of Christian (3), married Annie Zimmerman, and was the father of Louisa (4) Krise, who married Washington (4) Galt.

8. Jacob (3) Krise—died unmarried.

9. Samuel (3) Krise — born March 23, 1814—died April 29, 1847—married Elizabeth Clabaugh, of Carroll County, Maryland, who was born March 11, 1824 and died March 24, 1873. This branch of the family were members of Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, and many of them, including Samuel (3) and his wife, are interred in that churchyard.

Abraham (2) Krise, his wife, and two of their sons were probably first buried in the Tract, or Zimmerman, graveyard. Just when the bodies were moved to Mountview Cemetery, near Emmitsburg, is not known. There the graves can be seen at the present time—the plot enclosed by a body-in-need-of-repair pipe fence. Two of the stones have fallen from their bases and lie flat on the ground. The inscriptions follow:

1. In memory of Abraham Krise, Died April 20, 1846, Aged 74 years, 7 months and 14 days.

2. In memory of Ann Christina Krise, Wife of Abraham Krise, Born September 14, 1777, Died April 3, 1864.

3. In memory of John Krise, son of Abraham and Ann Christina Krise, Born August 1, 1804, Died April 30, 1825.

4. In memory of David Krise, son of Abraham and Ann Christina Krise, Born 1806, Died 1832.

Abraham (3) Krise, son (twin) of Abraham (2) and Ann Christina (Kitzmilller) Krise, was, according to family records, "a native of Maryland, but passed almost his entire life in Adams County, Pennsylvania. He was a farmer until late in life when he retired from active work and removed to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, where he died in 1880. He married Jane Tott." Their daughter, Louisa A. Krise, was the wife of Washington (4) Galt.

The family burial plot of Abraham (3) Galt is located in Area C of the Evergreen Cemetery, Gettysburg, not too far from the old "gate-house." Here are interred almost the entire family of Abraham (3) and Jane (Tott) Krise, including Louisa (Krise) Galt and her daughter, Mary Jane Galt, who died of diphtheria

A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.—(Prov. 25:28).

When we are disturbed by events or conditions around us, we should be patient and poised. We should hold our emotions in check, and take a positive constructive attitude. With this self control we can think through any situation, and with divine assistance come upon the right and just solution.

The tarpon is about the biggest ocean fish (excluding sharks) that swims close to land, under bridges, up rivers and canals and onto the shallows.—Sports Afield.

at the age of three years.

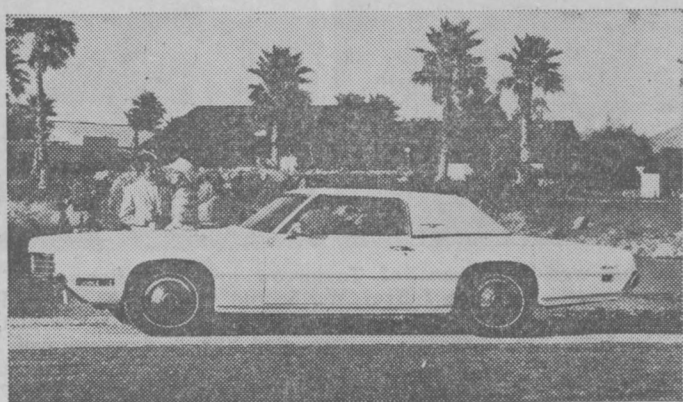

This concludes, for a time at least, the notes on the Galt and Krise families.

The Birnie Family Of Piney Creek

This clan was apparently descended from a Clotworthy Birnie, who was married in 1740 and died in 1768. He was a native of Ireland and many of his descendants interred at Piney Creek were born in Ireland and this is stated on their tombstones. Some of the Birnies emigrated to America about 1763. Others came over at a later date.

The historical and genealogical study of the Birnie family of Piney Creek will be continued in this series next week.

Thunderbird for 1971 features a new horizontal grille theme and chrome-plated front valance panel. It is available in three models — two-door hardtop and two- and four-door Landau. This new two-door formal-roof Landau is reminiscent of other classic designs and gives the '71 Thunderbird an elegant town car appearance. A new door weatherstrip system results in a more quiet '71 Thunderbird, while 24 exterior paint selections make it one of the most colorful cars on the road.

Novel Budget Barbecuing

Bologna takes to the grill! A novel way to satisfy hearty appetites while balancing the food budget.

While you're barbecuing serve a colorful Fruit Fizz. Combine 1 can (12 oz.) frozen orange juice concentrate with 1 can (6 oz.) frozen Hawaiian punch concentrate and 3 quarts (96 oz.) The Uncola, chilled. Pour into large pitcher. Add ice cubes. Makes 15 (8 oz.) servings.

Barbecued Bologna Roll

- 2 lbs. unsliced (2 1/2 inch) bologna
1/2 cup prepared mustard
1/4 cup minced onion
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 cup The Uncola
8 hamburger buns

Score bologna. Cover with water and simmer for 25 minutes or until heated through. Remove from water. Combine mustard, onion, brown sugar and The Uncola. Place bologna on grill. Baste generously, turning often until glazed and lightly browned—about 20 to 30 minutes. Cut into 1/4 inch slices. Serve on buns using three slices of bologna for each sandwich. Makes 8 sandwiches.

What One Man Did To Fight Pollution

One of the questions that is most often asked not only of members of Congress but of one citizen by another is "What can one man do?" What can one man do in an age in which 205 million Americans are crowding together in relatively small parts of the country, when the economy is so enormous and so independent that the forces which seem to control our lives are beyond any rules or regulations man can devise, when the world is becoming so small that the interaction of some activity in one remote spot becomes of immense importance to the rest of us. What can one man do?

There was an answer to that question the other day in the middle of the Chesapeake Bay. A waterman on the Bay was shocked to see a large tanker proceeding up the main channel dump its kitchen trash into the water where Marylanders have been swimming, fishing and boating for over 300 years. Apparently, there was a considerable amount of kitchen garbage and refuse, for it littered the water for yards around. This one man, recognizing that this was a violation of law as well as an outrage against the environment, went into action. He started with a letter to the editor of a daily newspaper. He saw that the letter to the editor was sent also to various public officials who would be interested and have jurisdiction in the matter. The paper published the letter and the officials, including myself, went into action. The company that owned the ship was very much embarrassed, recognized that one of its employees had committed a serious error and has promised to enforce the law and company regulations as well as install incinerators on board its ships.

So what one man did was to activate a whole chain of circumstances in the fight against water pollution. This victory for society is the result of one man's alertness and the fact that he did something about it. Like this one man, there is a lot that everyone of us can do.

In Western Maryland recently I was distressed to notice that, on one of the state's most scenic roadways, the ditch along the side of the road was full of bottles, cans and papers. Think what one man could do with respect to that ditchful of refuse. Perhaps it is too much to ask each citizen to stop his car and to get out and pick up a bushel of that trash, but if every man would refrain from dumping his cans in the ditch, if everyone would carry his refuse to the proper place of disposal, then that particular kind of pollution would not occur.

The Government can, and if I have anything to say about it, will do a great deal on the question of pollution and environmental control. However, there are many things the Government cannot do, that one man can do and I am confident that everyone of us wants to be that man.

To Hold Workshop At St. Joseph College

On September 26 the Modern Languages Department of St. Joseph College, in cooperation with the Maryland State Department of Education, will sponsor a Professional Development Workshop for teachers of modern languages. Open to teachers of all grade levels in the Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia area, the workshop expects to draw 100 foreign language teachers.

Sister Margaret Flinton, Chairman of the Department of Modern Languages at St. Joseph's, in cooperation with Miss Ann Beusch, Specialist in Foreign Languages for the Maryland State Department of Education, organized the workshop after polling language teachers for their suggestions.

The emphasis of the workshop will be on the latest in audio-visual materials. Companies such as the Encyclopaedia Britannica, Pathscope Educational Films, Ginn & Company, Harper & Row, and the National Textbook Company will furnish exhibits, representatives, and films. In addition, a presentation will be made by teachers who have worked in a pilot program to develop an individualized program in speaking and listening in French with the aid of multi-media.

The sessions will be held in DuBois Lounge on campus. Exhibits will be set up in Vincent Hall. St. Joseph students interested in languages will serve as ushers and also participate in the program.

For further information or application, write or call, Sister Margaret Flinton, Chairman, Department of Modern Languages, St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, Md. 21727. A registration fee of $2 is required which will cover lunch, coffee break and materials.

noon hour?

A. Yes. But why don't you telephone the social security office instead? Chances are you can do it all by phone and mail.

Q. Where do I write to find out if I am getting credit for the social security taxes I have been paying?

A. Your social security office has card forms for requesting statements of earnings. Just phone and ask them for a form.

Q. I lost my social security card, but I know my number. Do I have to get another card?

A. You should get a replacement card. It won't cost you anything. Phone the social security office and ask them to send you an application form for a new card.

Q. We have just moved for the second time in five months. I forgot to report my change of address to the Social Security Administration. Will this affect my benefits when I reach retirement?

A. No. Unless you are a beneficiary, changes of address should not be reported to the Social Security Administration.

Q. Can social security help me locate my brother who ran away from home when I was fifteen?

A. Not really. Under certain circumstances, the Social Security Administration will attempt to deliver a letter to a missing person. Better ask your social security office about your specific case.

Q. Do I have to phone for an appointment before I go in to file for my social security benefits?

A. No appointment is necessary. But why don't you telephone instead of going in. Most times claims can be filed without going in at all.

Q. Would you recommend my buying a book that explains social security benefits? It only costs a dollar.

A. You can get all the authoritative social security information you need, free of charge, from your social security office. They have many free booklets they will let you have, if that's what you want.

Q. My name changed when I got married three years ago and I never reported it to social security. Will I lose credit for all the social security taxes I paid under my maiden name when I go to file for my benefits some day?

A. No, but you should report your change of name. The social security office will reissue your number to you under your married name.

Millions Afflicted With High Blood Pressure

If you have high blood pressure—hypertension to the physician—you are not alone, says the Heart Association of Maryland. Millions of Americans are afflicted with this disorder, and most of them are getting along well after having consulted a physician. Many drugs are available to help him tailor treatment to a patient's needs and condition. Certain prescribed diet changes and rest also are helpful.

However, there are half a dozen general rules that most patients with high blood pressure should follow. Depending on the patient, some will be more important than others, and the Heart Association urges each hypertensive individual to ask his doctor which of these is important for him.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Frederick County, in Maryland, letters of Administration on the estate of CHARLES DANIEL MCKENZIE late of Frederick County, Maryland, Deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, legally authenticated, to the subscriber, on or before the 3rd day of March, 1971, next; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Those indebted to the deceased are desired to make immediate payment.

ant than others, and the Heart Association urges each hypertensive individual to ask his doctor which of these is important for him.

Try not to worry. Worry, nervous tension and emotional storms help to push high blood pressure higher.

Don't put on excess weight. Overweight is a hazard to health.

Regulate your use of tobacco and alcohol as your doctor specifies. Smoking can raise blood pressure; alcohol doesn't but some people react poorly to it.

Follow a regular pattern of rest stops during the day. Taking time out, even before you become tired, will help to avoid the tenseness and irritability (to be avoided by the hypertensive person) that go with fatigue.

Get plenty of sleep. During sleep, blood pressure falls to its lowest levels. It rises on waking. Choose sports that are not competitive. Exercise is good for you but overexertion can lead to complications. Avoid those sports where you can't stop if you become tired.

For more information about high blood pressure, ask for the Heart Association leaflet "Your Blood Pressure."

Peace Corps Seeks Minority Members

Former Peace Corps Volunteer Franklin Walker, right, met recently with Senator Edward Brooke of Massachusetts as part of a spearhead drive to attract members of racial minorities to Peace Corps service. Walker was a Peace Corps Volunteer at the Kingston, Jamaica Boy's Town during 1965-68. He is now counselor for special projects at Northern Illinois University. In a series of radio and television appearances in the Washington, D. C. area, Walker said that the Peace Corps teaches skills and organizational ability that can help minorities develop leadership at home. Peace Corps Director Joseph Blatchford says too few minority group members have taken advantage of Peace Corps opportunities in the past.

Chevrolet introduces New Glide-Away tailgate

Substantially more glass area, all-new styling and greater interior room are features of the full-size 1971 Chevrolet wagons. Three-seat wagons have a forward facing third seat. A new interior ventilation system exhausts air through louvers in the tailgate. Standard on the Kingswood Estate and other full-size wagons is a new Glide-Away tailgate that gives full access to the rear of the wagon even in close quarters. At the turn of a key, the power-operated window moves upward into the roof. The tailgate then slides manually down under the load floor. A power disc/drum brake system is also standard. New Chevrolets go on sale on Tuesday, September 29.

Rule Of Law Badgered
The Marxist-Leninist Black Panthers, the SDS 'Weatherman' criminals, and the other vicious "revolutionaries" practicing assault, murder, arson and violence upon college campuses and in the streets of America expect to extend and expand their reign of terror as a part of the World Communist offensive to destroy the American system. With the help of influential segments of the communications media and other powerful witting and unwitting allies they have caused serious damage to all law enforcement agencies. They have organized and agitated trouble within the armed services, have virtually neutralized the National Guard, state and local police. Their amazing successes constitute a threat to all the forces safeguarding our internal security.

We have said this repeatedly in our writings. This week we are picking up the message of

J. Edgar Hoover from the August issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin:

"People do not always say what they mean, sometimes intentionally. For instance, there appears to be a deliberate attempt to place a disparaging label on a proven principle of our society. I have in mind the current practice of some who purposely complain of 'repression' when they are talking about the supremacy of the law. Apparently, to them, any law enforcement function is repressive.

For A Free Society
"I want to state emphatically and unequivocally that vigorous, effective law enforcement is not repression; rather, it is an integral part of a free society, and it is necessary to our survival. This becomes clearer with every violent demonstration. There can be no freedom and there can be no liberty without supremacy of the law unless the law is enforced.

Much of the talk about repression comes from those involved in or in sympathy with revolutionary violence on our campuses and in our streets. With blind enthusiasm for their diverse causes, they defy all authority, burn, loot, and destroy property, and assault police with bricks, bottles, stones, and sometimes firearms—all in the name of dissent.

"Peaceably" Is Key Word
"The first amendment is explicitly as to the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." This is a popular and cherished freedom, and rightly so. Peaceably is a key word of the above quote; however it is conveniently ignored by many persons who equate dissent with destruction.

"A defiant militant, with a brick in one hand and a fire-bomb in the other, standing shoulder to shoulder with hundreds of similarly armed protesters, blocking a main thoroughfare and silhouetted against a flaming public building, shouting that his right to dissent is being repressed is a picture of paradox. He may be making news, but he is perverting freedom.

No Right To Riot
"There is nothing in the first amendment which guarantees people the right to riot and plunder as means of dissent. Invariably, when incidents and altercations occur during public dissent, the trouble is started by unpeaceful participants who knowingly and willingly break the law. Then, when the constitutional functions of enforcing the law and restoring order are brought into play, the participants and their sympathizers scream 'repression,' a typical anarchic response. No one claims that members of law enforcement have never overreacted to physical and verbal assaults by rioters—one excess against another as it were. But, let us get one thing straight. Prompt, effective law enforcement to stop rioting mobs and wanton destruction is not repression. It is a vital cog in our democratic process.

"Some people imply that our choice today may be between anarchy and repression. Indeed, it is not. Our choice today is the same as that of our Founding Fathers some 200 years ago—liberty and freedom under the rule of law. If we enforce the law when it is violated, we will perpetuate this choice, and we will have nothing to fear from either anarchy or repression. Thus, let us make certain that the distinction is clear—the law and its enforcement are pillars of freedom, not repression."

Every law-abiding citizen in the nation needs to support law enforcement at every level. You can do it by writing letters to the editors, writing your Governors, your police officials and your Congressmen. Do it today. Our safety, our lives are at stake.

Naval Scholarships Available

The Chief of Naval Personnel has set December 1, 1970, as the application deadline date for the NROTC College Scholarship Program. Parents and high school officials should remind eligible high school seniors and graduates to submit their applications before the deadline date.

The NROTC College Scholarship Program offers an outstanding opportunity for a young man to gain a regular commission while studying at one of the many NROTC colleges and universities. The Navy furnishes tuition, fees, books, and uniforms, plus a subsistence allowance of $50 per month to NROTC midshipmen. Each summer NROTC midshipmen go on interesting and rewarding at-sea training periods. After completing his college course and all military requirements, an NROTC midshipman is commissioned as a regular officer in the U. S. Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty with the operating forces.

Applicants for this program will be considered based on scores obtained on either the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) of the College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB), Princeton, New Jersey or the American College Test (ACT) of the American College Testing Program, Iowa City, Iowa, in lieu of the Navy College Aptitude Test (NCAT) previously utilized.

Applicants for the 1971 NROTC College Scholarship Program must:

Apply for and take either test specified above at their own expense prior to December 31, 1970.

Arrange with the appropriate testing agency for the submission of their scores to the NROTC College Scholarship Program.

Apply for the NROTC College Scholarship Program between April 1, 1970 and December 1, 1970 in accordance with the 1971 Bulletin of Information.

The 1971 NROTC Bulletin of Information and application forms are available from local high school counselors, the nearest Navy or Marine Corps Recruiting Station which is listed in your telephone directory, or from the Chief of Naval Personnel (Pers-B6411), Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C. 20370.

Tips For Picnic Cleanups

Almost everyone loves a picnic. And from now until the first frosty evenings of autumn, it would be difficult to imagine a better place for meals than the great outdoors.

But nobody loves the cleanup chores that inevitably follow—even when it's a picnic in your own backyard or patio. In fact, the wit who once described dishwashing as "dependable as the sunrise—but with none of its beauty" could easily have been thinking of the K.P. duty after a summer outing. After all, in the midst of all the fun, who wants to think about dirty dishes?

With a little planning, however, the cleanup from your backyard outings can be fast and efficient. The woman who has an automatic dishwasher will find this checklist handy for choosing (and using) the right items for patio picnicking:

—Anyone who's ever tried to cut into a steak on a paper plate, or eat a juicy casserole from one, knows at least one good reason why sturdy plates, such as plastic, are preferable! In fact, except for finger foods like hamburgers or cold fried chicken, plastic dishes are almost a necessity if you eat outdoors fairly often.

The makers of new formula Calgonite point out that most of today's plastic din-nerware is "dishwasher proof" and is so labeled. But if in doubt, check with the manufacturer.

—Breakable glasses are best left in the kitchen cupboard. Besides being a safety hazard, they are more apt to be chipped or broken during trips to and from the house. Use disposable plastic or paper cups for backyard picnics; when serving either very hot or very cold beverages, insulated plastic tumblers or plastic foam cups are a good idea.

—Stainless steel or sturdy plastic knives, forks and spoons are ideal choices for flatware. Steak knives constructed with an attached handle tend to loosen in the dishwasher, so you will want to wash these by hand. If in doubt about a set of knives, "test wash" a single knife for several weeks.

—Don't forget to include skewers, tongs, and smaller barbecue grills when you're loading the dishwasher. A hardworking dishwasher detergent like Calgonite helps to dissolve and float away burnt-on bits of meat and sauce.

Warm summer and autumn days are ideal weather for patio picnics. It's good to know that with a little planning, the whole event will be enjoyable from start to cleanup.

"The Midi And You"
Are you a midi-hater? I was—until I attended the American Designers' Show in New York. All I can say now is, don't judge it till you've tried it.

This new longer length is elegant. There's just no other word for it. And because it is a very special style, you must plan for the total look, including make-up.

By now most of us are accustomed to thinking in terms of dress, shoes, handbag, stockings, jewelry and make-up. This year, the midi has made it a MUST.

There's still freedom of choice. In fact, if you can't bear the thought of giving up your short skirts—don't! Just be sure you've given the new glamorous look a fair chance.

Probably you'll want to start with a midi skirt—it's a less expensive investment and easier to combine with your current wardrobe. I predict also that you're going to own a midi coat. It's fashionable, functional (think of winter winds) and utterly glamorous. Now add boots—and maybe a wide-brimmed hat.

Make-up must hold its own. By that I mean accentuate your lips and eyes. Deeper shades, more vibrant—these are the look of things to come.

You're going to remember the '70's for pure elegance. Of course you want to be part of it!

Luxury abounds in 1971 Chevrolet Caprice Coupe

The 1971 regular Chevrolets are the most luxurious the division has ever built. There is greater glass area for improved visibility. Glass and body contours are more rounded. Flush lift-up door handles add to body smoothness. The Caprice gets added distinction with a special large grid grille, deep ribbed wheel covers and standard rear fender skirts. Wheelbase of regular Chevrolet is extended 2.5 inches for added riding comfort and increased rear leg room. The body has a new flow-through ventilation system and greater strength double-panel roof construction. The new chassis and suspension system give improved ride and handling. A power disc/drum brake system is standard. New Chevrolets go on sale Tuesday, September 29.

Ways and Means Committee, presented literature on ways to make money. Discussion followed and it was decided to have a pie, candy and cake sale in front of the K of C Home Friday evening, September 25, 1970. Chairman of the sale will be Dolores Davis and co-chairman, Helen Oster. All members are urged to donate towards the sale.

Plans to serve food on Saturday nights were discussed and Dolores Davis volunteered to serve as chairman of the first Saturday to be served.

Becky Stover gave the report of the recent trip to the Potomac Pole Playhouse. The affair was a success and enjoyed by all those attending.

Loretta Sprankle informed the members that the Frederick County Cancer Society will present three films on cancer before the October meeting starting at 7:30. A short meeting will follow. The secretary will send reminders to all members.

The president reported that a good time was had by all at the recent Brute Council Family Picnic. The monthly drawing was held and Margaret Myers' name was called for $8.00 and was present. Next month's drawing will be $5.00.

The next meeting will be held on October 12, 1970, in the Council Home, starting promptly at 7:30. Loretta Sprankle and Alice Boyle will be in charge of refreshments.

The chaplain closed the meeting with prayer after which refreshments were served in the social room.

AVON, a company devoted to making women more beautiful, will be the major tenant in a new 50-story, New York office tower that will look like a glass waterfall. A curved glass-fronted facade that will make this structure one of the most elegant in the world was brought about partly because of the New York building code. Faced with a requirement of a sixth floor setback on new high-rise buildings, the architect conceived a gently curved front from the ground to the 20th floor that satisfies the code without an eye-jarring break in the facade.

Mount Seminary Starts Academic Year

Mount Saint Mary's Seminary this month launched a new academic year with another capacity enrollment of 119 students, a new rector, and three new faculty members. The seminarians, including 35 new men, come from 24 different dioceses.

Rev. Harry J. Flynn, an alumnus of the seminary with the class of 1960, is the new rector. He succeeds Rev. Msgr. George D. Mulcahy who had been in charge of the seminary for the past 12 years. Monsignor Mulcahy remains on the faculty for the present, teaching homiletics and pastoral theology.

In keeping with a suggestion of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, the seminary this year launched a Faculty Advisor Program. The purpose: to broaden the faculty's sphere of service to the students on "a defined, comprehensive basis". Each seminarian is assigned to a priest-advisor.

A Field Education Program, launched last year by Rev. Charles J. Kelley, is being fully activated this year.

Rev. Eugene Megyer, a native of Hungary, joined the faculty to teach moral theology. Ordained in Rome in 1947, he holds degrees from the University of Budapest (BPH), Gregorian University in Rome (STL and STD), and Catholic University of Belgium (Licentiate in Sociology). He has taught in a seminary in Brazil, Ursuline College in Ohio, and Georgetown University in Washington.

Rev. Christopher M. Heullitt, a 1955 graduate of Mount Saint Mary's College, has joined the seminary faculty to teach church history. He has been awarded two doctorates from the Pontifical Gregorian University, an HEL in 1968 and an HED in 1970. He earned a BA from the Mount in 1955. He taught at Phillipsburg High School in 1964-65 and Ca-

Pittko of McKeesport, Pa., ordained from the Mount in June, has returned to the seminary as a faculty member, teaching scripture and Hebrew. While he was a student at the Mount, he earned his BA in 1967 and MA in 1970. He has taken advanced studies at Johns Hopkins University and Harvard. He has assisted with the preparation of two books on biblical studies.

Rev. Mervin Eyler New York Pastor

Local residents have received invitations to special ceremonies marking the installation of the Rev. Mervin Snyder Eyer as pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Parkchester, N. Y., September 27.

The Rev. Mr. Eyer, who served as a chaplain in the United States Army from 1952 until August 1 of this year, is a graduate of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, class of 1952. He was born in Taneytown, the son of Mervin Leroy and Julia Lauretta (Snyder) Eyer. He is a graduate of Emmitsburg High School, class of 1930. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Baltimore in 1949; Bachelor of Divinity at the Gettysburg Seminary in 1952, and Master of Arts from Columbia University in 1958. He was ordained by the Maryland Synod, Lutheran Church in America. During his chaplaincy he was an instructor in the United States Army Chaplains School, 1959-62, and spent a number of years in overseas assignments.

He married Miss Sarah Alberta Conti, formerly of Gettysburg, Sept. 21, 1941. They are the parents of four children, Randolph David, who with his wife and child reside in California; Cynthia Ann and Jane Elizabeth, both students at Goucher College, Towson, Md., and Mervin Snyder, Jr., at home.

St. Joseph High School Classes Hold Elections

Excitement ran high at St. Joseph's High School, Emmitsburg, Sept. 11, 1970, during "Campaign Week." Posters, balloons, etc., preceded an assembly in which Campaign Managers spoke to the student body. The candidates for "Student Co-operative Council" responded. After the assembly, voting took place, which resulted in the election of the following officers for the school year 1970-1971:

President, John Hollinger; vice president, Dawn Fitzgerald; secretary, Sue Ott, and treasurer, Kenneth Hill.

Two representatives from each class will complete the Council. Class officers for the year are as follows:

Seniors—President, Steve Sanders; vice president, Phil Little; secretary, Josephine Haley, and treasurer, Mark Wivell.

Juniors—President, Barbara Seidel; vice president, Dale Shields; secretary, Sue Topper, and treasurer, Joan Knox.

Sophomores—President, Susie Morningstar; vice president, Geo. Hemler; secretary, Christine Skyskyk, and treasurer, Roy Adelsberger.

Burglar Ransacks Local Apartment

Approximately $150 was stolen by a burglar who forced entry into the third-floor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, located in the Irelan Building on the Square, last Friday between 11:50 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

The well-dressed thief wore a tan jacket and soft leather shoes. He had gray hair, weighed approximately 150-160 pounds, medium height and build and was believed to be 45-50 years old. He gained entry to the Crouse apartment by forcing the lock on the bathroom door. The thief took only paper currency, ignoring all silver money. Stolen also were the bank savings book and Christmas Fund book of Miss Susan Crouse, in addition to a number of church envelopes with money enclosed.

Investigation by Police Chief W. Henry Miller revealed that the thief had made five other attempts to rob apartments both in the Irelan and Harner Buildings, both located on the Square. In the Harner Building he attempted robbery to the apartments of Mrs. Frances Rosensteel and Margaret Boyer.

Mr. Crouse, working in his store across the street, caught a glimpse of the burglar who escaped in a brown car parked near the Town Office, and called police.

Lions Discuss Club Activities

President J. Ralph McDonnell presided over the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club held Monday evening in Mt. Manor Restaurant. One guest, Leo Kelz, Valley Stream, N. Y., was introduced. He is a brother to Lion William Kelz.

It was announced that the annual District Governor's banquet and dance would be held on October 3 at the Venice Motel, Hagerstown, and several of the local members plan to attend. The annual essay contest was discussed and tabled until a future meeting.

Several fund-raising events were discussed, such as an Evening of Games, old-fashioned Turkey Raftle for Thanksgiving or Christmas, etc., but no action was taken.

VFW AMBULANCE

David Coleman, Mt. View Motel, Brooke Alford, Mt. St. Mary's College, Joseph Topper, and Thomas Eyer, Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Virginia Fisher, Washington, D. C., were transported this week to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, via the VFW ambulance. Drivers were Michael Boyle, Thomas White, James Kittinger and Paul E. Humerick.

Mrs. Rayner Stambaugh, Mrs. Esther Warren, Mrs. Carroll E. Frock and Frankie Davis spent the Labor Day weekend at Niagara Falls, Ontario. They went by the way of Lincoln Bus Tours of Hanover.

Plan Showing Of Old Engines

Sunday, Sept. 27 has been set for the date of the farm machinery demonstration by Mr. Earl Sheeley and Mr. Ralph Ohler. The two gentlemen put on an exhibition of antique engines last year and it proved such a success that numerous requests were made to the men to repeat the show as many people missed it.

Some of the machines will be running during the exhibition and the gentlemen cordially invite the public to witness the spectacle which will take place at the home of Earl Sheeley, old Rt. 15, about a mile north of town.

Senior Citizens' Board Meets

Monday, September 14, friends and members of the Official Board of the Senior Citizens met at ten o'clock in the Center with eight present.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Fearer. Treasurer Louis Stoner, gave a brief financial report. Then Mrs. Helen McNair presented the agenda for the day.

First was a discussion of the projected bus trip for members and friends of the Emmitsburg Senior Citizens for October 6. The ride to the Pocomos seemed too long, so several others were suggested to be voted on at the September 15th meeting, which were, Hershey, Longwood Gardens, the York Fair, or any other suggested by the members of the Club.

The apparent difficulty of obtaining hostesses for each monthly meeting was discussed with three possibilities offered: to post a list of members on the bulletin board for any one to choose the date of service; to draw names from a box of members; or fill out blanks.

Mrs. La Rue Harmon reported on the various committees appointed with chairmen of each for the forthcoming Fall Bazaar on November 14. Also that the landlord of the building had consented to the Club's use of the old Post Office room for part of the bazaar.

An adult education program is to be offered those desiring it to be held at Seton Center at St. Joseph's, sponsored by the Frederick Board of Education.

An opportunity is offered to any one who would be interested in children's reading at the middle school two days a week, one hour a day.

No further business appearing, the meeting closed with repetition of the Lord's Prayer.

Tuesday evening, September 15, the Emmitsburg Senior Citizens Club held its regular monthly meeting with about 36 members present.

The meeting opened with Sister Juliana offering prayer. The minutes of the Board meeting were read.

The Club chose a bus trip to Harrisburg and "The Cloisters" at Ephrata, for October 6. The members voted to continue choosing the hostesses from the alphabetical list of club members.

Mrs. La Rue Harmon read the names of the various committees appointed for the Fall Bazaar on November 14. She also announced that the club had been given the privilege of using the old Post Office room for part of the bazaar.

Cards of thanks were read from the Stoners for the gift given them by the club on their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary, and from Mrs. Nestor for the gift to Mrs. Sue Morrison on her one hundredth birthday.

The social part of the meeting consisted of playing the corn game with winners choosing prizes of produce brought in by each individual. The prize for guessing the number of buttons in a glass jar was won by Mr. Stoner.

Happy birthday was sung for Mrs. McNair who had brought one of her birthday cakes to share with the club members.

Mrs. Virginia Sanders and Mrs. Mary Kramer served delightful refreshments.

United Givers Fund Financial Campaign, announces the appointment of Edward F. Holter as County Division Manager and Henry D. Lakin, Sr., Assistant County Division Manager.

The goal for this year's drive which begins on September 21 is $217,853, the largest in local UGF history. One reason for the higher goal is the addition of a new member-agency. The Goodwill Industries has been added to the other thirteen agencies which UGF supports. Steady growth of the community, more people needing UGF services, are also partially responsible for the increased budget.

Mr. Holter, a native of Middletown Valley, was recently appointed to serve on the newly-created Maryland Health and Higher Education Facilities Authorities. He is a graduate of Middletown High School and the University of Maryland. He has served on the Board of Regents of the University of Maryland, is Chairman of the Frederick County Planning and Zoning Commission and a member of the Executive Committee of the Maryland State Grange. He is also a member of the Middletown Grange, the Farm Bureau, National Holstein Friesian Association, American Legion, Rotary Club and the Middletown United Church of Christ.

Mr. Lakin owns and operates, with his two sons, a dairy farm of more than 400 acres in the Jefferson district. He has been interested in soil and water conservation for over 20 years and is presently chairman of the Catoctin Soil Conservation District. He is vice president of Frederick County Zoning Appeal Board, a past master of Jefferson Grange, is serving on the board of directors of Jefferson Ruritan Club and Farmers Cooperative of Frederick. He holds membership in Brunswick Lodge, No. 191, A. F. & A. M. Masons and Tall Cedars of Lebanon. A member of the United Church of Christ at Jefferson, he is now president of the Board of Trustees.

The United Givers Fund campaign will be officially launched at a "dutch treat" kick-off dinner on Monday, September 21, at the Red Horse Steak House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bower, Burlington, Vermont, are currently visiting friends and relatives in Emmitsburg, New Windsor, Timonium and Herndon, Va. Mr. Bower, retired Marine weapons specialist, is now employed by Westinghouse in Burlington. Mrs. Bower is the former Miss Jean Bollinger of Emmitsburg.
