Walking down DePaul St. the other day I noticed several "No Loitering" signs being erected. Seems this area has become a favorite hang out for many of the local teenagers. Of course, it's probably going to take more than a few signs to chase some of these kids away, but with the signs and a little extra patrolling, maybe they'll get the idea.

I hear the fire marshal has been taking a long look at a couple of buildings on the square and even advised a couple of them to make some improvements or else. No one seems to know what or else means. I would agree that some improvements could be made and that certainly would not hurt our town.

What's this I hear about problems with our local Little League? I've heard several parents complaining about the schedule not being followed; some irate parents say they've pulled their boys out of Little League. It would certainly be a great loss to the children of this community if they were deprived of this activity because some of us older folks can't keep our wires straight. Let's hope the situation will be improved by the next summer so these boys can get back to playing ball.

I just read an article stating that more than four thousand school children lost their lives last year in car accidents going to or from school. Let's all of us older folks make an early New Year's resolution now to slow down and watch out for the little ones of our town who will be returning to their classrooms in the next few days.

In these days when it seems to be harder and harder for a private citizen to make his voice heard in governmental circles, we here in town have an opportunity to voice our opinions next Wednesday night at the Planning Commission Hearing. I wonder how many of our local citizens will be there?

Some folks have been asking why open burning is being allowed to go on at some dumps in the county. Seems that, as usual, the officials are dragging their feet about the proposed landfill in Cunningham Falls State Park. A lot of people feel that opening that area would solve the county's problem of disposing of all that trash we accumulate without fouling up our air.

Now that the conventions are over, the political campaign is starting to warm up a little. Statements are being issued left and right and I'm sure there will be many more before November. The trouble is, some of these spokesmen seem to change their minds a lot and leave us poor voters a bit confused.

There will be a great number of new, young voters this year. Let's hope that the majority of them will use the ballot box to express their opinions instead of taking to the streets as some of them did in Miami.

Registration For PP&K Contest

Local boys, ages eight thru 13, will be blowing the dust off their footballs and loosening up their throwing arm for the 1972 Punt, Pass and Kick Competition.

This year the local level of PP&K will be co-sponsored by the Brute Council, Knights of Columbus in conjunction with participating Ford Dealers in the area.

Nationally PP&K, now in its 12th year, is co-sponsored by the National Football League and the Ford Dealers of America. Since it was started in 1961, the program has attracted over 8 million boys, ages eight through 13, and participation this year is expected to top the 1,100,000 mark.

Participants in the Punt, Pass and Kick program compete only against boys their own age. Any boy eight thru 13 years of age may register at the local participating Ford Dealer. There is no entrance fee and no body contact during competition. No special equipment is needed and participation does not impair a boy's amateur standing.

Scoring is based on accuracy and range with one point added for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance and a point subtracted for every foot off a center line.

Twelve national finalists will compete for the National championships in their age group during the half time of the Pro Bowl Game in Dallas, Texas, January 21, 1973. Winners will have their names permanently enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Their trophies will be presented by Football Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

County Participates In Lunch Program

The Frederick County schools are participating in the National School Lunch Program and serve well-balanced and nutritious lunches. Free lunches are available to children who are unable to pay the full price. The income scale is used to determine which children are eligible to receive free lunches.

Families within this income scale or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships may apply for free lunches for their children. They may apply by completing the application form sent home with a letter to parents. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. Additional copies are available at the school your child attends.

The application is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Children receiving free lunches shall be treated in the same manner as paying children. Every effort shall be made to insure that the children do not know who are paying and who are receiving free lunches.

If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official, he may make a request to the school his child attends either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision.

The policy concerning free lunches is available for review at the school.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a dainty gown of silk organza with Victorian collar of peau d'ange lace embroidered in pearl fleurettes. The Giants, who were undefeated in the second half of the Little League season, started Frankie Davis who gave up two runs in the first inning before closing the door on the Orioles in the second and third innings.

Chris Byard, who worked the last three innings for the Giants, turned in a sparkling performance, striking out nine of eleven batters he faced. Byard displayed remarkable control—while throwing an occasional change-up—to complement a blazing fast ball.

Fred Martinez, Dale Adams, Joe Zanella, Charley Glacken, Larry Martinez, Frank Davis and Byard were the big guns in the Giant attack.

Beverly Davis And Harry Adams Wed In Afternoon Ceremony August 5

Miss Beverly Jean Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen F. Davis, West Main Street, Emmitsburg, and Harry Thomas Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman D. Adams, DePaul Street, Emmitsburg, were united in marriage August 5 at a 2 p.m. Nuptial Mass in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg.

Rev. Sylvester Taggart, St. Joseph's Provincial House performed the double ring ceremony before a setting of white gladioli, pom-poms and tinted carnations. Altar boys for the Mass were Dennis and Steven Kelly, cousins of the bride. Br. John Hollinger was lector. Mr. Harold Heller, Biglerville, presented an organ recital prior to the ceremony and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Jack Ay, Baltimore.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a classic gown of silk organza with Victorian collar and yoke trimmed in re-embroidered Alencon lace. The same lace adorned the Juliet sleeves and bordered the flaring-skirt which sloped to join the full back in a gassamer chapel train. Her elbow length veil fell from a demi-bonnet of matching fabric applied in pearled lace. She carried a bouquet of carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Miss Phyllis Davis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a floor length shrimp colored A-line gown. The scalloped neckline and long sheer sleeves were trimmed in old-fashioned white lace. She carried a nosegay of tinted carnations and daisies. Mrs. Linda Umbel, friend of the bride, Miss Cindy Newcomer, Emmitsburg, and Miss Helen Marie Adams, Audubon, Pa., nieces of the groom, were bridesmaids. Their gowns and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor. They wore matching picture hats to complete the ensemble.

The bride's mother was attired in a floor length lavender chiffon gown and wore a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds. The groom's mother chose a floor length gown of black and white and wore a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Best man was William Adams, Emmitsburg, brother of the groom. Ushers were Dennis Stahley, Emmitsburg, friend of the couple, Carroll "Skip" Newcomer, Emmitsburg and David Adams, Audubon, Pa., nephews of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the VFW Annex on Center Square, for approximately 300 guests.

Following their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada and Thousand Islands, N. Y., the couple is residing at 106 East Main Street, Emmitsburg.

Summer Reading Club Closes With Watermelon Party For Children

The Summer Reading Club is finished for another year. On Friday, August 25, in back of the library, some 30 children ate watermelon and rinsed sticky fingers. There were 56 children registered in the program. Almost 50% completed the reading requirements. On hand to give a story hour before the certificates were awarded was Mrs. Hawer of the C. Burr Artz Library. Mrs. Bonnie Sweeney helped to give out all the reports the children had written or drawn. Mrs. Marian Williams and Miss Ivanka Antolin assisted with the cutting of the watermelon and the serving of the children present at the party. Many thanks to them.

The children are to be commended for their excellent reading. Some of the children read as many as 50 books and some children in the early grades read and reported on as many as 67 easy and picture books. The reading club was more successful this year due to the increased publicity and the interest of the schools in having the children read over the summer.

With cooperation and encouragement from the teachers and parents, this library could easily award 100 certificates next year. Prizes for reading the most books were awarded to Marilyn Sweeney. She received the Curious George book. Elizabeth Williams won the Little House in the Big Woods and her sister, Kate Williams, won the Guinness book of records. Christopher Boyle was awarded 76¢ for the boy reading the most books in the early age group.

Those completing the requirements are as follows: Laura Keepers, Eric Keepers, Judy McGraw, Elizabeth Williams, Tina Mitchell, Christopher Boyle, Angela Boyle, Randy Nusbaum, Carol Seidel, Sharon McNair, Doug Mitchell, Robert Antolin, Margaret Antolin, Michael J. Little, Connie Medvid, Kimberly Glass, Susan Boyle, Helen Antolin, Kate Williams, Andy Mitchell, Sara Williams, Marilyn Sweeney, Katherine Antolin, Mark Warthen, Mary Anne Otto, Tina Ridenour, Kim Ridenour. Many children read 2, 3, 4 and 5 books but did not quite finish. The children helped the librarian by pasting the stars on the posters for books read, and horses were pasted on the certificates to signify books read. Some certificates were so full of horses you could hardly find space.

Congratulations to all who participated and received awards. The library is pleased to announce the opening once again on Thursday. Hours will include some morning hours from 10-12 and 2-5 in the afternoon. The library will be closed on Thursday evening. Please note the library will be closed on Labor Day, Sept. 4.

Emmitsburg Lifelong Learning Council Announces Evening Class Schedules

The Emmitsburg Lifelong Learning Council has arranged an evening schedule of 10 courses which will begin about the middle of September. The courses are Adult Basic Education, preparation for the high school equivalency exams, Painting for Beginners, Sewing, Everyday Fix-it, Typing I and II, Shorthand I, Home Nursing and Physical Fitness for Women. All courses will begin the week of September 18 and registration takes place at the opening session. Courses will run for a period of 10-12 weeks. Classes are held twice a week for Basic Education and for the high school equivalency course. All other classes meet once a week. A short course for tutors of reading and math is being arranged and will be offered later in the Fall. This course will prepare volunteers to give person-to-person help to students who are functionally illiterate.

Painting for Beginners will begin on Monday, September 18, from 7-9 p.m. It will be held in the art laboratory at St. Joseph College on the third floor of Brute Hall and will be taught by Sr. Anna Mae. There will be an $8 registration fee plus $7 for initial supplies and a set of acrylic paints. The course is designed for beginning students but more experienced students may enroll and will receive private evaluations as they proceed at their own pace. Students who wish may bring their own oils. Enrollment in this course is limited. Anyone wishing to be certain of a place may pre-register by phoning Sister Anna Mae at St. Joseph College. This is the only course in the Fall schedule which permits pre-registration.

Basic Education classes provide help for students who need to improve reading and math skills. ABE teachers work with each person at whatever grade level he has attained. There is no fee for the ABE course and all classroom materials are provided. This class will meet in the adult education room at Seton Center on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7-9 p.m. The teachers are Mrs. Mary Seess and Mrs. Ann Marshall. The ABE course provides a "second chance" for people who, for one reason or another, did not make it in the standard school program. It is hard to publicize this course to those who would benefit from it because they cannot read about it and they are suspicious of school which was to them a failure situation. It is estimated that in Frederick County there are 15,000 people who are unable to read with any degree of efficiency. The Lifelong Learning Council appeals to anyone in the community who knows such an adult to urge him to attend ABE classes. Instruction is informal and friendly and there will be no embarrassing tests.

The preparation for the high school equivalency exam will also be taught at Seton Center on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7-9 p.m. There is a fee of $3. Shorthand I will be taught at St. Joseph College on Monday evening from 7-9 by Sister Theresa. Fee of $8. Class begins on Sept. 18.

Everyday Fix-it, which is a course in simple household repairs, will be taught at the St. Joseph High School shop on Wednesday evenings by Dr. Robert Marshall. This class will run from 7-9:30 p.m. for 10 weeks beginning September 20. It is designed to be useful to women as well as men.

Typing I and Typing II will be taught at St. Joseph High School on Thursday, 7-9 p.m., beginning Sept. 21. Sister Mary Rose will teach this course which has a fee of $8 plus a small amount for materials.

Sewing for Beginners will be taught at St. Joseph High School from 7-9:30 p.m., beginning Sept. 21. Mrs. Nancy McAllister who will teach the class, will welcome more advanced sewers who wish to work under supervision. New sewing machines have been ordered for the high school. Fee of $8 plus cost of personally selected materials.

Details on the Home Nursing courses and the class in Physical Fitness for Women will be available in about a week. The Lifelong Learning Council offers most of the above courses in conjunction with the Frederick County Board of Education. Classes must enroll a minimum of 10 students in order to get under way.

Since the Council began its adult education program in Fall 1970, there has been excellent response from the community. Several short courses, possibly in cake decorating and home landscaping, have been planned for later in the year. The Council is glad to receive comments and suggestions. Phone 447-2928.

RETURN OF CHALK AND SLATE?

Some psychologists are now theorizing that children may learn to write better if slates are used instead of paper. Smooth paper, the theory goes, doesn't offer enough writing resistance to a child's awkward attempts, so his writing becomes messy and unreadable. A resulting aversion to writing can lead to difficulties in spelling. A psychological team at the Technical University of Aachen, in the Federal Republic of Germany, has run tests for two years with 150 children. Results suggest that the old fashioned slate and a soft slate pencil facilitate learning considerably!

FREDERICK COUNTY BACKGROUNDS

BY SAMUEL CARRICK
The Zacharias Family
Burial Ground
"A gateless fence of wire surrounds
These long-untended burial mounds
And on each slanting, fallen stone,
By moss and lichen overgrown,
We read, today, a name unknown.
"But here, above the un-mown sward,
Ground-flower and golden-rod keep guard,

While light winds sway the tangled grass
As, one by one, the summers pass;
And, though neglected and forgot
This once-remembered, cared-for spot, know it not."
The lines quoted above just about describe all the old-forgotten - neglected burial grounds that dot the countryside. Many have been lost—the ground once held sacred as a place of sepulchre put now to use. Have the dead no rights? This is a point in law—but it should also be a matter of conscience. The past never dies—like Banquo's ghost it has a spooky habit of being part of the present tangible evidence of the past may be destroyed—and unfortunately this is happening every day—but—the courage, determination, and self-sacrifice that were woven into the very sinews of that great nation can never be entirely obliterated. God be thanked for small favors!

Now to return to the historical and genealogical study of the Whitmore family burial ground located on the "Carrie Derz farm."

According to one authority there were at one time sixteen marked graves in this family plot! Just how many rest here in long-forgotten and unmarked mounds will probably never be known. Six graves were designated by small marble headstones, ten by rough fieldstones and three of the latter bore crude inscriptions. Three of the fieldstones and the marble tombstones were removed to the Levi Whitmore family plot in Mountainview Cemetery after 1962. The other seven fieldstones are probably still in place in the old burial ground.

The inscriptions from the markers follow:
2. In memory of Barbara Whitmore, died May 14, 1863, aged 9 years and 7 months.
3. In memory of Fred. (erick) Whitmore, died May 6, 1848, aged 45 years, 4 months and 12 days.
4. In memory of Elizabeth Whitmore, died March 1, 1846, aged 70 years, 6 months and 28 days.
5. In memory of Christian Whitmore, died May 26, 1862, aged 86 years, 9 months and 6 days.
6. In memory of Benjamin Whitmore, Sr., died March 11, 1818, aged 89 years.

7. In memory of Mary Whitmore, died April 4, 1820, aged 67 years and 11 months.
Of the three native stones moved to Mountainview Cemetery—two bear partial inscriptions but the third—although a few marks can be deciphered the stone is too badly worn to give any definite identification.
8. (Fieldstone #1) G. W. Mo 17? (?), May 22, 17...?
Note: This undoubtedly marked the grave of a member of the Whitmore family—but—nothing more can be determined.
9. (Fieldstone #2) P.H., Mil 1733, a 28.

This concludes, for the present at least, the notes pertaining to the Whitmore family of Tom's Creek Hundred, and their family burial ground. It might be well to note, however, at this time, that many members of this clan are interested in Mountainview as well as other cemeteries.
Before going on to the historical and genealogical study of the Zacharias family burial ground there is one question which, if included in this article, just might be answered by one of the readers!
In 1896 James P. Helman, the Emmitsburg historian, attended a reunion of the descendants of the George (1) and Christiana Smith, of the "Cattail Branch", in Canton, Ohio. Apparently Mr. Helman was one of the descendants. In the same year the family marker was erected in old Tom's Creek Lutheran and Reformed churchyard—largely through the efforts of Mr. Helman. This stone has disappeared within the past year.
Mr. Helman wrote a genealogy of the George (1) and Christiana Smith family—according to the article published in the "Emmitsburg Chronicle." Now to the "sixty-four dollar question." Is there a copy of this work in the possession of anyone living in Emmitsburg or its vicinity at the present time? If so it would throw a great deal of light on those interred in the old Tom's Creek churchyard (Lutheran and Reformed) as well as on descendants still living in Frederick County. The writer of this column would like very much to see a copy of this work—if any are available.

Now to the study of the Zacharias family burial ground. This plot was and—in part—is located on land which is now a part of Castle Farms Dairy—but at one time the plantation of Mathias (1) Zacharias, the pioneer member of the family in America, as well as in Tom's Creek Hundred, Frederick County, Maryland.

Burials in the Zacharias plot were made as late as 1889—but later many of the bodies were removed to Mountainview Cemetery. These notes will be continued next week.

Perspectives In Learning By Hazel Brown

I.Q. Tests—Are They Outdated?
Standardized intelligence tests, used for so long as the basic measurement for our schools, are under attack from many quarters.
Some educators feel that the I.Q. tests are designed for white, middle-class children and discriminate against minority groups and children with varying backgrounds.

"The I.Q. tests do not measure intelligence but rather what a person has learned," says Dr. Henry S. Dyer, Vice President of the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J. Dr. Dyer has helped to develop many tests and recently worked on the College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) tests.

For many years the results of I.Q. tests have been used as the basic criteria for the placement of children in a class for the mentally retarded. Once a child has been placed in the class, the stigma of being "retarded" rarely ends. The label goes with him from class to class. It is really frightening to think of the many youngsters who may have been labeled by invalid I.Q. tests, and are now sitting in a special education class.

The major intelligence tests being used today were developed more than 50 years ago, and have undergone only slight modifications. Many items on the tests are unfamiliar concepts to the youth of today. Vocabulary changes as well as scientific findings have made many test items invalid.

Several educators have taken up a crusade to discard existing I.Q. tests. They feel that the benefits of testing are not worth the damage that some results are causing your youngsters. They emphasize that testing situations of any type stifle the learning process and result in irreparable harm.
Recent studies have shown that I.Q. scores are the results of many factors other than intellect. Emotional disturbances, perceptual difficulties, difficulty in speaking or reading English, and cultural differences may also affect the I.Q. score. How then can we say that an I.Q. score indicates the potential intelligence of a child?

As a parent or educator, we must take another look at the use of I.Q. tests. The validity of the tests and the scores are being questioned. We should be knowledgeable of this controversy, and be involved in the changes which it may dictate.

The Make Yourself Over Clinic
BY DOLLY REED WAGEMAN, Director, The Cernation Fashion Office
Q: Dear Dolly: My vacation plans fell apart. I'll be stuck at home for two weeks. Help!
A: This can be the best vacation of your life. Begin by taking the local tour—which you'll organize for yourself. If you live near a large city, take a guided bus tour. Investigate all the local landmarks: buildings of architectural or historical interest, houses once occupied by famous people, scenes of great events. Schedule one small trip to a new place every day. Is there a restaurant you've been yearning to visit? Meet a friend there for dinner.
One of the greatest things about a vacation is meeting new people; so meet some! Are you politically minded? Get down to your candidate's campaign headquarters, and say you want to help. Have you ever investigated the local theatre group?
You don't have to have special acting talent. They can always use help backstage. New friends you'll meet are easier to keep when you live in the same place.
Also, do set aside several hours each day for a beauty break. Try setting your hair a different way. Experiment with new makeup colors. If a light tan is flattering, get one. If you need to lose a few pounds to look your best, do it. Drink Slender diet food from Carnation as your beauty spa breakfast and lunch. Pounds will melt away. You'll look and feel so marvelous, everyone will say: That must have been some vacation.

The Now Washbasket
By Joyce Champion
The necessity of a perfect diaper wash for baby's health and comfort prompts many queries from conscientious mothers. Here are some of them:
What causes the tiny greaseballs that I sometimes find clinging to the diapers after I've washed them?
They are the result of oil rubbed on your baby. Their presence means you are not washing the diapers in hot enough water. Possibly, too, you are not using enough soap or detergent.
What causes diaper rash?
Ammonia is the major cause. It is created when the baby urine comes in contact with certain types of bacteria which can exist in diapers even after a trip through your washer and dryer.
How can I combat these ammonia-causing bacteria?
One of your best weapons is Borateam, a borax-based product that sanitizes and deodorizes. It contains a bacteriostat that kills bacteria before ammonia develops.
What pre-wash steps should I take before washing diapers?
Rinse off soiled diapers with cold water. Soak them in a diaper pail, using one-half cup of the borax product per gallon of cool water. Before starting the wash cycle, spin dry the diapers.

BACKGROUND ON BUSINESS
EXCERPTS FROM REMARKS BY PRICE COMMISSION CHAIRMAN C. JACKSON GRAYSON, JR., BEFORE THE CONSUMER FEDERATION OF AMERICA, WASHINGTON, D.C.
I'm aware that some of you may feel we've made no impact whatsoever on prices, particularly food prices. You may even have strong suspicions that the way things are set up, we never will have an impact.
Some of you may feel our posting policies are absurd, or useless, or both. Some of you may feel strongly the Price Commission's concerns are for business, not the consumer.
None of us on the Price Commission is, quote, "businessmen," we represent no constituency. Commissioner Bill Scranton is a former Governor of Pennsylvania, and former head of the Commission on Campus Unrest. Bill Coleman is a Philadelphia lawyer, who's also head of the NAACP's Civil Defense Fund. John Queenan is an accountant from Connecticut who was President of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Marina Whitman is a mother and housewife, and as a sideline, a Professor of Economics at Pittsburgh. Bob Lanzillotti — like me — is a Business School Dean, and Wilson Newman is a former Vice Chairman of the Board of the National Bureau of Economic Research and head of the President's Task Force on Small Business.
Seven of us. Academics. Accountants. Economists. Lawyers. With one mission: to do as ordered, to win that fight. To control responsibly a trillion dollar economy. To turn the expectation of inflation. To make "price" mean no more than a fair and decent measure of the worth of a product or a service with reasonable allowance for free enterprise profit.
That's what we were resolved to achieve. How much have we achieved?
It's important to understand that we were given not one mandate by the President and the Congress. We were given two — of equal weight and importance.
Mandate number one was a commitment to the American people to stop the shrinking purchasing power of the consumers' dollar, to stop the insidious rise, rise, rise of prices.
Mandate number two was a commitment to achieve our first, of stopping inflation, but to do so without in any way discouraging healthy economic expansion.
No policy can or could totally resolve this basic dilemma. It can only try to pursue both goals at once, as consistently, as firmly, and with as much justice as possible.
One thing was decided for us by the Cost of Living Council, before we arrived. All businesses in America were divided into three sections, which we call Tiers. Tier I is the 1,500 largest companies in the country, which collectively create almost half of all American revenues. They, and only they, have to get our permission to increase any price. Tier II is larger in number, but the companies are smaller in size. They don't have to come to us in advance; they must report quarterly. Tier III is almost three million small businesses, whose books the IRS monitors on a spotcheck basis.
The philosophy behind tiering business is sound. If we could hold the line, hard, with the 1,500 companies who come to us for a price rise of a nickel, we have immediate control over half the economy. The belief was that the other half, which is controlled indirectly, will increasingly feel the impact from those we control.
We learned, however, that unfortunately what is wisest, and fairest, isn't always the easiest to explain. An item-by-item freeze would have been simpler for you; every frozen price would have been posted in the stores. But you can't see markups, when you shop. You can't see profit margins. Such matters are private. Permitting anybody to see somebody's private books — even if we could so order, and we can't — would be an invasion of privacy. It would be counter to a deeply-rooted American conviction and our constitutional right of privacy. And it would be most damaging competitively.
In the long run — which is the star by which we try to steer our ship — I am certain that the course we've chartered will be judged to have been eminently fair to the American economy. For in the long run, it is an inflation-free but vital and resurgent economy which is everybody's goal. Yours. The businessman's. Mine.

The Big News At Miami Beach
The big news story at Miami Beach last week was not the actions of the Republican National Convention, but the rise of the obscene, dirty, violent mob-like revolutionary forces in America to a safe position above the law. This ascension of the lawbreakers, which has characterized massive violence on the American scene in recent years, is a dramatic commentary on a growing political cowardice in our nation. It is a measure of the moral strength of America. It was encouraged last week by the "appeasement" policy of Miami Beach and Florida Law Enforcement authorities.

Members of our National Education Program Staff saw it all at close range and came away from Miami wondering how a nation can survive which permits itself to be blackmailed into a double standard of law enforcement. What happened in the streets of Miami Beach must be considered an affront to the American citizenry—or accepted as an historic milestone on a nation's downhill road to destruction. Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, who was Commander-in-Chief of all law forces (including his own city police, county sheriff's men, state troopers, national guardsmen, and even air force paratroopers on the Miami Beach scene) set the stage for the wholesale lawbreaking by making a deal with the mobsters and decreeing that the streets of Miami Beach belong to the "non-delegate" protesters for the three-day convention, and then forcing police details to turn their backs when confronted with various types of lawbreaking by hundreds of hard core well-trained revolutionary anti-war protesters. About a thousand bedraggled half-naked hippie type camp followers also were incited to some form of violence by the mob leaders. There were another thousand thrill-seeking youths, swelling the size of, and joining in some of the mob action.

For hours big striking forces, many with helmets, improvised gas masks and pockets full of slingshot steel projectiles created havoc. From their lair in Flamingo Park, north through all of Miami Beach thoroughfares to Fifth Street where the biggest Convention hotels are located, they seized the streets and conducted a reign of terror. Show windows were shattered. Vandalism and looting followed. Bus and truck tires were slashed. Cars were overturned in the streets. Traffic was stalled. Men and women delegates were assaulted. Under the threat of an attack upon the Convention Hall itself, and after a hail of bricks and sharp steel missiles at the entrance gates, Pomerance's forces were obliged to use mace and a variety of tear gas. Hundreds of arrests were belatedly made. The long-delayed use of stern measures, however, did not end the night's terror. The whole wild, massive affair had all the trappings of the Communist North Vietnam operation. This was one of the unbelievable blackmail prices paid by Chief Pomerance and his associate law enforcement leaders to the revolutionary mobsters for their promise: no violence.

Small bands of violent, mad-dog type "non delegates" roamed the parking lots and entrances of hotels, assaulting Nixon supporters, ripping off Nixon banners and tearing up and sometimes burning American flags seized from delegates. No arrests. One such incident involved delegate Dr. Harold Barton of Louisville whose wife is a national GOP Committeewoman. The Bartons, displaying Nixon buttons, were set upon at the entrance of their hotel. The flying squad of mobsters knocked Dr. Barton to the pavement with blows to his face. Two of his teeth were knocked out, his mouth was so lacerated, he required hospital surgery. Mrs. Barton was verbally abused. Then the mobsters seized a Kentucky flag and tore it to shreds. Mrs. Barton said police witnessed the assault. No arrests.

Beautiful Flamingo Park with its tall palms, lush turf and sparkling swimming pool was degraded with Communists and Communist supporters carrying on illegal "pot smokin"; mass "urination memorials" celebrating the hoped-for downfall of President Nixon and the triumph of the North Vietnamese Communists; naked bathing spectacles; the burning of American flags and glorifying the Communist enemy of the USA. No arrests.

The Constellation Has A Birthday

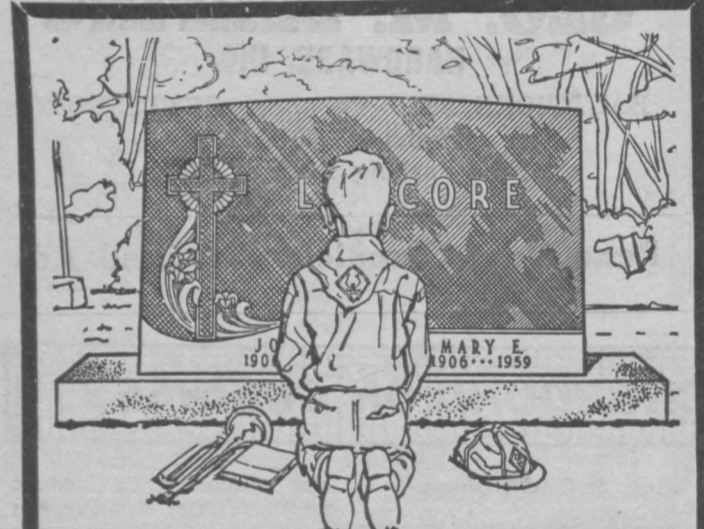

History comes to man mostly through books. We study history and are its subjects, but rarely do we gain the sensation of living it. Consequently, many historic figures seem bigger than life as we read and hear about them. We tend to forget that those who have gone before us in this life suffered the same limitations we experience. The best way to face the real struggle they face is to visit the places where history recorded the events which were passed on to us as school children. The United States Frigate Constellation is such a place.

more, captain of The Constellation, became known for his training discipline. The young David Porter served under Captain Truxton as a midshipman and went on to become one of America's greatest naval heroes in the War of 1812. Today, berthed in Baltimore Harbor, The Constellation serves as the base for a cadet training program, in keeping with Captain Truxton's tradition. Plans call for it to become the center for a maritime-vocational-industrial program for high school dropouts under the Department of Health Education and Welfare and the city of Baltimore.

The Constellation was the first of the infant United States Navy to be put to sea and gave much useful service in the undeclared war with France. Built in Baltimore and manned almost exclusively by Marylanders, she was the result of an act of March 27, 1794, which initiated the first building program for modern warships under Secretary of the Navy Pickens and designer Joshua Humphreys. In 1799, The Constellation became the first United States warship to capture a foreign warship, the French "Insurgent". This feat was a major victory for the young American nation and resulted in The Constellation being toasted as "the wooden walls of America."

Thomas Truxton of Baltimore, captain of The Constellation, became known for his training discipline. The young David Porter served under Captain Truxton as a midshipman and went on to become one of America's greatest naval heroes in the War of 1812. Today, berthed in Baltimore Harbor, The Constellation serves as the base for a cadet training program, in keeping with Captain Truxton's tradition. Plans call for it to become the center for a maritime-vocational-industrial program for high school dropouts under the Department of Health Education and Welfare and the city of Baltimore. The Constellation stands as a shrine to the first successful defense of the fruits of the American Revolution. The new programs planned for her historic decks give her as important a role in our society today as the one she planned almost 200 years ago. I have introduced a resolution in the Senate which authorizes and requests the President to issue a proclamation commemorating the launching in 1797 of The Constellation. It is my hope that you will be able to join me in visiting the ship's berth this year to celebrate The Constellation's 175th birthday. By walking her decks, I believe we can all experience some sense of our history.

DID YOU SEE SHEPLEY'S AD TODAY?

Why Americans own $54,000,000,000 worth of U.S. Savings Bonds.
One good reason is the Payroll Savings Plan. About three-fourths of all Bonds are purchased through the Plan. It's helping Americans save more money than they ever dreamed they could.
That's because the Payroll Savings Plan is such an easy way to save. All you do is sign up where you work and the amount you specify is set aside from each paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. It's the easy way to build a nest egg.
You've got your reasons to save money. There's one great way to do it painlessly. Join the millions who are buying Bonds the Payroll Savings Way.

BUSINESS AND THE STOCK MARKET

Crop Prospects
By Babson's Reports Inc. Wellesley Hills, Mass., Aug. 31, 1972—This year is shaping up to be more favorable for farmers than 1971. Following the overproduction in corn last year which depressed that and other feed-grain markets, crop prospects generally are now rated in better balance with projected requirements.

Area - And Output
Crops of all types seeded for 1972 harvest totaled 308 million acres, down 3% or 9 million acres from last year. After - planting losses have varied from nominal in parts of the Midwest and Southwest to substantial in Atlantic Coast states hit by Hurricane Agnes. In all, total acreage actually harvested will not be too far below the official forecast of the Department of Agriculture.

Cutback estimates of 6% and 11% in food-grain and feed-grain output respectively—compared with year-ago totals—seem well on the way to being realized, assuming close-to-normal weather and growing conditions from here on. Crop development is running late in many areas because of slow starts occasioned by overdry or overwet spring conditions, or other weather vagaries. Such late development increases the danger of frost damage, especially for corn and soybeans.

Corn And Wheat

The Crop Reporting Board of the Agriculture Department looks for an 11% drop in corn output from 1971's all-time high, which is pretty much in line with reports from private sources reaching the Research Department of Babson's Reports. Indications are that yields—though slated to lag record levels—should hold comfortably above average. So, if corn gets the weather breaks, and survives any late-season frosts, production could be a bit bigger than the nearly 5 billion bushels projected. In any event, large carryovers assure that 1972-73 supplies of corn and other feed-grains will average near year ago levels.

Nor is there any doubt as to the adequacy of total wheat supplies for the same period, even if U. S. output should dip below the 1.54 billion bushels now indicated. Carryover wheat stocks July 1 amounted to 856 million bushels, up some 20% from a year ago. Wheat stocks of the major exporters—U. S., Canada, Australia, and Argentina—were 6% below a year ago but are ample for expected needs.

Cattle And Hogs
The number of cattle on feed has increased, but suspicion grows that official estimates err on the high side. Babson's Reports feels that marketings will top 1971 levels in the months just ahead but still not keep pace with heavy demand. By next winter and early spring, the supply-demand balance could be very tight if cattle consumers have in fact overcounted. As for prices, there should be more weakness than strength on balance over near term, but the averages should still hold above the levels of a year ago.

Former Local Man Dies In Baltimore

Joseph H. Hopp, Baltimore, died Friday, August 25. He was the husband of Frances C. (Honig) Hopp and the brother of Mr. Edward Hopp and the late Rose Hopp Beall. He was the son of the late Harry and Catherine (Dukehart) Hopp of Emmitsburg.

A Requiem Mass was held in St. Matthews Church, Baltimore, on Monday with interment in Parkwood Cemetery.

No relief from the tightness prevailing in hog supplies is likely before spring of 1973, and there is doubt how much relief will be seen then. The smaller corn crop this year means higher feed prices next winter and beyond, making growers hesitant to undertake big expansion of operations. There will be some easing in hog prices this fall, but it will not carry too far and will not be prolonged. Quotes will be headed upward again before year end.

Good Outlook But No Boom
First half of 1972 surpassed our expectation for farmers in terms of net income and average farm prices. Now there is a good chance this general trend will—with some variations, of course—carry through the rest of the year. So, the overall near-term economic outlook for farmers appears favorable . . . but just how favorable is a question. Anticipated decline in 1972 crop marketings will be offset by higher prices; income from livestock will be up. This does not add up to a boom, but should make for a 10% boost in realized net vs. 1971.

Ecology—And A Look At Ourselves

The current emphasis on our environment is justified. Americans have finally awakened to the fact that our environment is in danger—and must be saved. We're concerned with air pollution, water pollution and noise pollution. We've discovered that we must protect endangered animal species before they become extinct. We are aware of preservation of forests and streams.

Let's be equally concerned about people. As we're caring for our environment, we're neglecting our own good health. As a result, the majority of Americans are not enjoying optimum health. Fatigue and sluggishness are thought to be the products of polluted air; nervousness is attributed to our fast-paced lifestyles. Sadly, obesity is considered a mark of the "good life," perhaps for the gourmet who has achieved success.

Like our lives, our bodies are constantly changing. Through a process called mitosis, the body reproduces three billion cells per minute. Should we not be concerned with ourselves and our health? Should we not look to body-building foods, those which offer nutrients we need for optimum health? If we are thoughtful of ecology, we must think of ourselves as well.

Well-balanced meals are a must in this busy age. In spite of food budgets and time limits, proper nutrition is relatively simple. The U. S. Department of Agriculture suggests the Basic 4 Food Groups as a daily guide to reduce food costs and minimize preparation time. Two servings of meat, fish, poultry or eggs should be consumed each day. Four or more servings of vegetables and fruits and the same amount of breads and cereals are necessary. Milk, including cheese, cottage cheese, sour cream and ice cream, is especially important. For children, three to four cups are required. For teens, serve four or more cups. Adults need two or more cups. Luckily, balanced meals can be as delicious as they are nutritious.

People are concerned with ecology. People also should be concerned with people. Let's enjoy optimum health with good nutrition. Only then will we realize "the good life."

WASHINGTON REPORT
FROM SENATOR J. GLENN BEALL JR.

What Is a Convention?

Our presidential nominating conventions have a long and colorful history, but many people are not aware of how they began and why they take place.

It is often thought the political conventions began with the election of George Washington as our first president in 1789. But this is not the case, and it may be a surprise to learn that Baltimore was the site of the first nominating conventions in 1831-1832.

In the early days of our nation, there were no set rules for selecting presidential candidates. Balloting was done at the state level, usually for candidates nominated by the state legislatures. After the election each state sent delegates to cast its presidential votes. The winner became president and the runner-up was vice president.

There was no such thing as a national party ticket. One result of this was that Federalist President John Adams had Thomas Jefferson, a member of the Democratic-Republican Party, for Vice President.

When Jefferson became president and his party took control of Congress, one of the first changes they implemented was the 12th Amendment to the Constitution, which provided for separate presidential and vice presidential candidates. This was the birth of the "party ticket."

The Democratic-Republican party controlled Congress and the White House for the next 24 years, and the congressional caucus chose the party's candidates for President and Vice President. This system broke down in 1824, however, when the caucus became deadlocked over a four-way race for the nomination.

losing that election to John Quincy Adams, but he came back to win in 1828. His election marked the end of the caucus system.

Jackson was the first president to be nominated at a convention when he was chosen for a second term in Baltimore in 1832. The first two nominating conventions ever held in the United States also took place in Baltimore six months earlier. The first was held by a minor party that didn't survive to hold another.

The convention provided an organizational structure for bringing together representatives from every state purely on the basis of their political affiliation. As our nation continued to grow, it was the most practical and expedient method of choosing a candidate to represent the entire party. It also became the forum for issuing a declaration of party principles and policy, which we now call the "party platform."

Convention rules have existed since the first convention in Baltimore, and the basic ones have changed only slightly in the past 140 years. The delegates were chosen in a manner determined by the states, convention votes were allotted in proportion to the electoral college votes for each state, a single spokesman was chosen to cast the votes of each delegation, and a national committee was appointed to conduct party business between elections.

Over the years, some of the rules were amended, and there should always be provisions to make changes as they are needed. But the fundamental purpose and procedure of the national conventions have held up well and fulfilled an important role in our election process.

NO. 23,921 EQUITY IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR FREDERICK COUNTY MARYLAND

SARAH JANE GORDON Widow Burkittsville, Maryland vs. THE UNKNOWN HEIRS, DEVISEES, PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, DESCENDANTS, OR SUCCESSORS IN INTEREST OF OUTERBRIDGE HORSEY, ANNA CARROLL HORSEY, ANN CAROLINE HORSEY, ELIZABETH LEE HORSEY, ELLA HORSEY MONTGOMERY, THOMAS S. LEE HORSEY AND CHARLES LEE HORSEY, ALL DECEASED

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this Bill is that the court may take jurisdiction in the premises and enter a Decree removing the cloud upon the title of the Complainant and that the Court shall declare that the Complainant has a good and marketable fee simple title to the property described in the Bill of Complaint, and may sell or convey or otherwise deal with said property without regard to the claims of the unknown heirs, devisees, personal representatives, descendants or successors in interest of Outerbridge Horsey, Anna Carroll Horsey, Ann Caroline Horsey, Elizabeth Lee Horsey, Ella Horsey Montgomery, Thomas S. Lee Horsey and Charles Carroll Lee Horsey, deceased.

That the said, Sarah Jane Gordon, widow, your Complainant, herein, is the owner of a tract or parcel of real estate situate, lying and being in Burkittsville Election District, Frederick County, Maryland, and being more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at the southwest corner of Alexander McDades land and running thence with the lands of James Weddels S. 35 1/2° W. 19.9 perches to a stone, thence running with the land of Tobias Horine S. 70 1/2° E. 21.1 perches to a division line between the lot and the land of Joshua Ahalt N. 48° E. 16 perches to a corner of the above named Alexander McDades lot and with said Lot N. 59° W. 24.6 perches to the place of beginning, containing 2 acres, 1 rod, and 35 perches of land, more or less.

Said tract or parcel of land being all of Parcel 1 described and conveyed in a Deed from George V. Arnold and M. Portia Arnold, his wife, to Columbus Gordon and Sarah Jane Gordon, his wife, the said Columbus Gordon having predeceased your Complainant and title having vested in your Complainant, dated October 7, 1946 and recorded in Liber 457, Folio 285, one of the Land Records of Frederick County, Maryland, the original copy of which Deed being filed herewith and being marked Plaintiffs "Exhibit 1", and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

That said tract or parcel of real estate which is the subject of these proceedings is the same as Parcel 1 of the land described and conveyed in a Deed from Guy Anders, Sheriff, to George V. Arnold and M. Portia Arnold, his wife, dated March 16, 1942 and recorded in Liber 434, Folio 56, one of the Land Records of Frederick County, Maryland, a certified copy of said deed being filed herewith and marked Plaintiffs "Exhibit 2" and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

That said tract or parcel of real estate which is the subject of these proceedings is the same tract or parcel of land involved in Land Judicial Sales Docket No. E.G.H. 6, Folio 175, in which the said Guy Anders, Sheriff of Frederick County sold the interest of James F. Gordon, Columbus Gordon and George Michael Gordon, heirs of Charity Gordon, at public sale, said proceedings being filed herewith and marked Plaintiffs "Exhibit 3" and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

That said tract or parcel of real estate which is the subject of these proceedings is the same tract or parcel described and conveyed in a Deed from Eliza Morris to Charity Gordon, dated November 22, 1909, and recorded in Liber H.W.B. 294, Folio 300, one of the aforesaid Land Records, said deed being filed herewith and being marked Plaintiffs "Exhibit 4" and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

That said tract or parcel of real estate which is the subject of these proceedings is the same tract or parcel of land described and conveyed in a Deed from William H. Cromwell, Sheriff, to Outerbridge Horsey, dated July 23, 1892, and recorded in Liber J.L.J. 1, Folio 739, one of the aforesaid Land Records, said deed being filed herewith and marked Plaintiffs "Exhibit 5", and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

Thereafter the said Outerbridge Horsey, prior to his death, gave possession of said property to Eliza Morris but failed to execute and deliver a deed for said tract of land to the aforesaid Eliza Morris.

That as can be seen by the aforesaid Exhibit 5 the said Eliza Morris had lived on said property since 1871 and continued to live on said land and have possession of said land uninterruptedly until November 22, 1909, when she conveyed said property to Charity Gordon as set forth in Exhibit 4.

That the said Charity Gordon, maintained possession of the aforesaid described tract until the time of her death of approximately 1932. The sons of the said Charity Gordon, aforesaid, maintained possession of said property and lived on said property until approximately 1942 when the said property was purchased by the aforesaid George V. Arnold and wife, as aforesaid. The said Complainant and her husband, being one of the sons of Charity Gordon after purchasing the said property on October 7, 1946 maintained actual and visible, continuous, exclusive, hostile, notorious, and adverse possession and control of the aforesaid land and premises with full claim of ownership and under color of title since prior to 1946.

That the question has been raised as to whether the Complainant, Sarah Jane Gordon, widow, has a good and marketable fee simple title to the said real estate heretofore conveyed to her husband and herself by the aforesaid deed, which is the tract and parcel in question and the subject of these proceedings, containing 2 acres, 1 rod and 35 square perches of land, more or less.

That your Complainant and her attorneys have made reasonable efforts to ascertain all of the heirs, devisees, personal representatives, descendants or successors in interest of the said Outerbridge Horsey, Anna Carroll Horsey, Ann Caroline Horsey, Elizabeth Lee Horsey, Ella Horsey Montgomery, Thomas S. Lee Horsey and Charles Carroll Lee Horsey, deceased.

That the above matter constitutes a cloud upon the title of your Complainant and although your Complainant claims to hold a valid fee simple title, the same cannot be established of record without the removal of the aforesaid cloud upon the title of your Complainant, that your Complainant has no adequate remedy at law.

It is thereupon this 2nd day of August, 1972, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity, and by the authority thereof, ORDERED, that the Complainant, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Frederick County, once a week in each of four successive weeks, the last of such publication to be made not less than 30 days from the 9th day of September, 1972, give notice to the unknown heirs, devisees, personal representatives, descendants or successors in interest of Outerbridge Horsey, Anna Carroll Horsey, Elizabeth Lee Horsey, Ella Horsey Montgomery, Thomas S. Lee Horsey and Charles Carroll Lee Horsey, deceased, whether residents or nonresidents, of the object and substance of this Bill, ordering them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitors, on or before the 11th day of October, 1972, next to show cause, if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Letters should be sent to me, c/o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Are you still accepting applications to the military academies?

Applications for the classes entering in July 1973 will be accepted until October 31, 1972. After that date my Academy Selection Board will convene to decide on prospective nominees.

Why doesn't the federal government make use of all its surplus land you read about? Surely it could be used for conservation purposes?

Yours is a good idea and you will be interested in knowing that Public Law 91-485 is now in effect making surplus federal property available to state and local governments for park and recreation purposes.

Does the government publish a brochure on ski facilities available in the National Park System?

Yes. A "Winter Activities" brochure details sports facilities and programs — devoting particular attention to skiing and snowmobiling. Opportunities for such diverse winter recreation as snowshoeing, sledging, tobogganing, skating and snow camping are also listed. The guide tells which activities are available at which park, how to reach the area, where the nearest accommodations and supplies can be found, and where to write for more detailed local regulations governing winter sports. Copies of the brochure are available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C.

My father receives black lung benefits but due to his health it appears he is no longer able to handle his money. Can someone besides my father handle his black lung benefit checks on his behalf?

Yes. If your father's interests would best be served by having his black lung benefits paid by someone on his behalf, this can be done. The Social Security Administration will select a proper representative payee for him. Your local Social Security office will make the necessary arrangements upon request.

Where can I get information on consumer products the government believes unsafe?

The General Services Administration publishes an index of consumer product publications. The list of booklets range from appliances to zippers, including a monthly newsletter covering consumer activities, unsafe products, unfair practices and the environment. Free copies of the index may be obtained by writing the Consumer Product Information Distribution Center, Washington, D. C.

FUN ON WHEELS

There are few things more challenging to parents than a back seat filled with wrangling, restless youngsters on what is supposed to be a family vacation.

The inevitable tedium of long hours between stops can be countered, however, by diversions that make getting to your destination half the fun. The trick is not to take children's minds off the trip but to put their minds on it. "Bingo cards" for the road is one of the games children find especially absorbing. They make the cards by ruling boxes on plain sheets of paper, then filling in each box with a drawing of something they expect to see during the day — a cowboy hat, a cactus, a windmill are examples. When their cards are all filled in they check off the things they see. The winner is the first person to check off every square.

The "Bingo kit" is easy and inexpensive to put together, and is safe for kids to use in a moving car: A couple of art pads from any stationery store (the stiff backings make them easy to prop on a tiny lap), and a box or two of Crayola crayons, which have no sharp points and are non-toxic. After you've kept the small fry occupied with this safe and simple game for a few hours of driving, you'll understand why these crayons earned the name of "the quiet toy!" They'll help make a vacation trip a colorful experience, and will give the youngsters an interesting record of the things they saw.

More veterans and servicemen trained under the current GI Bill in April than any one month in its six year history, according to the VA.

LOOK WHAT'S COOKING!

EVER SINCE EARLY CAVE MAN EXPLORED THE CULINARY DELIGHT OF SEARING MEAT OVER THE FIRE HE HAD JUST DISCOVERED, COOKING OUTDOORS HAS BECOME ONE OF AMERICA'S GREAT PASTIMES!

MAN HAS COME A LONG WAY FROM BARBECUED BEGONOSURUS AND MARINATED MASTADON TO SUCH TAME FOODS AS HAMBURGERS AND FRANKFURTERS. FOR DELICIOUS SPARERIBS AND OTHER GREAT BARBECUE FEASTS, HERE'S THE RECIPE FOR A SAUCE MRS. CAVE MAN WOULD HAVE LOVED.

OF COURSE, GRANDMA'S UNSULPHURED MOLASSES, THE OLD-FASHIONED NATURAL KIND THAT GIVES THIS SAUCE ITS MELLOW, RICH FLAVOR AND APPETIZING COLOR, HADN'T BEEN DISCOVERED—IT'S JUST 100 YEARS YOUNG! BRUSH IT ON SPARERIBS, CHICKEN AND TURKEY PARTS DURING THE LAST PERIOD OF GRILLING, AND ON HAMBURGERS AND FRANKFURTERS FOR THEIR FULL COOKING TIME!

Grandma's Basic Barbecue Sauce
Mix together: 1 cup Grandma's Unsulphured Molasses
1 cup prepared mustard
1 cup vinegar

Variations: Add 1 cup catsup or 2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 tablespoons minced onion, and 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco pepper sauce.

IF YOU WANT TO GIVE THAT OLD-TIME FLAVOR TO CANNED BAKED OR KIDNEY BEANS, BLEND EQUAL AMOUNTS OF GRANDMA'S UNSULPHURED MOLASSES AND CHILI SAUCE (PLUS A LITTLE CHOPPED ONION IF YOU LIKE) AND ADD TO TASTE.

style ends in a tie!

Sharp color combos, flared heel, neat tie... with it types say: "This one, please!" Extension sole, sturdy construction, careful craftsmanship happily bridge the generation gap.

First Catholic Boy Scout Camping Retreat To Be Held At Mount Saint Mary's College Farm September 16 & 17

Close to the land; close to the Lord.

That is the underlying theme of the Boy Scout camping retreat to be held at the Mount St. Mary's College farm on Sept. 16 and 17. It will be the first Catholic Scout retreat in the Francis Scott Key District and organizers hope it will become an annual opportunity for troops in Western and Central Maryland.

of authority. Adult scout leaders and cooperating seminarians from Mount Saint Mary's Seminary will act as resource people for these discussions but will not attempt to lead or intrude. About 200 scouts are expected to participate.

During the retreat, the boys will become acquainted with procedures for meriting the Ad Altare Dei emblem and other Catholic scouting awards.

Training for the Ad Altare Dei (To the Altar of God) emblem involves intensive study of scripture, liturgy and the sacraments as well as active witness to the teachings of Christ. Many scouts attending the retreat are expected to begin working for this award which is bestowed only on a First Class scout and only in recognition of spiritual advancement.

A candlelit Mass will be celebrated at the Grotto of Lourdes on Saturday evening. The Grotto is the nation's oldest Catholic shrine and is located behind and above the college in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

As an outgrowth of the retreat "rap sessions", the scouts will plan future activities which will concretely express their loyalty to their Scout Oath and Law and to their Christian commitment.

Emmitsburg Scoutmaster, Robert A. Rosensteel, and Michael H. Scheerer, Director of Counseling Services at Mt. St. Mary's College, are chairmen of the retreat committee.

Fr. Joseph Davies of Hagerstown, council chaplain, is acting in an advisory capacity. A circular blue patch has been designed for FSK Catholic Retreat 1972.

Further information about the retreat may be obtained from Robert A. Rosensteel, DePaul St., Emmitsburg, telephone 447-6272.

St. John's School Holds Registration

The Christian School of St. Thurmont, is registering children for morning classes which will begin September 18 and will end May 21, 1973. Church affiliation is not being considered for enrollment. Special scholarships and partial scholarships have been granted.

Plans are made to conduct a one hour class, which will be increased to a two hour class, twice a week for three year old children, and a two and a half hour class three times a week for the four year olds.

Many interest centers are available within the classroom where the child learns at his own pace with the guidance of competent instructors. Mrs. Joan Shaff and Mrs. Isabel Mathias have been the school's instructors for several years and are well acquainted with the successful Christian-teaching techniques for this age group.

It is the school's hope that attendance will be a pleasant experience for both the child and the parent. To take advantage of this learning atmosphere please contact Mrs. Gloria Angleberger (271-2611) or Mrs. Phyllis Nowell (271-2015) for further information and enrollment.

An open house will be held prior to the beginning of the school session where the parents and the children will have an opportunity to visit their classroom and meet their teachers and other classmates.

MARRIAGES AND MONEY: HOW THEY CAN GROW

In spite of those who say marriage is on its way out, indications are that it's here to stay.

In fact, it is predicted that by 1973 the number of weddings will surpass the record of nearly 2.3 million set in 1946.

The reason? In the next decade, in number alone, people in their 20s and 30s will outpace all other age groups.

Because of the baby boom following World War II, the tide of young people will grow by 18 million between now and 1980. These Americans are now coming of age, moving through college, marrying and raising families.

The implications of this population shift are tremendous to businessmen, politicians, and government officials. Politicians must begin to appeal to younger constituencies. Governments at all levels expect more pressure for change from these young adults — people with flexible ideas and habits; and as a whole, better educated than their elders. Business will have to produce housing, appliances, furniture, and baby products, which will be needed in greater abundance.

Despite recent emphasis on zero population growth and the drop in the birth rate, another baby boom will take place in the '70s. Births, after declining for more than a decade, are starting to move up again because more women have reached child-bearing age. So, even with the trend toward smaller families, the rising number of families being formed will push total births to new highs. The total in the '70s should top the '60s by around 4 million babies.

If you are eagerly but apprehensively entering the world of marriage and child-raising, you can draw comfort from the fact that many others face the same day-to-day problems that sometimes seem so insurmountable to you. Among the most important is how to manage your money.

Experts advise young couples to establish a simple, realistic, and workable budget — and stick to it!

A good budget should include a safeguard against emergencies. And there should be a sum set aside regularly for savings.

But don't be short-sighted. With everything that's happening to you now, it is all too easy to overlook long-range financial goals such as the education of your children and your retirement. The wise couple will start now to put some of their earnings into a good long-term investment that has the prospect of bringing them a greater return on their money than a savings account. Mutual funds can be such an investment. Over five million American families now own mutual fund shares.

Many more millions of American families have no idea of the long-term investment record of the mutual fund industry. Many don't know, for example, that $10,000 in 1950 would have grown to more than $90,000 in 1971 if invested in an average of mutual funds operating over that period.

A mutual fund is a way for people having similar investment goals to pool their money in an effort to achieve those goals. By combining their investments, these people are able to engage professional investment managers at a cost which is divided among all shareholders. The fund's function is to invest the money of its shareholders in selected and diversified securities. And since the money invested is spread over many securities, the risks that are inherent in any equity investment tend to be reduced.

For more detailed information on mutual funds, write for the free brochure, "Why Five Million Families Own Mutual Funds," published by the Investment Company Institute, 1775 K Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., 20006.

Sharon Kelly Weds Sterling Adams In Ceremony At Trinity United Methodist Church Here

Miss Sharon Louise Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Kelly, Route 2, Taneytown, and Sterling Roger Adams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling R. Adams, West Main Street, Emmitsburg, were united in marriage on August 25, at 7 p.m. at the Emmitsburg Trinity United Methodist Church.

of matching re-embroidered lace trimmed the lower edges of the skirt, tops of the train, and train hemline. Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a Camelot cap of re-embroidered lace trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of white carnations and baby's breath. Her only jewelry was a pearl pendant and pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. David H. Andrews. The church was decorated with cadelabra, palms, and white gladioli and carnations.

The organist was Mrs. Virginia Wantz and the soloist was Mr. George Bruchey.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length empire styled gown of silk organza and re-embroidered lace. The bodice was styled with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and Bishop sleeves ending in lace cuffs. Matching lace topped the bodice at the neckline, capped the sleeves, and encircled the wastline. The A-line skirt featured a detachable chapel length train. Rows

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Jean Spangler, Westminster. She was attired in a floor length pale blue gown of puckered satin with empire waist and long sleeves. She wore a matching bow in her hair and carried a cascade of pale blue carnations.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Linda Kelly, Dudley, N. C., sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Christine Wiles, Taneytown. Their gowns and headpieces of pale green, were identical to that worn by the maid of honor. They carried cascades of green carnations.

The best man was Craig Orner, Emmitsburg. Ushers were Steven Adams and Dennis Adams, brothers of the groom. Alcolyte was Dale Adams, brother of the groom. The guest book was attended by Miss Sally Waddell, New Windsor.

The reception was held at the Emmitsburg VFW Social Hall for 100 guests, where Laurie Caler, cousin of the bride, presented the guests with wedding scrolls.

After a brief honeymoon trip, the couple will reside at 236 East Second Street, Frederick.

The bride is a student at Frostburg State College and will be student teaching at Waverly School, Frederick.

The groom is a graduate of Frederick Community College and is employed by the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank, Frederick.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at two showers, one hosted by Mrs. Ray Spangler and Mary Jean, Westminster, and another given by Mammie and Patricia Kelly, Emmitsburg, aunt and cousin of the bride.

A rehearsal party was hosted by the groom's parents at their home.

Mrs. Monica Lingg Completes Studies
