Most Anything At A Glance

- By Abigail -

It would appear that we are having a minor "crime wave" in town and in the surrounding area. Folks are reporting that cattle are being stolen, among other things, and the owners are hopping mad about it. The ball park was torn up last week, so far no one has been charged with that. Animals were stolen from the Zoo down the road, mistreated, left loose to run through town at risk to both the animals and the people. What I find hard to believe, is that NO ONE ever sees these things happening. Looks like people around here are starting to act like the famous three monkeys, hear no evil, see no evil, and if you do, keep quiet anyway. Maybe a larger police force is needed here in town. Whatever the answer to the problem, it's one us folks are going to have to face and we better start thinking about it now.

I noticed a bit of a traffic tie-up on the square the other day. Normally, tie-ups there only ruffle tempers a bit but this time it might have been a bit worse. There were 2 school buses, and 2 cars trying to get out of the way so an ambulance could get through. It did make me realize how very narrow some of the streets in town are. Guess there's not much we can do with a lot of them, cause there's no hope to widen the streets. Let's hope that the town fathers think ahead, though, when planning future construction and make sure that the new streets are wide enough for the traffic they'll be carrying.

Looks like the "No Loitering" signs they put up on DePaul St. last month are serving their purpose. New signs appeared on the square this week with the same message.

One of our senators has been heard complaining in Washington about how slow the mail delivery is. Why, I once self a letter at his local post we hear about it. Of course, office, took a week to get back to him. Now that's s-l-o-w.

With it being so close to election, we've been hearing a lot (as usual) about welfare reform; and that's about it, we hear about it. Of course, with some of the ideas McGovern's come up with, I'm glad that its one of those talked about things that doesn't get done. Anyway, I was looking through the papers the other day, and noticed an awful lot of help wanted ads. Now, seems there should be some way to get these folks who say they need more welfare money together with all those vacant jobs. That's a subject I'd like to see some candidate tackle.

Brass Concert Wed. At College

The Brass Quintet of the United States Navy Band will appear in concert on Wednesday, October 4, in Dodd Hall on the Saint Joseph College campus. The program is sponsored by the Cultural Events Committee of Mount Saint Mary's College and will begin at 8 p.m.

The program replaces a performance by the Navy Band String Quartet, which was cancelled suddenly because of illness in the group. The Brass Quintet, comprised of two trumpets, a french horn, a trombone, and a tuba, performs music that runs the gamut from the masters to present day composers. All members of the group are accomplished musicians and all serve with the Ceremonial Band, on call for sudden performances throughout the Washington, D. C., area. The program for Wednesday's concert is scheduled to include works by Beethoven, Bach, Holborne and Purcell.

There will be no admission fee, and the public is invited.

Mounties Expect Better Season

James J. Phelan

Mount Saint Mary's basketball coach Jim Phelan has managed to put last year's bleak 6-17 season well behind him. Although it marked the second consecutive losing season for the Mountaineers, Phelan is professionally and personally optimistic about the chances of his more experienced club returning this year to the bright side of the .500 mark.

"We have a strong core of returning veterans," he says, "and with our fine looking crop of freshmen, this year could start the Mounties on the road back." Last year's two leading scorers, Kevin Kane and George Randall are back at their guard positions. Behind them are Al Rochetti, Rich Becker and Mike Dolan, all pressing hard for starting spots. All had some brilliant moments during 1971-72, but were hurt by inconsistency.

At veterans and center are six veterans, battling each other and the newcomers for the three starting berths. Jeff Banasz, Joe Molinaro, Tom Switzer, Jim Witherspoon, Ron Plummer, and Tony Matiesich are all back and looking to start. Switzer will be watched particularly, since injury knocked him out of the first half of the season last year, but he came back with several strong efforts against Loyola, Catholic University, and Hampden-Sydney.

Phelan believes the incoming freshmen in this year's squad could spark a blazing Mountaineer comeback. Junior, Denny Blessing, has the size and strength to muscle his way into a starting spot. The 6'7 1/2" alumnee of Holy Name High School in Reading, Pa., and Wesley Jr. College in Dover, Del., has been plagued by inconsistency but has shown considerable drive by tough opponents.

Mike Cataline is a tough 6'3" swingman from the Philadelphia Catholic League, where he was leading vote getter last year among those selected for "All Catholic Team." He is a fine outside shooter and a tremendous driver, averaging about ten foul shots per game.

Rick Kidwell is another fine product of the Washington, D. C. Metropolitan league, where he was selected to the All-Catholic team for play at Good Counsel High School. A fine outside shooter, Rick drives well and has good, quick moves around the basket.

The fourth rookie is Bob Reese, a quick and aggressive red head from Holy Name High in Reading, Pa. At 6'2" Bob has good size for a guard, and his quickness, shooting, and overall hustle make him a real threat at the guard spot.

In short, Jim Phelan sees no reason to fear another season like 1971-72.

"In spite of our poor season," he says, "we did play some fine games. I feel sure that with a year of experience behind us, we'll be a more poised, much tougher club."

The Mount cagers, whose season opens officially at home on November 28 against Virginia Union, will begin practice on October 15.

Local Soccer Team

The independent men's soccer team started forming last Saturday.

There was a good turnout with men from Thurmont, Taneytown, and Fairfield. We had hoped for more local men than appeared. The team is still forming, so any men from the Emmitsburg area who are interested are urged to be at the Middle School Field, Saturday at 2 p.m.

Miss Marshall Wed At Grotto

Miss Sara Becket Marshall, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert T. Marshall of Mount St. Mary's, Emmitsburg, and Michael James Hanning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Hanning, Chevy Chase, Md., were united in marriage Saturday, Sept. 16, at the Grotto of Lourdes at Mount St. Mary's College. Rev. Daniel C. Nusbaum, college chaplain, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was attended by Miss Charlotte Tancin of Freeland, Pa., as maid of honor. Miss Elaine Marshall, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

Mr. Thomas Jackson of Beltsville, Md., was the best man. Ushers were Patrick Hanning, Chevy Chase, brother of the groom, Donald Marshall, Emmitsburg, brother of the bride, and Thomas Burns, Beltsville.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Miss Mary Louise Kincaid of Baltimore, vocalist, and Mr. Kevin Kelly of Pittsburgh, guitarist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Cozy Restaurant, Thurmont. The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents on Friday night, was also at Cozy Restaurant.

The bride and groom both attended Mount St. Mary's College. They are now at home at Beltsville, Md., where Mr. Hanning is employed by the Department of Agriculture.

SS Names Director

Gene A. James

Gene A. James of Winchester—a regional manager for Southern States Cooperative since August 1969—has been named director of planning for the organization effective October 1. He will be located at the cooperative's headquarters in Richmond.

In making the announcement, General Manager W. T. Steele Jr., said James will have "the responsibility for developing and coordinating all future plans and planning for the organization."

Prior to being named a regional manager, James spent 3 years in Richmond as the cooperative's product and promotional manager of specialty supplies and as manager of its catalog service. Prior to this he was manager of the association's regional warehouse at Clarksburg, W. Va.

A graduate of VPI, he was employed by Southern States Cooperative in 1953.

Postal Zip Column

The 100th Anniversary of Mail Order Business will be celebrated with the issuance of an 8c Commemorative Stamp.

That unique American institution, the mail order business, began in Chicago in 1872 with distribution of a one-page catalog that offered 163 items. The new technique literally changed the face of rural America.

Merchandising has expanded widely with mail sale of books, records, fruit, cheese and many other items. The Postal Service itself, selling stamps to collectors through the Philatelic Sales Unit.

This stamp will go on sale at our office today.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

It seems that the local town officials and the local people of the town are closing their eyes.

We need police at night when cars are running the streets at 60 to 90 miles an hour. The walking, running, hollering, bottle throwing and cursing go on from 10 p.m. to 3 a.m. Why isn't there a ban on such things?

We also need to back up the Police Dept.; when they do make arrests they are not carried through and prosecuted.

Don't the local college students have a time to be in on campus? Why aren't they affected by a curfew like local townspeople?

It seems that we are also neglected by the state officers and the Liquor Control Board. We even have a tavern that seems to be open until 2 to 3 a.m. and there is nothing done. WHY?

Work On Pool Set To Begin

Work on the swimming pool at Catoctin High School is due to begin in the near future and should be completed before winter, according to Mrs. Frankie Fields, President of the Catoctin High School PTSA. Present plans call for the water to be heated in the spring and fall, thus assuring longer instruction time. There will be an outside bathhouse and toilet facilities. At this time the pool will not be enclosed for year-round operation but will be used only during the summer months.

The first PTSA meeting will be October 9, at 8 p.m. All members are urged to attend and make the first year as a Parent-Teacher-Student Association (PTSA) a truly effective one.

K of C To Organize New Youth Group

Thomas Topper, Youth Activity Director of Brute Council 1860, Knights of Columbus, Emmitsburg, has announced that there will be an organizational meeting on Friday, October 13, at 8 p.m. in the local council home to organize a Columbian Squire Circle.

The Columbian Squires is the official youth organization of the Knights of Columbus. It is an organization of Catholic young men between the ages of 13 and 18. The purpose of the Columbian Squires is the development and training of its members in the techniques and mechanics of leadership.

For more information, all boys 13 to 18 and their fathers are invited to this meeting on October 13. Fathers of interested boys do not have to be members of the Knights of Columbus.

An interesting program is being planned and will include officers of the Maryland State Circle who will be on hand to explain and answer any questions.

Members of Brute Council 1860 are reminded that the reservations for the "Knight of the Year" dinner-dance to be held on October 7 must be made by October 2. Tickets, which are $4.00 each, can be obtained from Eugene Rosensteel.

The next council meeting will be held in the Council Home on Monday, October 2, beginning at 8 p.m.

Observes 87th Birthday

Mr. Chester B. Ohler, East Main St., Emmitsburg, celebrated his 87th birthday last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Edith Ohler and son, David. Also visiting at the Ohler residence on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ohler of Baltimore.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to VFW Post 6658, will be held on Thursday, October 5 at 8 p.m. in the Post Home. Please plan to attend.

Methodists To Have New Bishop

Bishop James K. Mathews

The 250,000 member United Methodist Church in this area has recently been assigned a new Bishop, Bishop James K. Mathews.

Bishop Mathews was born in Breezewood, Pa., and reared in Ohio and Texas. He received his education at Lincoln Memorial University, New York Theological Seminary, Boston U. School of Theology, Cambridge University, and Columbia University.

Bishop Mathews holds numerous Honorary Degrees, in addition to his Ph.D. which he received from Columbia University in 1957.

After a brief pastorate in New York City, the Bishop was ordained and commissioned a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1938, and assigned to service in India. He served as pastor of Bowen Memorial Church in Bombay; then as pastor and superintendent in Dhulia. He also served a tour in India as a Major in the U. S. Army during World War II.

On June 17, 1960, he was elected a bishop of The Methodist Church by the North-eastern Jurisdictional Conference and was consecrated in Metropolitan Memorial Church, Washington, D. C. on June 19, 1960. Since then he has been resident Bishop of the Boston Area of the United Methodist Church.

Bishop Mathews is married and the father of three children. The official reception and installation will take place October 7, 1972, at 9:30 a.m. at Metropolitan Memorial United Methodist Church, in Washington, D. C.

Lecture On Women Slated At College

Mrs. Thomas J. Burke, president of the National Council of Catholic Women, will address the student body at St. Joseph College on Wednesday, October 11, at 7:30 p.m. in Dubois Lounge on campus.

Focusing on the involvement of Catholic women in contemporary America, the title of Mrs. Burke's talk is "Believe in Tomorrow."

Sponsored by the St. Joseph College Cultural Committee, the lecture is free and open to the public.

A resident of the Diocese of Scranton and a graduate of Marywood College with B.S. and M.S. degrees, Mrs. Burke holds a library and teaching position at St. Joseph Hospital in Carbondale, Pa.

Active as a member and officer of several civic and diocesan organizations over the years, Mrs. Burke also currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Marywood College Alumnae Association and the Board of Directors of the Carbondale Catholic Charities; and is dramatic coach and chairman of the Annual Film Festival. She is also a member of the National Library Association, and the Carbondale Business and Professional Women's Club.

In 1957 she was honored by the Lackawanna County Medical Association with the Benjamin Rush Award.

Laziness explains more failures than ignorance, but the combination is catastrophic.

Midget Colts Beat Fort Detrick

The Thurmont Midget Colts beat Fort Detrick 48-0 last Saturday. The Colts ran up 200 yards rushing while holding Fort Detrick to 3 yards.

Greg Dewees scored on runs of 7 and 44 yards and returned a punt 52 yards for a touchdown. Gus Biser scored on runs of 5 and 53 yards and returned a kickoff 76 yards for a score. Biser also kicked 2 points after touchdowns, ran one and threw a touchdown pass to Charles Collins. Bill Boyd scored a point after touchdown. Two Fort Detrick fumbles were recovered by Marty Brennen and Jim Biser.

In three league games the Colts have scored 100 points while holding their opponents to seven points.

This Sunday in Chambersburg, Pa., the Colts will face a tough Pennsylvania team in a non-league game.

In JV action, Thurmont defeated Fort Detrick 6-0. With less than one minute remaining in the game, Rick Eyer finally connected with a pass to Bruce Boyd for 23 yards and the winning touchdown.

The JV "B" team did not play last week. Their next game will be Sunday at Fort Ritchie.

Tom's Creek Dairy 4-H Club News

Highlighting the Tom's Creek Dairy Club meeting were several demonstrations given by Mike Weimer and Lee Bassler on How to Clip a Dairy Animal for Shows; David Hill was well prepared to go to the fair with his demonstration on How Much and What to Take to the Fair; Ronnie Kling and Allen Bassler gave an interesting demonstration on Nine Good Management Steps to Save Calves.

The meeting was called to order by President Lee Bassler. The 4-H and American Pledges were led by Marty Wivell and Ronnie Kling. Fifteen members answered roll call by an item needed to show at the fair. Our two leaders and three parents were also present. Paul Cashell was a new member at this meeting. The secretary and treasurer's reports were given and approved.

David Hill reported on the Decorations for the Dairy Barn. Ronnie Kling, Russell White, Allen Bassler and Cathy Wivell were appointed to a committee to help with the decorations. Naomi Weimer told about the poster which is going to be entered in the fair.

Ronnie Kling reported on the Howard County Fair which he attended. Stanley Gregg, Lee, Roy, and Allen Bassler attended Montgomery County Fair. Ronnie Kling, David Hill, Lee, Roy and Allen Bassler, Russell White and Stanley Gregg attended the State Fair.

Mike Weimer represented the club and Frederick County at the State Fair in the Senior Division for Dairy Judging. He placed 12th overall and first in Jersey Breed and written reason. The team placed second. Ronnie Kling and Naomi Weimer represented the club and County in the Junior Division Dairy Judging. Ronnie placed 7th and Naomi 8th out of all the juniors. The team placed 1st.

Mike and Bobby Wivell participated in the tractor driving contest and Bobby placed 2nd in the junior division and Mike received a participation ribbon. Charlie Kaas told about the plans of the community show.

The club decided to have a Walk-In Party as a fund-raising project. Ronnie Kling was appointed chairman of this event. Lee Bassler, David Hill, Stanley Gregg and Cathy Wivell will have their Record Books sent to the state.

At the next meeting, Mr. Bill Baker will be guest speaker. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served by Mrs. James Hill.

All parishioners and friends are most cordially invited to share in these celebration events.

Sock 'n Buskin Opens Season

Sock 'n Buskin, the cooperative drama society of Mount Saint Mary's and Saint Joseph College, will open the 1972-73 dramatic season on October 3 and 5 with its annual One Act Play Festival. The programs, which will be in at 8:00 p.m. in Flynn Hall on the Mount campus, will be open to the public for a $1.00 admission charge.

The program consists of seven plays, three of which will be presented on Tuesday evening and the other four on Thursday. All the plays have been produced entirely by students, with the advice of Mount drama instructor, Mr. Paul O'Connell. The Festival is the first of three major productions the drama society will present through this academic year.

The plays to be presented will include:

"Next," directed by Mount Saint Mary's senior, Vic Lombardi, is the humorous tale of a middle-aged man reporting for a pre-induction physical examination and the lady sergeant who gives it. "Something I'll Tell You Tuesday," directed by senior Jude Pohl, contrasts the lives of two married couples, one young enough to bicker constantly, and the other too old to do more than reminisce about the day they could.

"The Loveliest Afternoon of the Year," also directed by Jude Pohl, explores the relationship between a lonely girl who spends her time in the park, and a married man whose occupation is seeing-eye person for blind dogs.

"Prayer Meeting, or, The First Militant Minister," directed by junior Ernie Smith, is an all-black play in the form of a dialogue, which deals with the confrontation of conservative and radical views.

"Where Are You Going, Hollis Jay?" directed by sophomore Karl Chudnof, deals with the plight of a young college freshman who one day realizes he has never really used his power of human feeling.

"Story Theater," directed by Mount freshman, Jack Bennett, is a dramatic adaptation of Aesop's Fables.

And "Women from Spoon River" entered by Adelina Ciccarelli of Hood College in Frederick, is an adaptation of the women's roles in Edgar Lee Master's "Spoon River Anthology."

Cider And Music At Catoctin Park

There will be cider and music at Catoctin Mountain Park near Thurmont on Sunday, October 1 and 8. As an added attraction to the popular folk craft demonstrations, apple cider making using a hand cranked press will be demonstrated. Cider by the jug may be purchased at the general store as well as other hand crafted items. To provide a festive atmosphere for the afternoon a folk and bluegrass concert will be presented by the Morgan's starting at 2 p.m.

The Folk Culture Center at Round Meadow Camp will be open from noon until 5 p.m. each Sunday during October and during the Fall Colorfest Festival on October 13, 14 and 15 it will be open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Catoctin Mountain Park is located three miles west of Thurmont on State Route 77.

Set Hearing On School Construction

Monday evening, October 2, has been set aside for a public hearing on the five year school construction program by the Frederick County Board of Education. The hearing will be held in the West Frederick Jr. High School cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

A five year program of school construction projects has been a part of the local systems' planning for several years. It now is part of a total process that includes preparation and approval by the local Board of Education, approval by the County Commissioners, and ultimately approval by the State Interagency Committee for School Construction. According to local school board officials, the program that the staff will present to the Board of Education will include projects affecting every geographical area of the county.

Dr. Carnochan, Superintendent of Schools, indicated that this is the time for the public to have its say about school building priorities for the next five years. "It is a public meeting and we hope that there will be representation from every school area in Frederick County," he said.

Sixes Bridge

Project Alive Again

The Senate Public Works Committee reported out an Omnibus Rivers and Harbors bill this week which authorizes $30,700,000 for the Sixes Bridge Dam Reservoir Project to be located on the Monocacy River in Emmitsburg District. Senators Charles McC. Mathias and J. Glenn Beall (R-Md.) announced.

Sensors Mathias and Beall, who testified last June on behalf of the project, said they were pleased that the Senate included the Sixes Bridge authorization in its bill.

Sixes Bridge, which would supply needed water to the Washington Metropolitan area in times of severe drought, as well as to the surrounding Frederick area, has been advocated for several years by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and the elected officials of both Frederick and Carroll Counties and the City of Frederick. It is fully supported by the State of Maryland.

The Senate authorized funds for Sixes Bridge once before in 1970 but the project did not survive the conference with the House.

Robert Henke, Jr. Commended

Robert J. Henke, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henke, has been awarded a Letter of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Program. The award was presented to Robert for outstanding performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test which was taken in October 1971. The score which he attained placed him among the top 5 per cent of the participants. Robert is presently a member of the senior class at Catoctin High School.

Students Receive Commendations

Letters of Commendation honoring them for their high performance on the 1971 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test have been awarded to three students at Saint Joseph's High School, Emmitsburg, Sister Elaine, Principal, has announced.

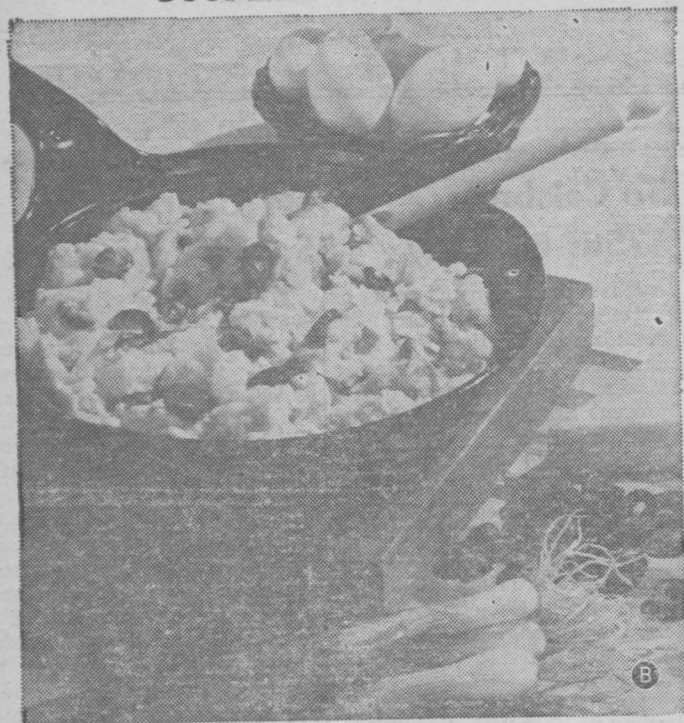

Those named Commended students are Mary Jo Cole, Conrad J. Flessner, and Edward J. Thomas.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) has named 37,000 Commended students in the United States. These students are among the upper 2 per cent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1973.

VFW TO MEET

The regular meeting of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6658, Emmitsburg, will be held Wednesday evening, October 4 at 8:30 p.m. in the Post Home.

RISE TO THE OCCASION WITH "SOUPER" EGGS DELUXE

If the boredom syndrome has set in at your breakfast table, rise to the occasion . . . entice your family with something different. Ever-popular scrambled eggs take on a new look and flavor in "Souper" Eggs Deluxe. Made with Condensed Cream of Chicken Soup, sliced green onion, sliced olives, and chopped pimiento, "Souper" Eggs Deluxe will appeal to the most timid appetites. Cream of Chicken Soup enhances the flavor and adds moistness to this dish. Nice accompaniments are a fresh fruit compote, toasted English muffins, and milk. With this combination, your family will surely start the day the right way.

"SOUPER" EGGS DELUXE

- 1 can (10 3/4 ounces) Condensed Cream of Chicken Soup
- 8 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1/4 cup sliced ripe olives
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- 1/4 cup sliced green onion
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- Shredded Cheddar cheese

In bowl, stir soup until smooth; gradually blend in eggs, olives, and pimiento. In 10-inch skillet, cook onion in butter until tender. Pour in egg mixture. Cook over low heat; do not stir. As mixture begins to set around edges, gently lift cooked portions with large turner so that thin, uncooked portion can flow to the bottom. Continue gently lifting cooked portions until eggs are completely set, but still moist (about 8 minutes). Garnish with cheese. Makes 4 servings.

Extension Service Sewing Workshop

Everyday, or so it seems, the contemporary seamstress finds new sewing products in the market. Among these is a "new breed" of fabrics which make sewing at home more exciting and more demanding. Fake fur, velvet, leather and vinyl rank among those fabrics which require special attention. The Frederick County Cooperative Extension Service is co-sponsoring a workshop designed to help the home seamstress with sewing on these four contemporary fabrics. Miss Karen Alues, Educational Representative for Unique Zipper Co., will be the guest speaker. The program is scheduled for Thursday, October 5, at 1:00 p.m., at Jefferson Community Center just off 340 West.

Miss Alues, who is replacing Miss Collins, will teach basic sewing techniques for leather, vinyl, fake fur, and velvet and will include easy practice suggestions for each fabric. She will tell you how to choose the right pattern and the right equipment and how to adjust your sewing machine. She will give you construction hints and show you how to install the Unique Invisible Zipper. Following the workshop, everyone will have the opportunity to ask questions about sewing.

Each woman who attends the program will be given a booklet on Unique Invisible Zippers and a special pamphlet on working with contemporary fabrics. It contains project patterns and instructions. This would be a worthwhile and rewarding way to spend an afternoon, so mark it on your calendar now. There is no charge and the program is open to all interested women, regardless of race, color or national origin. For further details, call Mrs. Kathryn Jenkins, Extension Agent — Home Economics, at 663-8300.

Why
Americans own $54,000,000,000 worth of U.S. Savings
Bonds.

One good reason is the Payroll Savings Plan. About three-fourths of all Bonds are purchased through the Plan. It's helping Americans save more money than they ever dreamed they could.

That's because the Payroll Savings Plan is such an easy way to save. All you do is sign up where you work and the amount you specify is set aside from each paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. It's the easy way to build a nest egg.

You've got your reasons to save money. There's one great way to do it painlessly. Join the millions who are buying Bonds the Payroll Savings Way.

Now E Bonds pay 5 1/2% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen, or destroyed. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

FREDERICK COUNTY BACKGROUNDS

BY SAMUEL CARRICK
"From The Beginning"

"I think I shall not mind
When my brief day is past,
If only I shall find
My sight unblurred at last;
If only I may hear,
High on the evening air,
A comrade calling me
From over the way somewhere."

Life on the frontier although difficult had its compensations. No man could live for or to himself—alone. Good neighbors were not only an asset but a necessity. For the common good and safety of the majority — neighbor depened upon neighbor. They worked together or died alone.

A good policy—one that might well be followed today.

The data pertaining to the Zacharias family, of "Mon Dollar", and their family burial ground is continued at this time.

Christian (3) Zacharias, the third son of Mathias (2) and Anna (Stockslager) Zacharias, married, on May 12, 1836,
Sarah Picking, who was born June 1, 1812. According to her obituary in the "Emmitsburg Chronicle"—"Mrs. Zacharias passed all but the last few years of her life near the place of her birth and on the farm of her husband at the Stoney Branch, where she reared four sons and three daughters. Two sons and her husband preceded her to the grave. The remains of Mrs.

Zacharias were followed to the family burial ground, on the old homestead property, by a large number of relatives and friends."

Christian (3) and Sarah (Picking) Zacharias were the parents of the following children—all born at the Zacharias homestead.

1. Mathias Picking (4)
Zacharias—born September 15, 1847—married Emma Potts of Hillsboro, Virginia—died August 1, 1882.

Note: Mathias Picking (4)
Zacharias was first interred in the family burial ground, and a "white bronze" monument was erected over his grave in due time. Some years later both his remains and monument were removed to Mountain View Cemetery. The inscription follows:

5. In memory of Mathias P.
Zacharias, died August 1, 1882, aged 44 years, 10 months and 16 days.

2. Esther Ann (4) Zachari-
as—born January 30, 1839—
died, unmarried, at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, on September 18, 1912.

Note: Esther Ann (4) Zacharias is interred in Mountain View Cemetery and the inscription from the marker at her grave reads as follows:

6. In memory of E. A. Zachari-
as, born January 30, 1839,
died September 15, 1912.

3. Mary Elizabeth (4) Zacharias—born February 10, 1841—married James W. Troxell, of the Emmitsburg area.
They lived on a farm adjacent to the Zacharias homestead.
Mrs. Troxell died December
1, 1915.

Both James W. Troxell and his wife are buried in Mountain View Cemetery. The inscriptions from the grave
markers are as follows:

7. In memory of James W.
Troxell, died February 2, 1904, aged 72 years and 10 months.

8. In memory of Mary Elizabeth Troxell, wife of James W. Troxell, born February 10, 1841, died December 1, 1915.

Note: In the obituary of James W. Troxell, which appeared in the "Emmitsburg Chronicle" February 5, 1904, it is stated that Mr. Troxell
"was born in Frederick County, on April 1, 1831. He was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in 1856. Four years later he received the degree of Master of Arts from that institution.

"In 1866 Mr. Troxell was married to Miss Mary F. Zacharias, who survives him, together with six daughters and one son.

"Burial was in Mountain View Cemetery."

4. John Flavius (4) Zacharias—born November 1, 1842—married Ann Rebecca Miller of Frederick, Maryland
—died January 28, 1868.

Both John Flavius (4) Zacharias and his wife are interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Frederick, Maryland. The inscriptions follow:

9. In memory of John F.
Zacharias, born 1842, died 1868.

10. In memory of Ann R.
Zacharias, wife of John F.
Zacharias, born 1835, died 1908.

5. Sarah Adelaide (4) Zacharias—born April 14, 1847—
died unmarried at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, on February 21, 1926.

Sarah Adelaide (4) Zachari-
as is buried in Mountain View Cemetery beside her sister, Esther Ann (4) Zachari-
as. The inscription follows:

11. In memory of S. A.
Zacharias, born April 14, 1847,

died February 21, 1926.

6. Christian Thomas (4)
Zacharias—born May 29, 1849
—married Margaret Stokes, of Emmitsburg, Maryland. They first lived on a farm but later moved to Emmitsburg. He died December 23, 1919.

Christian Thomas (4) Zacharias, his wife, and three of their sons are interred in Mountain View Cemetery.

The notes pertaining to the Zacharias family, of Tom's Creek Hundred, will be continued in this series next week.

RCA CORPORATION BACKS SOLID STATE
ACCUCOLOR TV MODELS WITH THE FOL-LOWING BASIC WARRANTY PROVISIONS

RCA's symbol of Purchaser Satisfaction

If anything goes wrong with your new 100% Solid State set within one year from the day you buy it, and it's RCA's fault, RCA will pay your repairman to fix it—both parts and labor. (Labor warranty is 90 days for models other than 100% Solid State sets.)

You can use any service shop in which you have confidence—you don't have to pick from some special authorized list. Just present your warranty registration card to the service repairman and RCA pays his repair bill.

If your set is a portable, you take it in for service. For larger sets, your serviceman will come to your home.

If your picture tube becomes defective within two years from the day you buy the set, it will be exchanged for a reliable rebuilt tube (defective parts are covered for one year.) After the first year for 100% Solid State sets, and after 90 days for others, you pay labor and installation charges for parts and picture tube.

In short, the warranty covers everything but installation, antenna systems, adjustment of customer controls or foreign use.

Law—With A Double Standard?

Following is our report on some of the incidents witnessed by our NEP staff while covering the Republican National Convention in Miami Beach and the violent assault on delegates, citizens, and property by mobsters who were identified in the local press as "non-delegates."

Flamingo Park was headquarters and campground for about 3,000 "non-delegates." Communist Vietcong flags flew from flagpoles throughout the park. On Sunday afternoon, 21 members of the American Nazi Party walked into the campground crowded with hippies and noisy with revolutionary platform harangues. Led by their Commander Matt Koehl, the Nazis (who loudly proclaim their anti-Semitism and anti-Communism) took over a platform and loud speaker mike being used by one of the women's "protest" organizations. Koehl swept his eyes across the expanse of tent-city and pointed to the Communist flags. "Where are the American flags?" he shouted. "It looks like Soviet Russia, doesn't it." As he spoke, one of the Nazis unfurled a Communist National Liberation Front (Vietcong) flag soaked in kerosene, and set it afire.

Rough Treatment for Dissent
The camp "security" forces crowded around the platform and held the crowd back. But a missile was thrown from the screaming "non-delegates." Some of the crowd rushed on stage and grappled with Koehl. Chairs were wielded, heads split, blood flowed as the fight whirled around the platform. In the end, the Nazis, most of them beat up, were carried out of the campgrounds. There were no arrests.

Later, after the Communist flag bearers "non-delegates" had carried their colors thru-out midtown Miami Beach and had begun their assault upon delegates, citizens and property (without arrests) Mayor Chuck Hall, who had persuaded the City Council to give the "non-delegates" Flamingo park, had his police force arrest Koehl and charge him with displaying a swastika. Koehl protested directly face-to-face to the Mayor. "I told him," Mayor Hall said, "that a city ordinance prohibited display of the swastika." Koehl was formally charged.

Other Reportage
From Miami newspapers: "Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance has insisted his policy is to make as few arrests as possible, rerouting traffic around the demonstrators to give them the streets so long as they are non-violent." — MIAMI HERALD, Monday (first day), Aug. 21.

"Demonstrators themselves were using tear gas against delegates, and residents and police" — DAILY SUN REPORTER, Thurs., Aug. 24.

"Violence flared throughout Miami Beach last night as police and demonstrators clashed at scores of locations in a 50-block-long area. Scores were injured and police for the first time brought out tear gas and used their sticks to ward off rocks thrown by demonstrators and assaults on police lines." — SUN REPORTER, Thurs., Aug. 24.

"Republicans were cursed and shoved as they entered their cars, pummeled by fists and sticks. Some delegates entered the Convention Hall red eyed from tear gas. . . . The first six delegates arrived at 6:30 p.m. Each held a policeman's hand as they raced to the main gate at 18th and Washington, 150 protesters in pursuit. 'Bloodsuckers! Warmongers!' the demonstrators screamed. . . . Splinter groups swirled in pockets of chaos on all sides of the Convention complex. . . . The major protest band, numbers swollen by independent street groups, rampaged up Collins Avenue, overturning trash bins, ripping distributor caps from stalled autos and slashing tires. Most traffic was stopped in the streets." — MIAMI HERALD, Thurs., Aug. 24.

Attacks And Indignities
"Sharon Kelly, an attractive blonde delegate from South Carolina, arrived at Convention Hall with her hairdo messed and fire in her eyes. 'Twenty hippie girls surrounded me,' she said. 'They bounced around like a ping-pong ball.' One screamed 'you blonde bitch.' . . . 'I thought I was going to be killed,' said Mississippi delegate Jerry Gilbreath. Their reaction came after running the gauntlet of curses, spit, tear gas and flying eggs. 'I got hit on the foot with a brick and they tore my wife's stockings off and hit her on the arm with something,' said William Mounger. 'We put the women and children in the middle—they were crying and hysterical.'" — MIAMI HERALD, Thurs., Aug. 24.

What happened at Miami Beach was a national disgrace, an ugly display of the breakdown of law and order throughout America. If our free society is to survive, a single standard for law and order must be restored and the law enforced evenly.

Mathias Tells Senate Mails Are Slower Than Ever; Asks For Investigation

Citing a letter which took 13 days to reach his Washington office from Baltimore, Senator Charles McC. Mathias said this week that the United States Postal Service "has not met its Congressional mandate to modernize and improve the nation's mail service."

"The mail seems to be slower in arriving than at any time in my memory," Senator Mathias said in remarks prepared for delivery to the Senate. "I want to know why."

He said he had requested a meeting with Postmaster General Elmer T. Klassen "at the earliest possible date so I can examine the practices and procedures employed by the U. S. Postal Service." Senator Mathias said he also was referring four mailing - delay cases to the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee for investigation. Those cases included:

—A letter from the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce inviting Senator Mathias to hear Secretary of Commerce Peter Peterson speak at a luncheon. The letter took 13 days to travel from Baltimore to Washington.

—A Baltimore rabbi who complained that it takes four to five days for mail to reach Baltimore from New York. He also complained of a special delivery letter the Postal Service took 14 days to deliver and a telegram mailed in downtown Baltimore which was delivered to his home in Northeast Baltimore three days later.

—Two businessmen, one in Cecil County and the other in Baltimore City who complained that delays of up to 10 days in their mail costs them customers and profits.

"It seems to me that the Postal Service has had sufficient time to shake the bugs out of new programs," Senator Mathias said. "Perhaps the programs are so full of bugs that we need to throw them out and start over."

"The public expects Congress to take every possible action to correct its child which has gone astray. If it takes an investigation, then we must order one; if legislation is needed, we must pass it and if one step is not enough, we should pledge to take both."

1972 Feed Grain And Wheat Programs

Maryland farmers cooperating in the 1972 feed grain and wheat programs were reminded that they may not graze livestock on set-aside acreage until October 16. Haying or other uses are not permitted on acreage which farmers agreed to set aside from production in return for farm program benefits.

Raymond F. Jaeger, Chairman of the Maryland State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, pointed out that the farm agreements entered into by producers cover the entire calendar year.

He explained that as part of the effort to balance production with demand, feed grain and wheat producers agreed to set aside a portion of their cropland from production and maintain it in a conserving use. In return for participating in the programs they earned price support payments or wheat marketing certificates, and their program crops are eligible for price support loans.

"Nearly all farm program payments in Maryland have now been made," the ASC committee chairman said. "I want to remind farmers that their set-aside acreage must continue to be maintained, however, and that no grazing is permitted until October 16. Haying is not permitted."

He explained that in event of intentional violation, a farmer may lose all program benefits.

He also reminded farmers that erosion, weeds, insects, and rodents must be controlled on acreage set aside under the 1972 feed grain and wheat programs.

BUSINESS AND THE STOCK MARKET

By Babson's Reports Inc., placing the nation's outdated industrial and commercial facilities as well as meeting sustained demand or better housing and more service establishments of all types. By the year 1975, total construction is likely to reach a historic height of $150 billion, 38% above the record pace set during 1971.

Homebuilding Peak Passed?

An unsurpassed 2,050,000 housing units were started last year—43% more than the 1,400,000 units begun the previous year, and about 7% above the earlier high of 1,908,000 starts in 1950. The hot pace of residential building continued into 1972. Recently, however, there have been indications that the housing boom has passed its peak.

For example, although new housing starts for the second quarter of 1972 rose 16% above the year-earlier rate, on a seasonally adjusted basis, they were just about even with the number recorded during the first quarter. This broke a string of eight consecutive quarterly housing records. (August starts, however, rose 12% above the July level.) Although the housing boom may have peaked, strong pent-up demand and availability of long-term money indicate that residential building should continue at a well-sustained level through 1972 and into 1973.

Private Nonresidential Building

Private nonresidential construction—industrial, commercial, religious, educational, hospital—inched ahead only 4% last year as a result of a low rate of capacity utilization in the industrial sector and receding demand in the office building division. This year, however, a more impressive gain is anticipated.

Public Utilities On Rise

Public utility construction was second only to residential construction in terms of percentage gain last year. With a record volume of $14 billion expected to be spent erecting gas, electric, and telephone facilities this year, the category should once again be a pace-setter in terms of percentage improvement. Threats of power shortages and growing needs of the residential and business communities are sparking acceleration of utility plant construction.

Public Construction Problems

Public construction was hampered in 1971 by declining revenues of local communities, a temporary slowdown in the disbursement of federal aid funds, and difficulties caused by high interest rates and rapidly rising costs. Public education was especially weak in 1971, and a further decline in this category is anticipated this year. Public hospital construction, however, has shown powerful expansion in recent years, and this pattern should continue. Building Materials

High-Speed Transportation System Proposed For Bicentennial Celebration

A high-speed land and water transportation system of the future, linking Washington to surrounding areas in Maryland and Virginia, is being proposed by Senator J. Glenn Beall, Jr., in conjunction with the nation's Bicentennial events.

The Maryland Republican has urged the demonstration of a Tracked Air Cushion (TAC) vehicle, or other high-speed ground transportation system, between Washington and Annapolis. The TAC vehicles, each capable of carrying 60 or more passengers, would travel at speeds up to 150 mph at ground level, on an elevated track, or below ground.

At Annapolis, the ground system would give way to a surface effect ship, or other high-speed marine transportation system, operating on the Chesapeake Bay between the Baltimore-Annapolis area and the Yorktown-Williamsburg-Norfolk area in Virginia.

Legislation authorizing the Secretary of Transportation to conduct a feasibility study of the project was introduced on Monday by Senator Beall and 13 cosponsors.

If you're satisfied with yourself, take another look.

Maryland Math Association To Meet

The fall meeting of the Maryland School - College Mathematics Assn., Inc., has been set for Saturday, September 30 at Towson State College. "Mathematics Education - Input/Output" is the theme of the event which is open to teacher educators and to elementary through university level math teachers.

The meeting will concentrate on two important issues in mathematics education: 1. evaluation and accreditation of teacher education programs in Maryland, and 2. mathematical applications for secondary school teachers.

Sister John Frances Gilman, associate professor of mathematics at Saint Joseph College, and president of the association, will hold a brief business meeting for association members at the close of the day's sessions.

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks. Letters should be sent to me, c/o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Please explain the new Army policy in regards to veterans who rejoin the service?

The Department of Army will now allow qualified servicemen and women who have been out of the Army 18 months or less to come back into the Army at their previous rank. Under the new program, enlisted personnel at grade levels E-6 or below, with six or less years of service, may reenter the Army in accordance with Army-wide manpower requirements. It is estimated that there are over 250,000 ex-servicemen and women who are qualified to apply under this program. Previously, if longer than 90 days had elapsed, soldiers reenlisting in the Army could not reenter at their previous rank. The new program, in many cases, will also allow the individual rejoining the Army the opportunity to select the installation and unit where he or she would like to serve for at least a year.

What is the toll-free number to reach the Veterans Administration in Baltimore?

In a continuing effort to provide convenient service to veterans, the VA has inaugurated a new service allowing veterans from Central and Western Maryland to call into the Baltimore Regional Office toll free. The number to dial is 1-800-492-9503.

How does one go about getting a foreign service job with the State Department?

Employment in the Foreign Service is based on a competitive examination system including written and oral tests, a medical examination, background investigation and final certification. The written examination will be held on December 2, 1972, in Cumberland, Hagerstown and Baltimore. Interested citizens may obtain detailed information and application forms by contacting the Board of Examiners for the Foreign Service, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520.

It was just about a year ago that my husband was discharged from a hospital. We were covered by Medicare but told that we would have to pay the hospital bill, which we did, and then file a claim for reimbursement. After a year we still have received nothing and now are in serious need of the money. Can you help?

The Social Security Administration was immediately contacted upon receipt of your letter and as you are now aware a Medicare check has been sent your husband. Medicare beneficiaries are entitled to receive decisions on their claims at the earliest possible time and if you are having similar difficulties I hope you will feel free to contact my office for assistance.

Federal Tax—Questions & Answers

Q. It is true that victims of tropical storm Agnes may be able to claim this year's disaster losses on last year's return to get a refund?

A. Yes. A recent amendment to the Federal tax law allows taxpayers who suffered disaster losses during the six months ending June 30, 1972 to claim those losses on last year's tax return. This is not limited to victims of tropical storm Agnes, but applies to all taxpayers who suffered losses in all sections of the country declared disaster areas by the President during the first six months of 1972.

An individual income taxpayer may claim these losses by filing an amended return, Form 1040X. Corporations may use Form 1120X to file amended returns. These forms and additional information are available at any IRS office.

Q. I am working in the United States this summer and plan to return to my home in Europe this fall. When should I obtain my "sailing permit" from the IRS?

A. The permit, or tax clearance, should be gotten at least two weeks, but not earlier than 30 days, before your departure. The permit is part of the income tax form that must be filed by most aliens before their departure from the United States. For more information on obtaining a permit, write the nearest Internal Revenue district office and ask for a copy of IRS Publication 519, "United States Tax Guide for Aliens." It's available free.

Q. I have to work part-time to pay for college. Is there any way I can stop having income tax taken out of my paycheck?

A. Yes, you may stop income tax withholding on your earnings, if you owed no federal income tax last year, expect to owe none this year, and file a Withholding Exemption Certificate (Form W-4E) with your employer.

However, if tax has already been withheld this year, you must file a tax return next year to have it refunded.

Q. The bank where my son opened up a savings account wants his social security number. Where can he get one?

A. Your son may apply for a social security number by filing a Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration District Office. Form SS-5 may be obtained from your local IRS or Social Security office. Banks and other financial institutions are required by law to report certain dividend and interest payments to the IRS.

They are required to identify these payments using the recipient's tax account number, which is the same as the social security number for most people.

Fireballettes Win 25-21

The Fireballettes will be playing Hanover, one of the outstanding teams in this area, on the Middle School Diamond at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Last Sunday's game was won by the Fireballettes with a 25 to 21 score with Middleburg. The way the girls are coming along, they should be one of the best teams in the area next year.

The men's GM team will be playing the Hanover men's team at 4 p.m. on the same field.

Perspectives In Learning By Hazel Brown

No Time To Read!

Ask any teenager today why he or she doesn't have the "reading habit". The answer will be varied according to the individual but the basis of the reason will be that reading just seems to get crowded out.

Some adolescents lack the time for recreational reading because they are very busy with homework assignments. By the time they complete the homework load, they are tired of reading and studying and prefer some physical form of relaxation. They really seldom have a free evening which could be used for pleasurable reading.

Teenagers have so many possible choices of activities that reading often gets pushed to the background. Many young people participate in sports activities which are usually after school hours in the evenings or on weekends. There are other school activities such as clubs, school newspapers, music lessons, band practice and theatre groups. These activities are rewarding and quite valuable but they do consume large amounts of time.

An evening or weekend job is often a part of a teenager's way of life. He wants to earn money so he can enjoy some leisure or sincerely needs money so that he can participate in the world around him.

Being a teenager today is a very expensive matter. No one would blame him for wanting to work, but few jobs encourage reading. Rather, they take time away from many activities.

The truth is that a teenager may find it very difficult to fit time for reading into his "busy" schedule. Adults should recognize this fact when they are ready to harass the teenager for not developing a reading habit.

It should also be recognized that teenagers are very eager to be accepted by the people around them. Much of their energy is spent in activities which reinforce feelings of love and acceptance. Being with people and especially their peer group is extremely important to them. Reading a good book is much less desirable than being a part of the "gang". Their friends might even think that reading a book is a waste of time.

Adults must learn to accept these problems facing the teenager before insisting upon a drastic change in behavior patterns. The results will be much greater if understanding exists prior to confronting a problem such as No Time To Read!

WASHINGTON REPORT
FROM SENATOR J. GLENN BEALL JR.

The SALT Agreement

With passage of revenue sharing legislation in the past week, the Senate has again shifted its attention to the Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty (SALT) signed by President Nixon during his trip to the Soviet Union in May. It has been the subject of prolonged debate, but a motion for cloture has been adopted, and a final vote is now assured.

The importance of the strategic arms agreement can be gauged in several ways. First and most important is the fact that this is an unprecedented effort by the two superpowers to step back from the brink of mutual destruction. Never before have the world's two leading powers moved so convincingly to ease global tensions.

The agreement actually goes beyond the United States and Russia limiting the size of their arsenals, which already are large enough to destroy both nations several times over. Nuclear technology is spreading among the other nations of the world, and any hopes for a nuclear non-proliferation treaty will depend in large part on the United States and Russia reaching an accord.

An agreement to limit nuclear weapons also goes beyond the realm of military strength and the arms race. It means that the enormous expense of new weapons systems can be channeled into other areas. President Nixon already has reduced the defense portion of our gross national product from 9 per cent in 1969 to a current level of 6 per cent, but there also is a savings in human resources to be realized.

"The world in arms is not spending money alone," President Eisenhower once said. "It is spending the sweat of its laborers, the genius of its scientists, the hopes of its children."

Although the SALT agreement can play a role in shifting the economic priorities of the United States and Russia, it is not by itself a magic formula for solving the problems of the world. It is, however, a breakthrough that gives us the opportunity to move ahead in our efforts to build a lasting peace.

The SALT agreement can open the way to a new round of talks on issues such as troop reductions and further arms limitation. But these questions must be approached bilaterally because any independent move by one side would only result in a bargaining advantage for the other side. We know by experience that the Soviet leaders will never give anything away at the negotiating table, but they will take whatever they can. It is obvious, therefore, that we must be in a position to negotiate from strength.

President Nixon's trip to Moscow is also providing other breakthroughs in our dealings with the Russians. The most recent development is a major trade agreement that will open a tremendous overseas market for non-strategic American products. Our sale of wheat to Russia and China is evidence that these nations, despite their differing political systems, are ready to improve their commercial ties with the Western nations, and thus align their interests with those of other countries.

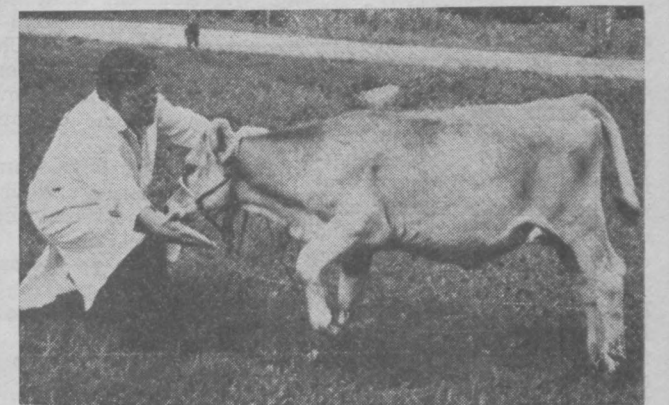

Just as we need revenue sharing here at home to solve the problems of state and local governments, the whole world needs the benefits that can result from the agreements now being worked out between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Library Now Open On Thursday

The Emmitsburg Public Library is now open on Thursday mornings from 10 to 12 and in the afternoon from 2:30 to 5. This is the first time the library has been open in the winter months in the morning. This may be more convenient for some housewives and business people.

Children from the Seton Day Center are visiting the library on a regular basis at this time. Two groups of 15-17 children visit the library every two weeks. Mrs. Mary Topper and her assistant brought 17 children to the library on Tuesday of this week. On Thursday at 9:30 Mrs. Lewis will bring her children.

On Tuesday, October 3, Mrs. Nora Caplan of the Noyes Children's Library in Kensington, Montgomery County, will visit the Emmitsburg Public Library to present the Children's Penny Theater for the local children. Invited specially as a nucleus will be the Day Care children and any other children who are not in school are cordially invited. Showings will be at 11:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Please keep this in mind for your child.

Ten per cent cost of living increases were granted effective August 1, 1972, to 2.2 million veterans drawing compensation for service-connected disabilities, the VA reported recently.

Need A Gift? Try Preserved Foods, Say 4-H'ers

Have you ever had the need to give someone a little gift? One that says "thank you", or "get well soon", or just "glad I've got a friend like you?"

According to the Cooperative Extension Service, one of the most appreciated gifts to give for these occasions is preserved food: jams, jellies, fruits and vegetables.

Over 103,000 4-H'ers in the national 4-H food preservation program, sponsored by the Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation, enjoy preserving foods, as gifts for others and for quick and easy meals at home. And they find canning and freezing an economical way to use foods in season.

4-H'ers who enroll in the program may preserve foods from their own gardens or realize savings by purchasing plentiful foods. They look for quality produce and then follow recommended preserving practices in assuring tasty, nutritious meals.

Daisy Langford, of Meadville, Miss., was one of six national winners in the 4-H food preservation program, last year. Miss Langford not only canned fruits, vegetables and jellies, but she also froze meats, bread and pastry goods. She also compiled and distributed pamphlets on food preservation to others in her community.

"We really saved a lot of money by canning and freezing fruits and vegetables for winter," Miss Langford said. "During the summer we spent most of our time raising, harvesting, canning and freezing fruits and vegetables."

Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation has sponsored the 4-H food preservation program for over 44 years. During that time the company has provided 4-H members with incentive and recognition awards and some $80,000 in educational scholarships.

State winners in the food preservation program receive an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. There, six national winners will each receive $700 scholarships from Kerr. County winners receive medals of honor for their achievements.

For more information about the 4-H food preservation program, contact the county extension office.

"Curtain Call '72"

Dennis Hughes, producer-director of "Curtain Call '72", the variety show being staged by the Fredericktowne Players for the benefit of the 1972 Frederick County United Fund Campaign, has announced that selection of featured acts and individuals has been completed. The benefit revue will be presented Saturday, October 7, at 8:00 p.m. and again on Sunday, October 8, at 2:30 p.m., in the Governor Thomas Johnson High School auditorium.

Tommy Grunwell, local radio personality, will act as master of ceremonies, and heading the list of prominent participants will be Congressman Goodloe E. Byron, who will appear in a cameo performance on the Saturday evening program. A comedy skit, entitled "Oily to Rise", and directed by William Moore, Jr., drama coach at Linganore High School, will feature such Frederick notables as Alderman Glenmore Rice and Major Charles V. Main, Chief of Police. Also in the cast are Harry O. Smith and Elmore Hood.

A skit, "Easy Credit", is directed by Paul O'Connell, drama director at Mount St. Mary's College. Several well known local groups and individuals will be presenting a variety of talent and entertainment. Richard Cook's dance group, "99 plus 1", seen several times in recent months on Baltimore television channel 13, will offer both modern dance, and mime. The very popular Cactones (Saturday evening only) and Sweet Adelines will entertain in their distinctive styles.

Tickets, at $2.00 per person, are available in Emmitsburg at Seton Center.

Area Nun Attends Home Ec Meeting

Sister Madeleine Wheeler, Ph.D., chairman of the home economics department, St. Joseph College, attended a three-day federally sponsored conference at the Hotel DuPont in Wilmington earlier this week.

Sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education, Region III, Home Economics Education and Consumer Education Programs, Sister Madeleine participated in a panel discussion on "Development and Issues Related to Certification of Teachers." Mrs. Erna Chapman chaired the discussion.

The conference was convened to discuss home economics objectives:

1. To discuss developments in career education and implications for vocational home economics education.
2. To review programs in consumer and homemaking education in depressed areas and evidences of results.
3. To identify ways to add depth to programs for the preparation of the dual-role homemakers and to home economics - related occupational training programs.
4. To become acquainted with the new developments in programs of the Future Homemakers of America and to identify helps needed by advisors.
5. To review teacher education programs to meet present demands.
6. To discuss the 1972 Education Amendments and implications for Consumer and Homemaking Education.

Symphony Society Lists Programs

The Frederick County Symphony Society is currently conducting a subscription campaign for its 1972-1973 series of four concerts by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

All concerts are given in the auditorium of the Gov. Thomas Johnson High School in Frederick. They begin at 8 p.m. and seating is on a non-reserved basis. This excellent series is now a greater bargain than ever — the cost is still only $10.00 per full subscription and $5.00 per full-time student subscription. That's $2.50 and $1.25 per concert respectively; the cost has not been raised for over 5 years! Tickets are not sold for individual concerts, but by subscription only.

The dates and programs for the coming season are as follows:

1. Monday, October 23, 1972. Bartok: Divertimento. Roussel: Bacchus et Ariadne; Suite No. 2. Tchaikovsky: Symphony No. 2.
2. Monday, November 20, 1972. Schubert: Symphony No. 8. Prokofiev: Violin Concerto No. 1. Beethoven: Symphony No. 7.
3. Wednesday, January 24, 1973. Verdi: Vespri Siciliani; excerpt. Beethoven, Symphony No. 1. Martinu: Concerto for Strngs. Strauss: Till Eulenspiegel.
4. Tuesday, March 13, 1973. Beethoven: Piano Concerto No. 4. Rachmaninov: Symphony No. 2.

Subscriptions have been growing by 10 to 15 per cent each year and the increases have caused us concern that we will soon surpass the capacity of the auditorium. Thus it is highly recommended that you send in any subscriptions as soon as possible (no later than Oct. 15, please).

For each subscription, send complete name, address, phone number and $10 (full) or $5 (student) to William E. O'Toole III, R2, Box 168, Emmitsburg, Md. 21727.

Silver Fancy Garden Club Has Flower Arrangement Workshop

A flower arrangement workshop directed by Mrs. Andrew Eyster of Emmitsburg, was the highlight of the Silver Fancy Garden Club's meeting held at Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, on September 21. Mrs. Eyster explained basic principles after which each member used her own flowers, container and mechanics to create a flower arrangement. These were then constructively evaluated by Mrs. Eyster and other club members.

After refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Alexander Koswick and Mrs. Andrew Eyster, the president, Mrs. Theodore Fair opened the meeting with the reading of the collect.

A note was read from Mrs. John Harner thanking the club for leaving its flower arrangements at Antrim until after the Republican Reception.

Motions were made and carried to contribute to World

Cystic Fibrosis Names Chairman

Mrs. Delmar W. Rice, of Middletown, has been named chairman of the annual cystic fibrosis fund-raising drive in Frederick County. The annual campaign begins in October.

Mrs. Rice was appointed by Lou Corbin, of WFBR radio, the state campaign chairman. The Rice's son, Butch, 5, is the victim of cystic fibrosis which is an inherited, lung-damaging disease.

Although there is no known cure of CF, research and new equipment have added more than ten years to the lifespan of CF victims during the past decade. These progressive efforts in the fight against cystic fibrosis have been aided to a great degree by citizen contributions during the annual campaigns.

To assist in the Frederick County drive, contact Mrs. Rice, or the Maryland CF Chapter in Baltimore at 485-5400.

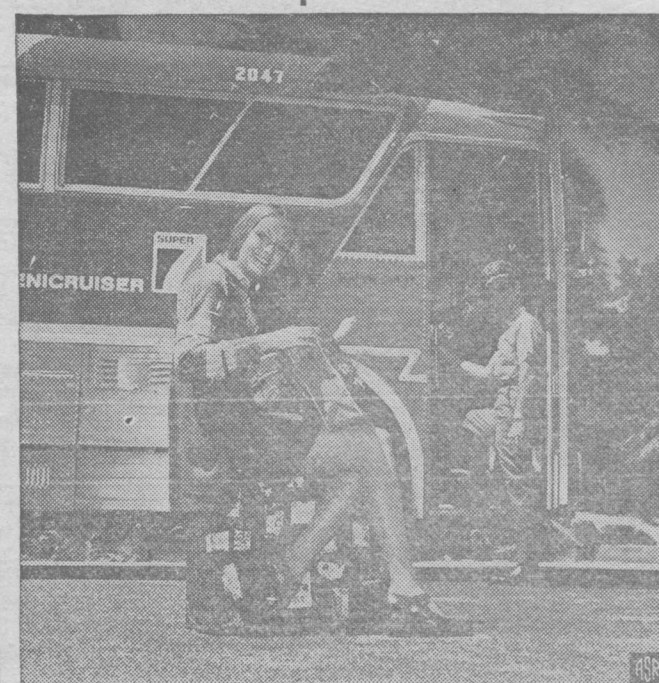

with enthusiasm to the chance to grow flowers and plants, make arrangements, study birdlore, do seasonal decorations, go on field trips, and visit and participate in exhibitions and club flower shows.

Mrs. Klosky lead the discussion in making plans for a proposed bus trip to the Kennedy Center.

Mrs. Chenoweth, Therapy Chairman, reported on a garden therapy workshop and state meeting held September 19 at Cylburn Park Mansion, Baltimore. The day's program began with short talks by garden therapy chairmen and representatives of various institutions who explained the value of garden therapy programs. Over 2,000 patients have taken part in gardening activities in the 70-odd homes, hospitals, and institutions where these are offered by garden club workers. People of all ages have responded

The next meeting will be held on October 26.

Vietnam Era veterans are now ahead of both World War II and Korean Conflict veterans in rate of participation under the GI Bill, the VA reported recently.

America On $2.50 A DayNew Concept In Bus Travel

Travel America for $2.50 a day? Can't be done? It can now—using Ameripass, Greyhound's new unlimited 60-day ticket.

For $149.50, a traveler can go anywhere in the U.S.A. over Greyhound's 100,000 miles of routes for 60 days.

James L. Kerrigan, president of Greyhound Lines, Inc., said, "Ameripass is our way of making it easier for Americans to see this great land of ours. Our buses serve 40,000 cities and towns in America and can take a traveler not only to the more popular tourist attractions such as the national parks, historic sites and exciting metropolitan areas, but also to the lesser known places of great beauty and national significance."

Available beginning Sept. 15, Ameripass will be honored in all 48 contiguous states and in some areas of Canada.

Ameripass holders will also be eligible for special discounts on hotels, automobile rentals, sightseeing and other travel services. To obtain the discount, all they need to do is show their Ameripass.

The 60-day ticket offers complete freedom and flexibility of travel. There are no limitations on the time of day or day of week when it may be used during the 60-day period — including weekends, weekdays, holidays, day or night.

Travelers will be able to stop whenever and wherever they wish—for as long as they want. They may also take side trips, crossovers, switchbacks or revisit places they like. As an additional benefit, Ameripass will be honored by almost 100 other intercity bus lines in the United States and Canada.

Kerrigan said Ameripass is one of several new programs being launched as a special salute to the nation's upcoming 200th anniversary. Others include a new red, white and blue paint scheme and special service to the most desirable American tourist attractions.

A free folder providing complete details on Ameripass as well as valuable bus travel information is available at any Greyhound terminal or representative as well as many travel agencies.
