Most Anything At A Glance

- By Abigail -

It certainly does my heart good when I find that someone out there is really reading what I put down, and my joy knows no bounds when my words result in some action being taken — however small that action may be. It was only last month that I put forth the suggestion that we sidewalk superintendents should be provided with some charts so we could compare what work was actually being done on the new school with what work was supposed to be going on there. Somebody down in Frederick must have noticed—because I have this peculiar looking document called a "pert" chart, or in other words, the construction schedule for the new school. It took me a while to figure it out, but right now it calls for "concrete-slabs" and "Concrete-Misc." So I kind of strolled down around there the other day and by golly! there they were, concrete slabs and such. It would appear that so far the contractor is on schedule. The schedule calls for everything being finished by the end of March, 1974, except for paving and landscaping. We'll keep watching and see how it's progressing but so far it looks pretty good.

It was bad enough the way prices were going up, up, up; in fact the end doesn't seem to be in sight yet. But it appears that today, folks are lucky to get beef at any price. I've heard several fellows talking about the different routes they have gone trying to get hold of a side of beef for the family freezer, and that there just isn't any to be had at any price. At the same time the whole economic picture is made worse by the fact that thousands of steers are being sold and shipped into Canada where they are processed and then brought back in. This is causing packing houses in this country to close down, men and women are out of work, welfare and unemployment rolls go up, taxes go up, ad nauseum. Is there to be no end to this economic fiasco?

And now they are investigating Spiro Agnew. I'm not quite clear yet what he is supposed to have done, but the whole situation is getting a bit discouraging. A few months ago I wrote in this column about experiments which had shown that power corrupts, and we seem to be getting more and more proof of that daily. From the local sheriff's office up to the President's Oval Office, there are charges and investigations and seemingly more are beginning every day. It will be very interesting to see what the history books have to say about these days.

The one nice thing we have had to be grateful for lately is the weather. It's been a bit hot to suit some of us, but after the chilly, wet spring we had I'm certainly not going to complain. And for those folks who have waited until now to take their vacations the sunshine is certainly a blessing. May we remember these hot days of August when the chilly winds of February are blowing around us and we are all longing for some "nice" weather.

Observe 27th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Shorb observed their 27th anniversary Sunday, July 29. During the day, they were presented a large decorated cake and gifts. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tringone, Hanover, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Shorb, Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. James Wastler and son, Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shorb and sons, Keith and Kevin, Dwayne Shorb of Taneytown and Kerry Shorb.

Laws and commandments, in some people's opinions, were made to guide some other fellow.

Your best friend won't bother to announce that fact to you.

Knights Of Columbus Members Honored At Awards Banquet

Summer Program At Seton Center Provides Recreation For Area Children

Among those enjoying the swimming program were Beth Joy and Libby Cunningham.

Seton Centers' program of summer recreation for children 7-14, which ended last Friday, provided six weeks of fun and learning for over 40 Emmitsburg youngsters.

The full - day program also provided peace of mind for working parents who otherwise would worry about their children during the long unsupervised summer days.

The special summer session was planned and expedited by four Daughters of Charity who teach in area schools and who contributed their talents to the Center during their "vacation." Sister Monica, Sister Maureen, Sister Kathleen and Sister John Elizabeth, set up a lively schedule of activities which included picnics, hikes, fishing, arts and crafts, movies, music and dancing. There was a weekly field trip to places such as the Baltimore Zoo, Caledonia State Park and the Utz Potato Chip Factory.

Needlework and ceramics were popular in the arts and crafts classes. Many of the children made household items such as pot holders and ceramic tiles as gifts for their parents.

Each Wednesday night a free, family-type movie was shown at the Provincial House and families were also invited to come with their youngsters to events such as a marshmallow roast by the banks of Tom's Creek.

Swimming was again taught by Mrs. Mary Seess, a Red Cross Swim Instructor. The Beginner Course was completed by Laura Wood, Paul Cisar, Karen Springer, Steve Lingg, Bessie Cisar, Charles Wood and Leroy Bolin. These children earned Red Cross pins and cards.

An additional group of 23 children were awarded Red Cross Records of Achievement which indicate the skills they mastered in working toward Beginner certification. One young man gave up a trip to Baltimore with his family on the last day of the program so that he would not miss the final swim class.

The year-round day care children also enjoyed a special summer schedule oriented to the out-of-doors. They had their own picnics, nature walks and bus trips. Squeals of delight let everyone at the Center know when the preschoolers were hard at play under the sprinkler.

MRS. C. L. ENSOR

Mrs. Carvel L. Ensor, sister of Mrs. John D. Elder of Emmitsburg, died on Tuesday, July 24 at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center three weeks after suffering a stroke. She was 88. Mrs. Ensor was the mother of Ellison W. Ensor, chief of the Baltimore County Police Department.

Mrs. Ensor had lived in Towson for nearly 50 years before making her home recently with a daughter, Mrs. Frances Merritt, Hampton.

The former Blanche M. Spaulding, she was a native of Littlestown, Pa., and moved to Towson after her marriage to Carvel Linwood Ensor, a machinist, who died in 1958.

Survivors, in addition to Chief Ensor, Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Elder, are another son, Clarence Ensor, of Pylesville, another daughter, Mrs. Edna Spahn, of Street, the C. A. Elder family of Emmitsburg, Mrs. Yvonne Wiegand and family of Silver Spring; Mrs. W. C. Smith and family of Timonium; and Mrs. Matt Paidakovich and family of Silver Spring.

A mass of the resurrection was offered Friday, July 17, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Towson.

Knights Ahead In Series Play 2-1

Members of Brute Council 1860, Knights of Columbus, bumped the Columbian Squires of the Guy A. Baker Sr. Circle 2299, Sunday afternoon on the Mt. St. Mary's College diamond, 6-5. This put the Knights in the lead, 2 to 1, in the best of five slow pitch softball series.

The Knights were behind, 5-4 going into the last of the ninth inning with two out when Bill Austin singled. Austin's single was followed by Tom Topper's hard hit home run straight through center field.

Brother Knights are urged to participate and support the team. The fourth game has not been scheduled yet.

Council Plans Fall Classes

The governing board of the Emmitsburg Lifelong Learning Council met at Seton Center recently with President Bernard Welty presiding.

A list of courses which may be given in Emmitsburg in the fall was drawn up. Tentatively, the Council plans to offer sewing, typing, shorthand, furniture refinishing, physical education and painting for beginning and advanced students. Each class will meet once a week for 12 weeks. The fee per course is $8 plus the cost of any materials used.

The Council also expects to offer two short courses, one in cake decorating and one in flower arrangement.

Adult Basic Education and a class in preparation for the High School Equivalency exam will be given twice a week during the coming year. There is no charge for these courses and classroom materials are provided.

Time and place of all courses will be announced later.

Most classes are given in cooperation with the Frederick County Board of Education.

In plans for the second semester, the Council hopes to repeat this year's successful tennis course as well as Ceramics which has been an outstanding favorite in the community. Personal Grooming and Social Card Games may also be offered in the spring.

The Council has received inquiries about courses given for college credit and is investigating the possibilities of establishing an off - campus center for such instruction. A major problem is finding 15-20 students who wish to take the same course.

Commissioners Faced With Sewer System And Parking Problems

At Monday night's Commissioner's meeting, Sheldon Erickson, president of Viking Ventures, Inc., warned the town that the Viking property would not continue to sit undeveloped, and cautioned the Commissioners about adding any more sewer hook-ups to the already overloaded system. He asked the town officials how they could possibly justify considering more sewer hook-ups, when, by their own engineering reports, the plant was already operating at way above its designed capacity. He noted that the town uses Toms' Creek for its discharge and that Viking Ventures would use the same creek for its own proposed sewer treatment facility; that it was the corporation's position that the town was contaminating the surrounding area with town waste products, i.e., Tom's Creek, and the dumps on the mountain. He said that Viking Ventures would have to go to considerable expense to make sure that any discharge from their plant is clear, and that they could not, in clear conscience sit and listen to the town put in more hook-ups which would further pollute the creek.

K. Of C. Council Receives Honors

The election of one trustee for the coming year was held at the regular meeting of Brute Council 1860, Knights of Columbus on Monday, August 6, with Grand Knight Raymond Sanders presiding. Samuel Brewer was elected to the vacancy left by Lawrence Kolb's recent election as Deputy Grand Knight. Harold Davis was appointed as membership director for this coming year.

Other directorships announced were: Deputy Grand Knight Lawrence Kolb as Program Director; Clyde Eyer, Church Activities; William Austin, Council Activities; PGK George Danner, Community Activities, and Jerry Joy, Youth Activities. These directors are to be present next Wednesday evening to set up council programs through the month of December. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the Council Home.

The council voted to hold a crab feed on Saturday, Sept. 15, with Sunday, Sept. 16 as a rain date. The feed will be held at Kump's Dam Park, with more details to be given later.

Installation of Council officers will be held on Wednesday evening, August 29 at 8 p.m. in the council chambers. All officers must be present for this occasion. Wives and friends are invited to attend. A buffet will follow the installation.

District Deputy Andrew Komarinski was introduced by Grand Knight Sanders. The District Deputy presented the council with a duplicate plaque that he received recently at the state convention for having the best district formation degree team during the past year. Immediate Past Grand Knight George Danner received the plaque on behalf of the council. The District Deputy thanked the members of Brute Council who served on the District Degree team last year. They were Council Chaplain Carl J. Fives, Carl Wetzel, who acted as Grand Knight, and Financial Secretary Paul A. Keepers, who supplied and handled the music for the team.

It was announced that Brute Council was the recipient of two certificates of honor from the Supreme Office. One was for making their membership quota and the other for their insurance quota last year.

The officers of Brute Council will meet next Thursday evening, August 16, at 8 p.m. All officers are urged to attend as much business is to be discussed.

The next meeting of the council will be held on Monday evening, August 20 at 8 o'clock.

Senior Citizens Plan Picnic

Monday, July 30, at approximately 11:30, 26 Senior Citizens gathered at the Center to take a trip to the Mall Theatre in Frederick to view the current picture, "Sound of Music," starring Julie Andrews.

Everyone reports a fine time and a delightful picture. The next regular meeting of the Senior Citizens Club will be held at a picnic in the Emmitsburg Community Park on Tuesday, August 21 at 6 p.m. The rolls, meat and beverages will be provided. Everyone bring place settings and a covered dish. Come and have a pleasant evening with food and friends.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks. Letters should be sent to me c/o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515. Why do you support a reduction of U. S. troops in Europe?

It is now costing the U. S. over $7 billion a year to maintain a defensive force of 300,000 Americans in Europe and I feel pressure must be placed on NATO nations to contribute more equally to the defense budget and troop reserve pools to alleviate the dollar drain and chronic U. S. balance of payments deficit.

Please explain the scope of the new ocean dumping legislation that was passed by Congress?

The Marine Protection, Research and Sanctuaries Act of 1972 strictly regulates the dumping of materials into ocean waters which would affect human health or welfare and the marine environment or ecological systems. The law prohibits the transport of any material without a permit and permits are only issued when persons have complied with EPA guidelines. The new statute provides for civil and criminal penalties including fines up to $50,000 and imprisonment for one year, or both.

How may our firm obtain an oil import license?

Companies seeking an import license should contact the Oil Import Appeals Board to obtain the required petition application forms. The address is OIAB, Department of Interior, 4015 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, Va. 22203. In order to alleviate the fuel shortage, restrictions on imports were lifted last March and there has now been a sharp increase in licenses. In the entire year of 1972, only 40,000 barrels per day were allowed to enter the U. S. During the first half of the current year an average of 372,000 barrels per day were coming from foreign sources.

Unfortunately the world isn't interested in good excuses.

Life's hardest task: living each day by the Golden Rule.

A Distorted View Of Profits

A nationwide poll conducted by Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, New Jersey, asked this question: "What is the average profit of industrial corporations in America?" The answers averaged out to a consensus figure of 28 per cent on the sales dollar. This belief on the part of the American public led more than 33 per cent of those polled to advocate, in another poll question, that profits should be limited by the Government, permanently. The public's estimate of profit levels, as revealed in the poll, is fantastically wrong. The public's attitude that the Government should limit profits is dangerous to the prosperity and freedom of all citizens. The Opinion Research Corporation, the Federal Trade Commission and McGraw-Hill Publishers carry on a constant charting of business and corporate profits. In the last 10 years, profit on the sales dollar has been above 5 per cent only one time—in 1965, when the average profit was 5 1/2 per cent. In 1971 it was 4 per cent, and it was about 4 per cent in 1972. So the American public consensus is 7-times greater than the actual 4 per cent profit figure!

Other Vital Facts

The public's distorted view of profits has now built up into a distrust of American business and industry by millions of our citizens. It is my studied opinion that the distortion, and subsequent distrust, has been substantially due to deliberate propaganda against our American business system in communications and colleges, and the failure of the news media to print the whole profit picture. When General Motors Corporation's 1972 financial statement was issued, the headlines in the media showed profit at $2 billion. The news dispatches I saw did not mention the fact that this was 7.1 per cent profit on total sales of $30 billion. I have before me the 1972 financial statements of several big corporations. In the General Motors breakdown of its $2 billion in profits, I find these figures: Stockholders got dividends of $4.45 per share, about 6 per cent. Approximately $1 billion went for plant expansion, the creation of new jobs and ingenious new machine tools which permit GM hourly employees to earn more than $12,000 a year on the average.

Billions In Income Tax

Another significant thing about the General Motors operation—and I'm using GM because, as the biggest corporation of all, it is the constant target of the anti-system propaganda—was the amount of income taxes paid in 1972. The amount was $2,977,700,000. The payroll for 760,000 GM employees was $8 billion. Expansion of GM's production, and resultant new jobs for citizens, must come out of profits, borrowed money, and stocks sales; and the borrowed money must be repaid out of profits, and dividends paid to stockholders.

The financial statement of the Texas Company (TEXACO), one of the big petroleum companies, shows 1972 income of $8.9 billion. Profit was $889 million, or 9 per cent on the sales dollar. Texaco provided jobs for 76,496 employees in 1972. Texaco stockholders made 4 1/2 per cent on their investment. For plant expansion, creation of new jobs and other capital expenditures, Texaco spent $1.9 billion.

Role Of The Job Makers

One of the biggest forestry industries in the world, Georgia-Pacific, had sales of $1.7 billion in 1972. Profits were $97 million, or about 5 per cent. The company made jobs for 34,000 employees. In the chemistry field, The Celanese Corporation listed sales of $1.3 billion, profits totalling $43.9 million, or about 3 per cent. It plowed into expansion and the creation of new jobs twice as much money as the total of its 1972 profits.

These are typical financial statements selected from among the thousands of manufacturing corporations which form the machinery for the production of wealth in which all citizens share. Without them we'd be living in relatively primitive conditions. Each industry was begun, usually on a small scale, to fulfill the promise of big profits. As they entered the competitive market with their products and faced the rising production costs, profits leveled out to the 4 per cent to 5 per cent average we've had in the last 25 years. It would be healthy to our economy if they made a little more and could expand more and create more jobs. The biggest beneficiaries of the profit motive in American industry are the 200 million people of America. And we'll say more about that next week.

TOWN OF EMMITSBURG

Proposed Charter Amendments

On July 2, 1973, at the regular monthly meeting of the Burgess and Board of Commissioners of the Town of Emmitsburg, certain Amendments were made to the Charter of the Town of Emmitsburg. A summary of those proposed and approved amendments appear below:

(1) Art. II, Sec. 2 of the Charter was amended so as to delete the requirement for the office of Commissioner, of ownership of real estate within the town.

(2) Art. II, Sec. 9 of the Charter was amended so as to clarify the authority of the Board of Commissioners to appoint separate commissions for whatever purpose the Board might deem necessary. At all times such commissions are to act in advisory capacities only.

(3) Art. II, Sec. 12 of the Charter dealing with the powers of the Board of Commissioners was reworded and extended so as to expand and clarify their powers. Such powers as providing and regulating for sewer and water as have been legally exercised in the past have simply been specifically included within this Charter provision for the sake of clarity. The zoning power and the power to regulate public recreation and park services as well as provide for and regulate a police department have all been specifically included in the Board's powers, again, for the sake of clarity.

(4) Art. II, Sec. 15 provides for the working structure of the Board of Commissioners. It provides for the election of the President and Treasurer of the Board of Commissioners by the Board of Commissioners.

(5) Art. II, Sec. 14 simply provides that the District Court of Frederick County, Maryland has jurisdiction over violations of the laws or ordinances of the Town of Emmitsburg.

(6) All of Article III of the Charter which deals with the office of the Burgess has been revamped so as to clarify the powers, qualifications and duties of this elected official. Under the amendment the Burgess need no longer be an owner of real property within the town. Generally, the Burgess is designated as Chief Executive Officer of the town, responsible both to the Board of Commissioners and the voters of the town for its sound administration. The Burgess has the power to veto legislation, which power may be overridden by the Board. The Burgess is in charge of the appointment and discharge of all town officers (other than elected officials) and employees, with the advice and consent of the Board of Commissioners.

(7) Art. I, Sec. 3 deals with the police limits of the town, which extend for one mile from the town boundaries. All that was changed by this amendment as the District Court for Frederick County shall have the power to try all violations within these limits, rather than the obsolete magistrate system.

(8) Art. IV, Sec. 2, dealing with elections generally provides for the appointment by the Board of Commissioners of three persons to act as judges of elections. Voters may now register on any business day with the Town Clerk.

(9) Art. V, Sec. 15 was amended so as to provide that the town budget shall be adopted not later than June 27 of any year.

(10) Art. V, Sec. 23 dealing with collection of taxes sets the tax year from July 1 thru June 30. All taxes are due on July 1, and overdue and in arrears the first day of the succeeding October and at that time will begin to bear interest at the rate of 2/3 of 1% per month or fraction of a month until paid. When improvements are added to any property between July 1 and December 31, resulting in an increase of assessment in that period, then tax for the last half of the year on this increase shall be due on the first day of January and overdue and in arrears on April 1, succeeding. Interest is charged as above mentioned.

(11) Art. VIII, Sec. 4 which provides for penalties for violation of any Charter provision having been amended to give judges of District Court of Frederick County jurisdiction over such actions.

BUSINESS AND THE STOCK MARKET

The Paint Industry
By Babson's Reports Inc., Wellesley Hills, Mass., August 9, 1973—Growth in the paint industry over the past decade or so has not been spectacular but has been quite steady. With the exception of the recession years of 1970 and the bad-weather of 1967, industry expansion has generally been around 5%-8% annually. Currently, the paint business is enjoying a strong upsurge in demand as a result of the high level of economic activity and increased usage by the do-it-yourself market. In spite of the likelihood of a slowdown in residential construction this year and prospects of additional costs from new regulations, paint manufacturers should find 1973 another year of moderate gains in both sales and earnings.

New Technologies
Beginning with the development of synthetic resin-based paints in the 1920s, the industry has brought forth "latex" (water-thinned) paints, acrylic paints, epoxy paints, polyurethane resins, chloride-vinyl acetates, and a number of other processes and products for use in coating a wide variety of surfaces. The traditional base of linseed oil and white lead is largely being displaced, as manufacturers and users seek more durable coatings and more efficient application techniques. Effective December 31, 1973, household paints containing more than a trace amount of lead will be banned by the FDA to eliminate potential health hazards to children.

Paint Substitutes
Spurring the effort toward new paint technologies has been an increase in the use of building materials such as aluminum, asbestos and vinyl siding, and other nonlumber products that require little or no finishing. The eventual impact of these substitute materials on paint sales is a source of substantial concern to the paint makers. For the present, however, substitute materials will have only a limited impact on sales since much more paint is used to refinish old houses than for new construction. To meet the long-range challenge of substitute materials, it can be expected that in the future more paint producers will be widening their product base, and paint making will become just one aspect of a broader materials coating business.

Trade Sales Vs. Industrial Sales
Paint sales are usually broken down into two broad categories—trade and industrial. Trade sales consist of paint sold to consumers, contractors, and professional painters for new construction and for repainting, refinishing, and maintenance. Industrial sales are comprised of special coatings sold to manufacturers for application during the manufacturing stages of a product.

Until recently trade sales were the more important factor in the industry's growth. But about half of the $3 billion of U. S. paint sales per year is now accounted for by industrial sales. It is expected that in the future, sales of industrial coatings will surpass those of consumer paints. The superior growth projected for industrial coatings is based in (1) the overall expansion of U. S. industry, and (2) the technology of coatings, which is moving ahead so rapidly that paints are now being used on surfaces unknown a while ago.

The Companies
Although there are more than 1,500 companies involved in manufacturing paint, five companies—Sherwin Williams, Du Pont, PPG Industries, SCM Corporation, and Celanese—probably account for 50% of the total volume. The Research Department of Babson's Reports currently recommends purchase of PPG Industries; the four others are well worth holding. Among other major firms involved in paint manufacturing are Allied Chemical, American Cyanamid, Medusa Corporation, Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing, N L Industries, National Gypsum, Pratt & Lambert, Rohm & Hass, St. Joe Minerals, Sun Chemical, and U. S. Gypsum. The common stocks of these companies should be held.

PERSPECTIVES IN LEARNING

By Hazel Brown, President
Harry Lundberg School
Entire Community

School facilities in most communities are being used about ten months of the year and five days of the week. Seldom do the lights shine in the evenings except for special meetings, graduations, or special occasions. What a waste of expensive buildings! Senator Frank Church, Democrat from Idaho, has organized a program to push for the passage of the Community School Bill which would change the school image from a dark schoolhouse to a living and lighted part of the community. The Church bill would provide Federal funds for new community education programs. It would also support community centers and the use of present school buildings for community education. The hearings which are taking place to promote the passage of the bill are being strongly supported by Senator Harrison A. Williams, Democrat, New Jersey; Senator Claiborne Pell, Democrat, Rhode Island; and Senator Jacob K. Javits, Republican, New York. Michigan has promoted continuing education for many years and has made the "lighted schoolhouse" concept a very real and successful one. All ages of students attend classes and community activities take place at the schools, senior citizen groups utilize the buildings, and youth groups are welcome at all times. The schools in the state of Michigan are utilized 365 days a year and at least 12 to 14 hours a day. This utilization of existing facilities helps communities to provide many services which they could not otherwise afford.

Community schools and community educational programs are growing in acceptance and popularity but the passage of the Church bill should certainly stimulate enthusiasm. School districts are discussing the expanded uses of their educational facilities but they are faced with inadequate funds for providing additional services. If federal grants were available for adult and continued education programs, perhaps more school systems would become involved. It is unfortunate that progress in community education is dependent upon the federal government. The local communities could do much on their own if the interest and enthusiasm of local citizens could be sparked. Not everything today needs to rely upon a federal grant. Many local communities have demonstrated an enthusiasm for improving their own school systems.

Mrs. Mary Seess, Red Cross Swim Instructor, hands out Records of Achievement to swimmers from Seton Center.

action songs such as "Ten Little Indians," "Puff the Magic Dragon" and "There Was An Old Woman Who Swallowed A Fly." Square dancers whirled around the auditorium pausing once to ask the enthusiastic on-lookers to stop clapping so that they could hear the calls.

In an especially attractive rhythmic dance, faculty and children manipulated a billowing parachute. Elaine Hobbs and Elaine Little, two PEP workers at the Center, sang "Susan" with guitar accompaniment by Elaine Hobbs. The entertainment was followed by a watermelon cutting.

Ten area teenagers who were hired by the Public Employment Program (PEP) were assigned as aides at Seton Center for the summer. This program of learning and training is funded through the State of Maryland via the Board of Education and is a partial substitute for the National Youth Corps.

Seton Center will be closed from August 17 until Sept. 4 to allow for staff vacations and necessary cleaning and maintenance.

The Thrift Shop is now closed but will reopen on August 27. Sr. Esther has announced that hours thereafter will be from 11:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Zip Column

An 8-cent stamp commemorating Robinson Jeffers, will be first issued at Carmel, California, on Aug. 13, 1973.

Robinson Jeffers (1887-1962) is the poet member of the American Arts Series, which includes stamps honoring Composer George Gershwin, Writer Willa Cather and Artist

Henry Ossawa Tanner. All are designed in compatible format.

The young Jeffers studied the classics — particularly Greek and Roman—in private schools abroad, then studied medicine and forestry before electing to become a poet.

He lived in seclusion with his family near Carmel, California. Much of his poetry, allegorical in technique, concerned his neighbors three of whom, plus a burro, appear on the stamp montage.

This stamp will be placed on sale at our office on Tuesday, August 14, 1973.
