

FREDERICK COUNTY BACKGROUNDS

BY SAMUEL CARRICK
the Hoke—Fraleley Family
 "The month of carnival of all the year, When Nature lets the wild earth go its way, And spend whole seasons on a single day. The spring-time holds her white and purple dear; October, lavish, flaunts them far and near; The summer clearly her reds doth lay Like jewels on her costliest array; October, scornful, burns them on a bier."
 "October, feasting neath her dome of blue, Drinks at a single draught, slow filtered through Sunshiny air, in a tingling wine."
 —Helen Hunt Jackson
 The data regarding the Hoke family, of Pennsylvania and Maryland, not to mention the Monocacy Settlement, is continued at this time.
 Clara Hoke, the daughter of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke, married Oscar Frailey, of Emmitsburg, Md., and they were the paterfamilias of a fair-sized family. The three older children, namely, Richard Francis, Alice Madeline Rachel, and Carson Frailey, were mentioned in last week's column. The list is continued, as taken from the records of Elias Lutheran congregation, as follows:
 10. Baptized—George Clarence Frailey—son of Oscar and Clara (Hoke) Frailey—born August 19, 1890—baptized October 6, 1890.
 Note: Other children were born to Clara (Hoke) and Oscar Frailey but they were probably christened in the Methodist church of which the father was a member.
 E. Cora Hoke, the second child of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke, married Charles J. Roye. Their marriage is the last record in the first Register of the Lutheran congregation—as follows:

 11. Married—March 22, 1882—Charles J. Roye to E. Cora Hoke—both of Frederick County, Maryland.
 Note: The Rev. E. S. Johnston performed the wedding ceremony.
 On March 21, 1883, a son was born to Charles J. and E. Cora (Hoke) Rowe.
 12. Baptized—Joseph Eugene Rowe—son of Charles J. and E. Cora (Hoke) Rowe—born March 21, 1883—baptized May 27, 1883.
 Note: Joseph Eugene Rowe was a scholar and teacher. He held the degrees of Ph.D. and J.L.D., as evidences from the inscription on his grave marker in Mountainview Cemetery.
 Some nine months after the birth of his son, Charles Jacob Rowe died and was interred in the Elias Lutheran and Reformed churchyard of Emmitsburg.
 12. In memory of Charles Jacob Rowe, born March 19, 1856, died December 24, 1883.
 Note: The death of the young husband and father was recorded in the church records. His widow never remarried although she survived the husband of her youth by some forty-seven years. Her grave is to be found beside his in the old Elias churchyard.
 13. In memory of Cora (Hoke) Rowe, wife of Charles J. Rowe, born 1860, died 1931.
 Helen K. Hoke, the third daughter of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke, never married. She is interred in Mountainview Cemetery—on the plot of her parents. The inscription follows:
 14. In memory of Helen K. Hoke, born 1862, died 1922.

Joseph E. Hoke, the first son and fourth child of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke, is also interred on his parent's plot in Mountainview Cemetery.
 15. In memory of Joseph E. Hoke, born 1863, died 1929.
 Minnie Hoke, the fifth child and fourth daughter of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke, married Dr. James W. Eichelberger, Jr. An account of this marriage was contained in the "Emmitsburg Chronicle" of Friday, May 27, 1892.
 1. "Married, May 25, 1892, in Washington, D. C., by the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Butler, Dr. James W. Eichelberger to Miss Minnie Hoke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hoke, both of Emmitsburg, Maryland. Miss Marion Eichelberger, sister of the groom, and Mr. Joseph E. Hoke, brother of the bride, and Miss Ruth Hoke, sister of the bride, accompanied them to Washington and witnessed the ceremony. After the honeymoon they will make their home in Emmitsburg."
 Note: Dr. James W. Eichelberger was a son of Dr. James W. and Anna M. (Mott) Eichelberger. One child, a son, was born to the second Dr. James W. Eichelberger and his wife. The child was baptized by the pastor of Elias church—
 13. Baptized—Charles Dicks Eichelberger—son of Dr. James W. and Minnie (Hoke) Eichelberger—born May 6, 1893—baptized July 12, 1893.
 The second Dr. James Eichelberger was many years his wife's senior in age. He died in 1913 and was interred in the Eichelberger plot, immediately back of the church chancel in the Elias Lutheran and Reformed burial ground.
 19. In memory of Dr. James W. Eichelberger, born December 5, 1841, died February 23, 1913.
 Minnie (Hoke) Eichelberger outlived both her husband and son. She, too, is interred in the Eichelberger plot in Elias churchyard—but not beside her husband but next to her son. To further confuse future genealogists her name, and the dates of birth and death, are on the tombstone of her son. A hundred years from now more or less, historians and genealogists will tear at their hair in trying to figure this one out.
 The notes pertaining to the Hoke family, and their many intermarriages, will be continued in this series next week.

Scoreboard To Be Dedicated Oct. 20

Saturday, September 22, the football scoreboard at Catoctin High School was installed, representing the culmination of another community effort.
 Many people were involved in this project from its inception to its conclusion. The Boosters Club played a major role in getting the project started. Mr. Julius Bernstein, president, and Mr. Calvin Saylor, vice president, of Claire Frock Company, contributed over $2,500.00 toward the cost of the scoreboard itself. Other people who gave valuable time and money toward installing the scoreboard included Mr. Walter "Chub" Biser of the Biser Electric Co.; Mr. Russell Delauter of W. F. Delauter and Son; Mr. Frank Long, Long Construction Co., and the Thurmont Cooperative.

In addition to these generous people, Mr. Carl Brown, electrical at CHS, Mr. Frank Martin, Claire Frock Co., Mr. Austin Wolf, Mrs. Charles Portner, Mr. Bob Shriner, and many others donated time to the project.
 "It is with great gratitude and indebtedness," said Mr. Harper Long, principal of Catoctin High School, "that we accept this new addition to Catoctin High School, and we extend an invitation to everyone in the community to come to the October 20 Homecoming game and to participate in the dedication of the scoreboard and Homecoming activities."

Mount Honors Rooney, Talley

Arthur J. Rooney, well-known professional sports promoter, and Major Bernard L. Talley, Jr., a former prisoner of war in Vietnam, will both be honored by the National Alumni Association of Mount Saint Mary's College during Homecoming festivities, Oct. 19-21.
 At the annual banquet on Saturday evening, Art Rooney will receive the John DuBois Medal for "Distinguished Public Service."
 Founder, president and owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Rooney has been named a member of the Professional Football Hall of Fame. A horse breeder since 1930, he is also the director of the Pompano Raceway in Florida.
 The citation accompanying the award reads, in part: "Reared in the school of hard knocks, Art Rooney is one of the few universally loved men . . . With all his honesty goes a strong loyalty, admirable dedication, awesome charity and a deep devotion to causes and friends."
 Also receiving an award at the banquet will be Major Talley, who will be honored with the Brute Medal for "service by an alumnus to God and Man."
 Since his graduation from the Mount in 1962, Major Talley has distinguished himself

Byron Seeks Improved Election Laws

Rep. Goodloe Byron announced recently that he has introduced a bill in the House to improve the conduct and regulation of Federal election campaign activities.
 Byron said the proposed measure would establish an independent, six-member Federal Elections Commission with the powers of subpoena and investigation.
 The Speaker of the House, President pro tempore of the Senate and the President would each appoint two Commission members with no more than three members being appointed from the same political party.
 The legislation would also require each candidate to designate one central campaign committee to consolidate the reports of contributions and expenditures made by all of the other candidate's committees. This central committee would act in a liaison function furnishing the reports directly to the election commission.
 "The Commission would have the power to require all candidates to submit reports and answers to questions they may ask including the power to subpoena testimony of witnesses and all documentary evidence relating to an investigation before them," Byron said.

as a fighter pilot in the United States Air Force. His decorations include the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Purple Heart. But it is his conduct as a POW that particularly qualifies him for the Brute Medal.
 As a POW, Major Talley spent more than six years as a source of spiritual strength and comfort to his fellow servicemen. In addition to composing a prayer, which he shared by word of mouth, he volunteered to be chaplain for the men he was imprisoned with. He made himself available for discussions of various religions, delivered a sermon each Sunday, and led the group in prayers and hymn singing.
 Both men will be honored at the annual Alumni banquet Saturday, Oct. 20, at 7 p.m., to be held in the Cogan Union Building on campus.

Communes Instruments Of Destruction

A strategic instrument in Communism's world-wide drive to banish God and destroy the fundamental ethics of the Judaic and Christian religions has from the beginning been the commune. Communists find it necessary of course to destroy all things Godly in order to build the new Godless world. Lenin said: "The revolutionary despises all doctrines. . . the object is perpetually the same: the surest and quickest way of destroying the whole order." This is the mission of the Communist-conceived commune, to destroy the "Old Order."

In Western society the home, the church and the school form the cradle for our fundamental ethics; and the most vital of these institutions, in formulating the behavior of our society, is the home with its traditional family unit. Unless traditional values of religion are taught in the home offsprings shun the church. And without the foundation stones of family-taught ethics, the school betrays its mission of teaching truth.

Tear Up Family

Thus through the commune, the Communists break up the family; they obliterate family ties; children become wards of the State, Godly ethics are banished. Lenin said: "The revolutionary despises and hates the existing social morality in all its manifestations. For him, morality is everything which contributes to the triumph of the revolution. Immoral and criminal is anything which stands in its way." The commune is an instrument used by international Communism to accomplish the breakdown of mankind in the image of God.

Throughout the revolutionary chaos created by the Communist-led youth uprisings on college campuses and in the streets of America, the commune "life style" has been put forward as an ultimate expression of rebellion. Because the commune's permissiveness makes it possible for dweaklings to rationalize immorality and wallow in animalism, if they wish, the organization of such "group marriages" has spread. It is estimated that there are today several thousand communes in America, populated by more than 200,000 people, most of them ranging in age from 15 to 30. It is impossible to estimate the number of these communes influenced by Communist guidance. Not all are. Some assert Christian guidance.

Group Marriage

I've been in communes and on Communist collective farms where the communal "life style" is, by traditional Western standards, immoral. I've seen scores of communes in loft buildings along Telegraph Avenue adjacent the University of California at Berkeley. And I can never forget the narrative report given by Coach Haskell Bowen of San Jose's Campbell-Union High School, who visited a Haight-Asbury commune: "There were four girls and five males—two mattresses on the floor, three sleeping bags. Two of the men were smoking marijuana and one of the girls was 'stoned' on LSD. The girls were entirely free in giving their bodies to one or another of the men."

This may be an extreme expression of communalism as practiced today in several thousand rural and urban "group" communities. Roving Editor Lester Velie of the Reader's Digest wrote in the March issue that in some communes "Group sex" had dissipated its appeal. In a commune in Canyon, California, he reports: "The collectivists had tried valiantly to live the anti-family ideology of the Left. At first, they resisted pairing off as couples. All of them, boys and girls together, bedded down for the night in one room. But this hadn't worked. . . The collectivists made new sleeping arrangements. Two young women paired off with two men and, as mates, were assigned two bedrooms. Two men and one woman shared a third bedroom."

Attracting Youth Generation

One of the most obvious dangers to our society of those thousands of communes which are proudly revolutionary and dedicated to the destruction of "the old order" (which some, admittedly, are not) is pointed out by Mr. Velie: "While relatively small in number, this group of 'communards' nevertheless exerts a considerable influence. For one thing, visits to communes have become a major extracurricular activity for vacationing students, who pour through them yearly to observe the 'acting out' of a way of life which denies the values that hold our society together."

Mr. Velie reports on one commune, in Georgia, which preserves the family unit; which has in its 31 years of existence been able to prosper economically through profit-motive enterprises; and which maintains high moral values. But most communes bidding to attract America's youth generation are, whatever their announced motives and practices, serving the forces seeking the destruction of our American way of life. More on communes next week.

BUSINESS AND THE STOCK MARKET

Controls Now Have Few Friends

By Babson's Reports Inc., Wellesley Hills, Mass., October 18, 1973—When the Administration's two-year-old wage and price controls program first went into operation, many people were hopeful that it would succeed in slowing the inflation already becoming rampant. Many labor leaders were willing to give it an honest try—provided the check-reins on both pay rates and prices were fairly administered—and most top executives were willing to go along if it meant a genuine curb on inflation. Few felt that controls would be immediately and entirely successful, but some action seemed better than none.

Now that two freezes are behind us and Phase 4 is being established in a more or less piecemeal fashion, the disenchantment over the whole system of wage-price controls is spreading rapidly among politicians, businessmen, labor officials, and the general public. Even those once strongly supporting the process as a brake on inflation are becoming convinced that any usefulness it ever had has now been outlived. As if this writing, Phase 4 is still evolving rather fumblingly, and the government is aware of a growing sense of failure.

Trial and Error

The labor-management advisory committee set up by the Administration and consisting of ten outstanding business and labor leaders has already proposed that controls be completely done away with by the end of the year. Nixon aides have been reluctant to give assent to this suggestion and have avoided giving any indication of a definite date for discontinuance of the curbs. They have admitted only that when the time comes the intention is to remove one industry at a time from supervision, until finally all are selectively freed of controls.

But a clamor for termination of wage-price check-reins is now coming from almost all quarters with increasing vehemence. AFL-CIO President Meany has been against controls for quite some time, finding them not only useless but unfair to the unions and their members. The Federation now calls for scrapping of restraints at the earliest possible moment, and most officials at the local level agree.

Civil Air Patrol Offers Rides

Airplane rides will be offered at a nominal cost by the Carroll Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol, on Sunday, October 21, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., at the Clearview Airpark. The airport is located at Oak Tree and Bear Branch Roads, north of Winfield, Carroll County.

The purpose of the plane rides, which will afford persons a fantastic view of autumn's changing scenery in the woodlands of the county, are to acquaint persons with the aerospace world. Proceeds from the fund-raising activity will go towards vehicle and aircraft maintenance, cadet orientation flying, and purchase of new equipment, including communications and ground rescue materials.

The Civil Air Patrol is a non-profit, civilian auxiliary of the United States Air Force, and derives much of their operating capital from fund-raising activities. Raindate for this activity will be Sunday, October 28.

In an unexpected joint misadventure, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers have urged President Nixon to throw out the wage and price controls promptly, all-at-once, without any effort at industry-by-industry phase-out. Top leaders of the two businessmen's organizations declared that a staggered phase-out, sector by sector, would create more problems than it would solve. It would be impossible, it was pointed out, to maintain a practical and equitable wage-price-control machinery with the economy half within and half out of the program of controls.

To do the decontrolling step by step would, they stated, drive buyers and sellers to try to anticipate upcoming decisions and act accordingly, thereby bringing about critical market distortions and creating serious supply inter-terms of union bargaining.

backs that curbs brought about the artificially created shortages, and the damage exertions. Cited were the set-up upon U. S. trade relations with other countries. It is the considered opinion of C of C and NAM officials that to keep the controls in operation means only that such dislocations will increase and become even more intense.

Government Must Weigh Appeal

An interesting feature included in the letter jointly aired by the nation's two most powerful business organizations is the strong support they promise the President if he moves to end the program of wage-price curbs right away. They propose that he employ fiscal measures to fight inflation, such as holding down the federal budget and keeping the nation's supply of money within reasonable bounds. While Nixon is known for his independence, he is surely listening carefully to such strong appeals from so many sources.

Letter To The Editor

In reply to the "Interested Parent" article appearing in the October 11, 1973, issue of the Chronicle.

To Interested Parent and Emmitsburg Community: If you read the issues of this paper, in particular, for the last 2 years, you would have noticed a newly formed group of majorettes, drummers, color guard and banner carriers known as The Dynamics of Emmitsburg, Md. This group consists of boys and girls, ages 5 to 21 years.

to do the following: —Each member including the walking mothers are insured. —All drum and color guard equipment is also insured. —Each child receives a professional baton for his or her use as a member of the group.

on Monday nights from 7 to 9 at Mother Seton School. This school has been very cooperative and the sisters have been very helpful to the group. The group gives a small donation for the use of the school.

This group would love to have a sponsor. Maybe you know or a sponsor for such a youth organization or where one might be obtained. Any such information would be greatly appreciated.

Each child pays a rental of $5.00 yearly for uniforms. A few mothers have donated sewing. Mrs. David Bushman made all corp flags and banners.

We have again asked for donations as the group is barely making ends meet and obtaining the equipment necessary for these children. Let's face it, these children are proud of Emmitsburg and when they march in neighboring towns, they are representing the towns as its members.

The group has a hand full of participating parents that attend the meetings on Thursday nights. (If you or any one else in the community would be interested in setting in on one of these meetings.)

CROP Walk Collects $2,956.60

Nearly 200 persons participated in a ten-mile CROP Walk for the Hungry on Sunday, October 7, submitting monetary pledges from sponsors totaling almost three thousand dollars.

Official figures reveal that 196 walkers joined in the walk, which began at Loys Station Covered Bridge Park and proceeded for ten miles in a circular route ending at the park. Of those who started the course, 164 officially completed the full ten miles.

CROP, the 25-year-old program of Community Response to Overseas Poverty, is sponsored annually by Church World Service. The money collected from sponsors, who paid by the mile for walkers, will be used for immediate emergency aid in one of 30 countries assisted with CROP.

Persons participating in the walk were primarily from the northern Frederick County area—Emmitsburg, Thurmont, Creagerstown, Graceham, Sabillasville, Rocky Ridge—although several came as far as Walkersville, Liberty, Frederick, Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., and Rockville. Walkers included ministers, church school groups, FFA members, Sisters of Charity, parents, and grandparents, in addition to the many grade school, high school and college students.

Children of the street and on their feet with pride. The group has come a long way and it needs support to continue.

A new twelve-week course for in-service day care personnel is under way at Seton Center in Emmitsburg. Each Wednesday, 11 trainees from day care facilities in Frederick, Washington and Carroll counties meet at the Center for a busy day of observation, participation and classroom instruction.

The training sessions are planned and supervised by Sister Grace Calvisi, D.C., who holds an M.S. degree in Early Childhood Education and who has been Program Director at Seton Center for three years. Sister Grace uses lectures, seminars, workshops and films in the training curriculum. In addition, she

Trick Or Treat For UNICEF Oct. 27

The local UNICEF collections will be made Saturday, October 27, with participants meeting in the Parish House of Elias Lutheran Church, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Children will be assigned in groups of 3 or more to canvass the various areas north, south, east and west of the Square, including Emmitt Gardens. Outlying areas will be covered during the daylight hours on Saturday afternoon, October 27, in order to avoid any possible highway mishaps created by children crossing unlighted roads.

UNICEF gives necessary supplies, equipment and training... not dollars. UNICEF contributions become water pipes, pumps, high protein foods, medical supplies and vaccines, blackboards and pencils. Five cents will cure one child of trachoma... twenty-five cents will provide 175 vitamin tablets for children... fifty cents will protect seven children from malaria for a year... one dollar will protect 80 children against tuberculosis. Local residents can participate in UNICEF and its work by making a contribution when the local youngsters ring their doorbell. Children will be carrying orange UNICEF boxes for contributions and will be wearing "SMILE" buttons to properly identify their cause.

NOTICE!
TRICK OR TREAT for UNICEF will take place Saturday, October 27, beginning at 6:00 P.M.
BURGESS and COMMISSIONERS

NOTICE!
NO TRICK OR TREAT
Due to past unfortunate experiences in area towns, there will be no Trick or Treat in Emmitsburg this Halloween.
A Party for the children will be held in the grove adjoining the Rectory after the Parade on Wednesday, October 31.
Cash donations will be gratefully received at the Town Office.
BURGESS and COMMISSIONERS

The main speaker for the day will be Dr. Joan S. Tillotson, a free-lance consultant in movement education, whose lecture topic will be "Basic Goals of Movement Education." Slide presentations and on-the-spot demonstrations showing children from the Center in action, will be interspersed with the lecture and discussion periods. Participants are asked to bring a bag lunch. The workshop will close at 3:30 p.m. Interested parties may obtain further information from Sr. Grace Calvisi at Seton Center, 447-6102, or from Sr. Genevieve Kureth at the Provincial House, 447-2321.

Lutheran Women Host Birthday Party

The LCW of Elias Lutheran Church recently hosted an October birthday party for the guests at the Lutheran Home in Gettysburg. Autumn floral centerpieces were used on the honored guests' tables with each person receiving an individual candy favor. Following a brief program, the local LCW members joined in the birthday celebration by serving refreshments to home residents and staff members. Those attending from Elias Lutheran Church were: Mrs. James Benny, Mrs. Donald Williams, Mrs. Murray Valentine, Mrs. Elizabeth McClear, Miss Beatrice Umbel, Mrs. Annie Chapman, Mrs. Daniel McGarry, Mrs. Earl Sheeley, Mrs. Helen McNair, Mrs. Donald Leatherman, Mrs. Chester Chapman, Miss Vickie Valentine, Miss Brenda Leatherman, Mrs. Charles Linn, Pastor and Mrs. Ronald Fearer, Ronda and Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. James Neeley, and Mrs. Anna Bushman.

Eventual goals are: To establish a museum where articles from Emmitsburg's past can be displayed. The group would like suggestions for a location of such a museum. It would be desirable to have a building with some history attached but not absolutely necessary. To maintain an oral history in the library. To upgrade the history of Emmitsburg. Helman's History was written in 1908. To register all the older homes in the town and outlying area. To eventually have plaques placed on all the older homes in town.

Senior Citizens Enjoy Bus Trip

Tuesday morning, October 16, a group of Senior Citizens gathered at the Square for the fall foliage trip by bus, at 7 o'clock. The first stop was in Cumberland where a visit was made to the Kelly Springfield Tire Co., after which some indulged in shopping and eating lunch. Then a trip through the woods and mountain roads to enjoy the glorious scenery of bright foliage and beautiful vistas spread before the eyes of the travelers. Continuing further to Diff's Rebel Restaurant for dinner in Winchester, Va. An interesting visit was also made to the Celanese Mfg. Co., for which proved to be of great interest and information to all.

Saturday's parade and block party were the best in recent years. We certainly should thank the Firemen for putting on such a good show. I know they will want to thank everyone in town who helped them make the day such a big success.
Local folks who wandered around the area either Saturday or Sunday were greeted by some wonderful sights. Colorfest provides a great opportunity for area residents to show off their accomplishments for the visitors and maybe even make a little money. We should all thank the Tourist Council for a most successful event. Hopefully, they made some money in the process.
Then too, one of the advantages of living in the mountains is that we can enjoy the color every one of these fall days. It is hard to find peak color on one single Sunday picked out the year before, but folks living in the area can keep looking every day until the leaves begin to fall.
