Most Anything At A Glance

- By Abigail -

Some talk I have heard around town sure has taken the town fathers to task for stopping trick or treating for the children. You do have to wonder if the crime wave is so great in Emmitsburg that we have to be afraid to let the young folks on the street in the early evening, especially when the youngest will have their parents lurking in the shadows.

On the other hand I agree with the idea of preventing the older teens from cruising around all evening. Perhaps we could have a happy middle ground which would include limits on the length of time on the street and the ages of the children involved, parental supervision, etc. Some of us older folks will feel a keen sense of disappointment if we don't have a chance to look at the costumes this year and see the excited little faces that show up at the door.

Merchants on the square are to be commended for squaring up their signs. A new coat of paint has done wonders in a couple of cases. Perhaps others will see the value of a fall fix up and follow the leaders.

I don't know much about construction but years of observation has revealed most contractors racing the calendar this time of year to get projects under roof before winter sets in. Progress on the new school takes a wonder if our fellow is used to building in California. He may not know it, but most of us expect snow before too many days pass by and I would guess he won't be raising the roof after it arrives.

This week he has been laying blacktop, probably to beat the frost. Town superintendents looking over my shoulder observe they would be working on the roof instead.

The town fathers deserve a big pat on the back for putting the deal together to buy the Sanders property for a town park. With a little imagination, the Parks and Recreation Department will be able to make a top notch recreational area for all residents of the town. Each of us should tell our boys that we appreciate their efforts.

The Sanders and Owens families deserve our appreciation also for being considerate of future generations and making the property available to the town so that it can be preserved for public use.

The only reaction so far to our comments about the need for more activities for the children are contained in the letters on the curtailment of trick or treating you see in this week's issue. How about it, you clubs. Let's put the old thinking cap on and see if we can't come up with some suggestions on how you can do something for the next generation. After all, what is life all about?

Maybe if you had offered to help, the Mayor would have seen his way clear to let the little ones wander the streets and show off their costumes.

Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour when you retire Saturday night, as Daylight Savings Time ends Sunday morning at 2 o'clock.

Mother Seton School Bazaar

Mother Seton School will hold its annual Bazaar this Saturday from 12 noon until 6 p.m. at the school. There will be games and fun for all, and the usual assortment of good food. Everyone is invited to attend this affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Tokar, Sr., and Christine Tokar, visited in Pittsburgh, Pa., last Sunday.

Children To Canvas Area For UNICEF

The local UNICEF collections will be made this Saturday, October 27, with participants meeting at the Parish House of Elias Lutheran Church at 6:30 p.m. Children, who are encouraged to wear costumes, will be assigned in groups of three or more to canvas the local Emmitsburg area. Outlying districts will be covered during the daylight hours on Saturday afternoon, in order to avoid any possible highway mishaps which might be created by children crossing poorly lighted highways.

UNICEF, more commonly known as the International Children's Emergency Fund, aids children in more than 100 countries by helping to solve problems of health, hunger and education.

All children who are participating in the UNICEF collections will be wearing a SMILE "UNICEF" button and carrying an orange UNICEF box to hold the contributions. At the conclusion of the evening's fund drive, the children will be served refreshments by the LCW of Elias Lutheran Church.

Glee Club Lists Madrigal Dinner

Yuletide in Merrie Olde England will come to Emmitsburg this year when Mount Saint Mary's Glee Club and the Belles of Saint Mary's present their annual Madrigal Dinner in December. Tickets for the event will go on sale November 1.

Steve Brannon and Corrine Lowe as Lord and Lady of the Manor, will lead a cast of 30 students in recreating a sixteenth-century Christmas celebration at the royal palace in England. The dinner and pageant will be held in Flynn Hall on the evenings of December 7 and 8.

Admission is $5.00 for Mount students and $6.50 for general admission. Starting November 1, tickets may be purchased at the Dean of Student's Office in the Student Union. For mail orders, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Dean of Student's Office, ATTN Madrigal Dinner, Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md. 21727.

MSM Hosts 260 High School Seniors

Two hundred sixty high school seniors from six states converged on Mount Saint Mary's on Monday for an all-day "College Open House."

According to Director of Admissions Lawrence J. Riordan, the purpose of the open house was to inform students about the processes involved in applying for admission to a college and for financial aid.

"In addition we wanted to get high school kids on a college campus to give them a general idea of what college life is like," Riordan said.

After a session on admissions and financial aid, the students toured the campus and sat in on classes of their own choosing. In the afternoon they met with representatives from various campus organizations. For discussions on campus lifestyle the women attended sessions with Phebe Hoenstein, Associate Dean of Students, while the men met with Professor Frank Zarnowski of the Business and Athletic Departments and Ronald Valenti, Associate Dean of Students.

"This is the second year we have held an open house, and the turn-out was much larger than expected," said John Gill, Admissions Counselor at the Mount.

Forty-five high schools in Maryland were represented, as well as 17 in Pennsylvania, six in Washington, D. C., five in New Jersey, four in Virginia and three in Delaware. The open house was organized by the Admissions Office and two student co-chairmen, Colleen Hansberry and Joe Letnauchyn.

Little League Game Night Successful

The committee in charge of the Evening of Games sponsored by the Little League of Emmitsburg, is most grateful for the cooperation of the townspeople in supporting the bake sale and games. The event was held on Monday evening and was very successful.

Purchase Of Land For Park Completed

The Town of Emmitsburg completed purchase of a tract of land Monday estimated to be between 56 and 70 acres from Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Owens and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sanders. The tract lies west of Lincoln Avenue extended or the new school property, extending to the Frailey property and runs from South Alley to Tom's Creek. It will be annexed and developed as a town park and used for recreational purposes. Purchase price was $79,500.

Officiating for the town at the closing were Mayor Richard Sprinkle, Treasurer Philip Topper, Commissioner of Parks and Recreation Eugene Myers, Planning Commission Chairman Ernest R. Shriver and Attorney Frederick J. Bower. Donald E. Grempler Realty, Frederick, acted for the sellers.

A grant from the State of Maryland has been made available for 100% funding of this land acquisition because it is going to be used for a park. Federal funds will help to reimburse the state. In addition to the cost of the land, the town will be reimbursed for the appraisal fees, survey cost, and settlement fees. Emmitsburg has made no expenditure in the transaction.

Workshop Helps Teachers Keep Pace

A three day Art Workshop for teachers from Frederick County Schools will be held on October 29, 30, and 31, at Gov. Thomas Johnson High School.

A free educational service provided by Binney & Smith Inc., makers of "Crayola" crayons and other school art supplies, the workshop will be conducted by Mrs. M. J. Root, who has taught extensively and holds a Master's degree from Wayne State University.

The teachers will spend fifteen hours of their own time learning about modern creative art education and some of its materials and tools. They will learn by doing, rolling up their sleeves and trying out the techniques presented by Mrs. Root.

These techniques will include some of the uses of crayons, water colors, poster paints, finger paints, colored chalks, and modeling clay. Simple craft techniques will also be shown, giving teachers an opportunity to work with paper, paste and other materials to gain three-dimensional effects. All of the Art Workshop activities will be experiences which the teachers can relate to their own classroom teaching.

This is a part of the on-going educational program pursued by local art teachers in order to keep pace with new approaches in art and art education so that Frederick County students receive the best possible art instruction.

Carroll H. Kehne, Supervisor of Art for the Board of Education of Frederick County, in cooperation with the Maryland State Department of Education, was responsible for the workshop arrangements.

Unsigned Letter Goes Unprinted

This week the Chronicle received a letter to the editor following up a letter said to be written to Mayor Sprinkle, which was apposed to the policy of no trick or treating on Halloween.

It is not published because of a long standing Chronicle policy that no unsigned letters will be published. Readers are requested to submit signed letters with an address if they want them published. Names will be withheld if requested.

Squires To Sponsor Night Of Games

The Columbian Squires are holding an Evening of Games at St. Euphemia's Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 29, beginning at 7:30. Refreshments will be available at the event. Please help support the youth of today by attending the Squires' Game Night.

Sue Topper To Take Police Training

Thanks to an enterprising senior at Mount Saint Mary's College, the Maryland State Police recently began a program for women in trooper training.

Susan Topper, a history major at the Mount, started the ball rolling when she called the State Police last summer and asked if they were accepting applications from women.

"Since no one else had asked, of course they said 'no,' but they asked me to come out and take the preliminary tests," Susan recalls. "When I did and passed, they weren't quite sure what to do about it."

The result was that the State Police have begun a pilot program which will include approximately five women, who will participate in a six-month training course at the Police Academy in Pikesville beginning in January.

"I've always been interested in law enforcement," Susan says. "Several of my relatives are policemen in Baltimore, and two of my uncles are police chiefs, one in Anne Arundel, and one in Seattle, Washington." Susan is the daughter of Walter A. Topper, formerly of Emmitsburg and now of the Glen Burnie area.

"I was very close to my Uncle John, and he used to reminisce about being on patrol and the things that happened. It all sounded exciting and I wanted to be a part of it."

Until last summer, however, Susan had not considered applying to the State Police. "Until then I didn't think they were anything more than traffic cops," she explains. "When I found out they were involved in investigatory work, I became interested. I also found out that the Maryland State Police have one of the finest training programs in the United States."

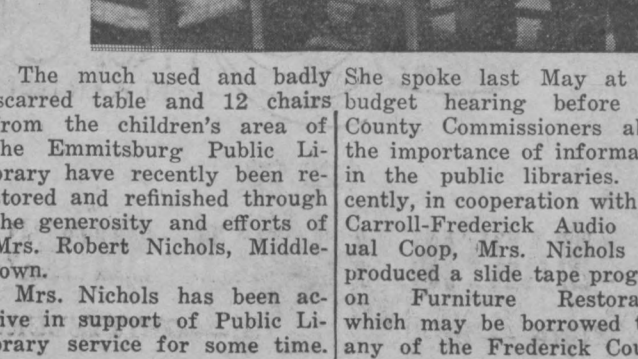

To qualify for the training program beginning in January, Susan and the other candidates have several grueling requirements to satisfy. In addition to the preliminary physical and an interview, they had to pass a written test in September. Following this will be an extensive background investigation, a polygraph test, a psychological test, and an extensive physical fitness test that, among other feats, includes 20 push-ups and sit-ups. Finally, they will undergo an interview by the Board of Review, comprised of the Superintendent of State Police and other senior officers. After completing the six-month training course, the new troopers will be assigned to detective work, criminal investigation and domestic and juvenile problems.

Susan is already getting some law enforcement experience at Mount St. Mary's, where she is the prosecutor in the student court and a proctor in one of the dorms. In addition, she has served on registration committees, the Mid-Atlantic Association Evaluating Committee, is a member of the Education Society and participates in the Big Sister Program. She has recently been named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Last year Susan was campus representative for Glamour Magazine's top ten college girls contest. This semester finds her particularly busy, for she is practice teaching in Gettysburg. In whatever spare time she has, Susan enjoys horseback riding, skiing and playing her 12-string guitar.

Furniture Restored For Use In Emmitsburg Library

The much used and badly scarred table and 12 chairs from the children's area of the Emmitsburg Public Library have recently been restored and refinished through the generosity and efforts of Mrs. Robert Nichols, Middletown.

Knight Of Year Dinner November 3

The annual "Knight of the Year" dinner-dance sponsored by Brute Council 1860, Knights of Columbus, Emmitsburg, will be held on Saturday evening, November 3, at the VFW Annex in Emmitsburg.

A cocktail hour will start the festivities at 6 p.m. At 7 p.m., a roast beef dinner will be served by Savoy of Waynesboro.

Promptly at 9 p.m., dancing will begin to the music of "The Jenkin Sisters", a very versatile group.

All Knights and their ladies and other guests are invited to this affair, which is the only large social sponsored by the Council during the year. Tickets are on sale at the Council Home at $6 each.

Reservations must be made by Sunday, October 28. Chairmen for this year's affair are George Danner and George Arnold.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, Emmitsburg Chronicle:

As a parent of two small children I would like to know why Trick or Treating has been out this year and why only the Town Officials had the say so. Trick or Treating has been going on in Emmitsburg ever since I've been a child twenty some years ago and hard to tell how long before that. This was something taken for granted by all children and parents of these children.

Since it has been a regular town event, why couldn't the people of this town be asked how they felt about it instead of the week before being informed there will be no Trick or Treating.

Could it be that our Town Police are afraid they can't cope with small children on the streets for this? (and most are with their parents) or is it that the older folks can't be bothered once a year to hand out a little 1c piece of candy? All we ever hear is do something for the children. Well, here it is, the same old thing once a year and still no one can be bothered.

If the reason be for so many children getting razor blades in their apples or any other things in their food, that can still happen at the little party after the parade, for no matter how careful we can be, anything can happen anytime or anyplace.

Also, what parents can afford to enter the children in the parade to try to win and then just come home and take the outfit off for another year. Whereas before, the children enjoyed getting dressed up and walking the streets for two hours for only one night a year. It gave them something to look forward to. Who knows, probably next year there won't even be a parade if certain people have their way. Anything to keep the kids out of the way!

An interested parent

CORRECTION

The date of the concert of the Emmitsburg Community Chorus is Sunday afternoon, December 16 instead of December 19 as stated in last week's Chronicle.

Golibart Re-elected Alumni President

Martin T. Golibart, president of M. T. Golibart & Associates, Emmitsburg, was re-elected to a second term as president of the Alumni Association of Mount Saint Mary's College at the annual meeting on Saturday during Homecoming.

Golibart graduated from the Mount in 1957 with a degree in Economics. From 1963 to 1969 he served as the Mount's Director of Development and Alumni Relations. He resigned from the position to form Golibart & Associates, which operates throughout the country in business mergers and acquisitions, buying and selling corporations and real estate holdings.

In 1967 he was honored by being named to "Outstanding Young Men of the South" and in 1968 to "Outstanding Young Men of America." He is a member of the Executive Committee of the National Development Council of Mount Saint Mary's College.

Re-elected to a second term as vice president of the Association was Albert E. Branson, Jr., an alumnus from Washington, D. C. Elected to membership on the Executive Committee were the Rev. James T. Delaney, chaplain at Mount Saint Mary's, and James P. Courtney, an attorney from Toms River, N. J.

The keynote speaker at the meeting was Dr. John J. Dillon, president of the college, who emphasized the changes taking place, particularly the long-range plans which include a new Academic Center and improvements in the Seminary facilities. The alumni were urged to participate in Achievement II, the capital campaign the Mount is undertaking to raise funds for the pending projects. As a kickoff for the campaign, a ground-breaking ceremony was held on the site of the new classroom building on Saturday prior to the Alumni meeting.

Lunch Program Is Available At MSS

The Mother Seton School is participating in the National School Lunch Program and serves well-balanced and nutritious lunches. Free or reduced price lunches are available to children who are unable to pay the full price. The income scale is used to determine which children are eligible to receive free or reduced price lunches.

Families with income greater than the maximum allowed but have unusually high medical bills, shelter costs in excess of 30 per cent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, or disaster or casualty losses may be eligible.

They may apply by completing the application form sent home with a letter to parents. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. Additional copies are available at the school office. In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has such children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals for them they should contact the school.

The policy concerning free or reduced price lunches is available at the school for review.

Servicemen on active duty will be briefed on veterans benefits by military, rather than VA counselors, under a VA - Department of Defense agreement effective July 1.

SPOOK PARADE LISTED FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY

The annual spook and goblin parade will be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 31, it has been announced by officials of American Legion Post 121, Emmitsburg.

All local kiddies, and adults too, who want to be participants in the big parade, are asked to assemble at the Doughboy monument in West End at 6:00 p.m., to obtain numbers which will be used to identify the participants, should they be among the winners.

The parade march-off time has been established at 7:00 p.m. Leading the promenade will be the American Legion Color Guard, police cars, the Dynamic Majorettes, the local fire company, participants and floats on hand.

The affair is sponsored annually by the Francis X. Elder Post 121 American Legion. In addition to refreshments served on the St. Joseph's rectory grounds, a Halloween Party will be held for the town children in St. Joseph's Grove following the parade as a replacement for trick or treating of past years.

The line of march will take the parade directly from the Doughboy, through the square, down East Main Street to Federal Avenue, up De Paul St., to the rectory grounds. The judges will review the parade at the square. All prize winners are asked to pick up their prizes at the rectory grounds.

Prizes to be awarded this year are: Funniest costume, $10, $5, $3; best looking costume, $10, $5, $3; best decorated bicycle, wagon or tricycle, $10, $5, $3. Two mystery prizes of $5 will be given.

Town officials have announced that no Tricking or Treating by the youngsters will be permitted this year. This activity is being replaced by the Halloween Party.

Mount Accepted In Business Group

Dr. Raymond Lauer, Chairman of the business department at Mount Saint Mary's College, presented the college's credentials to the Middle Atlantic Association of Colleges of Business Administration during the annual meeting at New York University October 11-12.

The credentials verified that Mount Saint Mary's satisfies the standards for membership as established by the Association. At the meeting the college was duly elected to membership in the organization.

Other institutions admitted for membership during the meeting were Alfred University, Clarion State College, Inter-American University of Puerto Rico, Robert Morris College, State University of New York at Binghamton and University College of Rutgers University.

Dynamics Parents To Meet Nov. 7

A meeting of the parents of the Dynamics will be held on November 7 at Mother Seton School beginning at 7 o'clock. All parents are asked to attend. The Dynamics will be giving away a co. try ham on November 17. Members of the group may be contacted for information about the drawing.

Those belonging to the Color Guard and Drummers sections are to be at practice on Monday evening, October 29. On October 30, the Dynamics will participate in the Halloween parade in Gettysburg. Line-up will be at 6:30 p.m.

Cadet Movie To Be Shown On Monday

The second picture of the "Favorite Film Series" will be shown at Seton Center on Monday, October 29, at 7:30 p.m. "Long Gray Line", in color, is the heart-warming story of a pugnacious Irish immigrant who shaped into men the generations of cadets which have brought fame to West Point. Tyrone Power and Maureen O'Hara are at their best in this A-1 picture.

First Health Congress Attended By Over One Hundred At Provincial House Here

The first Health Congress of the Southeast Province of the Daughters of Charity was held at St. Joseph's Provincial House, Emmitsburg, October 19-20. The mood among the 115 Sisters who gathered was serious yet buoyant. To them the inalienable "right to life" guaranteed by the Constitution is indeed a self-evident truth. Facing daily pressure from the "new morality," they seemed glad to come together for a mutual reaffirmation of the Christian and patriotic principles which guide their delivery of care.

Keynote speaker, Reverend Monsignor James T. McDonough, President of the Catholic Hospital Association and Director of Catholic Social Services for the Philadelphia

Archdiocese, sounded a call to personalized, compassionate service despite "tumult, tempest, thunder and flooding waters." (The Church in Our Day, U. S. Catholic Bishops, 1968.)

Addressing himself to the issues of sterilization, abortion and euthanasia, Monsignor pointed out that every life is valuable because it is called into being and is loved by God. He asked his listeners to "shine forth, beacons to the world, upholding the message of life."

Acknowledging that many day-to-day difficulties harass hospital administrators, nurses and staff, Monsignor McDonough stressed the opportunities for personal sanctity within the ministry of healing. He emphasized, too, that a Christian community can be built if all workers in a hospital see themselves as contributing to a comprehensive health facility rather than as isolated professional functionaries.

The opening session of the Congress at which Monsignor McDonough spoke, was presided over by Sister Mary Clare Hughes, Coordinator of the Health Apostolate for the Emmitsburg Province and honorary Chairman of the Health Congress. Very Reverend Charles J. O'Connor, C.M., spiritual Director of the Province, gave the invocation, calling upon God to renew in all present their dedication to His service in the person of the sick neighbor, "our fellow-member of the Mystical Body of Your Son."

Sister Eleanor McNabb, provincial superior, welcomed the participants who came from Sacred Heart Hospital, Pensacola, Florida; St. Vincent's Medical Center, Jacksonville, Fla.; Sacred Heart Hospital, Cumberland, Md.; DePaul Hospital, Norfolk, Va.; St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore; Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C.; Good Samaritan Hospital, Baltimore; United States Soldiers' Home Hospital, Washington, D. C.; Jenkins Memorial Hospital, Baltimore; Villa St. Michael, Emmitsburg; Immaculate Conception Parish House, Baltimore; St. Vincent's Infant Home, Timonium; Villa St. Louise, Timonium; St. Francis Family Services, Staunton, Va.; Miraculous Medal House, Greensboro, N. C.; and Catholic Charities, Raleigh, N. C.

Sister Administrators discussed together the "Development of our Legal Personality," with Sister Margaret James Hussey as Moderator.

Sister Visitors heard Reverend Edward F. McQuillon, C.M., Director of Pastoral Ministry at Providence Hospital, Washington, speak on the role of Sisters who visit the sick, according to the mind of St. Vincent. Sister Agatha Cadogan moderated the session.

Sister Nurses were involved in "Exploring the Truths Taught by St. Vincent," with Sister DeSales Wisniewski and Sister Mary Patricia Winters coordinating the session.

Sisters in departmental administration were addressed by the Reverend Gerard Mahoney, C.M., on "The Apostolic Role of the Daughters of Charity in the Health Field." This workshop was moderated by Sister Bernadette O'Brien.

Eugene F. Diamond, M.D., spoke to the afternoon general session on "Every Infant's Right To Be Born." Doctor Diamond, a leader in Birthright's fight against abortion, is professor of pediatrics, Stritch School of Medicine, Loyola University, Chicago. Emphasizing the sacredness of life from the first moment of existence Doctor Diamond outlined the roles of mother, father, doctor and fetus.

Reverend Robert J. Canby, Director of Hospitals for the Archdiocese of Hartford, shared the afternoon panel and discussed "Man's Right To Die With Dignity." Father Canny warned against the medical tendency to prolong life after the death process has become irreversible, and urged more attention to the patient's need for support and understanding during the experience of death.

The evening general session, chaired by Sister Constantia Clark, Supervisor of Nursing at the United States Soldiers' Home Hospital, concentrated on "Sharing Our Uniqueness". The setting was the All Purpose Room where displays highlighting the work of each facility were on view. According to their areas of special interest, Congress members exchanged experiences and views on patient education and community-wide programs.

Saturday morning, the Congress held a round of workshops. Sisters in Departmental Administration heard Doctor John C. Lang, a management consultant, speak on "Effective Person To Person Communication." Doctor Lang was introduced by Sister Marcella Reddy.

Sister Nurses were addressed by the Reverend Joseph I. Dirvin, C.M., whose topic was "St. Vincent's Original Concept of Charity in the Health Field." Father Dirvin, Vice President for University Relations at St. John's University, Jamaica, N. Y., pointed out the relevancy of the saint's teachings to the Sisters' mission today. Sister Mary Ellen Rider coordinated the session with Sister Eileen Davis serving as moderator.

Sister Genevieve Kureth, Councillor for Social Services, met with the Sister Visitors to discuss "Concern Through Communication." The accompanying slide presentation was arranged by Sister Grace Calvisi and Sister Martha Malloy and Sister Mary Ann Lewis were moderators.

In a meeting, with Sister

Rosa Daley presiding, the Sister Administrators directed their attention to the philosophy underlying their commitment to health care. They examined in depth whether developing policies and protocol are consonant with Church and Community principles.

James R. Casey addressed the general session on Saturday morning, giving consideration to relations between the Sisters and their lay co-workers. Mr. Casey, a senior consultant with Don Rowe Associates, advised his listeners on ways to improve employer-employee intercommunications. He suggested that small "rap" or "speak-up" sessions and administrative interviews are effective tools to keep open the two-way street between management and labor, but only a sincere adherence to Christ's law, "Love your neighbor as yourself" can produce the ideal relationship.

Group Visits At Senior Citizens Center

Friday afternoon, October 19 was a gay time for a while at the Senior Citizens Center, when a bus load of about 40 guests arrived from Montevideo on their way to a town around these parts to enjoy the scenery and beautiful fall weather. The visitors were entertained with coffee and doughnuts and all enjoyed a friendly visit with the members of the club. The group then traveled on to the two colleges and Provincial House and vicinity.

This event is an annual affair enjoyed by both the group, and Senior Citizens members.

The regular semi-annual Bazaar presented by the Emmitsburg Senior Citizens is in the offing—opening at 10 a.m. Saturday, November 10. Everyone interested in Christmas gifts, home made goodies, or white elephants, come take a look and invest.

Chemical Society Honors Mount

The campus chapter of the American Chemical Society at Mount Saint Mary's College has been selected for special commendation by the Society's Council Committee on Chemical Education.

Only 31 out of 579 chapters have been so honored for the 1972-73 academic year. The Society honors those chapters which have compiled outstanding records during the year. In announcing the selection, chairman of the committee, Dr. Patricia A. Figueras, said, "The students and their advisor, Prof. James J. Thomas, have set an enviable example for others to follow. The American Chemical Society is pleased to be associated with the Mount Saint Mary's College Chapter."

President of the College, Dr. John J. Dillon, Jr., commended Prof. Thomas, saying, "I am delighted that you and the students continue to set the high standard of excellence for similar campus organizations."

The American Chemical Society helps students interested in chemistry develop attitudes of professionalism. Student chapters may be organized at institutions granting degrees in chemistry or chemical engineering.

The Veterans Administration can advance up to $250 in extra allowances to selected veterans receiving education assistance under its programs.

In memory of Charles D.
Eichelberger, born May 6,
1893, died February 6, 1938.
Sarah Minnie Eichelberger,
born January 12, 1868, died
January 3, 1942.
Note: Charles Dicks Eichelberger was the only child
born to the marriage of Dr.
James W. and Minnie (Hoke) Eichelberger. He died some four years before his mother.
Mother and son are buried side by side and their names appear on the same grave marker. The husband and father is interred in the same row of graves but the three are separated by the graves of Lewis Motter and wife, Anan M. Eichelberger Rowe,
Mary Belle Rowe, Eugene L.
Rowe, Mary E. Eichelberger
Ehrehart, and Mother and Columbia M. Eichelberger. The second Dr. James W. Eichelberger was born December 5,
1841 and died February 23,

1913.
Regarding the other children of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke—
4. Charles Rowe Hoke married Sarah Miller.
Note: Was a marble cutter
and owned a "tombstone works" in Emmitsburg. The small white marble cross that surmounts the parish house door of Elias Church was the work and the gift of Charles Hoke.
Charles Rowe Hoke is interred in Mountainview Cemetery. The inscription from the marker at his grave is as follows:
17. In memory of Charles
Rowe Hoke, born 1865, died 1934.
5. Joseph Hoke — died unmarried. Kept store in Emmitsburg, as did his father.
Buried in the family plot in
Mountainview Cemetery—
18. In memory of Joseph E.
Hoke, born 1863, died 1927.
6. Helen H. Hoke—died unmarried. Was a milliner by trade. Buried in the family plot in Mountainview Cemetery.

19. In memory of Helen H.
Hoke, born 1862, died 1922.
7. Elizabeth Hoke—known as "Bess"—died unmarried.
Worked in the store of her brother, Joseph Hoke. Buried in the family plot in Mountainview Cemetery.
20. In memory of Elizabeth Hoke, born 1874, died 1955.
8. Ruth Hoke, the youngest child of Peter and Frances Ann (Rowe) Hoke, married
Dr. Jay Ellis Musselman, a dentist, who first practiced in Fairfield, Pennsylvania, but later moved to Gettysburg.
Dr. and Mrs. Musselman are interred in the "new" section of the Evergreen Cemetery at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.
The marriage of the daughter of Peter Hoke and Dr.
Musselman is recorded in Record No. 2 of Elias church—
as follows:
14. Married—November 4,
1903—by the Rev. Dr. Charles Reinewald—J. Ellis Mussel-man, of Fairfield, Pennsylvania, to Miss Ruth Hoke, of Emmitsburg, Maryland.

Note: There were no children born to Dr. Musselman and his wife.
Peter Hoke was a member of the Reformed church while his wife, Frances Ann Rowe, was a communicant of Elias Lutheran church. Some of the children born to the marriage became members of their fathers'
denomination while others adhered to the mother's. All well and good for the entire clan practiced in their lives
"what they believed in their hearts."
When Frances Ann (Rowe)
Hoke died in 1903 the Rev.
Dr. Reinewald had charge of the services. He recorded the event in the church records:
15. Buried — Franceanna
Hoke—died November 5, 1903
—aged 68 years—burial in Mountainview Cemetery.
Having dealt with Peter Hoke and his immediate family a look into Peter's background is in order. According to a fairly reliable tradition,
Peter was the son of a Michael Hoke and the family came into Maryland, from York County, Pennsylvania, with the Monocacy settlers.
It is known for a fact that
Peter Hoke had a brother,
Michael Hoke, who married

Savings And Loans In Another Crunch

By Babson's Reports Inc., Wellesley Hills, Mass., October 25, 1973—Until recently interest rates had been climbing steadily with many short-term rates at record highs. In the past this scenario has spelled trouble for the savings and loan associations. Since the maximum rates these institutions (along with commercial banks and savings banks) can pay on savings are set by federal regulatory agencies, the S&L find it difficult to compete for new savings during periods when yields are extraordinarily high.

This is what happened in the "credit crunch of 1966, and again in 1969 and 1970. The impact on the savings and loan industry was dramatic in both instances. For example, deposit growth dropped sharply in both periods while the withdrawal ratios were sharply higher. As a result, mortgage money not only became more expensive but in some cases was practically unobtainable. As far as earnings were concerned, most publicly held S&L holding companies reported lower results in both 1966 and 1970, and in some cases deficit results were recorded.

Some Important Differences

The savings and loan industry was somewhat better positioned to withstand the onslaught of high interest rates this year than in the past. First of all, many S&Ls were less dependent on so-called "hot money" or out-of-state deposits which tend to be more sensitive to changes in interest rates than do local savings. Another important difference was that the S&Ls this year had a much larger percentage of their savings in certificates and special accounts rather than in regular passbook accounts. In a sense, this represented "locked in" funds since the depositor would have to pay a penalty if he withdrew them before the maturity date. Still another factor was that the S&Ls had considerable leeway to borrow from the Federal Home Loan Bank.

Squeezed Again

Despite these advantages and moves by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board to help ward off another crunch, the S&Ls could not escape the competition of super-high interest rates unscathed. Consequently, disintermediation, the process whereby funds flow out of the savings institutions in search of higher yields, again became a reality. Thus, in July of this year, the S&Ls experienced a $291-million outflow and the August total reached $1.21 billion. While the latter figure was not a record, it was the third largest ever. The savings outflow, along with higher interest expense, resulted in higher mortgage rates and a shortage of lendable funds.

Is The Worst Over?

In recent weeks interest rates, especially those in the short-term sector, have declined rather sharply. While this downward move was partly due to a less restrictive monetary policy on the part of the Federal Reserve, it also reflected an optimistic attitude on the part of many professional money men that a major shift in the policy of the Fed was in the making. This assessment, it appears, was premature, since just recently Federal Reserve Chairman Burns indicated that a further loosening of the credit reins was no likely. At the same time monetary officials expressed doubt about any quick victory in the move against inflation. Therefore, we do not expect interest rates to drop much if any further over the near term. In fact, they could move upward again as the year-end approaches reflecting seasonal demands for money.

The August outflow may have been the worst that will be seen in the current crunch, but we do not expect a strong inflow of savings into the S&Ls over the near term. The result will be that most institutions will undoubtedly remain strapped for funds through the end of this year and at least into the first quarter of 1974. While the Research Department of Babson's Reports is currently advising clients to retain their S&L holdings, it is felt that new purchases should not be made until the outlook indicates a definite downtrend in interest rates.

Darcey Joins Hereford Group

Frank B. Darcey, Jr., Sprng Bottom Farm, Fairfield, has become a new member of the American Polled Hereford Association, according to an announcement from the beef breed Association's National Headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.

Some 2,600 cattlemen have joined the American Polled Hereford Association in the past year, more than reported by any other association. There are more than 100,000 owners and breeders of Polled Herefords in the U. S. The naturally hornless Polled Herefords are the only major breed of livestock to originate in the United States, starting with 11 head in 1901.

Mount Students In Who's Who

For the first time in 165 years female students are among the 22 Mount Saint Mary's College seniors who have been chosen to appear in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." This is the Mount's second year as a coed institution.

Academic Dean Bernard S. Kaliss said that the seniors were chosen on the basis of academic achievement, community service, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and future potential. The three coeds selected for 'Who's Who' are Mary M. Berens of Hoverton, Pa.; Eileen F. McAlarmon of North Wildwood, N. J.; and Susan V. Topper of Glen Burnie, Md.

Others named were: Paul F. Cantwell of Ardmore, Pa.; Michael J. Eugenio of E. Greenwich, R. I.; Joseph A. Folks of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Gary B. Fry of Wilmington, Del.; Walter H. Gardner of Rockville, Md.; Thomas J. Craham of Carney's Point, N. J.; Charles C. Hultberg Jr. of Wilmington, Del.; John L. Jaffee of Lutherville, Md.; Frank C. Kruppenbacher of Yonkers, N. Pets And Sports Keep Student Busy

Barry Stebbins, a runner-up in the National AAU Junior Championships, entered Mount Saint Mary's College this year as a freshman, bringing with him an outstanding track record: a long, three-footed lizard.

In talking to Barry, it is difficult to tell which is his first love, athletics or exotic pets, but it is certain that when he plays, he plays to win. Last year for Oley Valley High School in Reading, Pa., Barry long jumped 24' 3 3/4", one of the nation's best jumps at the time. According to Mount track coach, Jim Deegan, Barry's high school statistics qualified him for the Golden West Invitational held in Sacramento, Calif., in June, where he placed third in the long jump (23' 6").

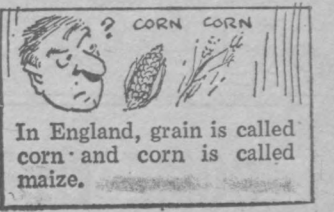

One week later, Barry entered the Junior National AAU Decathlon championships in Forterville, Calif., where he became the number-one high school decathlete in the United States. The Mount's assistant track coach, Frank Zarnowski, announced the meet in Portland. Barry finished second.

While veterans with non-service-connected disabilities are eligible for VA hospital treatment on a bed available basis, beds are always available to veterans with service-connected disabilities.

Mount Leaders Named To Board

Two administrators of Mount Saint Mary's College have been chosen to serve on a commission for the American College Personnel Association. George R. Gelles, Dean of Students, and Michael H. Scheerer, Director of Counseling Services, will serve on Commission III, Student Residence Programs. The commission will gather information in the field of educational programs within college residence halls.

Mr. Gelles is chairman of the Mount's Legislative Board of Review, director of the Student Union, director of Security, and a member of the Cultural Events Committee, the Athletic Council and the Food Committee. He is also a member of the Eastern Association of College Deans and has been active in the Democratic Central Committee, the Elks, the American Legion, and the Knights of Columbus.

VFW Auxiliary Discusses Blood Program

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to VFW Post 6658, was held recently with 24 members present. President Judith Larsen presided.

Official communications were read as well as a thank-you note from Helen Sanders.

Ruth Joy and Patricia Troxell were submitted for membership and voted into the organization.

The minutes were approved as read. Various committee reports were given. The possibility of a New Year's Dance or Valentine's Dance, was discussed.

President Larsen gave a brief resume on the Fall Conference held at the Baltimore Hilton September 29 and 30; and also the March of Dimes Kick-Off Dinner.

A discussion was held concerning the possibility of auxiliary members starting a blood donation service thru the Annie Warner Hospital. This was scheduled for the next meeting but has been postponed until after the first of the year.

The treasurer's report was then given. Bertha Sanders' name was drawn for the door prize but was not present. Refreshments were served by Dolores Ray and Kay Britt. Next month's refreshments will be by Cecilia Hobbs and Betty Wivell.

Board Hears About Repairs At Meeting

The Board of Trustees of the Emmitsburg Public Library held its regular meeting recently in the Library. Those present were: Mr. Holmes, Mr. Kaliss, Mr. White, Miss Shuff, Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Chalos and Mrs. Warthen, the Librarian. Miss Reynolds of the Frederike County Library, was a guest.

Mr. Holmes, the chairman, presided at the meeting. He welcomed Miss Reynolds. The minutes of the May meeting were read and approved. The treasurer, Mr. Kaliss, gave his report. The report was approved and accepted.

Mr. Holmes called the members' attention to the paint job which had just been completed. All members expressed approval of the improvement. A vacuum cleaner has been purchased and Mrs. Warthen was authorized to dispose of the old one. Two window air conditioners have been purchased and installed since the last meeting. Those who are in the library often and for long periods of time, expressed appreciation for this improvement. Mrs. Carr reported that the committee is working on the window decor. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carr, was asked to write thank-you letters to Mrs. Elizabeth B. Nichols for her work in refinishing the children's library furniture, and to Mrs. Olive Ingalls for her donation of furniture pieces for this furniture.

Under new business, Mr. Holmes brought up the need for some place for storage for such things as the car, the extra shelves, etc. It was suggested that perhaps Mr. Jack Kaiser would store them at his place.

Mrs. Warthen reported that something is wrong with the movie projector. She was authorized to look after having it repaired.

Mrs. Bea Keilholtz will take care of the library window display for Colorfest weekend. It was announced that the Emmitsburg Public Library Board will meet in the Emmitsburg Library in November.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:19 p.m. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, November 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Most shooters have found that a mirror is not entirely satisfactory to use when examining the interior of a shotgun or rifle barrel. A better method is to use ordinary household aluminum foil. It has a duller surface than a mirror and reflects just enough light into the barrel to discover fouling or corrosion without eye discomfort.

FCC Offers Many Fall Courses

"Gardening for the Beginner" is the title of a new 6-session course being offered by Frederick Community College, scheduled to start Tuesday, October 30 at 8 p.m.

The course is especially designed for the new gardener who hopes to supplement the food budget with either a farming plot located on the FCC campus or a garden plot located at home. The course takes up the preparations to be done for the 1974 growing season.

Class discussion will include selection and preparation of a garden site, planting and maintaining the new garden and specialized gardens for those who live in apartment's or have small city lots. Organic growing methods will be stressed throughout and class participation and discussion will be encouraged.

With current interest in food prices, the gardening course is expected to be a popular one at Fredrick Community College. The college has set aside 5.2 acres of land to be divided into at least 99 gardening plots for the course.

Some other courses scheduled at the college include: Real Estate Brokerage, Unit A, which is a 13-week course beginning October 29 at 7 p.m. The course is designed to fulfill the educational requirements of the Maryland Real Estate Commission.

A 12-week course in Dance-A-Sizing also begins October 29 at 8 p.m. and is an exercise class for those who wish to loose weight by dancing. Beginning and Intermediate Gymnastics for Girls Age 10-17 will begin at 7 p.m., Monday, October 29.

A 10-session course in Tang Soo Do Karate begins Tuesday, October 30 at 7:30 p.m. For girls 10-17, Advanced Gymnastics is being offered over a period of six weeks beginning Wednesday, October 31 at 7 p.m. Also on Wednesday, October 31 at 7 p.m. Also on Wednesday, October 31, beginning at 7:30 p.m., a one-session class entitled: "Less Meat Meals," is scheduled. The class will discuss how meals can be served that will assure families of receiving 60 grams of needed protein a day by using less meat and alternates to meat.

Chairman Named At SJHS PTA Meet

The regular meeting of the Saint Joseph's High School PTA was held on October 9 in the school gymnasium. New parents were welcomed, and faculty and PTA officers introduced.

Committee chairmen for the year were announced as follows: Membership, Mrs. John Devlin; Program, J. D. Broussard; Refreshments, Mrs. Richard Wooley; Athletics, Mrs. Loretta Adelsberger; Bazaar, Mrs. Michael Cuseo. The bazaar date was set for Mar. 9, 1974.

Sister Anna Mae talked of the Right to Life movement; Seminarian Mr. William Dinga discussed the school's religious program, and Mr. Robert Custer spoke of the goals

Catoctin Holds Open House

Approximately sixty parents, teachers and students attended the Open House and PTSA meeting at Catoctin High School Tuesday, Oct. 9.

The new officers were installed by Kenneth Fields, former president of the County Council of PTA's, and the budget was approved and accepted.

Following the business meeting, presided over by Frankie Fields, president, Mr.

of the athletic department and urged parents to encourage their teenagers to participate in the various sports.

Principal, Sister Elaine, explained to the parents the new 6-day cycle, Academic Day, resource centers, and the fact that 39 different courses are being offered to the students this year.

Following the business meeting, Sr. Elaine led the assembled parents in a "Community of Faith" instruction-discussion program. A social with refreshments concluded the evening.

lunch periods were being tried because state law says that teachers must have a thirty minute lunch period.

Great interest was shown during the question-answer period to the Project-answer committee and to "year 'round school," as being studied now by Board officials.

Bill Mackenzie, vice president, was appointed to chair the new Project committee, and members were told that later in the school year one of the PTSA's programs may be devoted to year 'round school.

Mr. Long urged all parents to attend the November meeting where the new report card system being used in the County this fall, will be explained in detail.
