SERVING THE WONDERFUL PEOPLE OF THE CATOCTIN MOUNTAINS

EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE, EMMITSBURG, MARYLAND, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1974

Most Anything At A Glance

- By Abigail -

As another month draws to a close, one of the biggest problems facing people in almost every part of the country has been the end-of-the-month fuel crunch. Most gasoline stations around here have been closing early — if they are able to open at all, limiting purchases, and spending most of their business hours serving long lines of hopeful motorists. Some of the gas pumps in and around Emmitsburg have been sitting idle for almost two weeks.

The shortage of fuel — or the refusal of oil companies to deliver it — is not the only problem for motorists. There is more bad news ahead: fuel price hikes within the next few days. The Federal Energy Office gave service station operators permission to raise prices by two cents a gallon last weekend. Then, on Monday, the government allowed another penny-a-gallon boost in the wholesale price, effective March 1.

The solution to the "energy crunch" may be, as some local people have suggested, to let the oil companies raise their prices so they will release more fuel to the dealers. However, if a serious shortage does, in fact, exist, price boosts would not seem to be a logical answer.

We can all be greatly relieved by President Nixon's demotion of the fuel shortage from a "crisis" to a "problem." While long lines at service stations grow longer, and more and more people experience what it is like to be without enough gasoline to drive to the store, our government officials have determined that the situation is not as serious as it used to be.

There wasn't any shortage of energy for local youth when almost 100 of them turned out for the rally last Thursday at St. Joseph's High School. I understand they came up with a lot of good suggestions and exhibited the enthusiasm necessary to get a youth center going. Some older folks even attended the rally to show their support and offer assistance to the program. This is the sort of interest that a community project should generate. Keep up the good work, kids. Any of you adults who would like to give a helping hand should get more involved. The town council and the parks board are doing a good job promoting this project; I am sure they will be delighted to hear from you.

Unfortunately, there are some kids who have to spoil a good thing for the rest of the community youth. I understand that the youth center at the elementary school has been closed down due to the actions of some irresponsible children. Pulling fire alarms and stealing things are not ways of showing adults that you appreciate what they are doing for you. On the other hand, closing the center — whether temporarily or otherwise — for all youth does not seem to be the answer to such a problem. Those involved should be punished in some way, but the entire group of young people who enjoy the activities should not have to suffer.

Dynamics Plan Dance For Adults

Members of the Dynamics Majorette Group will not have their usual Monday evening practice on March 4. All members of the Dynamics are asked to bring their uniforms in to practice on March 11. A dance for adults will be sponsored by the Dynamics at the VFW Annex on March 23 from 8:30 to 12:30. Tickets will be $7 per couple with beverages being furnished. The County Cut-Up band will provide music. Tickets can be purchased from any parents of the Dynamics.

Legion Robbed Over Weekend

Thieves broke into the Francis X. Elder Post 121 of the American Legion, sometime between 1 and 7 a.m. Sunday, February 24, and took the safe and an amount of money from two machines.

According to Officer James Fuss of the Emmitsburg Police Department, the persons gained entry by forcing open a rear window and breaking through an inside door.

Money was taken from the cigarette machine and the juke box, and the safe, weighing over 500 pounds, was taken from the building.

The safe was recovered near Emmitsburg later the same day by a farmer, according to Fuss, and Maryland State Crime Lab experts were called in to examine it.

Details concerning the contents of the safe, which was found open, were not available.

Couple Graduate At Michigan State

During the recent fall commencement exercises at Michigan State University, Katherine Sprandel and her husband, Dennis, both received their Ph.D. degrees. Ms. Sprandel's doctorate is in English; Mr. Sprandel's is in Administration and Higher Education.

Katherine Sprandel is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Richards, Emmitsburg. Ms. Sprandel took her B.A. at Western Maryland College, her master's degree at Michigan State, and taught two years at Governor Thomas Johnson High School. She is presently on the English faculty at State University.

Dennis Sprandel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sprandel, Little Falls, Minnesota. He took his B.A. at Albion College and his master's degree at the University of Arizona where he was a graduate assistant. Before pursuing his Ph.D., Dr. Sprandel taught for two years at Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg.

The Sprandels are living in East Lansing, Michigan.

St. Joseph's Team Ready For Tourney

Co-Captains Richie Williams and Steve Myers will lead the St. Joseph's High Basketball Team this weekend in the First Annual Hagerstown Invitation Tournament.

Joe's has drawn Harrisburg Academy for its first round opponent on Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The Tourney will open Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. with strong host school, St. James, playing Heritage Academy of Baltimore. Tourney favorite, Severn School of Washington, will follow playing Prospect Hall of Frederick. The fourth game of the day will pit arch rival St. Maria Goretti against visiting St. Peter and Paul High School of Eastern Shore, Maryland.

Winning teams on Friday will advance to the semi-finals on Saturday night, with the losing teams advancing to the Consolation round on Saturday afternoon, thus all teams are assured of two games.

St. Joseph's last tournament action earlier in the year was a Christmas tourney in Baltimore, where the local forces advanced to the final round and lost. Key win in that tourney was a 38-35 victory over Severn of Washington, the current favorite in the upcoming tournament. The Mighty Mites of Emmitsburg are hopeful of doing as well or better than they did in December because of being tournament tested. Spectator buses will depart from the local school on Friday at 5:30 p.m.

Apostolic Delegate Visits MSM Seminary

Archbishop Jean Jadot, apostolic delegate to the United States, poses in front of the Seminary during his visit to Mount Saint Mary's recently.

A priest in the Diocese of Malines-Brussels in Belgium, he served for a while as chaplain in his country's armed forces in the Belgium Congo and later was appointed apostolic delegate, first to Thailand, then to Cameroon, and finally to the United States.

Interested in the preparation of young men for the priesthood, the Archbishop traveled to the Mount where he served as principal celebrant at the liturgy for the Seminary community. During his overnight stay he had an opportunity to converse with the seminarians and priests both at dinner and at a special reception later in the evening. Archbishop Jadot was in Emmitsburg earlier this year for the opening celebration of the Bicentennial Year of Blessed Elizabeth Ann Seton.

Lenten Services Listed For Area

The Emmitsburg Council of Churches has announced the ecumenical Lenten schedules for the Parish. Besides the disciplines of each individual congregation, parishioners are encouraged to participate in two cooperative programs.

The first is that on five successive Sunday evenings, beginning with the first Sunday in Lent (March 3), an exciting series of challenging films will be shown in the cafeteria of St. Joseph's High School. Beginning at 8:15 p.m., each film-and-discussion session will follow a 7:30 Lenten Service in St. Joseph's Church. The Services will consist of the Stations of the Cross and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The films in the series, and the dates of presentation, are as follows:

Sunday, March 3—"The Sermon on the Mount", a 19 minute color film presenting the Kingdom of God in the world.

Sunday, March 10—"Beginning Now" (5 minutes) and "The String" (18 minutes) should inspire much discussion.

Sunday, March 17—"The Coming of the Stranger", a parable of the institutions, the forms and materials of religion. (27 minutes).

The second special Lenten activity sponsored by the Emmitsburg Council of Churches is the traditional Wednesday evening services in the various Churches. The local Pastors have labeled the series, "Life in Christ: never hopeless, never lost". It is an attempt to relate Christ to the problems of our time.

The Southern Forest Products Institute reports that the forest industry planted a record 513 million new pine and hardwood seedlings in the South during 1972.

Fire Company Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Vigilant Hose Co. was held recently with President James Fitzgerald presiding and 36 members present. Secretary Patrick Zimmerman read the minutes of the last regular meeting, a special company meeting and two officers' meetings.

Chief Eugene Myers reported that the company had responded to eight alarms during the last month including five fire calls and three accidents. Treasurer Larry Little gave his report and announced the Fire Company would sponsor evenings of games on February 16 and March 16. Sterling White reported on the recent County Association meeting and advised that the County Association would hold its annual Banquet and Show on March 20 in Walkersville. Members may get tickets for the affair from Guy McLaughlin at Mac's Barber Shop, at a cost of $5.00 per ticket.

Charles Stouter, chairman of the Audit Committee, presented a copy of his committee's report for the company's records.

Chief Myers advised that due to the load condition of Squad-6, only two members are to ride in the rear when responding to any alarm.

The membership voted to accept the proposal from Service Supply Corp. of York, to furnish two Sonar Walkie Talkies with accessories and two channels on the fire company's radio frequency, for a cost of approximately $1160.

Members were reminded to watch for a notice on the bulletin board pertaining to applying for F-D series auto and truck tags which this year must be processed by the Maryland State Firemen's Association and through the fire company.

Guy McLaughlin reported the annual winter Oyster and Shrimp Feed, which was attended by 118 members and guests, was a success. The feed was the occasion for making the following presentations: Leo M. Boyle was presented a Past President's Badge for his services as president from January 1970 through December 1973. Guy R. McLaughlin was presented a Past Chief's Badge for his services as chief from January 1968 through December 1973. Certificates of Life Active Membership were presented to the following members: Allen Davis, Charles Hartdagen, John S. Hollinger, Paul Keplers, Guy McLaughlin, Charles Stouter and Sterling White.

As a token of the fire company's appreciation of their faithful service to the company and community, new certificates were also made available to the members who were previously elected to Honorary Membership and Life Social Membership.

The membership voted to send a letter to the Town Fathers endorsing the purchase of the old Emmitsburg School for use as a community hall. Also, to send letters to the State and County officials expressing the fire company's concern over the increasing number of bridges on County roads in this area which are either out or have very limited weight restrictions.

Mike Myers and Bob Seidel Jr. were appointed to obtain refreshments for the March meeting.

Fun Night Set

Plans have been finalized for the forthcoming Evening of Games to be sponsored by the Sodality of St. Joseph's Church in the Parish Hall at 8 p.m. on March 18. Many attractive prizes will be given and will have an appropriate theme for Easter. Refreshments will be on sale. The public is invited to attend and spend an enjoyable evening.

CYO Meet Tonight

There will be a meeting tonight (Thursday, Feb. 28), at 8 p.m. in St. Euphemia's Hall of the St. Joseph's Parish CYO officers, members and prospective members. The "welcome mat" is out to all interested youth. Father James Delaney will be Moderator of an active CYO.

Unique Basketball Game Scheduled

On Saturday, March 9 at 8 p.m., you'll probably see more outstanding basketball talent performing from the northern end of the county, on the Catoctin High School floor, than any time in its history. Twelve of the top ball players for C.H.S. and the old Emmitsburg and Thurmont High Schools will be exhibiting their skills against the Washington Redskins of the NFL.

Heading the list from EHS are Gene Eyer (64) and Harry Hahn (66), both of whom averaged 20 points per game in their senior year, plus making All County second team, with a high of 38 and 34 points. Gary Manning and George Baker, both '68 graduates of EHS, averaged 20 points and 15 points per game with a high game of 38 and 30, respectively. Gary was selected to the All County first team for his outstanding all around playing.

Lee Koontz, from CHS, provides the team with some much needed muscle under the boards against this big Redskin team. Named to the All County team in 1968-69, Lee scored 33 points in one game, plus the most points in one season. He's played some college ball for Hagerstown Junior and Bridgewater Colleges.

Ball-hawking Dave Swomley, another CHS graduate and a senior at Mount Saint Mary's College, will give the Alumni All-Stars defensive strength. Dave has been an exceptional soccer and track player at both Catoctin and the Mount.

Two very much underrated CHS stars, Eddie Gills and Charlie Gearhart, should make their presence felt. Eddie played four years of varsity ball with a high of 24 points. Charlie was on the All County second team in 1969 with an average of 15 points per game and a 28 point high game.

Playing, and, also coaching the All-Stars, will be Jim Weddle, one of the best guards ever to play at Thurmont High School. Hustling and ball-hawking are Jim's trademarks plus a great understanding of the game. At THS his high game was 31. He played two years at Hagerstown Junior and Frostburg Colleges. Jimmy's teammate, Larry "Pup" Brown, who helped the Mountainers to the district finals in 1966, will show his play-making ability against the Redskins. Both were on the All County team.

Two avid Redskin fans are brothers Bill and Steve Wildasin. Bill was on the THS county championship team in 1965 and 1966, plus All County first team both years. He averaged 15 points per game in his senior year. Steve played three years of varsity and was on the county championship team in 1967. In Steve's senior year, he averaged 18 points per game and made the All County second team.

The All-Stars have loads of talent, but the Redskins, with Jerry Smith, Brigg Owens, Charlie Taylor, Mike Bass, Roy Jefferson, and possibly Chris Hanburger and Larry Brown, just to mention a few, should provide plenty of competition. At 8 p.m. on March 9 at the CHS gym, there should be plenty of excitement for a very entertaining evening.

Senior Citizens Club To Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Emmitsburg Senior Citizens Club will be held in the Center on March 19, at 7:30 p.m. It will be in the nature of a bingo party. Each member is requested to bring a prize valued at between 50c and $1. Please get them to the Center before March 11, in order that they may be wrapped.

Perhaps the Travel Committee will have one of the jolly bus trips planned by this meeting.

LEGION TO MEET

Francis X. Elder Post 121, American Legion, will meet on Tuesday, March 5, in the Post Home, beginning at 8 p.m.

Mr. Eric Glass and family, of Emmitsburg, receive the keys to the Ski Doo snowmobile he won at the 3rd Annual Mint Julep Sleed Dog Races in Thurmont. Presenting the keys is George B. Gernand, president of the Catoctin Mountains Tourist Council. Mr. Mrak Frantz, Race Committee chairman, looks on.

WASHINGTON REPORT

FROM SENATOR J. GLENN BEALL JR.

Maryland Needs Gas

By now, anyone who drives a car in Maryland is fed up and fuming over the gasoline shortage in our state.

I think we all recognize that some shortages are going to be unavoidable so long as the Arab oil boycott continues. But thus far, the gasoline allocation to Maryland has been totally inadequate to meet the needs of our citizens.

The people are up in arms, the service station operators are exasperated, vital services are being affected, and serious dislocations are hitting all sectors of the economy. Clearly, something has to be done.

The immediate problem, of course, is to get more gas into Maryland, where we have been trying to cope with a 27 per cent decrease in our supply since last November. This compares to an average decrease of about 16 per cent for the entire United States.

Maryland received nearly 155 million gallons of gasoline in November, and now, just a few months later, the Federal Energy Office is trying to tell us to make do with 110 million gallons.

This allotment was derived from consumption in February, 1972. It gives no consideration to our state's rapid growth in the past two years, or in population shifts from one part of the state to another.

The FEO tried to make some adjustments in the past week, when a 2 per cent increase in Maryland's allocation was announced. But this was just a drop in the bucket when compared to the legitimate needs of our citizens.

I have responded to the FEO announcement by urging that an additional allocation be made to Maryland, and also calling for an early release of gasoline now being held for distribution in March. If relief does not come immediately, I fear that Maryland will literally grind to a halt for lack of fuel.

Aside from the February problem, which by no means has been a small one, there still is the question of what's in store for March and April. Granted, the FEO is a new agency, and there are going to be mistakes. What's important, however, is to recognize the problems and make adjustments where they are necessary—and the gasoline allocation formula is crying for help.

From my discussions with FEO officials, I expect to see some changes forthcoming. In the gas allocation formula for March, for example, I would expect to see a more recent (and therefore more realistic) time frame being used in determining the base period for allocations.

I would also hope to see the FEO take a stronger position on the redistribution of gasoline supplies from one part of the country to another. This is of critical importance here in the Northeast because of our greater dependence on oil shipments from the Midwest prior to the embargo.

Your Stake In A Strike

An exhaustive study of prices and wages, using official U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and other official data, shows clearly that the consumers of America—200 million citizens—pay at least a substantial part of all wage raises and fringe benefits obtained by organized labor from manufacturing and processing companies. Upon examining the data, many people would conclude that wage negotiations should not be carried on between employee representatives and management, but should be carried on between employee representatives and the consuming public; or at least through a three party negotiation with the consuming public being a third, equal-in-power party.

Last September the United Auto Workers union struck Chrysler Motors when initial demands for wage and fringe benefit increases were turned down. This was an announced strike to set new, higher compensation for the 800,000 workers employed by Chrysler, Ford, General Motors, and American Motors. In the end, as expected (because of the power to indefinitely halt production) the UAW got its increases.

Cost Of Product Goes Up

The public generally was apathetic to the whole thing, since it had become a commonplace (with approximately 6,000 strikes per year, involving raises for millions of workers). Then in December, the auto manufacturers announced price increases of from $150 to $400 on 1974 automobiles—thus passing the raises on to the public. The manufacturers could not do otherwise. Their production cost went up with the new UAW contract.

Perhaps few people are aware of the fact that the cost of labor represents about 80 per cent of the market price of most products in America. Raw materials, until transported, processed, fabricated, manufactured or assembled by workmen and their machine tools, represent perhaps one to three per cent of the selling price of the product. Yet in the face of an action costly to all who buy automobiles, the general public was apathetic as regards the Chrysler strike negotiations.

Let's Have Full Story

We have been suggesting to the Associated Press, the United Press International and other news media that details of all strike negotiations be reported, including the present earnings as well as the new demands. This is not being done. All the consuming public gets in most media is the percentage of dollars-and-cents "increase" in wages being demanded by employee representatives. In order for the public to assess the justice, reasonableness, and economic impact of the demands being negotiated, it is necessary that the current earnings of the striking workers be given. They are not given.

The data we've been studying gives a clear picture of the Chrysler strike negotiations. As an example of what we're talking about here—the public's stake in industry and business wage raises—here are the pertinent facts:

The average Chrysler (and other auto manufacturers') hourly wage earner last September was receiving about $1,000 a month in wages. The "fringe benefits" could be valued at about $250 a month additional. Chrysler employees were receiving 12 paid holidays, supplemental unemployment compensation boosting their layoff pay to nearly 90 per cent of work pay; company pensions running to $500 a month; paid insurance, hospitalization, death benefits, etc.

Negotiation Results

The settlement, which without the above facts, was virtually meaningless to the public, included a three year contract with wage raises of 23-to-35 cents an hour, additional cost of living escalator raises in the future; company pen-

Legion Auxiliary Plans March Activities

The regular monthly meeting of Francis X. Elder Unit 121, American Legion Auxiliary, was held recently with the 2nd Vice President, Betty Goulden, presiding, with ten members and two guests present.

The minutes of the previous were read, corrected and approved. The minutes neglected to state that the Unit had sent a $5.00 donation to the Heart Fund in memory of Lillian Airing's husband.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved. The two guests were then introduced. They were Dorothy Remsburg, Western Md. District President and a friend. The Department Bulletin was then read by the Secretary.

It was noted that May is poppy month. It was approved that the Treasurer order 300 poppies instead of 200 as has been the custom.

Donations were approved for the following: the Heart Fund and to the Lifelong Learning Council. Delegates to the Lifelong Learning Council will be Anna Bushman and Lois Hartdagen. The Stanley Party was again brought up. It was voted to have one some time in May on a Wednesday night. The open dates available are to be obtained from the Stanley Representative by the President.

It was brought up that March is the month the Auxiliary has a covered dish social on meeting night for the Post's birthday. Carmen Topper volunteered as chairman and will prepare the meat. It was decided to again have ham as the main course.

Carmen Topper, chairman of the Essay Contest, reported everything is progressing along okay. The Emmitsburg Public School has yet to submit theirs.

The Chaplain reported she had sent a planter to Jessie Knipple, our Unit President, flowers to Judy Larsen, two get-well cards and four sympathy cards.

It was noted that there will be a District Meeting on Mar. 24 at Cascade with luncheon starting at 1 p.m.

The District President then addressed the Auxiliary. She pointed out that a district report should be sent or taken to each District Meeting.

Doiores Ray was voted into the Auxiliary. The Unit has reacquired its membership quota with 105 paid up members to date.

Thank-you notes were read from the following members: Lillian Airing, Virginia McAnany, Viola Reimer and Madeline Garner.

The District President picked a member for the door prize. Margaret Montville's name was called but was not present. No refreshment committee was appointed due to the covered dish social.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 8:55 p.m. and the ladies joined the men of the Post for refreshments.

The General Accounting Office reports that trees representing about 6 million board feet of lumber—enough to build 600,000 homes—die each year from natural causes in the National Forests.

SEED AND TOOL BANKS PAY BIG DIVIDENDS

Your local newspaper and radio and T.V. station continually espouse the merits of your neighborhood savings bank with claims of highest interest rates and friendly service. But the banks that are really paying off these days are the seed and tools banks operated by Catholic Relief Services in underdeveloped countries around the world.

When it comes to farming, a combination of ingredients are essential if the earth is to yield its fullest abundance. Proper seeds, fertilizers, insecticides and irrigation methods, and, of course, the basic ingredient of hard work, all play an important role in producing a good harvest. Unfortunately, most of the poor farmers in the Third World can only supply one of these—hard work. This back-breaking effort can go for nought, however, if the other ingredients are lacking. What the poor farmer really needs is a helping hand, someone who can start him on the road to agricultural productivity. That's what CRS is doing through the establishment of seed banks in farming communities around the globe.

Here's the way a typical CRS seed bank works. The CRS Program Director in a given area arranges for the purchase of select, quality seeds, either locally, or, in many instances, if good seeds are not readily available, he will have them shipped in from neighboring countries or from the U.S.

Seeds are stored in silos from which area farmers, operating through local farm cooperatives and community groups, can draw upon at various planting times throughout the year. Usually, there is a stipulation that for every kilo a farmer receives he must return two kilos upon harvesting his crop. Among agriculturalists, this request is valid since, depending on the particular crop, a kilo of quality seeds will, at harvest time, multiply itself 15 to 25 times. CRS also furnishes the small farmers with proper fertilizers and offers technical assistance regarding irrigation methods.

Another great need among the poor of the Third World is for basic tools. For years, these people have been using rocks to drive nails as well as clearing whole forests with machetes and building entire roads with rudimentary picks and shovels.

Catholic Relief Services is attempting to remedy this situation and to make available to the poor in the underdeveloped nations, tools and construction materials so that they can build roads, bridges, and community institutions. Rotating "tool banks" have become a vital part of CRS development work. With CRS headquarters in New York purchasing tools in quantity, the lowest available cost can be realized. Tools are then shipped to CRS Program Directors around the world who make the necessary arrangements to loan them to local community groups. Stringent regulations to monitor this distribution and to protect tool banks from abuses are strictly adhered to by the borrowing groups. CRS tool banks have sparked the poor people in towns and villages in Africa, Asia and Latin America to work together for a common good—to build something that benefits everyone.

Seed and tool banks, sponsored by Catholic Relief Services, give the indigent people of the Third World an opportunity to accomplish something on their own, an opportunity to attain some semblance of human dignity. You can support this vital endeavor by contributing to this year's appeal of the American Catholic Overseas Aid Fund. Give what you can, at any Catholic Church, or send your tax-deductible donation to ACOAF, Empire State Building, New York, N.Y. 10001.

A 16th century means to improve the memory was to "partake of roast fowls, small birds or young hares for dinner, then apples or nuts for dessert."

FREDERICK COUNTY BACKGROUNDS

BY SAMUEL CARRICK
More About "Mountain View"
"Every thought needs something to make it seem complete: Friendly words for greeting, Smiles when loved ones meet, Waves to rock the water. Stars to stud the skies, Grasses for the meadows. Wings for butterflies. Roses for the garden. Honey for the bee. Sunshine for the summer— And the heart to see."

Again — an interruption in the data pertaining to the Eyster (Oyster-Eister) family, of Pennsylvania and Maryland, for additional notes regarding the town cemetery, known as the Mountain View. Lydia Krise was listed as number ten on the burial list of the late Millard F. Shuff — with interment in the Mountain View grounds.

As stated in last week's column, Miss Krise's grave is to be found in the enclosed Krise family burial plot, located at the top of the hill, on the left, as one enters the cemetery. The grave is marked. The inscription follows:

1. In memory of Lydia Krise, died February 6, 1895, aged 86 years, 5 months, and 11 days.

11. Mrs. Victor E. Rowe — died March 19, 1897 — aged 38 years.
Note: The first wife of Victor Rowe was, before her marriage, Virginia Columbus Fraley. The Rowe plot is located directly north of the Krise site and, at the present time, there are four graves thereon — as follows:
2. In memory of Virginia Volumbia Rowe, wife of Victor E. Rowe, born August 22, 1857, died March 19, 1897.
3. In memory of Alice Gertrude Rowe, daughter of Victor E. and Virginia C. Rowe, born April 5, 1891, died August 31, 1891.
4. Victor E. Rowe, born 1858, died 1946.
Within the past two years another daughter of Victor E. and Virginia Columbia (Fraley) Rowe was interred in this plot. Her grave is marked.
12. Michael Myers — died August 27, 1897 — aged 63 years.
Note: No tombstone listing for Michael Myers can be found either in the Holdcraft or MacPherson studies of Mountain View Cemetery. Either his grave was never marked or the stone has completely disappeared.
13. John Weygand — died August 30, 1897 — aged 74

Note: Apparently another unmarked grave at Mountain View for no listing can be found in recent studies. There could be the question of spelling—but there is nothing recorded under the letter "W" that resembles this surname.
14. Mrs. John L. Motter — died February 1, 1898 — aged 73 years.
Note: Helen Dunlap, the wife of John L. Motter, is interred beside her husband. There are only two graves on this lot. The inscriptions follow:
5. In memory of John L. Motter, died December 11, 1900. (No age given).
6. In memory of Helen Dunlap Motter, wife of John L. Motter, died February 1, 1898. (No age given).
15. Mrs. John Weygand, died July 28, 1898 — aged 77 years.
Note: No listing can be found for this woman, the wife of John Weygand, who died August 30, 1897. Less than a year separated the deaths. It is not known, at the present time, just where these graves are located.
16. Mrs. Jacob Hoke — died January 3, 1899 — aged 86 years.
Note: Mary E. Hoke, the wife of Jacob Hoke, is buried beside her husband at Mountain View. There are only two marked graves on this plot. The inscriptions follow:

7. In memory of Jacob Hoke, born January 21, 1848, died May 12, 1930.
8. In memory of Mary E. Hoke, wife of Jacob Hoke, born March 21, 1853, died January 3, 1899.
16. Philip Long — died May 25, 1899 — aged 73 years.
Note: No tombstone listing for Philip Long can be found either in the Holdcraft or MacPherson studies of Mountain View Cemetery.
17. Joshua Motter — died January 12, 1889 — aged 51 years.
Note: There are three marked graves on the Joshua Motter lot in Mountain View Cemetery. However, according to data contained in the "Chronicle", there is, at least one that is unmarked. The inscriptions follow:
9. In memory of Joshua S. Motter, born July 3, 1848, died June 12, 1899.
10. In memory of Leathy A. (Stokes) Motter, wife of Joshua S. Motter, born November 2, 1855, died October 28, 1939.
11. In memory of Charlotte Motter, daughter of Joshua S. and Leathy A. Motter, born February 11, 1895, died May 2, 1948.
The unmarked grave in this lot is that of Jeanette Motter, another daughter of Joshua S. and Leathy (Stokes) Motter, who died of lockjaw in 1889.
These notes will be continued in this series next week.

BUSINESS AND THE STOCK MARKET

Current Views Of Organized Labor

By Babson's Reports Inc., Wellesley Hills, Mass., February 28, 1974 — There were relatively few changes in the attitudes of labor leaders revealed at the winter session of the Executive Council of the AFL-CIO held at Bal Harbour, Florida. The Federation continued to recommend an impeachment trial for President Nixon as "the only way the American people can get at the truth." A pro-impeachment resolution was passed with only one member out of the 32 dissenting. The stand-out, as was the case at last fall's convention, was Paul Hall, president of the Seafarers International Union.

AFL-CIO chief executive George Meany, long a bitter opponent of President Nixon, was obviously piqued by Vice President Ford's recent accusation that the Federation had sought to drag out the Watergate investigations. Mr. Meany retorted caustically that the Federation had not hired new lawyers at the White House or tape experts good at erasing tapes. Nor, said he, was the AFL-CIO responsible for the White House plumbers' unit; "we have enough trouble with our own plumbers" (Meany came up through the plumbers' union in New York City).

Meany's Meeting With Wallace

Always a fine source of material for newsmen, Mr. Meany did not hesitate to describe his first and only meeting with another enemy, Governor George Wallace of Alabama. The southern politician, called a racist by Meany in the past, requested a discussion with the labor official — and this was recently granted. Meany claimed that the subject of politics as such was avoided, and when asked by a newsman if he still considered Wallace a racist, he said he felt that the southerner had mellowed. The conversation, according to him, was almost exclusively on such subjects as taxes, pensions, and social security. Many observers, however, even in the union field, did not think Meany's session with Wallace was without political import. It is well known that the AFL-CIO, which supported neither Nixon nor McGovern in the latest presidential elections, is trying to regain the traditional support it has always had from the Democratic party. The meeting with Wallace could well have been a step in this direction. Recession Already Here

Among many other issues commented on by Meany was the condition of the nation's economy, which he found highly unsatisfactory. According to his book, we have already reached the recession stage, since it is a "recession when your neighbor is out of work" and a "depression when you are out of work" yourself. It is evident that the Federation official does not look for an early resumption of the long-term business boom that has been recently interrupted. He does foresee far greater unemployment this year than does the government: Joblessness, he thinks, will rise above 6%, perhaps to 6.5%. This is close to the prediction made at the year's end by the Research Department of Babson's Reports: 6%-7%.

Meany told the news media that he did not anticipate any explosion of wage demands during the present year. When pressed on this matter, he pointed out that labor leaders today do not have "suicidal" tendencies. If they have to make up their minds between a dollar less in an agreement and a prolonged strike, they often decide it is better for the workers in the long run to take a dollar less.

Pro-Labor Congress Wanted

It is the opinion of the Research Department of Babson's Reports that most labor authorities will concentrate on the upcoming elections between now and November. Unionists, generally, are riding on high hopes that pro-labor forces can make excellent gains in Congress. They fasten their optimism on the ravages made by the Watergate scandals on the country's conservatives, with particular glee over the Democratic replacement in the opening left by Vice President Ford in the House. Also, union officials are keenly aware of the fact that the "ins" traditionally do rather badly at mid-presidential-term elections.

Perspectives In Learning

By Hazel Brown, President Harry Lundeberg School A Second Chance Brings Results

There are many successful individuals in our society who never sat in a high school classroom. Some of these people are graduates of colleges, universities, trade schools and vocational programs.

How did they accomplish this without attending high school classes?

The GED or high school equivalency testing program provided an alternate route to achievement and success for these dedicated and hard-working individuals.

"The Non-High-School-Graduate Adult in College and His Success as Predicted by the Tests of the GED" is a study done by the Educational Testing Service. The final report from this study reveals that giving dropouts a second chance is a very worthwhile venture which should be promoted and expanded as an alternative to meeting minimal education requirements.

The GED students who enrolled in colleges scored only slightly lower than the students with traditional high school backgrounds, but 72 per cent of them remained in college during the period surveyed.

The conclusions of the study suggest that high school dropouts who make satisfactory GED scores are likely to earn college grades comparable to those earned by high school graduates who enroll in college.

The GED students were usually older than the traditional students and had more conservative attitudes toward academic and social issues. They took their education seriously. It would appear that the GED students appreciated the second chance for the education they had missed and were very eager to meet success in their new educational experience.

by taking the GED as a means of opening the doors to a formal education. The statistics indicate that getting a second chance can bring satisfying results.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
The object of this Bill of Complaint is to procure a divorce A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the Defendant, Nanci Caroline Sheldon.

The Bill recites that the Complainant, Donald Frederick Sheldon, is a resident of Frederick County, State of Maryland, where he has resided for more than one year last past; that the Defendant, Nanci Caroline Sheldon, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and when last heard from was a resident at 5861 Mission Street, San Francisco, California; that the parties to this cause were married on the 8th day of June, 1968, by a regularly ordained Minister of the Gospel; that as a result of the said marriage no children were born; that the parties to this cause have voluntarily lived separate and apart without any cohabitation for more than three (3) years prior to the filing of this Bill of Complaint, and that the separation between the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

The Bill then prays that the Complainant, Donald Frederick Sheldon, be divorced A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the Defendant Nanci Caroline Sheldon, and for such other and further relief as the nature of his case may require.

ORDER OF COURT

It is thereupon this 4th day of February, 1974, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland, sitting as a Court of Equity, ORDERED that the Complainant give notice to the Defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the County of Frederick, once each week for four successive weeks prior to the 9th day of March, 1974, commanding her to be and appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 9th day of April, 1974, and show cause, if any, why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

FIRE SAFETY COLUMN

(A message from the Frederick County Fire Prevention Committee). Means Of Escape From Your Home Study, in advance of the fire, all possible means of escape from the dwelling or apartment, especially from the bedrooms. If possible, plan two means of escape in the event one is made impassible by the fire. Upon discovery of a fire, get your family out of the building immediately. Don't try to dress, or to save valuable possessions. If in a large apartment building, don't wait for an elevator; walking down the stairs may be much quicker and surer. If there is a second stairway in the building, make sure that you know how to reach it. Don't forget the fire escape.

In an apartment keep the door to the corridor closed at all times at night, be sure that the transom is closed. Keep bedroom doors also closed, so far as it is practicable. Otherwise, a fire in some other area of the building may result in asphyxiation while you sleep.

'The Proposition' To Be Presented

An unusual evening of entertainment sparked by audience participation is in store for those who attend "The Proposition," a musical revue presented at Mount Saint Mary's College on Tuesday, March 5, at 8 p.m. in Flynn Hall.

One of New York's longest running off-Broadway shows, "The Proposition" is an original, improvised revue created completely and spontaneously from audience suggestions. Young professionals create fast and funny musical parodies of modern manners, sex, sports, politics, religion—you name it.

Their format is to draw suggestions from the audience. "Name three contrasting places and one topic," they might ask and on that basis sum up, for instance, what Iowa, Tennessee and New York think of Gay Liberation. Or they might give you an impression of whatever activity the audience mentions as portrayed in English, Italian, French, Japanese and Swedish movies.

A comedy of modern life, the show in the past has taken a look at such contemporary rituals as the television talk show, the musical comedy, the pickup, the rock festival, the opera, the foreign film festival, the political rally and the traditional drama. Their humorous portraits of American life are recommended as "fast, impudent and very funny."

The longest running show in Greater Boston, "The Proposition" has been honored by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the cities of Cambridge and Boston, and the New England Theatre Conference. It appears at the Mount under the auspices of the Cultural Events Committee and is free and open to the public.

Tree growth must be increased on both private and public forest lands to meet a rising demand for wood products that is expected to double by the end of the century.

Right To Life

To Have Speaker Thomas Mooney, National Director of the National Youth Pro Life Coalition, will be the guest speaker at the Frederick County Chapter of the Maryland Right To Life's meeting to be held on March 4 at 7 p.m. at Seton Center in Emmitsburg.

The topic of Mr. Mooney's speech will deal with the aims of the National Youth Pro Life Coalition. The NYPLC is a national, non-sectarian student organization which was founded to foster, enhance and protect each and every human life regardless of background, national origin, developmental state or "social wantendness." With membership throughout the United States, the UYPLC began as a counterthrust to the growing anti-life mentality in this country. The present involvement of the UYPLC is aimed at alerting the American public to the destructive and simplistic solution of human abortion.

The meeting is open to all interested citizens of the area, particularly the students of the county high schools and colleges.

It is the hope of Maryland Right to Life members that a local youth pro life group will be formed as a result of this meeting.

Alert Issued

The Potomac Edison Company has issued an alert that a man is operating in this area impersonating electric company employees in an attempt to gain entrance to homes, allegedly to inspect wiring.

G. P. Bohn, Division Manager for PE, pointed out that all Potomac Edison employees carry special identification cards. Any person approached should insist on identification and if there is any question in their mind, should check further with Potomac Edison or local police officials.

Church Women Sponsor Project Day

Local Church women are asked to circle Tuesday, Mar. 5 on the calendar. This is the date that women from each of the local congregations meet at the Fellowship Hall of Incarnation United Church of Christ to prepare bandages for the American Cancer Society.

In addition to making the usual projects for the Cancer Society, the group will embark on a new project on Tuesday. Especially needed are plastic laundry bags... the kind that come from the dry cleaners following cleaning. Also needed are old white sheets. Persons are asked to assist in these projects by collecting these needed items which will be used in assembling bedpads.

All Church women are invited to come and spend the afternoon in giving their help in making these items that are desperately needed by the ill and shut-in patients.

At the February Project Day, it was noted that 20 persons, representing all of the local congregations, were present and worked for two hours. The fruits of their labors were packed and delivered to the American Cancer Society office in Gettysburg.

County Chairman Chosen For Easter Seal Campaign

Tommy Eichelberger has been named the 1974 Frederick County Easter Seal Campaign Chairman. As Chairman, Eichelberger will lead, select local and county volunteers in the society's annual appeal for funds beginning March 1 and lasting through Easter.

A well known resident of Frederick and a graduate of Frederick High School, Eichelberger is Register of Wills for Frederick County. Tommy has always been active in youth, civic and organizational affairs. Eichelberger was the primary fund raiser for "Pop Warner Football," now known as Midget League Football, consisting of 7 teams. Eichelberger also solicited and acquired materials and funds for the building and dugouts for the American Little League Park, of which he managed the Elks team for a number of years. He is Vice President of the Independent Hose Co., member of the Board of Directors of the Frederick Falcons, Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Charter Member of Suburban Kiwanis Club of Frederick.

The Easter Seal Society is a voluntary agency serving disabled persons and their families. Its role is to provide leadership in marshalling broad public support to meet needs, to find new methods, to develop skills, to broaden and to deepen knowledge and disseminate such knowledge, skills and methods so as to make them available to all. To meet this need, the Society believes that services should be provided to disabled persons which will help them attain maximum physical improvement and emotional maturity, and to secure education, training, and employment opportunities consistent with their abilities.

Heart Attack And Stroke Information

A heart attack is often described as "sudden." Yet, there are no sudden heart attacks—only those that seem to happen suddenly.

A stroke is referred to medically as a "cerebrovascular accident." It's not an accident in human terms. Underlying causes build over the years.

Both have their roots in basic risk factors: high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol and excess cigaret smoking. Others include heredity, a lack of exercise, a diet high in saturated fats and cholesterol, and obesity.

"Some risk factors can be avoided by an alteration of lifestyle," says Dr. A. Austin Pearre, Jr., president of the Frederick County Medical Association. "Other can be minimized by an awareness of them. But, equally important, we should know and heed the early warning signs that often precede a heart attack or stroke."

Dr. Pearre listed the warning signs, published in literature and other material supplied as a result of Heart Fund contributions. They are: Heart Attack: Prolonged, oppressive pain or unusual discomfort in the center of the chest, behind the breastbone; pain may radiate to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw; pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating; nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath. Sometimes these symptoms subside and then return.

Stroke: Sudden temporary weakness or numbness of the face, arm or leg; temporary difficulty or loss of speech, or trouble understanding speech; temporary dimness or loss of vision, particularly in one eye; an episode of double vision; unexplained dizziness or unsteadiness; changes in personality, mental ability or the pattern of headaches.

"As the warning signs indicate," Dr. Pearre says, "heart attack is never sudden, stroke is never an accident. By being aware of these warning signs, and by seeking immediate medical help when they occur, you literally can save your own life."

"The goal of the American Heart Association is to save your heart," Dr. Pearre adds. "When Heart volunteers call at your home during February—American Heart Month—they'll give you information on the warning signs of heart attack and stroke. Give generously to the Heart Fund."
